“(2) An emergency declaration ceases to be in force at the end of 30 days after it is made or such longer period, not exceeding 44 days, after it is made as the Minister fixes in any case unless it is sooner revoked or replaced by a temporary declaration under section 21D or a declaration under section 21E.

“(8) The Minister shall, after receiving a request under subsection (6) or (7), appoint an arbitrator, being a person whom the Minister considers to be in a position to deal with the matter impartially.

“(9) Subject to section 21F, a temporary declaration of preservation ceases to be in force at the end of 60 days after it is made, or such longer period, not exceeding 120 days, after it is made as the Minister, on the advice of the local Aboriginal community, fixes unless it is sooner revoked or replaced by a declaration under section 21E.

Declaration of preservation

“(2) Subject to subsection (3), a decision of the Minister as varied by an arbitrator, or a decision made by an arbitrator in substitution for a decision of the Minister, shall, except for the purposes of subsection 21D (7) or 21E (6), be deemed to be a decision of the Minister and has effect, unless the arbitrator otherwise determines, on and from the day on which the decision of the Minister had effect.

“(3) Where the decision of an arbitrator results in the making of a declaration under section 21D or 21E, or the variation of a declaration made by the Minister under one of those sections, the declaration or variation, as the case may be, has effect on and from the day on which the decision of the arbitrator is made.
