Part 2—Restrictions on shareholdings in financial sector companies

Division 1—Introduction

8 Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

- Financial sector companies are subject to a 15% shareholding limit. The Treasurer may approve a higher percentage limit on national interest grounds.
- Those limits relate to a person's stake in a company.
- A person's stake is the aggregate of the person's voting power and the voting power of the person's associates.
- A person whose stake in a financial sector company does not exceed 15% may be declared by the Treasurer to have practical control of the company.
- The person covered by the declaration must take steps to ensure that the person does not have:
  - (a) a stake that exceeds 15%; or
  - (b) practical control.
- The regulations may require records to be kept, and information to be given, for purposes relating to the restrictions on shareholdings.

9 Definitions in Schedule 1

Schedule 1 sets out definitions of expressions used in this Part.

Division 2—15% shareholding limit

10 Meaning of *unacceptable shareholding situation

For the purposes of this Act, an unacceptable shareholding situation exists in relation to a particular financial sector company and in relation to a particular person if the person holds a stake in the company of more than:

- (a) 15%; or
- (b) if an approval of a higher percentage is in force under Division 3 in relation to the company and in relation to the person—that higher percentage.

Note: A person's stake includes the interests of the person's associates—see Schedule 1.

11 Acquisitions of shares

If:

- (a) a person, or 2 or more persons under an arrangement, acquire shares in a company; and
- (b) the acquisition has the result, in relation to a financial sector company, that:
  - (i) an unacceptable shareholding situation comes into existence in relation to the company and in relation to a person; or
  - (ii) if an unacceptable shareholding situation already exists in relation to the company and in relation to a person—there is an increase in the stake held by the person in the company; and
- (c) the person or persons mentioned in paragraph (a) were reckless as to whether the acquisition would have that result; the person or persons mentioned in paragraph (a) are guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 400 penalty units.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Section 12

12 Remedial orders

- (1) If an unacceptable shareholding situation exists in relation to a financial sector company, the Federal Court may, on application by the Treasurer or the company, make such orders as the court considers appropriate for the purpose of ensuring that that situation ceases to exist.
- (2) If an unacceptable shareholding situation has existed in relation to a financial sector company, the Federal Court may, on application by the Treasurer or the company, make such orders as the court considers appropriate.

- (5) In addition to the Federal Court's powers under subsections (1), (2) and (3), the court:
  - (a) has power, for the purpose of securing compliance with any other order made under this section, to make an order directing any person to do or refrain from doing a specified act; and
  - (b) has power to make an order containing such ancillary or consequential provisions as the court thinks just.
- (6) The Federal Court may, before making an order under this section, direct that notice of the application be given to such persons as it thinks fit or be published in such manner as it thinks fit, or both.
- (7) The Federal Court may, by order, rescind, vary or discharge an order made by it under this section or suspend the operation of such an order.
