(e) he is recommended by the Military Board; and

(f) he is approved by the Minister:

Provided that the Minister may, in special circumstances, direct that a candidate over the age of twenty-five years shall be eligible for admission.

6.—(1.) Every application by a Commonwealth candidate for admission as a student shall be submitted on such form as is authorized by the Military Board.

Method of application (Commonwealth candidates).

(2.) A Commonwealth candidate for service entry shall submit his application for admission as a student to his commanding officer, who shall forward it, together with his recommendation and a confidential report on the candidate, to the District Base Commandant for transmission to the Selection Board.

7.—(1.) A Commonwealth candidate shall submit with his application for admission as a student—

Documents to be furnished by Commonwealth candidates.

(a) a copy of the entry of registration of his birth certified by the proper official, if reasonably procurable, or, if not reasonably procurable, such other evidence of his parentage and place and date of birth as the Selection Board, or, in the case of a candidate for admission by way of special entry, the Military Board, deems satisfactory; and

- (b) if the candidate is under the age of twenty-one years, a request and undertaking in accordance with the form contained in the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations, signed by the parent or guardian of the candidate, or a statutory declaration of facts which prevent the submission of such a request and undertaking.

(2.) An application by a Commonwealth candidate under the age of twenty-one years which is not accompanied by the request and undertaking mentioned in sub-regulation (1.) of this regulation shall not be entertained unless the Minister dispenses with such request and undertaking.

(3.) In addition to the documents required by sub-regulation (1.) of this regulation—

- (a) a Commonwealth candidate who belonged to a class of whom service was, or belongs to a class of whom service is, being demanded under Part XII. of the Defence Act, shall submit with his application for admission as a student a certificate by his Formation, &c., Commander that the candidate has rendered the service demanded of him or has been exempted therefrom; and
- (b) a Commonwealth candidate who is an applicant for a vacancy reserved in accordance with sub-regulation (2.) of regulation 8 of these Regulations shall submit with his application for admission as a student a certificate that a parent of the applicant has been on such active service as is specified in that sub-regulation.

(4.) The certificate of the performance of active service required by sub-regulation (3.) of this regulation shall be signed by the parent by whom the active service was performed, if available, or if not available, by some person having knowledge of the fact, and should state the unit in which, and the place at which, and the time during which, the active service was performed, and should be accompanied by such corroborative documentary evidence as is available.

8.—(1.) The number of vacancies for Commonwealth candidates for normal entry, service entry and special entry, respectively, shall be published annually in the Gazette. Selection of Commonwealth candidates.

(2.) One-fifth of the vacancies allotted annually for Commonwealth candidates for normal entry shall be reserved for the sons of persons who have been on active service abroad in the Royal Australian Navy, or in an expeditionary force raised by the Commonwealth:

Provided that—

- (a) a candidate shall not be admitted unless he satisfies the requirements prescribed by sub-regulation (1.) of regulation 5 of these Regulations;
- (b) if in any year the number of candidates who are eligible under this sub-regulation is less than the number of reserved vacancies, the reserved vacancies remaining unfilled shall be allotted to other qualified candidates; and
- (c) where a candidate for a reserved vacancy under this sub-regulation is not selected for such a vacancy, he shall be eligible for selection for one of the other vacancies.

(3.) The Military Board shall appoint a Selection Board consisting of three officers which shall, except as provided in sub-regulation (5.) of this regulation, interview Commonwealth candidates who—

- (a) in the case of candidates for normal entry, have been found medically fit in accordance with such standard as is approved by the Military Board and have either qualified at a prescribed examination or were candidates at or are candidates for the prescribed examination immediately preceding the next pending date of entry to the College; or
- (b) in the case of candidates for service entry, have qualified at the examination specified in the Third Schedule to these Regulations.

(4.) The Selection Board shall sit at such places as are determined by the Military Board.

(5.) In the case of candidates for normal entry the Military Board may appoint a provisional committee in any State or Territory which is not included in the itinerary of the Selection Board for the purpose of interviewing candidates in that State or Territory and making a recommendation to the Military Board as to the suitability or otherwise of each candidate to appear before the Selection Board. The Military Board shall then determine whether or not the candidate shall be interviewed by the Selection Board.

(6.) The Selection Board shall present to the Chief of the General Staff for submission to the Minister the names of candidates for normal entry, arranged in order of merit, whom the Board recommends for admission as students. In determining the order of merit the Board shall take into consideration results obtained at prescribed examinations, records and certificates submitted by schoolmasters or by the candidates, and the personal qualities revealed at the interviews. Subject to the provisions of sub-regulations (1.) and (2.) of this regulation, the Minister may approve of the admission of the selected candidates.

(7.) The Selection Board shall present to the Chief of the General Staff the names of candidates for service entry, arranged in order of merit, together with a report in each case as to whether or not the Board recommends the candidate's admission as a student. In determining the order of merit, the Board shall take into consideration the marks obtained by candidates at the prescribed examination, the confidential reports on the candidates by their commanding officers, records and certificates submitted by schoolmasters or by the candidates and the personal qualities of the candidates revealed at the interviews. The Chief of General Staff shall forward to the Minister, for submission to the Governor-General, the report and recommendations of the Board together with any remarks or recommendations he deems fit.

9. The names of Commonwealth candidates who are selected for admission as students (shown in three lists—normal entry, service entry and special entry, respectively, and arranged in each case in order of merit) shall be published in the Gazette. Notification

(3.) All or any one or more of the punishments specified in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of sub-regulation (1.) or in sub-regulation (2.) of this regulation, as the case may be, may be inflicted in respect of any one offence.

(4.) When a case is referred to the Commandant by the officer commanding the Corps of Staff Cadets the Commandant may—

- (a) dispose of the case summarily;
- (b) direct that the case be disposed of summarily by the officer commanding the Corps of Staff Cadets; or
- (c) adjourn the case for the purpose of having the evidence reduced to writing.

(5.) The procedure on the hearing of a charge by the Commandant shall be the same as if he were a commanding officer.

37. The officer commanding the Corps of Staff Cadets may, with the approval of the Commandant, delegate power—

- (a) to members of the Instructional Staff to inflict, to the extent delegated, all or any of the punishments specified in paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) of sub-regulation (2.) of regulation 36 of these Regulations; and
- (b) to warrant or non-commissioned officers of the Corps of Staff Cadets to inflict, when no officer, professor or lecturer is present, and to the extent delegated, the punishments specified in paragraphs (g) and (h) of sub-regulation (2.) of regulation 36 of these Regulations, or either of them.

Delegation of power to inflict punishment.

38.—(1.) The authority having power to award punishment under regulation 36 or 37 of these Regulations shall not ask a cadet whether he desires to be dealt with summarily or to be tried by a district court-martial, and no cadet shall be entitled to elect under section 46 of the Army Act (whether applying by virtue of the Defence Act or of the Australian Military Regulations) to be tried by a district court-martial.

Modification of Australian Military Regulations and Army Act.

(2.) Regulations 256, 260 and 262 of the Australian Military Regulations and so much of section 46 of the Army Act as authorizes punishments not authorized by regulation 36 of these Regulations, shall not apply to cadets, and the said section 46 and all other provisions of the Army Act (whether applying by virtue of the Defence Act or of the Australian Military Regulations) shall, for the purpose of their application to cadets, be read with such modifications (if any) as may be necessary to make them consistent with these Regulations.

39.—(1.) A person residing or performing duty at, or being in any way connected with the administration of the College, shall not receive for his own benefit or the benefit of any other person, any payment, reward, gift, or loan, from a cadet or from a relation or friend of a cadet.

Presentations forbidden.

(2.) A cadet shall not offer any payment, gift, or loan, to a person residing or performing duty at, or being in any way connected with the administration of the College, or to a near relation of such a person.

42. During a College term a cadet shall not enter, without the written permission of the Commandant, or of an officer authorized in that behalf by the Commandant, any place (whether public or private) where intoxicating liquor is sold or supplied in consideration of a payment, or any place of public entertainment.

Entering of place of entertainment forbidden.

43. A cadet shall not, while at the College, conduct or take part in any gambling, lottery or raffle. Gambling forbidden.

PART IX.—LEAVE.

44. The Commandant may grant leave — Leave.

- (a) to any person on the establishment of the College at such times as, in the opinion of the Commandant, the good of the service will permit;
- (b) to members of the Staff of the College, whose services can, in the opinion of the Commandant, be spared, during any period in which academic studies are suspended; and
- (c) to cadets between terms.

PART X.—ALLOWANCES AND CONTRIBUTIONS.

45. Fees shall not be charged for the equipment, instruction, or maintenance of cadets. Fees.

46.—(1.) The following expenses and allowances shall be credited to the account of each cadet admitted by way of normal entry or service entry:— Allowances.

(a) Travelling Allowance—

- (i) on joining the College, whilst travelling within the Commonwealth between the residence of the parent, guardian, or other person with whom the candidate was residing, and the College; and

(ii) while travelling on duty, at the rate of 6s. per day, or, when sleeping accommodation is not provided, the actual expenses incurred in such travelling;

(b) Outfit allowance—£30 on joining;

(c) Maintenance allowance of 5s. 6d. per day:

Provided that the Minister may approve of the allowance being increased to an amount not exceeding 7s. 6d. per day in respect of any College year in which an allowance of 5s. 6d. per day is, in his opinion, insufficient to cover the expenses specified in sub-regulation (3.) of this regulation.

(2.) The following expenses and allowances shall be credited to the account of each cadet admitted by way of special entry:—

(a) Travelling allowance—

- (i) on joining the College, whilst travelling within the Commonwealth between his residence and the College, and

(ii) while travelling on duty, at the rate of 6s. per day, or, when sleeping accommodation is not provided, the actual expenses incurred in such travelling;

(b) Outfit allowance—£30 on joining;

(c) An annual allowance of £262.

(3.) The cost of uniform and clothing, books, instruments, messing, washing and such other expenses as the Commandant determines shall be a charge against a cadet's account.

(4.) A cadet admitted by way of special entry may draw from time to time from his account such amounts for his personal expenses as are approved by the Commandant.

(5.) Any sum expended by a parent, guardian, or other person, for travelling expenses of a Commonwealth candidate on joining the College, may be paid to that parent, guardian, or other person, or, with the approval of that parent, guardian, or other person, may be credited to the cadet's account or pocket money account.

(6.) The cost of any dental or medical operation, or of attendance on a cadet by a civil dental or medical practitioner while the cadet is absent from the College on leave or sick leave, shall not, without the prior approval of the Military Board, be made a charge against the cadet's account or against the Commonwealth.

47.—(1.) The account of each cadet admitted by way of normal entry or service entry shall be adjusted at the end of each quarter ending on the 31st day of March, the 30th day of June, the 30th day of September, and the 31st day of December, respectively: Adjustment of accounts.

Provided that the Commandant may authorize the first adjustment of a cadet's account to be deferred until the commencement of the Autumn Term in the year next after that in which the cadet joins.

(2.) A cadet, on discharge or graduation, shall be paid an amount equal to the balance then standing to the credit of his account:

Provided that—

- (i) where a cadet admitted by way of normal entry or service entry is expelled, removed or permitted to resign during his first year as a student, the amount of the unexpended portion of his outfit allowance, as determined by the Commandant, may be deducted from the balance standing to his credit; and
- (ii) where a cadet admitted by way of special entry is expelled, removed or permitted to resign, there shall be deducted from the balance standing to his credit, in respect of each day of the College year subsequent to the date of his discharge from the Corps of Staff Cadets, one three hundred and sixty-fifth of the amount credited to his account for that year.

48. The maintenance allowance of a cadet who is absent from the College shall be credited to his account in respect of the period of his absence: Maintenance allowance of a cadet who is absent.

Provided that—

- (i) where a cadet is removed for physical unfitness while on sick leave, or on the termination of sick leave, maintenance allowance for the period of such sick leave shall not be credited;
- (ii) where a cadet, owing to absence (whether due to sick leave or other cause) is not advanced to a higher class, maintenance allowance for the period of such absence shall not be credited;

- (iii) where a cadet dies or resigns while on leave or sick leave, maintenance allowance for the period of such leave or sick leave shall not be credited;
- (iv) where a cadet, owing to sickness, is absent after the termination of his leave, maintenance allowance for the period of such absence shall not be credited;
- (v) where a cadet has been admitted to hospital at Commonwealth expense, an amount, equal to the cost of the charge for messing and service had the cadet been resident at the College, may, at the discretion of the Commandant, be made a charge against the cadet's account and credited to the College vote;
- (vi) the maintenance allowance of a cadet who is absent without leave may, by order of the Commandant, be stopped for the period of such absence; and
- (vii) where a cadet is in receipt of pay by virtue of the grant of a provisional commission under regulation 54 of these Regulations, maintenance allowance shall not be credited.

49.—(1.) Warrants for first class fares on coastal steamers and on railways may be issued at Commonwealth expense to cadets for use— Travelling warrants.

- (a) when joining the College;
- (b) when travelling on duty;
- (c) when travelling to and from their homes on leave between the Spring and Autumn Terms;
- (d) when travelling on sick leave with the approval of the Commandant; or
- (e) when travelling to their homes after graduation.

(2.) The Commandant may authorize the issue of warrants for sleeping berths on railways when, in his opinion, such issue is necessary.

(3.) A warrant issued to a cadet, who is travelling to his home after having been expelled, removed, or permitted to resign, shall be charged to the cadet's account.

50. A cadet shall not, except with the Commandant's permission, receive from his parent, guardian, or other person, any money or other supply. Presents forbidden.

51. The Commandant may require cadets to contribute to sports funds and such contributions shall be a charge against their accounts. Sports funds.

52. The Commandant may charge to the account of a cadet an amount (not exceeding £5) in respect of any expense to the Commonwealth caused by that cadet, or any loss of, or damage or destruction done by that cadet to, any arms, ammunition, equipment, clothing, instruments, regimental necessaries, or any building or other property belonging to the Commonwealth. Loss, damages, &c.

PART XI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

53. The Commandant shall, in February of each year, send through the Military Board the report required by section 147 of the Act. Annual Report.

54.—(1.) A cadet may, with the approval of the Military Board, be detailed as an Assistant Instructor or to perform duty with troops. Temporary Commissions.

(2.) A cadet who has been detailed in accordance with sub-regulation (1.) of this regulation may, on the recommendation of the Commandant, be granted a provisional commission as a Lieutenant in the Active Citizen Military Forces with the pay and allowances of such rank.

55. The names of the most distinguished cadets, as determined by the aggregate of marks gained during the previous College year, and not exceeding three in each class, shall be inserted in the Army List of the Military Forces. Most distinguished cadets.

56. Australian Army Orders shall be the medium whereby information with respect to the College shall be communicated to the Military Forces generally. Army Orders.

57. Official correspondence from or with respect to persons on establishment of the College shall be addressed to the Commandant. Official correspondence.

58. The Commandant may approve of expenditure from the appropriations made, or trust accounts established, for the College, if— Financial administration.

(a) funds are available;

(b) requirements for the remainder of the financial year will not necessitate application to Army Head-quarters for additional funds;

(c) there is nothing irregular in the expenditure; and

(d) it is not an allowance or payment to any member of the Forces which is not authorized by regulation or which requires the approval of the Military Board.

59.—(1.) Unless otherwise directed by the Military Board, the Commandant may obtain supplies of clothing, arms, ammunition, equipment, and other stores, from the Chief Ordnance Officer, 2nd District Base. Ordnance stores.

(2.) The Commandant, or a senior officer appointed by him for the purpose, shall account to the Chief Ordnance Officer, 2nd District Base, for supplies obtained in pursuance of a demand made under this regulation.

FOR SERVICE ENTRY.

SUMMARY OF SUBJECTS AND ALLOTMENT OF MARKS.

Subject.	Marks.
DIVISION I.—MILITARY SUBJECTS.
1. Tactics	400
2. Military Engineering	100
3. Map Reading, Photo. Reading and Field Sketching	100
4. Organization and Military Law	100
DIVISION II.—DRILLS AND EXERCISES.
5. Drill	150
6. Small Arms Training	160
DIVISION III.—CIVIL SUBJECTS.
7. Mathematics	400
8. Physics	200
9. Chemistry	100
10. English	200
11. Geometrical Drawing	100
12. A Modern Language (French or German)	200
13. Book-keeping	100

A candidate, in order to qualify, must obtain not less than half marks in each subject.

The examination in Divisions I. and II. shall be set from the latest editions of the official manuals. The subject-matter shall be that contained in the sections quoted below from the current editions.

DIVISION I.—MILITARY SUBJECTS.

The examination in this Division shall consist of written papers.

In Subjects 1, 2 and 3 candidates may be required to illustrate their answers by sketches drawn to scale. Marks shall be given for draughtsmanship and knowledge of conventional signs. Sketches, &c., shall be executed in pencil and coloured chalks.

Subject.	Marks.
I. TACTICS.
The subject matter contained in Field Service Regulations, Vol. II., 1935, Chapters I., II., IV., V., VI., VII., VIII., and Appendices I.-VI.; Cavalry Training (Horsed), 1937, Chapters V., VI., VII., VIII., IX. and XII.; Cavalry Section Leading, 1934; Infantry Training, 1937, Chapters V.-XIII.; and Infantry Section Leading, 1934	400
The Examination shall consist of two papers. The first shall deal with questions of theory contained in the text-books shown above. The second paper shall require the solution of tactical problems dealing with units up to sabre squadrons and rifle companies assisted by artillery and machine gun units.

Subject.	Marks.
2. MILITARY ENGINEERING.
The subject-matter contained in the Manual of Field Engineering, Volume I. (All Arms), 1933, regarding:— Tools and Materials; Organization of Work; Obstacles; Protective Works; Maintenance and Repairs	100
3. MAP READING, PHOTO. READING AND FIELD SKETCHING.
The subject-matter contained in the Manual of Map Reading, Photo. Reading and Field Sketching, 1929. Introduction; Chapters II., III., IV., V., VI., VII., VIII., IX., X., XI., XIV., XVI., Appendix I., Appendix II. ..	100
