

NATIONAL SERVICE (DISCHARGE OF TRAINEES).

No. 28 of 1960.

An Act to make Provision for the Discharge of National Service Trainees.

[Assented to 26th May, 1960.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate, and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows:—

- Short title.           1. This Act may be cited as the National Service (Discharge of Trainees) Act 1960.
- Commence-           2. This Act shall come into operation on the day on which it ment.                receives the Royal Assent.
- Application of       3. This Act applies to any person who, immediately before Act.                 the date of commencement of this Act, was, by virtue of the National Service Act 1951-1957 or the National Service Act 1957, a member of a part of the Citizen Forces.

4.—(1.) A person to whom this Act applies may, before the thirtieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and sixty, offer himself for voluntary service in the Citizen Naval Forces, the Citizen Military Forces or the Citizen Air Force, and be enlisted accordingly.

Discharge of trainees for purpose of voluntary enlistment.

(2.) Where a person is voluntarily enlisted in accordance with the last preceding sub-section, he shall be deemed to have been, immediately before that enlistment, discharged from the part of the Citizen Forces of which he was, immediately before that enlistment, a member.

5. A person to whom this Act applies who continues up to and including the thirtieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and sixty, to be, by virtue of an Act referred to in section three of this Act, a member of a part of the Citizen Forces, shall be deemed to be discharged from that part of those Forces on that date.

Discharge of other trainees
on 30th June, 1960.