Statute Law
Revision Act
1934.

(2.) The Second and Third Schedules to the Statute Law Revision Act 1934 are repealed.

(3.) An act or thing which, by an Act specified in Part III. of the Second Schedule to the Statute Law Revision Act 1934, was made or deemed lawful, valid or effectual, shall, to the extent to which it was so made or deemed lawful, valid or effectual, continue to be or to be deemed lawful, valid or effectual.

(4.) Section three of the Statute Law Revision Act 1934 is repealed.

(5.) The Fifth Schedule to the Statute Law Revision Act 1934 is repealed.

(6.) Where the income tax imposed on income by an Act specified in the Fifth Schedule to the Statute Law Revision Act 1934 has not been paid, the rate of tax imposed by the Act so specified shall continue to apply to that income as if this section had not been enacted.

(7.) Sections five, six, seven and eight of the Statute Law Revision Act 1934 are repealed.

(8.) The Statute Law Revision Act 1934, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Statute Law Revision Act 1934–1950.

9.—(1.) The Patents Act 1906 is repealed.

(2.) After section seventeen of the Patents Act 1903–1946 the following section is inserted in Part II. :—

“18.—(1.) Where owing to an error or omission on the part of an officer of the Patent Office, an application for a patent or a proceeding in relation thereto has lapsed, or an act or step in relation thereto Power to remedy lapse arising from errors in Patent Office.

required to be done or taken within a certain time has not been so done or taken, the Commissioner may—

- (a) revive the application or proceeding ;
- (b) extend the time for doing the act or taking the step ; and
- (c) permit the act to be done or the step to be taken.

“(2.) The time prescribed for doing an act or taking a step may be extended under this section although the time has expired.

“(3.) The powers of the Commissioner under this section may be exercised only on an application made to him by an applicant or party within one month after the applicant or party has or might with reasonable diligence have become aware of the error or omission.

“(4.) A notification of each application under this section shall be published in The Australian Official Journal of Patents, Trade Marks and Designs and any person may, as prescribed, enter opposition against the granting of the application.

“(5.) An appeal shall lie to the Law Officer from a decision of the Commissioner under this section.

“(6.) Where an application for a patent has been revived and a patent has been granted on the application, then, if any proceeding is taken in respect of an infringement of the patent, no damages shall be awarded in respect of any such infringement occurring prior to a notification of the revival of the application published in The Australian Official Journal of Patents, Trade Marks and Designs.

“(7.) An application shall not be revived under this section if the Commissioner, or on appeal from him the Law Officer, is satisfied that the invention is already patented in Australia, or that another application for the same invention has been lodged and will be unfairly prejudiced.”

(3.) Sections one hundred and thirteen to one hundred and sixteen (inclusive) of the Patents Act 1903–1946 are repealed.

(4.) The Patents Act 1903–1946, as amended by this section, may be cited as the Patents Act 1903–1950.
