Chapter 5—External administration

Part 5.1—Arrangements and reconstructions

410 Interpretation

A reference in this Part, in relation to a Part 5.1 body, to the directors is a reference to the directors of the body or any one or more of them.

411 Administration of compromises etc.

- (1) Where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between a Part 5.1 body and its creditors or any class of them or between a Part 5.1 body and its members or any class of them, the Court may, on the application in a summary way of the body or of any creditor or member of the body, or, in the case of a body being wound up, of the liquidator, order a meeting or meetings of the creditors or class of creditors or of the members of the body or class of members to be convened in such manner, and to be held in such place or places (in this jurisdiction or elsewhere), as the Court directs and, where the Court makes such an order, the Court may approve the explanatory statement required by paragraph 412(1)(a) to accompany notices of the meeting or meetings.

(1A) Where:

- (a) a compromise or arrangement is proposed:
- (i) between 30 or more Part 5.1 bodies that are wholly-owned subsidiaries of a holding company and the creditors or a class of the creditors of each of those subsidiaries; and

Section 411

the property and liabilities of the subsidiary to the holding company; and

- (c) the Court is satisfied, on the application in a summary way:
- (i) of the holding company or of a creditor of the holding company; or
 - (ii) if the holding company is being wound up—of the liquidator;

that the number of meetings that would be required between creditors in order to consider the proposed compromises or arrangements would be so great as to result in a significant impediment to the timely and effective consideration by those creditors of the terms of the compromises or arrangements;

the Court may order a meeting or meetings, on a consolidated basis, of the creditors of the holding company and of each of the subsidiaries or of such class or classes of those creditors as the Court determines and, where the Court makes such an order, the Court may approve the explanatory statement required by paragraph 412(1)(a) to accompany notices of the meeting or meetings.

(1B) Where:

- (a) there are fewer than 30 wholly-owned subsidiaries of the holding company but the matters referred to in paragraphs (1A)(b) and (c) are satisfied; and
- (b) the Court considers that circumstances exist that would justify its doing so;

the Court may make an order under subsection (1A) in relation to the proposed compromise or arrangement.

(1C) Where an order is made under subsection (1A) in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement, the succeeding provisions of this Part apply to the compromise or arrangement as if:

- (3) In subsection (2), draft explanatory statement, in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement between a body and its creditors or any class of them or between a body and its members or any class of them, means a statement:
- (a) explaining the effect of the proposed compromise or arrangement and, in particular, stating any material interests of the directors of the body, whether as directors, as members or creditors of the body or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the proposed compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons; and
 - (b) setting out such information as is prescribed and any other information that is material to the making of a decision by a creditor or member of the body whether or not to agree to the proposed compromise or arrangement, being information that is within the knowledge of the directors of the body and has not previously been disclosed to the creditors or members of the body.

- (3A) In considering whether to make an order under subsection (1) or (1A) for a meeting to be held outside this jurisdiction, the Court must have regard to where the creditors or members, or the creditors or members included in the class concerned, as the case requires, reside.
- (4) A compromise or arrangement is binding on the creditors, or on a class of creditors, or on the members, or on a class of members, as the case may be, of the body and on the body or, if the body is in the course of being wound up, on the liquidator and contributories of the body, if, and only if:

 - (ii) in the case of a compromise or arrangement between a body and its members or a class of members—a resolution in favour of the compromise or arrangement is:

 - (b) is approved by the Court;
- those creditors are also bound by the compromise or arrangement despite the fact that a meeting of those creditors has not been ordered by the Court under subsection (1) or (1A).
- (6) The Court may grant its approval to a compromise or arrangement subject to such alterations or conditions as it thinks just.

- (e) is a director, secretary, senior manager or employee of a body corporate related to the body; or
 - (f) unless ASIC directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the body—has at any time within the last 12 months been an officer or promoter of the body or of a related body corporate.
- (8) Paragraph (7)(d) does not apply in relation to a body corporate authorised by or under a law of a State or Territory in this jurisdiction to administer the compromise or arrangement concerned.
- (8A) Subsection (7) does not disqualify a person from administering a compromise or arrangement under an appointment validly made before 1 January 1991.
- (9) Where a person is or persons are appointed by, or under a power given by, the terms of a compromise or arrangement, to administer the compromise or arrangement:
- (a) sections 422A, 422B and 425, subsections 427(2) and (4) and sections 428, 432 and 434 apply in relation to that person or those persons as if:
 - (i) the appointment of the person or persons to administer the compromise or arrangement were an appointment of the person or persons as a receiver and manager, or as receivers and managers, of property of the body; and
 - (ii) a reference in any of those sections or subsections to a receiver, or to a receiver of property, of a corporation were a reference to that person or to those persons; and
 - (b) Subdivision B (court powers to inquire and make orders) of Division 90 of Schedule 2 applies in relation to that person or those persons as if:
 - (i) the appointment of the person or persons to administer the compromise or arrangement were an appointment of the person or persons as an external administrator of the body; and

Section 411

- (ii) a reference in that Subdivision to an external administration were a reference to the administration of the compromise or arrangement; and
 - (iii) a reference in that Subdivision to an external administrator were a reference to that person or to those persons.
- (10) An order of the Court made for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b) does not have any effect until an office copy of the order is lodged with ASIC, and upon being so lodged, the order takes effect, or is taken to have taken effect, on and from the date of lodgment or such earlier date as the Court determines and specifies in the order.
- (11) Subject to subsection (12), a copy of every order of the Court made for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b) must be annexed to every copy of the constitution of the body issued after the order has been made.
- (12) The Court may, by order, exempt a body from compliance with subsection (11) or determine the period during which the body must comply with that subsection.
- (13) Where a compromise or arrangement referred to in subsection (1) or (1A) (whether or not for the purposes of or in connection with a scheme for the reconstruction of a body or bodies or the amalgamation of any 2 or more bodies) has been proposed, the directors of the body must:
 - (a) if a meeting of the members of the body by resolution so directs—instruct such accountants or solicitors or both as are named in the resolution to report on the proposals and send their report or reports to the directors as soon as practicable; and
 - (b) if a report or reports is or are obtained pursuant to paragraph (a)—make the report or reports available at the registered office of the body for inspection by the shareholders and creditors of the body at least 7 days before the day of the meeting ordered by the Court to be convened as provided in subsection (1) or (1A), as the case may be.

- (14) If default is made in complying with subsection (11), the body contravenes this subsection.
- (15) If default is made in complying with subsection (13), each director of the body contravenes this subsection.
- (16) Where no order has been made or resolution passed for the winding up of a Part 5.1 body and a compromise or arrangement has been proposed between the body and its creditors or any class of them, the Court may, in addition to exercising any of its other powers, on the application in a summary way of the body or of any member or creditor of the body, restrain further proceedings in any action or other civil proceeding against the body except by leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court imposes.
- (17) The Court must not approve a compromise or arrangement under this section unless:
- (a) it is satisfied that the compromise or arrangement has not been proposed for the purpose of enabling any person to avoid the operation of any of the provisions of Chapter 6; or
 - (b) there is produced to the Court a statement in writing by ASIC stating that ASIC has no objection to the compromise or arrangement;
- but the Court need not approve a compromise or arrangement merely because a statement by ASIC stating that ASIC has no objection to the compromise or arrangement has been produced to the Court as mentioned in paragraph (b).

412 Information as to compromise with creditors

- (1) Where a meeting is convened under section 411, the body must:
- (a) with every notice convening the meeting that is sent to a creditor or member, send a statement (in this section called the explanatory statement):
 - (i) explaining the effect of the compromise or arrangement and, in particular, stating any material interests of the directors, whether as directors, as members or creditors of the body or otherwise, and the effect on those

- interests of the compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons; and
- (ii) setting out such information as is prescribed and any other information that is material to the making of a decision by a creditor or member whether or not to agree to the compromise or arrangement, being information that is within the knowledge of the directors and has not previously been disclosed to the creditors or members; and
- (b) in every notice convening the meeting that is given by advertisement or that is published in the prescribed manner, include either a copy of the explanatory statement or a notification of the place at which and the manner in which creditors or members entitled to attend the meeting may obtain copies of the explanatory statement.
- (2) In the case of a creditor whose debt does not exceed $200, paragraph (1)(a) does not apply unless the Court otherwise orders but the notice convening the meeting that is sent to such a creditor must specify a place at which a copy of the explanatory statement can be obtained on request and, where the creditor makes such a request, the body must as soon as practicable comply with the request.
- (3) Where the compromise or arrangement affects the rights of debenture holders, the explanatory statement must specify any material interests of the trustees for the debenture holders, whether as such trustees, as members or creditors of the body or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons.
- (4) Where a notice given by advertisement, or published in the prescribed manner, includes a notification that copies of the explanatory statement can be obtained in a particular manner, every creditor or member entitled to attend the meeting must, on making application in that matter, be furnished by the body free of charge with a copy of the explanatory statement.

Section 413

- (5) Each person who is a director or trustee for debenture holders must give notice to the body of such matters relating to the person as are required to be included in the explanatory statement.
- (6) In the case of a compromise or arrangement that is not, or does not include, a compromise or arrangement between a Part 5.1 body and its creditors or any class of them, the body must not send out an explanatory statement pursuant to subsection (1) unless a copy of that statement has been registered by ASIC.
- (7) Where an explanatory statement sent out under subsection (1) is not required by subsection (6) to be registered by ASIC, the Court must not make an order approving the compromise or arrangement unless it is satisfied that ASIC has had a reasonable opportunity to examine the explanatory statement and to make submissions to the Court in relation to that statement.
- (8) Where a copy of an explanatory statement is lodged with ASIC for registration under subsection (6), ASIC must not register the copy of the statement unless the statement appears to comply with this Act and ASIC is of the opinion that the statement does not contain any matter that is false in a material particular or materially misleading in the form or context in which it appears.
- (9) Where a body contravenes this section, a person involved in the contravention contravenes this subsection.
- (10) It is a defence to a prosecution for a contravention of this section if it is proved that the contravention was due to the failure of a person (other than the defendant), being a director of the body or a trustee for debenture holders of the body, to supply for the purposes of the explanatory statement particulars of the person's interests.

413 Provisions for facilitating reconstruction and amalgamation of Part 5.1 bodies

- (1) Where an application is made to the Court under this Part for the approval of a compromise or arrangement and it is shown to the Court that the compromise or arrangement has been proposed for the purposes of, or in connection with, a scheme for the reconstruction of a Part 5.1 body or Part 5.1 bodies or the amalgamation of 2 or more Part 5.1 bodies and that, under the scheme, the whole or any part of the undertaking or of the property of a body concerned in the scheme (in this section called the transferor body) is to be transferred to a company (in this section called the transferee company), the Court may, either by the order approving the compromise or arrangement or by a later order, provide for all or any of the following matters:

- (a) the transfer to the transferee company of the whole or a part of the undertaking and of the property or liabilities of the transferor body;
 - (b) the allotting or appropriation by the transferee company of shares, debentures, policies or other interests in that company that, under the compromise or arrangement, are to be allotted or appropriated by that company to or for any person;
 - (c) the continuation by or against the transferee company of any legal proceedings pending by or against the transferor body;
 - (d) if the transferor body is a company—the deregistration by ASIC, without winding up, of the transferor body;
 - (e) the provision to be made for any persons who, within such time and in such manner as the Court directs, dissent from the compromise or arrangement;
 - (f) the transfer or allotment of any interest in property to any person concerned in the compromise or arrangement;
 - (g) such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as are necessary to ensure that the reconstruction or amalgamation is fully and effectively carried out.
- (2) Where an order made under this section provides for the transfer of property or liabilities, then, by virtue of the order, that property is transferred to and vests in, and those liabilities are transferred to and become the liabilities of, the transferee company, free, in the case of any particular property if the order so directs, from any security interest that is, by virtue of the compromise or arrangement, to cease to have effect.

(3) Where an order is made under this section, each body to which the order relates must, within 14 days after the making of the order, lodge with ASIC an office copy of the order.

(4) In this section:

liabilities includes duties of any description, including duties that are of a personal character or are incapable under the general law of being assigned or performed vicariously.

property includes rights and powers of any description, including rights and powers that are of a personal character and are incapable under the general law of being assigned or performed vicariously.

414 Acquisition of shares of shareholders dissenting from scheme or contract approved by majority

(1) In this section:

dissenting shareholder, in relation to a scheme or contract, means a shareholder who has not assented to the scheme or contract or who has failed to transfer his, her or its shares in accordance with the scheme or contract.

excluded shares, in relation to a scheme or contract involving a transfer to a person of shares in a class of shares in a company, means shares in that class that, when the offer relating to the scheme or contract is made, are held by:

- (a) in any case—the person or a nominee of the person; or
- (b) if the person is a body corporate—a subsidiary of the body.

(2) Where a scheme or contract (not being a scheme or contract arising out of the making of offers under a takeover bid) involving a transfer of shares in a class of shares in a company (in this section called the transferor company) to a person (in this section called the transferee) has, within 4 months after the making of the offer relating to the scheme or contract by the transferee, been approved by members holding shares in that class carrying at least 90% of the votes attached to shares in that class (other than excluded shares), the transferee may, within 2 months after the offer has been so approved, give notice as prescribed to a dissenting shareholder that the transferee wishes to acquire the shares held by that shareholder.

- (3) Where such a notice is given, then, unless the Court orders otherwise on an application by a dissenting shareholder made within one month after the day on which the notice was given or within 14 days after a statement is supplied under subsection (7) to a dissenting shareholder, whichever is the later, the transferee is entitled and bound, subject to this section, to acquire those shares on the terms on which, under the scheme or contract, the shares of the approving shareholders are to be transferred to the transferee.
- (4) Where alternative terms were offered to the approving shareholders, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to elect not later than the end of one month after the date on which the notice is given under subsection (2) or 14 days after a statement is supplied under subsection (7), whichever is the later, which of those terms he, she or it prefers and, if he, she or it fails to make the election within the time allowed by this subsection, the transferee may, unless the Court otherwise orders, determine which of those terms is to apply to the acquisition of the shares of the dissenting shareholder.
- (5) Despite subsections (3) and (4), if the number of votes attached to the excluded shares is more than 10% of the votes attached to the excluded shares and the shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract, those subsections do not apply unless:
 - (a) the transferee offers the same terms to all holders of the shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract; and
 - (b) the holders who approve the scheme or contract hold shares to which are attached at least 90% of the votes attached to the shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract and are also at least 75% in number of the holders of those shares.

Section 414

- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(b), 2 or more persons registered as holding shares jointly are to be counted as one person.
- (7) When a notice is given under subsection (2), the dissenting shareholder may, by written notice given to the transferee within one month after the day on which the notice was given under subsection (2), ask for a statement in writing of the names and addresses of all other dissenting shareholders as shown in the register of members.
- (8) Where a notice is given under subsection (7), the transferee must comply with it.
- (9) Where, under a scheme or contract referred to in subsection (2), the transferee becomes beneficially entitled to shares in the transferor company which, together with any other shares in the transferor company to which the transferee or, where the transferee is a body corporate, a body corporate related to the transferee is beneficially entitled, have attached to them at least 90% of the votes attached to the shares included in the class of shares concerned, then:
- (a) the transferee must, within one month after the date on which he, she or it becomes beneficially entitled to those shares (unless in relation to the scheme or contract he, she or it has already complied with this requirement), give notice of the fact as prescribed to the holders of the remaining shares included in that class who, when the notice was given, had not assented to the scheme or contract or been given notice by the transferee under subsection (2); and
 - (b) such a holder may, within 3 months after the giving of the notice to him, her or it by notice to the transferee, require the transferee to acquire his, her or its share and, where alternative terms were offered to the approving shareholders, elect which of those terms he, she or it will accept.
- (10) Where a shareholder gives notice under paragraph (9)(b) with respect to his, her or its shares, the transferee is entitled and bound to acquire those shares:
- (a) on the terms on which under the scheme or contract the shares of the approving shareholders were transferred to him,

Section 414

- her or it and, where alternative terms were offered to those shareholders, on the terms for which the shareholder has elected, or where he, she or it has not so elected, for whichever of the terms the transferee determines; or
- (b) on such other terms as are agreed or as the Court, on the application of the transferee or of the shareholder, thinks fit to order.
- (11) Subsections (12) and (13) apply where a notice has been given under subsection (1) unless the Court, on an application made by the dissenting shareholder, orders to the contrary.
- (12) The transferee must, within 14 days after:
- (a) the end of one month after the day on which the notice was given; or
 - (b) the end of 14 days after a statement under subsection (7) is supplied; or
 - (c) if an application has been made to the Court by a dissenting shareholder—the application is disposed of;
- whichever last happens:
- (d) send a copy of the notice to the transferor company together with an instrument of transfer that relates to the shares that the transferee is entitled to acquire under this section and is executed, on the shareholder's behalf, by a person appointed by the transferee and, on the transferee's own behalf, by the transferee; and
 - (e) pay, allot or transfer to the transferor company the consideration for the shares.
- (13) When the transferee has complied with subsection (12), the transferor company must register the transferee as the holder of the shares.
- (14) All sums received by the transferor company under this section must be paid into a separate bank account and those sums, and any other consideration so received, must be held by that company in trust for the several persons entitled to the shares in respect of which they were respectively received.

- (15) Where a sum or other property received by a company under this section has been held in trust by the company for a person for at least 2 years (whether or not that period began before the commencement of this Act), the company must, before the end of 10 years after the day on which the sum was paid, or the consideration was allotted or transferred, to the company, pay the sum or transfer the consideration, and any accretions to it and any property that may become substituted for it or for part of it, to ASIC to be dealt with under Part 9.7.

415 Notification of appointment of scheme manager and power of Court to require report

- (1) Within 14 days after being appointed to administer a compromise or arrangement approved under this Part, a person must lodge a notice in writing of the appointment.
- (2) Where an application is made to the Court under this Part in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement, the Court may:
- (a) before making any order on the application, require ASIC or another person specified by the Court to give to the Court a report as to the terms of the compromise or arrangement or of the scheme for the purposes of or in connection with which the compromise or arrangement has been proposed, the conduct of the officers of the body or bodies concerned and any other matters that, in the opinion of ASIC or that person, ought to be brought to the attention of the Court;
 - (b) in deciding the application, have regard to anything contained in the report; and
 - (c) make such order or orders as to the payment of the costs of preparing and giving the report as the Court thinks fit.

415A Outcome of voting at creditors' meeting determined by related entity—Court powers

- (1) Subsection (3) applies if, on the application of a creditor of a Part 5.1 body, the Court is satisfied of the following matters:

Section 415A

- (a) a proposed resolution has been voted on at a meeting of creditors, or of a class of creditors, of the body held under this Part;
 - (b) that, if the vote or votes that a particular related creditor, or particular related creditors, of the body cast on the proposed resolution had been disregarded for the purposes of determining whether or not the proposed resolution was passed, the proposed resolution:
 - (i) if it was in fact passed—would not have been passed; or
 - (ii) if in fact it was not passed—would have been passed; or the question would have had to be decided on a casting vote;
 - (c) that the passing of the proposed resolution, or the failure to pass it, as the case requires:
 - (i) is contrary to the interests of the creditors as a whole or of that class of creditors as a whole, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) has prejudiced, or is reasonably likely to prejudice, the interests of the creditors who voted against the proposed resolution, or for it, as the case may be, to an extent that is unreasonable having regard to the matters in subsection (2).
- (2) The matters are:
- (a) the benefits resulting to the related creditor, or to some or all of the related creditors, from the resolution, or from the failure to pass the proposed resolution, as the case may be; and
 - (b) the nature of the relationship between the related creditor and the body, or of the respective relationships between the related creditors and the body; and
 - (c) any other relevant matter.
- (3) The Court may make one or more of the following:
- (a) if the proposed resolution was passed—an order setting aside the resolution;

Section 415B

- (b) an order that the proposed resolution be considered and voted on at a meeting of the creditors of the body, or of that class of creditors, as the case may be, convened and held as specified in the order;
 - (c) an order directing that the related creditor is not, or such of the related creditors as the order specifies are not, entitled to vote on:
 - (i) the proposed resolution; or
 - (ii) a resolution to amend or vary the proposed resolution;
 - (d) such other orders as the Court thinks necessary.
- (4) In this section:

related creditor, in relation to a Part 5.1 body, in relation to a vote, means a person who, when the vote was cast, was a related entity, and a creditor, of the body.

415B Interim order on application under section 415A

- (1) If:
- (a) an application under subsection 415A(1) has not yet been determined; and
 - (b) the Court is of the opinion that it is desirable to do so;
- the Court may make such interim orders as it thinks appropriate.
- (2) An interim order must be expressed to apply until the application is determined, but may be varied or discharged.

415C Order under section 415A does not affect act already done pursuant to resolution

An act done pursuant to a resolution as in force before the making, under section 415A, of an order setting aside or varying the resolution, is as valid and binding on and after the making of the order as if the order had not been made.

Section 415D

415D Stay on enforcing rights merely because of a proceeding under this Part etc.

Stay on enforcing rights

- (1) A right cannot be enforced against a body for:
- (a) the reason that the body, if it is a disclosing entity, has publicly announced that it will be making an application under section 411 for the purpose of avoiding being wound up in insolvency; or
 - (b) the reason that the body is the subject of an application under section 411; or
 - (c) the reason that the body is the subject of a compromise or arrangement approved under this Part as a result of an application under section 411; or
 - (d) the body's financial position, if the body is the subject of such an announcement, application, compromise or arrangement; or
 - (e) a reason, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph, that relates to:
 - (i) the making, or possible making, of such an announcement, application, compromise or arrangement about the body; or
 - (ii) the body's financial position; if such an announcement, application, compromise or arrangement is later made about the body; or
 - (f) a reason that, in substance, is contrary to this subsection; if the right arises for that reason by express provision (however described) of a contract, agreement or arrangement.

Note: This result is subject to subsections (5), (6) and (8), and to any order under section 415E.

Example: A right to terminate a contract will not be enforceable to the extent that those rights are triggered by the body becoming the subject of such an announcement, application, compromise or arrangement.

Period of the stay

- (2) The right cannot be enforced as described in subsection (1) during the period (the stay period) that:
- (a) starts:
 - (i) if the body makes an announcement referred to in paragraph (1)(a)—when the announcement is made; or
 - (ii) otherwise—when the application under section 411 is made; and
 - (b) ends:
 - (i) if the body makes an announcement referred to in paragraph (1)(a), and fails to make the announced application within the next 3 months or within any period ordered under subsection (3) for the body—at the end of the longer of those periods; or
 - (ii) when the application under section 411 is withdrawn or when the Court dismisses the application; or
 - (iii) unless subparagraph (iv) applies—at the end of any compromise or arrangement approved under this Part as a result of the application under section 411; or
 - (iv) if such a compromise or arrangement ends because of a resolution or order for the body to be wound up—when the body’s affairs have been fully wound up.
- (3) The Court may order a longer period than the 3 months otherwise applying under subparagraph (2)(b)(i) for the body if the Court is satisfied that the longer period is appropriate having regard to the interests of justice.

Enforcing rights after the stay for reasons relating to earlier circumstances

- (4) The right is unenforceable against the body indefinitely after the end of the stay period to the extent that a reason for seeking to enforce the right:
- (a) is the body’s financial position before the end of the stay period; or

Section 415D

- (b) is the body having been the subject of any of the following before the end of the stay period:
 - (i) an announcement referred to in paragraph (1)(a);
 - (ii) an application under section 411;
 - (iii) a compromise or arrangement approved under this Part as a result of an application under section 411; or
- (c) is a reason, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph, relating to circumstances in existence during the stay period; or
- (d) is a reason referred to in paragraph (1)(e) or (f).

Application must be made to avoid insolvency

- (5) However, subsection (1) does not apply, and is taken never to have applied, if the application under section 411 fails to state that it is being made for the purpose of the body avoiding being wound up in insolvency.

Rights not subject to the stay

- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to the right if it is:
 - (a) a right under a contract, agreement or arrangement entered into after the day the order (if any) approving under this Part a compromise or arrangement as a result of the application takes effect; or
 - (b) a right contained in a kind of contract, agreement or arrangement:
 - (i) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph; or
 - (ii) declared under paragraph (7)(a); or
 - (c) a right of a kind declared under paragraph (7)(b); or
 - (d) a right of a kind declared under paragraph (7)(c), and the circumstances specified in that declaration exist.

Note: For paragraph (a), subsection 411(10) sets out when the order takes effect.

Section 415E

- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), the Minister may, by legislative instrument:
- (a) declare kinds of contracts, agreements or arrangements referred to in a specified law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) declare kinds of rights to which subsection (1) does not apply; or
 - (c) declare kinds of rights to which subsection (1) does not apply in specified circumstances.
- (8) If the application under section 411 results in the approval under this Part of a compromise or arrangement, subsection (1) does not apply to the right to the extent that:
- (a) the person appointed to administer the compromise or arrangement; or
 - (b) if a liquidator of the body is appointed after the start of the stay period—the liquidator;
- has consented in writing to the enforcement of the right.

Stay on body's right to new advance of money or credit

- (9) If:
- (a) one or more rights of an entity cannot be enforced against a body for a period because of subsection (1); and
 - (b) the body has a right under a contract, agreement or arrangement against the entity for a new advance of money or credit;
- that right of the body cannot be enforced during the same period.

415E Lifting the stay

- (1) The Court may order that subsection 415D(1) does not apply for one or more rights against a body if the Court is satisfied:
- (a) that the relevant compromise or arrangement:
 - (i) to be applied for; or
 - (ii) applied for; or
 - (iii) approved;

Section 415F

- under this Part is not for the purpose of the body avoiding being wound up in insolvency; or
- (b) that this is appropriate in the interests of justice.
- (2) The order may also provide that the holder of those rights may choose to enforce those rights from the earlier of:
- (a) the day any announcement referred to in paragraph 415D(1)(a) was made by the body; and
- (b) the day any application under section 411 was made for the compromise or arrangement.
- (3) An application for the order may be made by the holder of those rights.

415F Order for rights to be enforceable only with leave of the Court

Orders

- (1) The Court may order that one or more rights under a contract, agreement or arrangement are enforceable against a body only:
- (a) with the leave of the Court; and
- (b) in accordance with such terms (if any) as the Court imposes.

Example: The order could be sought for a right to terminate for convenience.

- (2) The Court may make the order (the stay order) if:
- (a) the body is the subject of any of the following:
- (i) an announcement referred to in paragraph 415D(1)(a);
- (ii) an application under section 411 (the section 411 application);
- (iii) a compromise or arrangement approved under this Part as a result of a section 411 application; and
- (b) the Court is satisfied that:
- (i) the rights are being exercised; or
- (ii) the rights are likely to be exercised; or
- (iii) there is a threat to exercise the rights; because of one or more reasons referred to in paragraphs 415D(1)(a) to (f); and

Section 415F

- (c) an application for the stay order is:
 - (i) if the body has made an announcement referred to in paragraph 415D(1)(a), but not yet a section 411 application—made by the body; or
 - (ii) if the body has made a section 411 application, but a resulting compromise or arrangement is yet to be approved under this Part—included in the section 411 application; or
 - (iii) if a compromise or arrangement has been approved under this Part as a result of the section 411 application—made by the person appointed to administer the compromise or arrangement; and
 - (d) in a case where the body has made a section 411 application—the section 411 application states it is being made for the purpose of the body avoiding being wound up in insolvency.
- (3) A stay order must specify the period for which it applies. In working out the period, the Court must have regard to:
- (a) subsections 415D(2), (3) and (4); and
 - (b) the interests of justice.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a right referred to in subsection 415D(6) or (8).

Interim orders

- (5) Before deciding an application for a stay order, the Court may grant an interim order for one or more rights under a contract, agreement or arrangement not to be enforced against a body.
- (6) The Court must not require an applicant for a stay order to give an undertaking as to damages as a condition of granting an interim order.

Section 415FA

415FA Self-executing provisions

- (1) The object of subsection (2) is to ensure that a self-executing provision:
- (a) cannot start to apply against a body for certain reasons; and
 - (b) can be the subject of a Court order providing that the provision can only start to apply against a body with the leave of the Court, and in accordance with such terms (if any) as the Court imposes.
- (2) Sections 415D to 415F also apply in relation to a self-executing provision in a corresponding way to the way they apply in relation to a right. For this purpose, assume those sections apply with such modifications as are necessary, including any prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Note 1: This subsection achieves the object in subsection (1) by extending the application of all of the outcomes, exceptions and powers in sections 415D to 415F.

Note 2: These modifications include, for example, treating:

- (a) a reference that a right cannot be enforced (however described) as including a reference that a self-executing provision cannot start to apply; and
 - (b) the words “if the right arises for that reason by express provision (however described) of a contract, agreement or arrangement” as being omitted from subsection 415D(1); and
 - (c) a reference that one or more rights are enforceable as including a reference that one or more self-executing provisions can start to apply; and
 - (d) paragraph 415F(2)(b) as alternatively providing that the Court is satisfied that one or more reasons referred to in paragraphs 415D(1)(a) to (f) can cause the self-executing provisions to start to apply.
- (3) In this section:
- self-executing provision means a provision of a contract, agreement or arrangement that can start to apply automatically:
- (a) for one or more reasons; and
 - (b) without any party to the contract, agreement or arrangement making a decision that the provision should start to apply.

415G When other laws prevail—certain other Commonwealth Acts

If there is any inconsistency between sections 415D to 415FA and one of the following Acts, that Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency:

- (a) the Payment Systems and Netting Act 1998;
- (b) the International Interests in Mobile Equipment (Cape Town Convention) Act 2013.

Section 416

Part 5.2—Receivers, and other controllers, of property of corporations

416 Definitions

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

officer, in relation to a registered foreign company, includes a local agent of the foreign company.

property, in relation to a corporation, means property:

- (a) in the case of a company—in Australia or outside Australia; or
- (b) in the case of a registered foreign company—in this jurisdiction or an external Territory; or
- (c) in the case of a registrable Australian body—in this jurisdiction but outside the body's place of origin.

receiver, in relation to property of a corporation, includes a receiver and manager.

417 Application of Part

- (1) Except so far as the contrary intention appears in this Part or Part 11.2, this Part applies in relation to a receiver of property of a corporation who is appointed after 1 January 1991, even if the appointment arose out of a transaction entered into, or an act or thing done, before 1 January 1991.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this Part does not apply, of its own force, to the property of a corporation that is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation.

Note 1: The definition of property in section 416 does not define that term in relation to a corporation that is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation.

Note 2: Section 516-1 of the Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006 applies this Part to a corporation that is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation with the modifications provided for in that section.

418 Persons not to act as receivers

- (1) A person is not qualified to be appointed, and must not act, as receiver of property of a corporation if the person:
 - (a) is a secured party in relation to any property (including PPSA retention of title property) of the corporation; or
 - (b) is an auditor or a director, secretary, senior manager or employee of the corporation; or
 - (c) is a director, secretary, senior manager or employee of a body corporate that is a secured party in relation to any property (including PPSA retention of title property) of the corporation; or
 - (d) is not a registered liquidator; or
 - (e) is a director, secretary, senior manager or employee of a body corporate related to the corporation; or
 - (f) unless ASIC directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the corporation—has at any time within the last 12 months been a director, secretary, senior manager, employee or promoter of the corporation or of a related body corporate.
- (3) Paragraph (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a body corporate authorised by or under a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory to act as receiver of property of the corporation concerned.
- (4) In this section:

senior manager does not include a receiver and manager.

418A Court may declare whether controller is validly acting

- (1) Where there is doubt, on a specific ground, about:

Section 419

- (a) whether a purported appointment of a person, after 23 June 1993, as receiver of property of a corporation is valid; or
 - (b) whether a person who has entered into possession, or assumed control, of property of a corporation after 23 June 1993 did so validly under the terms of a security interest in that property;
- the person, the corporation or any of the corporation's creditors may apply to the Court for an order under subsection (2).
- (2) On an application, the Court may make an order declaring whether or not:
 - (a) the purported appointment was valid; or
 - (b) the person entered into possession, or assumed control, validly under the terms of the security interest;as the case may be, on the ground specified in the application or on some other ground.

419 Liability of controller

- (1) A receiver, or any other authorised person, who, whether as agent for the corporation concerned or not, enters into possession or assumes control of any property of a corporation for the purpose of enforcing any security interest is, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the person's rights against the corporation or any other person, liable for debts incurred by the person in the course of the receivership, possession or control for services rendered, goods purchased or property hired, leased (including a lease of goods that gives rise to a PPSA security interest in the goods), used or occupied.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not constitute the person entitled to the security interest a mortgagee in possession.
- (3) Where:
 - (a) a person (in this subsection called the controller) enters into possession or assumes control of property of a corporation; and

- (b) the controller purports to have been properly appointed as a receiver in respect of that property under a power contained in an instrument, but has not been properly so appointed; and
- (c) civil proceedings in an Australian court arise out of an act alleged to have been done by the controller;

the court may, if it is satisfied that the controller believed on reasonable grounds that the controller had been properly so appointed, order that:

- (d) the controller be relieved in whole or in part of a liability that the controller has incurred but would not have incurred if the controller had been properly so appointed; and
- (e) a person who purported to appoint the controller as receiver be liable in respect of an act, matter or thing in so far as the controller has been relieved under paragraph (d) of liability in respect of that act, matter or thing.

419A Liability of controller under pre-existing agreement about property used by corporation

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) under an agreement made before the control day in relation to a controller of property of a corporation, the corporation continues after that day to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, property (the third party property) of which someone else is the owner or lessor; and
 - (b) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (2) Subject to subsections (4) and (7), the controller is liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the corporation under the agreement as is attributable to a period:
 - (a) that begins more than 7 days after the control day; and
 - (b) throughout which:
 - (i) the corporation continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the third party property; and
 - (ii) the controller is controller of the third party property.

Section 419A

- (3) Within 7 days after the control day, the controller may give to the owner or lessor a notice that specifies the third party property and states that the controller does not propose to exercise rights in relation to that property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the corporation or anyone else.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), the controller is not liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the corporation under the agreement as is attributable to a period during which a notice under subsection (3) is in force, but such a notice does not affect a liability of the corporation.
- (5) A notice under subsection (3) ceases to have effect if:
 - (a) the controller revokes it by writing given to the owner or lessor; or
 - (b) the controller exercises, or purports to exercise, a right in relation to the third party property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the corporation or anyone else.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the controller does not exercise, or purport to exercise, a right as mentioned in paragraph (5)(b) merely because the controller continues to be in possession, or to have control, of the third party property, unless the controller:
 - (a) also uses the property; or
 - (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, so to continue.
- (7) Subsection (2) does not apply in so far as a court, by order, excuses the controller from liability, but an order does not affect a liability of the corporation.
- (8) The controller is not taken because of subsection (2):
 - (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
 - (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subsection (2).

420 Powers of receiver

- (1) Subject to this section, a receiver of property of a corporation has power to do, in Australia and elsewhere, all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with, or as incidental to, the attainment of the objectives for which the receiver was appointed.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), but subject to any provision of the court order by which, or the instrument under which, the receiver was appointed, being a provision that limits the receiver's powers in any way, a receiver of property of a corporation has, in addition to any powers conferred by that order or instrument, as the case may be, or by any other law, power, for the purpose of attaining the objectives for which the receiver was appointed:
 - (a) to enter into possession and take control of property of the corporation in accordance with the terms of that order or instrument; and
 - (b) to lease, let on hire or dispose of property of the corporation; and
 - (c) to grant options over property of the corporation on such conditions as the receiver thinks fit; and
 - (d) to borrow money on the security of property of the corporation; and
 - (e) to insure property of the corporation; and
 - (f) to repair, renew or enlarge property of the corporation; and
 - (g) to convert property of the corporation into money; and
 - (h) to carry on any business of the corporation; and
 - (j) to take on lease or on hire, or to acquire, any property necessary or convenient in connection with the carrying on of a business of the corporation; and
 - (k) to execute any document, bring or defend any proceedings or do any other act or thing in the name of and on behalf of the corporation; and
 - (m) to draw, accept, make and indorse a bill of exchange or promissory note; and

Section 420

- (n) to use a seal of the corporation; and
 - (o) to engage or discharge employees on behalf of the corporation; and
 - (p) to appoint a solicitor, accountant or other professionally qualified person to assist the receiver; and
 - (q) to appoint an agent to do any business that the receiver is unable to do, or that it is unreasonable to expect the receiver to do, in person; and
 - (r) where a debt or liability is owed to the corporation—to prove the debt or liability in a bankruptcy, insolvency or winding up and, in connection therewith, to receive dividends and to assent to a proposal for a composition or a scheme of arrangement; and
 - (s) if the receiver was appointed under an instrument that created a security interest in uncalled share capital of the corporation:
 - (i) to make a call in the name of the corporation for the payment of money unpaid on the corporation's shares; or
 - (ii) on giving a proper indemnity to a liquidator of the corporation—to make a call in the liquidator's name for the payment of money unpaid on the corporation's shares; and
 - (t) to enforce payment of any call that is due and unpaid, whether the calls were made by the receiver or otherwise; and
 - (u) to make or defend an application for the winding up of the corporation; and
 - (w) to refer to arbitration any question affecting the corporation.
- (3) The conferring by this section on a receiver of powers in relation to property of a corporation does not affect any rights in relation to that property of any other person other than the corporation.
- (4) In this section, a reference, in relation to a receiver, to property of a corporation is, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to the property of the corporation in relation to which the receiver was appointed.

(5) In this section:

lease includes a lease of goods that gives rise to a PPSA security interest in the goods.

420A Controller's duty of care in exercising power of sale

- (1) In exercising a power of sale in respect of property of a corporation, a controller must take all reasonable care to sell the property for:
 - (a) if, when it is sold, it has a market value—not less than that market value; or
 - (b) otherwise—the best price that is reasonably obtainable, having regard to the circumstances existing when the property is sold.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the generality of anything in section 180, 181, 182, 183 or 184.

420B Court may authorise managing controller to dispose of property despite prior security interest

- (1) On the application of a managing controller of property of a corporation, the Court may by order authorise the controller to sell, or to dispose of in some other specified way, specified property of the corporation, even though it is subject to a security interest (the prior security interest) that has priority over a security interest (the controller's security interest) in that property that the controller is enforcing.
- (2) However, the Court may only make an order if satisfied that:
 - (a) apart from the existence of the prior security interest, the controller would have power to sell, or to so dispose of, the property; and
 - (b) the controller has taken all reasonable steps to obtain the consent of the secured party in relation to the prior security interest to the sale or disposal, but has not obtained that consent; and

Section 420B

- (c) sale or disposal of the property under the order is in the best interests of the corporation's creditors and of the corporation; and
 - (d) sale or disposal of the property under the order will not unreasonably prejudice the rights or interests of the secured party in relation to the prior security interest.
- (3) The Court is to have regard to the need to protect adequately the rights and interests of the secured party in relation to the prior security interest.
- (4) If the property would be sold or disposed of together with other property that is subject to the controller's security interest, the Court may have regard to:
- (a) the amount (if any) by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of that other property otherwise than together with the first-mentioned property would be less than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to that other property; and
 - (b) the amount (if any) by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of the first-mentioned property otherwise than together with the other property would be greater than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to the first-mentioned property.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) limits the matters to which the Court may have regard for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (6) An order may be made subject to conditions, for example (but without limitation):
- (a) a condition that:
 - (i) the net proceeds of the sale or disposal; and
 - (ii) the net proceeds of the sale or disposal of such other property (if any) as is specified in the condition and is subject to the controller's security interest;

- or a specified part of those net proceeds, be applied in payment of specified amounts secured by the prior security interest; or
- (b) a condition that the controller apply a specified amount in payment of specified amounts secured by the prior security interest.

420C Receiver's power to carry on corporation's business during winding up

- (1) A receiver of property of a corporation that is being wound up may:
- (a) with the written approval of the corporation's liquidator or with the approval of the Court, carry on the corporation's business either generally or as otherwise specified in the approval; and
 - (b) do whatever is necessarily incidental to carrying on that business under paragraph (a).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not:
- (a) affect a power that the receiver has otherwise than under that subsection; or
 - (b) empower the receiver to do an act that he or she would not have power to do if the corporation were not being wound up.
- (3) A receiver of property of a corporation who carries on the corporation's business under subsection (1) does so:
- (a) as agent for the corporation; and
 - (b) in his or her capacity as receiver of property of the corporation.
- (4) The consequences of subsection (3) include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) for the purposes of subsection 419(1), a debt that the receiver incurs in carrying on the business as mentioned in subsection (3) of this section is incurred in the course of the receivership;

- (4) If, in the managing controller's opinion, it would seriously prejudice:
 - (a) the corporation's interests; or
 - (b) the achievement of the objectives for which the controller was appointed, or entered into possession or assumed control of property of the corporation, as the case requires;if particular information that the controller would otherwise include in the report were made available to the public, the controller need not include the information in the report.
- (5) If the managing controller omits information from the report as permitted by subsection (4), the controller must include instead a notice:
 - (a) stating that certain information has been omitted from the report; and
 - (b) summarising what the information is about, but without disclosing the information itself.

reasonable fees and expenses of the auditor incurred after the relevant date but before the date on which the property comes into the receiver's hands, being fees and expenses in respect of which provision has not already been made under this subsection.

- (7) If an auditor of the company applies to ASIC under subsection 329(6) for consent to his, her or its resignation as auditor and, after the relevant date, ASIC refuses that consent, the receiver must, in relation to property that comes into the receiver's hands after the refusal, before paying any debt or amount referred to in paragraph (3)(c), make provision out of that property for the reasonable fees and expenses of the auditor incurred after the refusal and before the date on which the property comes into the receiver's hands, being fees and expenses in respect of which provision has not already been made under this subsection.
- (8) A receiver must make provision in respect of reasonable fees and expenses of an auditor in respect of a particular period as required by subsection (6) or (7) whether or not the auditor has made a claim for fees and expenses for that period, but where the auditor has not made a claim, the receiver may estimate the reasonable fees and expenses of the auditor for that period and make provision in accordance with the estimate.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, the references in Division 6 of Part 5.6 to the relevant date are to be read as references to the date of the appointment of the receiver, or of possession being taken or control being assumed, as the case may be.

the Court may make an order directing the controller to make good the default within such time as is specified in the order.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) may be made:

the corporation, as the case requires, have been achieved, so far as is reasonably practicable, except in relation to any property specified in the order under paragraph (1)(b).

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Court must have regard to:

- (a) is the corporation’s financial position before the end of the stay period; or
 - (b) is the appointment or existence of a managing controller of the whole or substantially the whole of the corporation’s property before the end of the stay period; or

Section 434J

- (c) is a reason, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph, relating to circumstances in existence during the stay period; or

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the Minister may, by legislative instrument:
 - (a) declare kinds of contracts, agreements or arrangements referred to in a specified law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) declare kinds of rights to which subsection (1) does not apply; or
 - (c) declare kinds of rights to which subsection (1) does not apply in specified circumstances.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not apply to the right to the extent that the managing controller has consented in writing to the enforcement of the right.

Stay on corporation's right to new advance of money or credit

- (8) If:
 - (a) one or more rights of an entity cannot be enforced against a corporation for a period because of subsection (1); and

- (b) the corporation has a right under a contract, agreement or arrangement against the entity for a new advance of money or credit; that right of the corporation cannot be enforced during the same period.

Replacement managing controllers

- (9) If a new managing controller of the whole or substantially the whole of the corporation's property is appointed to replace an earlier such managing controller, then:
 - (a) for the purposes of subsections (2) and (5), treat the new managing controller as if it were appointed when the first such managing controller was; and
 - (b) treat references in subsection (2) to when the managing controller's control of the corporation's property ends as references to when the last such managing controller's control of the corporation's property ends.

434K Lifting the stay

- (1) The Court may order that subsection 434J(1) does not apply for one or more rights against a corporation if the Court is satisfied that this is appropriate in the interests of justice.
- (2) An application for the order may be made by the holder of those rights.

434L Order for rights to be enforceable only with leave of the Court

Orders

- (1) The Court may order that one or more rights under a contract, agreement or arrangement are enforceable against a corporation only:
 - (a) with the leave of the Court; and
 - (b) in accordance with such terms (if any) as the Court imposes.

Example: The order could be sought for a right to terminate for convenience.

Section 434LA

- (2) The Court may make the order if:
 - (a) there is a managing controller of the whole or substantially the whole of the corporation's property; and
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that:
 - (i) the rights are being exercised; or
 - (ii) the rights are likely to be exercised; or
 - (iii) there is a threat to exercise the rights; because of one or more reasons referred to in paragraphs 434J(1)(a) to (d); and
 - (c) an application for the order is made by the managing controller.
- (3) An order under subsection (1) must specify the period for which it applies. In working out the period, the Court must have regard to:
 - (a) subsections 434J(2), (3) and (4); and
 - (b) the interests of justice.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a right referred to in subsection 434J(5) or (7).

Interim orders

- (5) Before deciding an application for an order under subsection (1), the Court may grant an interim order for one or more rights under a contract, agreement or arrangement not to be enforced against a corporation.
- (6) The Court must not require an applicant for an order under subsection (1) to give an undertaking as to damages as a condition of granting an interim order.

434LA Self-executing provisions

- (1) The object of subsection (2) is to ensure that a self-executing provision:
 - (a) cannot start to apply against a corporation for certain reasons; and

- (b) can be the subject of a Court order providing that the provision can only start to apply against a corporation with the leave of the Court, and in accordance with such terms (if any) as the Court imposes.
- (2) Sections 434J to 434L also apply in relation to a self-executing provision in a corresponding way to the way they apply in relation to a right. For this purpose, assume those sections apply with such modifications as are necessary, including any prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- Note 1: This subsection achieves the object in subsection (1) by extending the application of all of the outcomes, exceptions and powers in sections 434J to 434L.
- Note 2: These modifications include, for example, treating:
- (a) a reference that a right cannot be enforced (however described) as including a reference that a self-executing provision cannot start to apply; and
 - (b) the words “if the right arises for that reason by express provision (however described) of a contract, agreement or arrangement” as being omitted from subsection 434J(1); and
 - (c) a reference that one or more rights are enforceable as including a reference that one or more self-executing provisions can start to apply; and
 - (d) paragraph 434L(2)(b) as alternatively providing that the Court is satisfied that one or more reasons referred to in paragraphs 434J(1)(a) to (d) can cause the self-executing provisions to start to apply.
- (3) In this section:

self-executing provision means a provision of a contract, agreement or arrangement that can start to apply automatically:

- (a) for one or more reasons; and
- (b) without any party to the contract, agreement or arrangement making a decision that the provision should start to apply.

434M When other laws prevail—certain other Commonwealth Acts

If there is any inconsistency between sections 434J to 434LA and one of the following Acts, that Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency:

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

property of a company includes any PPSA retention of title property of the company.

This Subdivision does not apply in relation to the enforcement of a right, or the performance or exercise of a function or power, if the enforcement, performance or exercise is authorised by (or because of) a transaction or dealing that gives rise to a security interest in the property concerned.

Example: An example of a transaction or dealing in relation to which this Subdivision does not apply because of this section is a commercial consignment of personal property. Such a transaction gives rise to a PPSA security interest because of section 12 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009. The consigned property is PPSA retention of title property of the company (see sections 51F and 435B).

Chapter 5 External administration

Part 5.3A Administration of a company's affairs with a view to executing a deed of company arrangement

Division 7 Rights of secured party, owner or lessor

Section 441F

Note: Subdivision B (property subject to security interests) may apply in relation to transactions or dealings to which this Subdivision does not apply because of this section. - (3) Section 437D does not apply in relation to a transaction or dealing that affects the property and is entered into in the performance or exercise of a function or power of the receiver or other person.

441G Recovering perishable property

- (1) Nothing in section 198G or 440B prevents a person from taking possession of, or otherwise recovering, perishable property.

441H Court may limit powers of receiver etc. in relation to property used by company

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) for the purpose of enforcing a right of the owner or lessor of property used or occupied by, or in the possession of, a company to take possession of the property or otherwise recover it, a person:

 - (ii) exercises any other power in relation to the property; and
 - (b) the company is under administration when the person does so, or the company later begins to be under administration.
- (2) On application by the administrator, the Court may order the person not to perform specified functions, or exercise specified powers, in relation to the property, except as permitted by the order.
- (3) The Court may only make an order if satisfied that what the administrator proposes to do during the administration will adequately protect the interests of the owner or lessor.
- (4) An order may only be made, and only has effect, during the administration.
- (5) An order has effect despite sections 441F and 441G.

Division 8—Powers of administrator

442A Additional powers of administrator

Without limiting section 437A, the administrator of a company under administration has power to do any of the following:

- (a) remove from office a director of the company;
- (b) appoint a person as such a director, whether to fill a vacancy or not;
- (c) execute a document, bring or defend proceedings, or do anything else, in the company's name and on its behalf;
- (d) whatever else is necessary for the purposes of this Part.

442B Dealing with property subject to circulating security interests

Scope

- (1) This section applies if a security interest in property (the secured property) of a company under administration was a circulating security interest when the interest arose, but has stopped being a circulating security interest because:
 - (a) in the case of a PPSA security interest—the property has stopped being a circulating asset (within the meaning of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009); or
 - (b) in the case of a security interest that was a floating charge when it arose—the floating charge has since become a fixed or specific charge.

Note 1: A circulating security interest can be either a PPSA security interest to which a circulating asset has attached, or a floating charge, in the circumstances set out in section 51C.

Note 2: For the meaning of circulating asset, see section 340 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009.

Security interest in circulating asset

- (2) Subject to sections 442C and 442D, in the case of a PPSA security interest, the administrator may deal with any of the secured property in any way the company could deal with the secured property immediately before it stopped being a circulating asset.

Floating charge

- (3) Subject to sections 442C and 442D, in the case of a security interest that was a floating charge when it arose, the administrator may deal with any of the secured property as if the security interest were still a floating charge.

Note: Section 442C deals with the disposal of encumbered property by an administrator. Section 442D makes the administrator's functions and powers subject to those of a secured party, receiver or controller.

442C When administrator may dispose of encumbered property

- (1) The administrator of a company under administration or of a deed of company arrangement must not dispose of:
- (a) property of the company that is subject to a security interest; or
 - (b) property (other than PPSA retention of title property) that is used or occupied by, or is in the possession of, the company but of which someone else is the owner or lessor.

Note: PPSA retention of title property is subject to a PPSA security interest, and so is covered by paragraph (a) (see definition of PPSA retention of title property in section 51F).

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a disposal:
- (a) in the ordinary course of the company's business; or
 - (b) with the written consent of the secured party, owner or lessor, as the case may be; or
 - (c) with the leave of the Court.

Chapter 5 External administration

- (5) The Court may only make an order under subsection (4) on the application of:
 - (a) if paragraph (1)(a) applies—the secured party; or

- (6) The Court may only make an order under subsection (4) if it is not satisfied that arrangements have been made to protect adequately the interests of the applicant for the order.
- (7) If:
 - (a) a company is under administration or is subject to a deed of company arrangement; and
 - (b) property of the company is subject to a security interest; and
 - (c) the administrator disposes of the property;the disposal extinguishes the security interest.
- (8) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), if:
 - (a) property is used or occupied by, or is in the possession of, a company; and
 - (b) another person is the owner of the property; and
 - (c) either:
 - (i) the property is PPSA retention of title property; or
 - (ii) the property is subject to a retention of title clause under a contract; and
 - (d) the owner demands the return of the property;a disposal of the property that occurs after the demand is made does not mean that the disposal is not in the ordinary course of the company's business.

442CA Property subject to a possessory security interest—inspection or examination by potential purchasers etc.

- (1) If:
- (a) a company is under administration; and
 - (b) property of the company is subject to a possessory security interest; and
 - (c) the administrator is entitled to dispose of the property by way of sale;
- the secured party must, if requested to do so by the administrator, give potential purchasers a reasonable opportunity to inspect or examine the property.

- (ii) any other security interest in the property, where the debt secured by the security interest has a priority that is equal to or higher than the priority of the debt secured by the possessory security interest;

then:

- (iii) the administrator must set aside the net proceeds; and
- (iv) the administrator must apply the amount so set aside in paying those debts in order of priority, on the basis that if the amount is insufficient to fully pay debts of the same priority, they must be paid proportionately; and
- (v) if any of those debts is not fully paid—so much of the debt as remains unpaid may be recovered from the company as an unsecured debt.

PPSA retention of title property

- (1A) If the administrator of a company disposes of PPSA retention of title property of the company by way of sale, then the administrator must apply the net proceeds of the sale in the same way as a secured party is required, under section 140 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009, to apply an amount, personal property or proceeds of collateral received by the secured party as a result of enforcing a security interest in the property.

Note: PPSA retention of title property does not include property that is subject to a retention of title clause (see section 9, definitions of PPSA retention of title property and retention of title clause). Subsection (2) deals with property that is subject to a retention of title clause.

- (g) if the net proceeds of sale fall short of the total of:
 - (i) so much of the purchase price, or other amount, under the original contract as remains unpaid; and

 - (iii) the administrator must set aside the net proceeds; and
 - (iv) the administrator must apply the amount so set aside in paying those debts in order of priority, on the basis that if the amount is insufficient to fully pay debts of the same priority, they must be paid proportionately; and
 - (v) if any of those debts is not fully paid—so much of the debt as remains unpaid may be recovered from the company as an unsecured debt.

Note: Property that is subject to a retention of title clause does not include PPSA retention of title property (see section 9, definitions of PPSA retention of title property and retention of title clause). Subsection (1A) deals with PPSA retention of title property.

section 451F.

Example: A right to terminate a contract will not be enforceable to the extent that those rights are triggered by the company coming under administration.

Period of the stay

- (2) The right cannot be enforced as described in subsection (1) during the period (the stay period) starting when the company comes under administration and ending at the latest of the following:
- (a) when the administration ends;
 - (b) if one or more orders are made under subsection (3) for the company as the result of an application made before the administration ends—when the last made of those orders ceases to be in force;
 - (c) if the administration ends because of a resolution or order for the company to be wound up—when the company's affairs have been fully wound up.
- (3) The Court:
- (a) may order an extension of the period otherwise applying under subsection (2) for the company if the Court is satisfied that the extension is appropriate having regard to the interests of justice; and
 - (b) before deciding an application for an order under paragraph (a), may grant an interim order, but must not require the applicant to give an undertaking as to damages as a condition for doing so.

Section 451E

Enforcing rights after the stay for reasons relating to earlier circumstances

- (4) The right is unenforceable against the company indefinitely after the end of the stay period to the extent that a reason for seeking to enforce the right:
- (a) is the company's financial position before the end of the stay period; or
 - (b) is the company having come or been under administration before the end of the stay period; or
 - (c) is a reason, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph, relating to circumstances in existence during the stay period; or
 - (d) is a reason referred to in paragraph (1)(c) or (d).

Rights not subject to the stay

- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to the right if it is:
- (a) a right under a contract, agreement or arrangement entered into after the company comes under administration; or
 - (b) a right contained in a kind of contract, agreement or arrangement:
 - (i) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph; or
 - (ii) declared under paragraph (6)(a); or
 - (c) a right of a kind declared under paragraph (6)(b); or
 - (d) a right of a kind declared under paragraph (6)(c), and the circumstances specified in that declaration exist.

Note: Subsection (1) also does not apply to certain secured creditors (see Subdivision B of Division 7).

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the Minister may, by legislative instrument:
- (a) declare kinds of contracts, agreements or arrangements referred to in a specified law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) declare kinds of rights to which subsection (1) does not apply; or

Section 451F

- (c) declare kinds of rights to which subsection (1) does not apply in specified circumstances.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not apply to the right to the extent that:
- (a) the administrator of the company; or
 - (b) if a liquidator of the company is appointed after the administration ends—the liquidator;
- has consented in writing to the enforcement of the right.

Stay on company's right to new advance of money or credit

- (8) If:
- (a) one or more rights of an entity cannot be enforced against a company for a period because of subsection (1); and
 - (b) the company has a right under a contract, agreement or arrangement against the entity for a new advance of money or credit;
- that right of the company cannot be enforced during the same period.

451F Lifting the stay

- (1) The Court may order that subsection 451E(1) does not apply for one or more rights against a company if the Court is satisfied that this is appropriate in the interests of justice.
- (2) An application for the order may be made by the holder of those rights.

451G Order for rights to be enforceable only with leave of the Court

Orders

- (1) The Court may order that one or more rights under a contract, agreement or arrangement are enforceable against a company only:
 - (a) with the leave of the Court; and
 - (b) in accordance with such terms (if any) as the Court imposes.

Chapter 5 External administration

Division 17 Miscellaneous

Section 451GA

Example: The order could be sought for a right to terminate for convenience.

- (2) The Court may make the order if:
- (a) the company is under administration; and
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that:
 - (i) the rights are being exercised; or
 - (ii) the rights are likely to be exercised; or
 - (iii) there is a threat to exercise the rights; because of one or more reasons referred to in paragraphs 451E(1)(a) to (d); and
 - (c) an application for the order is made by the administrator of the company.
- (3) An order under subsection (1) must specify the period for which it applies. In working out the period, the Court must have regard to:
- (a) subsections 451E(2), (3) and (4); and
 - (b) the interests of justice.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a right referred to in subsection 451E(5) or (7).

Note: An order under subsection (1) also does not restrict certain secured creditors (see Subdivision B of Division 7).

Interim orders

- (5) Before deciding an application for an order under subsection (1), the Court may grant an interim order for one or more rights under a contract, agreement or arrangement not to be enforced against a company.
- (6) The Court must not require an applicant for an order under subsection (1) to give an undertaking as to damages as a condition of granting an interim order.

451GA Self-executing provisions

- (1) The object of subsection (2) is to ensure that a self-executing provision:

Section 451GA

- (a) cannot start to apply against a company for certain reasons;
and
 - (b) can be the subject of a Court order providing that the provision can only start to apply against a company with the leave of the Court, and in accordance with such terms (if any) as the Court imposes.
- (2) Sections 451E to 451G also apply in relation to a self-executing provision in a corresponding way to the way they apply in relation to a right. For this purpose, assume those sections apply with such modifications as are necessary, including any prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Note 1: This subsection achieves the object in subsection (1) by extending the application of all of the outcomes, exceptions and powers in sections 451E to 451G.

Note 2: These modifications include, for example, treating:

- (a) a reference that a right cannot be enforced (however described) as including a reference that a self-executing provision cannot start to apply; and
 - (b) the words “if the right arises for that reason by express provision (however described) of a contract, agreement or arrangement” as being omitted from subsection 451E(1); and
 - (c) a reference that one or more rights are enforceable as including a reference that one or more self-executing provisions can start to apply; and
 - (d) paragraph 451G(2)(b) as alternatively providing that the Court is satisfied that one or more reasons referred to in paragraphs 451E(1)(a) to (d) can cause the self-executing provisions to start to apply.
- (3) In this section:

self-executing provision means a provision of a contract, agreement or arrangement that can start to apply automatically:

- (a) for one or more reasons; and
- (b) without any party to the contract, agreement or arrangement making a decision that the provision should start to apply.

Division 17 Miscellaneous

Section 451H

451H When other laws prevail—certain other Commonwealth Acts

If there is any inconsistency between sections 451E to 451GA and one of the following Acts, that Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency:

- (a) the Payment Systems and Netting Act 1998;
- (b) the International Interests in Mobile Equipment (Cape Town Convention) Act 2013.

Part 5.4—Winding up in insolvency

Division 1—When company to be wound up in insolvency

459A Order that insolvent company be wound up in insolvency

On an application under section 459P, the Court may order that an insolvent company be wound up in insolvency.

459B Order made on application under section 234, 462 or 464

Where, on an application under section 234, 462 or 464, the Court is satisfied that the company is insolvent, the Court may order that the company be wound up in insolvency.

459C Presumptions to be made in certain proceedings

- (1) This section has effect for the purposes of:
 - (a) an application under section 234, 459P, 462 or 464; or
 - (b) an application for leave to make an application under section 459P.
- (2) The Court must presume that the company is insolvent if, during or after the 3 months ending on the day when the application was made:
 - (a) the company failed (as defined by section 459F) to comply with a statutory demand; or
 - (b) execution or other process issued on a judgment, decree or order of an Australian court in favour of a creditor of the company was returned wholly or partly unsatisfied; or
 - (c) a receiver, or receiver and manager, of property of the company was appointed under a power contained in an instrument relating to a circulating security interest in such property; or

Section 459D

- (d) an order was made for the appointment of such a receiver, or receiver and manager, for the purpose of enforcing such a security interest; or
 - (e) a person entered into possession, or assumed control, of such property for such a purpose; or
 - (f) a person was appointed so to enter into possession or assume control (whether as agent for the secured party or for the company).
- (3) A presumption for which this section provides operates except so far as the contrary is proved for the purposes of the application.

459D Contingent or prospective liability relevant to whether company solvent

- (1) In determining, for the purposes of an application of a kind referred to in subsection 459C(1), whether or not the company is solvent, the Court may take into account a contingent or prospective liability of the company.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the matters that may be taken into account in determining, for a particular purpose, whether or not a company is solvent.

Division 2—Statutory demand

459E Creditor may serve statutory demand on company

- (1) A person may serve on a company a demand relating to:
 - (a) a single debt that the company owes to the person, that is due and payable and whose amount is at least the statutory minimum; or
 - (b) 2 or more debts that the company owes to the person, that are due and payable and whose amounts total at least the statutory minimum.
- (2) The demand:
 - (a) if it relates to a single debt—must specify the debt and its amount; and
 - (b) if it relates to 2 or more debts—must specify the total of the amounts of the debts; and
 - (c) must require the company to pay the amount of the debt, or the total of the amounts of the debts, or to secure or compound for that amount or total to the creditor's reasonable satisfaction, within 21 days after the demand is served on the company; and
 - (d) must be in writing; and
 - (e) must be in the prescribed form (if any); and
 - (f) must be signed by or on behalf of the creditor.
- (3) Unless the debt, or each of the debts, is a judgment debt, the demand must be accompanied by an affidavit that:
 - (a) verifies that the debt, or the total of the amounts of the debts, is due and payable by the company; and
 - (b) complies with the rules.
- (4) A person may make a demand under this section relating to a debt even if the debt is owed to the person as assignee.

Section 459F

- (5) A demand under this section may relate to a liability under any of the following provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936:
- (aa) former section 220AAE, 220AAM or 220AAR;
 - (a) former section 221F (except subsection 221F(12)), former section 221G (except subsection 221G(4A)) or former section 221P;
 - (b) former subsection 221YHDC(2);
 - (c) former subsection 221YHZD(1) or (1A);
 - (d) former subsection 221YN(1);
 - (e) section 222AHA;
- and any of the provisions of Subdivision 16-B in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953, even if the liability arose before 1 January 1991.
- (6) Subsection (5) is to avoid doubt and is not intended to limit the generality of a reference in this Act to a debt.

459F When company taken to fail to comply with statutory demand

- (1) If, as at the end of the period for compliance with a statutory demand, the demand is still in effect and the company has not complied with it, the company is taken to fail to comply with the demand at the end of that period.
- (2) The period for compliance with a statutory demand is:
- (a) if the company applies in accordance with section 459G for an order setting aside the demand:
 - (i) if, on hearing the application under section 459G, or on an application by the company under this paragraph, the Court makes an order that extends the period for compliance with the demand—the period specified in the order, or in the last such order, as the case requires, as the period for such compliance; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the period beginning on the day when the demand is served and ending 7 days after the application under section 459G is finally determined or otherwise disposed of; or

(b) otherwise—21 days after the demand is served.

Division 3—Application to set aside statutory demand

459G Company may apply

- (1) A company may apply to the Court for an order setting aside a statutory demand served on the company.
- (2) An application may only be made within 21 days after the demand is so served.
- (3) An application is made in accordance with this section only if, within those 21 days:
 - (a) an affidavit supporting the application is filed with the Court; and
 - (b) a copy of the application, and a copy of the supporting affidavit, are served on the person who served the demand on the company.

459H Determination of application where there is a dispute or offsetting claim

- (1) This section applies where, on an application under section 459G, the Court is satisfied of either or both of the following:
 - (a) that there is a genuine dispute between the company and the respondent about the existence or amount of a debt to which the demand relates;
 - (b) that the company has an offsetting claim.
- (2) The Court must calculate the substantiated amount of the demand in accordance with the formula:

Admitted total – Offsetting total

where:

admitted total means:

- (a) the admitted amount of the debt; or

(b) the total of the respective admitted amounts of the debts; as the case requires, to which the demand relates.

offsetting total means:

- (a) if the Court is satisfied that the company has only one offsetting claim—the amount of that claim; or
 - (b) if the Court is satisfied that the company has 2 or more offsetting claims—the total of the amounts of those claims; or
 - (c) otherwise—a nil amount.
- (3) If the substantiated amount is less than the statutory minimum, the Court must, by order, set aside the demand.
- (4) If the substantiated amount is at least as great as the statutory minimum, the Court may make an order:
- (a) varying the demand as specified in the order; and
 - (b) declaring the demand to have had effect, as so varied, as from when the demand was served on the company.
- (5) In this section:

admitted amount, in relation to a debt, means:

- (a) if the Court is satisfied that there is a genuine dispute between the company and the respondent about the existence of the debt—a nil amount; or
- (b) if the Court is satisfied that there is a genuine dispute between the company and the respondent about the amount of the debt—so much of that amount as the Court is satisfied is not the subject of such a dispute; or
- (c) otherwise—the amount of the debt.

offsetting claim means a genuine claim that the company has against the respondent by way of counterclaim, set-off or cross-demand (even if it does not arise out of the same transaction or circumstances as a debt to which the demand relates).

respondent means the person who served the demand on the company.

Section 459J

- (6) This section has effect subject to section 459J.

459J Setting aside demand on other grounds

- (1) On an application under section 459G, the Court may by order set aside the demand if it is satisfied that:
- (a) because of a defect in the demand, substantial injustice will be caused unless the demand is set aside; or
 - (b) there is some other reason why the demand should be set aside.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (1), the Court must not set aside a statutory demand merely because of a defect.

459K Effect of order setting aside demand

A statutory demand has no effect while there is in force under section 459H or 459J an order setting aside the demand.

459L Dismissal of application

Unless the Court makes, on an application under section 459J, an order under section 459H or 459J, the Court is to dismiss the application.

459M Order subject to conditions

An order under section 459H or 459J may be made subject to conditions.

459N Costs where company successful

Where, on an application under section 459G, the Court sets aside the demand, it may order the person who served the demand to pay the company's costs in relation to the application.

Division 4—Application for order to wind up company in insolvency

459P Who may apply for order under section 459A

- (1) Any one or more of the following may apply to the Court for a company to be wound up in insolvency:

 - (c) a contributory;
 - (d) a director;
 - (e) a liquidator or provisional liquidator of the company;
 - (f) ASIC;
 - (g) a prescribed agency.
- (2) An application by any of the following, or by persons including any of the following, may only be made with the leave of the Court:
 - (a) a person who is a creditor only because of a contingent or prospective debt;
 - (b) a contributory;
 - (c) a director;
 - (d) ASIC.
- (3) The Court may give leave if satisfied that there is a prima facie case that the company is insolvent, but not otherwise.
- (4) The Court may give leave subject to conditions.
- (5) Except as permitted by this section, a person cannot apply for a company to be wound up in insolvency.

Section 459Q

459Q Application relying on failure to comply with statutory demand

If an application for a company to be wound up in insolvency relies on a failure by the company to comply with a statutory demand, the application:

- (a) must set out particulars of service of the demand on the company and of the failure to comply with the demand; and
- (b) must have attached to it:
 - (i) a copy of the demand; and
 - (ii) if the demand has been varied by an order under subsection 459H(4)—a copy of the order; and
- (c) unless the debt, or each of the debts, to which the demand relates is a judgment debt—must be accompanied by an affidavit that:
 - (i) verifies that the debt, or the total of the amounts of the debts, is due and payable by the company; and
 - (ii) complies with the rules.

459R Period within which application must be determined

- (1) An application for a company to be wound up in insolvency is to be determined within 6 months after it is made.
- (2) The Court may by order extend the period within which an application must be determined, but only if:
 - (a) the Court is satisfied that special circumstances justify the extension; and
 - (b) the order is made within that period as prescribed by subsection (1), or as last extended under this subsection, as the case requires.
- (3) An application is, because of this subsection, dismissed if it is not determined as required by this section.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) may be made subject to conditions.

459S Company may not oppose application on certain grounds

- (1) In so far as an application for a company to be wound up in insolvency relies on a failure by the company to comply with a statutory demand, the company may not, without the leave of the Court, oppose the application on a ground:
 - (a) that the company relied on for the purposes of an application by it for the demand to be set aside; or
 - (b) that the company could have so relied on, but did not so rely on (whether it made such an application or not).
- (2) The Court is not to grant leave under subsection (1) unless it is satisfied that the ground is material to proving that the company is solvent.

459T Application to wind up joint debtors in insolvency

- (1) A single application may be made for 2 or more companies to be wound up in insolvency if they are joint debtors, whether partners or not.
- (2) On such an application, the Court may order that one or more of the companies be wound up in insolvency, even if it dismisses the application in so far as it relates to another or others.

Section 461

Part 5.4A—Winding up by the Court on other grounds

461 General grounds on which company may be wound up by Court

- (1) The Court may order the winding up of a company if:
- (a) the company has by special resolution resolved that it be wound up by the Court; or
 - (c) the company does not commence business within one year from its incorporation or suspends its business for a whole year; or
 - (d) the company has no members; or

 - (f) affairs of the company are being conducted in a manner that is oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to, or unfairly discriminatory against, a member or members or in a manner that is contrary to the interests of the members as a whole; or
 - (g) an act or omission, or a proposed act or omission, by or on behalf of the company, or a resolution, or a proposed resolution, of a class of members of the company, was or would be oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to, or unfairly discriminatory against, a member or members or was or would be contrary to the interests of the members as a whole; or
 - (h) ASIC has stated in a report prepared under Division 1 of Part 3 of the ASIC Act that, in its opinion:
 - (i) the company cannot pay its debts and should be wound up; or
 - (ii) it is in the interests of the public, of the members, or of the creditors, that the company should be wound up; or

- (k) the Court is of opinion that it is just and equitable that the company be wound up.
- (2) A company must lodge a copy of a special resolution referred to in paragraph (1)(a) with ASIC within 14 days after the resolution is passed.

462 Standing to apply for winding up

- (1) A reference in this section to an order to wind up a company is a reference to an order to wind up the company on a ground provided for by section 461.

- (4) The Court must not hear an application by a person being, or persons including, a contingent or prospective creditor of a company for an order to wind up the company unless and until:
 - (a) such security for costs has been given as the Court thinks reasonable; and
 - (b) a prima facie case for winding up the company has been established to the Court's satisfaction.

Section 464

- (5) Except as permitted by this section, a person is not entitled to apply for an order to wind up a company.

464 Application for winding up in connection with investigation under ASIC Act

Part 5.4B—Winding up in insolvency or by the Court

Division 1A—Preliminary

465 Definitions

In this Part:

property of a company includes PPSA retention of title property, if the security interest in the property is vested in the company because of the operation of any of the following provisions:

- (a) section 267 or 267A of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (property subject to unperfected security interests);
- (b) section 588FL of this Act (collateral not registered within time).

Note: See sections 9 (definition of property) and 51F (PPSA retention of title property).

Division 1—General

465A Notice of application

- (1) A person who applies under section 459P, 462 or 464 for a company to be wound up must:
 - (a) lodge notice in the prescribed form that the application has been made; and
 - (b) within 14 days after the application is made, serve a copy of it on the company; and
 - (c) cause a notice setting out the prescribed information about the application to be published in the prescribed manner.
- (2) If the Court orders the winding up of a company as a result of an application under section 459P, 462 or 464, the liquidator (or provisional liquidator) must cause notice setting out prescribed information about the order to be published in the prescribed manner.

465B Substitution of applicants

- (1) The Court may by order substitute, as applicant or applicants in an application under section 459P, 462 or 464 for a company to be wound up, a person or persons who might otherwise have so applied for the company to be wound up.
- (2) The Court may only make an order if the Court thinks it appropriate to do so:
 - (a) because the application is not being proceeded with diligently enough; or
 - (b) for some other reason.
- (3) The substituted applicant may be, or the substituted applicants may be or include, the person who was the applicant, or any of the persons who were the applicants, before the substitution.

- (4) After an order is made, the application may proceed as if the substituted applicant or applicants had been the original applicant or applicants.

465C Applicant to be given notice of grounds for opposing application

On the hearing of an application under section 459P, 462 or 464, a person may not, without the leave of the Court, oppose the application unless, within the period prescribed by the rules, the person has filed, and served on the applicant:

- (a) notice of the grounds on which the person opposes the application; and
- (b) an affidavit verifying the matters stated in the notice.

466 Payment of preliminary costs etc.

- (1) The persons, other than the company itself or the liquidator of the company, on whose application any winding up order is made must, at their own cost, prosecute all proceedings in the winding up until a liquidator has been appointed under this Part.
- (2) The liquidator must, unless the Court orders otherwise, reimburse the applicant out of the property of the company the taxed costs incurred by the applicant in any such proceedings.
- (3) Where the company has no property or does not have sufficient property and, in the opinion of ASIC, a fraud has been committed by any person in the promotion or formation of the company or by any officer or employee of the company in relation to the company since its formation, the taxed costs or so much of them as is not reimbursed under subsection (2) may be reimbursed by ASIC to an amount not exceeding $1,000.
- (4) Where any winding up order is made upon the application of the company or a liquidator of the company, the costs incurred must, subject to any order of the Court, be paid out of the property of the company in like manner as if they were the costs of any other applicant.

Section 467

467 Court's powers on hearing application

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 467A, on hearing a winding up application the Court may:
 - (a) dismiss the application with or without costs, even if a ground has been proved on which the Court may order the company to be wound up on the application; or
 - (b) adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally; or
 - (c) make any interim or other order that it thinks fit.
- (2) The Court must not refuse to make a winding up order merely because:
 - (a) the total amount secured by one or more security interests in the property of the company is equal to or greater than the value of the property subject to the interest (or interests); or
 - (b) the company has no property.
- (3) The Court may, on the application coming on for hearing or at any time at the request of the applicant, the company or any person who has given notice of intention to appear on the hearing of the application:
 - (a) direct that any notices be given or any steps be taken before or after the hearing of the application; and
 - (b) dispense with any notices being given or steps being taken that are required by this Act, or by the rules, or by any prior order of the Court; and
 - (c) direct that oral evidence be taken on the application or any matter relating to the application; and
 - (d) direct a speedy hearing or trial of the application or of any issue or matter; and
 - (e) allow the application to be amended or withdrawn; and
 - (f) give such directions as to the proceedings as the Court thinks fit.
- (4) Where the application is made by members as contributories on the ground that it is just and equitable that the company should be wound up or that the directors have acted in a manner that appears to be unfair or unjust to other members, the Court, if it is of the opinion that:

- (a) the applicants are entitled to relief either by winding up the company or by some other means; and
- (b) in the absence of any other remedy it would be just and equitable that the company should be wound up;

must make a winding up order unless it is also of the opinion that some other remedy is available to the applicants and that they are acting unreasonably in seeking to have the company wound up instead of pursuing that other remedy.

- (5) Notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary, the Court must not refuse to make an order for winding up on the application of a contributory on the ground that, if the order were made, no property of the company would be available for distribution among the contributories.

 - (i) to be an expense referred to in paragraph (1)(a); and

- (2) Where, for the purposes of the winding up of a company, a liquidator employs a person whose services with the company had been terminated by reason of the winding up, that person is, for the purpose of calculating any entitlement to payment for leave of absence, or any entitlement to a retrenchment amount in respect of employment, taken, while the liquidator employs him or her for those purposes, to be employed by the company.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), where, after the relevant date, an amount in respect of long service leave or extended leave, or a retrenchment amount, becomes payable to a person referred to in subsection (2) in respect of the employment so referred to, the amount is a cost of the winding up.

- (4) Where, at the relevant date, the length of qualifying service of a person employed by a company that is being wound up is insufficient to entitle him or her to any amount in respect of long service leave or extended leave, or to any retrenchment amount in respect of employment by the company, but, by the operation of subsection (2) he or she becomes entitled to such an amount after that date, that amount:
- (a) is a cost of the winding up to the extent of an amount that bears to that amount the same proportion as the length of his or her qualifying service after that relevant date bears to the total length of his or her qualifying service; and

- then:
- (c) the person by whom the money was advanced has the same rights under this Chapter as a creditor of the company; and
 - (d) subject to paragraph (e), the person by whom the money was advanced has, in the winding up of the company, the same right of priority of payment in respect of the money so advanced and paid as the person who received the payment would have had if the payment had not been made; and
 - (e) the right of priority conferred by paragraph (d) is not to exceed the amount by which the sum in respect of which the person who received the payment would have been entitled to priority in the winding up has been diminished by reason of the payment.

561 Priority of employees' claims over circulating security interests

So far as the property of a company available for payment of creditors other than secured creditors is insufficient to meet payment of:

- (a) any debt referred to in paragraph 556(1)(e), (g) or (h); and
- (b) any amount that pursuant to subsection 558(3) or (4) is a cost of the winding up, being an amount that, if it had been payable on or before the relevant date, would have been a debt referred to in paragraph 556(1)(e), (g) or (h); and
- (c) any amount in respect of which a right of priority is given by section 560; payment of that debt or amount must be made in priority over the claims of a secured party in relation to a circulating security interest created by the company and may be made accordingly out of any property comprised in or subject to the circulating security interest.

562 Application of proceeds of contracts of insurance

- (1) Where a company is, under a contract of insurance (not being a contract of reinsurance) entered into before the relevant date, insured against liability to third parties, then, if such a liability is incurred by the company (whether before or after the relevant date) and an amount in respect of that liability has been or is received by the company or the liquidator from the insurer, the amount must, after deducting any expenses of or incidental to getting in that amount, be paid by the liquidator to the third party in respect of whom the liability was incurred to the extent necessary to discharge that liability, or any part of that liability remaining undischarged, in priority to all payments in respect of the debts mentioned in section 556.
- (2) If the liability of the insurer to the company is less than the liability of the company to the third party, subsection (1) does not limit the rights of the third party in respect of the balance.
- (3) This section has effect notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

562A Application of proceeds of contracts of reinsurance

- (1) This section applies where:
 - (a) a company is insured, under a contract of reinsurance entered into before the relevant date, against liability to pay amounts in respect of a relevant contract of insurance or relevant contracts of insurance; and
 - (b) an amount in respect of that liability has been or is received by the company or the liquidator under the contract of reinsurance.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4), if the amount received, after deducting expenses of or incidental to getting in that amount, equals or exceeds the total of all the amounts that are payable by the company under relevant contracts of insurance, the liquidator must, out of the amount received and in priority to all payments in respect of the debts mentioned in section 556, pay the amounts that are so payable under those contracts of insurance.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), if subsection (2) does not apply, the liquidator must, out of the amount received and in priority to all payments in respect of the debts mentioned in section 556, pay to each person to whom an amount is payable by the company under a relevant contract of insurance an amount calculated in accordance with the formula:

where:

particular amount owed means the amount payable to the person under the relevant contract of insurance.

reinsurance payment means the amount received under the contract of reinsurance, less any expenses of or incidental to getting in that amount.

total amount owed means the total of all the amounts payable by the company under relevant contracts of insurance.

- (4) The Court may, on application by a person to whom an amount is payable under a relevant contract of insurance, make an order to the effect that subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to the amount received under the contract of reinsurance and that that amount must, instead, be applied by the liquidator in the manner specified in the order, being a manner that the Court considers just and equitable in the circumstances.
- (5) The matters that the Court may take into account in considering whether to make an order under subsection (4) include, but are not limited to:
- (a) whether it is possible to identify particular relevant contracts of insurance as being the contracts in respect of which the contract of reinsurance was entered into; and

- (b) whether it is possible to identify persons who can be said to have paid extra in order to have particular relevant contracts of insurance protected by reinsurance; and
 - (c) whether particular relevant contracts of insurance include statements to the effect that the contracts are to be protected by reinsurance; and
 - (d) whether a person to whom an amount is payable under a relevant contract of insurance would be severely prejudiced if subsections (2) and (3) applied to the amount received under the contract of reinsurance.
- (6) If receipt of a payment under this section only partially discharges a liability of the company to a person, nothing in this section affects the rights of the person in respect of the balance of the liability.
- (7) This section has effect despite any agreement to the contrary.
- (8) In this section:

relevant contract of insurance means a contract of insurance entered into by the company, as insurer, before the relevant date.

 - (b) the company has entered into a contract with an insurer in respect of any liability for injury compensation.
- (2) Where injury compensation is payable by way of periodical payments, the amount of that compensation is, for the purposes of paragraph 556(1)(f), taken to be the lump sum for which those periodical payments could, if redeemable, be redeemed under the law under which the periodical payments are made.

563AA Seller under a buy-back agreement

- (1) The selling shareholder's claim under a buy-back agreement is postponed until all debts owed to people otherwise than as members of the company have been satisfied.

- (2) Debentures of a company are not to be taken to be redeemed merely because:
 - (a) the debentures secure advances on current account or otherwise; and
 - (b) the company's account ceases to be in debit while those debentures remain available.

Subdivision E—Miscellaneous

563B Interest on debts and claims from relevant date to date of payment

- (1) If, in the winding up of a company, the liquidator pays an amount in respect of an admitted debt or claim, there is also payable to the debtor or claimant, as a debt payable in the winding up, interest, at the prescribed rate, on the amount of the payment in respect of the period starting on the relevant date and ending on the day on which the payment is made.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), payment of the interest is to be postponed until all other debts and claims in the winding up have been satisfied, other than subordinate claims (within the meaning of section 563A).
- (3) If the admitted debt or claim is a debt to which section 554B applied, subsection (2) does not apply to postpone payment of so much of the interest as is attributable to the period starting at the relevant date and ending on the earlier of:

Section 563C

- (a) the day on which the payment is made; and
- (b) the future date, within the meaning of section 554B.

563C Debt subordination

- (1) Nothing in this Division renders a debt subordination by a creditor of a company unlawful or unenforceable, except so far as the debt subordination would disadvantage any creditor of the company who was not a party to, or otherwise concerned in, the debt subordination.
- (2) In this section:

debt subordination means an agreement or declaration by a creditor of a company, however expressed, to the effect that, in specified circumstances:

- (a) a specified debt that the company owes the creditor; or
 - (b) a specified part of such a debt;
- will not be repaid until other specified debts that the company owes are repaid to a specified extent.

Where in any winding up:

- (a) property has been recovered under an indemnity for costs of litigation given by certain creditors, or has been protected or preserved by the payment of money or the giving of indemnity by creditors; or
- (b) expenses in relation to which a creditor has indemnified a liquidator have been recovered;

the Court may make such orders, as it deems just with respect to the distribution of that property and the amount of those expenses so recovered with a view to giving those creditors an advantage over others in consideration of the risk assumed by them.

Division 7—Effect on certain transactions

- (1) A settlement, a conveyance or transfer of property, a charge on property, a payment made, or an obligation incurred, before 23 June 1993, by a company that, if it had been made or incurred by a natural person, would, in the event of his or her becoming a bankrupt, be void as against the trustee in the bankruptcy, is, in the event of the company being wound up, void as against the liquidator.

Section 568

- (1A) A liquidator cannot disclaim a contract (other than an unprofitable contract or a lease of land) except with the leave of the Court.
- (1B) On an application for leave under subsection (1A), the Court may:
- (a) grant leave subject to such conditions; and
 - (b) make such orders in connection with matters arising under, or relating to, the contract;
- as the Court considers just and equitable.
- (8) Where:
- (a) an application in writing has been made to the liquidator by a person interested in property requiring the liquidator to decide whether he or she will disclaim the property; and
 - (b) the liquidator has, for the period of 28 days after the receipt of the application, or for such extended period as is allowed by the Court, declined or neglected to disclaim the property;
- the liquidator is not entitled to disclaim the property under this section and, in the case of a contract, he or she is taken to have adopted it.
- (9) The Court may, on the application of a person who is, as against the company, entitled to the benefit or subject to the burden of a contract made with the company, make an order:
- (a) discharging the contract on such terms as to payment by or to either party of damages for the non-performance of the contract, or otherwise, as the Court thinks proper; or
 - (b) rescinding the contract on such terms as to restitution by or to either party, or otherwise, as the Court thinks proper.
- (10) Amounts payable pursuant to an order under subsection (9) may be proved as a debt in the winding up.
- (13) For the purpose of determining whether property of a company is of a kind to which subsection (1) applies, the liquidator may, by notice served on a person claiming to have an interest in the property, require the person to give to the liquidator within such period, not being less than 14 days, as is specified in the notice, a statement of the interest claimed by the person and the person must comply with the requirement.

568A Liquidator must give notice of disclaimer

- (1) As soon as practicable after disclaiming property, a liquidator must:
 - (a) lodge a written notice of the disclaimer; and

 - (c) if the liquidator has reason to suspect that some person or persons may have, or may claim to have, an interest or interests in the property, but either does not know who, or does not know where, the person is or the persons are—comply with subsection (2); and
 - (d) if a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory requires the transfer or transmission of the property to be registered—give written notice of the disclaimer to the registrar or other person who has the function under that law of registering the transfer or transmission of the property.

Note: For electronic notification under paragraph (b), see section 600G.

- (2) If paragraph (1)(c) applies, the liquidator must cause a notice setting out the prescribed information about the disclaimer to be published in the prescribed manner.

568B Application to set aside disclaimer before it takes effect

- (1) A person who has, or claims to have, an interest in disclaimed property may apply to the Court for an order setting aside the disclaimer before it takes effect, but may only do so within 14 days after:
 - (a) if the liquidator gives to the person notice of the disclaimer, because of paragraph 568A(1)(b), before the end of 14 days after the liquidator lodges such notice—the liquidator gives such notice to the person; or

Section 568C

- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply but notice of the disclaimer is published under subsection 568A(2) before the end of the 14 days referred to in that paragraph—the last such notice to be so published is so published; or
 - (c) otherwise—the liquidator lodges notice of the disclaimer.
- (2) On an application under subsection (1), the Court:
- (a) may by order set aside the disclaimer; and
 - (b) if it does so—may make such further orders as it thinks appropriate.
- (3) However, the Court may set aside a disclaimer under this section only if satisfied that the disclaimer would cause, to persons who have, or claim to have, interests in the property, prejudice that is grossly out of proportion to the prejudice that setting aside the disclaimer would cause to the company's creditors.

568C When disclaimer takes effect

- (1) A disclaimer takes effect if, and only if:
- (a) in a case where only one application under section 568B for an order setting aside the disclaimer, or each of 2 or more such applications, is made within the period that that section prescribes for making the application—the application, or each of the applications, is unsuccessful; or
 - (b) no such application is so made.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an application under section 568B is successful if, and only if, the result of the application, and all appeals (if any) arising out of the application, being finally determined or otherwise disposed of is an order setting aside the disclaimer (whether or not further orders are also made).
- (3) A disclaimer that takes effect because of subsection (1) is taken to have taken effect on the day after:
- (a) if:

Section 568D

- (i) the liquidator gave to a person notice of the disclaimer because of paragraph 568A(1)(b); or
 - (ii) notice of the disclaimer was published under subsection 568A(2);
- before the end of 14 days after the liquidator lodged notice of the disclaimer—the last day when the liquidator so gave such notice or such notice was so published; or
- (b) otherwise—the day when the liquidator lodged notice of the disclaimer.

568D Effect of disclaimer

- (1) A disclaimer is taken to have terminated, as from the day on which it is taken because of subsection 568C(3) to take effect, the company's rights, interests, liabilities and property in or in respect of the disclaimer property, but does not affect any other person's rights or liabilities except so far as necessary in order to release the company and its property from liability.
- (2) A person aggrieved by the operation of a disclaimer is taken to be a creditor of the company to the extent of any loss suffered by the person because of the disclaimer and may prove such a loss as a debt in the winding up.

568E Application to set aside disclaimer after it has taken effect

- (1) With the leave of the Court, a person who has, or claims to have, an interest in disclaimed property may apply to the Court for an order setting aside the disclaimer after it has taken effect.
- (2) The Court may give leave only if it is satisfied that it is unreasonable in all the circumstances to expect the person to have applied for an order setting aside the disclaimer before it took effect.
- (3) The Court may give leave subject to conditions.
- (4) On an application under subsection (1), the Court:
 - (a) may by order set aside the disclaimer; and

Section 568F

- (b) if it does so—may make such further orders as it thinks appropriate, including orders necessary to put the company, the liquidator or anyone else in the same position, as nearly as practicable, as if the disclaimer had never taken effect.
- (5) However, the Court may set aside a disclaimer only if satisfied that the disclaimer has caused, or would cause, to persons who have, or claim to have, interests in the property, prejudice that is grossly out of proportion to the prejudice that setting aside the disclaimer (and making any further orders) would cause to:
 - (a) the company's creditors; and
 - (b) persons who have changed their position in reliance on the disclaimer taking effect.

568F Court may dispose of disclaimed property

- (1) The Court may order that disclaimed property vest in, or be delivered to:
 - (a) a person entitled to the property; or
 - (b) a person in or to whom it seems to the Court appropriate that the property be vested or delivered; or
 - (c) a person as trustee for a person of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) The Court may make an order under subsection (1):
 - (a) on the application of a person who claims an interest in the property, or is under a liability in respect of the property that this Act has not discharged; and
 - (b) after hearing such persons as it thinks appropriate.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), where an order is made under subsection (1) vesting property, the property vests immediately, for the purposes of the order, without any conveyance, transfer or assignment.
- (4) Where:

Section 568F

- (a) a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory requires the transfer of property vested by an order under subsection (1) to be registered; and
 - (b) that law enables the order to be registered;
- the property vests in equity because of the order but does not vest at law until that law has been complied with.

Division 7B—Effect on enforcement process against company's property

569 Executions, attachments etc. before winding up

(1) Where:

- (a) a creditor has issued execution against property of a company, or instituted proceedings to attach a debt due to a company or to enforce a charge or a charging order against property of a company, within 6 months immediately before the commencement of the winding up; and
- (b) the company commences to be wound up;

the creditor must pay to the liquidator an amount equal to the amount (if any) received by the creditor as a result of the execution, attachment or enforcement of the charge or the charging order, less an amount in respect of the costs of the execution, attachment or enforcement of the charge or the charging order, being an amount agreed between the creditor and the liquidator or, if no agreement is reached, an amount equal to the taxed cost of that execution, attachment or enforcement.

(2) Where the creditor has paid to the liquidator an amount in accordance with subsection (1), the creditor may prove in the winding up for the creditor's debt as an unsecured creditor as if the execution or attachment or the enforcement of the charge or the charging order, as the case may be, had not taken place.

it is not competent for the creditor to take any action, or any further action, as the case may be, to attach a debt due to the company or to enforce a charge or a charging order against property of the company.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect the right of a creditor to take action or further action if:
- (a) in a case to which paragraph (3)(a) applies—the application has been withdrawn or dismissed; or
 - (b) in a case to which paragraph (3)(b) applies—the meeting of the company has refused to pass the resolution.
- (5) Subsection (3) does not prevent a creditor from performing a binding contract for the sale of property entered into before the creditor received a notice referred to in that subsection.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Division, a person who purchases property in good faith:
- (a) under a sale by the sheriff in consequence of the issue of execution against property of a company that, after the sale, commences to be wound up; or
 - (b) under a sale in consequence of the enforcement by a creditor of a charge or a charging order against property of a company that, after the sale, commences to be wound up;

- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the power of the sheriff to take any action or make any payment if:

 - (b) in a case to which paragraph (1)(b) applies—the meeting of the company has refused to pass the resolution.

 - (b) receives notice in writing of the convening of a meeting of the company to consider a resolution that the company be wound up voluntarily;
- any of those proceeds or money not paid out of court must not be paid to the creditor or to any person on behalf of the creditor.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the making of a payment if:

- (b) the registrar or other officer of the court must pay to the liquidator any proceeds of the sale of property of the company or other money in court, being proceeds of sale or other money paid into court, whether before or after the commencement of the winding up, by a sheriff pursuant to a process of execution issued by or on behalf of a creditor; as the case requires.
- (7) Where:
- (a) property is, or proceeds of the sale of property or other money are, required by subsection (6) to be delivered or paid to a liquidator; or
- (b) a sheriff has, pursuant to subsection (1), refrained from taking action to sell property of a company, being land, and that company is being wound up under an order made on the application referred to in that subsection;
- the costs of the execution are a first charge on that property or on those proceeds of sale or other money.

Section 570

- (8) For the purpose of giving effect to the charge referred to in subsection (7), the sheriff, registrar or other officer may retain, on behalf of the creditor entitled to the benefit of the charge, such amount from the proceeds of sale or other money referred to in that subsection as he or she thinks necessary for the purpose.
- (9) The Court may, if in a particular case it considers it is proper to do so:
 - (a) permit a sheriff to take action to sell property or make a payment that the sheriff could not, by reason of subsection (1), otherwise validly take; or

Division 2—Voidable transactions

588FA Unfair preferences

- (1) A transaction is an unfair preference given by a company to a creditor of the company if, and only if:
 - (a) the company and the creditor are parties to the transaction (even if someone else is also a party); and
 - (b) the transaction results in the creditor receiving from the company, in respect of an unsecured debt that the company owes to the creditor, more than the creditor would receive from the company in respect of the debt if the transaction were set aside and the creditor were to prove for the debt in a winding up of the company;
even if the transaction is entered into, is given effect to, or is required to be given effect to, because of an order of an Australian court or a direction by an agency.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a secured debt is taken to be unsecured to the extent of so much of it (if any) as is not reflected in the value of the security.
- (3) Where:
 - (a) a transaction is, for commercial purposes, an integral part of a continuing business relationship (for example, a running account) between a company and a creditor of the company (including such a relationship to which other persons are parties); and
 - (b) in the course of the relationship, the level of the company's net indebtedness to the creditor is increased and reduced from time to time as the result of a series of transactions forming part of the relationship;then:
 - (c) subsection (1) applies in relation to all the transactions forming part of the relationship as if they together constituted a single transaction; and

Section 588FB

- (d) the transaction referred to in paragraph (a) may only be taken to be an unfair preference given by the company to the creditor if, because of subsection (1) as applying because of paragraph (c) of this subsection, the single transaction referred to in the last-mentioned paragraph is taken to be such an unfair preference.

588FB Uncommercial transactions

- (1) A transaction of a company is an uncommercial transaction of the company if, and only if, it may be expected that a reasonable person in the company's circumstances would not have entered into the transaction, having regard to:
- (a) the benefits (if any) to the company of entering into the transaction; and
 - (b) the detriment to the company of entering into the transaction; and
 - (c) the respective benefits to other parties to the transaction of entering into it; and
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (2) A transaction may be an uncommercial transaction of a company because of subsection (1):
- (a) whether or not a creditor of the company is a party to the transaction; and
 - (b) even if the transaction is given effect to, or is required to be given effect to, because of an order of an Australian court or a direction by an agency.

588FC Insolvent transactions

A transaction of a company is an insolvent transaction of the company if, and only if, it is an unfair preference given by the company, or an uncommercial transaction of the company, and:

- (a) any of the following happens at a time when the company is insolvent:
 - (i) the transaction is entered into; or

Section 588FD

- (ii) an act is done, or an omission is made, for the purpose of giving effect to the transaction; or
- (b) the company becomes insolvent because of, or because of matters including:
 - (i) entering into the transaction; or
 - (ii) a person doing an act, or making an omission, for the purpose of giving effect to the transaction.

588FD Unfair loans to a company

- (1) A loan to a company is unfair if, and only if:
 - (a) the interest on the loan was extortionate when the loan was made, or has since become extortionate because of a variation; or
 - (b) the charges in relation to the loan were extortionate when the loan was made, or have since become extortionate because of a variation;even if the interest is, or the charges are, no longer extortionate.
- (2) In determining:
 - (a) whether interest on a loan was or became extortionate at a particular time as mentioned in paragraph (1)(a); or
 - (b) whether charges in relation to a loan were or became extortionate at a particular time as mentioned in paragraph (1)(b);regard is to be had to the following matters as at that time:
 - (c) the risk to which the lender was exposed; and
 - (d) the value of any security in respect of the loan; and
 - (e) the term of the loan; and
 - (f) the schedule for payments of interest and charges and for repayments of principal; and
 - (g) the amount of the loan; and
 - (h) any other relevant matter.

588FDA Unreasonable director-related transactions

- (1) A transaction of a company is an unreasonable director-related transaction of the company if, and only if:
- (a) the transaction is:
 - (i) a payment made by the company; or
 - (ii) a conveyance, transfer or other disposition by the company of property of the company; or

 - (b) the payment, disposition or issue is, or is to be, made to:
 - (i) a director of the company; or
 - (ii) a close associate of a director of the company; or
 - (iii) a person on behalf of, or for the benefit of, a person mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii); and
 - (c) it may be expected that a reasonable person in the company's circumstances would not have entered into the transaction, having regard to:
 - (i) the benefits (if any) to the company of entering into the transaction; and
 - (ii) the detriment to the company of entering into the transaction; and
 - (iii) the respective benefits to other parties to the transaction of entering into it; and
 - (iv) any other relevant matter.

The obligation referred to in subparagraph (a)(iv) may be a contingent obligation.

Note: Subparagraph (a)(iv)—This would include, for example, granting options over shares in the company.

- (2) To avoid doubt, if:
- (a) the transaction is a payment, disposition or issue; and
 - (b) the transaction is entered into for the purpose of meeting an obligation the company has incurred;

Section 588FE

the test in paragraph (1)(c) applies to the transaction taking into account the circumstances as they exist at the time when the transaction is entered into (rather than as they existed at the time when the obligation was incurred).

- (3) A transaction may be an unreasonable director-related transaction because of subsection (1):
- (a) whether or not a creditor of the company is a party to the transaction; and
 - (b) even if the transaction is given effect to, or is required to be given effect to, because of an order of an Australian court or a direction by an agency.

- (a) the total value of the benefits provided by the company under the transaction; and
 - (b) the value (if any) that it may be expected that a reasonable person in the company's circumstances would have provided having regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 588FDA(1)(c).

588FG Transaction not voidable as against certain persons

- (1) A court is not to make under section 588FF an order materially prejudicing a right or interest of a person other than a party to the transaction if it is proved that:

- (6) Subsections (3) and (5):
- (a) are to avoid doubt and are not intended to limit the cases where a person may be taken to have provided valuable consideration under a transaction; and

- (4) The court may, in the proceedings in which it made the order against the Commissioner, order a person to pay to the Commissioner an amount payable by the person under subsection (2).

- (3) It is a defence if it is proved that, at the payment time, the person had reasonable grounds to expect, and did expect, that the company was solvent at that time and would remain solvent even if it made the payment.
- (4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), it is a defence if it is proved that, at the payment time, the person:
 - (a) had reasonable grounds to believe, and did believe:
 - (i) that a competent and reliable person (the other person) was responsible for providing to the first-mentioned

- person adequate information about whether the company was solvent; and
- (ii) that the other person was fulfilling that responsibility; and
- (b) expected, on the basis of information provided to the first-mentioned person by the other person, that the company was solvent at that time and would remain solvent even if it made the payment.
- (5) It is a defence if it is proved that, because of illness or for some other good reason, the person did not take part in the management of the company at the payment time.
- (6) It is a defence if it is proved that:
- (a) the person took all reasonable steps to prevent the company from making the payment; or

- (2) The company's liquidator may recover from the related entity, as a debt due to the company, an amount equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (1)(c).
- (3) In deciding what orders (if any) to make under section 588FF on an application relating to the transaction, a court must take into account any amount recovered under subsection (2) of this section.
- (4) If the liquidator recovers an amount under subsection (2) from the related entity, the related entity has the same rights:
 - (a) whether by way of indemnity, subrogation, contribution or otherwise; and
 - (b) against the company or anyone else;as if the related entity had paid the amount in discharging, to the extent of that amount, the liability referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

 - (i) during the 6 months ending on the relation-back day; or
 - (ii) after that day but on or before the day when the winding up began.
- (2) The circulating security interest is void, as against the company's liquidator, except so far as it secures:
 - (a) an advance paid to the company, or at its direction, at or after that time and as consideration for the circulating security interest; or
 - (b) interest on such an advance; or
 - (c) the amount of a liability under a guarantee or other obligation undertaken at or after that time on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the company; or
 - (d) an amount payable for property or services supplied to the company at or after that time; or
 - (e) interest on an amount so payable.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if it is proved that the company was solvent immediately after that time.

Section 588FJ

- (5) Paragraphs (2)(d) and (e) do not apply in relation to an amount payable as mentioned in paragraph (2)(d) in so far as the amount exceeds the market value of the property or services when supplied to the company.
- (6) If, during the 6 months ending on the relation-back day, or after that day but on or before the day when the winding up began, a debt secured by the circulating security interest was discharged, out of the company's money or property, to the extent of a particular amount (in this subsection called the realised amount), the liquidator may, by proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction, recover from the secured party, as a debt due to the company, the amount worked out in accordance with the formula:

Unsecured amount – Realisation costs

where:

realisation costs means so much (if any) of the costs and expenses of enforcing the security interest as is attributable to realising the realised amount.

unsecured amount means so much of the realised amount as does not exceed so much of the debt as would, if the debt had not been so discharged, have been unsecured, as against the liquidator, because of subsection (2).

Part 5.8A—Employee entitlements

596AA Objects and coverage of this Part

Objects

- (1) The objects of this Part are to:
 - (a) deter avoidance of the payment of the entitlements of employees; and
 - (b) protect the entitlements of a company's employees from agreements, arrangements and transactions that avoid or prevent the recovery of those entitlements, or significantly reduce the amount of those entitlements that can be recovered, in the winding up of the company.

Employee entitlements

- (2) The entitlements of an employee of a company that are protected under this Part are:
 - (a) wages payable by the company for services rendered to the company by the employee; and
 - (b) superannuation contributions (that is, contributions by the company to a fund or scheme for the purposes of making provision for, or obtaining, superannuation benefits (including defined benefits) for the employee, or for dependants of the employee) payable by the company in respect of services rendered to the company by the employee; and
 - (c) amounts due in respect of injury compensation in relation to the employee; and
 - (d) amounts due under an industrial instrument in respect of the employee's leave of absence; and
 - (e) retrenchment payments for the employee (that is, amounts payable by the company to the employee, under an industrial instrument, in respect of the termination of the employee's employment by the company).

Section 596AB

- (2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), an entitlement of an employee need not be owed to the employee. It might, for example, be:
- (a) an amount owed to the employee's dependants; or
 - (b) a superannuation contribution payable to a fund in respect of services rendered by the employee; or
 - (c) a right in relation to an entitlement that becomes a right of the Commonwealth under paragraph 31(1)(b) of the Fair Entitlements Guarantee Act 2012; or
 - (d) an entitlement in relation to which an entity other than the employee has a right of subrogation.
- (3) The entitlements of an excluded employee (within the meaning of section 556) are protected under this Part only to the extent to which they have priority under paragraph 556(1)(e), (f), (g) or (h).

Employees

- (4) For the purposes of this Part, a person is an employee of a company if the person is, or has been, an employee of the company (whether remunerated by salary, wages, commission or otherwise).
- (5) If an entitlement of an employee of a company is owed to a person other than the employee, this Part applies to the entitlement as if a reference to the employee included a reference to the person to whom the entitlement is owed.

Trust property vests in the Commonwealth

- (1A) On deregistration, all property that the company held on trust immediately before deregistration vests in the Commonwealth. If property is vested in a liquidator on trust immediately before deregistration, that property vests in the Commonwealth. This subsection extends to property situated outside this jurisdiction.

Other company property vests in ASIC

- (2) On deregistration, all the company's property (other than any property held by the company on trust) vests in ASIC. If company property is vested in a liquidator (other than any company property vested in a liquidator on trust) immediately before deregistration, that property vests in ASIC. This subsection extends to property situated outside this jurisdiction.

Rights and powers in respect of property

- (3) Under subsection (1A) or (2), the Commonwealth or ASIC takes only the same property rights that the company itself held. If the company held particular property subject to a security or other interest or claim, the Commonwealth or ASIC takes the property subject to that interest or claim.

Section 601AE

Note: See also subsection 601AE(3)—which deals with liabilities that a law imposes on the property (particularly liabilities such as rates, taxes and other charges).

- (3A) The Commonwealth has, subject to its obligations as trustee of the trust, all the powers of an owner over property vested in it under subsection (1A).

Note: Section 601AF confers additional powers on the Commonwealth to fulfil outstanding obligations of the deregistered company.

Note: Section 601AF confers additional powers on ASIC to fulfil outstanding obligations of the deregistered company.

Company books to be kept by former directors

- (5) The directors of the company immediately before deregistration must keep the company's books for 3 years after the deregistration.

- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply to books that a liquidator has to keep under subsection 542(2), or subsection 70-35(1) of Schedule 2 (retention and return or destruction of books).

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (6), see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Strict liability offences

- (7) An offence based on subsection (5) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

601AE What the Commonwealth or ASIC does with the property

Trust property vested in the Commonwealth

- (1) If property vests in the Commonwealth under subsection 601AD(1A), the Commonwealth may:
- (a) continue to act as trustee; or
 - (b) apply to a court for the appointment of a new trustee.

Section 601AE

Note: Under paragraph (1)(a), the Commonwealth may be able to transfer the property to a new trustee chosen in accordance with the trust instrument.

- (1A) If the Commonwealth continues to act as trustee in respect of the property, subject to its obligations as trustee, the Commonwealth:
- (a) in the case of money—must credit the amount of the money to a special account (within the meaning of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013); or
 - (b) otherwise:
 - (i) may sell or dispose of the property as it thinks fit; and
 - (ii) if the Commonwealth does so—must credit the amount of the proceeds to a special account (within the meaning of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013).

Note: ASIC may, for and on behalf of the Commonwealth, perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of the Commonwealth as trustee in relation to property held on trust by the Commonwealth (see subsection 8(6) of the ASIC Act).

Property vested in ASIC

- (2) If property vests in ASIC under subsection 601AD(2), ASIC may:
- (a) dispose of or deal with the property as it sees fit; and
 - (b) apply any money it receives to:
 - (i) defray expenses incurred by ASIC in exercising its powers in relation to the company under this Chapter; and
 - (ii) make payments authorised by subsection (3).

ASIC must deal with the rest (if any) under Part 9.7.

Obligations attaching to property vested in the Commonwealth

- (2A) For the purposes of subsection (3), if any liability is imposed on property under a law of the Commonwealth immediately before the property vests in the Commonwealth under subsection 601AD(1A), then:

- (a) immediately after that time, the liability applies to the Commonwealth as if the Commonwealth were a body corporate; and
- (b) the Commonwealth is liable to make notional payments to discharge that liability.

Obligations attaching to property

- (3) Any property that vests in the Commonwealth or ASIC under subsection 601AD(1A) or (2) remains subject to all liabilities imposed on the property under a law and does not have the benefit of any exemption that the property might otherwise have because it is vested in the Commonwealth or ASIC. These liabilities include a liability that:
 - (a) is a security interest in or claim on the property; and
 - (b) arises under a law that imposes rates, taxes or other charges.

Extent of Commonwealth's and ASIC's obligation

- (4) The Commonwealth's or ASIC's obligation under subsection (2A) or (3) is limited to satisfying the liabilities out of the company's property to the extent that the property is properly available to satisfy those liabilities.

Accounts

- (5) The Commonwealth or ASIC (as the case requires) must keep:
 - (a) a record of property that it knows is vested in it under this Chapter; and
 - (b) a record of its dealings with that property; and
 - (c) accounts of all money received from those dealings; and
 - (d) all accounts, vouchers, receipts and papers relating to the property and that money.

Section 601AF

601AF The Commonwealth's and ASIC's power to fulfil outstanding obligations of deregistered company

The Commonwealth or ASIC may do an act on behalf of the company or its liquidator if the Commonwealth or ASIC is satisfied that the company or liquidator would be bound to do the act if the company still existed.

Note: This power is a general one and is not limited to acts in relation to property vested in the Commonwealth under subsection 601AD(1A), or ASIC under subsection 601AD(2). The Commonwealth or ASIC has all the powers that automatically flow from the vesting of property under that subsection (see subsections 601AD(3A) and (4)) and may exercise those powers whether or not the company was bound to do so.

601AG Claims against insurers of deregistered company

A person may recover from the insurer of a company that is deregistered an amount that was payable to the company under the insurance contract if:

- (a) the company had a liability to the person; and

601AH Reinstatement

Reinstatement by ASIC

- (1) ASIC may reinstate the registration of a company if ASIC is satisfied that the company should not have been deregistered.

 - (a) ASIC receives an application in relation to the reinstatement of the company's registration; and
 - (b) the levy imposed on the company by the ASIC Supervisory Cost Recovery Levy Act 2017 is paid in full; and
 - (c) the amount of any late payment penalty payable in relation to the levy is paid in full; and

- (d) the amount of any shortfall penalty payable in relation to the levy is paid in full.

Reinstatement by Court

- (2) The Court may make an order that ASIC reinstate the registration of a company if:
- (a) an application for reinstatement is made to the Court by:
 - (i) a person aggrieved by the deregistration; or
 - (ii) a former liquidator of the company; and
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that it is just that the company's registration be reinstated.

- (3) If:
- (a) ASIC reinstates the registration of a company under subsection (1) or (1A); or
 - (b) the Court makes an order under subsection (2);
- the Court may:
- (c) validate anything done during the period:
 - (i) beginning when the company was deregistered; and
 - (ii) ending when the company's registration was reinstated; and
 - (d) make any other order it considers appropriate.

Note: For example, the Court may direct ASIC to transfer to another person property vested in ASIC under subsection 601AD(2).

ASIC to give notice of reinstatement

- (4) ASIC must give notice of a reinstatement in the Gazette.
- (4A) If an application was made to ASIC for the reinstatement of a company's registration, ASIC must give notice of the reinstatement to the applicant.

Effect of reinstatement

- (5) If a company is reinstated, the company is taken to have continued in existence as if it had not been deregistered. A person who was a director of the company immediately before deregistration becomes a director again as from the time when ASIC or the Court reinstates the company. Any property of the company that is still vested in the Commonwealth or ASIC reverts in the company. If the company held particular property subject to a security or other interest or claim, the company takes the property subject to that interest or claim.

- (6) Subsection 601AH(5) does not affect the cancellation of an Australian financial services licence held by the company if the cancellation occurs because the company was deregistered.

Note 1: Section 119A tells you which State or Territory the company is taken to be registered in.

Note 2: In order to be registered under the State or Territory law, the company may need to amend its constitution, or adopt a new one, and the provisions of this Act (including the class rights provisions in Part 2F.2) will apply to the amendment or adoption.

601AJ Applying to transfer registration

- (3) Where ASIC has reasonable cause to believe that a registered foreign company does not carry on business in this jurisdiction, ASIC may send to the foreign company in the prescribed manner a letter to that effect and stating that, if no answer showing cause to the contrary is received within one month from the date of the letter, a notice will be published in the Gazette with a view to striking the foreign company's name off the register.
- (4) Unless ASIC receives, within one month after the date of the letter, an answer to the effect that the foreign company is still carrying on business in this jurisdiction, it may publish in the Gazette, and send to the foreign company in the prescribed manner, a notice that, at the end of 3 months after the date of the notice, the foreign company's name will, unless cause to the contrary is shown, be struck off the register.
- (5) At the end of the period specified in a notice sent under subsection (4), ASIC may, unless cause to the contrary has been shown, strike the foreign company's name off the register and must publish in the Gazette notice of the striking off.

off, apply to the Court for the foreign company's name to be restored to the register.

- the Court may, by order:
- (c) direct the foreign company's name to be restored to the register; and

- (b) must not, without obtaining an order of the Court, pay out a creditor of the foreign company to the exclusion of another creditor of the foreign company; and
