- (b) matters relating to such shortfalls.

Note 1: A matter relating to a shortfall includes, for example, the requirement to keep records under section 79 in respect of the period to which the shortfall relates.

Note 2: The Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 continues to apply in relation to the determination of superannuation guarantee shortfalls for years that ended before 1 July 2003, and matters relating to those shortfalls, as if the amendments made by Part 1 of this Schedule had not been made.

194 Special rule for the first 2 quarters of the 2003-04 year—nominal interest component and administration component do not apply if charge paid by 28 April 2004

- (1) This item applies to an employer who, under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 as amended by Part 1 of this Schedule, has one or more individual superannuation guarantee shortfalls for the quarter starting on 1 July 2003 or 1 October 2003.

- (3) However, if the employer has not paid the superannuation guarantee charge on the shortfall (determined taking account of the effect of subitem (2)) in full by 28 April 2004, the employer's nominal interest component for the quarter, and the employer's administration component for the quarter, are taken to be, and always to have been, included in the employer's superannuation guarantee shortfall for the quarter.

Note: This provision does not change the day by which the superannuation guarantee charge is payable for those 2 quarters or the day on which general interest charge will begin to run.

195 Special provisions relating to conversion notices

- (1) Subject to subitem (2), the amendments made by items 17 to 21 apply in relation to conversion notices given on or after 1 July 2003 under section 6B of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992.

the employer does not, from 1 July 2003, have to comply with the requirements of paragraph 33(2)(f), subparagraph 59(2)(a)(i) and paragraph 79(2)(a) of that Act (as so continuing to apply) in relation to that shortfall and that period.

Note: This provision relieves the employer from having to comply with requirements related to the employer's annual national payroll. However, an employer whose base year is an earlier year must continue to comply with those requirements in relation to shortfalls for pre-1 July 2003 periods.

- (6) However, for the 2003-2004 year, the amount that is the previous charge percentage (which is a number that relates to the 2002-2003 year) is to be determined as if the amendments made by items 190 and 192 had not been made.
