29BB How duty is imposed

Application

 - (b) imposing the duty by the law of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Council.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 29BA to the imposition of the duty by that law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

- (3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Part to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.
- (4) If, because of subsection (3), this Part is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Part.
- (5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Part in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:

- (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Council.

Division 2—Establishment of the AER

44AE Establishment of the AER

- (1) The Australian Energy Regulator (the AER) is established by this section.
- (2) The AER:
 - (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession; and
 - (b) must have a common seal; and
 - (c) may acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property; and
 - (d) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.
- (3) However, the AER is taken, for the purposes of the finance law (within the meaning of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013):
 - (a) not to be a corporate Commonwealth entity; and
 - (b) to be a part of the Commonwealth, and a part of the Commission; and
 - (c) not to be a body corporate.

44AF AER to hold money and property on behalf of the Commonwealth

The AER holds any money or property for and on behalf of the Commonwealth.

44AG Constitution of the AER

The AER consists of:

- (a) 2 Commonwealth AER members, appointed in accordance with section 44AM; and
- (b) 3 State/Territory AER members, appointed in accordance with section 44AP.

Division 3—Functions and powers of the AER

44AH Commonwealth functions

- (1) The AER has any functions:
 - (a) conferred under a law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

Note: The AER may have functions under the Australian Energy Market Act 2004.

- (2) Regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) may empower the AER to make legislative instruments.
- (3) Section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to legislative instruments empowered by regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).
- (4) Subsection (3) has effect subject to any express provision to the contrary in the regulations.

44AI Commonwealth consent to conferral of functions etc. on AER

General rule

- (1) Subject to section 44AIA, a State/Territory energy law or a local energy instrument may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the AER for the purposes of that law or instrument.

Note: Section 44AK sets out when such a law or instrument imposes a duty on the AER.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not authorise the conferral of a function or power, or the imposition of a duty, by a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument to the extent to which:
 - (a) the conferral or imposition, or the authorisation, would contravene any constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER; or

- (b) the authorisation would otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.
- (3) The AER cannot perform a duty or function, or exercise a power, under a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument unless the conferral of the function or power, or the imposition of the duty, is in accordance with the Australian Energy Market Agreement, or any other relevant agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory concerned.
- (4) A local energy instrument may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the AER only if the instrument is designated for the purposes of this subsection under the Australian Energy Market Agreement, or any other relevant agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory that made the instrument.
- (5) To avoid doubt, if a State/Territory energy law is also a local energy instrument, subsection (4) applies to the law.

44AIA No merits review of AER decisions

A decision of the AER under a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument is not to be subject to merits review (however described) by a body established under a law of a State or Territory.

44AJ How duty is imposed

Application

- (1) This section applies if a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument purports to impose a duty on the AER.

Note 1: Section 44AK sets out when such a law or instrument imposes a duty on the AER.

Note 2: Section 320 of the South Australian Energy Retail Legislation, as it applies as a law of a State or Territory, deals with the case where a duty purportedly imposed on a Commonwealth body under that applied law cannot be imposed by the State or Territory or the Commonwealth due to constitutional doctrines restricting such duties.

Section 44AK

State or Territory legislative power sufficient to support duty

- (2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Part (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:
- (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State or Territory concerned; and
 - (b) imposing the duty by the law or instrument of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law or instrument of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 44AI to the imposition of the duty by that law or instrument).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

- (3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law or instrument of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Part to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.
- (4) If, because of subsection (3), this Part is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Part.
- (5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Part in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
- (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 44AI.

44AK When a State/Territory energy law etc. imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 44AI and 44AJ, a State/Territory energy law or local energy instrument imposes a duty on the AER if:

- (a) the law or instrument confers a function or power on the AER; and
- (b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the AER to perform the function or to exercise the power.

44AL Powers of the AER

The AER has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

Note: State and Territory laws or instruments may also confer powers on the AER in respect of its functions under those laws or instruments: see section 44AI.

Division 3—Access to declared services

Subdivision A—Scope of Division

44R Constitutional limits on operation of this Division

This Division does not apply in relation to a third party's access to a service unless:

- (a) the provider is a corporation (or a partnership or joint venture consisting wholly of corporations); or
- (b) the third party is a corporation; or
- (c) the access is (or would be) in the course of, or for the purposes of, constitutional trade or commerce.

Subdivision B—Notification of access disputes

44S Notification of access disputes

- (1) If a third party is unable to agree with the provider on one or more aspects of access to a declared service, either the provider or the third party may notify the Commission in writing that an access dispute exists, but only to the extent that those aspects of access are not the subject of an access undertaking that is in operation in relation to the service.

Note: An example of one of the things on which a provider and third party might disagree is whether a previous determination ought to be varied.

- (2) On receiving the notification, the Commission must give notice in writing of the access dispute to:
 - (a) the provider, if the third party notified the access dispute;
 - (b) the third party, if the provider notified the access dispute;
 - (c) any other person whom the Commission thinks might want to become a party to the arbitration.

44T Withdrawal of notifications

- (1) A notification may be withdrawn as follows (and not otherwise):
 - (a) if the provider notified the dispute:
 - (i) the provider may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its final determination;
 - (ii) the third party may withdraw the provider's notification at any time after the Commission issues a draft final determination, but before it makes its final determination;
 - (b) if the third party notified the dispute, the third party may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its determination.
- (2) Despite subparagraph (1)(a)(ii), if the provider notified a dispute over variation of a final determination, the third party may not withdraw the provider's notification.
- (3) If the notification is withdrawn, it is taken for the purposes of this Part never to have been given.

Subdivision C—Arbitration of access disputes

44U Parties to the arbitration

The parties to the arbitration of an access dispute are:

- (a) the provider;
- (b) the third party;
- (c) any other person who applies in writing to be made a party and is accepted by the Commission as having a sufficient interest.

44V Determination by Commission

- (1) Unless it terminates the arbitration under section 44Y, 44YA, 44ZZCB or 44ZZCBA, the Commission:
 - (a) must make a written final determination; and
 - (b) may make a written interim determination;

Section 44V

on access by the third party to the service.

Note 1: There are time limits that apply to the Commission's final determination: see section 44XA.

Note 2: The Commission may defer arbitration of the access dispute if it is also considering an access undertaking: see section 44ZZCB.

- (2) A determination may deal with any matter relating to access by the third party to the service, including matters that were not the basis for notification of the dispute. By way of example, the determination may:
- (a) require the provider to provide access to the service by the third party;
 - (b) require the third party to accept, and pay for, access to the service;
 - (c) specify the terms and conditions of the third party's access to the service;
 - (d) require the provider to extend the facility;
 - (da) require the provider to permit interconnection to the facility by the third party;
 - (e) specify the extent to which the determination overrides an earlier determination relating to access to the service by the third party.
- (2A) Without limiting paragraph (2)(d), a requirement referred to in that paragraph may do either or both of the following:
- (a) require the provider to expand the capacity of the facility;
 - (b) require the provider to expand the geographical reach of the facility.
- (3) A determination does not have to require the provider to provide access to the service by the third party.
- (4) Before making a determination, the Commission must give a draft determination to the parties.
- (5) When the Commission makes a determination, it must give the parties to the arbitration its reasons for making the determination.

- (6) A determination is not a legislative instrument.

44W Restrictions on access determinations

- (1) The Commission must not make a determination that would have any of the following effects:
- (a) preventing an existing user obtaining a sufficient amount of the service to be able to meet the user's reasonably anticipated requirements, measured at the time when the dispute was notified;
 - (b) preventing a person from obtaining, by the exercise of a pre-notification right, a sufficient amount of the service to be able to meet the person's actual requirements;
 - (c) depriving any person of a protected contractual right;
 - (d) resulting in the third party becoming the owner (or one of the owners) of any part of the facility, or of extensions of the facility (including expansions of the capacity of the facility and expansions of the geographical reach of the facility), without the consent of the provider;
 - (e) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of extending the facility (including expanding the capacity of the facility and expanding the geographical reach of the facility);
 - (ea) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of maintaining extensions of the facility (including expansions of the capacity of the facility and expansions of the geographical reach of the facility);
 - (f) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of interconnections to the facility or maintaining interconnections to the facility.
- (2) Paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply in relation to the requirements and rights of the third party and the provider when the Commission is making a determination in arbitration of an access dispute relating to an earlier determination of an access dispute between the third party and the provider.

Section 44W

- (3) A determination is of no effect if it is made in contravention of subsection (1).
- (4) If the Commission makes a determination that has the effect of depriving a person (the second person) of a pre-notification right to require the provider to supply the service to the second person, the determination must also require the third party:
- (a) to pay to the second person such amount (if any) as the Commission considers is fair compensation for the deprivation; and
 - (b) to reimburse the provider and the Commonwealth for any compensation that the provider or the Commonwealth agrees, or is required by a court order, to pay to the second party as compensation for the deprivation.

Note: Without infringing paragraph (1)(b), a determination may deprive a second person of the right to be supplied with an amount of service equal to the difference between the total amount of service the person was entitled to under a pre-notification right and the amount that the person actually needs to meet his or her actual requirements.

- (4A) If an application for review of a declaration of a service has been made under subsection 44K(1), the Commission must not make a determination in relation to the service until the Tribunal has made its decision on the review.

- (5) In this section:

existing user means a person (including the provider) who was using the service at the time when the dispute was notified.

pre-notification right means a right under a contract, or under a determination, that was in force at the time when the dispute was notified.

protected contractual right means a right under a contract that was in force at the beginning of 30 March 1995.

44X Matters that the Commission must take into account

 - (d) the direct costs of providing access to the service;
 - (e) the value to the provider of extensions (including expansions of capacity and expansions of geographical reach) whose cost is borne by someone else;
 - (ea) the value to the provider of interconnections to the facility whose cost is borne by someone else;
 - (f) the operational and technical requirements necessary for the safe and reliable operation of the facility;
 - (g) the economically efficient operation of the facility;
 - (h) the pricing principles specified in section 44ZZCA.
- (2) The Commission may take into account any other matters that it thinks are relevant.

Interim determinations

- (3) The Commission may take the following matters into account in making an interim determination:
 - (a) a matter referred to in subsection (1);
 - (b) any other matter it considers relevant.

- (a) made a final determination that does not impose any obligations on the parties or alter any obligations (if any) that exist at that time between the parties; and
 - (b) published a written report about the final determination under section 44ZNB.

44Y Commission may terminate arbitration in certain cases

- (1) The Commission may at any time terminate an arbitration (without making a final determination) if it thinks that:

Section 44YA

- (b) the subject matter of the dispute is trivial, misconceived or lacking in substance; or
 - (c) the party who notified the dispute has not engaged in negotiations in good faith; or
 - (d) access to the service should continue to be governed by an existing contract between the provider and the third party.
- (2) In addition, if the dispute is about varying an existing determination, the Commission may terminate the arbitration if it thinks there is no sufficient reason why the previous determination should not continue to have effect in its present form.

44YA Commission must terminate arbitration if declaration varied or set aside by Tribunal

If the Commission is arbitrating a dispute in relation to a declared service and the Tribunal sets aside or varies the declaration in relation to the service under section 44K, the Commission must terminate the arbitration.

- (2) If an appeal is instituted in the Federal Court from a decision of the Tribunal, the Federal Court or a judge of the Federal Court may make any orders staying or otherwise affecting the operation or implementation of the decision of the Tribunal that the Federal Court or judge thinks appropriate to secure the effectiveness of the hearing and determination of the appeal.
- (3) If an order is in force under subsection (2) (including an order previously varied under this subsection), the Federal Court or a judge of the Federal Court may make an order varying or revoking the first-mentioned order.

Note 2: The Commission may defer consideration of the undertaking if it is also arbitrating an access dispute: see section 44ZZCB.

(3AA) The Commission must not accept the undertaking if a decision of the Commonwealth Minister is in force under section 44N that a regime established by a State or Territory for access to the service is an effective access regime.

(3AB) The Commission may reject the undertaking if it incorporates one or more amendments (see subsection 44ZZAAA(5)) and the Commission is satisfied that the amendment or amendments are of a kind, are made at a time, or are made in a manner that:

- (1) Before deciding whether to accept an undertaking given to it under subsection 44ZZA(1) by a person who is, or expects to be, the provider of a service, the Commission may give the person an amendment notice in relation to the undertaking.
- (2) An amendment notice is a notice in writing that specifies:
 - (a) the nature of the amendment or amendments (the proposed amendment or amendments) that the Commission proposes be made to the undertaking; and
 - (b) the Commission's reasons for the proposed amendment or amendments; and

- (c) the period (the response period) within which the person may respond to the notice, which must be at least 14 days after the day the notice was given to the person.
- (3) The Commission may publish, by electronic or other means, the amendment notice.
- (4) The Commission may give more than one amendment notice in relation to an undertaking.

Person may give a revised undertaking in response to notice

- (5) If a person receives an amendment notice, the person may, within the response period, respond to the notice by giving a revised undertaking to the Commission that incorporates one or more amendments.
- (6) If the revised undertaking incorporates one or more amendments that the Commission considers are not of the nature proposed in the amendment notice and do not address the reasons for the proposed amendments given in the amendment notice, the Commission must not accept the revised undertaking and must return it to the person within 21 days of receiving it.
- (7) If the person gives a revised undertaking under subsection (5) and the revised undertaking is not returned to the person under subsection (6), the revised undertaking is taken, after the time it is given to the Commission, to be the undertaking given under section 44ZZA for the purposes of this Part.
- (8) The person is taken to have not agreed to the proposed amendment or amendments if the person does not respond within the response period.

Commission not required to accept revised undertaking

- (9) The Commission is not required to accept the revised undertaking under section 44ZZA.

Section 44ZZAAB

Access undertakings may contain fixed principles

- (1) An access undertaking given to the Commission under subsection 44ZZA(1) may include one or more terms that, under the undertaking, are fixed for a specified period.
- (2) Each of the terms is a fixed principle and the specified period is a fixed period. Different periods may be specified for different fixed principles.
- (3) The fixed period must:
- (a) start:
 - (i) when the access undertaking comes into operation; or
 - (ii) at a later time ascertained in accordance with the undertaking; and
 - (b) extend beyond the expiry date of the undertaking.

Consideration of fixed principles

- (4) The Commission may reject the undertaking if it:
- (a) includes a term that is not a fixed principle and that the Commission considers should be a fixed principle; or
 - (b) includes a fixed principle that the Commission considers should not be fixed; or
 - (c) includes a fixed principle that the Commission considers should be fixed for a period that is different from the period specified in the undertaking.

Section 44ZZAAB

However, the Commission must not reject the undertaking solely on the basis that it is consistent with a fixed principle that is included in the undertaking in compliance with subsection (6).

Fixed principles must be carried over to later undertakings

- (5) Subsection (6) applies if:
- (a) the Commission accepts an undertaking (the earlier undertaking) in connection with the provision of access to a service that includes a fixed principle; and
 - (b) an undertaking (the later undertaking) is given to the Commission in connection with the provision of access to the service within the fixed period for the fixed principle; and
 - (c) at the time the later undertaking is given:
 - (i) the fixed principle has not been revoked under subsection (7); and
 - (ii) the earlier undertaking has not been varied under subsection 44ZZA(7) so that the fixed principle is no longer a term of the earlier undertaking.
- (6) The Commission must not accept the later undertaking under section 44ZZA unless the undertaking includes a term that is the same as the fixed principle.

Variation or revocation of fixed principles when no undertaking is in operation

- (7) If there is no access undertaking in operation in connection with the provision of access to a service, the provider may revoke or vary a fixed principle that relates to the service (including the fixed period for the principle), but only with the consent of the Commission. The Commission may consent to the revocation or variation of the fixed principle if it thinks it appropriate to do so having regard to the matters in subsection 44ZZA(3).

Note: Subsection 44ZZA(7) contains provision for fixed principles to be varied or revoked in the situation where there is an access undertaking in operation. This may include a variation of the fixed period for the fixed principle.

Section 44ZZAA

Alteration of fixed principles

- (8) If an undertaking that is accepted by the Commission contains one or more fixed principles, the undertaking is accepted on the basis that:
- (a) the principle may be varied or revoked under subsection (7) or 44ZZA(7); and
 - (b) the principle may be cancelled, revoked, terminated or varied by or under later legislation; and
 - (c) no compensation is payable if the principle is cancelled, revoked, terminated or varied as mentioned in any of the above paragraphs.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not, by implication, affect the interpretation of any other provision of this Act.

44ZZAA Access codes prepared by industry bodies

- (1) An industry body may give a written code to the Commission setting out rules for access to a service.
- (2) The code must specify the expiry date of the code.
- (3) The Commission may accept the code, if it thinks it appropriate to do so having regard to the following matters:
- (aa) the objects of this Part;
 - (ab) the pricing principles specified in section 44ZZCA;
 - (a) the legitimate business interests of providers who might give undertakings in accordance with the code;
 - (b) the public interest, including the public interest in having competition in markets (whether or not in Australia);
 - (c) the interests of persons who might want access to the service covered by the code;
 - (e) any matters specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection;

- (b) that the access price structures should:
 - (i) allow multi-part pricing and price discrimination when it aids efficiency; and
 - (ii) not allow a vertically integrated access provider to set terms and conditions that discriminate in favour of its downstream operations, except to the extent that the cost of providing access to other operators is higher; and
- (c) that access pricing regimes should provide incentives to reduce costs or otherwise improve productivity.

Note: The Commission must have regard to the principles in making a final determination under Division 3 and in deciding whether or not to accept an access undertaking or access code under Division 6.

Note: The third party's access to the service is determined under the access undertaking to the extent of the matters it deals with. If the access dispute deals with other matters, the third party's access to the service in relation to those other matters is determined under any determination the Commission makes.

Deferral of consideration of access undertaking

- (3) If:

44ZZMA How duty is imposed

Application

- (1) This section applies if a State or Territory access regime law purports to impose a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.
 - Note 1: Section 44ZZMB sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.
 - Note 2: Section 320 of the South Australian Energy Retail Legislation, as it applies as a law of a State or Territory, deals with the case where a duty purportedly imposed on a Commonwealth body under that applied law cannot be imposed by the State or Territory or the Commonwealth due to constitutional doctrines restricting such duties.

State or Territory legislative power sufficient to support duty

- (2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Act (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:

Section 44ZZMB

- (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State or Territory concerned; and
- (b) imposing the duty by the law of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 44ZZM to the imposition of the duty by that law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

- (3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Act to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.
- (4) If, because of subsection (3), this Act is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Act.
- (5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Act in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
 - (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 44ZZM.

44ZZMB When a law of a State or Territory imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 44ZZM and 44ZZMA, a State or Territory access regime law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal if:

- (a) the law confers a function or power on the Commission or Tribunal; and

- (b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the Commission or Tribunal to perform the function or to exercise the power.

44ZZN Compensation for acquisition of property

- (1) If:
 - (a) a determination would result in an acquisition of property; and
 - (b) the determination would not be valid, apart from this section, because a particular person has not been sufficiently compensated;the Commonwealth must pay that person:
 - (c) a reasonable amount of compensation agreed on between the person and the Commonwealth; or
 - (d) failing agreement—a reasonable amount of compensation determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) In assessing compensation payable in a proceeding begun under this section, the following must be taken into account if they arise out of the same event or transaction:
 - (a) any damages or compensation recovered, or other remedy, in a proceeding begun otherwise than under this section;
 - (b) compensation awarded under a determination.
- (3) In this section, acquisition of property has the same meaning as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

- (4) In subsection (3), industrial action means:
- (a) the performance of work in a manner different from that in which it is customarily performed, or the adoption of a practice in relation to work, the result of which is a restriction or limitation on, or a delay in, the performance of the work, where:
 - (i) the terms and conditions of the work are prescribed, wholly or partly, by a workplace instrument or an order of an industrial body; or
 - (ii) the work is performed, or the practice is adopted, in connection with an industrial dispute; or

Meaning of industrial action—further clarification

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3):
- (a) conduct is capable of constituting industrial action even if the conduct relates to part only of the duties that persons are required to perform in the course of their employment; and

Section 45DD

Subsections (1), (2) and (3) do not protect people not covered by them

- (6) In applying subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) to a person who is not covered by subsection (1), (2) or (3) in respect of certain conduct, disregard the fact that other persons may be covered by one of those subsections in respect of the same conduct.

Defences to contravention of subsection 45DB(1)

- (7) In a proceeding under this Act in relation to a contravention of subsection 45DB(1), it is a defence if the defendant proves:
- (a) that a notice in respect of the conduct concerned has been duly given to the Commission under subsection 93(1) and the Commission has not given a notice in respect of the conduct under subsection 93(3) or (3A); or
 - (b) that the dominant purpose for which the defendant engaged in the conduct concerned was to preserve or further a business carried on by him or her.

Each person to prove defence

- (8) If:

 - (b) the other person proves a matter specified in paragraph (7)(a) or (b) in respect of that conduct;

in applying subsection 45DB(1) to the first person, ignore the fact that the other person has proved that matter.

Note: Section 415 of the Fair Work Act 2009 limits the right to bring actions under this Act in respect of industrial action that is protected action for the purposes of that section.

45E Prohibition of contracts, arrangements or understandings affecting the supply or acquisition of goods or services

Situations to which section applies

- (1) This section applies in the following situations:
- (a) a supply situation—in this situation, a person (the first person) has been accustomed, or is under an obligation, to supply goods or services to another person (the second person); or
 - (b) an acquisition situation—in this situation, a person (the first person) has been accustomed, or is under an obligation, to acquire goods or services from another person (the second person).

Despite paragraphs (a) and (b), this section does not apply unless the first or second person is a corporation or both of them are corporations.

Note : For the meanings of accustomed to supply and accustomed to acquire, see subsections (5) and (7).

Prohibition in a supply situation

- (2) In a supply situation, the first person must not make a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, with an organisation of employees, an officer of such an organisation or a person acting for and on behalf of such an officer or organisation, if the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding contains a provision included for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of:
- (a) preventing or hindering the first person from supplying or continuing to supply such goods or services to the second person; or
 - (b) preventing or hindering the first person from supplying or continuing to supply such goods or services to the second person, except subject to a condition:
 - (i) that is not a condition to which the supply of such goods or services by the first person to the second person has previously been subject because of a provision in a contract between those persons; and

Section 45E

 - (b) the period has ended; and
 - (c) after the end of the period, the second person has been supplied with such goods or services by another person and has not also been supplied with such goods or services by the first person;

then, for the purposes of the application of this section in relation to anything done after the second person has been supplied with goods or services as mentioned in paragraph (c), the first person is not to be taken to be a person who has been accustomed to supply such goods or services to the second person.

*Meaning of accustomed to acquire

- (b) the period has ended; and

then, for the purposes of the application of this section in relation to anything done after the second person has refused to supply goods or services as mentioned in paragraph (c), the first person is not to be taken to be a person who has been accustomed to acquire such goods or services from the second person.

Note: Conduct that would otherwise contravene this section can be authorised under section 88.

- (7) Without limiting the manner in which the purpose of a person may be established for the purposes of any other provision of this Act, a corporation may be taken to have taken advantage of its market power for a purpose referred to in subsection (2) even though, after all the evidence has been considered, the existence of that purpose is ascertainable only by inference from the conduct of the corporation or of any other person or from other relevant circumstances.
- (8) It is the intention of the Parliament that this section, and the provisions of Parts VI and XII so far as they relate to a contravention of this section, should apply to New Zealand and New Zealand Crown corporations to the same extent, and in the same way, as they respectively apply under section 2A to the Commonwealth and authorities of the Commonwealth.

 - (ii) if an application is made under subsection 52ZU(1)—the panel makes a ruling under subsection 52ZU(3); and
 - (b) the information requested is given in terms that are readily comprehensible; and
 - (c) if the other bargaining party is the responsible digital platform corporation and there are other designated digital platform services of the responsible digital platform corporation—the information is given in terms that relate specifically to the designated digital platform service (and

Section 52ZU

- not in terms that relate to that service and those other designated digital platform services in aggregate); and
- (d) if regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph specify other requirements for that information—those requirements are satisfied.

52ZU Information request by bargaining party—challenges by other bargaining party

- (1) The other bargaining party may apply to the panel, in writing, for a ruling that it is not reasonable for the bargaining party to make the request for the purposes of this Division, in relation to all or a specified part of the information requested.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) can be made no later than 10 business days after the bargaining party gives the request to the other bargaining party.
- (3) If an application is made under subsection (1), the panel must make a ruling in relation to it no later than 10 business days after it is made.

- (6) Nothing in section 52ZT requires the giving of information to the extent (if any) that the panel makes a ruling under subsection (3) that it was not reasonable for the bargaining party to make the request for the purposes of this Division, in relation to all or a specified part of the information requested.

52ZV Information request by bargaining party—miscellaneous rules

- (1) Nothing in section 52ZT requires the giving of information the disclosure of which would reveal a trade secret.

Section 52ZW

- (2) Nothing in section 52ZT requires or authorises the giving of information that is personal information (within the meaning of the Privacy Act 1988).
- (3) If a bargaining party gives information to the other bargaining party in order to comply with subsection 52ZT(5), the other bargaining party must ensure that the information is not used for a purpose other than a purpose in relation to arbitration under this Division.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if:
 - (a) there is a reference to a number of business days in a provision in section 52ZT or 52ZU; and
 - (b) regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph specify a different number of business days in respect of that provision.
- (5) Treat that reference in the provision as being to the number of business days specified in the regulations as mentioned in paragraph (4)(b).

52ZW Agreed early termination of arbitration

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the bargaining parties agree that the arbitration should terminate; and
 - (b) the panel did not make a determination in accordance with subsection 52ZX(1) before the agreement was made; and

- (3) The arbitration terminates in accordance with that agreement, but no earlier than the day on which parties notify the Chair of the agreement in accordance with subsection (2).

Section 52ZX

- (4) However, if the parties fail to comply with subsection (2):
 - (a) subsection (3) does not apply; and
 - (b) the agreement does not affect the validity of the arbitration or any aspect of the arbitration.

52ZX Final offer arbitration

- (1) The panel is to make a determination under this subsection about the terms for resolving the remuneration issue that:
 - (a) is in accordance with subsections (7), (8) and (9) (final offer arbitration); and
 - (b) sets out a lump sum amount (the remuneration amount) for remunerating the registered news business for the making available of the registered news business' covered news content by the designated digital platform service for 2 years; and
 - (c) is consistent with rights under contracts that are in force between:
 - (i) the responsible digital platform corporation or a related body corporate of the responsible digital platform corporation; and
 - (ii) the registered news business corporation for the represented registered news business or a related body corporate of that registered news business corporation.
- (2) Each of the bargaining parties must:
 - (a) submit to the panel a final offer for what the remuneration amount should be (expressed as a lump sum); and
 - (b) give a copy of the final offer to the Commission on the same day that it submits the final offer to the panel.
- (3) If a bargaining party gives a copy of the final offer to the Commission, the Commission must give a copy of the final offer to the other bargaining party as soon as practicable.
- (4) A final offer:
 - (a) cannot be submitted later than the latest of the following:

- (i) the end of the period of 10 business days after the day on which the arbitration starts;
 - (ii) if a bargaining party makes a request under subsection 52ZT(1) (information requests)—the end of the period of 10 business days after the latest day on which the other bargaining party may comply with the request in accordance with subsection 52ZT(5);
 - (iii) if a bargaining party makes an application under subsection 52ZU(1) (challenges to information requests)—the end of the period of 10 business days after the day on which the panel makes a ruling in relation to the application under subsection 52ZU(3);
 - (iv) if regulations made for the purposes of this subparagraph specify a different period—the end of that period;
 - (v) if the panel considers that exceptional circumstances justify a different period—the end of that period; and
- (b) cannot be more than 30 pages in length.
- (5) An offer that does not comply with subsection (4) is not a final offer for the purposes of this Division.
- (6) A final offer, once submitted, cannot be withdrawn or amended.
- (7) The panel must accept one of the final offers unless the panel considers that each final offer is not in the public interest because it is highly likely to result in serious detriment to:
- (a) the provision of covered news content in Australia; or
 - (b) Australian consumers.
- (8) If the panel does not accept one of those final offers, it must ascertain the remuneration amount by adjusting the most reasonable of those offers in a manner that results in that offer being in the public interest.
- (9) If one bargaining party fails to submit to the panel a final offer for what the remuneration amount should be, in accordance with subsection (4), the panel must:

Section 52ZX

- (a) accept the final offer submitted by the other bargaining party, in accordance with subsection (7); or
- (b) ascertain the remuneration amount by adjusting the final offer submitted by the other party, in accordance with subsection (8).

52ZX Final offer to be accompanied by information about contracts

- (1) If a bargaining party submits to the panel a final offer in accordance with subsection 52ZX(4), it must, on the same day that it submits the final offer to the panel, give the panel information that:

 - (i) the responsible digital platform corporation or a related body corporate of the responsible digital platform corporation; and
 - (ii) the registered news business corporation for the represented registered news business or a related body corporate of that registered news business corporation.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires the giving of information if doing so would disclose information that is protected against disclosure by a duty of confidence.
- (3) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) does not prevent a bargaining party from giving information under subsection (1) if the other bargaining party agrees to the bargaining party doing so.

52ZY Final offer arbitration—termination of arbitration if no final offers

If both bargaining parties fail to submit to the panel a final offer for what the remuneration amount should be, the arbitration terminates on the day after the last day on which such a final offer could have been submitted in accordance with subsection 52ZX(4).

52ZZ Matters to consider in arbitration, etc.

- (1) In making a determination under subsection 52ZX(1) (including in complying with subsections 52ZX(7), (8) and (9)), the panel must consider the following matters:
 - (a) the benefit (whether monetary or otherwise) of the registered news business' covered news content to the designated digital platform service;
 - (b) the benefit (whether monetary or otherwise) to the registered news business of the designated digital platform service making available the registered news business' covered news content;
 - (c) the reasonable cost to the registered news business of producing covered news content;

 - (d) whether a particular remuneration amount would place an undue burden on the commercial interests of the designated digital platform service.
- (2) In considering the matters set out in subsection (1), the panel must consider the bargaining power imbalance between Australian news businesses and the designated digital platform corporation.

52ZZA Other requirements for arbitration determination

- (1) The panel must make the determination no later than 35 business days (or, if the regulations specify a different period, the end of that period) after the latest of the following days:

 - (b) the last day on which a submission may be given by a bargaining party in accordance with subsection 52ZZB(1);
 - (c) the last day on which a submission may be given by the Commission in accordance with subsection 52ZZC(1);
 - (d) the last day on which a submission may be given by a bargaining party in accordance with subsection 52ZZC(3).

Section 52ZZB

- (2) If the Chair is not the sole member of the panel:
 - (a) the panel must endeavour to make the determination by unanimous decision of the members of the panel; and
 - (b) where a unanimous decision is not possible, the panel must make the determination by majority decision of the members of the panel.
- (3) The panel must, as soon as practicable, give written reasons for making the determination to the bargaining parties and the Commission.
- (4) Those written reasons must contain the information (if any) specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection.

52ZZB Submissions of bargaining parties

- (1) Each bargaining party may give to the panel a submission about the final offer of the other bargaining party, no later than 5 business days (or, if the regulations specify a different period, the end of that period) after the panel has received both final offers (in accordance with paragraph 52ZX(2)(a)).
- (2) The submission can only deal with issues that are dealt with in any material accompanying either of the final offers.
- (3) The submission cannot be more than 20 pages in length.
- (4) If a bargaining party gives the panel a submission under subsection (1):
 - (a) the bargaining party must give a copy of the submission to the Commission on the same day that it gives the submission to the panel; and
 - (b) if the Commission is given a copy of the submission under paragraph (a), the Commission must give a copy of the submission to the other bargaining party as soon as practicable.

52ZZC Role of Commission

- (1) The Commission may give to the panel a submission in relation to the arbitration, no later than 10 business days (or, if the regulations specify a different period, the end of that period) after the Commission has received both final offers (in accordance with paragraph 52ZX(2)(b)).
- (1A) The information contained in the submission must be:
 - (a) impartial factual information that relates to the relevant market; and
 - (b) impartial information that relates to relevant economic principles.
- (2) If the Commission gives the panel a submission under subsection (1), it must give the bargaining parties a copy of the submission on the same day that it gives the submission to the panel.
- (3) Each bargaining party may give to the panel a submission about the Commission's submission, no later than 5 business days after the bargaining party has received the Commission's submission.
- (4) The bargaining party's submission cannot be more than 20 pages in length.
- (5) If a bargaining party gives the panel a submission under subsection (3):
 - (a) the bargaining party must give a copy of the submission to the Commission on the same day that it gives the submission to the panel; and
 - (b) if the Commission is given a copy of the submission under paragraph (a), the Commission must give a copy of the submission to the other bargaining party as soon as practicable.

Section 52ZZD

52ZZD Guidelines about conduct of arbitration

 - (d) how a panel makes a determination in accordance with subsection 52ZX(1).
- (3) A panel may take the guidelines into account in conducting an arbitration under this Division.
- (4) However:
 - (a) the panel need not take the guidelines into account in conducting the arbitration; and
 - (b) a failure by the panel to take the guidelines into account in conducting the arbitration does not affect the validity of the arbitration or any aspect of the arbitration.
- (5) The Commission must publish the guidelines on its website as soon as practicable.
- (6) General information made available by the Commission in accordance with subsection 28(1) must not relate to the conduct of an arbitration under this Division.
- (7) Guidelines made under subsection (1) are not a legislative instrument.

Part IVD—Consumer data right

Division 1—Preliminary

Subdivision A—Object and simplified outline

56AA Object of this Part

The object of this Part is:

- (a) to enable consumers in certain sectors of the Australian economy to require information relating to themselves in those sectors to be disclosed safely, efficiently and conveniently:
 - (i) to themselves for use as they see fit; or
 - (ii) to accredited persons for use subject to privacy safeguards; and
- (b) to enable any person to efficiently and conveniently access information in those sectors that:
 - (i) is about goods (such as products) or services; and
 - (ii) does not relate to any identifiable, or reasonably identifiable, consumers; and
- (c) as a result of paragraphs (a) and (b), to create more choice and competition, or to otherwise promote the public interest.

56AB Simplified outline

Rules made under this Part may:

- (a) enable consumers in certain sectors of the Australian economy to require information relating to themselves in those sectors to be disclosed to themselves or to accredited persons; and
- (b) enable any person to be disclosed information in those sectors that is about goods (such as products) or

Section 56AC

- services, and does not relate to any identifiable, or reasonably identifiable, consumers; and
- (c) may require these kinds of disclosures, and other things, to be done in accordance with data standards.

A register is to be kept of accredited persons.

Privacy safeguards apply. These mainly apply to accredited persons who, under those rules, are disclosed information relating to identifiable, or reasonably identifiable, consumers.

Subdivision B—Designating sectors subject to the consumer data right

56AC Designated sectors subject to the consumer data right

Designating a sector

- (1) A designated sector means a sector of the Australian economy designated under subsection (2).
- (2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, designate a sector of the Australian economy by specifying:
- (a) classes of information (the designated information); and
 - (b) persons who hold one or more specified classes of the designated information (or on whose behalf such information is held); and
 - (c) the earliest day (the earliest holding day) applicable to the sector for holding the designated information; and
 - (d) each of the classes of information within the designated information for which a person may charge a fee if:
 - (i) the person is required under the consumer data rules to disclose information within that class to another person in specified circumstances; or
 - (ii) another person uses information within that class in specified circumstances as the result of a disclosure required of the first-mentioned person under the consumer data rules; and

Section 56AC

- (e) if the sector is to have one or more gateways:
 - (i) the particular persons who are gateways; and
 - (ii) for each of those persons, the classes of information within the designated information for which the person is a gateway.

Note 1: The persons specified under paragraph (b):

- (a) may be specified by class (see subsection 13(3) of the Legislation Act 2003); and
- (b) will be holders of the information, rather than the consumers to whom the information relates; and
- (c) may not be the only holders of the information who can be required to disclose it under the consumer data rules (see section 56AJ (about the meaning of data holder)).

Note 2: While a class of information specified under paragraph (b), (d) or (e) needs to be of the information specified under paragraph (a), it need not be the same class as a class specified under paragraph (a).

Note 3: Subparagraph (e)(i) allows only particular persons to be specified, not classes of persons.

Note 4: For variation and repeal, see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Geographical limitation on information that can be designated

- (3) Despite paragraph (2)(a), treat a class of information specified as described in that paragraph as only including so much of the information in that class as:
 - (a) has at any time been generated or collected wholly or partly in Australia or the external Territories, and:
 - (i) has been so generated or collected by (or on behalf of) one or more Australian persons; or
 - (ii) relates to one or more Australian persons (other than the persons who so generated or collected it); or
 - (iii) relates to goods or services supplied, or offered for supply, to one or more Australian persons; or
 - (b) has only ever been generated and collected outside of Australia and the external Territories, and:

- (i) has been so generated or collected by (or on behalf of) one or more Australian persons; and
- (ii) relates to one or more Australian persons (other than the persons who so generated or collected it), or relates to goods or services supplied, or offered for supply, to one or more Australian persons.

In this subsection, Australian person has the same meaning as in subsection 56AO(5).

Limitation on the earliest holding day

- (4) While the earliest holding day may be before the day the instrument under subsection (2) is made, the earliest holding day must not be earlier than the first day of the calendar year that is 2 years before the calendar year in which that instrument is made.

Example: The instrument is made on 1 July 2020. The earliest holding day could be 1 January 2018, but not before.

Note: The earliest holding day helps to work out if a person is a data holder of information specified under paragraph (2)(a), and so whether that information is subject to the consumer data right.

56AD Minister's tasks before designating a sector etc.

- (1) Before making an instrument under subsection 56AC(2), the Minister must consider all of the following:
 - (a) the likely effect of making the instrument on:
 - (i) the interests of consumers; and
 - (ii) the efficiency of relevant markets; and
 - (iii) the privacy or confidentiality of consumers' information; and
 - (iv) promoting competition; and
 - (v) promoting data-driven innovation; and
 - (vi) any intellectual property in the information to be covered by the instrument; and
 - (vii) the public interest;

Section 56AD

- (b) the likely regulatory impact of allowing the consumer data rules to impose requirements relating to the information to be covered by the instrument;
- (c) the following matters when considering whether to specify a class of information, as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(d), in the instrument:
 - (i) whether not specifying that class could result in an acquisition of property (within the meaning of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution);
 - (ii) whether holders of information within that class currently charge a fee for disclosing such information;
 - (iii) whether the incentive to generate, collect, hold or maintain information within that class would be reduced if that class were not so specified;
 - (iv) the marginal cost of the disclosures required under the consumer data rules of information within that class;
- (d) whether one or more gateways need to be specified in the instrument in order to facilitate access to the information to be covered by the instrument;
- (e) any other matters the Minister considers relevant.

Note: The consumers could be individuals or other persons such as companies (see also subsection 56AI(4)).

- (2) Before making an instrument under subsection 56AC(2), the Minister must:
 - (a) be satisfied that the Secretary of the Department has complied with section 56AE in relation to the making of the instrument; and
 - (b) wait at least 60 days after the day the Secretary publishes the report relating to the making of the instrument (see section 56AE).

56AH Other matters

A failure to comply with section 56AD, 56AE, 56AEA or 56AF does not invalidate an instrument made under subsection 56AC(2).

Subdivision C—Meanings of key terms

56AI Meanings of CDR data, directly or indirectly derived and CDR consumer

- (1) CDR data is information that:
 - (a) is within a class of information specified, as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(a), in an instrument designating a sector under subsection 56AC(2); or
 - (b) is not covered by paragraph (a) of this subsection, but is wholly or partly derived from information covered by:

Section 56AI

- (i) paragraph (a) of this subsection; or
- (ii) a previous application of this paragraph.

- Note 1: Geographical limitations may cause some information within a class specified as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(a) to be disregarded (see subsection 56AC(3)), which means it will not be CDR data.
- Note 2: Information covered by paragraph (b) includes information derived from information covered by paragraph (a), information derived from that derived information, and so on.
- Note 3: Information covered by paragraph (b), for which there is a CDR consumer, cannot be required to be disclosed under the consumer data rules (see subsection 56BD(1)).
- Note 4: Only certain kinds of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers (also known as product data) can be required to be disclosed under the consumer data rules (see subsection 56BF(1)).

- (2) CDR data is directly or indirectly derived from other CDR data if the first-mentioned CDR data is wholly or partly derived from the other CDR data after one or more applications of paragraph (1)(b).
- (3) A person is a CDR consumer for CDR data if:
 - (a) the CDR data relates to the person because:
 - (i) of the supply of a good or service to the person or to one or more of the person's associates (within the meaning of section 318 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936); or
 - (ii) of circumstances of a kind prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) the CDR data is held by another person who:
 - (i) is a data holder of the CDR data; or
 - (ii) is an accredited data recipient of the CDR data; or
 - (iii) is holding the CDR data on behalf of a person mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii); and
 - (c) the person is identifiable, or reasonably identifiable, from:
 - (i) the CDR data; or
 - (ii) other information held by the other person referred to in paragraph (b); and

Section 56AJ

(d) none of the conditions (if any) prescribed by the regulations apply to the first-mentioned person in relation to the CDR data.

(4) Section 4B (about consumers) does not apply to this Part.

56AJ Meaning of data holder

(1) A person is a data holder, of CDR data, if:

(a) the CDR data:

(i) is information within a class of information specified, as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(a), in an instrument designating a sector under subsection 56AC(2) (the designation instrument); or

(ii) is directly or indirectly derived from information covered by subparagraph (i); and

(b) the CDR data is held by (or on behalf of) the person on or after the earliest holding day specified in the designation instrument; and

(ba) in the case of the CDR data beginning to be held by (or on behalf of) the person before that earliest holding day, the CDR data:

(i) is of continuing use and relevance; and

(ii) is not about the provision before that earliest holding day of a product or service by (or on behalf of) the person; and

(c) the person is not a designated gateway for the CDR data; and

(d) subsection (2), (3) or (4) applies to the person and the CDR data.

Note 1: Geographical limitations may cause some information within a class specified as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(a) to be disregarded (see subsection 56AC(3)), which means it will not be CDR data.

Note 2: For a product or service that the person began providing before the earliest holding day and continued providing after that day:

(a) subparagraph (ba)(ii) means the person will not be the data holder of CDR data about the person's provision of the product or service before that day; but

Section 56AK

- (b) the person will be the data holder of CDR data about the person's provision of the product or service on or after that day.

First case—person is also specified in the designation instrument

- (2) This subsection applies to a person and CDR data if:
- (a) the person, or a class of persons to which the person belongs, is specified, as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(b), in the designation instrument as holding a class of information to which the CDR data belongs; and

Second case—reciprocity arising from the person being disclosed other CDR data under the consumer data rules

- (3) This subsection applies to a person and CDR data if:
- (a) neither the CDR data, nor any other CDR data from which it was directly or indirectly derived, was disclosed to the person under the consumer data rules; and
 - (b) the person is an accredited data recipient of other CDR data.

Note 1: Paragraph (b) is referring to other CDR data not covered by paragraph (a).

Note 2: The other CDR data referred to in paragraph (b) could be within a class of information specified in another instrument designating a different sector under subsection 56AC(2).

Third case—conditions in the consumer data rules are met

- (4) This subsection applies to a person and CDR data if:
- (a) the person is an accredited person; and

 - (c) the conditions specified in the consumer data rules are met.

56AK Meaning of accredited data recipient

A person is an accredited data recipient, of CDR data, if:

- (a) the person is an accredited person; and
- (b) the CDR data is held by (or on behalf of) the person; and
- (c) the CDR data, or any other CDR data from which it was directly or indirectly derived, was disclosed to the person under the consumer data rules; and
- (d) the person is neither a data holder, nor a designated gateway, for the first-mentioned CDR data.

Note: For paragraph (d), the person will be a data holder of that CDR data if subsection 56AJ(4) applies.

56AL Meanings of CDR participant and designated gateway

- (1) A CDR participant, for CDR data, is a data holder, or an accredited data recipient, of the CDR data.
- (2) A person is a designated gateway, for CDR data, if:
 - (a) the person is specified as a gateway, as described in subparagraph 56AC(2)(e)(i), in an instrument designating a sector under subsection 56AC(2); and

 - (i) acting as described in a subparagraph of paragraph 56BG(1)(a) or (b); or
 - (ii) if there are no consumers for the CDR data—acting between a CDR participant for the CDR data and a person requesting a disclosure of the CDR data; and not because the person is an accredited person or a CDR consumer for the CDR data.

56AM Meanings of chargeable CDR data, chargeable circumstances and fee-free CDR data

- (1) CDR data is chargeable CDR data if the CDR data is information within a class specified, as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(d), in an instrument designating a sector under subsection 56AC(2) (the designation instrument).
- (2) The chargeable CDR data is disclosed in chargeable circumstances if it is disclosed in circumstances specified:

Note: The extended geographical application that section 56AO gives to the CDR provisions applies to the offences against the CDR provisions.

Subdivision E—Application to government entities

56AQ CDR provisions bind the Crown

- (1) The CDR provisions bind the Crown in each of its capacities.
- (2) However, the CDR provisions do not make the Crown:

Note: For how the CDR provisions so apply, see subsection (4).

- (3) However, whether or not such a declaration is in force for an entity referred to in subsection (2), the CDR provisions apply in relation to the entity to the extent that:
 - (a) the CDR provisions relate to a CDR consumer for CDR data; and as a designated gateway in accordance with the CDR provisions.

56AS Participating government entities of a State or Territory—declaration

- (1) The Minister may, by notifiable instrument, declare that an entity is a participating entity for a State or Territory.

Note: An entity may be specified by class (see subsection 13(3) of the Legislation Act 2003).

- (2) However, the Minister must not do so unless the Minister is satisfied that the State or Territory has agreed to the entity participating under this Part.
- (3) If:

56AU Acts done by or in relation to agents etc. of CDR entities

Conduct of agents etc. of a CDR entity attributable to the CDR entity

- (1) For the purposes of this Part and the consumer data rules, each of the following provisions applies to a CDR entity who is not a body corporate in a corresponding way to the way that provision applies to a CDR entity who is a body corporate:
 - (a) section 84 of this Act;

56BAA Rules must include requirement to delete CDR data on request from CDR consumer

Requirement to delete CDR data in response to request from CDR consumer

- (1) The consumer data rules must include a requirement on an accredited data recipient of CDR data to delete all or part of the CDR data in response to a valid request by a CDR consumer for the CDR data to be deleted.
- (2) However, a rule described in subsection (1) must not require deletion of all or part of the CDR Data if:

Section 56BAA

- (a) the accredited data recipient is required to retain the CDR data by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order; or
- (b) the CDR data relates to any current or anticipated:

 - (ii) if the CDR data is not deleted—the reasons the deletion did not occur;
 - (f) rules about any other matters incidental or related to the requirement (see also section 56BJ).

- (4) This section applies despite any other provision of this Division.
- (5) This section does not limit the consumer data rules dealing with the deletion of CDR data in circumstances other than compliance with the requirement.

56BB Matters that the consumer data rules may deal with

The consumer data rules may deal with the following matters:

- (a) disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of CDR data for which there are one or more CDR consumers (see also sections 56BC and 56BD);
- (b) disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers (see also sections 56BE and 56BF);

56BC Rules about disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of CDR data for which there are CDR consumers

Required disclosures in response to valid requests

- (1) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(a), the consumer data rules may include the following rules:

 - (ii) an accredited person for use subject to the privacy safeguards;

Section 56BC

- (b) rules about:
 - (i) how a CDR consumer for the CDR data may make a valid request of the kind described in paragraph (a); and

- (c) requirements on a person (other than a CDR consumer for the CDR data) to satisfy in order to be disclosed the CDR data in the way described in paragraph (a).

Note 1: The requirements described in paragraph (a) could, for example, include a requirement that the disclosure be in accordance with the relevant data standards.

Note 2: A fee may be charged for such a disclosure if the CDR data is chargeable CDR data, unless section 56BU provides otherwise.

Authorised disclosures or use in accordance with valid consents

- (2) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(a), the consumer data rules may include the following rules:

 - (i) an accredited person; or
 - (ii) an accredited data recipient of the CDR data; or
 - (iii) a CDR consumer for the CDR data.

Note 1: Subsection 56BD(3) limits how such rules can affect a data holder.

Note 2: The rules may deal with similar or additional matters to those in the privacy safeguards. When doing so, the rules will need to be consistent with those safeguards (see subsections 56EC(1) and (2)).

Note 3: The rules must include a requirement on an accredited data recipient to delete all or part of the CDR data in response to a valid request by a CDR consumer for the CDR data (see section 56BAA).

56BD Limitations for rules about CDR data for which there are CDR consumers

Only designated CDR data can be required to be disclosed

- (1) The consumer data rules can only require a disclosure of CDR data for which there are one or more CDR consumers if:
- (a) the CDR data is within a class of information specified, as described in paragraph 56AC(2)(a), in an instrument designating a sector under subsection 56AC(2); and
 - (b) the disclosure is to:
 - (i) one or more of those CDR consumers; or

Section 56BD

- (iv) a data holder of the CDR data by a designated gateway for the CDR data; or
- (v) a person acting on behalf a person referred to in subparagraph (ii), (iii) or (iv).

Note 1: This means CDR data cannot be required to be disclosed if it:

- (a) is not within a class specified in such an instrument; and
- (b) is directly or indirectly derived from CDR data that is within a class specified in such an instrument.

Note 2: The consumer data rules can include other rules relating to this other derived CDR data.

Note 3: Voluntary disclosures of this other derived CDR data can be authorised under the consumer data rules.

No fee when fee-free CDR data is required to be disclosed

- (2) The consumer data rules cannot allow a fee to be charged for:
 - (a) the disclosure of fee-free CDR data under rules like those described in paragraph 56BC(1)(a) or 56BG(1)(a); or
 - (b) the use of fee-free CDR data received as the result of such a disclosure.

Note: Fees may be charged for other kinds of disclosures or uses of fee-free CDR data.

Rules affecting data holders that relate to the use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of CDR data

- (3) For a data holder of CDR data for which there are one or more CDR consumers, the consumer data rules:
 - (a) cannot include rules affecting the data holder that relate to the deletion of the CDR data; and
 - (b) can only include rules affecting the data holder that relate to the use, accuracy, storage or security of the CDR data if such rules also relate to the disclosure of the CDR data under the consumer data rules.

Effect of limitations

- (4) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) apply despite any other provision of this Division.

56BE Rules about disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of product data

Without limiting paragraph 56BB(b), the consumer data rules may include the following rules for CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers:

- (a) requirements on a CDR participant for the CDR data to disclose all or part of the CDR data to a person in response to a valid request by the person;
- (b) rules about:

- (c) requirements on a person to satisfy in order to be disclosed the CDR data in the way described in paragraph (a);
- (d) other rules affecting:
 - (i) CDR participants for the CDR data; or
 - (ii) persons wishing to be disclosed the CDR data;that relate to the disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of the CDR data.

Note 1: A request for this CDR data could be made, for example, to assist the development of a product or service.

Note 2: The requirements described in paragraph (a) could, for example, include a requirement that the disclosure be in accordance with the relevant data standards.

Note 3: The privacy safeguards do not apply to this CDR data (see subsection 56EB(1)).

56BF Limitations for rules about product data

Only certain kinds of product data can be required to be disclosed

- (1) The consumer data rules can only require a disclosure of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers if:
- (a) the CDR data is about the eligibility criteria, terms and conditions, price, availability or performance of:
 - (i) a product or other kind of good; or
 - (ii) a service; and
 - (b) in the case where the CDR data is about availability or performance—the CDR data is publicly available.

Note 1: This means other kinds of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers cannot be required to be disclosed.

Note 2: The consumer data rules can include other rules relating to other kinds of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers.

Note 3: Voluntary disclosures of other kinds of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers can be authorised under the consumer data rules.

No fee when this CDR data is required to be disclosed

- (2) The consumer data rules cannot allow a fee to be charged for:
- (a) the disclosure of CDR data under rules like those described in paragraph 56BE(a) or 56BG(2)(a); or
 - (b) the use of CDR data received as the result of such a disclosure.

Note: A fee could be charged for other disclosures or uses of CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers.

Effect of limitations

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply despite any other provision of this Division.

56BG Rules about designated gateways

CDR data for which there are CDR consumers

- (1) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(c), if there is a designated gateway for CDR data for which there are one or more CDR consumers, the consumer data rules may include the following rules:
 - (a) rules like those described in subsection 56BC(1) for the CDR data, but involving the designated gateway:
 - (i) acting between the CDR consumer and the CDR participant in the making of a valid request; or
 - (ii) acting between the CDR consumer and the accredited person who is the proposed recipient of the requested disclosure; or
 - (iii) acting between the CDR participant and the CDR consumer, or accredited person, who is the proposed recipient of the requested disclosure;
 - (b) rules like those described in subsection 56BC(2) for the CDR data, but involving the designated gateway:

 - (c) other rules affecting the designated gateway that relate to the disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of the CDR data.

Product data

- (2) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(c), if there is a designated gateway for CDR data for which there are no CDR consumers, the consumer data rules may include the following rules:
 - (a) rules like those described in paragraphs 56BE(a) to (c), but involving the designated gateway acting between the CDR participant and the person requesting the disclosure;

Section 56BH

- (b) other rules affecting the designated gateway that relate to the disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of the CDR data.

Limitation—rules relating to the collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of CDR data

- (3) For a designated gateway for CDR data for which there are one or more CDR consumers, the consumer data rules:
 - (a) can only include rules affecting the designated gateway requiring or authorising the disclosure of the CDR data if such rules are as described in paragraph (1)(a) or (b); and
 - (b) can only include rules affecting the designated gateway that relate to the collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of the CDR data if such rules also relate to a disclosure described in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

Note: Paragraph (a) does not prevent the inclusion of a rule relating to a disclosure described in that paragraph.

- (4) Subsection (3) applies despite any other provision of this Division.

Transitional rules

- (5) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(c), if there is a designated gateway for CDR data, the consumer data rules may include transitional rules for when a person ceases to be the designated gateway, including about the disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of the CDR data.

Note: These rules could, for example, include a requirement that the CDR data be disclosed in accordance with the relevant data standards to another gateway. Some of these transitional rules could be similar to some of the privacy safeguards.

56BH Rules about accreditation of data recipients

- (1) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(d), the consumer data rules may include the following rules:
 - (a) rules conferring functions or powers on the Data Recipient Accreditor;

- (c) rules providing that accreditations may be granted subject to conditions, and that conditions may be imposed on an accreditation after it has been granted;
- (d) rules providing that accreditations may be granted at different levels corresponding to different risks, including the risks associated with:
 - (i) specified classes of CDR data; or
 - (ii) specified classes of activities; or

- (e) rules for the period, renewal, transfer, variation, suspension, revocation or surrender of accreditations;
- (f) notification requirements on persons whose accreditations have been varied, suspended, revoked or surrendered;
- (g) transitional rules for when an accreditation is varied, is suspended or ends, including about the disclosure, collection, use, accuracy, storage, security or deletion of CDR data;
- (h) rules about a matter referred to in subsection 56CE(4) (about the Register of Accredited Persons).

Note: The rules described in paragraph (g) could, for example, include a requirement that the CDR data be disclosed in accordance with the relevant data standards to an accredited person. Some of these transitional rules could be similar to some of the privacy safeguards.

- (2) Without limiting paragraph (1)(b):
 - (a) the criteria may differ for different classes of persons; and
 - (b) the criteria may include the payment of a fee.Any fee must not be such as to amount to taxation.
- (3) Without limiting paragraph (1)(e), each of the following may be a ground for varying, suspending or revoking an accreditation:
 - (a) a failure to comply with a requirement in this Part or in the consumer data rules;
 - (b) a failure to comply with a requirement in the privacy safeguards.

Part IVD Consumer data right

Division 2 Consumer data right

Section 56BI

Note: An example of a variation could be the imposition of a condition, or changing the level of an accreditation.

- (4) If the consumer data rules include rules enabling decisions to be made to vary, suspend or revoke accreditations, the rules must permit the making of applications to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of those decisions.

Note: The consumer data rules can also provide for internal review of these decisions, and internal and AAT review of other decisions (see section 56BJ).

56BI Rules about reporting, record keeping and auditing

- (1) Without limiting paragraph 56BB(e), the consumer data rules may include the following rules:

 - (ii) any disclosures made in response to such consents;
- (c) a power for a person referred to in paragraph 56BG(1)(a) or (b) to direct a designated gateway referred to in that paragraph to give reports about:
- (i) valid requests or consents, affecting the designated gateway, under rules like those described in that paragraph; and

 - (b) information from such records;either periodically, or on request by the Commission or Information Commissioner, or both.

56BJ Rules about incidental or related matters

Without limiting paragraph 56BAA(3)(f) or 56BB(f), the consumer data rules may include the following rules:

- (a) rules that refer to the data standards;

Section 56BJ

- (j) rules about any other matters that the provisions of this Part provide may be specified, or otherwise dealt with, in the consumer data rules.

56BK Further limitations on the consumer data rules

- (1) The consumer data rules cannot impose on a person a requirement that has a retrospective commencement or application.

Example: The rules cannot require a data holder to disclose CDR data on a day before the rules are registered, or on a day before the registration of a variation to the rules that includes the requirement.

Note: Other limitations on the consumer data rules are in sections 56BD, 56BF and 56BG.

- (2) To avoid doubt, the consumer data rules may require a person to do something on a particular day, in relation to CDR data generated or collected on an earlier day, if the person:
- (a) is a data holder of the CDR data; or
 - (b) is an accredited person; or
 - (c) is a person who has given a valid request under the consumer data rules relating to the CDR data; or
 - (d) is a designated gateway for the CDR data.

Example: A data holder is given a valid request to disclose CDR data that was generated before the rules are registered. The rules can require that disclosure.

- (3) The regulations may provide that the consumer data rules:

Section 56BL

- (a) have no effect to the extent that the consumer data rules deal with specified matters, or impose specified requirements, in relation to:
 - (i) specified classes of CDR data; or
 - (ii) specified classes of persons; or
 - (b) only have effect to the extent that the consumer data rules deal with specified matters, or impose specified requirements, in relation to:
 - (i) specified classes of CDR data; or
 - (ii) specified classes of persons.
- The consumer data rules have effect (or no effect) accordingly.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (3) apply despite any other provision of this Division.

Subdivision B—Compliance with consumer data rules

56BL Obligation to comply with consumer data rules

The consumer data rules may provide that specified provisions of the rules are civil penalty provisions (within the meaning of the Regulatory Powers Act).

Note: Sections 76 to 77 deal with enforcing the civil penalty provisions.

Object

- (1) The object of this section is for Division 5 of Part XI to apply to a civil penalty provision of the consumer data rules in a corresponding way to the way that Division applies to a provision of Part 2-2 of the Australian Consumer Law.

Note: That Division is about infringement notices issued for alleged contraventions of provisions of the Australian Consumer Law.

Extended application of Division 5 of Part XI etc.

- (2) Division 5 of Part XI, and any other provision of this Act that relates to that Division, also apply in relation to a civil penalty provision of the consumer data rules as if the substitutions in the following table were made.

Substitutions to be made
Item	For a reference in Division 5 of Part XI to substitute a reference to ...
1	section 224 of the Australian Consumer Law	section 76 of this Act.
2	Chapter 4 or Part 5-2 of the Australian Consumer Law	Part VI of this Act.
3	a provision of Part 2-2 of the Australian Consumer Law	a civil penalty provision of the consumer data rules.

- (3) To avoid doubt, Division 2 of Part XI does not limit the application of section 56GF (about constitutional basis) to the extended application of Division 5 of Part XI as described in this section.

56BN Misleading or deceptive conduct—offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person engages in conduct; and
 - (b) the person does so knowing that the conduct:
 - (i) is misleading or deceptive; or
 - (ii) is likely to be misleading or deceptive; and
 - (c) the conduct misleads or deceives, or is likely to mislead or deceive, another person (the second person) into believing that:
 - (i) a person is a CDR consumer for CDR data; or
 - (ii) a person is making a valid request or consent, or has satisfied other criteria, for the disclosure of CDR data under the consumer data rules.

Note: The person mentioned in subparagraph (c)(i) or (ii) could be the first-mentioned person, the second person or a third person.

Section 56BO

Defence

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the conduct is not misleading or deceptive in a material particular.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in this subsection (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

Penalty—body corporate

- (3) An offence against subsection (1) committed by a body corporate is punishable on conviction by a fine of not more than the greater of the following:
- (a) $10,000,000;
 - (b) if the court can determine the value of the benefit that the body corporate, and any body corporate related to the body corporate, have obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the commission of the offence—3 times the value of that benefit;
 - (c) if the court cannot determine the value of that benefit—10% of the annual turnover of the body corporate during the 12-month period ending at the end of the month in which the commission of the offence happened or began.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(c), annual turnover has the same meaning as in Division 1 of Part IV.

Penalty—other persons

- (5) An offence against subsection (1) committed by a person other than a body corporate is punishable on conviction by imprisonment for not more than 5 years, a fine of not more than $500,000, or both.

- (1) A person must not engage in conduct that misleads or deceives, or is likely to mislead or deceive, another person (the second person) into believing that:
- (a) a person is a CDR consumer for CDR data; or

- (b) a person is making a valid request or consent, or has satisfied other criteria, for the disclosure of CDR data under the consumer data rules.

Note 1: The person mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) could be the first-mentioned person, the second person or a third person.

Note 2: For enforcement, see Part VI (including section 76 for an order for payment of a pecuniary penalty).

Defence

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the conduct is not misleading or deceptive in a material particular.
- (3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (2) bears the burden of adducing or pointing to evidence that suggests a reasonable possibility that the conduct is not misleading or deceptive in a material particular.

Subdivision C—Process for making consumer data rules etc.

56BP Minister's tasks before making the rules

Before making consumer data rules under subsection 56BA(1), the Minister must:

- (a) consider the kinds of matters referred to in paragraphs 56AD(1)(a) and (b) in relation to the making of the rules; and
- (b) be satisfied that the Secretary of the Department has complied with section 56BQ in relation to the making of the rules; and
- (c) wait at least 60 days after the day public consultation begins under paragraph 56BQ(b) about the making of the rules.

56BQ Secretary must arrange for consultation and report before the rules are made

The Secretary of the Department complies with this section in relation to the making of consumer data rules if the Secretary arranges for all of the following:

Section 56BR

- (a) an analysis of the kinds of matters referred to in paragraphs 56AD(1)(a) and (b) in relation to the making of the rules;
- (b) public consultation about the making of the rules:
 - (i) for at least 28 days; and
 - (ii) in one or more ways that includes making information available on the Department's website and inviting the public to comment;
- (c) consultation with each of the following about the making of the rules:
 - (i) the Commission;
 - (ii) the Information Commissioner;
 - (iii) the person or body (if any) that the Secretary believes to be the primary regulator of the sector;
 - (iv) any person or body prescribed by the regulations;
- (d) the preparation of a report for the Minister about that analysis and consultation.

56BR Commission and Information Commissioner must analyse the proposed rules

When consulted under paragraph 56BQ(c), the Commission and the Information Commissioner must each analyse the kinds of matters referred to in paragraphs 56AD(1)(a) and (b) in relation to the making of the rules.

56BS Emergency rules: public consultation not required etc.

- (1) The Minister may make consumer data rules under subsection 56BA(1):
 - (a) without complying with paragraph 56BP(b) or (c); but
 - (b) after consulting the Commission and Information Commissioner;if the Minister believes (whether or not that belief is reasonable) that it is necessary to do so in order to avoid a risk of serious harm to:

- (c) the efficiency, integrity or stability of any aspect of the Australian economy; or
- (d) the interests of consumers.

Note: The Minister still needs to comply with paragraph 56BP(a).

- (2) However, a failure to comply with paragraph (1)(b) of this section does not invalidate consumer data rules made as described in subsection (1).

Note: Such rules may have a limited life (see section 56BT).

56BT Emergency rules: consequences if made

If:

- (a) the Minister makes consumer data rules as described in subsection 56BS(1) (the emergency rules); and
 - (b) the emergency rules are made without consulting either the Commission or the Information Commissioner, or both;
- the emergency rules cease to be in force 6 months after the day they are made.

Note: If the emergency rules vary other consumer data rules, this section causes only the emergency rules to cease to be in force.

56BTA Other matters

A failure to comply with section 56BP, 56BQ or 56BR does not invalidate consumer data rules made under subsection 56BA(1).

Subdivision D—Fees for disclosing CDR data

56BU Charging a fee in inappropriate circumstances when required to disclose CDR data

- (1) A person contravenes this subsection if:
 - (a) the person is a CDR participant for CDR data; and
 - (b) the person is required under the consumer data rules to disclose all or part of the CDR data; and

Section 56BV

- (c) the person charges (or causes to be charged) a fee for either or both of the following matters:
 - (i) the disclosure (or a related disclosure by a designated gateway or other CDR participant for the CDR data);
 - (ii) the use of the CDR data as the result of the disclosure (or of that related disclosure); and
- (d) subsection (2) or any of the following subparagraphs applies:
 - (i) the CDR data is fee-free CDR data;
 - (ii) to the extent that the fee is charged for the disclosure of chargeable CDR data—the fee purports to cover a disclosure in circumstances that are not chargeable circumstances;
 - (iii) to the extent that the fee is charged for the use of chargeable CDR data—the fee purports to cover use in circumstances that are not chargeable circumstances.

Note: For enforcement, see Part VI (including section 76 for an order for payment of a pecuniary penalty).

- (2) This subsection applies if:
 - (a) any fee (the reasonable fee):
 - (i) that has been determined under subsection 56BV(1) for the person; or
 - (ii) that can be worked out from a method determined under subsection 56BV(1) for the person;covers either or both of the matters in paragraph (1)(c) of this section; and
 - (b) the portion of the fee charged as described in that paragraph for those matters exceeds the corresponding portion of the reasonable fee.

56BV Commission may intervene if fee for disclosing or using chargeable CDR data is unreasonable etc.

- (1) The Commission may determine the following for a specified CDR participant for specified chargeable CDR data:

- (a) the amount of a fee, or a method for working out the amount of a fee, that the CDR participant may charge (or cause to be charged) for either or both of the following matters (the chargeable matters):
- (i) the disclosure of the chargeable CDR data in chargeable circumstances because of a requirement under the consumer data rules to do so;
 - (ii) the use of the chargeable CDR data in chargeable circumstances as the result of such a disclosure;
- (b) the specified persons who are liable to pay that fee;
- if the Commission is satisfied that the fee that the CDR participant would otherwise charge (or cause to be charged) is unreasonable having regard to the criteria in subsection (3).
- (2) When determining an amount or method under subsection (1), the Commission must seek to ensure that the resulting fee:
- (a) reflects the reasonable costs (including capital costs) necessary for the CDR participant to comply with this Part and the consumer data rules in relation to the chargeable matters; and
 - (b) is reasonable having regard to the criteria in subsection (3).
- (3) The criteria for the purposes of subsection (1) and paragraph (2)(b) are:
- (a) the matters in subparagraphs 56AD(1)(a)(i), (ii), (iv) to (vi) and (c)(ii) and (iv); and
 - (b) whether a lower fee could result in an acquisition of property (within the meaning of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution); and
 - (c) whether a lower fee would reduce the incentive to generate, collect, hold or maintain CDR data of that kind; and
 - (d) any other matters the Commission considers relevant.
- (4) A determination under subsection (1) specifying a class of CDR participants must be made by legislative instrument.
- (5) A determination under subsection (1) specifying a particular CDR participant:

Section 56BW

- (a) must be made by written notice given to the CDR participant;
and
 - (b) is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) A fee determined under subsection (1) must not be such as to amount to taxation.

56BW Review by the Tribunal of determinations specifying particular CDR participants

- (1) If the Commission makes a determination under subsection 56BV(1) in the way described in subsection 56BV(5):
- (a) the CDR participant specified in the determination; or
 - (b) a person whose interests are affected by the determination;
- may apply in writing to the Tribunal for a review of the determination.
- (2) An application under this section for a review of a determination must be made within 21 days after the day the Commission made the determination.
- (3) If the Tribunal receives an application under this section for a review of a determination, the Tribunal must review the determination.

56BX Functions and powers of Tribunal

- (1) On a review of a determination made under subsection 56BV(1), the Tribunal:
- (a) may make a decision affirming, setting aside or varying the determination; and
 - (b) for the purposes of the review, may perform all the functions and exercise all the powers of the Commission.
- (2) A decision by the Tribunal affirming, setting aside or varying such a determination is taken for the purposes of this Act (other than sections 56BW to 56BY)) to be a determination of the Commission.

Section 56BY

- (3) For the purposes of a review by the Tribunal, the member of the Tribunal presiding at the review may require the Commission to give such information, make such reports and provide such other assistance to the Tribunal as the member specifies.
- (4) For the purposes of a review, the Tribunal may have regard to any information given, documents produced or evidence given to the Commission in connection with the making of the determination to which the review relates.

Note: Division 2 of Part IX applies to proceedings before the Tribunal.

Penalty—body corporate

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) committed by a body corporate is punishable on conviction by a fine of not more than the greater of the following:

Division 4—External dispute resolution

Recognising an external dispute resolution scheme

- (1) The Minister may, by notifiable instrument, recognise an external dispute resolution scheme for the resolution of disputes:
- (a) relating to the operation of the consumer data rules, or this Part, in relation to one or more designated sectors; and
 - (b) involving one or more of the following:
 - (i) CDR participants for CDR data;
 - (ii) CDR consumers for CDR data;
 - (iii) designated gateways for CDR data;
 - (iv) other persons relating to any of those designated sectors.

Note 1: The consumer data rules may require internal dispute resolution schemes, see paragraph 56BJ(g).

Note 2: For variation and repeal, see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

- (2) The Minister may, in the instrument under subsection (1):

Division 5—Privacy safeguards

Subdivision A—Preliminary

56EA Simplified outline

This Division sets out privacy safeguards that protect the privacy or confidentiality of CDR consumers' CDR data, whether the CDR consumers are individuals or bodies corporate.

The privacy safeguards apply mainly to accredited persons, but also to data holders and designated gateways, in relation to their handling or future handling of the CDR data.

A person's failure to comply with any of these safeguards may lead to consequences, including liability to a civil penalty (see Subdivision G) or the suspension or revocation of the person's accreditation (see subsection 56BH(3)).

56EB Kinds of CDR data to which the privacy safeguards apply

- (1) The privacy safeguards only apply to CDR data for which there are one or more CDR consumers.

Note: One requirement for CDR data to have a CDR consumer is that there needs to be at least one person who is identifiable, or reasonably identifiable, from the CDR data or from related information (see paragraph 56AI(3)(c)).

- (2) The privacy safeguards apply to CDR data whether the CDR data is true or not.

56EC Relationship with other laws

Relationship with the consumer data rules

- (1) If there is an inconsistency between the privacy safeguards and the consumer data rules, those safeguards prevail over those rules to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (2) However, the consumer data rules are taken to be consistent with the privacy safeguards to the extent that they are capable of operating concurrently.

Note: This means that the privacy safeguards do not cover the field that they deal with.

Relationship with the Privacy Act 1988

- (3) This Division does not limit Part IIIA (about credit reporting) of the Privacy Act 1988. However, the regulations may declare that in specified circumstances that Part applies in relation to CDR data as if specified provisions of that Part were omitted, modified or varied as specified in the declaration.
- (4) Despite the Privacy Act 1988:
 - (a) the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an accredited data recipient of CDR data in relation to the CDR data; and
 - (aa) if section 56ED, 56EE, 56EF or 56EG applies to an accredited person in relation to CDR data—the corresponding Australian Privacy Principle does not apply to the accredited person in relation to the CDR data; and
 - (b) if subsection 56EN(1) applies to a disclosure of CDR data by a data holder of the CDR data—Australian Privacy Principle 10 does not apply to the data holder in relation to that disclosure of the CDR data; and
 - (c) if subsection 56EP(1) applies to CDR data and a data holder of the CDR data—Australian Privacy Principle 13 does not apply to the data holder in relation to the CDR data; and

Part IVD Consumer data right

Division 5 Privacy safeguards

Section 56ED

- (d) Australian Privacy Principles 6, 7 and 11 do not apply to a designated gateway for CDR data in relation to the CDR data.

Note 1: For the accredited data recipient, the privacy safeguards will apply instead.

Note 2: Section 56EN (or privacy safeguard 11) is about the quality of CDR data. Section 56EP (or privacy safeguard 13) is about correcting CDR data.

- (5) Apart from paragraphs (4)(aa) to (d), this Division does not affect how the Australian Privacy Principles apply to:
- (aa) an accredited person who does not become an accredited data recipient of the CDR data; or
 - (a) a data holder of CDR data in relation to the CDR data; or
 - (b) a designated gateway for CDR data in relation to the CDR data.

Note 1: Privacy safeguard 1 will apply to a data holder or designated gateway in parallel to Australian Privacy Principle 1.

Note 2: The consumer data rules (which are made under Division 2) will affect how the Australian Privacy Principles apply. Requirements and authorisations under those rules will be requirements or authorisations under an Australian law for the purposes of the Australian Privacy Principles.

Subdivision B—Consideration of CDR data privacy

56ED Privacy safeguard 1—open and transparent management of CDR data

Object

- (1) The object of this section is to ensure that each person (a CDR entity) who is:
- (a) a data holder of CDR data; or
 - (b) an accredited person who is or who may become an accredited data recipient of CDR data; or
 - (c) a designated gateway for CDR data;
- manages the CDR data in an open and transparent way.

Compliance with this Part etc.

- (2) The CDR entity must take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to implement practices, procedures and systems that:
- (a) will ensure that the CDR entity complies with this Part and the consumer data rules; and
 - (b) will enable the CDR entity to deal with inquiries or complaints from a CDR consumer for the CDR data about the CDR entity's compliance with this Part or the consumer data rules.

Policy about the management of CDR data

- (3) The CDR entity must have and maintain a clearly expressed and up-to-date policy that:
- (a) is about the CDR entity's management of CDR data; and
 - (b) is in a form approved in accordance with the consumer data rules; and
 - (c) contains the information required by subsections (4), (5) and (6) (as applicable).

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

- (4) If the CDR entity is a data holder of any CDR data, the CDR entity's policy must contain the following information:
- (a) how a CDR consumer for the CDR data may access the CDR data and seek the correction of the CDR data;
 - (b) how a CDR consumer for the CDR data may complain about a failure of the CDR entity to comply with this Part or the consumer data rules, and how the CDR entity will deal with such a complaint.
- (5) If the CDR entity is an accredited person who is or who may become an accredited data recipient of any CDR data, the CDR entity's policy must contain the following information:
- (a) the classes of CDR data that is or may become held by (or on behalf of) the CDR entity as an accredited data recipient, and how such CDR data is held or is to be held;

Section 56ED

- (b) the purposes for which the CDR entity may collect, hold, use or disclose such CDR data with the consent of a CDR consumer for the CDR data;
 - (c) how a CDR consumer for such CDR data may access the CDR data and seek the correction of the CDR data;
 - (d) how a CDR consumer for such CDR data may complain about a failure of the CDR entity to comply with this Part or the consumer data rules, and how the CDR entity will deal with such a complaint;
 - (e) whether the CDR entity is likely to disclose such CDR data to accredited persons who are based overseas;
 - (f) if the CDR entity is likely to disclose such CDR data to accredited persons who are based overseas—the countries in which such persons are likely to be based if it is practicable to specify those countries in the policy;
 - (g) the circumstances in which the CDR entity may disclose such CDR data to a person who is not an accredited person;
 - (h) the events about which the CDR entity will notify the CDR consumers of such CDR data;
 - (i) the circumstances in which the CDR entity must delete or de-identify such CDR data in accordance with a request given by a CDR consumer for the CDR data under the consumer data rules.
- (6) If the CDR entity is a designated gateway for any CDR data, the CDR entity’s policy must contain the following information:
- (a) an explanation of how the CDR entity, as a designated gateway, will act between persons to facilitate:
 - (i) the disclosure of CDR data; or
 - (ii) the accuracy of CDR data; or
 - (iii) other matters;under the consumer data rules;
 - (b) how a CDR consumer for such CDR data may complain about a failure of the CDR entity to comply with this Part or the consumer data rules, and how the CDR entity will deal with such a complaint.

Availability of policy etc.

- (7) The CDR entity must make the CDR entity's policy available:
- (a) free of charge; and
 - (b) in accordance with the consumer data rules.

Note: One way the consumer data rules could require the policy to be made available is to require the policy to be made available in accordance with a data standard.

- (8) If a copy of the CDR entity's policy is requested by a CDR consumer for the CDR data, the CDR entity must give the CDR consumer a copy in accordance with the consumer data rules.

56EE Privacy safeguard 2—anonymity and pseudonymity

- (1) A person who is:
- (a) an accredited data recipient of CDR data; or
 - (b) an accredited person who may become an accredited data recipient of CDR data; must give each CDR consumer for that CDR data the option of using a pseudonym, or not identifying themselves, when dealing with the person in relation to that CDR data.

Note: The CDR participant from whom the person acquired (or may acquire) the CDR data may be subject to a similar obligation under Australian Privacy Principle 2.

- (2) That option may be given to a CDR consumer for the CDR data through a designated gateway for the CDR data.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in the circumstances specified in the consumer data rules.

Subdivision C—Collecting CDR data

56EF Privacy safeguard 3—soliciting CDR data from CDR participants

- (1) An accredited person must not seek to collect CDR data under the consumer data rules from a CDR participant for the CDR data unless:
 - (a) a CDR consumer for the CDR data has requested this by giving a valid request under the consumer data rules; and
 - (b) the person complies with all other requirements in the consumer data rules for the collection of the CDR data from the CDR participant.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether the collection is directly from the CDR participant or indirectly from the CDR participant through a designated gateway for the CDR data.

Note: The valid request referred to in paragraph (1)(a) could be given through a designated gateway (see section 56BG).

56EG Privacy safeguard 4—dealing with unsolicited CDR data from CDR participants

- (1) If a person:
 - (a) while the person is an accredited person, collects CDR data from a CDR participant for the CDR data:
 - (i) purportedly under the consumer data rules; but
 - (ii) not as the result of seeking to collect that CDR data under the consumer data rules; and
 - (b) is not required to retain that CDR data by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order;the person must destroy that CDR data as soon as practicable.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether the collection is directly from the CDR participant or indirectly from the CDR participant through a designated gateway for the CDR data.

56EH Privacy safeguard 5—notifying of the collection of CDR data

If an accredited data recipient of CDR data collected the CDR data in accordance with section 56EF, the accredited data recipient must:

- (a) take the steps specified in the consumer data rules to notify CDR consumers for the CDR data of the collection; and
- (b) ensure that this notification:
 - (i) is given to those of the CDR consumers (if there are more than one) that the consumer data rules require to be notified; and
 - (ii) covers the matters specified in those rules; and
 - (iii) is given at or before the time specified in those rules.

Note: This section is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

Subdivision D—Dealing with CDR data

56EI Privacy safeguard 6—use or disclosure of CDR data by accredited data recipients or designated gateways

- (1) An accredited data recipient of CDR data must not use or disclose it unless:
- (a) in the case of a disclosure—the disclosure is required under the consumer data rules in response to a valid request from a CDR consumer for the CDR data; or
 - (b) the use or disclosure is otherwise required, or authorised, under the consumer data rules; or
 - (c) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under:
 - (i) another Australian law; or
 - (ii) a court/tribunal order;and the accredited data recipient makes a written note of the use or disclosure.

Section 56EJ

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

Note 2: The valid request referred to in paragraph (a) could be given through a designated gateway (see section 56BG).

Note 3: The Australian Privacy Principles will not apply for subparagraph (c)(i) (see paragraph 56EC(4)(a)).

- (2) A designated gateway for CDR data must not use or disclose it unless:
- (a) in the case of a disclosure—the disclosure is required under the consumer data rules; or
 - (b) the use or disclosure is authorised under the consumer data rules; or
 - (c) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under:
 - (i) another Australian law; or
 - (ii) a court/tribunal order;and the designated gateway makes a written note of the use or disclosure in accordance with the consumer data rules.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

Note 2: Australian Privacy Principle 6 will not apply for subparagraph (c)(i) (see paragraph 56EC(4)(d)).

- (3) Neither subsection (1) nor (2) applies to the use or disclosure of CDR data for the purposes of direct marketing.

Note: Section 56EJ deals with the use or disclosure of CDR data for the purposes of direct marketing.

56EJ Privacy safeguard 7—use or disclosure of CDR data for direct marketing by accredited data recipients or designated gateways

- (1) An accredited data recipient of CDR data must not use or disclose it for direct marketing unless:

 - (i) subsection 56ED(3); or
 - (ii) another privacy safeguard penalty provision in relation to the CDR data; or
 - (e) the accredited data recipient reasonably believes:

Section 56EL

- (i) that the new recipient is subject to a law, or binding scheme, that provides substantially similar protection for the CDR data as the privacy safeguards provide in relation to accredited data recipients; and

- (f) the conditions specified in the consumer data rules are met.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

Note 2: This subsection applies in addition to the disclosure restrictions in sections 56EI, 56EJ and 56EL.

Note 3: A similar disclosure by a data holder of the CDR data that is required under the consumer data rules will be covered by Australian Privacy Principle 8 if the CDR data is personal information about an individual.

(2) If:

- (a) the accredited data recipient of the CDR data makes the disclosure to the new recipient; and
- (b) none of paragraphs (1)(c), (e) and (f) apply in relation to the disclosure to the new recipient; and
- (c) an act or omission by (or on behalf of) the new recipient, after taking into account subsection (3), contravenes:

 - (ii) another privacy safeguard penalty provision in relation to the CDR data;

then the act or omission is taken to also be an act or omission by the accredited data recipient.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(d) and (2)(c), assume that the privacy safeguards apply to the new recipient as if the new recipient were an accredited data recipient for the CDR data.

56EL Privacy safeguard 9—adoption or disclosure of government related identifiers by accredited data recipients

(1) If:

- (a) a person is an accredited data recipient of CDR data; and
- (b) the CDR data includes a government related identifier (within the meaning of the Privacy Act 1988) of a CDR consumer for the CDR data who is an individual;

the person must not adopt the government related identifier as the person's own identifier of the CDR consumer, or otherwise use the government related identifier, unless:

- (c) the adoption or use is required or authorised by or under:
 - (i) an Australian law other than the consumer data rules; or
 - (ii) a court/tribunal order; or
- (d) subclause 9.3 of Australian Privacy Principle 9 applies in relation to the adoption or use.

56EM Privacy safeguard 10—notifying of the disclosure of CDR data

- (1) If a data holder of CDR data is required or authorised under the consumer data rules to disclose the CDR data to a person, the data holder must:
- (a) take the steps specified in the consumer data rules to notify CDR consumers for the CDR data of the disclosure; and
 - (b) ensure that this notification:
 - (i) is given to those of the CDR consumers (if there are more than one) that the consumer data rules require to be notified; and
 - (ii) covers the matters specified in those rules; and
 - (iii) is given at or before the time specified in those rules.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

- (3) To avoid doubt, subsection (1) or (2) applies even if the disclosure of the CDR data is to a designated gateway for the CDR data as required or authorised under the consumer data rules.

Note: The designated gateway may be subject to a similar notification requirement under the consumer data rules (see paragraph 56BG(1)(c)).

Subdivision E—Integrity of CDR data

56EN Privacy safeguard 11—quality of CDR data

Disclosures by data holders

- (1) If a data holder of CDR data is required or authorised under the consumer data rules to disclose the CDR data, the data holder must take reasonable steps to ensure that the CDR data is, having regard to the purpose for which it is held, accurate, up to date and complete.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

Disclosures by accredited data recipients

- (2) If an accredited data recipient of CDR data is disclosing the CDR data when:

 - (b) the CDR consumer requests, in accordance with the consumer data rules, the CDR participant to fix this by disclosing the corrected CDR data;
- the CDR participant must comply with the request by disclosing the corrected CDR data, in accordance with the consumer data rules, to the recipient of that earlier disclosure.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

- (4A) Subsection (4) does not apply in the circumstances specified in the consumer data rules.

Purpose for which the CDR data was held

- (5) When working out the purpose for which the CDR data is or was held, disregard the purpose of holding the CDR data so that it can be disclosed as required under the consumer data rules.

Note: This subsection is relevant for subsections (1) and (2) and paragraph (3)(b).

56EO Privacy safeguard 12—security of CDR data, and destruction or de-identification of redundant CDR data

- the CDR entity must take the steps specified in the consumer data rules to destroy the redundant data or to ensure that the redundant data is de-identified.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 56EU).

Note 2: Australian Privacy Principle 11 will not apply for paragraph (b) (see paragraph 56EC(4)(a) or (d)).

- (1) This section applies if the Court is satisfied that:
 - (a) a person (the acquirer) has acquired shares in the capital of a body corporate or assets of another person; and
 - (b) before the acquisition, the acquirer was granted a merger authorisation for the acquisition on the basis of information that was false or misleading in a material particular; and
 - (c) that information was provided by the acquirer or a body corporate that was related to the acquirer; and
 - (d) the Court or another court has found that the acquirer or related body corporate has contravened section 92 or Part 7.4 of the Criminal Code by giving that information; and
 - (e) if that information had not been given, the authorisation would not have been granted; and
 - (f) apart from the authorisation, the acquisition would have contravened section 50; and
 - (g) any or all of those shares or assets are vested in the acquirer, the related body corporate or any other body corporate that is related to the acquirer.

Divestiture by the acquirer and related bodies corporate

- (2) The Court may, on the application of the Commission, by order, give directions for the purpose of securing the disposal of all or any of those shares or assets by the acquirer, the related body corporate or any other body corporate that is related to the acquirer.

Declaration that acquisition void—when vendor involved

- (4) In addition to being satisfied of the matters in subsection (1), if the Court, or another court, has found that the person (the vendor) from whom the acquirer acquired the shares or assets was involved in the contravention referred to in paragraph (1)(d), then the Court may, on the application of the Commission, by order, declare that the acquisition, in so far as it relates to those shares or assets, is void as from the day on which it occurred.
- (5) If the Court makes an order under subsection (4), then:
- (a) the shares or assets to which the declaration relates are taken not to have been disposed of by the vendor; and
 - (b) the vendor must refund to the acquirer any amount paid to the vendor for acquiring the shares or assets.

Alternative to orders under subsections (2) and (4)

- (7) If an application is made to the Court for an order under subsection (2) or (4) against a person, the Court may, instead of making an order of the kind mentioned in that subsection, accept, upon such conditions (if any) as the Court thinks fit, an undertaking by the person to dispose of other shares or assets owned by the person.

When application for orders under this section must be made

- (8) An application under subsection (2) or (4) may be made at any time within 3 years after the day on which the acquisition occurred.

Section 82

Court may make orders even if not satisfied of all matters

- (9) If an application for an order under subsection (2) or (4) is made, the Court may, if the Court determines it to be appropriate, make an order by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court is satisfied of:
- (a) for an order under subsection (2)—the matters in subsection (1); and
 - (b) for an order under subsection (4)—the matters in subsections (1) and (4).

- (4) The court may order that the applicant is not liable for the costs of any respondent to the proceedings, regardless of the outcome or likely outcome of the proceedings.

- (5) The court may only make an order under subsection (4) if the court is satisfied that:
- (a) the action raises a reasonable issue for trial; and
 - (b) the action raises an issue that is not only significant for the applicant, but may also be significant for other persons or groups of persons; and
 - (c) the disparity between the financial position of the applicant and the financial position of the respondent or respondents is such that the possibility of a costs order that does not favour the applicant might deter the applicant from pursuing the action.
- (6) The court may satisfy itself of the matters in subsection (5) by having regard only to the documents filed with the court in the proceedings.
- (7) A person who appeals a decision of the court under subsection (4) is liable for any costs in relation to the appeal.

Part VIA—Proportionate liability for misleading and deceptive conduct

87CB Application of Part

- (1) This Part applies to a claim (an apportionable claim) if the claim is a claim for damages made under section 236 of the Australian Consumer Law for:
 - (a) economic loss; or
 - (b) damage to property;caused by conduct that was done in a contravention of section 18 of the Australian Consumer Law.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, there is a single apportionable claim in proceedings in respect of the same loss or damage even if the claim for the loss or damage is based on more than one cause of action (whether or not of the same or a different kind).
- (3) In this Part, a concurrent wrongdoer, in relation to a claim, is a person who is one of 2 or more persons whose acts or omissions (or act or omission) caused, independently of each other or jointly, the damage or loss that is the subject of the claim.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part, apportionable claims are limited to those claims specified in subsection (1).
- (5) For the purposes of this Part, it does not matter that a concurrent wrongdoer is insolvent, is being wound up or has ceased to exist or died.

87CC Certain concurrent wrongdoers not to have benefit of apportionment

- (1) Nothing in this Part operates to exclude the liability of a concurrent wrongdoer (an excluded concurrent wrongdoer) in proceedings involving an apportionable claim if:

Section 87CD

- (a) the concurrent wrongdoer intended to cause the economic loss or damage to property that is the subject of the claim; or
 - (b) the concurrent wrongdoer fraudulently caused the economic loss or damage to property that is the subject of the claim.
- (2) The liability of an excluded concurrent wrongdoer is to be determined in accordance with the legal rules (if any) that (apart from this Part) are relevant.
- (3) The liability of any other concurrent wrongdoer who is not an excluded concurrent wrongdoer is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

87CD Proportionate liability for apportionable claims

- (1) In any proceedings involving an apportionable claim:
- (a) the liability of a defendant who is a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to that claim is limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the court considers just having regard to the extent of the defendant's responsibility for the damage or loss; and
 - (b) the court may give judgment against the defendant for not more than that amount.
- (2) If the proceedings involve both an apportionable claim and a claim that is not an apportionable claim:
- (a) liability for the apportionable claim is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part; and
 - (b) liability for the other claim is to be determined in accordance with the legal rules, if any, that (apart from this Part) are relevant.
- (3) In apportioning responsibility between defendants in the proceedings:
- (a) the court is to exclude that proportion of the damage or loss in relation to which the plaintiff is contributorily negligent under any relevant law; and

- (b) the court may have regard to the comparative responsibility of any concurrent wrongdoer who is not a party to the proceedings.
- (4) This section applies in proceedings involving an apportionable claim whether or not all concurrent wrongdoers are parties to the proceedings.
- (5) A reference in this Part to a defendant in proceedings includes any person joined as a defendant or other party in the proceedings (except as a plaintiff) whether joined under this Part, under rules of court or otherwise.

87CE Defendant to notify plaintiff of concurrent wrongdoer of whom defendant aware

- (1) If:
 - (a) a defendant in proceedings involving an apportionable claim has reasonable grounds to believe that a particular person (the other person) may be a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim; and
 - (b) the defendant fails to give the plaintiff, as soon as practicable, written notice of the information that the defendant has about:
 - (i) the identity of the other person; and
 - (ii) the circumstances that may make the other person a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim; and
 - (c) the plaintiff unnecessarily incurs costs in the proceedings because the plaintiff was not aware that the other person may be a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim;the court hearing the proceedings may order that the defendant pay all or any of those costs of the plaintiff.
- (2) The court may order that the costs to be paid by the defendant be assessed on an indemnity basis or otherwise.

Section 87CF

87CF Contribution not recoverable from defendant

A defendant against whom judgment is given under this Part as a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to an apportionable claim:

- (a) cannot be required to contribute to any damages or contribution recovered from another concurrent wrongdoer in respect of the apportionable claim (whether or not the damages or contribution are recovered in the same proceedings in which judgment is given against the defendant); and
- (b) cannot be required to indemnify any such wrongdoer.

87CG Subsequent actions

- (1) In relation to an apportionable claim, nothing in this Part or any other law prevents a plaintiff who has previously recovered judgment against a concurrent wrongdoer for an apportionable part of any damage or loss from bringing another action against any other concurrent wrongdoer for that damage or loss.
- (2) However, in any proceedings in respect of any such action, the plaintiff cannot recover an amount of damages that, having regard to any damages previously recovered by the plaintiff in respect of the damage or loss, would result in the plaintiff receiving compensation for damage or loss that is greater than the damage or loss actually sustained by the plaintiff.

87CH Joining non-party concurrent wrongdoer in the action

- (1) The court may give leave for any one or more persons to be joined as defendants in proceedings involving an apportionable claim.
- (2) The court is not to give leave for the joinder of any person who was a party to any previously concluded proceedings in respect of the apportionable claim.

87CI Application of Part

Nothing in this Part:

- (a) prevents a person being held vicariously liable for a proportion of an apportionable claim for which another person is liable; or
- (b) prevents a partner from being held severally liable with another partner for that proportion of an apportionable claim for which the other partner is liable; or
- (c) affects the operation of any other Act to the extent that it imposes several liability on any person in respect of what would otherwise be an apportionable claim.

87F Basic rule

- (1) A court must not award personal injury damages in a proceeding to which this Part applies if the proceeding was commenced:
 - (a) after the end of the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability for the death or injury to which the personal injury damages would relate; or
 - (b) after the end of the long-stop period for that death or injury.
- (1A) However, paragraph (1)(b) does not apply in relation to a proceeding in respect of the death of or personal injury to a person resulting from smoking or other use of tobacco products.
- (2) This diagram shows when this Division prevents an award of personal injury damages.

Section 87G

87G Date of discoverability

Definition

- (1) The date of discoverability for the death or injury is the first date when the plaintiff in the proceeding knows or ought to know each of the following:
 - (a) that the death or personal injury has occurred;
 - (b) that the death or personal injury was attributable to a contravention of this Act;
 - (c) that in the case of a personal injury—the injury was significant enough to justify bringing an action.

Constructive knowledge

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the plaintiff ought to know a fact if the plaintiff would have ascertained the fact had the plaintiff taken all reasonable steps before the date in question to ascertain the fact.

Use of the plaintiff's conduct and statements

- (3) In determining what the plaintiff knows or ought to have known, the court may have regard to the plaintiff's conduct, and to the plaintiff's oral or written statements.

Minors

- (4) If the plaintiff is a minor, facts that a capable parent or guardian of the plaintiff knows or ought to know are taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to be facts that the plaintiff knows or ought to know.

Incapacitated persons

- (5) If:
- (a) the plaintiff is an incapacitated person; and
 - (b) there is a guardian of the plaintiff, or other person to manage all or part of the plaintiff's estate, under a law of a State or Territory relating to the protection of incapacitated persons;
- facts that the guardian or other person knows or ought to know are taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to be facts that the plaintiff knows or ought to know.

Proceedings by personal representatives

- (6) Despite subsection (1), if the plaintiff brings the proceeding in the capacity of the personal representative of a deceased person, the date of discoverability for the death or injury is the earliest of:
- (a) if, had the deceased person commenced a proceeding, in relation to the contravention to which the death or injury relates, before his or her death, the date of discoverability

under subsection (1) would have occurred more than 3 years before the death—that date; or

- (b) if, at the time of the plaintiff's appointment as personal representative, the plaintiff knew, or ought to have known, all of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c)—the date of the appointment; or
- (c) if the first time at which the plaintiff knew, or ought to have known, all of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c) was after the date of appointment—the date of that first time.

87H Long-stop period

- (1) The long-stop period for the death or injury of a person is:
 - (a) the period of 12 years following the act or omission alleged to have caused the death or injury; or
 - (b) that period as extended by the court.
- (2) The court must not extend the period by more than 3 years beyond the date of discoverability for the death or injury.
- (3) In considering whether to extend the period, the court must have regard to the justice of the case, and, in particular, must have regard to:
 - (a) whether the passage of time has prejudiced a fair trial; and
 - (b) the nature and extent of the person's loss or damage; and
 - (c) the nature of the defendant's conduct alleged to have caused the death or injury; and
 - (d) the nature of the defendant's conduct since the alleged act or omission.

87J The effect of minority or incapacity

In working out whether the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability, or the long-stop period, has expired, disregard any period during which the plaintiff has been:

- (a) a minor who is not in the custody of a capable parent or guardian; or

- (b) an incapacitated person in respect of whom there is no guardian, and no other person to manage all or part of the person's estate, under a law of a State or Territory relating to the protection of incapacitated persons.

 - (i) a parent or guardian of the victim; or
 - (ii) a person in a close relationship with a parent or guardian of the victim;

in working out whether the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability, or the long-stop period, has expired, disregard any period:

 - (d) if the victim dies before turning 25—before the victim's death.

 - (b) the victim might be unwilling to disclose to the parent or guardian the acts, omissions or events in respect of which the cause of action is founded.

Division 3—Limits on personal injury damages for non-economic loss

87L Limits on damages for non-economic loss

A court must not, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, award as personal injury damages for non-economic loss an amount that exceeds the amount (if any) permitted under this Division.

87M Maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss

- (1) The maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss is:
- during the year in which this Part commences—$250,000; or
 - during a later year—the amount worked out (to the nearest multiple of $10) as follows:

- This section does not affect the operation of section 86AA.

87N Index numbers

- (1) The index number for a quarter is the All Groups Consumer Price Index number, being the weighted average of the 8 capital cities, published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter.

Section 87Q

- (2) The applicable percentage is the extent of the non-economic loss the plaintiff suffers, expressed as a percentage of a most extreme case.

87R Cases of 15% or more (but less than 33%) of a most extreme case

If the non-economic loss the plaintiff suffers is at least 15%, but less than 33%, of a most extreme case, the court must not award as personal injury damages for non-economic loss an amount that exceeds the amount set out in the following table:

Cases of 15% or more (but less than 33%) of a most extreme case

87T Referring to earlier decisions on non-economic loss

- (1) In determining personal injury damages for non-economic loss, the court may refer to earlier decisions of the court or of other courts for the purpose of establishing the appropriate award in the proceeding.

a court must disregard the amount by which the plaintiff's gross weekly earnings during any quarter would (but for the personal injury or death in question) have exceeded:

- (d) if, at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings for the quarter was ascertainable—an amount that is twice the amount of average weekly earnings for the quarter; or
- (e) if:

- (4) In this section:

10-year benchmark bond rate, on a day, means:

87ZP Definitions

- (1) In this Division:

industry code of practice means a code regulating the conduct of participants in an industry towards other participants in the industry or towards consumers in the industry.

minor variation, in relation to an authorization, is a single variation that does not involve a material change in the effect of the authorization.

- (2) A reference in this Division to a proposal of the Commission is a reference to a notice of the Commission:
- (a) so far as the revocation of an authorization is concerned—under subsection 91B(3); and
 - (b) so far as the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another—under subsection 91C(3).

Granting an authorisation

- (1) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, on an application by a person, grant an authorisation to a person to engage in conduct, specified in the authorisation, to which one or more provisions of Part IV specified in the authorisation would or might apply.

Note: For an extended meaning of engaging in conduct, see subsection 4(2).

Section 88

Effect of an authorisation

- (2) While the authorisation remains in force, the provisions of Part IV specified in the authorisation do not apply in relation to the conduct to the extent that it is engaged in by:

 - (b) any other person named or referred to in the application as a person who is engaged in, or who is proposed to be engaged in, the conduct; and
 - (c) any particular persons or classes of persons, as specified in the authorisation, who become engaged in the conduct.

Conditions

- (3) The Commission may specify conditions in the authorisation. Subsection (2) does not apply if any of the conditions are not complied with.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), the Commission may grant a merger authorisation on the condition that a person must give, and comply with, an undertaking to the Commission under section 87B.

Single authorisation may deal with several types of conduct

- (5) The Commission may grant a single authorisation for all the conduct specified in an application for authorisation, or may grant separate authorisations for any of the conduct.

Past conduct

- (6) The Commission does not have power to grant an authorisation for conduct engaged in before the Commission decides the application for the authorisation.

Withdrawing an application

- (7) An applicant for an authorisation may at any time, by writing to the Commission, withdraw the application.

89 Procedure for applications and the keeping of a register

- (1) To be valid, an application for an authorisation, a minor variation of an authorisation, a revocation of an authorisation, or a revocation of an authorisation and the substitution of another authorisation, must:
- (a) be in a form approved by the Commission in writing and contain the information required by the form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by any other information or documents prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (1AA) Without limiting paragraph (1)(a), the form may require an application for a merger authorisation to contain an undertaking under section 87B that the applicant will not make the acquisition to which the authorisation relates while the Commission is considering the application.
- (1A) If the Commission receives a purported application that it considers is not a valid application, it must, within 5 business days of receiving the purported application, give the person who made the purported application a written notice:
- (a) stating that the person has not made a valid application; and
 - (b) giving reasons why the purported application does not comply with this Division.
- (1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A), business day means a day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a public holiday in the Australian Capital Territory.
- (2) If the Commission receives an application referred to in subsection (1), the Commission must cause notice of the receipt of that application to be made public in such manner as it thinks fit.
- (3) The Commission must keep a register of:

 - (b) applications for minor variations of authorizations; and

Section 89

 - (d) applications for, or the Commission's proposals for, the revocation of authorizations and the substitution of other authorizations;
- including applications that have been withdrawn or proposals that have been abandoned.
- (4) Subject to this section, the register kept under subsection (3) shall include:
- (a) any document furnished to the Commission in relation to an application or proposal referred to in subsection (3);
 - (aa) any draft determination, and any summary of reasons, by the Commission that is furnished to a person under section 90A, or under that section as applied by section 91C;
 - (ab) any record of a conference made in accordance with subsection 90A(8), or with that subsection as applied by section 91C, and any certificate in relation to a conference given under subsection 90A(9), or under that subsection as so applied;
 - (b) particulars of any oral submission made to the Commission in relation to such an application or proposal; and
 - (c) the determination of the Commission on such an application or proposal and the statement of the reasons given by the Commission for that determination.
- (5) Where a person furnishes a document to the Commission in relation to an application or proposal referred to in subsection (3) or makes an oral submission to the Commission in relation to such an application or proposal, he or she may, at the time when the document is furnished or the submission is made, request that the document or a part of the document, or that particulars of the submission or of part of the submission, be excluded from the register kept under subsection (3) by reason of the confidential nature of any of the matters contained in the document or submission.
- (5A) Where such a request is made:

- (a) if the document or the part of the document, or the submission or the part of the submission, to which the request relates contains particulars of:
- (i) a secret formula or process;
 - (ii) the cash consideration offered for the acquisition of shares in the capital of a body corporate or assets of a person; or the Commission shall exclude the document or the part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, as the case may be, from the register kept under subsection (3); and

- (b) in any other case—the Commission may, if it is satisfied that it is desirable to do so by reason of the confidential nature of the matters contained in the document or the part of the document, or in the submission or the part of the submission, exclude the document or the part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, as the case may be, from that register.

(5B) If the Commission refuses a request to exclude a document or a part of a document from the register kept under subsection (3), the Commission shall, if the person who furnished the document to the Commission so requires, return the document or part of the document to him or her and, in that case, paragraph (4)(a) does not apply in relation to the document or part of the document.

(5C) If the Commission refuses a request to exclude particulars of an oral submission or of part of an oral submission from the register kept under subsection (3), the person who made the submission may inform the Commission that he or she withdraws the submission or that part of the submission and, in that case, paragraph (4)(b) does not apply in relation to the submission or that part of the submission, as the case may be.

(5D) Where the Commission is satisfied that it is desirable to do so for any reason other than the confidential nature of matters contained in a document or submission, the Commission may exclude a document or part of a document referred to in paragraph (4)(a) or particulars referred to in paragraph (4)(b) from the register kept under subsection (3).

- (5E) If a person requests, in accordance with subsection (5) that a document or a part of a document, or that particulars of a submission or of part of a submission, be excluded from the register kept under subsection (3), the document or part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, shall not be included in that register until the Commission has made a determination in relation to the request.
- (6) A document shall not be included in the register kept under subsection (3) if a direction in relation to that document was in force under paragraph 22(1)(b) of this Act immediately before the commencement of the Trade Practices Amendment Act 1977.
- (7) The Commission may disclose information excluded under this section from the register kept under subsection (3) to such persons and on such terms as it considers reasonable and appropriate for the purposes of making its determination on the application concerned.

90 Determination of applications for authorisations

- (1) The Commission shall, in respect of an application for an authorization:
 - (a) make a determination in writing granting such authorization as it considers appropriate; or
 - (b) make a determination in writing dismissing the application.
- (4) The Commission shall state in writing its reasons for a determination made by it.
- (5) Before making a determination in respect of an application for an authorisation other than a merger authorisation the Commission shall comply with the requirements of section 90A.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

- (6) Before making a determination in respect of an application for an authorisation, the Commission may do any one or more of the following:
- (a) give any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested a written notice inviting submissions in respect of the application within a specified period;
 - (b) give the applicant a written notice requesting the applicant to give the Commission, within a specified period, additional information relevant to making its determination in respect of the application;
 - (c) give a person a written notice requesting the person to give the Commission, within a specified period, particular information relevant to making its determination in respect of the application;
 - (d) consult with such persons as it considers reasonable and appropriate for the purposes of making its determination in respect of the application.
- (6A) In making a determination in respect of an application for an authorisation, the Commission must take into account:
- (a) any submissions or information received under paragraph (6)(a), (b) or (c) within the period specified in the notice mentioned in that paragraph; and
 - (b) any information obtained from consultations under paragraph (6)(d).

The Commission may, but need not, take into account any submissions or information received after the end of those periods.

Note: Unless the application is for a merger authorisation, the Commission may instead rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

- (7) The Commission must not make a determination granting an authorisation under section 88 in relation to conduct unless:

Section 90

- (a) the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that the conduct would not have the effect, or would not be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition; or
 - (b) the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that:
 - (i) the conduct would result, or be likely to result, in a benefit to the public; and
 - (ii) the benefit would outweigh the detriment to the public that would result, or be likely to result, from the conduct; or
 - (c) all of the following apply:
 - (i) a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force;
 - (ii) the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that the conduct would assist, or would be likely to assist, in the response to or recovery from the emergency to which the national emergency declaration relates; and
 - (iii) the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that the benefit to the public resulting from the assistance, or likely assistance, together with any other public benefit resulting from the conduct, would outweigh the detriment to the public that would result, or be likely to result, from the conduct.
- (8) Paragraph (7)(a) does not apply if any of the following provisions would (apart from an authorisation under section 88) apply to the conduct:
- (a) one or more provisions of Division 1 of Part IV (cartel conduct);
 - (b) one or more of sections 45D to 45DB (secondary boycotts);
 - (ba) one or more provisions of section 45E or 45EA (contracts etc. affecting the supply or acquisition of goods or services);
 - (c) section 48 (resale price maintenance).
- (9A) In relation to the Commission's consideration of an application for an authorisation to engage in conduct to which section 49 would or might apply or for a merger authorisation, in determining what amounts to a benefit to the public for the purposes of paragraph (7)(b) and subparagraph (7)(c)(iii):

- (a) the Commission must regard the following as benefits to the public (in addition to any other benefits to the public that may exist apart from this paragraph):
 - (i) a significant increase in the real value of exports;
 - (ii) a significant substitution of domestic products for imported goods; and
 - (b) without limiting the matters that may be taken into account, the Commission must take into account all other relevant matters that relate to the international competitiveness of any Australian industry.
- (10) If the Commission does not determine an application for an authorisation (other than an application for a merger authorisation) within the relevant period, then it is taken to have granted the application at the end of that period.
- (10A) For the purposes of subsection (10), the relevant period is the period of 6 months beginning on the day the Commission received the application. However, if, before the end of that 6 month period:
- (a) the Commission has prepared a draft determination under subsection 90A(1) in relation to the application; and
 - (b) the Commission determines in writing that that period is extended by a specified period of not more than 6 months; and
 - (c) the applicant agrees to that period being so extended;
- the relevant period is that period as so extended.
- (10B) Subject to subsections (12) and (13), if:
- (a) the Commission does not determine an application for a merger authorisation within the 90-day period beginning on the day the Commission received the application; and
 - (b) the application is not an application for an overseas merger authorisation;
- the Commission is taken to have refused, at the end of that period, to grant the authorisation applied for.

Section 90

- (11) Subject to subsections (12) and (13), if the Commission does not determine an application for an overseas merger authorisation within:
- (a) 30 days from the day on which the application is received by the Commission; or
 - (b) if the Commission, before the end of that period of 30 days, gives to the applicant a notice in writing requesting the applicant to give to the Commission additional information relevant to the determination of the application—the period consisting of 30 days from the day on which the application is received by the Commission increased by the number of days in the period commencing on the day on which the notice is given to the applicant and ending on the day on which the applicant gives to the Commission such of the additional information as the applicant is able to provide;
- the Commission shall be deemed to have granted, at the end of that period, the authorisation applied for.
- (11A) The Commission may, within the 30 day period mentioned in subsection (11), notify the applicant in writing that the Commission considers that the period should be extended to 45 days due to the complexity of the issues involved. If the Commission so notifies the applicant, the references in subsection (11) to 30 days are to be treated as references to 45 days.
- (12) If the applicant for an authorization informs the Commission in writing before the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (10B) or (11) (the base period) that the applicant agrees to the Commission taking a specified longer period for the determination of the application, a reference to that longer period shall be deemed for the purposes of that application to be substituted in that subsection for the reference in that subsection to the base period.
- (13) For the purposes of any application of subsection (12), a reference in that subsection to the base period shall, if a reference to another period is deemed by any other application or applications of that subsection to have been substituted in subsection (10B) or (11) for the reference in subsection (10B) or (11) to the base period, be construed as a reference to that other period.

- (14) If a person to whom a notice has been sent under subsection 90A(2) in relation to a draft determination in respect of an application for an authorization notifies the Commission in accordance with subsection 90A(6) that he or she wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination, the relevant period (worked out under subsection (10A) of this section) shall be deemed to be increased by a period equal to the period commencing on the day on which the first notification in relation to the draft determination was received by the Commission and ending on the seventh day after the day specified in the certificate given by a member of the Commission in pursuance of subsection 90A(9) as the day on which the conference terminated.
- (15) Where a party to a joint venture makes at the one time two or more applications for authorizations (other than an application for a merger authorisation), being applications each of which deals with a matter relating to the joint venture:
- (a) the Commission shall not make a determination in respect of any one of those applications unless it also makes a determination or determinations at the same time in respect of the other application or other applications; and
 - (b) if the Commission does not make a determination in respect of any one of the applications within the relevant period (worked out under subsection (10A)) in relation to that application, the Commission shall be deemed to have granted, at the expiration of that period, all the authorizations applied for.

90A Commission to afford opportunity for conference before determining application for authorisation

- (1) Before determining an application for an authorization (other than an application for a merger authorisation), the Commission shall prepare a draft determination in relation to the application.
- (2) The Commission shall, by notice in writing sent to the applicant and to each other interested person, invite the applicant or other person to notify the Commission, within 14 days after a date fixed by the Commission being not earlier than the day on which the notice is sent, whether the applicant or other person wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination.
- (3) If:
 - (a) the draft determination provides for the granting of the application unconditionally; and
 - (b) no person has made a written submission to the Commission opposing the application;each notice by the Commission under subsection (2) shall inform the person to whom the notice is sent that the draft determination so provides.
- (4) If:
 - (a) the draft determination does not provide for the granting of the application or provides for the granting of the application subject to conditions; or
 - (b) the draft determination provides for the granting of the application unconditionally but a written submission has, or written submissions have, been made to the Commission opposing the application;the Commission shall send with each notice under subsection (2) a copy of the draft determination and:
 - (c) in a case to which paragraph (a) applies—a summary of the reasons why the Commission is not satisfied that the application should be granted or why it is not satisfied that the application should be granted unconditionally; or

- (d) in a case to which paragraph (b) applies—a summary of the reasons why it is satisfied that the application should be granted unconditionally.
- (5) If each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2):
- (a) notifies the Commission within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that he or she does not wish the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination; or
 - (b) does not notify the Commission within that period that he or she wishes the Commission to hold such a conference;
- the Commission may make the determination at any time after the expiration of that period.
- (6) If any of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) notifies the Commission in writing within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that he or she wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination, the Commission shall appoint a date (being not later than 30 days after the expiration of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the date, time and place so appointed to each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2).
- (7) At the conference:
- (a) the Commission shall be represented by a member or members of the Commission (being a member or members who participated in the preparation of the draft determination) nominated by the Chairperson; and
 - (b) each person to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) and any other interested person whose presence at the conference is considered by the Commission to be appropriate is entitled to attend and participate personally or, in the case of a body corporate, may be represented by a person who, or by persons each of whom, is a director, officer or employee of the body corporate; and

Section 90A

- (c) a person participating in the conference in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) is entitled to have another person or other persons present to assist him or her but a person who so assists another person at the conference is not entitled to participate in the discussion; and
 - (e) no other person is entitled to be present.
- (8) A member of the Commission participating in the conference shall make such record of the discussions as is sufficient to set out the matters raised by the persons participating in the conference.
- (9) The member of the Commission who represents the Commission at the conference, or, if the Commission is represented by more than one member of the Commission, one of those members appointed by the Chairperson:
 - (a) may exclude from the conference any person who uses insulting language at the conference, creates, or takes part in creating or continuing, a disturbance at the conference or repeatedly interrupts the conference;
 - (b) may terminate the conference when he or she is of the opinion that a reasonable opportunity has been given for the expression of the views of persons participating in the conference (other than persons excluded from the conference under paragraph (a)); and
 - (c) shall give a certificate certifying the day on which the first notification under subsection (6) in relation to the draft determination was received by the Commission and the day on which the conference terminated;and any such certificate shall be received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the matters certified.
- (10) A document purporting to be a certificate referred to in subsection (9) shall, unless the contrary is established, be deemed to be such a certificate and to have been duly given.
- (11) The Commission shall take account of all matters raised at the conference and may at any time after the termination of the conference make a determination in respect of the application.

- (12) For the purposes of this section, interested person means a person who has notified the Commission in writing that he or she, or a specified unincorporated association of which he or she is a member, claims to have an interest in the application, being an interest that, in the opinion of the Commission, is real and substantial.
- (13) Where the Commission is of the opinion that two or more applications for authorizations that are made by the same person, or by persons being bodies corporate that are related to each other, involve the same or substantially similar issues, the Commission may treat the applications as if they constitute a single application and may prepare one draft determination in relation to the applications and hold one conference in relation to that draft determination.

90B Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an application under section 88, 91A, 91B or 91C is made in relation to the National Electricity Rules or a provision of the Rules; and

 - (c) for any other reason;
- the Commission may at any time:
- (d) in the case of an application for an authorization—grant an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization; and
 - (e) in the case of an application for a minor variation of an authorization—grant an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization dealing only with the matter the subject of the application for a variation; and
 - (f) in the case of an application for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another—suspend the operation of the authorization sought to be revoked and grant an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization in substitution for the authorization suspended.

(2AA) An authorization granted under paragraph 91(2)(d), (e) or (f) and expressed to be an interim authorization comes into force on such a date, not being a date before the grant of the interim authorization, as is specified by the Commission in the interim authorization.

(2AB) The Commission may, at any time, revoke an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization and, where that interim authorization is in substitution for an authorization the operation of which has been suspended, the revocation of the interim authorization has the effect of reviving the operation of the suspended authorization.

- (2A) Subsections 90(4) to (7), inclusive, do not apply in relation to an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization.

91A Minor variations of authorizations

- (1) A person to whom an authorization was granted, or another person on behalf of such a person, may apply to the Commission for a minor variation of the authorization.
- (2) On receipt of an application, the Commission must, if it is satisfied that the variation sought in the application is a minor variation, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:
 - (a) indicate the nature of the variation applied for; and
 - (b) invite submissions in respect of the variation within a period specified by the Commission.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

- (2A) Subsection 90(6) (other than paragraph 90(6)(a)) applies in relation to an application for a minor variation of an authorisation in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies in relation to an application for an authorisation.
- (3) The Commission may make a determination in writing varying the authorisation or dismissing the application after taking into account the following:
 - (a) the application;
 - (b) any submissions that are received within the period specified under paragraph (2)(b);
 - (c) any information received under paragraph 90(6)(b) or (c) (as that paragraph applies because of subsection (2A) of this section) within the period specified in the notice mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (d) any information obtained from consultations under paragraph 90(6)(d) (as that paragraph applies because of subsection (2A) of this section).

Section 91A

The Commission may, but need not, take into account any submissions or information received after the end of those periods.

- (4) The Commission must not make a determination varying an authorisation in relation to conduct unless the Commission is satisfied in all the circumstances that:
- (a) if, in making the determination to grant the authorisation in relation to conduct, the Commission was satisfied that the conduct would not have the effect, or would not be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition—the variation would not have the effect, or would not be likely to have the effect, of increasing the extent to which the conduct lessens competition; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the variation would not result, or would not be likely to result, in a reduction in the extent to which the benefit to the public of the authorisation outweighs any detriment to the public caused by the authorisation.
- (4A) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Commission need not have regard to conduct that is unaffected by the variation.
- (5) Subsections 90(10B), (12) and (13) apply in relation to an application for a minor variation of a merger authorisation that is not an overseas merger authorisation in a corresponding way to the way those subsections apply in relation to an application for a merger authorisation that is not an overseas merger authorisation.
- Note: Those subsections deem the Commissioner to have refused to grant the application if the Commission does not determine the application within 90 days (or an extended period in some cases).
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents a person from applying for 2 or more variations in the same application.
- (7) If:
- (a) a person applies for 2 or more variations:
 - (i) at the same time; or

Section 91B

- (ii) in such close succession that the variations could conveniently be dealt with by the Commission at the same time; and
 - (b) the Commission is satisfied that the combined effect of those variations, if all were granted, would not involve a material change in the effect of the authorization;
- the Commission may deal with all of those variations together as if they were a single minor variation.
- (8) An application for a minor variation may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.

91B Revocation of an authorization

- (1) A person to whom an authorization was granted, or another person on behalf of such a person, may apply to the Commission for a revocation of the authorization.
- (2) On receipt of such an application, the Commission must, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:
 - (a) indicate that the revocation of the authorization has been applied for; and
 - (b) indicate the basis on which the revocation has been applied for; and
 - (c) invite submissions in respect of the revocation within a period specified by the Commission.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

- (3) If, at any time after granting an authorization, it appears to the Commission that:
 - (a) the authorization was granted on the basis of evidence or information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) a condition to which the authorization was expressed to be subject has not been complied with; or

Section 91B

- (c) there has been a material change of circumstances since the authorization was granted;
- the Commission may, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:
- (d) inform those persons that it is considering the revocation of the authorization; and
 - (e) indicate the basis on which the revocation is being proposed; and
 - (f) invite submissions in respect of the revocation within a period specified by the Commission.
- (3A) Subsection 90(6) (other than paragraph 90(6)(a)) applies in relation to an application for a revocation of an authorisation in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies in relation to an application for an authorisation.
- (3B) Subsection 90(6) (other than paragraphs 90(6)(a) and (b)) applies in relation to a proposal for a revocation of an authorisation in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies in relation to an application for an authorisation.
- (4) The Commission may make a determination in writing revoking the authorisation, or deciding not to revoke the authorisation, after taking into account the following:
- (a) if subsection (2) applies—the application;
 - (b) any submissions that are received within the period specified under paragraph (2)(c) or (3)(f);
 - (c) any information received under paragraph 90(6)(b) (as it applies because of subsection (3A) of this section) within the period specified in the notice mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (d) any information received under paragraph 90(6)(c) (as it applies because of subsection (3A) or (3B) of this section) within the period specified in the notice mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (e) any information obtained from consultations under paragraph 90(6)(d) (as it applies because of subsection (3A) or (3B) of this section).

Section 91C

The Commission may, but need not, take into account any submissions or information received after the end of those periods.

- (5) If an objection to revoking the authorisation is included in any submission or information:
- (a) referred to in subsection (4); and
 - (b) received by the Commission within the period (if any) referred to in that subsection;
- the Commission must not make a determination revoking the authorisation unless the Commission is satisfied that it would, if the authorisation had not already been granted, be prevented under subsection 90(7) from granting the authorisation.
- (5A) Subsections 90(10B), (12) and (13) apply in relation to an application for a revocation of a merger authorisation that is not an overseas merger authorisation in a corresponding way to the way those subsections apply in relation to an application for a merger authorisation that is not an overseas merger authorisation.
- Note: Those subsections deem the Commissioner to have refused to grant the application if the Commission does not determine the application within 90 days (or an extended period in some cases).
- (6) An application for revocation may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.
- (7) The Commission may disregard any objection that, in its opinion, is either vexatious or frivolous.

91C Revocation of an authorization and substitution of a replacement

- (1) A person to whom an authorization was granted, or another person on behalf of such a person, may apply to the Commission for a revocation of the authorization and the substitution of a new authorization for the one revoked.
- (2) On receipt of such an application, the Commission must, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:

- (b) indicate the basis upon which the revocation and substitution has been applied for and the nature of the substituted authorization so applied for; and
- (c) invite submissions in respect of the revocation and substitution within a period specified by the Commission.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

- (3) If, at any time after granting an authorization, it appears to the Commission that:
 - (a) the authorization was granted on the basis of evidence or information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) a condition to which the authorization was expressed to be subject has not been complied with; or
 - (c) there has been a material change of circumstances since the authorization was granted;the Commission may, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to be interested:

 - (e) indicate the basis on which the revocation and substitution is being proposed and the nature of the substituted authorization proposed; and
 - (f) invite submissions in respect of the proposed action within a period specified by the Commission.

(3A) Subsection 90(6) (other than paragraph 90(6)(a)) applies in relation to an application for a revocation and substitution of an authorisation in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies in relation to an application for an authorisation.

(3B) Subsection 90(6) (other than paragraphs 90(6)(a) and (b)) applies in relation to a proposal for a revocation and substitution of an authorisation in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies in relation to an application for an authorisation.

- (4) The Commission may make a determination in writing revoking the authorisation and granting a substitute authorisation that it considers appropriate, or deciding not to revoke the authorisation, after taking into account the following:
- (a) if subsection (2) applies—the application;
 - (b) any submissions that are received within the period specified under paragraph (2)(c) or (3)(f);
 - (c) any information received under paragraph 90(6)(b) (as it applies because of subsection (3A) of this section) within the period specified in the notice mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (d) any information received under paragraph 90(6)(c) (as it applies because of subsection (3A) or (3B) of this section) within the period specified in the notice mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (e) any information obtained from consultations under paragraph 90(6)(d) (as it applies because of subsection (3A) or (3B) of this section).

The Commission may, but need not, take into account any submissions or information received after the end of those periods.

- (5) Before making a determination under subsection (4) in relation to an application, or a proposal, for the revocation of an authorisation other than a merger authorisation and the substitution of another, the Commission must comply with the requirements of section 90A.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

- (6) For the purposes of complying with section 90A in accordance with subsection (5), section 90A has effect:
- (a) as if the reference in subsection (1) to an application for an authorization (other than an application for a merger authorisation) were a reference to an application, or to a proposal, for the revocation of an authorization (other than a

Section 91C

- merger authorisation) and the substitution of another authorization; and
- (b) as if references in other provisions of that section to an application, or to an application for an authorization, were references either to an application, or to a proposal, for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another; and
- (c) as if subsection 90A(2) had provided, in its operation in relation to a proposal for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another, that:
- (i) the reference to the applicant and to each other interested person were a reference only to each interested person; and
 - (ii) each reference to the applicant or other person were a reference only to the other person.
- (7) The Commission must not make a determination revoking an authorization and substituting another authorization unless the Commission is satisfied that it would not be prevented under subsection 90(7) from making a determination granting the substituted authorization, if it were a new authorization sought under section 88.
- (7A) Subsections 90(10B), (12) and (13) apply in relation to an application for a revocation and substitution of a merger authorisation that is not an overseas merger authorisation in a corresponding way to the way those subsections apply in relation to an application for a merger authorisation that is not an overseas merger authorisation.
- Note: Those subsections deem the Commissioner to have refused to grant the application if the Commission does not determine the application within 90 days (or an extended period in some cases).
- (8) An application for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.

95E Object of this Part

The object of this Part is to have prices surveillance applied only in those markets where, in the view of the Minister, competitive pressures are not sufficient to achieve efficient prices and protect consumers.

95F Simplified overview of this Part

- (1) This Part deals with 3 main things.

Price inquiries

- (2) First, it provides for the Commission or another body to hold price inquiries in relation to the supply of goods or services.
- (3) These inquiries may relate to the supply of goods or services by a particular person. If so, the person's ability to increase the prices of those goods or services during a particular period is restricted. However, there is a way for the person to increase prices during that period.

Section 95F

Price notifications

- (4) Second, this Part allows the Minister or the Commission to declare goods or services to be notified goods or services and to declare a person to be a declared person in relation to such goods or services.
- (5) If this happens, the person's ability to increase the prices of such goods or services during a particular period is restricted. However, there is a way for the person to increase prices during that period.

Price monitoring

- (6) Third, this Part allows the Minister to direct the Commission to undertake price monitoring.
- (7) This may be in relation to supplies of goods or services in a particular industry or in relation to supplies of goods or services by particular persons.

Division 2—Commission's functions under this Part

95G Commission's functions under this Part

- (1) The Commission's functions under this Part are set out in this section.

- (4) The Commission is to give the Minister a report on the results of each inquiry it holds.

Price notifications

- (5) The Commission is to consider locality notices and to take, in relation to such notices, such action in accordance with this Part as it considers appropriate.

Price monitoring

- (6) The Commission is to monitor prices, costs and profits in any industry or business that the Minister directs it to monitor and is to give the Minister a report on the results of such monitoring.

General

- (7) In exercising its powers and performing its functions under this Part, the Commission must, subject to any directions given under section 95ZH, have particular regard to the following:
- (a) the need to maintain investment and employment, including the influence of profitability on investment and employment;

Part VIIA Prices surveillance

Division 2 Commission's functions under this Part

Section 95G

- (b) the need to discourage a person who is in a position to substantially influence a market for goods or services from taking advantage of that power in setting prices;
- (c) the need to discourage cost increases arising from increases in wages and changes in conditions of employment inconsistent with principles established by relevant industrial tribunals.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (4) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

Locality notice

- (5) The first requirement is that the person has given the Commission a notice (a locality notice) in writing stating that the person proposes to supply goods or services of that description in that locality on specified terms and conditions (the proposed terms) at a specified price (the proposed price).

Note: The person may give further notices modifying the locality notice: see section 95ZA.

- (a) the applicable period in relation to the locality notice has ended; or
 - (b) the Commission has given the person a notice in writing stating that it has no objection to the person supplying goods or services of that description in that locality on the proposed terms at the proposed price; or
 - (c) both of the following apply:
 - (i) the Commission has given the person a notice (the response notice) in writing stating that it would have no objection to the person supplying goods or services of that description in that locality on the proposed terms at a specified price (the approved price) that is less than the proposed price;

95ZA Later notices modifying a locality notice

- (1) If a person gives the Commission a locality notice, the person may give the Commission one or more further notices in writing stating that the locality notice is to have effect as if there were substituted for the proposed price another specified price.
- (2) A price specified in a notice under subsection (1) must be:
- (a) less than the proposed price; and
 - (b) less than the price specified in any previous notice under that subsection in relation to the locality notice.
- (3) If a notice is given under subsection (1), the locality notice has effect accordingly.
- (4) In this section:

proposed price has the meaning given by subsection 95Z(5).

95ZB Applicable period in relation to a locality notice

- (1) The applicable period in relation to a locality notice is the period (the price-freeze period) of 21 days starting on the day on which the notice was given.

Section 95ZC

- (2) However, the Commission may, with the consent of the person who gave the locality notice, determine, before the end of the price-freeze period, that the applicable period in relation to the notice for the purposes of this section is a specified longer period.
- (3) If the Commission so determines, that longer period is taken to become the applicable period in relation to the locality notice.
- (4) Also, if the Commission has given a response notice, the period that is the applicable period (worked out under subsections (1) to (3)) in relation to the locality notice is taken to be increased by a period of 14 days.

Example: On 1 May the person gives the Commission a locality notice.

Under subsection (1), the applicable period ends on 21 May.

On 9 May the Commission, with the consent of the person, determines, under subsection (2), that the applicable period ends on 31 May.

If the Commission also gives the person a response notice, under subsection (4), the applicable period instead of ending on 31 May ends on 14 June.

shorten the time allowed by or under the regulations within which an application under subsection (1) may be made for a review of the determination by the Commission of the application referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) if the member is satisfied that special circumstances exist and that, in all the circumstances, it would not be unfair to do so.

(1C) The regulations may make it a requirement that a person applying under subsection (1) for review of a determination relating to a merger authorisation give an undertaking under section 87B that the person will not make the acquisition to which the authorisation relates while the Tribunal is considering the application.

(2) A review by the Tribunal is a re-hearing of the matter, unless it is a review of a determination by the Commission:

- (a) in relation to an application for a merger authorisation or a minor variation of a merger authorisation; or
- (b) in relation to the revocation of a merger authorisation, or the revocation of a merger authorisation and the substitution of another merger authorisation.

(3) Subsections 90(7), 91A(4) and (4A), 91B(5) and 91C(7) apply in relation to the Tribunal in like manner as they apply in relation to the Commission.

101A Application for review of notices under Division 2 of Part VII

A person dissatisfied with the giving of a notice by the Commission under subsection 93(3), (3A) or (3B), 93AAA(1), 93AC(1), (2) or (2A), 93ACA(1), 93AD(5) or 93AG(7) may, as prescribed and within the time allowed by or under the regulations, apply to the Tribunal for a review of the giving of the notice and, if the person was the person to whom the notice was given or the Tribunal is satisfied that the person has a sufficient interest, the Tribunal shall review the giving of the notice.

101B Application for review of notice under section 95AB

- (1) A person dissatisfied with the giving of a notice under section 95AB may, as prescribed and within the time allowed by or under the regulations, apply to the Tribunal for a review of the giving of the notice.

- (1) On a review of a determination of the Commission under Division 1 of Part VII in relation to:
 - (a) an application for an authorization; or
 - (b) an application for a minor variation of an authorization; or
 - (c) an application for, or the Commission's proposal for, the revocation of an authorization; or
 - (d) an application for, or the Commission's proposal for, the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization;

the Tribunal may make a determination affirming, setting aside or varying the determination of the Commission and, for the purposes of the review, may perform all the functions and exercise all the powers of the Commission.

Section 102

Note: Subsections (9) and (10) contain limitations in relation to determinations relating to merger authorisations.

(1AA) If a person applies to the Tribunal for review of a determination of the Commission relating to:

- (a) the grant of a merger authorisation (a domestic merger authorisation) that is not an overseas merger authorisation; or
- (b) the minor variation, or the revocation, of a domestic merger authorisation; or
- (c) the revocation of a domestic merger authorisation and the substitution of another domestic merger authorisation;

the Tribunal must make its determination on the review within the period applying under subsection (1AC) (the relevant period).

(1AB) If the Tribunal has not made its determination on the review of a determination of the Commission mentioned in subsection (1AA) within the relevant period, the Tribunal is taken to have made a determination affirming the Commission's determination.

(1AC) The period applying under this subsection is as follows:

- (a) unless paragraph (b) or (c) applies—90 days;
- (b) if the Tribunal allows new information, documents or evidence under subsection (9), and paragraph (c) does not apply—120 days;
- (c) if an extended period is determined under subsection (1AD)—that extended period;

beginning on the day the Tribunal receives the application for review.

(1AD) Before the end of the period (the initial period) otherwise applying under paragraph (1AC)(a) or (b) for the review, the Tribunal may determine in writing that:

- (a) the matter cannot be dealt with properly within the initial period, either because of its complexity or because of other special circumstances; and

- (b) an extended period applies for the review, which consists of the initial period and a further specified period of not more than 90 days.

The Tribunal must, before the end of the initial period, notify the applicant and the Commission of any determination under this subsection.

- (1A) If a person applies to the Tribunal for review of a determination of the Commission relating to:

- (a) the grant of an overseas merger authorisation; or
- (b) the minor variation, or the revocation, of an overseas merger authorisation; or
- (c) the revocation of an overseas merger authorisation and the substitution of another overseas merger authorisation;

the Tribunal must make its determination on the review within 60 days after receiving the application for review.

- (1B) The 60 day time limit in subsection (1A) does not apply if the Tribunal considers that the matter cannot be dealt with properly within that period of 60 days, either because of its complexity or because of other special circumstances.

- (1C) If subsection (1B) applies, the Tribunal must notify the applicant before the end of the 60 day period that the matter cannot be dealt with properly within that period.

- (2) A determination by the Tribunal affirming, setting aside or varying a determination of the Commission under Division 1 of Part VII in relation to:

- (a) an application for an authorization; or
- (b) an application for a minor variation of an authorization; or
- (c) an application for, or the Commission's proposal for, the revocation of an authorization; or
- (d) an application for, or the Commission's proposal for, the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization;

is, for the purposes of this Act other than this Part, to be taken to be a determination of the Commission.
