Chapter 2B—Basic features of a company

Part 2B.1—Company powers and how they are exercised

124 Legal capacity and powers of a company

- (1) A company has the legal capacity and powers of an individual both in and outside this jurisdiction. A company also has all the powers of a body corporate, including the power to:
 - (a) issue and cancel shares in the company
 - (b) issue debentures
 - (c) grant options over unissued shares in the company
 - (d) distribute any of the company's property among the members, in kind or otherwise
 - (e) give security by charging uncalled capital

A company limited by guarantee does not have the power to issue shares.

Note: For a company's power to issue bonus, partly-paid, preference and redeemable preference shares, see section 254A.

- (2) A company's legal capacity to do something is not affected by the fact that the company's interests are not, or would not be, served by doing it.

125 Constitution may limit powers and set out objects

- (1) If a company has a constitution, it may contain an express restriction on, or a prohibition of, the company's exercise of any of its powers. The exercise of a power by the company is not invalid merely because it is contrary to an express restriction or prohibition in the company's constitution.

- (2) If a company has a constitution, it may set out the company's objects. An act of the company is not invalid merely because it is contrary to or beyond any objects in the company's constitution.

126 Agent exercising a company's power to make contracts

- (1) A company's power to make, vary, ratify or discharge a contract may be exercised by an individual acting with the company's express or implied authority and on behalf of the company. The power may be exercised without using a common seal.
- (2) This section does not affect the operation of a law that requires a particular procedure to be complied with in relation to the contract.

127 Execution of documents (including deeds) by the company itself

- (1) A company may execute a document without using a common seal if the document is signed by:
 - (a) 2 directors of the company; or
 - (b) a director and a company secretary of the company; or
 - (c) for a proprietary company that has a sole director who is also the sole company secretary—that director.

Note: If a company executes a document in this way, people will be able to rely on the assumptions in subsection 129(5) for dealings in relation to the company.

- (2) A company with a common seal may execute a document if the seal is fixed to the document and the fixing of the seal is witnessed by:
 - (a) 2 directors of the company; or
 - (b) a director and a company secretary of the company; or
 - (c) for a proprietary company that has a sole director who is also the sole company secretary—that director.

The Corporations Law—Section 127

Note: If a company executes a document in this way, people will be able to rely on the assumptions in subsection 129(6) for dealings in relation to the company.

- (3) A company may execute a document as a deed if the document is expressed to be executed as a deed and is executed in accordance with subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) This section does not limit the ways in which a company may execute a document (including a deed).

Part 2B.2—Assumptions people dealing with companies are entitled to make

128 Entitlement to make assumptions

- (1) A person is entitled to make the assumptions in section 129 in relation to dealings with a company. The company is not entitled to assert in proceedings in relation to the dealings that any of the assumptions are incorrect.
- (2) A person is entitled to make the assumptions in section 129 in relation to dealings with another person who has, or purports to have, directly or indirectly acquired title to property from a company. The company and the other person are not entitled to assert in proceedings in relation to the dealings that any of the assumptions are incorrect.
- (3) The assumptions may be made even if an officer or agent of the company acts fraudulently, or forges a document, in connection with the dealings.
- (4) A person is not entitled to make an assumption in section 129 if at the time of the dealings they knew or suspected that the assumption was incorrect.

129 Assumptions that can be made under section 128

Constitution and replaceable rules complied with

- (1) A person may assume that the company's constitution (if any), and any provisions of this Law that apply to the company as replaceable rules, have been complied with.

The Corporations Law—Section 129

Director or company secretary

- (2) A person may assume that anyone who appears, from information provided by the company that is available to the public from ASIC, to be a director or a company secretary of the company:
- (a) has been duly appointed; and
 - (b) has authority to exercise the powers and perform the duties customarily exercised or performed by a director or company secretary of a similar company.

Officer or agent

- (3) A person may assume that anyone who is held out by the company to be an officer or agent of the company:
- (a) has been duly appointed; and
 - (b) has authority to exercise the powers and perform the duties customarily exercised or performed by that kind of officer or agent of a similar company.

Proper performance of duties

- (4) A person may assume that the officers and agents of the company properly perform their duties to the company.

Document duly executed without seal

- (5) A person may assume that a document has been duly executed by the company if the document appears to have been signed in accordance with subsection 127(1). For the purposes of making the assumption, a person may also assume that anyone who signs the document and states next to their signature that they are the sole director and sole company secretary of the company occupies both offices.

Document duly executed with seal

- (6) A person may assume that a document has been duly executed by the company if:

The Corporations Law—Section 130

- (a) the company's common seal appears to have been fixed to the document in accordance with subsection 127(2); and
- (b) the fixing of the common seal appears to have been witnessed in accordance with that subsection.

For the purposes of making the assumption, a person may also assume that anyone who witnesses the fixing of the common seal and states next to their signature that they are the sole director and sole company secretary of the company occupies both offices.

Officer or agent with authority to warrant that document is genuine or true copy

- (7) A person may assume that an officer or agent of the company who has authority to issue a document or a certified copy of a document on its behalf also has authority to warrant that the document is genuine or is a true copy.
- (8) Without limiting the generality of this section, the assumptions that may be made under this section apply for the purposes of this section.

130 Information available to the public from ASIC does not constitute constructive notice

- (1) A person is not taken to have information about a company merely because the information is available to the public from ASIC.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a document that has been lodged with ASIC to the extent that the document relates to a charge that is registrable under this Law.

Part 2B.3—Contracts before registration

131 Contracts before registration

- (1) If a person enters into, or purports to enter into, a contract on behalf of, or for the benefit of, a company before it is registered, the company becomes bound by the contract and entitled to its benefit if the company, or a company that is reasonably identifiable with it, is registered and ratifies the contract:
 - (a) within the time agreed to by the parties to the contract; or
 - (b) if there is no agreed time—within a reasonable time after the contract is entered into.

- (2) The person is liable to pay damages to each other party to the pre-registration contract if the company is not registered, or the company is registered but does not ratify the contract or enter into a substitute for it:
 - (a) within the time agreed to by the parties to the contract; or
 - (b) if there is no agreed time—within a reasonable time after the contract is entered into.

The amount that the person is liable to pay to a party is the amount the company would be liable to pay to the party if the company had ratified the contract and then did not perform it at all.

- (3) If proceedings are brought to recover damages under subsection (2) because the company is registered but does not ratify the pre-registration contract or enter into a substitute for it, the court may do anything that it considers appropriate in the circumstances, including ordering the company to do 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) pay all or part of the damages that the person is liable to pay
 - (b) transfer property that the company received because of the contract to a party to the contract
 - (c) pay an amount to a party to the contract.

The Corporations Law—Section 132

- (4) If the company ratifies the pre-registration contract but fails to perform all or part of it, the court may order the person to pay all or part of the damages that the company is ordered to pay.

132 Person may be released from liability but is not entitled to indemnity

- (1) A party to the pre-registration contract may release the person from all or part of their liability under section 131 to the party by signing a release.
- (2) Despite any rule of law or equity, the person does not have any right of indemnity against the company in respect of the person's liability under this Part. This is so even if the person was acting, or purporting to act, as trustee for the company.

133 This Part replaces other rights and liabilities

This Part replaces any rights or liabilities anyone would otherwise have on the pre-registration contract.

Part 2B.4—Replaceable rules and constitution

134 Internal management of companies

A company's internal management may be governed by provisions of this Law that apply to the company as replaceable rules, by a constitution or by a combination of both.

Note: There are additional rules about internal management in ordinary provisions of this Law and also in the common law.

135 Replaceable rules

Companies to which replaceable rules apply

- (1) A section or subsection (except subsection 129(1), this section and sections 140 and 141) whose heading contains the words:
 - (a) replaceable rule—applies as a replaceable rule to:
 - (i) each company that is registered after the commencement of this Part; and
 - (ii) any company registered before that commencement that repeals its constitution after that commencement; and
 - (b) replaceable rule for proprietary companies and mandatory rule for public companies—applies:
 - (i) as a replaceable rule to any proprietary company that is registered after the commencement of this Part; and
 - (ii) as a replaceable rule to any company that is registered after that commencement and that changes to a proprietary company (but only while it is a proprietary company); and
 - (iii) as a replaceable rule to any proprietary company registered before that commencement that repeals its constitution after that commencement; and
 - (iv) as an ordinary provision of this Law to any public company whenever registered.

The Corporations Law—Section 136

The section or subsection does not apply to a proprietary company while the same person is both its sole director and sole shareholder.

Note 1: See section 224B for the special provisions that apply to a proprietary company while the same person is both its sole director and sole shareholder.

Note 2: A company may include in its constitution (by reference or otherwise) a replaceable rule that does not otherwise apply to it.

Company's constitution can displace or modify replaceable rules

- (2) A provision of a section or subsection that applies to a company as a replaceable rule can be displaced or modified by the company's constitution.

Failure to comply with replaceable rules

- (3) A failure to comply with the replaceable rules as they apply to a company is not of itself a contravention of this Law (so the provisions about criminal liability, civil liability and injunctions do not apply).

Note: Replaceable rules that apply to a company have effect as a contract (see section 140).

136 Constitution of a company

- (1) A company adopts a constitution:
- (a) on registration—if each person specified in the application for the company's registration as a person who consents to become a member agrees in writing to the terms of a constitution before the application is lodged; or
 - (b) after registration—if the company passes a special resolution adopting a constitution.

Note: The memorandum and articles of a company immediately before the commencement of this Part are taken together to make up the company's constitution after commencement (see section 1414).

- (2) The company may modify or repeal its constitution, or a provision of its constitution, by special resolution.

The Corporations Law—Section 137

- (3) The company’s constitution may provide that the special resolution does not have any effect unless a further requirement specified in the constitution relating to that modification or repeal has been complied with.
- (4) Unless the constitution provides otherwise, the company may modify or repeal a further requirement described in subsection (3) only if the further requirement is itself complied with.
- (5) A public company must lodge with ASIC a copy of a special resolution adopting, modifying or repealing its constitution within 14 days after it is passed. The company must also lodge with ASIC within that period:
 - (a) if the company adopts a constitution—a copy of that constitution; or
 - (b) if the company modifies its constitution—a copy of that modification.

This also applies to a proprietary company that has applied under Part 2B.7 to change to a public company, while its application has not yet been determined.

137 Date of effect of adoption, modification or repeal of constitution

- (1) A special resolution adopting, modifying or repealing a company’s constitution takes effect:
 - (a) if no later date is specified in the resolution—on the date on which the resolution is passed; or
 - (b) on a later date specified in, or determined in accordance with, the resolution.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the date of effect of a special resolution passed in connection with a change of name, change of type or a variation or cancellation of class rights.

Note: For the date of effect of these changes, see subsection 157(3) (name), subsection 164(5) (type) and subsection 246D(3) and section 246E (class rights).

138 ASIC may direct company to lodge consolidated constitution

ASIC may direct a company to lodge a consolidated copy of its constitution with ASIC.

139 Company must send copy of constitution to member

A company must send a copy of its constitution to a member of the company within 7 days if the member:

- (a) asks the company, in writing, for the copy; and
- (b) pays any fee (up to the prescribed amount) required by the company.

140 Effect of constitution and replaceable rules

- (1) A company's constitution (if any) and any replaceable rules that apply to the company have effect as a contract:
 - (a) between the company and each member; and
 - (b) between the company and each director and company secretary; and
 - (c) between a member and each other member;under which each person agrees to observe and perform the constitution and rules so far as they apply to that person.
- (2) Unless a member of a company agrees in writing to be bound, they are not bound by a modification of the constitution made after the date on which they became a member so far as the modification:
 - (a) requires the member to take up additional shares; or
 - (b) increases the member's liability to contribute to the share capital of, or otherwise to pay money to, the company; or
 - (c) imposes or increases restrictions on the right to transfer the shares already held by the member, unless the modification is made:
 - (i) in connection with the company's change from a public company to a proprietary company under Part 2B.7; or
 - (ii) to insert takeover approval provisions of a kind referred to in section 671.

The Corporations Law—Section 141

- (2) A company must lodge notice of a change of address of its registered office with ASIC not later than 14 days after the date on which the change occurs. The notice must be in the prescribed form.

Note: If the company is not to be the occupier of premises at the address of its new registered office, the notice must state that the occupier has consented to the address being specified in the notice and has not withdrawn that consent (see section 100).

- (3) A notice of change of address takes effect from the later of:
- (a) the 7th day after the notice was lodged; or

Note: ASIC can require the company to produce the consent (see section 100).

- (2) If ASIC becomes aware that the occupier of those premises:

The Corporations Law—Section 144

- (a) has not consented to the use of the premises as the address of the company's registered office; or
 - (b) has withdrawn the consent;
- ASIC may give written notice to a director of the company who resides in Australia that ASIC intends to change the address of the company's registered office to the director's address.
- (3) If ASIC is not notified of the address of the company's proposed new registered office under subsection 142(2) within 14 days after the notice under subsection (2) is sent, ASIC may change the address of the company's registered office to the director's address.

Part 2B.6—Names

Division 1—Selecting and using a name

147 When a name is available

Name is available unless identical or unacceptable

 - (a) identical (under rules set out in the regulations) to a name that is reserved or registered under this Law for another body; or

 - (c) unacceptable for registration under the regulations.

Minister may consent to a name being available to a company

- (2) The Minister may consent in writing to a name being available to a company even if the name is:
 - (a) identical to a name that is reserved or registered under this Law for another body; or

- requires the company to pursue charitable purposes only and to apply its income in promoting those purposes; and
 - prohibits the company making distributions to its members and paying fees to its directors; and
 - requires the directors to approve all other payments the company makes to directors.
- (2) The company must notify ASIC as soon as practicable if any of those requirements or prohibitions in its constitution are not complied with or if its constitution is modified to remove any of those requirements or prohibitions.

151 Exception to requirement for using “Limited” in name—

If the company's name appears on 2 or more pages of the document or instrument, this must be done on the first of those pages.

Note 1: If a company has a common seal, its name and ACN must be set out on the seal (see section 123).

Note 2: A public company must display its name at its registered office. Every company must display its name at places at which the company carries on business and that are open to the public (see section 144).

Note 3: Section 149 provides that "ACN" is an acceptable abbreviation of "Australian Company Number".

154 Exception to requirement to have ACN on receipts

A company does not have to set out the expression "Australian Company Number" followed by its ACN on a receipt (for example, a cash register receipt) that sets out information recorded in the machine that produced the receipt.

155 Regulations may exempt from requirement to set out information on documents

The regulations may exempt a specified company, or a class of companies, from the requirement in subsection 153(2) to set out information on its public documents and negotiable instruments. The exemption may relate to specified documents or instruments, or a class of documents or instruments.

- (2) The company must lodge a copy of the special resolution with ASIC within 14 days after it is passed.

- (4) A change of name under subsection (3) takes effect when ASIC alters the details of the company's registration.

159 ASIC's power to include "Limited" in company's name

- (1) ASIC may change a company's name so that it includes the word "Limited" by altering the details of the company's registration to reflect the change if:

 - (b) the company modifies its constitution to remove any of those requirements or prohibitions; or
 - (c) ASIC revokes a licence referred to in section 151 that applies to the company.
- (2) The change of name takes effect when ASIC alters the details of the company's registration.

Note: For the evidentiary value of a certificate of registration, see subsection 1274(7A).

161 Effect of name change

- (1) A change of company name does not:

The Corporations Law—Section 161

- (2) Any legal proceedings that could have been continued or begun by or against the company in its former name may be continued or begun by or against it in its new name.

The Corporations Law—Section 163

- (b) under the constitution the company has no contractual right to recover calls made on its shares from a shareholder who fails to pay them; and
- (c) all the company's issued shares are fully paid up.

Note: Section 9 defines mining purposes and minerals.

- (3) The company must lodge a copy of the special resolution with ASIC within 14 days after it is passed.
- (4) A special resolution to change an unlimited company that has share capital to a company limited by shares may also provide that a specified portion of its uncalled share capital may only be called up if the company becomes an externally-administered body corporate.

Note 2: The company must lodge information relating to any change of rights attached to its shares, or any division or conversion of its shares into new classes, occurring after the application is lodged (see section 246F).

Company limited by guarantee to company limited by shares

- (3) If shares will be issued to persons under paragraph 166(2)(c) on the change of type from a company limited by guarantee to a company limited by shares, the application must state:

Note: An offer of shares associated with a proposed change of type may be subject to the prospectus provisions (see section 1018).

- (4) The application must be in the prescribed form.
- (5) The company must have the consents referred to in paragraph (3)(e) (if any) when the application is lodged. The company must keep the consents.

164 ASIC changes type of company

- (1) ASIC must give notice under subsection (3) that it intends to alter the details of the company's registration if:
 - (a) ASIC is satisfied that:
 - (i) the application complies with section 163; and
 - (ii) for an application by a company limited by guarantee to change to a company limited by shares—the company's creditors are not likely to be materially prejudiced by the change; and that the obligations that would attach to the shares are unreasonable compared with the obligations that attach to membership of the company limited by guarantee.

- (2) To make a decision under subparagraph (1)(a)(ii), ASIC may direct the company in writing to:
 - (a) notify some or all of its creditors of the proposed change in the way ASIC specifies; and

The notice must also state that ASIC will alter the details of the company's registration 1 month after the notice has been published in the Gazette unless an order by a court or the Administrative Appeals Tribunal prevents it from doing so.
- (4) Subject to an order made by a court or the Administrative Appeals Tribunal within that month, after that month has passed ASIC must alter the details of the company's registration to reflect the company's new type.
- (5) A change of type under this section takes effect when ASIC alters the details of the company's registration. Despite subsection 246D(3) and section 246E, a special resolution passed in connection with the change of type also takes effect when ASIC alters the details of the company's registration.
- (6) ASIC must give the company a new certificate of registration after it alters the details of the company's registration. The company's name is the name specified in the certificate of registration issued under this section.

Note: For the evidentiary value of a certificate of registration, see subsection 1274(7A).

The Corporations Law—Section 165

- (7) If ASIC alters the details of a company's registration under subsection (4), a court is not to make an order reversing the alteration of the details of the company's registration.

Note: The Administrative Appeals Tribunal cannot review the change of the company's type once ASIC has issued a new certificate of registration to the company (see subsection 1274(7A) and paragraph 1317C(b)).

165 ASIC may direct a proprietary company to change to a public company in certain circumstances

- (1) ASIC may direct a proprietary company in writing to change to a public company within 2 months if it is satisfied that the company has contravened section 113 (requirements for proprietary companies).
- (2) The company must comply with the direction within 2 months after being given it by doing everything necessary to change to a public company under section 164.
- (3) If a proprietary company does not comply with subsection (2), ASIC may change the company from a proprietary to a public company by altering the details of the company's registration to reflect the company's new type.
- (4) A change of type under this section takes effect when ASIC alters the details of the company's registration.
- (5) ASIC must give the company a new certificate of registration after it alters the details of the company's registration under subsection (3). The company's name is the name specified in the certificate of registration issued under this section.

Note: For the evidentiary value of a certificate of registration, see subsection 1274(7A).

166 Effect of change of type

- (1) A change of type does not:
(a) create a new legal entity; or

The Corporations Law—Section 167

- (b) affect the company’s existing property, rights or obligations (except as against the members of the company in their capacity as members); or
 - (c) render defective any legal proceedings by or against the company or its members.
- (2) On the change of type of a company from a company limited by guarantee to a company limited by shares:
- (a) the liability of each member and past member as a guarantor on the winding up of the company is extinguished; and
 - (b) the members cease to be members of the company; and
 - (c) if shares are to be issued to a person as specified in the list referred to in subsection 163(3):
 - (i) the shares are taken to be issued to that person; and
 - (ii) the person is taken to have consented to be a member of the company; and
 - (iii) the person becomes a member of the company.

Note: The company must maintain a register of members that complies with subsection 169(3).

167 Issue of shares by company or holding company—company limited by guarantee changing to company limited by shares

- (1) If:
- (a) a company limited by guarantee changes type under this Part to a company limited by shares; and
 - (b) that company, or another company that beneficially owns all the shares in that company, issues shares to a person who was a member of that company immediately before the change of type took effect;
- the person becomes a member of the company issuing the shares if:
- (c) the issue of the shares is in accordance with the special resolution that accompanied the application to change type under subparagraph 163(2)(a)(ii); and
 - (d) the shares are fully paid up; and

The Corporations Law—Section 167

- (e) the business, assets and liabilities of the issuing company (together with its subsidiaries) when the shares are issued are substantially the same as the business, assets and liabilities of the company changing type (together with its subsidiaries) immediately before the change of type took effect.
- (2) If shares are issued according to this section, a court is not to make an order reversing the issue of the shares.

Chapter 2C—Registers

167A Who is covered by this Chapter

- (1) This Chapter covers:
 - (a) all companies; and
 - (b) all registered schemes.
- (2) A registered scheme's responsible entity:
 - (a) must perform the obligations imposed under this Chapter in respect of the scheme; and
 - (b) may exercise the powers given by this Chapter in respect of the scheme.

168 Registers to be maintained

- (1) A company or registered scheme must set up and maintain:
 - (a) a register of members (see section 169); and
 - (b) if the company or scheme grants options over unissued shares or interests—a register of option holders and copies of options documents (see section 170); and
 - (c) if the company issues debentures—a register of debenture holders (see section 171).

Note 1: See also section 271 (register of charges) and section 702 (register of unclaimed property of dissenting shareholders).

Note 2: The registers may be kept on computer (see section 1306).

- (2) Extended reach of debenture concept

For the purposes of this Chapter, documents that fall into one of the exceptions in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (f) of the definition of debenture in section 9 are treated as if they were debentures.

169 Register of members

- (1) General requirements

The Corporations Law—Section 169

The register of members must contain the following information about each member:

- (a) the member's name and address
- (b) the date on which the entry of the member's name in the register is made.

(2) Index to register

If the company or scheme has more than 50 members, the company or scheme must include in the register an up-to-date index of members' names. The index must be convenient to use and allow a member's entry in the register to be readily found. A separate index need not be included if the register itself is kept in a form that operates effectively as an index.

(3) Companies with share capital

If the company has a share capital, the register must also show:

- (a) the date on which every allotment of shares takes place; and
- (b) the number of shares in each allotment; and
- (c) the shares held by each member; and
- (d) the class of shares; and
- (e) the share numbers (if any), or share certificate numbers (if any), of the shares; and
- (f) the amount unpaid on the shares (if any).

Note 1: Transfers of shares are entered in the register under section 1092. Section 1091C deals with the registration of trustees etc. on the death, incapacity or bankruptcy of the shareholder.

Note 2: For the treatment of joint holders see subsection (8).

(4) The register does not have to show the amount unpaid on the shares (see paragraph (1)(f)) if:

- (a) all of the company's shares were issued before Schedule 2 of the Company Law Review Act 1997 commenced; and
- (b) the register continues to show the par values of the shares as they were immediately before that commencement.

 The Corporations Law—Section 169

- (5) The register does not have to show the amount unpaid on the shares (see paragraph (1)(f)) if:
- (a) all of the company's shares were issued before Schedule 5 of the Company Law Review Act 1998 commenced; and
 - (b) the register continues to show amount of unpaid par value for the shares as they were immediately before that commencement.

(5) Non-beneficial ownership—companies other than listed companies

The register of a company that:

- (a) has a share capital; and
- (b) is neither a listed company (within the meaning of section 603) nor a company covered by an order under section 707; must indicate any shares that a member does not hold beneficially.

Note: See also section 1096A (in particular, subsection 1096A(9) which contains relevant presumptions about beneficial ownership).

- (6) In deciding for the purposes of subsection (5) whether a member holds shares beneficially or non-beneficially, the company is to have regard only to information in notices given to the company under section 1096A, 720 or 722.

Registered schemes

- (6A) The register of a registered scheme must also show:
- (a) the date on which every issue of interests takes place; and
 - (b) the number of interests in each issue; and
 - (c) the interests held by each member; and
 - (d) the class of interests; and
 - (e) the amount paid, or agreed to be considered as paid, on the interests.

(7) Former members

A register of members must also show:

The Corporations Law—Section 170

- (a) the name and details of each person who stopped being a member of the company or scheme within the last 7 years; and
- (b) the date on which the person stopped being a member.

The company or scheme may keep these entries separately from the rest of the register.

Joint holders

- (8) For the purposes of this section, 2 or more persons who jointly hold shares in the company or interests in the scheme are taken to be a single member of the company or scheme in relation to those shares or interests. They may also be members of the company or scheme because of shares or interests that they hold in their own right or jointly with others.

170 Register of option holders and copies of options documents

- (1) The register of option holders must contain the following information about each holder of options over unissued shares in the company or unissued interests in the scheme:

 - (ii) the time at which the options may be exercised
 - (f) any event that must happen before the options can be exercised
 - (g) any consideration for the grant of the options
 - (h) any consideration for the exercise of the options or the method by which that consideration is to be determined.

The Corporations Law—Section 171

Because it is a register of the holders of options that are still exercisable, the register must be updated whenever options are exercised or expire.

- (2) Information about the grant of an option must be entered in the register within 14 days after the grant of the option.
- (3) Copies of options documents

The company or scheme must keep with the register a copy of every document that grants an option over unissued shares or interests unless the option has been granted official quotation by a securities exchange.
- (4) The company or scheme must change the register to reflect the transfer of an option only if the person transferring the option gives the company or scheme written notice of the transfer.
- (5) A failure to comply with this section in relation to an option does not affect the option itself.

171 Register of debenture holders

- (1) The register of debenture holders must contain the following information about each holder of a debenture:
 - (a) the debenture holder's name and address
 - (b) the amount of the debentures held.

Note: See subsection 168(2) for the coverage of debenture.

- (2) A company's failure to comply with this section in relation to a debenture does not affect the debenture itself.

172 Location of registers

- (1) A register kept under this Chapter that relates to a company must be kept at:
 - (a) the company's registered office; or
 - (b) the company's principal place of business in Australia; or

The office must be in Australia.

(2) Notice to ASIC

The company or scheme must lodge with ASIC a notice of the address at which the register is kept within 7 days after the register is:

- (a) established at an office that is neither the registered office, nor at the principal place of business, of the company or responsible entity; or
- (b) moved from one place to another.

Notice is not required for moving the register between the registered office and the principal place of business.

173 Right to inspect and get copies

(1) Right to inspect

A company or registered scheme must allow anyone to inspect a register kept under this Chapter. If the register is not kept on a computer, the person inspects the register itself. If the register is kept on a computer, the person inspects a hard copy of the information on the register unless the person and the company or the responsible entity agree that the person can access the information by computer.

Note: Other provisions that are relevant to the inspection of registers are:

- section 1300 (place and times for inspection)
- section 1301 (the location of documents that are kept on computers)
- section 1306 (form and evidentiary value).

(2) Inspection fees

A member of a company or a registered scheme, a registered option holder or a registered debenture holder may inspect a register kept under this Chapter without charge. Other people may inspect the register only on payment of any fee (up to the prescribed amount) required by the company or scheme.

(3) Right to get copies

The company or scheme must give a person a copy of the register (or a part of the register) within 7 days if the person:

- (a) asks for the copy; and
- (b) pays any fee (up to the prescribed amount) required by the company or scheme.

ASIC may allow a longer period to comply with the request. If the register is kept on a computer and the person asks for the data on floppy disk, the company or scheme must give the data to the person on floppy disk. The data must be readable but the floppy disk need not be formatted for the person's preferred operating system.

- (4) A person has the same rights to inspect, and obtain copies of, the documents kept under subsection 170(3) as the person has in respect of the register of option holders itself.
- (5) The company is not required under subsection (1) or (3) to allow a person to see, or to give a person a copy that contains, share certificate numbers.
- (6) ASIC power in relation to register of debenture holders

The Corporations Law—Section 174

ASIC may exempt a company from complying with subsections (1) and (3) in relation to information in a register of debenture holders about debentures that are not convertible into shares or options over unissued shares.

- (7) The exemption:
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) may be general or limited; and
 - (c) may be subject to conditions specified in the exemption.
- (8) ASIC must publish a copy of the exemption in the Gazette.
- (9) A person must not contravene a condition of the exemption.

A person who agrees to maintain a register on behalf of a company or registered scheme for the purposes of this Chapter must:

- (a) make the register available for inspection under this Chapter; and
- (b) provide the copies required by this Chapter.

175 Correction of registers

- (1) A company or registered scheme or a person aggrieved may apply to the Court to have a register kept by the company or scheme under this Chapter corrected.
- (2) If the Court orders the company or scheme to correct the register, it may also order the company or scheme to compensate a party to the application for loss or damage suffered.
- (3) If:
 - (a) the Court orders a company or scheme to correct its register of members; and

(b) the company or scheme has lodged a list of its members with ASIC;
the company or scheme must lodge notice of the correction with ASIC.

176 Evidentiary value of registers

In the absence of evidence to the contrary, a register kept under this Chapter is proof of the matters shown in the register under this Chapter.

177 Use of information on registers

(1) A person must not:

- (a) use information about a person obtained from a register kept under this Chapter to contact or send material to the person; or
- (b) disclose information of that kind knowing that the information is likely to be used to contact or send material to the person; unless that use or disclosure of the information is:

- (c) relevant to the holding of the interests recorded in the register or the exercise of the rights attaching to them; or
- (d) approved by the company or scheme.

Note: An example of using information to send material to a person is putting a person's name and address on a mailing list for advertising material.

- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable to compensate anyone else who suffers loss or damage because of the contravention.
- (3) A person who makes a profit from a contravention of subsection (1) owes a debt to the company or the scheme. The amount of the debt is the amount of the profit.

- (2) If a company keeps an overseas branch register under subsection (1):
 - (a) the company must keep the branch register in the same manner as this Law requires the company to keep the register kept under section 169 (the principal register); and
 - (b) the company must enter in the principal register the details contained in the branch register; and
 - (c) the company must distinguish shares that are registered in the branch register from the shares registered in the principal register.

243E Control

If an accounting standard:

- (a) deals with disclosure in companies' financial reports of information about related parties (for example, about transactions between companies and related parties); and
- (b) is in force at a particular time (even if the standard does not apply to a financial year of a company in which that time occurs); and
- (c) provides for determining whether an entity has control over another entity;

the question of whether an entity has or had control over another entity at that time is to be determined in accordance with the provision in the standard.

243F Related party of a public company

- (1) Each of the following is a related party of a public company:
- (a) a director of the public company;
 - (b) a director of a body corporate that is a parent entity of the public company;

- (3) An entity is also a related party of a public company at a particular time if:
 - (a) the entity believes at that time, or has at that time reasonable grounds to believe, that it is likely to become an entity of a particular kind at some future time; and
 - (b) by becoming an entity of that kind, it would become at that future time a related party of the public company because of subsection (1).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), an entity (other than a body corporate) constituted by 2 or more persons is taken to believe, or to have reasonable grounds to believe, something if at least one of those persons believes, or has such grounds to believe, that thing.
- (5) If, at a particular time, an entity:
 - (a) was or is a related party of a public company because of subsection (1), (2) or (3); and
 - (b) acted, or proposes to act, in concert with another entity (the associate) in respect of the giving or proposed giving of a financial benefit (the primary benefit) by the public company, or by a child entity of the public company, to the associate; and

- (2) In deciding whether an entity has given a financial benefit:
 - (a) the economic and commercial substance and effect of what the entity has done is to prevail over its legal form; and
 - (b) any consideration that has been or may be given for the benefit is to be disregarded, even if it is full or adequate.
- (3) A benefit that does not involve the payment of money can still be a financial benefit: for example, if it confers some financial advantage.
- (4) A few examples of an entity giving a financial benefit to another entity are:
 - (a) the first entity lending the other money, guaranteeing a loan to the other, or providing security for a loan to the other;

- (1) Section 243H does not prevent a public company, or a child entity of a public company, from giving a financial benefit to a related party of the public company as required by a contract made before the day on and after which that section applies to the public company because of section 1376.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:

243K Remunerating officers

- (1) A body corporate may pay or provide remuneration to a person in a capacity as an officer of the body if it is reasonable for a body corporate in the body's circumstances to pay or provide that remuneration to an officer in the person's circumstances.
- (2) A body corporate may pay or provide remuneration to a person in a capacity as an officer of the body if:
 - (a) the body does so as required by a contract between the body and the person; and
 - (b) it was reasonable for a body corporate in the body's circumstances to make that contract with an officer in the person's circumstances.
- (3) An entity may give a financial benefit to a person in the person's capacity as an officer of a body corporate if subsection (1) or (2) would permit the body itself to give the benefit to the person in that capacity.

The Corporations Law—Section 243K

- (4) Any of the following paid by a body corporate to an officer of the body as such (however the rate or amount is worked out) is remuneration paid by the body to the officer:

first-mentioned body to the person in a capacity as an officer of that body.

- (8) Subsections (4) to (7B), inclusive, have effect for the purposes of subsections (1), (2) and (3), but nothing in them limits the generality of:
- (a) the expression remuneration in subsections (1) and (2); or
 - (b) anything else in subsections (4) to (7B), inclusive.

243L Advances, up to prescribed amount, to director or director's spouse

- (1) A body corporate may advance money to:
- (a) a director of the body; or

243M Financial benefit given to or by closely-held subsidiary

- (1) A body corporate may give a financial benefit to a closely-held subsidiary of the body.
- (2) A closely-held subsidiary of a body corporate may give a financial benefit to the body, or to a child entity of the body.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), disregard shares that are not voting shares.

243N Financial benefit on arm's length terms

- (1) A public company, or a child entity of a public company, may give a financial benefit to a related party of the public company if it does so on terms and conditions no more favourable to the related party than those on which it is reasonable to expect that the company or entity, as the case may be, would give the benefit directly if dealing with the related party at arm's length in the same circumstances.
- (2) In the case of a loan or other financial accommodation, the matters to consider for the purposes of subsection (1) include, for example:
- (a) the amount of the loan or the extent of the accommodation;
 - (b) what interest or charges are payable;
 - (c) the credit risk;
 - (d) what security is given;
 - (e) the timetable for repayments of amounts owing and for payments of interest or charges.

243PA Financial benefits to members as such

A public company, or a body corporate that is a child entity of a public company, may give financial benefits to any of its own members, in their capacity as members, on a basis that does not discriminate unfairly, either directly or indirectly, in favour of one or more related parties of the public company.

The Corporations Law—Section 243PB

243PB Financial benefit under court order

An entity may give a financial benefit to another entity pursuant to an order of a court.

Part 2E.5—Financial benefits approved by general meeting of public company

Division 1—Exceptions from the prohibitions

243Q Financial benefit permitted by resolution of members

A public company, or a child entity of a public company, may give a financial benefit to a related party of the public company if:

- (a) a resolution of the public company permits the benefit to be given; and
- (b) the resolution was passed at a general meeting of the public company held within 15 months before the public company, or the child entity, as the case may be, gives the benefit; and
- (c) the conditions prescribed by Division 2 have been satisfied in relation to the resolution.

243R Financial benefit under contract permitted by resolution of members

(1) A public company, or a child entity of a public company, may give a financial benefit to a related party of the public company as required by a contract with the related party if:

- (a) a resolution of the public company permitted the public company, or the child entity, as the case may be, to make the contract; and
- (b) the resolution was passed at a general meeting of the public company held within 15 months before the contract was made; and
- (c) the conditions prescribed by Division 2 have been satisfied in relation to the resolution.

(2) A reference in this Part to a resolution or proposed resolution permitting a financial benefit to be given by a public company or entity includes a reference to the resolution or proposed resolution permitting the public company or entity to make a contract to give the benefit.

243S Resolution may specify matters by class or kind

A resolution under this Part may specify anything either in particular or by reference to class or kind.

243T Effect of resolution

- (1) A resolution of a public company that permits the company to give a financial benefit to a related party does not affect the application of subsection 243H(2) and this Part to the public company in its capacity as a child entity of another public company.
- (2) A resolution of a public company that permits a child entity of the public company to give a financial benefit to a related party of the public company does not affect:
 - (a) if the child entity is also a public company—the application of subsection 243H(1) and this Part to the child entity in its capacity as a public company; or
 - (b) in any case—the application of subsection 243H(2) and this Part to the child entity in its capacity as a child entity of another public company.

Example: A Ltd, B Ltd and C Ltd are all public companies. X is a director of A Ltd. A Ltd is a holding company of B Ltd, which is a holding company of C Ltd.

For C Ltd to give to X a financial benefit not covered by an exception in Part 2E.4, all 3 companies must pass resolutions under this Part permitting the benefit.

This is because 3 applications of section 243H prohibit C Ltd from giving the benefit. Subsection 243H(1) prohibits C Ltd as a public company of which X is a related party. Subsection 243H(2) prohibits C Ltd twice: once as a child entity of B Ltd, of which X is a related party, and once as a child entity of A Ltd, of which X is also a related party.

Division 2—Conditions to be satisfied

243U Company must lodge material that will be put to members

 - (b) taxation consequences (such as liability to fringe benefits tax); and
 - (c) benefits forgone by whoever would give the benefits.

Note: Section 232 requires an officer of a corporation to act honestly and to exercise care and diligence. These duties extend to preparing an explanatory statement under this section. Section 1309 creates offences where false and misleading material relating to a corporation's affairs is made available or furnished to members.

243W Commission may comment on proposed resolution

- (2) The Commission may consult with the Exchange for the purposes of giving comments to a company that is included in the official list of the Exchange or of a securities exchange that is a subsidiary of the Exchange.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the persons with whom the Commission may consult.
- (4) The Commission must keep a copy of the written comments it gives to a company under subsection (1), and subsections 1274(2) and (5) apply to the copy as if it were a document lodged with the Commission.

Each document (if any) that:

- (a) did not accompany the notice convening the meeting; and
- (b) was given to members of the public company before or at the meeting by:
 - (i) the public company; or
 - (ii) a related party of the public company to whom the proposed resolution would permit a financial benefit to be given; or
 - (iii) an associate of the public company or of such a related party; and
- (c) can reasonably be expected to have been material to a member in deciding how to vote on the proposed resolution; must be the same, in all material respects, as a document lodged under paragraph 243U(1)(d).

243ZA Proposed resolution cannot be varied

The resolution must be the same as the proposed resolution set out in the proposed notice lodged under section 243U.

243ZB Voting on the resolution

The Corporations Law—Section 243ZC

The Corporations Law—Section 243ZD

- (2) A declaration may be made only on the application of an interested person.

Part 2E.6—Enforcement

243ZE Consequences of giving financial benefit when not permitted

- (a) a related party of a public company receives a financial benefit from the public company, or from a child entity of the public company; and

Note: In the case of a contravention of subsection 243H(2) by a child entity (other than a body corporate) constituted by 2 or more persons, subsection (4) of this section does not prevent any of those persons from contravening this section.

The Corporations Law—Section 243ZF

- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) are civil penalty provisions as defined by section 1317DA, so Part 9.4B provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or of being involved in a contravention of, either of them.
- (6) In a proceeding against a person for:
- (a) a contravention of subsection (2); or
 - (b) a contravention of subsection (2) because of section 243ZG, 1317DB, 1317DC or 1317DD;
- it is a defence if it is proved that the person was unaware of a fact or circumstance essential to the contravention of subsection 243H(1) or (2), as the case requires.

Note: Section 103 prevents a contravention of section 243H or of this section from invalidating a transaction.

- (a) it is cast by a person as a proxy appointed by writing that specifies how the proxy is to vote on the proposed resolution; and
 - (b) it is not cast on behalf of a related party or associate of a kind referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The regulations may prescribe cases where subsection (1) does not apply.
- (4) The Commission may by writing declare that:

The Corporations Law—Section 243ZG

- (a) subsection (1) does not apply to a specified proposed resolution; or
 - (b) subsection (1) does not prevent the casting of a vote, on a specified proposed resolution, by a specified entity, or on behalf of a specified entity;
but may only do so if satisfied that the declaration will not cause unfair prejudice to the interests of any member of the public company.
- (5) A declaration in force under subsection (4) has effect accordingly.
- (6) If a vote is cast in contravention of subsection (1), the related party or associate, as the case may be, contravenes this subsection, whether or not the proposed resolution is passed.
- Note: If the related party is not itself a legal person, see section 243ZG.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, a vote is cast on behalf of an entity if, and only if, it is cast:

- (3) A company's constitution (if any) may provide for the effect that a member's presence at a meeting has on the authority of a proxy appointed to attend and vote for the member. However, if the constitution does not deal with this, a proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

249Z Company sending appointment forms or lists of proxies must send to all members

If a company sends a member a proxy appointment form for a meeting or a list of persons willing to act as proxies at a meeting:

Note: A company's constitution may provide that a proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (see subsection 249Y(2)).

- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) is guilty of an offence, but only if their appointment as a proxy resulted from the company sending to members:
 - (a) a list of persons willing to act as proxies; or
 - (b) a proxy appointment form holding the person out as being willing to act as a proxy.

 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) signed by the members making the request; and

The Corporations Law—Section 252N

- (c) given to the responsible entity.
- (4) Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be used for signing by members if the wording of the request is identical in each copy.
- (5) The percentage of the votes that members have is to be worked out as at the midnight before the request is given to the responsible entity.
- (6) After receiving the request, the responsible entity must distribute to all the members of the scheme a copy of the statement at the same time, or as soon as practicable afterwards, and in the same way, as it gives notice of a meeting.
- (7) The responsible entity is responsible for the cost of making the distribution if the responsible entity receives the statement in time to send it out to members with the notice of meeting.
- (8) The members making the request are jointly and individually liable for the expenses reasonably incurred by the responsible entity in making the distribution if the responsible entity does not receive the statement in time to send it out with the notice of meeting. A resolution may be passed at a meeting of the scheme's members that the responsible entity is to meet the expenses out of the scheme's assets.
- (9) The responsible entity need not comply with the request:
- (a) if the statement is more than 1,000 words long or defamatory; or
 - (b) if the members making the request are responsible for the expenses of the distribution—unless the members give the company a sum reasonably sufficient to meet the expenses that it will reasonably incur in making the distribution.

Division 4—Holding meetings of members

252P Time and place for meetings of members

A meeting of a registered scheme's members must be held at a reasonable time and place.

252Q Technology

A responsible entity of a registered scheme may hold a meeting of the scheme's members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

Note: See section 1322 for the consequences of members not being given a reasonable opportunity to participate.

252R Quorum

- (1) This section applies to a registered scheme subject to the provisions of the scheme's constitution.
- (2) The quorum for a meeting of a registered scheme's members is 2 members and the quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.
- (3) In determining whether a quorum is present, count individuals attending as proxies or body corporate representatives. However, if a member has appointed more than 1 proxy or representative, count only 1 of them. If an individual is attending both as a member and as a proxy or body corporate representative, count them only once.
Note 1: For rights to appoint proxies, see section 252V.
Note 2: For body corporate representatives, see section 253B.
- (4) A meeting of the scheme's members that does not have a quorum present within 30 minutes after the time for the start of the meeting set out in the notice of meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place the responsible entity specifies. If the responsible entity does not specify 1 or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:

- (a) if the date is not specified—the same day in the next week;
and
 - (b) if the time is not specified—the same time; and
 - (c) if the place is not specified—the same place.
- (5) If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the time for the start of the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

252S Chairing meetings of members

- (1) The responsible entity may, in writing, appoint an individual to chair a meeting called under section 252A or 252B.
- (2) The members present at a meeting called under section 252A or 252B must elect a member present to chair the meeting (or part of it) if:
 - (a) a chair has not previously been appointed to chair the meeting; or
 - (b) a previously appointed chair is not available, or declines to act, for the meeting (or part of the meeting).
- (3) The members present at a meeting called under section 252C, 252D or 252E must elect a member present to chair the meeting. This is not so if the meeting is called under section 252E and the Court has directed otherwise under section 1319.

252T Auditors' right to be heard at meetings of members

- (1) The auditor of a registered scheme and the auditor of the scheme compliance plan are entitled to attend any meeting of the scheme's members.
- (2) An auditor is entitled to be heard at the meeting on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in their capacity as auditor.

Corporations Law Chapter 2G Meetings

Part 2G.4 Meetings of members of registered managed investment schemes

The Corporations Law—Section 252U

- (3) An auditor may authorise a person in writing as their representative for the purpose of attending and speaking at any meeting of the scheme's members.

252U Adjourned meetings

- (1) A resolution passed at a meeting resumed after an adjournment is passed on the day it was passed.
- (2) Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

Division 5—Proxies and body corporate representatives

252V Who can appoint a proxy

- (1) A member of a registered scheme who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the scheme's members may appoint a person as the member's proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting.
- (2) The appointment may specify the proportion or number of votes that the proxy may exercise.
- (3) A member may appoint 1 or 2 proxies. If the member appoints 2 proxies and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the member's votes each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half of the votes.
- (4) Disregard any fractions of votes resulting from the application of subsection (2) or (3).

252W Rights of proxies

Rights of proxies

- (1) A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member:
 - (a) to speak at the meeting; and
 - (b) to vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment).

Proxy's right to vote

- (2) A registered scheme's constitution (if any) may provide that a proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands.

Note: Even if the proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands, they may make or join in the demand for a poll (see section 253L).

The Corporations Law—Section 252X

Effect of member's presence on proxy's authority

- (3) A registered scheme's constitution (if any) may provide for the effect that a member's presence at a meeting has on the authority of a proxy appointed to attend and vote for the member. However, if the constitution does not make such provision, a proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

252X Responsible entity sending appointment forms or lists of proxies must send to all members

If the responsible entity of a registered scheme sends a member a proxy appointment form for a meeting or a list of persons willing to act as proxies at a meeting:

- (a) if the member requested the form or list—the responsible entity must send the form or list to all members who ask for it and who are entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting; or
- (b) otherwise—the responsible entity must send the form or list to all its members entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting.

252Y Appointing a proxy

- (1) An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the member of the registered scheme making the appointment and contains the following information:
 - (a) the member's name and address
 - (b) the scheme's name
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy
 - (d) the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

The Corporations Law—Section 252Y

An appointment may be a standing one

- (2) A registered scheme's constitution may provide that an appointment is valid even if it contains only some of the information required by subsection (1).
- (3) An undated appointment is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the responsible entity.
- (4) An appointment may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If it does:
 - (a) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way; and
 - (b) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution—the proxy must not vote on a show of hands; and
 - (c) if the proxy is the chair—the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way; and
 - (d) if the proxy is not the chair—the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

If a proxy is also a member, this subsection does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes they hold as a member.

Note: The scheme's constitution may provide that a proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (see subsection 252W(2)).

- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) is guilty of an offence, but only if their appointment as a proxy resulted from the responsible entity sending to members:
 - (a) a list of persons willing to act as proxies; or
 - (b) a proxy appointment form holding the person out as being willing to act as a proxy.
- (6) An appointment does not have to be witnessed.
- (7) A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

The Corporations Law—Section 252Z

252Z Proxy documents

Section applies subject to scheme's constitution

- (1) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) apply to a registered scheme subject to the provisions of the scheme's constitution.

Documents to be received by responsible entity before meeting

- (2) For an appointment of a proxy for a meeting of the scheme's members to be effective, the following documents must be received by the responsible entity at least 48 hours before the meeting:
- (a) the proxy's appointment
 - (b) if the appointment is signed by the appointor's attorney—the authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of the authority.

Documents received following adjournment of meeting

- (3) If a meeting of the scheme's members has been adjourned, an appointment and any authority received by the responsible entity at least 48 hours before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.

Receipt of documents

- (3) A responsible entity receives an appointment authority when it is received at any of the following:
- (a) the responsible entity's registered office
 - (b) a fax number at the responsible entity's registered office
 - (c) a place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.

Ineffective appointments of fax or electronic notification

- (4) An appointment of a proxy is ineffective if:

The Corporations Law—Section 253A

- (a) the responsible entity receives either or both the appointment or authority at a fax number or electronic address; and
- (b) a requirement (if any) in the notice of meeting that:
 - (i) the transmission be verified in a way specified in the notice; or
 - (ii) the proxy produce the appointment and authority (if any) at the meeting;is not complied with.

Constitution or notice of meeting may provide for different notification period

- (5) The scheme's constitution or the notice of meeting may reduce the period of 48 hours referred to in subsection (2) or (3).

253A Validity of proxy vote

Proxy vote valid even if member dies, revokes appointment etc.

- (1) Unless the responsible entity has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy will be valid even if, before the proxy votes:
 - (a) the appointing member dies; or
 - (b) the member is mentally incapacitated; or
 - (c) the member revokes the proxy's appointment; or
 - (d) the member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or
 - (e) the member transfers the interest in respect of which the proxy was given.

This subsection applies to a registered scheme subject to the provisions of the scheme's constitution.

Note: A proxy's authority to vote is suspended while the member is present at the meeting (see subsection 252W(3)).

The Corporations Law—Section 253B

Proxy vote valid even if proxy cannot vote as member

- (2) A proxy who is not entitled to vote on a resolution as a member may vote as a proxy for another member who can vote if their appointment specifies the way they are to vote on the resolution and they vote that way.

253B Body corporate representative

- (1) A body corporate may appoint an individual as a representative to exercise all or any of its powers at a meeting of a registered scheme's members. The appointment may be a standing one.
- (2) The appointment must set out what the representative is appointed to do and may set out restrictions on the representative's powers. If the appointment is to be by reference to a position held, the appointment must identify the position.
- (3) A body corporate may appoint more than 1 representative but only 1 representative may exercise the body's powers at any one time.
- (4) Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the representative may exercise, on the body corporate's behalf, all of the powers that the body could exercise at a meeting or in voting on a resolution.

Division 6—Voting at meetings of members

253C How many votes a member has

- (1) On a show of hands, each member of a registered scheme has 1 vote.
- (2) On a poll, each member of the scheme has 1 vote for each dollar of the value of the total interests they have in the scheme.

Note 1: For rights to appoint proxies, see section 252V.

Note 2: Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, a body corporate representative has all the powers that a body corporate has as a member (including the power to vote on a show of hands).

253D Jointly held interests

If an interest in a registered scheme is held jointly and more than 1 member votes in respect of that interest, only the vote of the member whose name appears first in the register of members counts.

253E Responsible entity and associates cannot vote if interested in resolution

The responsible entity of a registered scheme and its associates are not entitled to vote their interest on a resolution at a meeting of the scheme's members if they have an interest in the resolution or matter other than as a member.

Note: The responsible entity and its associates may vote as proxies if their appointments specify the way they are to vote and they vote that way (see subsection 253A(2)).

253F How to work out the value of an interest

The value of an interest in a registered scheme is:

The Corporations Law—Section 253G

- (a) if it is quoted on a stock market of a stock exchange—the last sale price on that market on the trading day immediately before the day on which the poll is taken; or
- (b) if it is not quoted on a stock market of a stock exchange and the scheme is liquid and has a withdrawal provision in its constitution—the amount that would be paid for the interest under that provision on the business day immediately before the day on which the poll is taken; or
- (c) in any other case—the amount that the responsible entity determines in writing to be the price that a willing but not anxious buyer would pay for the interest if it was sold on the business day immediately before the day on which the poll is taken.

253G Objections to a right to vote

A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of members of a registered scheme:

- (a) may only be made at the meeting; and
- (b) must be determined by the chair, whose decision is final.

253H Votes need not all be cast in the same way

On a poll a person voting who is entitled to 2 or more votes:

- (a) need not cast all their votes; and
- (b) may cast their votes in different ways.

Note: For proxy appointments that specify the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution, see subsection 252Y(4).

253J How voting is carried out

- (1) A special or extraordinary resolution put to the vote at a meeting of a registered scheme's members must be decided on a poll.
- (2) Any other resolution put to the vote at a meeting of the scheme's members must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded. The resolution is passed on a poll if it has been passed by at least 50% of the votes cast by members entitled to vote on the resolution.

- (3) On a show of hands, a declaration by the chair is conclusive evidence of the result. Neither the chair nor the minutes need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against.

Note: Even though the chair's declaration is conclusive of the voting results, the members present may demand a poll (see paragraph 253L(3)(c)).

253K Matters on which a poll may be demanded

- (1) A poll may be demanded on any resolution.
- (2) A registered scheme's constitution may provide that a poll cannot be demanded on any resolution concerning:
- (a) the election of the chair of a meeting; or
 - (b) the adjournment of a meeting.
- (3) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

253L When a poll is effectively demanded

- (1) At a meeting of a registered scheme's members, a poll may be demanded by:
- (a) at least 5 members present entitled to vote on the resolution; or
 - (b) members present with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll; or
 - (c) the chair.
- (2) A registered scheme's constitution may provide that fewer members or members with a lesser percentage of votes may demand a poll.
- (3) The poll may be demanded:
- (a) before a vote is taken; or
 - (b) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or

Corporations Law Chapter 2G Meetings

Part 2G.4 Meetings of members of registered managed investment schemes

The Corporations Law—Section 253L

- (c) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.
- (4) The percentage of votes that members have is to be worked out as at close of business on the day before the poll is demanded.

Division 7—Minutes and members' access to minutes

253M Minutes

- (1) A responsible entity of a registered scheme must keep minute books in which it records within 1 month:
 - (a) proceedings of meetings of the scheme's members; and
 - (b) resolutions of meetings of the scheme's members.
- (2) The responsible entity must ensure that minutes of a meeting are signed within a reasonable time after the meeting by the chair of the meeting or the chair of the next meeting.
- (3) The responsible entity must keep the minute books at:
 - (a) its registered office; or
 - (b) its principal place of business in Australia; or
 - (c) another place approved by ASIC.
- (4) A minute that is so recorded and signed is evidence of the proceeding or resolution to which it relates, unless the contrary is proved.

253N Members' access to minutes

- (1) The responsible entity of a registered scheme must ensure that the minute books for the meetings of the scheme's members are open for inspection by members free of charge.
- (2) A member of a registered scheme may ask the responsible entity in writing for a copy of any minutes of a meeting of the scheme's members or an extract of the minutes.
- (3) If the responsible entity does not require the member to pay for the copy, the responsible entity must send it:
 - (a) within 14 days after the member asks for it; or
 - (b) within any longer period that ASIC approves.

(4) If the responsible entity requires payment for the copy, the responsible entity must send it:

- (a) within 14 days after the responsible entity receives the payment; or
- (b) within any longer period that ASIC approves.

The amount of any payment the responsible entity requires cannot exceed the prescribed amount.

Chapter 2H—Shares

Part 2H.1—Issuing and converting shares

254A Power to issue bonus, partly-paid, preference and redeemable preference shares

- (1) A company's power under section 124 to issue shares includes the power to issue:
- (a) bonus shares (shares for whose issue no consideration is payable to the issuing company); and
 - (b) preference shares (including redeemable preference shares); and
 - (c) partly-paid shares (whether or not on the same terms for the amount of calls to be paid or the time for paying calls).

Note 1: Subsections 246C(5) and (6) provide that in certain circumstances the issue of preference shares is taken to be a variation of class rights.

Note 2: Partly-paid shares are dealt with in sections 254M-254N.

Note 3: On the issue of a bonus share there need not be any increase in the company's share capital.

- (2) A company can issue preference shares only if the rights attached to the preference shares with respect to the following matters are set out in the company's constitution (if any) or have been otherwise approved by special resolution of the company:
- (a) repayment of capital
 - (b) participation in surplus assets and profits
 - (c) cumulative and non-cumulative dividends

The Corporations Law—Section 254B

- (a) at a fixed time or on the happening of a particular event; or
- (b) at the company's option; or
- (c) at the shareholder's option.

Note: Redeemable preference shares are dealt with in sections 254J-254L.

254B Terms of issue

- (1) A company may determine:
 - (a) the terms on which its shares are issued; and

Note 2: For public companies, any document or resolution that attaches rights to shares or varies or cancels rights attaching to shares must be lodged with ASIC (see subsection 246F(3)).

Note 3: Sections 246B-246G provide safeguards in cases where class rights are cancelled or varied.

Note 4: The company cannot issue par value shares (see section 254C) or bearer shares (see section 254F).

No liability companies—special terms of issue

- (2) A share in a no liability company is issued on the following terms:
 - (a) if a no liability company is wound up and a surplus remains, it must be distributed among the parties entitled to it in proportion to the number of shares held by them, irrespective of the amounts paid up on the shares; and
 - (b) a member who is in arrears in payment of a call on a share, but whose share has not been forfeited, is not entitled to participate in the distribution on the basis of holding that share until the amount owing in respect of the call has been fully paid and satisfied.

The Corporations Law—Section 254C

Companies incorporated as no liability companies—special terms of issue

- (3) If a company:
- (a) either:
 - (i) is a no liability company; or
 - (ii) was initially registered as a no liability company and has changed its status under section 162 to another type of company; and
 - (b) ceases to carry on business within 12 months after its registration and is wound up;

- (4) The holders of shares issued to vendors or promoters are not entitled to preference on the winding up of a company that:
- (a) is a no liability company; or
 - (b) was initially registered as a no liability company and has changed its status under section 162 to another type of company.

This is so despite anything in the company's constitution or the terms on which the shares are on issue.

254C No par value shares

Shares of a company have no par value.

Note: Sections 1444-1449 contain application and transitional provisions that deal with the introduction of no par value shares. See also subsection 169(4).

254D Pre-emption for existing shareholders on issue of shares in proprietary company (replaceable rule—see section 135)

- (1) Before issuing shares of a particular class, the directors of a proprietary company must offer them to the existing holders of shares of that class. As far as practicable, the number of shares offered to each shareholder must be in proportion to the number of shares of that class that they already hold.

- (2) To make the offer, the directors must give the shareholders a statement setting out the terms of the offer, including:
 - (a) the number of shares offered; and
 - (b) the period for which it will remain open.
- (3) The directors may issue any shares not taken up under the offer under subsection (1) as they see fit.
- (4) The company may by resolution passed at a general meeting authorise the directors to make a particular issue of shares without complying with subsection (1).

254E Court validation of issue

- (1) On application by a company, a shareholder, a creditor or any other person whose interests have been or may be affected, the Court may make an order validating, or confirming the terms of, a purported issue of shares if:
 - (a) the issue is or may be invalid for any reason; or
 - (b) the terms of the issue are inconsistent with or not authorised by:
 - (i) this Law; or
 - (ii) another law of this jurisdiction; or
 - (iii) the company's constitution (if any).
- (2) On lodgment of a copy of the order with ASIC, the order has effect from the time of the purported issue.

254F Bearer shares and stock must not be issued

A company does not have the power to:

- (a) issue bearer shares; or
- (b) issue stock or convert shares into stock.

The Corporations Law—Section 254G

Note: Section 1432 contains transitional provisions for the conversion of existing stock into shares.

254G Conversion of shares

- (1) A company may:
- (a) convert an ordinary share into a preference share; and
 - (b) convert a preference share into an ordinary share.

Note: The variation of class rights provisions (sections 246B-246G) will apply to the conversion.

- (2) A company can convert ordinary shares into preference shares only if the holders' rights with respect to the following matters are set out in the company's constitution (if any) or have been otherwise approved by special resolution of the company:
- (a) repayment of capital
 - (b) participation in surplus assets and profits
 - (c) cumulative and non-cumulative dividends
 - (d) voting

254H Resolution to convert shares into larger or smaller number

- (1) A company may convert all or any of its shares into a larger or smaller number of shares by resolution passed at a general meeting.

Note: The variation of class rights provisions (sections 246B-246G) may apply to the conversion.

- (2) The conversion takes effect on:
- (a) the day the resolution is passed; or
 - (b) a later date specified in the resolution.

The Corporations Law—Section 254H

- (3) Any amount unpaid on shares being converted is to be divided equally among the replacement shares.
- (4) The company must lodge a copy of the resolution with ASIC within 1 month after it is passed.

Part 2H.2—Redemption of redeemable preference shares

254J Redemption must be in accordance with terms of issue

- (1) A company may redeem redeemable preference shares only on the terms on which they are on issue. On redemption, the shares are cancelled.

Note: For the power to issue redeemable preference shares see paragraph 254A(1)(b) and subsections 254A(2) and (3).

- (2) This section does not affect the terms on which redeemable preference shares may be cancelled under a reduction of capital or a share buy-back under Part 2J.1.

254K Other requirements about redemption

A company may only redeem redeemable preference shares:

- (a) if the shares are fully paid-up; and
- (b) out of profits or the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of the redemption.

Note: For a director's duty to prevent insolvent trading on redeeming redeemable preference shares, see section 588G.

254L Consequences of contravening section 254J or 254K

- (1) If a company redeems shares in contravention of section 254J or 254K:
 - (a) the contravention does not affect the validity of the redemption or of any contract or transaction connected with it; and
 - (b) the company is not guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person who is involved in a company's contravention of section 254J or 254K contravenes this subsection.

Corporations Law Chapter 2H Shares

The Corporations Law—Section 254L

Note: Subsection (2) is a civil penalty provision (see section 1317DA).

Part 2H.3—Partly-paid shares

254M Liability on partly-paid shares

General rule about shareholder's liability for calls

- (1) If shares in a company are partly-paid, the shareholder is liable to pay calls on the shares in accordance with the terms on which the shares are on issue. This subsection does not apply to a no liability company

Note: The shareholder may also be liable as a contributory under sections 514-529 if the company is wound up.

No liability companies

- (2) The acceptance by a person of a share in a no liability company, whether by issue or transfer, does not constitute a contract by the person to pay:
 - (a) calls in respect of the share; or
 - (b) any contribution to the debts and liabilities of the company.

254N Calls may be limited to when company is externally-administered

- (1) A limited company may provide by special resolution that the whole or a part of its unpaid share capital may be called up only if the company becomes an externally-administered body corporate.
- (2) The company must lodge with ASIC a copy of the special resolution within 14 days after it is passed.

The Corporations Law—Section 254P

254P No liability companies—calls on shares

Making calls

- (1) A call on a share in a no liability company is not effective unless it is made payable at least 14 days after the call is made.

Notice of call

- (2) At least 7 days before a call on shares in a no liability company becomes payable, the company must give the holders of the shares notice of:

- (a) the amount of the call;
- (b) the day when it is payable; and
- (c) the place for payment.

The notice must be sent by post. If the notice is not given, the call is not payable.

- (3) A call does not have any effect on a forfeited share that is held by or in trust for the company under subsection 254Q(6). However, when the share is re-issued or sold by the company, the share may be credited as paid up to the amount determined by the company in accordance with its constitution or by resolution.

254Q No liability companies—forfeiture and sale of shares for failure to meet call

Forfeiture and sale of shares

- (1) A share in a no liability company is immediately forfeited if:
 - (a) a call is made on the share; and
 - (b) the call is unpaid at the end of 14 days after it became payable.

Note: The holder of the share may redeem it under section 254R.

- (2) The forfeited share must then be offered for sale by public auction within 6 weeks after the call became payable.

The Corporations Law—Section 254Q

Advertisement of sale

- (3) At least 14 days, and not more than 21 days, before the day of the sale, the sale must be advertised in a daily newspaper circulating generally throughout Australia. The specific number of shares to be offered need not be specified in the advertisement and it is sufficient to give notice of the sale by advertising to the effect that all shares on which a call remains unpaid will be sold.

Postponement of sale

- (4) An intended sale of forfeited shares that has been duly advertised may be postponed for not more than 21 days from the advertised date of sale. The date to which the sale is postponed must be advertised in a daily newspaper circulating generally in Australia.
- (5) There may be more than 1 postponement but the sale cannot be postponed to a date more than 90 days from the first date fixed for the intended sale.

Shares may be offered as credited to a particular amount

- (6) The share may be sold credited as paid up to the sum of:
- (a) the amount paid upon the share at the time of forfeiture; and
 - (b) the amount of the call; and
 - (c) the amount of any other calls becoming payable on or before the day of the sale;
- if the company in accordance with its constitution or by ordinary resolution so determines.

Reserve price

- (7) The directors may fix a reserve price for the share that does not exceed the sum of:
- (a) the amount of the call due and unpaid on the share at the time of forfeiture; and
 - (b) the amount of any other calls that become payable on or before the date of the sale.

The Corporations Law—Section 254Q

Withdrawal from sale

- (8) The share may be withdrawn from sale if no bid at least equal to the reserve price is made at the sale.

Disposal of shares withdrawn from sale

- (9) If:
- (a) no bid for the share is received at the sale; or
 - (b) the share is withdrawn from sale;
- the share must be held by the directors in trust for the company. It must be then disposed of in the manner determined by the company in accordance with its constitution or by resolution. Unless otherwise specifically provided by resolution, the share must first be offered to shareholders for a period of 14 days before being disposed of in any other manner.

Suspension of voting rights attached to share held in trust

- (10) At any meeting of the company, no person is entitled to any vote in respect of the shares held by the directors in trust under subsection (9).

Application of proceeds of sale

- (11) The proceeds of the sale under subsection (2) or the disposal under subsection (9) must be applied to pay:
- (a) first, the expenses of the sale; and
 - (b) then, any expenses necessarily incurred in respect of the forfeiture; and
 - (c) then, the calls on the share that are due and unpaid.
- The balance (if any) must be paid to the member whose share has been sold. If there is a share certificate that relates to the share, the balance does not have to be paid until the member delivers the certificate to the company.

The Corporations Law—Section 254R

Validity of sale

- (12) If a sale is not held in time because of error or inadvertence, a late sale is not invalid if it is held as soon as practicable after the discovery of the error or inadvertence.

Failure to comply an offence

- (13) If there is failure to comply with subsection (2) or (3), the company and any officer of the company who is involved in the contravention are each guilty of an offence.

254R No liability companies—redemption of forfeited shares

- (1) Despite section 254Q, if a person's share has been forfeited, the person may redeem the share, at any time up to or on the last business day before the proposed sale, by paying the company:
- (a) all calls due on the share; and
 - (b) if the company so requires:
 - (i) a portion, calculated on a pro rata basis, of all expenses incurred by the company in respect of the forfeiture; and
 - (ii) a portion, calculated on a pro rata basis, of all costs and expenses of any proceeding that has been taken in respect of the forfeiture.

On payment, the person is entitled to the share as if the forfeiture had not occurred.

- (2) On the last business day before the proposed sale, the registered office of the company must be open during the hours for which it is by this Law required to be open and accessible to the public.

Part 2H.4—Capitalisation of profits

254S Capitalisation of profits

A company may capitalise profits. The capitalisation need not be accompanied by the issue of shares.

Part 2H.5—Dividends

254T Dividends to be paid out of profits

A dividend may only be paid out of profits of the company.

Note: For a director's duty to prevent insolvent trading on payment of dividends, see section 588G.

254U Other provisions about paying dividends (replaceable rule—see section 135)

- (1) The directors may determine that a dividend is payable and fix:
 - (a) the amount; and
 - (b) the time for payment; and
 - (c) the method of payment.

The methods of payment may include the payment of cash, the issue of shares, the grant of options and the transfer of assets.

- (2) Interest is not payable on a dividend.

254V When does the company incur a debt?

- (1) A company does not incur a debt merely by fixing the amount or time for payment of a dividend. The debt arises only when the time fixed for payment arrives and the decision to pay the dividend may be revoked at any time before then.
- (2) However, if the company has a constitution and it provides for the declaration of dividends, the company incurs a debt when the dividend is declared.

The Corporations Law—Section 254W

254W Dividend rights

Shares in public companies

- (1) Each share in a class of shares in a public company has the same dividend rights unless:
 - (a) the company has a constitution and it provides for the shares to have different dividend rights; or
 - (b) different dividend rights are provided for by special resolution of the company.

Shares in proprietary companies (replaceable rule—see section 135)

- (2) Subject to the terms on which shares in a proprietary company are on issue, the directors may pay dividends as they see fit.

No liability companies

- (3) A person is not entitled to a dividend on a share in a no liability company if a call:
 - (a) has been made on the share; and
 - (b) is due and unpaid.
- (4) Dividends are payable to the shareholders in a no liability company in proportion to the number of shares held by them, irrespective of the amount paid up, or credited as paid up, on the shares. This subsection has effect subject to any provisions in the company's constitution relating to shares that are not ordinary shares.

Part 2H.6—Notice requirements

254X Notice to ASIC of share issue

- (1) Within 1 month after issuing shares, a company must lodge with ASIC a notice in the prescribed form that sets out:
 - (a) the number of shares that were issued; and
 - (b) if the company has different classes of shares—the class to which each of those shares belongs; and
 - (c) the amount (if any) paid, or agreed to be considered as paid, on each of those shares; and
 - (d) the amount unpaid (if any) on each of those shares; and
 - (e) if the company is a public company and the shares were issued for non-cash consideration—the prescribed particulars about the issue of the shares, unless the shares were issued under a written contract and a copy of the contract is lodged with the notice.

Note: The company must lodge information when rights attached to the shares change, or when the shares are divided or converted into new classes (see section 246F).

- (2) If the shares were issued for non-cash consideration under a contract, the company must also lodge with ASIC a certificate stating that all stamp duty payable on the contract under any applicable law relating to stamp duty has been paid. This certificate must be lodged with the subsection (1) notice or at a later time permitted by the regulations or by ASIC.
- (3) The company does not have to lodge a subsection (1) notice about the issue of shares to a person on the registration of the company or on the company changing its type from a company limited by guarantee to a company limited by shares.

Note: Information about shares issued in these situations will come to ASIC under subsections 117(2), 163(3) and 601BC(2).

The Corporations Law—Section 254Y

254Y Notice to ASIC of share cancellation

Within 1 month after shares are cancelled, the company must lodge with ASIC a notice in the prescribed form that sets out:

- (a) the number of shares cancelled; and
- (b) any amount paid by the company (in cash or otherwise) on the cancellation of the shares; and
- (c) if the shares are cancelled following a share buy-back—the amount paid by the company (in cash or otherwise) on the buy-back; and
- (d) if the company has different classes of shares—the class to which each cancelled share belonged.

Note: Provisions under which shares are cancelled include section 254J (redeemable preference shares), section 256B (capital reductions), subsection 257H(3) (shares a company has bought back), section 258D (forfeited shares), and subsection 1024E(7) (shares returned to a company).

Chapter 2J—Transactions affecting share capital

Part 2J.1—Share capital reductions and share buy-backs

256A Purpose

This Part states the rules to be followed by a company for reductions in share capital and for share buy-backs. The rules are designed to protect the interests of shareholders and creditors by:

- (a) addressing the risk of these transactions leading to the company's insolvency
- (b) seeking to ensure fairness between the company's shareholders
- (c) requiring the company to disclose all material information.

Division 1—Reductions in share capital not otherwise authorised by law

256B Company may make reduction not otherwise authorised

- (1) A company may reduce its share capital in a way that is not otherwise authorised by law if the reduction:
- (a) is fair and reasonable to the company’s shareholders as a whole; and
 - (b) does not materially prejudice the company’s ability to pay its creditors; and
 - (c) is approved by shareholders under section 256C.

A cancellation of a share for no consideration is a reduction of share capital, but paragraph (b) does not apply to this kind of reduction.

Note 1: One of the ways in which a company might reduce its share capital is cancelling uncalled capital.

Note 2: Sections 258A-258F deal with some of the other situations in which reductions of share capital are authorised. Subsection 254K(2) authorises capital reductions involved in the redemption of redeemable preference shares and subsection 257A(2) authorises reductions involved in share buy-backs.

Note 3: For a director’s duty to prevent insolvent trading on reductions of share capital, see section 588G.

- (2) The reduction is either an equal reduction or a selective reduction. The reduction is an equal reduction if:
- (a) it relates only to ordinary shares; and
 - (b) it applies to each holder of ordinary shares in proportion to the number of ordinary shares they hold; and
 - (c) the terms of the reduction are the same for each holder of ordinary shares.

Otherwise, the reduction is a selective reduction.

- (3) In applying subsection (2), ignore differences in the terms of the reduction that are:

The Corporations Law—Section 256C

- (a) attributable to the fact that shares have different accrued dividend entitlements; or
- (b) attributable to the fact that shares have different amounts unpaid on them; or
- (c) introduced solely to ensure that each shareholder is left with a whole number of shares.

256C Shareholder approval

Ordinary resolution required for equal reduction

- (1) If the reduction is an equal reduction, it must be approved by a resolution passed at a general meeting of the company.

Special shareholder approval for selective reduction

- (2) If the reduction is a selective reduction, it must be approved by either:
 - (a) a special resolution passed at a general meeting of the company, with no votes being cast in favour of the resolution by any person who is to receive consideration as part of the reduction or whose liability to pay amounts unpaid on shares is to be reduced, or by their associates; or
 - (b) a resolution agreed to, at a general meeting, by all ordinary shareholders.

If the reduction involves the cancellation of shares, the reduction must also be approved by a special resolution passed at a meeting of the shareholders whose shares are to be cancelled.

- (3) The company must lodge with ASIC a copy of any resolution under subsection (2) within 14 days after it is passed. The company must not make the reduction until 14 days after lodgment.

Information to accompany the notice of meeting

- (4) The company must include with the notice of the meeting a statement setting out all information known to the company that is material to the decision on how to vote on the resolution. However, the company does not have to disclose information if it would be unreasonable to require the company to do so because the company had previously disclosed the information to its shareholders.

The Corporations Law—Section 256D

Documents to be lodged with ASIC

- (5) Before the notice of the meeting is sent to shareholders, the company must lodge with ASIC a copy of:
- (a) the notice of the meeting; and
 - (b) any document relating to the reduction that will accompany the notice of the meeting sent to shareholders.

256D Consequences of failing to comply with section 256B

- (1) The company must not make the reduction unless it complies with subsection 256B(1).
- (2) If the company contravenes subsection (1):
- (a) the contravention does not affect the validity of the reduction or of any contract or transaction connected with it; and
 - (b) the company is not guilty of an offence.
- (3) Any person who is involved in a company's contravention of subsection (1) contravenes this subsection.

Note: Subsection (3) is a civil penalty provision (see section 1317DA).

Division 2—Share buy-backs

257A The company’s power to buy back its own shares

A company may buy back its own shares if:

- (a) the buy-back does not materially prejudice the company’s ability to pay its creditors; and
- (b) the company follows the procedures laid down in this Division.

Note 1: If a company has a constitution, it may include provisions in the constitution that preclude the company buying back its own shares or impose restrictions on the exercise of the company’s power to buy back its own shares.

Note 2: A company may buy-back redeemable preference shares and may do so on terms other than the terms on which they could be redeemed. For the redemption of redeemable preference shares, see sections 254J-254L.

The Corporations Law—Section 257B

Note: Subsections (2) and (3) of this section explain what an equal access scheme is. The 10/12 limit is the 10% in 12 months limit laid down in subsections (4) and (5). Subsections (6) and (7) of this section explain what an on-market buy-back is. See section 9 for definitions of minimum holding buy-back, employee share scheme buy-back and selective buy-back.

Equal access scheme

- (2) An equal access scheme is a scheme that satisfies all the following conditions:
- (a) the offers under the scheme relate only to ordinary shares

The Corporations Law—Section 257B

- (b) the offers are to be made to every person who holds ordinary shares to buy back the same percentage of their ordinary shares
 - (c) all of those persons have a reasonable opportunity to accept the offers made to them
 - (d) buy-back agreements are not entered into until a specified time for acceptances of offers has closed
 - (e) the terms of all the offers are the same.
- (3) In applying subsection (2), ignore:
- (a) differences in consideration attributable to the fact that the offers relate to shares having different accrued dividend entitlements
 - (b) differences in consideration attributable to the fact that the offers relate to shares on which different amounts remain unpaid
 - (c) differences in the offers introduced solely to ensure that each shareholder is left with a whole number of shares.

10/12 limit

- (4) The 10/12 limit for a company proposing to make a buy-back is 10% of the smallest number, at any time during the last 12 months, of votes attaching to voting shares of the company.

Exceeding the 10/12 limit

- (5) A proposed buy-back would exceed the 10/12 limit if the number of votes attaching to:
- (a) all the voting shares in the company that have been bought back during the last 12 months; and
 - (b) the voting shares that will be bought back if the proposed buy-back is made;
- would exceed the 10/12 limit.

The Corporations Law—Section 257C

On-market buy-backs

- (6) A buy-back is an on-market buy-back if it results from an offer made by a listed corporation at an official meeting of a securities exchange in Australia in the ordinary course of trading on a stock market of that exchange.
- (7) A buy-back by a company (whether listed or not) is also an on-market buy-back if it results from an offer made in the ordinary course of trading on a stock market of a body corporate that:
- (a) operates a securities market outside Australia; and
 - (b) ASIC declares in writing to be an approved overseas securities exchange for the purposes of this subsection.
- A buy-back by a listed company is an on-market buy-back under this subsection only if an offer to buy-back those shares is also made on a stock market of a securities exchange in Australia at the same time.
- (8) A declaration under paragraph (7)(b) may be subject to conditions. Notice of the making of the declaration must be published in the Gazette.

257C Buy-back procedure—shareholder approval if the 10/12 limit exceeded

Ordinary resolution required

- (1) If section 257B applies this section to a buy-back, the terms of the buy-back agreement must be approved before it is entered into by a resolution passed at a general meeting of the company, or the agreement must be conditional on such an approval.

Information to accompany the notice of meeting

- (2) The company must include with the notice of the meeting a statement setting out all information known to the company that is material to the decision how to vote on the resolution. However, the company does not have to disclose information if it would be unreasonable to require the company to do so because the company had previously disclosed the information to its shareholders.

Documents to be lodged with the ASIC

- (3) Before the notice of the meeting is sent to shareholders, the company must lodge with ASIC a copy of:
 - (a) the notice of the meeting; and
 - (b) any document relating to the buy-back that will accompany the notice of the meeting sent to shareholders.

257D Buy-back procedure—special shareholder approval for selective buy-back

Selective buy-back requires special or unanimous resolution

- (1) If section 257B applies this section to a buy-back, the terms of the buy-back agreement must be approved before it is entered into by either:
 - (a) a special resolution passed at a general meeting of the company, with no votes being cast in favour of the resolution by any person whose shares are proposed to be bought back or by their associates; or
 - (b) a resolution agreed to, at a general meeting, by all ordinary shareholders;or the agreement must be conditional on such an approval.

Information to accompany the notice of meeting

- (2) The company must include with the notice of the meeting a statement setting out all information known to the company that is material to the decision how to vote on the resolution. However, the company does not have to disclose information if it would be unreasonable to require the company to do so because the company had previously disclosed the information to its shareholders.

The Corporations Law—Section 257E

Documents to be lodged with ASIC

- (3) Before the notice of the meeting is sent to shareholders, the company must lodge with ASIC a copy of:
 - (a) the notice of the meeting; and
 - (b) any document relating to the buy-back that will accompany the notice of the meeting sent to shareholders.
- (4) ASIC may exempt a company from the operation of this section. The exemption:
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) must be granted before the buy-back agreement is entered into; and
 - (c) may be granted subject to conditions.

257E Buy-back procedure—lodgment of offer documents with ASIC

If section 257B applies this section to a buy-back, the company must lodge with ASIC, before the buy-back agreement is entered into, a copy of:

- (a) a document setting out the terms of the offer; and
- (b) any document that is to accompany the offer.

257F Notice of intended buy-back

- (1) If section 257B applies this section to a buy-back, the company must satisfy the lodgment requirement in subsection (2) at least 14 days before:
 - (a) if the buy-back agreement is conditional on the passing of a resolution under subsection 257C(1) or 257D(1)—the resolution is passed; or
 - (b) if it is not—the agreement is entered into.
- (2) The company satisfies the lodgment requirement when it lodges with ASIC:
 - (a) documents under subsection 257C(3) or 257D(3) or section 257E; or

(b) a notice that the company intends to carry out the buy-back.

Note 1: A company that has to lodge documents under section 257C, 257D or 257E needs to lodge a notice under paragraph (2)(b) of this section only if it wants for some reason to enter into the agreement or pass the resolution less than 14 days after lodging the section 257C, 257D or 257E documents.

Note 2: The company may specify a buy-back under paragraph (2)(b) in any way. It may, for instance, choose to lodge a notice covering buy-backs to be carried out:

- under a particular scheme; or
- as part of particular on-market buy-back activity.

257G Buy-back procedure—disclosure of relevant information when offer made

If section 257B applies this section to a buy-back, the company must include with the offer to buy back shares a statement setting out all information known to the company that is material to the decision whether to accept the offer.

257H Acceptance of offer and transfer of shares to the company

Effect of acceptance of the buy-back offer on share rights

- (1) Once a company has entered into an agreement to buy back shares, all rights attaching to the shares are suspended. The suspension is lifted if the agreement is terminated.

Shares transferred to the company and cancelled

- (2) A company must not deal in shares it buys back. An agreement entered into in contravention of this subsection is void.
- (3) Immediately after the registration of the transfer to the company of the shares bought back, the shares are cancelled.

Note: ASIC must be notified of the cancellation under section 254Y.

Division 3—Other share capital reductions

258A Unlimited companies

An unlimited company may reduce its share capital in any way.

258B Right to occupy or use real property

- (1) If a company has a constitution, under it the company may grant to a shareholder, as a shareholder, a right to occupy or use real property that the company owns or holds under lease, whether the right is a lease or licence or a contractual right.

Note: Before the introduction of strata or unit titles systems, rights to occupy real property were sometimes based on a holding of shares in a company.

- (2) A company may transfer to a person an interest in land in exchange for, or in satisfaction of, a right to occupy or use the land of the kind referred to in subsection (1).

Example: A person has a right to occupy an apartment in a block of units because they hold shares in a company. As part of converting the block of units to strata title, the person surrenders the shares in return for a transfer of strata title over the apartment. The capital reduction involved in the transfer is authorised under this subsection.

258C Brokerage or commission

A company may pay brokerage or commission to a person in respect of that person or another person agreeing to take up shares in the company.

258D Cancellation of forfeited shares

A company may, by resolution passed at a general meeting, cancel shares that have been forfeited under the terms on which the shares are on issue.

258E Other share cancellations

Any reduction in share capital involved in:

- (a) the redemption of redeemable preference shares out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of the redemption (see section 254K); or
- (b) a company's buying-back of its own shares under sections 257A to 257J if the shares are paid for out of share capital; or
- (c) the cancellation of a share under subsection 667(3) or 1024E(7);

is authorised by this section.

258F Reductions because of lost capital

A company may reduce its share capital by cancelling any paid-up share capital that is lost or is not represented by available assets. This power does not apply if the company also cancels shares.

Part 2J.2—Self-acquisition and control of shares

259A Directly acquiring own shares

A company must not acquire shares (or units of shares) in itself except:

- (a) in buying back shares under section 257A; or
- (b) in acquiring an interest (other than a legal interest) in fully-paid shares in the company if no consideration is given for the acquisition by the company or an entity it controls; or
- (c) under a court order; or
- (d) in circumstances covered by subsection 259B(2) or (3).

259B Taking security over own shares or shares in holding company

- (1) A company must not take security over shares (or units of shares) in itself or in a company that controls it, except as permitted by subsection (2) or (3).
- (2) A company may take security over shares in itself under an employee share scheme that has been approved by:
 - (a) a resolution passed at a general meeting of the company; and
 - (b) if the company is a subsidiary of a listed domestic corporation—a resolution passed at a general meeting of the listed domestic corporation; and
 - (c) if paragraph (b) does not apply but the company has a holding company that is a domestic corporation and that is not itself a subsidiary of a domestic corporation—a resolution passed at a general meeting of that holding company.

The Corporations Law—Section 259C

Special exemptions for financial institutions

- (3) A company's taking security over shares (or units of shares) in itself or in a company that controls it is exempted from subsection (1) if:
 - (a) the company's ordinary business includes providing finance; and
 - (b) the security is taken in the ordinary course of that business and on ordinary commercial terms.
- (4) If a company acquires shares (or units of shares) in itself because it exercises rights under a security permitted by subsection (2) or (3), then, within the following 12 months, the company must cease to hold those shares (or units of shares). ASIC may extend this period of 12 months if the company applies for the extension before the end of the period.
- (5) Any voting rights attached to the shares (or units of shares) cannot be exercised while the company continues to hold them.
- (6) If, at the end of the 12 months (or extended period), the company still holds any of the shares (or units of shares), the company commits an offence for each day while that situation continues.

259C Issuing or transferring shares to controlled entity

- (1) The issue or transfer of shares (or units of shares) of a company to an entity it controls is void unless:
 - (a) the issue or transfer is to the entity as a personal representative; or
 - (b) the issue or transfer is to the entity as trustee and neither the company nor any entity it controls has a beneficial interest in the trust, other than a beneficial interest that satisfies these conditions:
 - (i) the interest arises from a security given for the purposes of a transaction entered into in the ordinary course of business in connection with providing finance; and

The Corporations Law—Section 259D

- (ii) that transaction was not entered into with an associate of the company or an entity it controls; or
 - (c) the issue to the entity is made as a result of an offer to all the members of the company who hold shares of the class being issued and is made on a basis that does not discriminate unfairly, either directly or indirectly, in favour of the entity; or
 - (d) the transfer to the entity is by a wholly-owned subsidiary of a body corporate and the entity is also a wholly-owned subsidiary of that body corporate.
- (2) ASIC may exempt a company from the operation of this section. The exemption:
- (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) may be granted subject to conditions.
- (3) If paragraph (1)(c) or (d) applies to an issue or transfer of shares (or units of shares), section 259D applies.

259D Company controlling entity that holds shares in it

- (1) If any of the following occur:
- (a) a company obtains control of an entity that holds shares (or units of shares) in the company
 - (b) a company's control over an entity that holds shares (or units of shares) in the company increases
 - (c) a company issues shares (or units of shares) to an entity it controls in the situation covered by paragraph 259C(1)(c)
 - (d) shares (or units of shares) in the company are transferred to an entity it controls in the situation covered by paragraph 259C(1)(d);
- then, within 12 months after it occurs either:
- (e) the entity must cease to hold the shares (or units); or
 - (f) the company must cease to control the entity.
- ASIC may extend this period of 12 months if the company applies for the extension before the end of the period.

The Corporations Law—Section 259E

- (2) If this section applies to shares (or units of shares), it also applies to bonus shares issued in respect of those shares (or units of shares). Within the same period that applies to the shares themselves under subsection (1), either:
 - (a) the entity must cease to hold the bonus shares; or
 - (b) the company must cease to control the entity.
- (3) Any voting rights attached to the shares (or units of shares) cannot be exercised while the company continues to control the entity.
- (4) If, at the end of the 12 months (or extended period), the company still controls the entity and the entity still holds the shares (or units of shares), the company commits an offence for each day while that situation continues.
- (5) This section does not apply to shares (or units of shares) if:
 - (a) they are held by the entity as a personal representative; or
 - (b) they are held by the entity as trustee and neither the company nor any entity it controls has a beneficial interest in the trust, other than a beneficial interest that satisfies these conditions:
 - (i) the interest arises from a security given for the purposes of a transaction entered into in the ordinary course of business in connection with providing finance; and
 - (ii) that transaction was not entered into with an associate of the company or an entity it controls.
- (6) A contravention of this section does not affect the validity of any transaction.

259E When a company controls an entity

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a company controls an entity if the company has the capacity to determine the outcome of decisions about the entity's financial and operating policies.
- (2) In determining whether a company has this capacity:
 - (a) the practical influence the company can exert (rather than the rights it can enforce) is the issue to be addressed; and

The Corporations Law—Section 259F

- (b) any practice or pattern of behaviour affecting the entity's financial or operating policies is to be taken into account (even if it involves a breach of an agreement or a breach of trust).
- (3) Merely because the company and an unrelated entity jointly have the capacity to determine the outcome of decisions about another entity's financial and operating policies, the company does not control the other entity.
- (4) A company is not to be taken to control an entity merely because of a capacity that it is under a legal obligation to exercise for the benefit of someone other than its shareholders.

Note: This situation could arise, for example, if the company holds shares as a trustee or is performing duties as a liquidator.

259F Consequences of failing to comply with section 259A or 259B

- (1) If a company contravenes section 259A or subsection 259B(1):
 - (a) the contravention does not affect the validity of the acquisition or security or of any contract or transaction connected with it; and
 - (b) the company is not guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person who is involved in a company's contravention of section 259A or subsection 259B(1) contravenes this subsection.

Note: Subsection (2) is a civil penalty provision (see section 1317DA).

However, the company or body does not have to disclose information if it would be unreasonable to require the company or body to do so because the company or body had previously disclosed the information to its members.

- (5) Before the notice of a meeting for the purpose of subsection (1), (2) or (3) is sent to members of a company or other body, the company or body must lodge with ASIC a copy of:
 - (a) the notice of the meeting; and
 - (b) any document relating to the financial assistance that will accompany the notice of the meeting sent to the members.

Part 2K.3—Order of priority

278 Interpretation

(1) In this Part:

priority time, in relation to a registered charge, means:

- (a) except as provided by paragraph (b) or (c)—the time and date appearing in the Register in relation to the charge, being a time and day entered in the Register pursuant to section 265;
- (b) where a notice has been lodged under section 264 in relation to a charge on property, being a charge that, at the time when the notice was lodged, was already registered under Part 2K.2—the earlier or earliest time and day appearing in the Register in relation to the charge, being a time and day entered in the Register pursuant to section 264; and
- (c) to the extent that the charge has effect as varied by a variation notice of which was required to be lodged under subsection 268(2)—the time and day entered in the Register in relation to the charge pursuant to subsection 265(14);

prior registered charge, in relation to another registered charge, means a charge the priority time of which is earlier than the priority time of the other charge;

registered charge means a charge that is registered under Part 2K.2;

subsequent registered charge, in relation to another registered charge, means a charge the priority time of which is later than the priority time of the other registered charge;

unregistered charge means a charge that is not registered under Part 2K.2 but does not include a charge that is not a registrable charge.

The Corporations Law—Section 279

- (2) A reference in this Part to a person having notice of a charge includes a reference to a person having constructive notice of the charge.
- (3) Where, by virtue of the definition of priority time in subsection (1), a registered charge has 2 or more priority times each of which relates to a particular liability secured by the charge, each of those liabilities shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to be secured by a separate registered charge the priority time of which is the priority time of the first-mentioned registered charge that relates to the liability concerned.

279 Priorities of charges

- (1) Subject to this section, sections 280 to 282, inclusive, have effect with respect to the priorities, in relation to each other, of registrable charges on the property of a company.
- (2) The application, in relation to particular registrable charges, of the order of priorities of charges set out in sections 280 to 282, inclusive, is subject to:
 - (a) any consent (express or implied) that varies the priorities in relation to each other of those charges, being a consent given by the holder of one of those charges, being a charge that would otherwise be entitled to priority over the other charge; and
 - (b) any agreement between those chargees that affects the priorities in relation to each other of the charges in relation to which those persons are the chargees.
- (3) The holder of a registered charge, being a floating charge, on property of a company shall be deemed, for the purposes of subsection (2), to have consented to that charge being postponed to a subsequent registered charge, being a fixed charge that is created before the floating charge becomes fixed, on any of that property unless:

The Corporations Law—Section 280

- (a) the creation of the subsequent registered charge contravened a provision of the instrument or resolution creating or evidencing the floating charge; and
 - (b) a notice in respect of the floating charge indicating the existence of the provision referred to in paragraph (a) was lodged with the Commission under section 263, 264 or 268 before the creation of the subsequent registered charge.
- (4) Where a charge relates to property of a kind or kinds to which a particular paragraph or paragraphs of subsection 262(1) applies or apply and also relates to other property, sections 280 to 282, inclusive, apply so as to affect the priority of the charge only in so far as it relates to the first-mentioned property and do not affect the priority of the charge in so far as it relates to the other property.
- (5) Sections 280 to 282, inclusive, do not apply so as to affect the operation of:
- (a) the Copyright Act 1968;
 - (b) the Designs Act 1906;
 - (c) the Life Insurance Act 1995;
 - (d) the Patents Act 1952; or
 - (e) the Trade Marks Act 1955.

280 General priority rules in relation to registered charges

- (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, unless the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created;
 - (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, unless the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the

- unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created; and
- (c) an unregistered charge on the property created after the creation of the registered charge.
- (2) A registered charge on property of a company is postponed to:
- (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, where the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and
- (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, where the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created.

281 General priority rule in relation to unregistered charges

An unregistered charge on property of a company has priority over:

- (a) a registered charge on the property that was created after the creation of the unregistered charge and does not have priority over the unregistered charge under subsection 280(1); and
- (b) another unregistered charge on the property created after the first-mentioned unregistered charge.

282 Special priority rules

- (1) Except as provided by this section, any priority accorded by this Part to a charge over another charge does not extend to any liability that, at the priority time in relation to the first-mentioned charge, is not a present liability.
- (2) Where a registered charge on property of a company secures:

The Corporations Law—Section 282

- (a) a present liability and a prospective liability of an unspecified amount; or
 - (b) a prospective liability of an unspecified amount;
any priority accorded by this Part to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge does not have actual knowledge extends to the prospective liability, whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge.
- (3) Where a registered charge on property of a company secures:
- (a) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
 - (b) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; and the notice lodged under section 263 or 264 in relation to the charge sets out the nature of the prospective liability and the amount so specified, then any priority accorded by this Part to the charge over another charge extends to any prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge to the extent of the maximum amount so specified, whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and notwithstanding that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the prospective liability became a present liability.
- (4) Where:
- (a) a registered charge on property of a company secures:
 - (i) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
 - (ii) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount;
but the notice lodged under section 263 or 264 in relation to the charge does not set out the nature of the prospective liability or the maximum amount so specified; or
 - (b) a registered charge on property of a company secures a prospective liability of an unspecified amount;
- the following paragraphs have effect:

The Corporations Law—Section 282

- (c) any priority accorded by this Part to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to any prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that had become a present liability at the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge;
- (d) any priority accorded by this Part to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to any prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that became a present liability, as the result of the making of an advance, after the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge if, at that time, the terms of the first-mentioned charge required the chargee in relation to that charge to make the advance after that time, and so extends to that prospective liability whether the advance was made before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and notwithstanding that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the advance was made.

This Chapter (and, in particular, the provisions on consolidation of financial statements) does not prevent accounting standards from incorporating equity accounting principles.

The Corporations Law—Section 336

The accounting standards for the preparation of financial reports for a period may require the inclusion in those reports of comparative amounts for earlier periods.

337 Interpretation of accounting standards

In interpreting an accounting standard, unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) expressions used in the standard have the same meaning as they have in this Chapter; and
- (b) the provisions of Part 1.2 apply as if the standard's provisions were provisions of this Chapter.

If an accounting standard would otherwise have been interpreted as being inconsistent with this Law, the standard is nevertheless to be valid to the extent to which it is not inconsistent with this Law.

339 Evidence of text of accounting standard

The Corporations Law—Section 339

- (b) the text set out in the document is the text of the standard referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or the provision referred to in paragraph (1)(b).

- (1) To make an order under section 340 or 341, ASIC must be satisfied that complying with the relevant requirements of Parts 2M.2 and 2M.3 would:
 - (a) make the financial report or other reports misleading; or
 - (b) be inappropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (c) impose unreasonable burdens.
- (2) In deciding for the purposes of subsection (1) whether the audit requirements for a proprietary company, or a class of proprietary companies, would impose an unreasonable burden on the company or companies, ASIC is to have regard to:

 - (b) the expected benefits of having the company or companies comply with the audit requirements; and
 - (c) any practical difficulties that the company or companies face in complying effectively with the audit requirements (in particular, any difficulties that arise because a financial year is the first one for which the audit requirements apply or because the company or companies are likely to move frequently between the small and large proprietary company categories from one financial year to another); and

- (e) any other matters that ASIC considers relevant.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to section 310, 312, 323A or 323B.

The return for a scheme must be lodged within 3 months after the end of the scheme's financial year unless ASIC and the responsible entity agree to a different lodgment date (see subsection (3)).

Agreed lodgment date

- (3) ASIC and the company or ASIC and the responsible entity may agree to a different lodgment date. The agreement must be in writing and may cover 1 or more years. The annual return must be lodged by the agreed date.

Company's obligation to lodge some notices ceases on lodgment of annual return

- (4) A company's obligation to lodge a notice under section 142, 146, 242 or 254X, ceases when:
 - (a) the company lodges an annual return; and
 - (b) the annual return sets out the information required by the notice.

The Corporations Law—Section 346

This subsection does not affect the company's liability for late lodgment fees incurred before the annual return is lodged or continuing offences committed before that time.

Note: ASIC has a practice of sending out partly completed annual returns. The partly completed return may be used to comply with the obligation to lodge an annual return by correcting any information in it that is not accurate, completing the rest and lodging it with ASIC.

346 Solvency resolution—companies

- (1) Within 1 month before the annual return is lodged, the directors of a company must resolve whether, in their opinion, there are reasonable grounds to believe that the company will be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a company that has lodged a financial report of the company with ASIC under Chapter 2M within 12 months before the annual return is lodged.

347 Lodging annual return with ASIC

An annual return may be lodged with ASIC:

- (a) in writing in the form approved by ASIC and signed in accordance with section 351; or
- (b) electronically in accordance with section 352.

Chapter 5—External administration

Part 5.1—Arrangements and reconstructions

410 Interpretation

A reference in this Part, in relation to a Part 5.1 body, to the directors is a reference to the directors of the body or any one or more of them.

411 Administration of compromises etc.

- (1) Where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between a Part 5.1 body and its creditors or any class of them or between a Part 5.1 body and its members or any class of them, the Court may, on the application in a summary way of the body or of any creditor or member of the body, or, in the case of a body being wound up, of the liquidator, order a meeting or meetings of the creditors or class of creditors or of the members of the body or class of members to be convened in such manner, and to be held in such place or places (in this jurisdiction or elsewhere), as the Court directs and, where the Court makes such an order, the Court may approve the explanatory statement required by paragraph 412(1)(a) to accompany notices of the meeting or meetings.

(1A) Where:

- (a) a compromise or arrangement is proposed:
- (i) between 30 or more Part 5.1 bodies that are wholly-owned subsidiaries of a holding company and the creditors or a class of the creditors of each of those subsidiaries; and
 - (ii) between the holding company and the creditors or a class of the creditors of the holding company; and
- (b) the proposed compromise or arrangement in relation to each subsidiary includes a term that orders will be sought under section 413 transferring the whole of the undertaking and of the property and liabilities of the subsidiary to the holding company; and

The Corporations Law—Section 411

- (c) the Court is satisfied, on the application in a summary way:
 - (i) of the holding company or of a creditor of the holding company; or
 - (ii) if the holding company is being wound up—of the liquidator;

that the number of meetings that would be required between creditors in order to consider the proposed compromises or arrangements would be so great as to result in a significant impediment to the timely and effective consideration by those creditors of the terms of the compromises or arrangements;

the Court may order a meeting or meetings, on a consolidated basis, of the creditors of the holding company and of each of the subsidiaries or of such class or classes of those creditors as the Court determines and, where the Court makes such an order, the Court may approve the explanatory statement required by paragraph 412(1)(a) to accompany notices of the meeting or meetings.

(1B) Where:

- (a) there are fewer than 30 wholly-owned subsidiaries of the holding company but the matters referred to in paragraphs (1A)(b) and (c) are satisfied; and
- (b) the Court considers that circumstances exist that would justify its doing so;

the Court may make an order under subsection (1A) in relation to the proposed compromise or arrangement.

(1C) Where an order is made under subsection (1A) in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement, the succeeding provisions of this Part apply to the compromise or arrangement as if:

- (a) references in this Part to a company included references to all of the Part 5.1 bodies to which the order relates; and

The Corporations Law—Section 411

- (b) references in this Part to creditors of a company included references to the creditors of all the Part 5.1 bodies to which the order relates; and
 - (c) references in this Part to a class of the creditors of a company were references to the relevant class of creditors of all of the Part 5.1 bodies to which the order relates.
- (2) The Court shall not make an order pursuant to an application under subsection (1) or (1A) unless:
- (a) 14 days notice of the hearing of the application, or such lesser period of notice as the Court or the Commission permits, has been given to the Commission; and
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that the Commission has had a reasonable opportunity:
 - (i) to examine the terms of the proposed compromise or arrangement to which the application relates and a draft explanatory statement relating to the proposed compromise or arrangement; and
 - (ii) to make submissions to the Court in relation to the proposed compromise or arrangement and the draft explanatory statement.
- (3) In subsection (2), draft explanatory statement, in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement between a body and its creditors or any class of them or between a body and its members or any class of them, means a statement:
- (a) explaining the effect of the proposed compromise or arrangement and, in particular, stating any material interests of the directors of the body, whether as directors, as members or creditors of the body or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the proposed compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons; and
 - (b) setting out such information as is prescribed and any other information that is material to the making of a decision by a creditor or member of the body whether or not to agree to the proposed compromise or arrangement, being information that is within the knowledge of the directors of the body and has not previously been disclosed to the creditors or members of the body.

- (3A) In considering whether to make an order under subsection (1) or (1A) for a meeting to be held in another jurisdiction, the Court must have regard to where the creditors or members, or the creditors or members included in the class concerned, as the case requires, reside.
- (4) A compromise or arrangement is binding on the creditors, or on a class of creditors, or on the members, or on a class of members, as the case may be, of the body and on the body or, if the body is in the course of being wound up, on the liquidator and contributories of the body, if, and only if:
- (a) at a meeting convened in accordance with an order of the Court under subsection (1) or (1A):
 - (i) in the case of a compromise or arrangement between a body and its creditors or a class of creditors—the compromise or arrangement is agreed to by a majority in number of the creditors, or of the creditors included in that class of creditors, present and voting, either in person or by proxy, being a majority whose debts or claims against the company amount in the aggregate to at least 75% of the total amount of the debts and claims of the creditors present and voting in person or by proxy, or of the creditors included in that class present and voting in person or by proxy, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) in the case of a compromise or arrangement between a body and its members or a class of members—a resolution in favour of the compromise or arrangement is:
 - (A) passed by a majority in number of the members, or members in that class, present and voting (either in person or by proxy); and
 - (B) if the body has a share capital—passed by 75% of the votes cast on the resolution; and

The Corporations Law—Section 411

- (b) it is approved by order of the Court.
- (5) Where the Court orders 2 or more meetings of creditors or of a class of creditors, or 2 or more meetings of members or of a class of members, to be held in relation to the proposed compromise or arrangement:
 - (a) in the case of meetings of creditors—the meetings shall, for the purposes of subsection (4), be deemed together to constitute a single meeting and the votes in favour of the proposed compromise or arrangement cast at each of the meetings shall be aggregated, and the votes against the proposed compromise or arrangement cast at each of the meetings shall be aggregated, accordingly; or
 - (b) in the case of meetings of members—the meetings shall, for the purposes of subsection (4), be deemed together to constitute a single meeting and the votes in favour of the proposed compromise or arrangement cast at each of the meetings shall be aggregated, and the votes against the proposed compromise or arrangement cast at each of the meetings shall be aggregated, accordingly.
- (6) The Court may grant its approval to a compromise or arrangement subject to such alterations or conditions as it thinks just.
- (7) Except with the leave of the Court, a person shall not be appointed to administer, and shall not administer, a compromise or arrangement approved under this Law between a body and its creditors or any class of them or between a body and its members or any class of them, whether by the terms of that compromise or arrangement or pursuant to a power given by the terms of a compromise or arrangement, if the person:
 - (a) is a mortgagee of any property of the body;
 - (b) is an auditor or an officer of the body;
 - (c) is an officer of a body corporate that is a mortgagee of property of the body;
 - (d) is not a registered liquidator;
 - (e) is an officer of a body corporate related to the body; or

The Corporations Law—Section 411

- (f) unless the Commission directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the body—has at any time within the last 12 months been an officer or promoter of the body or of a related body corporate.
- (8) Paragraph (7)(d) does not apply in relation to a body corporate authorised by or under a law of this jurisdiction to administer the compromise or arrangement concerned.
- (8A) Subsection (7) does not disqualify a person from administering a compromise or arrangement under an appointment validly made before the commencement of this section.
- (9) Where a person is or persons are appointed by, or under a power given by, the terms of a compromise or arrangement, to administer the compromise or arrangement:
 - (a) section 425, subsections 427(2) and (4) and sections 428, 432 and 434 apply in relation to that person or those persons as if:
 - (i) the appointment of the person or persons to administer the compromise or arrangement were an appointment of the person or persons as a receiver and manager, or as receivers and managers, of property of the body; and
 - (ii) a reference in any of those sections or subsections to a receiver, or to a receiver of property, of a corporation were a reference to that person or to those persons; and
 - (b) section 536 applies in relation to that person or those persons as if:
 - (i) the appointment of the person or persons to administer the compromise or arrangement were an appointment of the person or persons as a liquidator of the body; and
 - (ii) a reference in that section to a liquidator were a reference to that person or to those persons.
- (10) An order of the Court made for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b) does not have any effect until an office copy of the order is lodged with the Commission, and upon being so lodged, the order takes effect, or shall be deemed to have taken effect, on and from the date of lodgment or such earlier date as the Court determines and specifies in the order.

- (11) Subject to subsection (12), a copy of every order of the Court made for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b) shall be annexed to every copy of the constitution of the body issued after the order has been made.
- (12) The Court may, by order, exempt a body from compliance with subsection (11) or determine the period during which the body shall comply with that subsection.
- (13) Where a compromise or arrangement referred to in subsection (1) or (1A) (whether or not for the purposes of or in connection with a scheme for the reconstruction of a body or bodies or the amalgamation of any 2 or more bodies) has been proposed, the directors of the body shall:
 - (a) if a meeting of the members of the body by resolution so directs—instruct such accountants or solicitors or both as are named in the resolution to report on the proposals and send their report or reports to the directors as soon as practicable; and
 - (b) if a report or reports is or are obtained pursuant to paragraph (a)—make the report or reports available at the registered office of the body for inspection by the shareholders and creditors of the body at least 7 days before the day of the meeting ordered by the Court to be convened as provided in subsection (1) or (1A), as the case may be.
- (14) If default is made in complying with subsection (11), the body contravenes this subsection.
- (15) If default is made in complying with subsection (13), each director of the body contravenes this subsection.
- (16) Where no order has been made or resolution passed for the winding up of a Part 5.1 body and a compromise or arrangement has been proposed between the body and its creditors or any class of them, the Court may, in addition to exercising any of its other powers, on the application in a summary way of the body or of any member or creditor of the body, restrain further proceedings in any action or other civil proceeding against the body except by leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court imposes.

- (17) The Court shall not approve a compromise or arrangement under this section unless:
- (a) it is satisfied that the compromise or arrangement has not been proposed for the purpose of enabling any person to avoid the operation of any of the provisions of Chapter 6; or
 - (b) there is produced to the Court a statement in writing by the Commission stating that the Commission has no objection to the compromise or arrangement;
- but the Court need not approve a compromise or arrangement merely because a statement by the Commission stating that the Commission has no objection to the compromise or arrangement has been produced to the Court as mentioned in paragraph (b).

412 Information as to compromise with creditors

- (1) Where a meeting is convened under section 411, the body shall:
- (a) with every notice convening the meeting that is sent to a creditor or member, send a statement (in this section called the explanatory statement):
 - (i) explaining the effect of the compromise or arrangement and, in particular, stating any material interests of the directors, whether as directors, as members or creditors of the body or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons; and
 - (ii) setting out such information as is prescribed and any other information that is material to the making of a decision by a creditor or member whether or not to agree to the compromise or arrangement, being information that is within the knowledge of the directors and has not previously been disclosed to the creditors or members; and

- (b) in every notice convening the meeting that is given by advertisement, include either a copy of the explanatory statement or a notification of the place at which and the manner in which creditors or members entitled to attend the meeting may obtain copies of the explanatory statement.
- (2) In the case of a creditor whose debt does not exceed $200, paragraph (1)(a) does not apply unless the Court otherwise orders but the notice convening the meeting that is sent to such a creditor shall specify a place at which a copy of the explanatory statement can be obtained on request and, where the creditor makes such a request, the body shall as soon as practicable comply with the request.
 - (3) Where the compromise or arrangement affects the rights of debenture holders, the explanatory statement shall specify any material interests of the trustees for the debenture holders, whether as such trustees, as members or creditors of the body or otherwise, and the effect on those interests of the compromise or arrangement in so far as that effect is different from the effect on the like interests of other persons.
 - (4) Where a notice given by advertisement includes a notification that copies of the explanatory statement can be obtained in a particular manner, every creditor or member entitled to attend the meeting shall, on making application in that matter, be furnished by the body free of charge with a copy of the explanatory statement.
 - (5) Each person who is a director or trustee for debenture holders shall give notice to the body of such matters relating to the person as are required to be included in the explanatory statement.
 - (6) In the case of a compromise or arrangement that is not, or does not include, a compromise or arrangement between a Part 5.1 body and its creditors or any class of them, the body shall not send out an explanatory statement pursuant to subsection (1) unless a copy of that statement has been registered by the Commission.

The Corporations Law—Section 413

- (7) Where an explanatory statement sent out under subsection (1) is not required by subsection (6) to be registered by the Commission, the Court shall not make an order approving the compromise or arrangement unless it is satisfied that the Commission has had a reasonable opportunity to examine the explanatory statement and to make submissions to the Court in relation to that statement.
- (8) Where a copy of an explanatory statement is lodged with the Commission for registration under subsection (6), the Commission shall not register the copy of the statement unless the statement appears to comply with this Law and the Commission is of the opinion that the statement does not contain any matter that is false in a material particular or materially misleading in the form or context in which it appears.
- (9) Where a body contravenes this section, a person involved in the contravention contravenes this subsection.
- (10) It is a defence to a prosecution for a contravention of this section if it is proved that the contravention was due to the failure of a person (other than the defendant), being a director of the body or a trustee for debenture holders of the body, to supply for the purposes of the explanatory statement particulars of the person's interests.

413 Provisions for facilitating reconstruction and amalgamation of Part 5.1 bodies

- (1) Where an application is made to the Court under this Part for the approval of a compromise or arrangement and it is shown to the Court that the compromise or arrangement has been proposed for the purposes of, or in connection with, a scheme for the reconstruction of a Part 5.1 body or Part 5.1 bodies or the amalgamation of 2 or more Part 5.1 bodies and that, under the scheme, the whole or any part of the undertaking or of the property of a body concerned in the scheme (in this section called the transferor body) is to be transferred to a company (in this section called the transferee company), the Court may, either by the order approving the compromise or arrangement or by a later order, provide for all or any of the following matters:

The Corporations Law—Section 413

- (a) the transfer to the transferee company of the whole or a part of the undertaking and of the property or liabilities of the transferor body;
 - (b) the allotting or appropriation by the transferee company of shares, debentures, policies or other interests in that company that, under the compromise or arrangement, are to be allotted or appropriated by that company to or for any person;
 - (c) the continuation by or against the transferee company of any legal proceedings pending by or against the transferor body;
 - (d) if the transferor body is a company—the deregistration by ASIC, without winding up, of the transferor body;
 - (e) the provision to be made for any persons who, within such time and in such manner as the Court directs, dissent from the compromise or arrangement;
 - (f) the transfer or allotment of any interest in property to any person concerned in the compromise or arrangement;
 - (g) such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as are necessary to ensure that the reconstruction or amalgamation is fully and effectively carried out.
- (2) Where an order made under this section provides for the transfer of property or liabilities, then, by virtue of the order, that property shall be transferred to and vest in, and those liabilities shall be transferred to and become the liabilities of, the transferee company, free, in the case of any particular property if the order so directs, from any charge that is, by virtue of the compromise or arrangement, to cease to have effect.
- (3) Where an order is made under this section, each body to which the order relates shall, within 14 days after the making of the order, lodge with the Commission an office copy of the order.
- (4) In this section:
- liabilities includes duties of any description, including duties that are of a personal character or are incapable under the general law of being assigned or performed vicariously;

The Corporations Law—Section 414

property includes rights and powers of any description, including rights and powers that are of a personal character and are incapable under the general law of being assigned or performed vicariously.

414 Acquisition of shares of shareholders dissenting from scheme or contract approved by majority

(1) In this section:

dissenting shareholder, in relation to a scheme or contract, means a shareholder who has not assented to the scheme or contract or who has failed to transfer his, her or its shares in accordance with the scheme or contract;

excluded shares, in relation to a scheme or contract involving a transfer to a person of shares in a class of shares in a company, means shares in that class that, when the offer relating to the scheme or contract is made, are held by:

- (a) in any case—the person or a nominee of the person; or
- (b) if the person is a body corporate—a subsidiary of the body.

(2) Where a scheme or contract (not being a scheme or contract arising out of the making of takeover offers, or a takeover announcement, under Chapter 6) involving a transfer of shares in a class of shares in a company (in this section called the transferor company) to a person (in this section called the transferee) has, within 4 months after the making of the offer relating to the scheme or contract by the transferee, been approved by members holding shares in that class carrying at least 90% of the votes attached to shares in that class (other than excluded shares), the transferee may, within 2 months after the offer has been so approved, give notice as prescribed to a dissenting shareholder that the transferee wishes to acquire the shares held by that shareholder.

(3) Where such a notice is given, then, unless the Court orders otherwise on an application by a dissenting shareholder made within one month after the day on which the notice was given or within 14 days after a statement is supplied under subsection (7) to a dissenting shareholder, whichever is the later, the transferee is entitled and bound, subject to this section, to acquire those shares on the terms on which, under the scheme or contract, the shares of the approving shareholders are to be transferred to the transferee.

- (4) Where alternative terms were offered to the approving shareholders, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to elect not later than the end of one month after the date on which the notice is given under subsection (2) or 14 days after a statement is supplied under subsection (7), whichever is the later, which of those terms he, she or it prefers and, if he, she or it fails to make the election within the time allowed by this subsection, the transferee may, unless the Court otherwise orders, determine which of those terms is to apply to the acquisition of the shares of the dissenting shareholder.
- (5) Despite subsections (3) and (4), if the number of votes attached to the excluded shares is more than 10% of the votes attached to the excluded shares and the shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract, those subsections do not apply unless:
 - (a) the transferee offers the same terms to all holders of the shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract; and
 - (b) the holders who approve the scheme or contract hold shares to which are attached at least 90% of the votes attached to the shares (other than excluded shares) to be transferred under the scheme or contract and are also at least 75% in number of the holders of those shares.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(b), 2 or more persons registered as holding shares jointly shall be counted as one person.
- (7) When a notice is given under subsection (2), the dissenting shareholder may, by written notice given to the transferee within one month after the day on which the notice was given under subsection (2), ask for a statement in writing of the names and addresses of all other dissenting shareholders as shown in the register of members.

The Corporations Law—Section 414

- (8) Where a notice is given under subsection (7), the transferee shall comply with it.
- (9) Where, under a scheme or contract referred to in subsection (2), the transferee becomes beneficially entitled to shares in the transferor company which, together with any other shares in the transferor company to which the transferee or, where the transferee is a body corporate, a body corporate related to the transferee is beneficially entitled, have attached to them at least 90% of the votes attached to the shares included in the class of shares concerned, then:
- (a) the transferee shall, within one month after the date on which he, she or it becomes beneficially entitled to those shares (unless in relation to the scheme or contract he, she or it has already complied with this requirement), give notice of the fact as prescribed to the holders of the remaining shares included in that class who, when the notice was given, had not assented to the scheme or contract or been given notice by the transferee under subsection (2); and
 - (b) such a holder may, within 3 months after the giving of the notice to him, her or it by notice to the transferee, require the transferee to acquire his, her or its share and, where alternative terms were offered to the approving shareholders, elect which of those terms he, she or it will accept.
- (10) Where a shareholder gives notice under paragraph (9)(b) with respect to his, her or its shares, the transferee is entitled and bound to acquire those shares:
- (a) on the terms on which under the scheme or contract the shares of the approving shareholders were transferred to him, her or it and, where alternative terms were offered to those shareholders, on the terms for which the shareholder has elected, or where he, she or it has not so elected, for whichever of the terms the transferee determines; or
 - (b) on such other terms as are agreed or as the Court, on the application of the transferee or of the shareholder, thinks fit to order.

The Corporations Law—Section 414

The Corporations Law—Section 415

accretions to it and any property that may become substituted for it or for part of it, to the Commission to be dealt with under Part 9.7.

415 Notification of appointment of scheme manager and power of Court to require report

- (1) Within 14 days after being appointed to administer a compromise or arrangement approved under this Part, a person shall lodge a notice in writing of the appointment.
- (2) Where an application is made to the Court under this Part in relation to a proposed compromise or arrangement, the Court may:
 - (a) before making any order on the application, require the Commission or another person specified by the Court to give to the Court a report as to the terms of the compromise or arrangement or of the scheme for the purposes of or in connection with which the compromise or arrangement has been proposed, the conduct of the officers of the body or bodies concerned and any other matters that, in the opinion of the Commission or that person, ought to be brought to the attention of the Court;

The Corporations Law—Section 415A

Part 5.2—Receivers, and other controllers, of property of corporations

416 Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

officer, in relation to a registered foreign company, includes a local agent of the foreign company;

property, in relation to a corporation, means property:

- (a) in the case of a company—within or outside Australia; or
- (b) in the case of a registered foreign company—within Australia or an external Territory; or
- (c) otherwise—within this jurisdiction;

receiver, in relation to property of a corporation, includes a receiver and manager.

417 Application of Part

Except so far as the contrary intention appears in this Part or Part 11.2, this Part applies in relation to a receiver of property of a corporation who is appointed after the commencement of this section, even if the appointment arose out of a transaction entered into, or an act or thing done, before that commencement.

418 Persons not to act as receivers

- (1) A person is not qualified to be appointed, and shall not act, as receiver of property of a corporation if the person:
 - (a) is a mortgagee of property of the corporation;
 - (b) is an auditor or an officer of the corporation;
 - (c) is an officer of a body corporate that is a mortgagee of property of the corporation;

The Corporations Law—Section 418A

- (d) is not a registered liquidator;
 - (e) is an officer of a body corporate related to the corporation; or
 - (f) unless the Commission directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the corporation—has at any time within the last 12 months been an officer or promoter of the corporation or of a related body corporate.
- (2) In subsection (1):
- officer*, in relation to a body corporate, does not include a receiver, appointed under an instrument whether before or after the commencement of this section, of property of the body.
- (3) Paragraph (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a body corporate authorised by or under a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory to act as receiver of property of the corporation concerned.

Note: See section 1362CF for appointments made before the introduction of the Corporations Law.

418A Court may declare whether controller is validly acting

- (1) Where there is doubt, on a specific ground, about:
- (a) whether a purported appointment of a person, after the commencement of this section, as receiver of property of a corporation is valid; or
 - (b) whether a person who has entered into possession, or assumed control, of property of a corporation after the commencement of this section did so validly under the terms of a charge on that property;
- the person, the corporation or any of the corporation's creditors may apply to the Court for an order under subsection (2).
- (2) On an application, the Court may make an order declaring whether or not:
- (a) the purported appointment was valid; or

The Corporations Law—Section 419

(b) the person entered into possession, or assumed control, validly under the terms of the charge; as the case may be, on the ground specified in the application or on some other ground.

419 Liability of controller

- (1) A receiver, or any other authorised person, who, whether as agent for the corporation concerned or not, enters into possession or assumes control of any property of a corporation for the purpose of enforcing any charge is, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the person's rights against the corporation or any other person, liable for debts incurred by the person in the course of the receivership, possession or control for services rendered, goods purchased or property hired, leased, used or occupied.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not constitute the person entitled to the charge a mortgagee in possession.
- (3) Where:
 - (a) a person (in this subsection called the controller) enters into possession or assumes control of property of a corporation;
 - (b) the controller purports to have been properly appointed as a receiver in respect of that property under a power contained in an instrument, but has not been properly so appointed; and
 - (c) civil proceedings in an Australian court arise out of an act alleged to have been done by the controller;the court may, if it is satisfied that the controller believed on reasonable grounds that the controller had been properly so appointed, order that:
 - (d) the controller be relieved in whole or in part of a liability that the controller has incurred but would not have incurred if the controller had been properly so appointed; and
 - (e) a person who purported to appoint the controller as receiver be liable in respect of an act, matter or thing in so far as the controller has been relieved under paragraph (d) of liability in respect of that act, matter or thing.

419A Liability of controller under pre-existing agreement about property used by corporation

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) under an agreement made before the control day in relation to a controller of property of a corporation, the corporation continues after that day to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, property (the third party property) of which someone else is the owner or lessor; and
 - (b) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (2) Subject to subsections (4) and (7), the controller is liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the corporation under the agreement as is attributable to a period:
 - (a) that begins more than 7 days after the control day; and
 - (b) throughout which:
 - (i) the corporation continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the third party property; and
 - (ii) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (3) Within 7 days after the control day, the controller may give to the owner or lessor a notice that specifies the third party property and states that the controller does not propose to exercise rights in relation to that property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the corporation or anyone else.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), the controller is not liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the corporation under the agreement as is attributable to a period during which a notice under subsection (3) is in force, but such a notice does not affect a liability of the corporation.
- (5) A notice under subsection (3) ceases to have effect if:
 - (a) the controller revokes it by writing given to the owner or lessor; or

The Corporations Law—Section 420

- (b) the controller exercises, or purports to exercise, a right in relation to the third party property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the corporation or anyone else.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the controller does not exercise, or purport to exercise, a right as mentioned in paragraph (5)(b) merely because the controller continues to be in possession, or to have control, of the third party property, unless the controller:
 - (a) also uses the property; or
 - (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, so to continue.
- (7) Subsection (2) does not apply in so far as a court, by order, excuses the controller from liability, but an order does not affect a liability of the corporation.
- (8) The controller is not taken because of subsection (2):
 - (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
 - (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subsection (2).

420 Powers of receiver

- (1) Subject to this section, a receiver of property of a corporation has power to do, in Australia and elsewhere, all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with, or as incidental to, the attainment of the objectives for which the receiver was appointed.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), but subject to any provision of the court order by which, or the instrument under which, the receiver was appointed, being a provision that limits the receiver's powers in any way, a receiver of property of a corporation has, in addition to any powers conferred by that order or instrument, as the case may be, or by any other law, power, for the purpose of attaining the objectives for which the receiver was appointed:

The Corporations Law—Section 420

- (a) to enter into possession and take control of property of the corporation in accordance with the terms of that order or instrument;
- (b) to lease, let on hire or dispose of property of the corporation;
- (c) to grant options over property of the corporation on such conditions as the receiver thinks fit;
- (d) to borrow money on the security of property of the corporation;
- (e) to insure property of the corporation;
- (f) to repair, renew or enlarge property of the corporation;
- (g) to convert property of the corporation into money;
- (h) to carry on any business of the corporation;
- (j) to take on lease or on hire, or to acquire, any property necessary or convenient in connection with the carrying on of a business of the corporation;
- (k) to execute any document, bring or defend any proceedings or do any other act or thing in the name of and on behalf of the corporation;
- (m) to draw, accept, make and indorse a bill of exchange or promissory note;
- (n) to use a seal of the corporation;
- (o) to engage or discharge employees on behalf of the corporation;
- (p) to appoint a solicitor, accountant or other professionally qualified person to assist the receiver;
- (q) to appoint an agent to do any business that the receiver is unable to do, or that it is unreasonable to expect the receiver to do, in person;
- (r) where a debt or liability is owed to the corporation—to prove the debt or liability in a bankruptcy, insolvency or winding up and, in connection therewith, to receive dividends and to assent to a proposal for a composition or a scheme of arrangement;
- (s) if the receiver was appointed under an instrument that created a charge on uncalled share capital of the corporation:

The Corporations Law—Section 420A

- (i) to make a call in the name of the corporation for the payment of money unpaid on the corporation's shares; or
 - (ii) on giving a proper indemnity to a liquidator of the corporation—to make a call in the liquidator's name for the payment of money unpaid on the corporation's shares;
 - (t) to enforce payment of any call that is due and unpaid, whether the calls were made by the receiver or otherwise;
 - (u) to make or defend an application for the winding up of the corporation; and
 - (w) to refer to arbitration any question affecting the corporation.
- (3) The conferring by this section on a receiver of powers in relation to property of a corporation does not affect any rights in relation to that property of any other person other than the corporation.
- (4) In this section, a reference, in relation to a receiver, to property of a corporation is, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to the property of the corporation in relation to which the receiver was appointed.

420A Controller's duty of care in exercising power of sale

- (1) In exercising a power of sale in respect of property of a corporation, a controller must take all reasonable care to sell the property for:
- (a) if, when it is sold, it has a market value—not less than that market value; or
 - (b) otherwise—the best price that is reasonably obtainable, having regard to the circumstances existing when the property is sold.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the generality of anything in section 232.

420B Court may authorise managing controller to dispose of property despite prior charge

- (1) On the application of a managing controller of property of a corporation, the Court may by order authorise the controller to sell, or to dispose of in some other specified way, specified property of the corporation, even though it is subject to a charge (in this section called the prior charge) that has priority over a charge (in this section called the controller's charge) on that property that the controller is enforcing.
- (2) However, the Court may only make an order if satisfied that:
 - (a) apart from the existence of the prior charge, the controller would have power to sell, or to so dispose of, the property; and
 - (b) the controller has taken all reasonable steps to obtain the consent of the holder of the prior charge to the sale or disposal, but has not obtained that consent; and
 - (c) sale or disposal of the property under the order is in the best interests of the corporation's creditors and of the corporation; and
 - (d) sale or disposal of the property under the order will not unreasonably prejudice the rights or interests of the holder of the prior charge.
- (3) The Court is to have regard to the need to protect adequately the rights and interests of the holder of the prior charge.
- (4) If the property would be sold or disposed of together with other property that is subject to the controller's charge, the Court may have regard to:
 - (a) the amount (if any) by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of that other property otherwise than together with the first-mentioned property would be less than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to that other property; and

- (b) the amount (if any) by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of the first-mentioned property otherwise than together with the other property would be greater than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to the first-mentioned property.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) limits the matters to which the Court may have regard for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (6) An order may be made subject to conditions, for example (but without limitation):
 - (a) a condition that:
 - (i) the net proceeds of the sale or disposal; and
 - (ii) the net proceeds of the sale or disposal of such other property (if any) as is specified in the condition and is subject to the controller's charge;or a specified part of those net proceeds, be applied in payment of specified amounts secured by the prior charge; or
 - (b) a condition that the controller apply a specified amount in payment of specified amounts secured by the prior charge.

420C Receiver's power to carry on corporation's business during winding up

- (1) A receiver of property of a corporation that is being wound up may:
 - (a) with the written approval of the corporation's liquidator or with the approval of the Court, carry on the corporation's business either generally or as otherwise specified in the approval; and
 - (b) do whatever is necessarily incidental to carrying on that business under paragraph (a).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not:
 - (a) affect a power that the receiver has otherwise than under that subsection; or

The Corporations Law—Section 421

- (b) empower the receiver to do an act that he or she would not have power to do if the corporation were not being wound up.
- (3) A receiver of property of a corporation who carries on the corporation's business under subsection (1) does so:
 - (a) as agent for the corporation; and
 - (b) in his or her capacity as receiver of property of the corporation.
- (4) The consequences of subsection (3) include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) for the purposes of subsection 419(1), a debt that the receiver incurs in carrying on the business as mentioned in subsection (3) of this section is incurred in the course of the receivership;
 - (b) a debt or liability that the receiver incurs in so carrying on the business is not a cost, charge or expense of the winding up.

421 Controller's duties in relation to bank accounts and financial records

- (1) A controller of property of a corporation must:
 - (a) open and maintain an account, with an Australian ADI, bearing:
 - (i) the controller's own name; and
 - (ii) in the case of a receiver of the property—the title "receiver"; and
 - (iii) otherwise—the title "controller"; and
 - (iv) the corporation's name;or 2 or more such accounts; and
 - (b) within 3 business days after money of the corporation comes under the control of the controller, pay that money into such an account that the controller maintains; and

 - (d) keep such financial records as correctly record and explain all transactions that the controller enters into as the controller.
- (2) Any director, creditor or member of a corporation may, unless the Court otherwise orders, personally or by an agent, inspect records kept by a controller of property of the corporation for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d).

421A Managing controller to report within 2 months about corporation's affairs

- (2) The managing controller must prepare and lodge the report within 2 months after the control day.
- (3) As soon as practicable, and in any event within 14 days, after lodging the report, the managing controller must cause to be published in a national newspaper, or in each jurisdiction in a daily newspaper that circulates generally in that jurisdiction, a notice stating:
 - (a) that the report has been prepared; and
 - (b) that a person can, on paying the prescribed fee, inspect the report at specified offices of the Commission.
- (4) If, in the managing controller's opinion, it would seriously prejudice:
 - (a) the corporation's interests; or
 - (b) the achievement of the objectives for which the controller was appointed, or entered into possession or assumed control of property of the corporation, as the case requires;

The Corporations Law—Section 422

if particular information that the controller would otherwise include in the report were made available to the public, the controller need not include the information in the report.

- (5) If the managing controller omits information from the report as permitted by subsection (4), the controller must include instead a notice:
- (a) stating that certain information has been omitted from the report; and
 - (b) summarising what the information is about, but without disclosing the information itself.

 - (b) a person who has taken part in the formation, promotion, administration, management or winding up of the corporation:
 - (i) may have misapplied or retained, or may have become liable or accountable for, any money or property (whether the property is within or outside Australia) of the corporation; or

- the receiver shall:
- (c) lodge as soon as practicable a report about the matter; and

- (2) The receiver may also lodge further reports specifying any other matter that, in the receiver's opinion, it is desirable to bring to the notice of the Commission.

The Corporations Law—Section 423

- (3) If it appears to the Court:

 - (b) that a person who has taken part in the formation, promotion, administration, management or winding up of a corporation in respect of property of which a receiver has been appointed has engaged in conduct referred to in paragraph (1)(b) in relation to the corporation;
- and that the receiver has not lodged a report about the matter, the Court may, on the application of a person interested in the appointment of the receiver or of its own motion, direct the receiver to lodge such a report.

423 Supervision of controller

- (1) If:
- (a) it appears to the Court or to the Commission that a controller of property of a corporation has not faithfully performed, or is not faithfully performing, the controller's functions or has not observed, or is not observing, a requirement of:

The Corporations Law—Section 424

- (2) The Commission may report to the Court any matter that in its opinion is a misfeasance, neglect or omission on the part of a controller of property of a corporation and the Court may order the controller to make good any loss that the estate of the corporation has sustained thereby and may make such other order or orders as it thinks fit.

The Corporations Law—Section 426

- (b) is exercisable even if the receiver has died, or ceased to act, before the making of the order or the application for the order; and
 - (c) if the receiver has been paid or has retained for the receiver's remuneration for any period before the making of the order any amount in excess of that fixed for that period—extends to requiring the receiver or the receiver's personal representatives to account for the excess or such part of the excess as is specified in the order.
- (3) The power conferred by paragraph (2)(c) shall not be exercised in respect of any period before the making of the application for the order unless, in the opinion of the Court, there are special circumstances making it proper for the power to be so exercised.

- (3) A person making a report and verifying it as required by subsection (1) shall, subject to the regulations, be allowed, and shall be paid by the controller (or the controller's successor) out of the controller's receipts, such costs and expenses incurred in and about the preparation and making of the report and the verification of the report as the controller (or the controller's successor) considers reasonable.

- (8) A receiver shall make provision in respect of reasonable fees and expenses of an auditor in respect of a particular period as required by subsection (6) or (7) whether or not the auditor has made a claim for fees and expenses for that period, but where the auditor has not made a claim, the receiver may estimate the reasonable fees and expenses of the auditor for that period and make provision in accordance with the estimate.
- (9) For the purposes of this section the references in Division 6 of Part 5.6 to the relevant date shall be read as references to the date of the appointment of the receiver, or of possession being taken or control being assumed, as the case may be.

 - (b) who has become a controller of property of the corporation otherwise than by being appointed a receiver of such property by a court and who has, after being required at any time by the liquidator of the corporation so to do, failed to render proper accounts of, and to vouch, the controller's receipts and payments and to pay over to the liquidator the amount properly payable to the liquidator;

the Court may make an order directing the controller to make good the default within such time as is specified in the order.

The Corporations Law—Section 434A

- (2) An application under subsection (1) may be made:

434A Court may remove controller for misconduct

Where, on the application of a corporation, the Court is satisfied that a controller of property of the corporation has been guilty of misconduct in connection with performing or exercising any of the controller's functions and powers, the Court may order that, on and after a specified day, the controller cease to act as receiver or give up possession or control, as the case requires, of property of the corporation.

434B Court may remove redundant controller

- (1) The Court may order that, on and after a specified day, a controller of property of a corporation:

 - (b) act as receiver, or continue in possession or control, as the case requires, only of specified property of the corporation.
- (2) However, the Court may only make an order under subsection (1) if satisfied that the objectives for which the controller was appointed, or entered into possession or took control of property of the corporation, as the case requires, have been achieved, so far as is reasonably practicable, except in relation to any property specified in the order under paragraph (1)(b).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Court must have regard to:
- (a) the corporation's interests; and
 - (b) the interests of the holder of the charge that the controller is enforcing; and
 - (c) the interests of the corporation's other creditors; and

The Corporations Law—Section 434C

- (d) any other relevant matter.
- (4) The Court may only make an order under subsection (1) on the application of a liquidator appointed for the purposes of winding up the corporation in insolvency.
- (5) An order under subsection (1) may also prohibit the holder of the charge from doing any or all of the following, except with the leave of the Court:
 - (a) appointing a person as receiver of property of the corporation under a power contained in an instrument relating to the charge;
 - (b) entering into possession, or taking control, of such property for the purpose of enforcing the charge;

- (1) Except as expressly provided in section 434A or 434B, an order under that section does not affect a charge on property of a corporation.
- (2) Nothing in section 434A or 434B limits any other power of the Court to remove, or otherwise deal with, a controller of property of a corporation (for example, the Court's powers under section 423).

Part 5.3A—Administration of a company's affairs with a view to executing a deed of company arrangement

Division 1—Preliminary

435A Object of Part

The object of this Part is to provide for the business, property and affairs of an insolvent company to be administered in a way that:

- (a) maximises the chances of the company, or as much as possible of its business, continuing in existence; or
- (b) if it is not possible for the company or its business to continue in existence—results in a better return for the company's creditors and members than would result from an immediate winding up of the company.

435B Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

receiver includes a receiver and manager.

435C When administration begins and ends

- (1) The administration of a company:
 - (a) begins when an administrator of the company is appointed under section 436A, 436B or 436C; and
 - (b) ends on the happening of whichever event of a kind referred to in subsection (2) or (3) happens first after the administration begins.
- (2) The normal outcome of the administration of a company is that:

The Corporations Law—Section 435C

- (a) a deed of company arrangement is executed by both the company and the deed's administrator; or
 - (b) the company's creditors resolve under paragraph 439C(b) that the administration should end; or
 - (c) the company's creditors resolve under paragraph 439C(c) that the company be wound up.
- (3) However, the administration of a company may also end because:
- (a) the Court orders, under section 447A or otherwise, that the administration is to end, for example, because the Court is satisfied that the company is solvent; or
 - (b) the convening period, as fixed by subsection 439A(5), for a meeting of the company's creditors ends:
 - (i) without the meeting being convened in accordance with section 439A; and
 - (ii) without an application being made for the Court to extend under subsection 439A(6) the convening period for the meeting; or
 - (c) an application for the Court to extend under subsection 439A(6) the convening period for such a meeting is finally determined or otherwise disposed of otherwise than by the Court extending the convening period; or
 - (d) the convening period, as extended under subsection 439A(6), for such a meeting ends without the meeting being convened in accordance with section 439A; or
 - (e) such a meeting convened under section 439A ends (whether or not it was earlier adjourned) without a resolution under section 439C being passed at the meeting; or
 - (f) the company contravenes subsection 444B(2) by failing to execute a proposed deed of company arrangement; or
 - (g) the Court appoints a provisional liquidator of the company, or orders that the company be wound up.
- (4) During the administration of a company, the company is taken to be under administration.

Division 2—Appointment of administrator and first meeting of creditors

436A Company may appoint administrator if board thinks it is or will become insolvent

The Corporations Law—Section 436D

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a company that is already being wound up.

436D Company already under administration

An administrator cannot be appointed under section 436A, 436B or 436C if the company is already under administration.

When performing a function, or exercising a power, as administrator of a company under administration, the administrator is taken to be acting as the company's agent.
