An Act to provide for the collection of information from bodies in the financial sector, and for related purposes

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Short title [see Note 1]

This Act may be cited as the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001.

2 Commencement [see Note 1]

- (1) Parts 1 and 5 commence on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) Parts 2, 3 and 4 commence on a day to be fixed by Proclamation.
- (3) If Parts 2, 3 and 4 do not commence under subsection (2) within the period of 12 months beginning on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, those Parts commence on the first day after the end of that period.

3 Object of Act

- (1) The object of this Act is to enable the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) to collect information in order to assist:
 - (a) APRA in the prudential regulation or monitoring of bodies in the financial sector; and
 - (b) another financial sector agency to perform its functions or exercise its powers; and
 - (c) the Minister to formulate financial policy.
- (2) In order to achieve that object, this Act:
 - (a) provides for certain corporations to be registered, and divided into categories, by APRA; and
 - (b) authorises APRA to determine reporting standards for corporations that are so registered and for certain other bodies that it regulates or monitors and to require them to provide APRA with information about their businesses and activities.

4 Extension to external Territories

This Act extends to every external Territory.

5 Entities covered by the Act

- (1) This Act deals with financial sector entities.
- (2) A financial sector entity is:
 - (a) a registered entity; or
 - (b) a regulated entity; or
 - (c) a corporation to which section 5A applies; or
 - (d) a discretionary mutual fund; or
 - (e) a person who:
 - (i) provides a financial service (within the meaning of section 766A of the Corporations Act 2001); and
 - (ii) is not an entity, corporation or fund referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of this subsection; or
 - (f) a person who:
 - (i) is a participant in a payment system (within the meaning of section 7 of the Payment Systems (Regulation) Act 1998); and
 - (ii) is not an entity, corporation or fund referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of this subsection.
- (3) A registered entity is a corporation whose name is entered in the Register of Entities kept by APRA under section 8.
- (4) A regulated entity is any of the following:
 - (a) a body regulated by APRA (within the meaning of subsection 3(2) of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998);
 - (c) a subsidiary of an ADI, or a subsidiary of an authorised NOHC, within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959.
- (5) A discretionary mutual fund is a fund (however constituted) for making payments on the happening of a specified event (where there is uncertainty as to whether, or when, the event will happen), that is a fund:

- (a) to which 2 or more persons contribute, and:
 - (i) out of which payments may be made in respect of liabilities, losses, damages or expenses of the contributors; and
 - (ii) that is governed by rules under which any such payment for the benefit of a contributor is subject to a discretion of a person or body; or
 - (b) that is declared to be a discretionary mutual fund, or included in a class of funds that are declared to be discretionary mutual funds, by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (6) However, a fund (however constituted) is not a discretionary mutual fund if:
- (a) a contributor has a right, in law or equity, to a payment of a kind referred to in subparagraph (5)(a)(i); or
 - (b) the fund is:
 - (i) declared not to be a discretionary mutual fund; or
 - (ii) included in a class of funds that are declared not to be discretionary mutual funds;by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (7) Despite subsection (2), the Reserve Bank is not a financial sector entity.

5A Medical indemnity entities

This section applies to a corporation at a particular time if:

- (a) the corporation is a financial corporation formed within the limits of Australia; and
- (b) an arrangement under which medical indemnity cover is provided for a health care professional was entered into before 1 July 2003; and
- (c) the arrangement was not effected by means of a contract of insurance; and
- (d) the corporation may pay, or may have to pay, an amount under the arrangement at some time after that time.

Expressions used in paragraph (b) have the same meaning as they have in the Medical Indemnity (Prudential Supervision and Product Standards) Act 2003.

6 Application of Criminal Code

Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code applies to all offences against this Act.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

6A Application of Act

This Act does not apply, in relation to a discretionary mutual fund, to State insurance not extending beyond the limits of the State concerned.

Part 2—Registration of corporations

7 Registrable corporations

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a corporation is a registrable corporation if, and only if, the corporation is a foreign corporation, a trading corporation formed within the limits of Australia or a financial corporation so formed and:
 - (a) the sole or principal business activities in Australia of the corporation are the borrowing of money and the provision of finance; or
 - (b) the sum of the values of such of the assets in Australia of the corporation as consist of debts due to the corporation, being debts resulting from transactions entered into in the course of the provision of finance by the corporation, exceeds:
 - (i) 50%; or
 - (ii) if a greater or lesser percentage is prescribed by the regulations—the percentage so prescribed;of the sum of the values of all the assets in Australia of the corporation; or
 - (c) the corporation engages in the provision of finance in the course of carrying on in Australia a business (whether or not that business is its sole or principal business) of selling goods by retail and the sum of the values of such of the assets of the corporation and of any corporation that is related to the corporation as consist of debts due to the corporation concerned, being debts resulting from transactions entered into in the course of the provision of finance by that corporation, exceeds:
 - (i) $25,000,000; or
 - (ii) if a greater or lesser amount is prescribed by the regulations—the amount so prescribed.
- (2) A corporation is not a registrable corporation if:
 - (a) the corporation, not being a company, society or association, is established for a public purpose by a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory; or

Section 8

- (b) the corporation is an ADI for the purposes of the Banking Act 1959; or
 - (c) the corporation is a benefit society registered under a law of a State or of a Territory providing for the registration of benefit societies; or
 - (d) the corporation is a private health insurer within the meaning of the Private Health Insurance Act 2007; or
 - (e) the corporation is registered under section 21 of the Life Insurance Act 1995; or
 - (f) the sole or principal business in Australia of the corporation is insurance business within the meaning of the Insurance Act 1973; or
 - (g) the corporation is authorised by a law of a State or of a Territory to act as an executor, administrator and trustee; or
 - (h) the sole or principal purpose for which the corporation borrows money is to lend money to a corporation or corporations that, because of subsection 34(2) or (3), is not or are not to be taken to be related to the first-mentioned corporation but would, but for that subsection, be treated as being so related because of subsection 34(1); or
 - (i) the sum of the values of all the assets of the corporation and of every corporation that is related to the corporation does not exceed:
 - (i) $5,000,000; or
 - (ii) if a greater or lesser amount is prescribed by the regulations—the amount so prescribed; or
 - (j) APRA has, by order in writing published in such manner and form as APRA determines to be appropriate, exempted the corporation from the obligation to register under this Act.
- (3) The reference in paragraph (2)(h) to the lending of money to a corporation does not include a reference to the provision of finance to the corporation by way of acquiring debts due to the corporation or of purchasing securities other than securities issued by the corporation.

8 Register of entities

- (1) APRA must cause a Register of Entities to be kept for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) APRA must ensure that the Register of Entities is available for inspection by any member of the public at an office of APRA during normal business hours.
- (3) A person may:
 - (a) inspect the Register of Entities; or
 - (b) take an extract from, or make a copy of, that Register;if the person pays the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.

9 Obligations of corporations

- (1) If, on the commencement of this Part, a registrable corporation is not a registered entity, the corporation must, before the end of 60 days after the date of commencement of this Part, give to APRA the documents mentioned in subsection (5).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: If a corporation to which subsection (1) applies fails to give the documents to APRA before the end of the period specified in that subsection, the obligation to give them to APRA continues after the end of that period with daily offences being committed until the obligation is complied with (see section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914).

- (2) If, after the commencement of this Part, a corporation becomes a registrable corporation, whether at the time of its incorporation or at a later time and whether or not the corporation has previously been a registrable corporation, the corporation must, before the end of 60 days after the day on which it becomes a registrable corporation, give to APRA the documents mentioned in subsection (5).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: If a corporation to which subsection (2) applies fails to give the documents to APRA before the end of the period specified in that subsection, the obligation to give them to APRA continues after the end of that period with daily offences being committed until the obligation is complied with (see section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914).

- (3) APRA may, before the end of the period referred to in subsection (1) or (2) (including any period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any other application or applications of this subsection) allow a longer period for the giving by a particular corporation of documents in accordance with that subsection and, in that case, the longer period is taken, for the purposes of the application of that subsection in relation to that corporation, to be substituted for the period referred to in that subsection.

- (4) Neither subsection (1) nor (2) applies to a corporation if, before the end of the period referred to in that subsection (including any period that is taken to be substituted for that period by any application or applications of subsection (3) in relation to that corporation), the corporation ceases to be a registrable corporation.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to matters in subsection (4) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

- (5) The documents referred to in subsections (1) and (2) are:
- (a) a statement in writing setting out:
 - (i) the name, the place and date of incorporation and the address of the registered office of the corporation; and
 - (ii) the name, and the address of the registered office, of every corporation that is related to the corporation; and
 - (iii) particulars of the principal methods by which the corporation ordinarily borrows moneys; and
 - (iv) particulars of the principal kinds of finance ordinarily provided by the corporation; and
 - (b) a copy of the last audited balance-sheet of the corporation; and
 - (c) if there is no such balance-sheet or the balance-sheet includes both assets and liabilities in Australia and assets and liabilities outside Australia but does not show the assets and liabilities in Australia separately from the assets and liabilities outside Australia—a statement showing the assets and liabilities in Australia of the corporation.
- (6) If:
- (a) a registered entity changes its name or the address of its registered office; or
 - (b) a change takes place in the principal methods by which a registered entity ordinarily borrows moneys or in the principal kinds of finance ordinarily provided by a registered entity; or
 - (c) a corporation that is related to a registered entity ceases to be so related; or
 - (d) a corporation becomes related to a registered entity;

the registered entity must, before the end of the period of 60 days after the occurrence of the event concerned, notify APRA in writing accordingly.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

Note: If a financial sector entity to which subsection (6) applies fails to notify APRA before the end of the period specified in that subsection, the obligation to notify APRA continues after the end of that period with daily offences being committed until the obligation is complied with (see section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914).

- (7) A corporation is not required by this section to give to APRA a statement or notification in relation to a matter if a statement or notification in relation to that matter has already been given to APRA by another corporation.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to matters in subsection (7) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

- (8) A statement or notification by a corporation to APRA under this section must be signed by a senior officer of the corporation.
- (9) APRA must, if requested to do so by the Secretary to the Department, give the Secretary a copy of a document received by APRA under this section.
- (10) An offence for a contravention of subsection (1), (2) or (6) is an offence of strict liability.

10 Matters to be included in Register of Entities

APRA must:

- (a) cause to be entered in the Register of Entities the name, the address of the registered office, and any other particulars that it considers appropriate to be entered, of every corporation that gives to APRA the documents mentioned in subsection 9(5); and
- (b) if a registered entity notifies APRA in accordance with subsection 9(6), or APRA otherwise becomes aware, of a change in the name or the address of the registered office of the entity, or of a change in any other particulars relating to the entity that are entered in the Register—cause the Register to be altered accordingly; and

- (c) if a corporation whose name is entered in the Register ceases to exist, or ceases to be a registrable corporation—cause the corporation's name, the address of its registered office, and any other particulars relating to it, to be removed from the Register.

11 List of names and categories of registered entities

- (1) APRA must keep a list of the names of registered entities, divided into categories as APRA determines.
- (2) APRA may at any time vary the list for the purpose of adding to it the names of corporations that become registered entities, or removing from it the names of corporations that are found not to be or cease to be registered entities, or for the purpose of transferring a corporation from one category to another category.
- (3) In determining the category in which a corporation is to be included or in determining whether a corporation should be transferred from one category to another category, APRA must have regard to:
 - (a) the assets and liabilities of the corporation; and
 - (b) the principal methods by which the corporation ordinarily borrows moneys; and
 - (c) the principal kinds of finance ordinarily provided by the corporation;and must try to ensure that, as far as practicable, corporations carrying on the same or similar kinds of business are included in the same category.
- (4) APRA must cause a copy of the list, and, if a variation of the list is made, a copy of the variation, to be published in the Gazette.
- (5) If APRA prepares a new list in substitution for the existing list and any variations made to that list, subsection (4) applies in respect of the new list and any variation made to that list.
- (6) As soon as practicable after a corporation is included in a category or is transferred from one category to another category, APRA must notify the corporation of the category in which it has been included or to which it has been transferred.

(7) If:

- (a) after a corporation has been included in a category, the corporation requests APRA to transfer the corporation to another category; or
- (b) after a corporation has been transferred from one category to another category, the corporation requests APRA to re-transfer the corporation to the former category or to transfer the corporation to a third category;

and the corporation gives information or makes submissions to APRA in support of the request, APRA must, after taking into account the information or submissions:

- (c) reconsider the question of the category in which the corporation should be included; and
- (d) if APRA thinks that the corporation should be transferred to a different category, vary the list accordingly.

Part 3 Provision of documents to APRA

Division 1 Deferred application of this Part in relation to registered entities

Section 12

Part 3—Provision of documents to APRA

Division 1—Deferred application of this Part in relation to registered entities

12 Application

- (1) This Part does not apply in respect of registered entities until the date of commencement of Part 2.
- (2) Until that date, a reference in this Part to a financial sector entity is taken to be a reference only to such an entity that is a regulated entity.

Division 2—Determination of reporting standards and requirement to provide documents

13 Determination of reporting standards for, and the provision of, certain documents

- (1) APRA may:
- (a) determine, in writing, reporting standards that are required to be complied with by financial sector entities of a kind referred to in paragraphs 5(2)(a) to (d) with respect to any of the following documents (reporting documents):
 - (i) statements, reports, returns, certificates or other documents containing information of a financial or accounting nature relating to the business or activities of the entities;
 - (ii) surveys, reports, returns, certificates or other documents containing other information relating to the business or activities of the entities; and
 - (b) publish those reporting standards that are legislative instruments in any way that it considers appropriate.

Note: When APRA has determined a reporting standard, it has power at any time to revoke or vary the standard (see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901).

- (1A) A reporting standard is a legislative instrument, unless:
- (a) APRA considers, on reasonable grounds, that the reporting standard includes confidential information, the publication of which is likely to have a detrimental effect on:
 - (i) the stability of the financial system; or
 - (ii) the stability of one or more financial institutions; and
 - (b) APRA considers, on reasonable grounds, that the information to be contained in the reporting documents is required urgently by APRA for any of the following purposes:
 - (i) to determine the financial or prudential condition of financial sector entities;
 - (ii) to determine the nature or level of exposure that financial sector entities have to risks, including risks relating to particular transactions, entities, business sectors, asset classes or events;

Section 13

- (iii) to assess potential threats to the stability of the financial system;
 - (iv) to assist APRA, the Minister or a financial sector agency to respond to any threats to the stability of the financial system;
 - (v) to determine what, if any, action should be taken by, or in relation to, one or more financial sector entities; and
 - (c) the reporting standard does not require the information referred to in paragraph (b) to be given on an ongoing basis.
- (1B) If the Minister directs APRA under section 13C to determine reporting standards under this subsection in relation to a financial sector entity or financial sector entities, APRA must:
- (a) by legislative instrument, determine reporting standards that are required to be complied with by the financial sector entity or entities with respect to any of the following documents (reporting documents):
 - (i) statements, reports, returns, certificates or other documents containing information of a financial or accounting nature relating to the business or activities of the entities;
 - (ii) surveys, reports, returns, certificates or other documents containing other information relating to the business or activities of the entities; and
 - (b) publish those reporting standards in any way that APRA considers appropriate.
- Note: When APRA has determined a reporting standard, APRA has power at any time to revoke or vary the standard (see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901).
- (2) The reporting standards may include matters relating to:
- (a) the forms of reporting documents; and
 - (b) the information to be contained in reporting documents; and
 - (bb) the auditing of reporting documents; and
 - (c) the persons who are to sign reporting documents; and
 - (d) the times as at which, or the periods to which, the information in reporting documents is to relate; and
 - (e) the giving of reporting documents to APRA, and the specifying of, or the authorising of APRA to specify, the times before which, or the periods within which, those documents are to be so given; and

- (f) the discretion of APRA, in particular cases, to vary reporting standards, including, but not limited to, the discretion to vary any times or periods specified in or under the standards as mentioned in paragraph (e).
- (2A) Without limiting the matters that may be included in the reporting standards under paragraph (2)(b), the matters may relate to information (including personal information or tax file numbers, for example) that APRA requires to perform APRA's functions under:
 - (a) Division 2AA of Part II of the Banking Act 1959; or
 - (b) Part VC of the Insurance Act 1973.
- (3) The reporting standards may impose:
 - (a) different requirements to be complied with by different financial sector entities or classes of financial sector entities, including (to avoid doubt) requirements to be complied with only by a particular entity or particular entities; and
 - (b) different requirements to be complied with in different situations and in respect of different businesses or activities.
- (4) A reporting standard that is determined for a particular financial sector entity may, in addition to, or instead of, a reporting standard that would apply to the entity apart from this subsection, require the entity to provide information relating to the consolidated position of the entity and its subsidiaries other than subsidiaries (if any) excluded from the requirement by that reporting standard.
- (5) When preparing proposed reporting standards, subject to subsection (6), APRA must consult:
 - (a) if the standards would affect a class or classes of financial sector entities—the entities concerned or such associations or other bodies representing them as APRA thinks appropriate; or
 - (b) if the standards would affect only a particular financial sector entity or particular financial sector entities—the entity or entities concerned.
- (6) However, subsection (5) does not apply if APRA is satisfied that the delay that would be involved in holding the consultations would:

Section 13A

- (a) prejudice the interests of depositors, policy holders or members of the financial sector entity or financial sector entities concerned; or
 - (b) have a detrimental effect on the stability of the financial system.
- (7) The validity of a reporting standard is not affected by any failure of APRA to hold consultations as required by subsection (5).
- (9) If a financial sector entity is required by or under a reporting standard to give a reporting document to APRA before a particular time or within a particular period, the entity must comply with the requirement.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (10) To avoid doubt, section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 applies to an obligation imposed by subsection (9).

Note: The effect of section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 is that, if a financial sector entity to which subsection (9) applies refuses or fails to comply with a requirement before the time, or within the period, specified in the requirement, the obligation to comply with the requirement continues after that time or that period with daily offences being committed until the requirement is complied with.

- (11) An offence for a contravention of subsection (9) is an offence of strict liability.

13A Copy of reporting standard to be given to financial sector entities and the Minister etc.

- (1) If a reporting standard determined under subsection 13(1) is not a legislative instrument, APRA must, as soon as practicable after the reporting standard is determined, give a copy of the standard to:
- (a) each financial sector entity that is required to comply with the standard; and
 - (b) the Minister.
- (2) At the same time that a copy of the reporting standard is given to a financial sector entity under subsection (1), APRA must give the financial sector entity a written statement that explains the effect of section 13B.

13B Financial sector entity must not disclose that it has been given a copy of a reporting standard etc.

- (1) If APRA gives a financial sector entity a copy of a reporting standard under subsection 13A(1), the financial sector entity must not disclose to any person:
- (a) that the financial sector entity has been given a copy of the reporting standard; or
 - (b) any confidential information that is included in the reporting standard.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if:
- (a) the disclosure is to:
 - (i) APRA for the purposes of APRA performing APRA's functions under this Act or any other law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (ii) an employee, officer or contractor of the financial sector entity for the purposes of the employee, officer or contractor performing his or her duties in relation to reporting standards; or
 - (iii) to a lawyer for the financial sector entity; or
 - (b) the disclosure is authorised under an Act or another law; or
 - (c) the confidential information included in the reporting standard has already been lawfully made available to the public from other sources.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (2) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

13C Minister may direct APRA to determine reporting standards

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, direct APRA to determine reporting standards under subsection 13(1B) that are to be complied with by any of the following:
- (a) financial sector entities of a kind referred to in paragraph 5(2)(e), or a class of those entities;
 - (b) financial sector entities of a kind referred to in paragraph 5(2)(f), or a class of those entities;

Section 14

- (c) a particular financial sector entity of a kind referred to in paragraph 5(2)(e) or (f), or particular financial sector entities of that kind.
- (2) A direction under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
- (3) This section does not limit the power of APRA to determine reporting standards under subsection 13(1).

14 Principal executive officer of financial sector entity (other than a superannuation entity) to notify the entity's governing body of a failure to provide reporting documents to APRA

- (1) This section applies if a financial sector entity (other than a superannuation entity) that is required by or under a reporting standard to give a reporting document to APRA before a particular time or within a particular period fails to comply with the requirement.
- (2) It is the duty of the principal executive officer of the entity, as soon as practicable after that time or the end of that period, as the case may be, to notify the governing body of the entity in writing that the failure has occurred.
- (3) The principal executive officer of a financial sector entity must not refuse or fail to notify the governing body of the entity as required by subsection (2).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (4) An offence for a contravention of subsection (3) is an offence of strict liability.

15 When reporting standards begin to apply to particular financial sector entities

- (1) The reporting standards apply to a financial sector entity only on and after the day declared by APRA to be the day on which the standards begin to apply to the entity or to the class or kind of financial sector entities in which the entity is included.
- (2) APRA may, by writing published in the Gazette, make declarations for the purposes of subsection (1).

16 Exemptions

- (1) APRA may, by written notice, exempt a financial sector entity from the requirement to comply with:
 - (a) all the requirements contained in any one or more applicable reporting standards; or
 - (b) a specified requirement or requirements contained in an applicable reporting standard or applicable reporting standards.
- (1A) A notice under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
- (1B) APRA may, by legislative instrument, exempt a class or kind of financial sector entities from the requirement to comply with:
 - (a) all the requirements contained in any one or more applicable reporting standards; or
 - (b) a specified requirement or requirements contained in an applicable reporting standard or applicable reporting standards.
- (2) An exemption under subsection (1) or (1B) may be unconditional or subject to conditions and may be of indefinite duration or limited in the time of its operation.

17 APRA may require the variation of a reporting document or the provision of financial information

- (1) If APRA thinks that a reporting document given to APRA by a financial sector entity:
 - (a) is incorrect, incomplete or misleading; or
 - (b) does not comply with a reporting standard that applies to it; or
 - (c) does not contain information, or adequate information, about a matter;APRA may give the entity written notice requesting it to give APRA in writing such explanation or information as is specified in the notice.
- (2) The notice must specify the period within which the explanation or information is to be given. The period specified must be not less than 14 days beginning on the day on which the notice is given.

Section 17

- (3) If the notice requested the giving of an explanation and:
 - (a) the entity fails to give the explanation; or
 - (b) after considering the explanation given by the entity, APRA still thinks that the document is incorrect, incomplete or misleading or does not comply with the reporting standard; APRA may give the entity such written directions as APRA thinks necessary for the variation of the document so that it will cease to be incorrect, incomplete or misleading or will comply with the reporting standard, as the case may be.
- (4) If the notice requested the giving of information and:
 - (a) the entity fails to give the information; or
 - (b) APRA thinks that the information given is inadequate; APRA may give the entity such written directions as APRA thinks necessary for the giving of the information or the giving of adequate information.
- (5) Directions under subsection (3) or (4) must specify a period within which they are to be complied with. The period specified must not be less than 14 days beginning on the day on which the directions are given.
- (6) If, at any time, APRA is satisfied that a direction is no longer necessary or should be varied, APRA must give the financial sector entity written notice revoking or varying the direction, as the case may be.
- (7) If:
 - (a) a financial sector entity applies to APRA to revoke or vary a direction; and
 - (b) APRA thinks that the direction should be revoked or varied; APRA must give the entity written notice revoking or varying the direction, as the case may be.
- (8) A financial sector entity must comply with a direction given to it under subsection (3) or (4) or with such a direction as varied under subsection (6) or (7), as the case requires.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.
- (9) To avoid doubt, section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 applies to an obligation imposed by subsection (8).

Note: The effect of section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 is that, if a financial sector entity refuses or fails to comply with a direction before the time, or within the period, specified in the direction, the obligation to comply with the direction continues after that time or that period with daily offences being committed until the direction is complied with.

- (10) An offence for a contravention of subsection (8) is an offence of strict liability.

Division 2A—Auditing of documents

17A Application of this Division

- (1) This Division applies if a financial sector entity is required to appoint an auditor under reporting standards that relate to the collection of information that APRA requires:
 - (a) to perform APRA's functions under:
 - (i) Division 2AA of Part II of the Banking Act 1959; or
 - (ii) Part VC of the Insurance Act 1973; or
 - (b) to assist a financial sector agency to perform its functions or exercise its powers.
- (2) Also, this Division applies if a financial sector entity is required to appoint an auditor under reporting standards that APRA issued on the direction of the Minister.

17B Auditor's functions and duties

- (1) The auditor must perform the functions and duties of an auditor that are set out in the reporting standards.
- (2) The auditor must comply with the reporting standards in performing their functions and duties.
- (3) The financial sector entity must make any arrangements that are necessary to enable the auditor to perform their functions and duties.

17C Auditor must notify APRA of attempts to unduly influence etc. the auditor

- (1) If the auditor is aware of circumstances that amount to:
 - (a) an attempt by any person to unduly influence, coerce, manipulate or mislead the auditor in connection with the performance of the auditor's functions or duties; or
 - (b) an attempt by any person to otherwise interfere with the performance of the auditor's functions or duties;

the auditor must notify APRA in writing of those circumstances as soon as practicable, and in any case within 28 days, after the auditor becomes aware of those circumstances.

- (2) The auditor commits an offence if the auditor contravenes subsection (1).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months or 50 penalty units, or both.

17D Giving false or misleading information to auditor

Offence—person knows the information is false or misleading etc.

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is:
 - (i) a financial sector entity; or
 - (ii) an employee, officer or trustee of a financial sector entity; and
 - (b) the person gives information, or allows information to be given, to an auditor of the financial sector entity; and
 - (c) the information relates to the affairs of the financial sector entity; and
 - (d) the person knows that the information:
 - (i) is false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (ii) is missing something that makes the information misleading in a material respect.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 5 years or 200 penalty units, or both.

Offence—person fails to ensure the information is not false or misleading etc.

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is an employee or officer of a financial sector entity; and
 - (b) the person gives information, or allows information to be given, to an auditor of the financial sector entity; and
 - (c) the information relates to the affairs of the financial sector entity; and
 - (d) the information:
 - (i) is false or misleading in a material particular; or

Section 17D

- (ii) is missing something that makes the information misleading in a material respect; and
- (e) the person did not take reasonable steps to ensure that the information:
 - (i) was not false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (ii) was not missing something that makes the information misleading in a material respect.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years or 100 penalty units, or both.

Determining whether information is false or misleading

- (3) If information is given to the auditor in response to a question asked by the auditor, the information and the question must be considered together in determining whether the information is false or misleading.

Division 3—Administrative penalties in lieu of prosecution for certain offences

18 Application of Division

This Division applies to an offence for a contravention of subsection 9(1), (2) or (6), 13(9), 14(3) or 17(8).

19 When an infringement notice can be served

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if APRA has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed an offence or offences, APRA may cause an infringement notice to be served on the person in accordance with this Division.
- (2) An infringement notice must not relate to more than one offence unless:
 - (a) the offences are:
 - (i) an offence constituted by refusing or failing to comply with a requirement before a specified time or within a specified period; and
 - (ii) one or more daily offences constituted by refusing or failing to comply with the requirement after that time or period; or
 - (b) the offences are 2 or more daily offences constituted by refusing or failing to comply with the same requirement after the time before which, or the end of the period within which, the requirement was to be complied with.

Note: For daily offences, see section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914.

- (3) An infringement notice does not have any effect unless it is served within one year after the day on which the offence or the earlier or earliest of the offences is alleged to have been committed.

20 Matters to be included in an infringement notice

- (1) An infringement notice must:
 - (a) state the name of the person on whom it is to be served; and
 - (b) state that it is being served on behalf of APRA; and

Section 21

- (c) state:
 - (i) the nature of the alleged offence or offences; and
 - (ii) the time (if known) and date on which, and the place at which, the offence or the earlier or earliest of the offences is alleged to have been committed; and
 - (iii) the maximum penalty that a court could impose for the alleged offence or offences; and
- (d) specify a penalty that is payable under the notice in respect of the alleged offence or offences; and
- (e) state that, if the person:
 - (i) does not wish the matter to be dealt with by a court; and
 - (ii) has, within 28 days after the date of service of the notice, done the act the failure to do which constituted the offence or offences;the person may pay to APRA in that period the amount of the penalty specified in the notice; and
- (f) state that the person may make written representations to APRA seeking the withdrawal of the notice.

Note: APRA has power to extend periods stated in notices given under paragraph (1)(e) (see section 25).

- (2) An infringement notice may contain any other matters that APRA considers necessary.
- (3) The penalty to be specified in an infringement notice under paragraph (1)(d) is whichever is the lesser of:
 - (a) one-fifth of the maximum amount of the fine or fines that a court could impose for the offence or offences; or
 - (b) 50 penalty units.

21 Withdrawal of infringement notice

- (1) A person on whom an infringement notice has been served may make written representations to APRA seeking the withdrawal of the notice.
- (2) APRA may withdraw an infringement notice served on a person (whether or not the person has made representations seeking the withdrawal) by causing written notice of the withdrawal to be served on the person within the period within which the penalty specified in the infringement notice is required to be paid.

- (3) The matters to which APRA may have regard in deciding whether or not to withdraw an infringement notice include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) whether the person has previously been convicted of an offence for a contravention of this Act;
 - (b) the circumstances in which the offence or offences specified in the notice are alleged to have been committed;
 - (c) whether the person has been previously been served with an infringement notice in respect of which the person paid the penalty specified in the notice;
 - (d) any written representations made by the person.
- (4) If:
- (a) the person pays the penalty specified in the infringement notice within the period within which the penalty is required to be paid; and
 - (b) the notice is withdrawn after the person pays the penalty;
- APRA must refund to the person, out of money appropriated by the Parliament, an amount equal to the amount paid.

22 What happens if penalty is paid

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an infringement notice is served on a person; and
 - (b) the person has done the act the failure to do which constituted the offence or offences and pays the penalty specified in the notice before the end of the period referred to in paragraph 20(1)(e); and
 - (c) the infringement notice is not withdrawn.
- (2) Any liability of the person for the offence or offences specified in the notice, and for any other offence or offences constituted by the same omission, is taken to be discharged.
- (3) Further proceedings cannot be taken against the person for the offence or offences specified in the notice and proceedings cannot be taken against the person for any other offence or offences constituted by the same omission.
- (4) The person is not regarded as having been convicted of the offence or offences specified in the notice.

23 More than one infringement notice may not be served for the same offence

This Division does not permit the service of more than one infringement notice on a person for the same offence or offences.

24 Infringement notice not required to be served

This Division does not:

- (a) require an infringement notice to be served on a person in relation to an offence; or
- (b) affect the liability of a person to be prosecuted for an offence if:
 - (i) an infringement notice is not served on the person in relation to the offence or in relation to any other offence constituted by the same omission; or
 - (ii) an infringement notice served on the person in relation to the offence or in relation to any other offence constituted by the same omission has been withdrawn; or
- (c) affect the liability of a person to be prosecuted for an offence if the person does not comply with an infringement notice served on the person in relation to the offence or in relation to any other offence constituted by the same omission; or
- (d) limit the amount of the penalty that may be imposed by a court on a person convicted of an offence.

25 APRA may extend period for payment of penalty

- (1) APRA may, by writing, extend, in relation to a particular person, the period referred to in paragraph 20(1)(e).
- (2) The power of APRA under subsection (1) to extend the period may be exercised before or after the end of the period.
- (3) If APRA extends a period under subsection (1), a reference in this Division, or in a notice or other instrument under this Division, to the period is taken, in relation to the person, to be a reference to the period as so extended.

Part 3A—Review of decisions

25A Notice of reviewable decision

- (1) If APRA makes a reviewable decision (the original decision), then APRA must give a notice in writing of the original decision to the person in relation to whom the decision is made.
- (2) The notice must include a statement to the effect that:
 - (a) the person may, if dissatisfied with the original decision, seek a reconsideration of that decision by APRA in accordance with sections 25B and 25C; and
 - (b) a person whose interests are affected by the original decision may, subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, if dissatisfied with a decision made by APRA on that reconsideration confirming or varying the original decision, make application to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of the decision so confirmed or varied.

25B Request for review of decisions

- (1) A person in relation to whom a reviewable decision is made, may, if dissatisfied with the decision, request APRA to reconsider the decision.
- (2) The request must:
 - (a) be made by notice in writing; and
 - (b) be given to APRA within:
 - (i) the period of 21 days after the day on which the decision first comes to the notice of the person; or
 - (ii) within such further period as APRA allows; and
 - (c) set out the reasons for making the request.

25C Review of decision

- (1) On receiving the request, APRA:
 - (a) must reconsider the decision; and
 - (b) may, in such manner as APRA thinks fit:
 - (i) confirm the decision; or

Section 25D

- (ii) revoke the decision; or
 - (iii) vary the decision.
- (2) If APRA does not confirm, revoke or vary a decision within the period of 21 days after receiving the request to reconsider the decision, APRA is, at the end of that period, taken to have confirmed the decision under subsection (1).
- (3) If APRA confirms, revokes or varies a decision (including because of the application of subsection (2)) by the end of the period referred to in subsection (2), APRA must serve a notice on the person who made the request. The notice must:
- (a) inform the person of the result of APRA's reconsideration of the decision; and
 - (b) set out the findings on material questions of fact; and
 - (c) refer to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based; and
 - (d) give APRA's reasons for confirming, revoking or varying the decision; and
 - (e) include a statement that:
 - (i) the person may, if dissatisfied with the decision, seek a reconsideration of the decision; and
 - (ii) a person whose interests are affected by the decision may, subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, if dissatisfied with the decision, apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of the decision so confirmed or varied.
- (4) Any failure to comply with the requirements of subsection (3) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

25D Applications to Administrative Appeals Tribunal

- (1) Applications may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of decisions of APRA that have been confirmed or varied under section 25C.
- (2) If a decision is, under subsection 25C(2), taken to be confirmed, section 29 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 applies as if the prescribed time for making an application for review of the decision were the period:

- (a) beginning on the day on which the decision is taken to be confirmed; and
 - (b) ending 28 days later.
- (3) If a person makes a request under section 25B in respect of a reviewable decision, section 41 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 applies as if the making of the request were the making of an application to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of that decision.
- (4) For the purposes of:
- (a) a review of a decision of APRA that has been confirmed or varied under section 25C; or
 - (b) a request under subsection 41(2) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 in respect of such a decision;
- a non-presidential member of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal must not sit as a member of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal if he or she is a director or employee of:
- (c) an entity of any kind carrying on (whether in Australia or elsewhere) insurance business (within the meaning of the Insurance Act 1973) or life insurance business (within the meaning of the Life Insurance Act 1995); or
 - (d) if an entity referred to in paragraph (c) is a body corporate—a body corporate that is related to it.
- (5) The question whether 2 bodies corporate are related to each other for the purposes of paragraph (4)(d) is to be determined in the same way as that question is determined for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (6) An order must not be made under subsection 41(2) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 in respect of a decision except by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal.

Part 4—Miscellaneous

26 Saving of other laws

This Act is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of any other laws of the Commonwealth, or the operation of any laws of a State or Territory, in so far as those laws are capable of operating concurrently with this Act.

27 Entities may be directed to comply with Act

If a financial sector entity is convicted of an offence against this Act as a result of the entity having failed to comply with a provision of this Act or of the regulations, or with a reporting standard made or direction given by APRA, the Federal Court of Australia may direct the entity to comply, within a period specified by the Court, with the provision, reporting standard or direction, as the case may be.

28 Validity of acts and transactions of financial sector entities

The validity of an act or transaction of a financial sector entity is not affected merely because a provision of this Act or of the regulations, a reporting standard or a direction has not been complied with.

29 Corporation not to hold out that it is a registered entity

A corporation must not, in the course of carrying on any business, advertise or hold out, by the use of the words “registered under the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001”, the words “registered with APRA” or words having a similar meaning, that the corporation is a registered entity or has any special status under or because of this Act, whether or not the corporation is a registered entity.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

29A Delegation by Minister

The Minister may, in writing, delegate all or any of his or her functions or powers under this Act to:

- (a) the Secretary of the Department; or
- (b) an SES employee, or acting SES employee, in the Department.

30 Regulations

The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing all matters:

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
