- (1) A person who:
 - (a) is in immigration detention because of subsection 250(2); and
 - (b) while in that immigration detention, is convicted of an offence against this Act or against a prescribed law in force in the Commonwealth or in a State or Territory, being a law relating to the control of fishing;and the master, owner, agent and charterer of the vessel on which the person travelled to Australia, are, jointly and severally, liable to pay the Commonwealth:
 - (c) the amount applicable to the person under subsection (2) for the cost of keeping and maintaining the person while the person is in immigration detention; and
 - (d) the cost of transporting the person, and a person holding the person, from the vessel to the place of immigration detention; and
 - (e) the cost of transporting the person, and a person holding the person, between places of immigration detention; and
 - (f) if the person is returned to the vessel or another vessel—the cost of transporting the person, and a person holding the person, from the place of immigration detention to the vessel or that other vessel; and
 - (g) if the person is, or is to be, removed from Australia at the expense of the Commonwealth—the cost of that removal (including the cost of transporting a person holding the person).
- (2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine a daily amount for the keeping and maintaining of a person in immigration detention at a specified place in a specified period.

Section 263

- (3) An amount determined under subsection (2) is to be no more than the cost to the Commonwealth of detaining a person at that place in that period.

263 Secretary able to issue notice of debt

If:

- (a) a person is liable to pay to the Commonwealth an amount under section 262; and
- (b) the Secretary gives written notice to the person giving particulars of the liability and stating that the Secretary requires payment of a specified amount not exceeding that amount;

the specified amount is a debt recoverable by the Commonwealth from the person:

- (c) in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- (d) by garnishee notice under section 264.

264 Garnishee notice

- (1) If an amount (debt) is a debt recoverable from a person (debtor) by the Commonwealth under section 263 or 265, the Secretary may by written notice given to another person:

- (2) The time for making a payment in compliance with a notice under subsection (1) is such time as is specified in it, not being a time before:
 - (a) the relevant money becomes due or is held; or
 - (b) the end of the period of 14 days after the notice is given.
- (3) If the debtor is in Australia when the Secretary gives the notice, the Secretary must give a copy of the notice to the debtor.
- (4) A person who makes a payment to the Commonwealth in compliance with the notice is taken to have made the payment under the authority of the person who owes the debt to the Commonwealth and of any other person concerned.
- (5) If, after the notice is given to a person, an amount is paid by another person in reduction or satisfaction of the debt, the Secretary must notify the person given the notice accordingly, and the amount specified in the notice is taken to be reduced by the amount paid.
- (6) If money is not due, or repayable, to a person on demand unless a condition is fulfilled, the money is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be due or repayable on demand, even though the condition has not been fulfilled.

265 Debt from failure to comply with garnishee notice

- (1) If a person (garnishee debtor):
 - (a) is given a notice under section 264 in respect of a debt; and

 - (c) legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - (d) a garnishee notice under section 264.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the amount of the debt outstanding is a reference to whichever is the lesser of:
 - (a) as much of the amount required by the notice under section 264 to be paid by the garnishee debtor as the garnishee debtor was able to pay; or

Section 266

- (b) as much of the debt due at the time when the notice was given as remains due from time to time.
- (3) If the Commonwealth recovers:
 - (a) the whole or a part of the debt due by the garnishee debtor; or
 - (b) the whole or a part of the debt due by the debtor (within the meaning of section 264);then:
 - (c) both debts are reduced by the amount that the Commonwealth has so recovered; and
 - (d) the amount specified in the notice under section 264 is taken to be reduced by the amount so recovered.

266 Future debts

For the purposes of this Division, an amount is a future debt in relation to a person if the Secretary believes on reasonable grounds that the person will, under section 262, become liable to pay the amount to the Commonwealth.

267 Secretary may freeze amounts to secure future debts

- (2) If the future debtor is in Australia when the Secretary gives the notice, the Secretary must give a copy of the notice to the future debtor.
- (3) If, after the notice is given to a person, an amount is paid by another person in respect of the future debt, the Secretary must notify the person given the notice accordingly, and the amount specified in the notice is taken to be reduced by the amount paid.
- (4) If money is not due, or repayable, to a person on demand unless a condition is fulfilled, the money is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be due or repayable on demand even though the condition has not been fulfilled.

 - (c) any conviction of the applicant of a criminal offence relevant to the question whether the applicant is not:
 - (i) a fit and proper person to give immigration assistance; or
 - (ii) a person of integrity;(except a conviction that is spent under Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914); and
 - (d) any criminal proceedings that the applicant is the subject of and that the Authority considers relevant to the application; and
 - (e) any inquiry or investigation that the applicant is or has been the subject of and that the Authority considers relevant to the application; and
 - (f) any disciplinary action that is being taken, or has been taken, against the applicant that the Authority considers relevant to the application; and
 - (g) any bankruptcy (present or past) of the applicant; and
 - (h) any other matter relevant to the applicant's fitness to give immigration assistance.

 - (3) In considering whether it is satisfied that an individual to whom the applicant is related by employment is not a person of integrity, the Migration Agents Registration Authority must take into account each of the following matters, so far as the Authority considers it relevant to the question whether the individual is not a person of integrity:

- (a) any conviction of the individual of a criminal offence (except a conviction that is spent under Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914);
 - (b) any criminal proceedings that the individual is the subject of;
 - (c) any inquiry or investigation that the individual is or has been the subject of;
 - (d) any disciplinary action that is being taken, or has been taken, against the individual;
 - (e) any bankruptcy (present or past) of the individual.
- (4) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

290A Applicant for repeat registration must not be registered if he or she has not done continuing professional development

If the applicant has been registered at some time in the 12 months before making the application, he or she must not be registered if the Migration Agents Registration Authority is satisfied that the applicant has not met, within the prescribed period, the requirements prescribed by the regulations for continuing professional development of registered migration agents.

290B Applicant must not be registered if any unpaid registration status charge

An applicant must not be registered if any registration status charge payable by him or her remains unpaid after the time when it becomes due for payment.

291 Applicant must not be registered if registration refused in past year

- (1) An applicant must not be registered if he or she has been refused registration as a migration agent within 12 months before his or her application.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

291A Applicant must not be registered if suspension would be in effect

If:

- (a) an applicant has been registered (the previous registration) at some time before making the application; and
- (b) the Migration Agents Registration Authority decided to suspend the previous registration (whether or not that decision was stayed); and
- (c) the previous registration ended on or after the suspension decision;

then the applicant must not be registered during a period in which the previous registration would have been suspended had the previous registration not already ended.

Example 1: A registered migration agent's registration is suspended for a period. The agent is deregistered under section 302 so the suspension of the registration ends. The agent cannot be re-registered until the suspension period ends.

Example 2: The Migration Agents Registration Authority suspends a registered migration agent's registration. The agent applies for review of the decision and a stay order is made in relation to the decision. The agent continues to practise, while the stay order is in force, until the agent's registration ends. Subsection 288(6A) prevents the agent from being re-registered until the review proceedings are finalised. The agent cannot be re-registered if the suspension decision is affirmed on review and the suspension would not have ended (had the registration continued).

Example 3: Under section 300, a registered migration agent's registration is continued after the expiry day of the agent's registration. The Migration Agents Registration Authority makes a decision to suspend the agent's registration until the agent complies with a condition, and so the registration ends because of subsection 300(4). The agent cannot be re-registered until the agent complies with the condition.

292 Applicant must not be registered if registration cancelled in past 5 years

An applicant whose registration has been cancelled under section 303, 306AG or 306AGAC must not be registered within 5 years of the cancellation.

Section 292A

292A Applicant must not be registered if any barring period has not ended

An applicant must not be registered if:

- (a) the Migration Agents Registration Authority has made a decision under subsection 311A(1) or 311L(1) to bar him or her from being a registered migration agent for a particular period; and
- (b) the period has not ended.

292B Applicant must not be registered unless he or she holds appropriate professional indemnity insurance

- (1) An applicant must not be registered unless the Migration Agents Registration Authority is satisfied that he or she has professional indemnity insurance of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

293 Applicant under 18 must not be registered

An applicant must not be registered if he or she is under 18.

294 Applicant must not be registered if not an Australian citizen, permanent resident or New Zealander with special visa

- (1) An applicant must not be registered unless he or she is:
 - (a) an Australian citizen; or
 - (b) an Australian permanent resident (within the meaning of the regulations); or
 - (c) a New Zealand citizen who holds a special category visa.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

295 Notice of refusal of application

If the Migration Agents Registration Authority decides not to register an applicant, the Authority must give the applicant written notice of the decision and of the reasons for it.

Note: The applicant may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision. See section 306 of this Act. (Section 27A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 requires that people whose interests are affected by the Authority's decision be given notice of their rights to seek review of the decision.)

299 Period of registration

- (1) Subject to sections 300, 302, 303, 306AG and 306AGAC and subsection (3), the registration of a registered migration agent lasts for 12 months after the registration.
- (3) If the registration of a registered migration agent is suspended for a period, the current period of the agent's registration is extended by a period equal to that period of suspension.

300 Automatic continuation of registration

When agent's registration is automatically continued

- (1) Subsection (4) applies to continue a registered migration agent's registration beyond the last day (the expiry day) of the agent's registration if, before the end of the expiry day:
 - (a) the agent made a registration application; and
 - (b) the agent paid the registration application fee (if any) in respect of the application; and
 - (c) the Migration Agents Registration Authority had not decided the application.

Exception—suspension

- (2) However, subsection (4) does not apply to continue the agent's registration if, before the end of the expiry day, the Authority made a decision to suspend the agent's registration, unless:
 - (a) the suspension had been completed before the end of the expiry day; or
 - (b) there was a decision (other than a stay order) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court in force, immediately before the end of the expiry day, to the effect that the agent's registration is not suspended or cancelled.

Section 300

Exception—cancellation

- (3) Subsection (4) also does not apply to continue the agent's registration if, before the end of the expiry day, the Authority made a decision to cancel the agent's registration, unless:
- (a) there was a decision (other than a stay order) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court in force, immediately before the end of the expiry day, to the effect that the agent's registration is not suspended or cancelled; or
 - (b) there was a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court in force to the effect that the agent's registration is suspended, and the suspension had been completed before the end of the expiry day.

Period of continuation of registration

- (4) The agent's registration is taken to continue after the expiry day until the earliest of the following:
- (a) the Authority decides the application;
 - (b) the Authority decides to suspend the agent's registration;
 - (c) the Authority decides to cancel the agent's registration;
 - (d) the end of the period of 10 months beginning on the day after the expiry day.

Application granted if no decision within a certain period

- (5) If, before the end of the period of 10 months beginning on the day after the expiry day, the Authority has not:
- (a) decided the registration application; and
 - (b) decided to suspend the agent's registration; and
 - (c) decided to cancel the agent's registration;
- then the application is taken to have been granted at the end of that period.

When registration takes effect

- (6) If the Authority grants the registration application, or the registration application is taken to have been granted under subsection (5), the registration is treated as having taken effect at the end of the expiry day.

Example: An agent's registration is due to end on 31 October (the expiry day).
On 20 October the agent applies to be registered again. The Authority has not decided the application by the end of 31 October.

The agent's registration continues automatically past 31 October until the Authority decides the application.

On 15 November the Authority grants the application. The new 12 month registration is treated as having taken effect at the end of 31 October.

When Authority makes decision

- (7) For the purposes of this section, the Authority is taken to have made a decision even if the decision is later stayed.

301 Migration Agents Registration Authority must warn of expiry

At least 30 days before the period for which a registered migration agent is registered will end under section 299, the Migration Agents Registration Authority must give the agent a written notice stating when the period will end.

302 Automatic deregistration

- (1) The Migration Agents Registration Authority must deregister a registered migration agent by removing his or her name from the Register if:
- (a) he or she requests the Authority, in writing, to do so; or
 - (d) he or she dies.

303 Disciplining registered migration agents

- (1) The Migration Agents Registration Authority may:
- (a) cancel the registration of a registered migration agent by removing his or her name from the register; or
 - (b) suspend his or her registration; or
 - (c) caution him or her;
- if it becomes satisfied that:
- (d) the agent's application for registration was known by the agent to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (e) the agent becomes bankrupt; or
 - (f) the agent is not a person of integrity or is otherwise not a fit and proper person to give immigration assistance; or

Part 3 Migration agents and immigration assistance

Division 3 Registration of migration agents

Section 304

- (g) an individual related by employment to the agent is not a person of integrity; or
- (h) the agent has not complied with the Code of Conduct prescribed under section 314.

Note 2: If the Authority is considering making a decision under this section, it must invite the registered migration agent to make a submission: see sections 309 and 310.

Unpaid registration status charge

- (2) The Authority may also suspend the registration of a registered migration agent if any registration status charge payable by him or her remains unpaid after the time when it becomes due for payment.

 - (b) set a condition or conditions for the lifting of the suspension.

Note: Section 332H sets out when the agent is taken to have been given the notice.

- (1) If a registered migration agent is given notice of a decision under section 303, then the Migration Agents Registration Authority:
 - (a) must as soon as possible make available in the prescribed way a statement that sets out the decision and specifies the grounds for the decision; and
 - (b) may prepare a statement about the decision and make it available to one or more groups of persons, or to one or more persons, in any way the Authority thinks fit.

This subsection applies even if a stay order is made in relation to the decision.

- (3) A statement under this section need not set out the findings on material questions of fact and need not refer to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based.

Protection from civil proceedings

- (3) A period specified in a notice under this section must end at least 14 days after the notice was given.

Note: Section 332H sets out when the agent is taken to have been given the notice.

Offence

- (4) A person commits an offence if:
 - (a) the person is subject to a requirement under this section; and

9A Migration zone etc.—offshore resources activities

Migration zone etc.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person is taken to be in the migration zone while he or she is in an area to participate in, or to support, an offshore resources activity in relation to that area.

Example 1: A person is taken to be in the migration zone under this section if the person is on a vessel in an area to participate in an offshore resources activity under the Offshore Petroleum and Greenhouse Gas Storage Act 2006 in that area by exploring for, or recovering, petroleum.

Example 2: A person who is a member of the crew of the vessel is also taken to be in the migration zone under this section if the person is supporting the offshore resources activity.

Example 3: Neither a stowaway on the vessel, nor a person on the vessel because the person was rescued at sea, is taken to be in the migration zone, because neither is participating in, or supporting, the offshore resources activity.

- (2) To avoid doubt, a person may be taken to be in the migration zone under subsection (1):
- (a) whether or not the person's participation in, or support of, an offshore resources activity in the area concerned has started, is continuing or has concluded; and

Endnote 3—Uncommenced amendments

- (b) whether or not the offshore resources activity concerned has started, is continuing or has concluded.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act:
- (a) a person is taken to be in Australia while he or she is taken to be in the migration zone because of subsection (1); and
 - (b) a person is taken to travel to Australia if the person travels to an area in which the person is taken to be in the migration zone because of subsection (1); and
 - (c) a person is taken to enter Australia when the person enters an area in which the person is taken to be in the migration zone because of subsection (1); and
 - (d) subject to section 80—a person is taken to leave Australia when the person leaves an area in which the person is taken to be in the migration zone because of subsection (1).
- (4) Unless a provision of this Act, or another Act, expressly provides otherwise, this section does not have the effect of extending, for the purposes of another Act, the circumstances in which a person:
- (a) is in the migration zone or is taken to be in the migration zone; or
 - (b) is in Australia or is taken to be in Australia; or
 - (c) travels to Australia or is taken to travel to Australia; or
 - (d) enters Australia or is taken to enter Australia; or
 - (e) leaves Australia or is taken to leave Australia.

Meaning of offshore resources activity

- (5) In this section:

offshore resources activity, in relation to an area, means:

- (a) a regulated operation (within the meaning of section 7 of the Offshore Petroleum and Greenhouse Gas Storage Act 2006) that is being carried out, or is to be carried out, within the area, except an operation determined by the Minister under subsection (6); or
- (b) an activity performed under a licence or a special purpose consent (both within the meaning of section 4 of the Offshore Minerals Act 1994) that is being carried out, or is to be

- (6) The Minister may, in writing, make a determination for the purposes of the definition of offshore resources activity in subsection (5).
- (7) A determination made under subsection (6) is a legislative instrument, but section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 does not apply to the determination.
- (8) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of subsection (1), a person may participate in, or support, an offshore resources activity in relation to an area whether the person:
- (a) is on an Australian resources installation in the area; or
 - (b) is otherwise in the area to participate in, or support, the activity.

Conditions about offshore resources activity

- (2B) In addition to any restrictions applying because of regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), a condition of a visa that allows the holder of the visa to work is not taken to allow the holder to participate in, or support, an offshore resources activity in relation to any area unless the visa is:

Endnote 3—Uncommenced amendments

- (a) a permanent visa; or
- (b) a visa prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Note: For offshore resources activity, see subsection 9A(5).

Migration Amendment (Temporary Sponsored Visas) Act 2013 (No. 122, 2013)

Schedule 2

1 Subsection 140GB(2)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (2) The Minister must approve an approved sponsor’s nomination if:
- (a) in a case to which section 140GBA applies, unless the sponsor is exempt under section 140GBB or 140GBC—the labour market testing condition under section 140GBA is satisfied; and
 - (b) in any case—the prescribed criteria are satisfied.

Note: Section 140GBB provides an exemption from the labour market testing condition in the case of a major disaster. Section 140GBC provides for exemptions from the labour market testing condition to apply in relation to the required skill level and occupation for a nominated position.

2 After section 140GB

Insert:

140GBA Labour market testing—condition

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a nomination by an approved sponsor, under section 140GB, if:
 - (a) the approved sponsor is in a class of sponsors prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) the sponsor nominates:
 - (i) a proposed occupation for the purposes of paragraph 140GB(1)(b); and
 - (ii) a particular position, associated with the nominated occupation, that is to be filled by a visa holder, or applicant or proposed applicant for a visa, identified in the nomination; and
 - (c) it would not be inconsistent with any international trade obligation of Australia determined under subsection (2) to require the sponsor to satisfy the labour market testing condition in this section, in relation to the nominated position.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine (as an international trade obligation of Australia) an obligation of Australia under international law that relates to international trade, including such an obligation that arises under any agreement between Australia and another country, or other countries.

Labour market testing condition

- (3) The labour market testing condition is satisfied if:
 - (a) the Minister is satisfied that the approved sponsor has undertaken labour market testing in relation to the nominated position within a period determined under subsection (4) in relation to the nominated occupation; and
 - (b) the nomination is accompanied by:
 - (i) evidence in relation to that labour market testing (see subsections (5) and (6)); and

Endnote 3—Uncommenced amendments

- (ii) if one or more Australian citizens or Australian permanent residents were, in the previous 4 months, made redundant or retrenched from positions in the nominated occupation in a business, or an associated entity, of the approved sponsor—information about those redundancies or retrenchments; and
- (d) having regard to that evidence, and information (if any), the Minister is satisfied that:
 - (i) a suitably qualified and experienced Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident is not readily available to fill the nominated position; and
 - (ii) a suitably qualified and experienced eligible temporary visa holder is not readily available to fill the nominated position.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(a), the Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine a period within which labour market testing is required in relation to a nominated occupation.
- (4A) Despite paragraph (3)(a) and subsection (4), if there have been redundancies or retrenchments as mentioned in subparagraph (3)(b)(ii), the labour market testing must be undertaken after those redundancies and retrenchments.

Evidence of labour market testing

- (5) For the purposes of subparagraph (3)(b)(i), the evidence in relation to the labour market testing:
 - (a) must include information about the approved sponsor's attempts to recruit suitably qualified and experienced Australian citizens or Australian permanent residents to the position and any other similar positions (see also subsection (6)); and
 - (b) may also include other evidence, such as:
 - (i) copies of, or references to, any research released in the previous 4 months relating to labour market trends generally and in relation to the nominated occupation; or

Endnotes

Endnote 3—Uncommenced amendments

- (ii) expressions of support from Commonwealth, State and Territory government authorities with responsibility for employment matters; or
 - (iii) any other type of evidence determined by the Minister, by legislative instrument, for this subparagraph.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(a), the information mentioned:
 - (a) must include details of:
 - (i) any advertising (paid or unpaid) of the position, and any similar positions, commissioned or authorised by the approved sponsor; and
 - (ii) fees and other expenses paid (or payable) for that advertising; and
 - (b) may also include other information, such as:
 - (i) information about the approved sponsor's participation in relevant job and career expositions; or
 - (ii) details of any other fees and expenses paid (or payable) for any recruitment attempts mentioned in paragraph (5)(a) (including any participation mentioned in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph); or
 - (iii) details of the results of such recruitment attempts, including details of any positions filled as a result.
- (6A) If the approved sponsor elects to provide other evidence and information as mentioned in paragraphs (5)(b) and (6)(b), the Minister may take that evidence and information into account. But if the approved sponsor elects not to provide such other evidence or information, the Minister is not to treat the nomination less favourably merely because of that fact.

Definitions

- (7) In this section:

associated entity has the same meaning as in Part 2A of the regulations.

Australian permanent resident means an Australian permanent resident within the meaning of the regulations.

eligible temporary visa holder: a person is an eligible temporary visa holder in relation to a nomination by an approved sponsor if, at the time when the nomination is made:

- (b) the person is employed in the agricultural sector by the approved sponsor (or an associated entity of the approved sponsor); and
- (c) the temporary visa does not prohibit the person from performing that employment.

labour market testing, in relation to a nominated position, means testing of the Australian labour market to demonstrate whether a suitably qualified and experienced Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident is readily available to fill the position.

140GBB Labour market testing—major disaster exemption

- (1) An approved sponsor is exempt from the requirement to satisfy the labour market testing condition in section 140GBA if an exemption under subsection (2) of this section is in force in relation to the sponsor.
- (2) The Minister may, in writing, exempt a sponsor from the requirement to satisfy the labour market testing condition in section 140GBA if the Minister is satisfied that:
 - (a) an event (a major disaster) has occurred in Australia, whether naturally or otherwise, that has such a significant impact on individuals that a government response is required; and
 - (b) the exemption is necessary or desirable in order to assist disaster relief or recovery.
- (3) In deciding whether a major disaster has occurred, the Minister must have regard to matters including the following:
 - (a) the number of individuals affected;
 - (b) the extent to which the nature or extent of the disaster is unusual.

Endnotes

Endnote 3—Uncommenced amendments

- (4) An exemption of an approved sponsor under subsection (2):
 - (a) may be expressed to apply in relation to:
 - (i) a specified nomination by the sponsor; or
 - (ii) a specified class of nominations by the sponsor; and
 - (b) must be expressed to apply to a particular sponsor specified in the exemption rather than a class of sponsors, despite subsections 33(3A) and (3AB) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
- (5) An exemption made under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

140GBC Labour market testing—skill and occupational exemptions

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a nomination by an approved sponsor, under section 140GB, if the sponsor nominates:
 - (a) a proposed occupation for the purposes of paragraph 140GB(1)(b); and

 - (ii) 5 years or more of relevant experience, other than protected experience; and
 - (b) the nominated occupation is specified for the purposes of this subsection under subsection (4).
- (3) The approved sponsor is exempt from the requirement to satisfy the labour market testing condition in section 140GBA if:
