Crimes at Sea Act 2000

No. 13, 2000

An Act to give effect to a cooperative scheme for dealing with crimes at sea, and for other purposes

Preamble

The Commonwealth and the States have agreed to a cooperative scheme to apply the criminal law of the States extraterritorially in the areas adjacent to the coast of Australia.

Under the scheme, the criminal law of each State is to apply in the area adjacent to the State:

- (a) for a distance of 12 nautical miles from the baseline for the State—by force of the law of the State; and
 - (b) beyond 12 nautical miles up to a distance of 200 nautical miles from the baseline for the State or the outer limit of the continental shelf (whichever is the greater distance)—by force of the law of the Commonwealth.

Part 1 Preliminary

Section 1

Responsibility for administering criminal justice in the area covered by the scheme will be divided between the Commonwealth and the States under the scheme and an intergovernmental agreement.

The purposes of this Act are:

- (a) to give legal force to the scheme (so far as it depends on the legislative power of the Commonwealth) and to provide for consequential vesting of judicial and other powers; and
- (b) to provide for the application of Australian criminal law in certain cases beyond the area covered by the scheme.

[Assented to 31 March 2000]

The Parliament of Australia therefore enacts:

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Crimes at Sea Act 2000.

2 Commencement

- (1) Sections 1 and 2 commence on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the remaining provisions of this Act commence on a day to be fixed by Proclamation.
- (3) If the provisions referred to in subsection (2) do not commence under that subsection within the period of 12 months beginning on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, they commence on the first day after the end of that period.

3 Schedule(s)

Subject to section 2, each Act that is specified in Schedule 2 is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in that Schedule, and any other item in that Schedule has effect according to its terms.

Part 3—Application of criminal law outside adjacent area

6 Application of Australian criminal law outside the adjacent area

- (1) The substantive criminal law of the Jervis Bay Territory, as in force from time to time, applies at sea outside the adjacent area to a criminal act:
 - (a) on an Australian ship; or
 - (b) in the course of activities controlled from an Australian ship; or
 - or
 - (c) of a person who has abandoned, or temporarily left, an Australian ship and has not returned to land.
- (2) The substantive criminal law of the Jervis Bay Territory, as in force from time to time, applies at sea outside the adjacent area to a criminal act:
 - (a) of an Australian citizen (other than a member of the crew) on a foreign ship; or
 - (b) of an Australian citizen (other than a member of the crew) in the course of activities controlled from a foreign ship; or
 - (c) of an Australian citizen who has abandoned, or temporarily left, a foreign ship and has not returned to land.
- (3) The substantive criminal law of the Jervis Bay Territory, as in force from time to time, is taken to have applied at sea outside the adjacent area to a criminal act:
 - (a) on a foreign ship; or
 - (b) in the course of activities controlled from a foreign ship; or
 - (c) of a person who has abandoned, or temporarily left, a foreign ship and has not returned to land;if the first country at which the ship calls, or the person lands, after the criminal act, is Australia or an external territory of Australia.

Section 6

indictable offence, to preliminary examination in committal proceedings, unless the Attorney-General consents in writing to the hearing and determination of the charge.

- (5) Before granting such a consent, the Attorney-General must take into account any views expressed by the government of a country other than Australia whose jurisdiction over the alleged offence is recognised under principles of international law.
- (6) Even though the Attorney-General has not granted such a consent, the absence of consent is not to prevent or delay:
 - (a) the arrest of the suspected offender or proceedings related to arrest (such as proceedings for the issue and execution of a warrant); or
 - (b) the laying of a charge against the suspected offender; or
 - (c) proceedings for the extradition to Australia of the suspected offender; or
 - (d) proceedings for remanding the suspected offender in custody or on bail.

- (9) If:
 - (a) a person is charged with an offence that arises under this section; but
 - (b) there is a country other than Australia whose jurisdiction over the alleged offence is recognised under principles of international law;it is a defence to prove:
 - (c) that no corresponding offence exists under the law of the other country; or

- (d) that such a corresponding offence does exist but a defence to a charge of the corresponding offence could be made out under the law of the other country.
- (10) This section does not apply to an act that takes place in:
- (a) the territorial waters of Norfolk Island (within the meaning of the Territorial Waters Act 1926 of Norfolk Island); or
 - (b) the coastal sea (within the meaning of subsection 15B(4) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 of the Commonwealth) of any of the following Territories:
 - (i) the Territory of Christmas Island;
 - (ii) the Territory of Cocos (Keeling) Islands;
 - (iii) the Australian Antarctic Territory;
 - (iv) the Territory of Heard Island and McDonald Islands;
 - (v) the Territory of Ashmore and Cartier Islands;
 - (vi) the Coral Sea Islands Territory.
- (11) In this section:
- criminal act means an act that would, if done in the Jervis Bay Territory, contravene the substantive criminal law of the Jervis Bay Territory.

 - (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
 - (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) However, this section does not authorise the making of regulations for the purposes of the cooperative scheme.

Note: The Governor-General has power to make regulations for the purposes of the cooperative scheme under clause 12 of the scheme.

Schedule 1—The cooperative scheme

Note: See section 5.

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Definitions

(1) In this scheme:

Australian ship means:

- (a) a ship registered in Australia; or
- (b) a ship that operates, or is controlled, from a base in Australia and is not registered under the law of another country; or
- (c) a ship that belongs to an arm of the Defence Force.

foreign ship means a ship other than an Australian ship.

indictable offence means an offence for which a charge may be laid by indictment or an equivalent process (whether that is the only, or an optional, way to lay a charge of the offence).

inner adjacent area for a State means the parts of the adjacent area for the State that are:

- (a) on the landward side of the baseline for the State; and
- (b) on the seaward side, but within 12 nautical miles from, the baseline for the State.

intergovernmental agreement means the agreement entered into under clause 5 of this Schedule.

Clause 1

law of criminal investigation, procedure and evidence means law (including unwritten law) about:

- (a) the investigation of offences (including coronial inquiry); or
- (b) immunity from prosecution and undertakings about the use of evidence; or
- (c) the arrest and custody of offenders or suspected offenders; or
- (d) bail; or
- (e) the laying of charges; or
- (f) the capacity to plead to a charge, or to stand trial on a charge; or
- (g) the classification of offences as indictable or summary offences (and sub-classification within those classes); or
- (h) procedures for dealing with a charge of a summary offence; or
- (i) procedures for dealing with a charge of an indictable offence (including preliminary examination of the charge); or

or
- (b) dealing with capacity to incur criminal liability; or

- (d) providing for the confiscation of property used in, or derived from, the commission of an offence; or
- (e) providing for the payment of compensation for injury, loss or damage resulting from the commission of an offence, or the restitution of property obtained through the commission of an offence; or
- (f) dealing with other subjects declared by regulation to be within the ambit of the substantive criminal law of a State; or
- (g) providing for the interpretation of laws of the kinds mentioned above.

summary offence means any offence other than an indictable offence.

- (2) The law of criminal investigation, procedure and evidence of the Commonwealth includes provisions of State law on the relevant subjects applied under the Judiciary Act 1903 (Commonwealth).

Clause 2

Part 2—Application of State criminal law to adjacent area

2 Application of State criminal law in adjacent area

- (1) The substantive criminal law of a State, as in force from time to time, applies, by force of the law of the State, throughout the inner adjacent area for the State.
- (2) The provisions of the substantive criminal law of a State, as in force from time to time, apply, by force of the law of the Commonwealth, throughout the outer adjacent area for the State.
- (3) However, this clause does not:
 - (a) apply to a substantive criminal law that is incapable of applying in an adjacent area or is limited by its express terms to a place within the area of a State; or

Example: A law making it an offence to drive a motor vehicle at a speed exceeding a prescribed limit on a road could not apply in an adjacent area because of the inherent localising elements of the offence. The scheme does not therefore purport to extend the application of such a law to the adjacent area.

- (b) give a legal effect to a provision of a substantive criminal law that the provision does not have within the area of the State.

Example: If the effect of a provision of the substantive criminal law of a State is limited under section 109 of the Constitution within the area of the State, the effect is similarly limited in the outer adjacent area for the State even though the provision applies in the outer adjacent area under the legislative authority of the Commonwealth.

3 Application of laws of criminal investigation, procedure and evidence

- (1) In this clause:

act includes an omission.

area of administrative responsibility for a particular State is:

- (a) the area of the State; and
- (b) the inner adjacent area for the State; and
- (c) other parts of the adjacent area in which the State has, under the intergovernmental agreement, responsibility (which may be either exclusive or concurrent) for administering criminal justice.

authority includes an agent or official.

Commonwealth judicial proceeding means:

- (a) a judicial proceeding related to a maritime offence:
 - (i) initiated by an authority of the Commonwealth; or
 - (ii) for the conduct of which an authority of the Commonwealth has assumed responsibility; or
- (b) a judicial proceeding about an investigation, procedure or act by an authority of the Commonwealth in relation to a maritime offence.

judicial proceeding means:

- (a) a proceeding in a court (whether between parties or not) or a proceeding incidental to or connected with a proceeding in a court; or
- (b) the laying of a charge; or
- (c) the preliminary examination of a charge of an indictable offence or a proceeding incidental to or connected with the preliminary examination of a charge of an indictable offence.

preliminary examination of a charge of an indictable offence means a proceeding to decide whether the defendant should be committed for trial or, if the defendant pleads guilty to the charge, to commit the defendant for sentence or trial.

State judicial proceeding means:

- (a) a judicial proceeding related to a maritime offence:
 - (i) initiated by an authority of a State; or
 - (ii) for the conduct of which an authority of a State has assumed responsibility; or
- (b) a judicial proceeding about an investigation, procedure or act by an authority of a State in relation to a maritime offence.

Schedule 1 The cooperative scheme

Part 2 Application of State criminal law to adjacent area

Clause 3

- (2) The laws of criminal investigation, procedure and evidence of the Commonwealth and the States apply to maritime offences as follows:
- (a) the law of the Commonwealth applies to investigations, procedures and acts (other than judicial proceedings) by authorities of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) the law of a State applies to investigations, procedures and acts (other than judicial proceedings) by authorities of the State operating within the area of administrative responsibility for the relevant State; and
 - (c) in a Commonwealth judicial proceeding the law of the Commonwealth applies and in a State judicial proceeding the law of the State in which the proceeding was commenced applies (subject to the Constitution) irrespective of whether:
 - (i) the maritime offence arises under the law of the State in which the proceeding was commenced or another State; or
 - (ii) the substantive criminal law against which the offence was committed applies in the relevant part of the adjacent area under the law of the State in which the proceeding was commenced, another State or the Commonwealth.

Example 1: Suppose that a person is charged by a State authority with a maritime offence on the assumption that the offence was committed in the inner adjacent area for the State but the court is satisfied in the course of the proceedings that the acts alleged against the defendant took place in the outer adjacent area for the State. In this case, the court could continue with the proceedings under the procedural laws of the State. However, the court could not (for example) convict the defendant on the basis of a majority verdict of a jury (because to do so would be contrary to the Commonwealth Constitution—see Cheatle, 177 CLR 541).

Example 2: Suppose that a person is charged by a State authority in a South Australian court with a maritime offence alleged to have been committed in the adjacent area for Western Australia. For the purposes of the proceedings, the offence would be classified as a major indictable, minor indictable or summary offence according to the South Australian rules and not by reference to its classification under the law of Western Australia or the Commonwealth.

- (3) This clause operates to the exclusion of any Commonwealth or State law that is inconsistent with it.

- (4) A Commonwealth or State law enacted or made after the commencement of this clause is to be construed as having effect subject to this clause, unless the law expressly overrides this clause.
- (5) The Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Commonwealth) does not apply to a decision taken under a State law that applies to investigations, procedures and acts by authorities of the State under paragraph (b) of subclause (2).

4 Evidentiary presumption about the locus of an offence

If, in proceedings for a maritime offence, an alleged act, omission or state of affairs, that is an element of the offence, is proved, an allegation in the information or complaint that the act, omission or state of affairs happened in the adjacent area, inner adjacent area, or outer adjacent area for a particular State is taken to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

Part 3—The intergovernmental agreement

5 Intergovernmental agreement

- (1) The Commonwealth Attorney-General, on behalf of the Commonwealth, and the participating State Ministers may enter into an agreement providing for the division of responsibility for administering and enforcing the law relating to maritime offences.
- (2) The intergovernmental agreement may provide for concurrent responsibility in specified parts of the adjacent area.

6 Effect of the agreement

- (1) A charge of a maritime offence must not be brought in a court contrary to the intergovernmental agreement.
- (2) If a charge of a maritime offence is brought in a court in contravention of subclause (1), the court must, on application by the Commonwealth Attorney-General or a participating State Minister, permanently stay the proceedings in that court.
- (3) However:
 - (a) a contravention of subclause (1) does not affect a court's jurisdiction; and
 - (b) if a charge of a maritime offence is brought in a court, the court will not (except on an application under subclause (2)) be concerned to enquire into whether the intergovernmental agreement has been complied with.

Part 4—Limitations and exclusions

7 Commonwealth Attorney-General's consent required for certain prosecutions

- (1) The Commonwealth Attorney-General's written consent is required before a charge of a maritime offence can proceed to hearing or determination or, if the offence is an indictable offence, to a preliminary examination in committal proceedings, if:
 - (a) the offence is alleged to have been committed on or from a foreign ship; and
 - (b) the ship is registered under the law of a country other than Australia; and
 - (c) the country of registration has, under international law, jurisdiction over the alleged offence.
- (2) Before granting such a consent, the Commonwealth Attorney-General must take into account any views expressed by the government of the country of registration.
- (3) Even though the Commonwealth Attorney-General has not granted such a consent, the absence of consent is not to prevent or delay:
 - (a) the arrest of the suspected offender or proceedings related to arrest (such as proceedings for the issue and execution of a warrant); or
 - (b) the laying of a charge against the suspected offender; or
 - (c) proceedings for the extradition to Australia of the suspected offender; or
 - (d) proceedings for remanding the suspected offender in custody or on bail.
- (4) If the Commonwealth Attorney-General declines to grant consent, the court in which the suspected offender has been charged with the offence must permanently stay the proceedings.
- (5) In any proceedings, an apparently genuine document purporting to be a copy of a written consent granted by the Commonwealth

Clause 8

Attorney-General in accordance with this clause will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof of such consent.

8 Non-exclusion of consistent extraterritorial legislative schemes

This scheme does not exclude the extraterritorial operation of State law to the extent that the State law is capable of operating extraterritorially consistently with the scheme.

9 Exclusion of certain laws from ambit of this scheme

This scheme does not apply to State and Commonwealth laws excluded by regulation from the ambit of the scheme.

10 Non-application of scheme to Area A of the Zone of Cooperation

This scheme does not apply to Area A of the Zone of Cooperation.

Part 5—Miscellaneous

11 Interpretation

The Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (Commonwealth) applies to this scheme in the same way as to a Commonwealth Act.

12 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters:
 - (a) required or permitted by this scheme to be prescribed; or
 - (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this scheme.
- (2) However, a regulation affecting the operation of this scheme in relation to the inner adjacent area for a State may only be made with the agreement of the participating State Minister for the relevant State.
