Statute Law Revision Act 1981

No. 61 of 1981

An Act for the purposes of statute law revision, and for other purposes

[Assented to 12 June 1981]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen, and the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows:

PART I—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Statute Law Revision Act 1981.

Commencement

2. (1) Subject to this section, this Act shall come into operation on the day on which it receives the Royal Assent.
(2) Parts III, X and XV and section 116 shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by Proclamation.
(3) Part VI shall be deemed to have come into operation on 31 August 1980.
(4) Part VII shall be deemed to have come into operation on 28 May 1980.
(5) Part IX shall be deemed to have come into operation on 19 October 1979.
(6) Part XIII shall come into operation, or shall be deemed to have come into operation, as the case requires, on the day after the day on which Part II of the Petroleum (Submerged Lands—Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 1981 comes or came into operation.

(7) Sections 58 and 59 shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1 November 1979.

(8) Part XVII shall be deemed to have come into operation on 15 March 1981.

(9) Part XXII shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1 February 1977.

(10) Divisions 2 and 3 of Part XXIII shall come into operation on such date as is, or on such respective dates as are, fixed by Proclamation.

PART II—AMENDMENT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS TRIBUNAL ACT 1975

Principal Act

3. The *Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975*¹ is in this Part referred to as the Principal Act.

Schedule

4. (1) The Schedule to the Principal Act is amended by omitting Parts IV, V, VIII, X, XVI, XVII, XXI, XXII, XXIV^A and XXV.

(2) The amendment made by sub-section (1) does not affect any application made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal before the commencement of this section, or any matter or thing arising out of, or any proceeding incidental to or connected with, any such application.

PART III—AMENDMENTS OF THE AIR FORCE ACT 1923

Principal Act

5. The *Air Force Act 1923*² is in this Part referred to as the Principal Act.

Australian Air Force

6. Section 4A of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “Citizen Air Force” and substituting “Australian Air Force Reserve”.

Permanent Air Force

7. Section 4B of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “Citizen Air Force” and substituting “Australian Air Force Reserve”.

Air Force Emergency Force

8. Section 4C is amended by omitting “Citizen Air Force” and substituting “Australian Air Force Reserve”.

9. Section 4D of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted:

Australian Air Force Reserve

“4D. (1) The Australian Air Force Reserve consists of the Air Force Active Reserve, the Air Force General Reserve and the Air Force Specialist Reserve.

“(2) The Active Citizen Air Force in existence immediately before the commencement of this section continues in existence as a force forming part of the Australian Air Force Reserve, under the name Air Force Active Reserve, but so that the identity and membership of the force is not affected.

“(3) The Air Force Reserve in existence immediately before the commencement of this section continues in existence as a force forming part of the Australian Air Force Reserve, under the name Air Force General Reserve, but so that the identity and membership of the force is not affected.

“(4) The Air Force Active Reserve consists of officers appointed to, and airmen enlisted in, that Reserve and of such officers as are transferred to that Reserve from the Permanent Air Force, the Air Force Emergency Force or another part of the Australian Air Force Reserve.

“(5) The Air Force General Reserve consists of officers appointed to, and airmen enlisted in, that Reserve and of such officers as are transferred to that Reserve from the Permanent Air Force, the Air Force Emergency Force or another part of the Australian Air Force Reserve.

“(6) The Air Force Specialist Reserve consists of officers appointed to, and airmen enlisted in, that Reserve and of such officers as are transferred to that Reserve from the Permanent Air Force, the Air Force Emergency Force or another part of the Australian Air Force Reserve.”.

Service of the Permanent Air Force

10. Section 4G of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting sub-section (1) and substituting the following sub-section:
“(1) Members of the Permanent Air Force are bound to render continuous full time air-force service.”; and
- (b) by inserting in sub-section (2) “full time air-force” after “continuous”.

Service of the Air Force Emergency Force

11. Section 4H of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting from sub-section (1) “serve continuously” and substituting “render continuous full time air-force service”;
- (b) by inserting in sub-section (2) “full time air-force” after “continuous”;
and
- (c) by inserting in sub-section (3) “full time air-force” after “continuous” (first occurring).

Service of the Australian Air Force Reserve

12. Section 4J of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting sub-sections (1) and (2) and substituting the following sub-sections:
“(1) Subject to this section, members of the Australian Air Force Reserve are not bound to render continuous full time air-force service.

“(2) The regulations shall fix, or make provision for fixing, training periods in respect of the Air Force Active Reserve and the Air Force Specialist Reserve, or different training periods in respect of different parts, or different classes of members, of those Reserves.

“(2A) Members of the Air Force Active Reserve or the Air Force Specialist Reserve are bound to render, in each training period, air-force service, other than continuous full time air-force service, for such periods as are fixed by or in accordance with the regulations, unless exempted by or in accordance with the regulations from the obligation to render the whole or a part of that service.

“(2B) The regulations—

- (a) may make provision for different periods of air-force service with respect to different parts, or different classes of members, of the Air Force Active Reserve or the Air Force Specialist Reserve; and
- (b) may make provision for exempting—
 - (i) a particular member of the Air Force Active Reserve or the Air Force Specialist Reserve; or
 - (ii) members within a specified class of members of the Air Force Active Reserve or the Air Force Specialist Reserve, from the obligation to render, during a training period, the whole or part of the air-force service that he or they would otherwise be bound to render during that period.”;
- (b) by omitting from sub-section (3) “Citizen Air Force” and substituting “Australian Air Force Reserve”; and
- (c) by omitting sub-section (4) and substituting the following sub-sections:

“(4) A member of the Australian Air Force Reserve may at any time voluntarily undertake to render air-force service, other than continuous full time air-force service, for a period or periods specified by him, and, if that undertaking is accepted, the member is bound to render air-force service in accordance with that undertaking or for such period or periods within that specified period, or within those specified periods, as the case may be, as the prescribed authority directs.

“(5) Where a period is fixed, for the purposes of this sub-section, by or in accordance with the regulations, in respect of a part, or a class of members, of the Air Force Active Reserve or the Air Force Specialist Reserve, a member of that Reserve included in that part or class may, in addition to rendering air-force service that he is bound to render in pursuance of sub-section (2A) or (4), render voluntarily, in a training period, air-force service for a period not exceeding, or for periods not exceeding in the aggregate, the period so fixed.

“(6) Where a kind or kinds of air-force service is or are fixed, for the purposes of this sub-section, by or in accordance with the regulations in respect of a part, or a class of members, of the Air Force Active

Reserve or the Air Force Specialist Reserve, being a part or class in respect of which a period is fixed for the purposes of sub-section (5), that sub-section does not authorize a member of that Reserve included in that part or class to render voluntarily air-force service of a kind other than a kind so fixed.

“(7) Nothing in this section affects the liability of a member of the Australian Air Force Reserve to be employed on continuous full time air-force service while he is a member of a part of that Reserve called out for such service under section 50A or 51 of the Defence Act.”.

Transitional and savings

13. (1) The Australian Air Force Reserve is, for all purposes, a continuation, under that name, of the part of the Air Force previously known as the Citizen Air Force.

(2) Where, immediately before the proclaimed date, a period of air-force service that was to be rendered during a period (in this sub-section referred to as “the relevant period”) that commenced before, and ends after, that date was fixed for the purposes of section 4J of the Principal Act with respect to a part, or a class of members, of the Citizen Air Force that is continued in existence on and after that date under the name Australian Air Force Reserve—

- (a) the amendments of section 4J of the Principal Act made by this Act do not apply to or in relation to members of that part or class of the Australian Air Force Reserve (including persons who become members of that part or class after that date) until the expiration of the relevant period; and
- (b) section 4J of the Principal Act and the regulations in force for the purposes of that section immediately before that date continue to apply, notwithstanding those amendments, to and in relation to those members as if those amendments had not been made.

(3) All regulations in force under the Principal Act immediately before the proclaimed date continue in force except insofar as they are inconsistent with the Principal Act as amended by this Act, but any such regulations may be amended or repealed by regulations made under the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

(4) In this section, “proclaimed date” means the date that is fixed by Proclamation under sub-section 2 (2).

50. Section 113 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “the Reserve Forces or of the Citizen Forces” and substituting “the Emergency Forces or of the Reserve Forces”.

Transitional and savings

51. (1) The Australian Army Reserve is, for all purposes, a continuation, under that name, of the part of the Army previously known as the Citizen Military Forces.

(2) The reserve of officers referred to in section 25 of the Principal Act shall be deemed to have been disbanded upon the proclaimed date.

(3) All officers whose names were, immediately before the proclaimed date, included on the reserve of officers list kept in accordance with section 25 of the Principal Act shall, on that date, be deemed to have been duly appointed to the Inactive Australian Army Reserve, and the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act and the regulations in force under the Principal Act as so amended apply to and in relation to them accordingly.

(4) An officer serving in the Regular Army Reserve immediately before the proclaimed date shall, on that date, be deemed to have been duly appointed to the Inactive Australian Army Reserve, and the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act and the regulations in force under the Principal Act as so amended apply to and in relation to him accordingly.

(5) A soldier serving in the Regular Army Reserve immediately before the proclaimed date shall, on that date, be deemed, for all purposes of this Act, to have been engaged to serve in the Inactive Australian Army Reserve for a period equal to the balance of the period for which he had been engaged to serve in the Regular Army Reserve and, subject to sub-section (6), the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act and the regulations in force under the Principal Act as so amended apply to and in relation to him accordingly.

(6) A soldier serving in the Regular Army Reserve immediately before the proclaimed date shall not, in relation to his being deemed to have been so engaged to serve in the Inactive Australian Army Reserve, take and subscribe a fresh oath or make a fresh affirmation but, upon his being deemed to have been so engaged, references to the Regular Army Reserve in the oath taken and subscribed by him, or in the affirmation made by him, at the time of his having been engaged to serve in the Regular Army Reserve shall be deemed to include references to the Inactive Australian Army Reserve.

(7) Where, immediately before the proclaimed date, a period of military service that was to be rendered during a period (in this sub-section referred to as “the relevant period”) that commenced before, and ends after, that date was fixed for the purposes of section 50 of the Principal Act with respect to a part, or a class of members, of the Citizen Military Forces that is continued in existence on and after that date under the name Australian Army Reserve—

- (a) the amendments of section 50 of the Principal Act made by this Act do not apply to or in relation to members of that part or class of the Australian Army Reserve (including persons who become members of that part or class after that date) until the expiration of the relevant period; and
- (b) section 50 of the Principal Act and the regulations in force for the purposes of that section immediately before that date continue to apply, notwithstanding those amendments, to and in relation to those members as if those amendments had not been made.

(8) All regulations in force under the Principal Act immediately before the proclaimed date continue in force except insofar as they are inconsistent with the Principal Act as amended by this Act, but any such regulations may be amended or repealed by regulations made under the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

(9) In this section, “proclaimed date” means the date that is fixed by Proclamation under sub-section 2 (2).
