2 Amount of education expenses tax offset

3 61-650 Amount of education expenses tax offset

4 (1) The amount of your *tax offset for an income year (the current 5 year) is the amount (rounded up to the nearest whole dollar) that is 6 the lesser of:

- 7 (a) one half of the sum of:
- 8 (i) all of the expenses covered for you by section 61-640
  - 9 for the current year; and
  - 10 (ii) your expenses covered by section 61-680 (about excess
  - 11 education expenses) for the income year ending
  - 12 immediately before the current year; and
- 13 (b) your offset limit under section 61-660 for the current year.

14 Effect of shared care arrangements

- 15 (2) If:
- 16 (a) on a particular day, you and your partner (within the meaning
  - 17 of the Social Security Act 1991) (your partner) satisfy
  - 18 subsection 61-620(1) for an individual; and
  - 19 (b) a determination has been made under section 28 or 29 of the
  - 20 A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999 of your
  - 21 percentage, and of your partner's percentage, of the family
  - 22 tax benefit for the individual for a period that includes that
  - 23 day; and
  - 24 (c) an expense covered for you by section 61-640 was incurred
  - 25 on that day;
- 26 for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(a)(i) you and your partner
- 27 may each count only a portion of the expense corresponding to
- 28 your percentage.

29 (3) If:

- 1 (a) on a particular day, you are a member of a couple (within the 2 meaning of the Social Security Act 1991); and
3 (b) both you and your partner (within the meaning of that Act)
4 (your partner) satisfy subsection 61-620(2) or (4) for one or 5 more individuals on that day; and
6 (c) an expense covered for you by section 61-640 was incurred
7 on that day;
8 for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(a)(i) the expense only counts
9 as follows:
10 (d) if you and your partner have made a written agreement
11 nominating one of you as the member who can claim the 12 offset under this Subdivision in respect of the individual or 13 individuals for a period including that day:
14 (i) the nominated member may count the whole of each 15 expense covered for you by section 61-640 incurred on 16 that day; and 17 (ii) the other member must not count any of the expense; or 18 (e) if paragraph (d) does not apply—you and your partner may 19 each count only half of the expense.

20 61-660 Education expenses tax offset limit

- 21 (1) Your offset limit is:
22 (a) if you satisfy paragraphs 61-610(1)(a), (b) and (c) for one or 23 more individuals in the current year—the sum of the amounts 24 worked out under the method statement for each such 25 individual; and
26 (b) if you are an independent student covered by subsection 27 61-610(2)—the amount worked out for yourself under the 28 method statement.

29 Method statement

30 Step 1. Start with this amount:

- 31 (a) for an individual who satisfies the schooling 32 requirement in subsection 61-630(4) (for 33 secondary school students) on a day in the current 34 year—$750; or

(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual satisfies the schooling requirement in subsection 61-630(2) (for primary school students) on a day in the current year—$375.

Note: The effect of step 1 is that the secondary school student starting amount applies for the whole year where an individual completes primary school in the first half of the financial year and starts secondary school in the second half of the financial year.

Step 2. Add up the number of days in the current year on which:

(a) paragraphs 61-610(1)(a) and (b) are satisfied for you and the individual; or

Note: There are modifications to step 2(a) in section 61-670.

(b) if you are an independent student covered by subsection 61-610(2)—paragraphs 61-610(2)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) apply to you.

Step 3. Divide the result of step 2 by the number of days in the current year. Round the result to 2 decimal places (rounding up if the third decimal place is 5 or more).

Step 4. Multiply the result from step 1 by the result from step 3.

(2) The amounts specified in step 1 of the method statement in subsection (1) are indexed annually.

Note: Subdivision 960-M shows you how to index amounts.

61-670 Shared care

(1) This section modifies the operation of step 2 of the method statement in subsection 61-660(1).

Modification for shared care determinations

(2) If:

(a) on a particular day, you satisfy subsection 61-620(1) for an individual; and

(b) a determination has been made under section 28 or 29 of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999 of your

1 percentage of the family tax benefit for the individual for a 2 period that includes that day; and
3 (c) step 2 applies to that day;
4 only a portion of that day corresponding to that percentage may be 5 counted for the purposes of step 2.

6 (3) If:
7 (a) on a particular day, you satisfy subsection 61-620(1) for an 8 individual; and
9 (b) you have a shared care percentage under section 59 of the A 10 New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999 for the 11 individual for a period that includes that day; and 12 (c) step 2 (including that step as affected by subsection (2))
13 applies to that day;
14 only a portion of that day (or only a portion of the portion referred 15 to in subsection (2)) corresponding to the shared care percentage 16 may be counted for the purposes of step 2 (or that step as affected 17 by subsection (2)).

18 Modification for members of a couple

19 (4) If:
20 (a) on a particular day, you are a member of a couple (within the 21 meaning of the Social Security Act 1991); and
22 (b) both you and your partner (within the meaning of that Act)
23 (your partner) satisfy subsection 61-620(2) or (4) for one or 24 more individuals on that day; and
25 (c) step 2 applies to that day;
26 for the purposes of step 2 the day only counts as follows:
27 (d) if you and your partner have made a written agreement
28 nominating one of you as the member who can claim the 29 offset under this Subdivision in respect of the individual or 30 individuals for that period:
31 (i) the nominated member may, subject to subsection (5), 32 count the whole of each day in the period for each such 33 individual; and
34 (ii) the other member must not count any days in the period 35 for each such individual; or 36 (e) if paragraph (d) does not apply—only half of each day in the 37 period may, subject to subsection (5), be counted.

Modification for individuals not members of a couple

- 1
- 2 (5) If you and one or more other entities (other than your partner
3 (within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991)) each satisfy 4 subsection 61-620(2) or (4) for an individual on a day, you may 5 only count for the purposes of step 2 (or that step as affected by 6 subsection (4)) a portion of that day that is reasonable having 7 regard to:
8 (a) the objects of this subsection; and 9 (b) the living arrangements of the individual.
- 10 (6) The objects of subsection (5) are:
11 (a) to determine the extent to which the individual was in your 12 care on a day; and 13 (b) to prevent double counting in distributing the tax offset under 14 this Subdivision between you and others who share the care
15 of the individual.

16 61-680 Excess education expenses

- 17 (1) You have an amount covered by this section from an income year 18 if the amount worked out under paragraph 61-650(1)(a) for the 19 year exceeds your offset limit for the year under section 61-660.
- 20 (2) The amount that is covered by this section is the lesser of: 21 (a) all of the expenses covered for you by section 61-640 for the 22 year that can be counted for the purposes of subparagraph 23 61-650(1)(a)(i); and 24 (b) twice the amount of the excess.

25 Note: The excess is worked out by comparing half of the education expenses 26 to the offset limit (see section 61-650). Paragraph (b) doubles any 27 excess so that the excess expenses have their original value and can be 28 counted in full the next year.

29 Example: A family with one child in full-time secondary schooling has incurred 30 education expenses of $2,000 in an income year. Under 31 section 61-650, these expenses are halved ($1,000) and then compared 32 to the offset limit ($750). The excess of $250 is doubled under 33 subsection (2) to restore it to the original expense amount. In the next 34 year, the family can count this $500 of expenses towards the offset.
