3. Section eleven of the Principal Act is amended by inserting Registries.
after sub-section (2.) the following sub-section:—
- “(2A.) There shall also be a Registry of the High Court in the Territory for the Seat of Government, and that Registry shall be a District Registry until the principal seat of the High Court is at the Seat of Government.”
4. After section thirty A of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—
- “30B.—(1.) The High Court shall have, in relation to the Original jurisdiction of High Court in territorial matters.
Territory for the Seat of Government—
- (a) the same original jurisdiction, both civil and criminal, as immediately before the first day of January One thousand nine hundred and eleven the Supreme Court of the State of New South Wales had in relation to that State; and
- (b) such original jurisdiction, both civil and criminal, as is from time to time vested in the High Court by Ordinances made by the Governor-General.
- “(2.) The jurisdiction vested in the High Court by this section shall be exercised in accordance with the practice, procedure and powers of the High Court, and with Rules of Court made in that behalf.
