Civil Aviation Amendment Act 1990

No. 25 of 1990

---

An Act to amend the Civil Aviation Act 1988, and for related purposes

[Assented to 24 May 1990]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen, and the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows:

Short title etc.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Civil Aviation Amendment Act 1990.

(2) In this Act, “Principal Act” means the Civil Aviation Act 1988<sup>1</sup>.

Commencement

2. (1) Subject to this section, this Act commences on a day or days to be fixed by Proclamation.

(2) If a provision of this Act, other than a provision referred to in subsection (3), (4), (5) or (6), does not commence under subsection (1) within the period of 6 months beginning on the day on which it receives the Royal Assent, it commences on the first day after the end of that period.

Civil Aviation Amendment No. 25, 1990

(3) Paragraph 3 (a) is to be taken to have commenced on 1 July 1988.

(4) Section 1, this section and sections 4, 5, 8, 9, 11, 12, 32, 47, 48 and 50 and Schedule 1 commence on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

(5) Section 10 commences 6 months after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

(6) Section 25 commences on 1 July 1991.

Interpretation

3. Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended:

(a) by adding at the end of the definition of “statutory lien” in subsection (1) “or subsection 101 (3)”;

(b) by inserting in subsection (1) the following definitions:

“ ‘Board’ means the Board of the Authority;

‘corporate plan’ means a corporate plan developed by the Board under paragraph 43 (1) (a);

‘financial plan’ means a financial plan the Board is required to give to the Minister under subsection 44 (2);”.

Standards etc.

4. Section 10 of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end the following subsection:

“(2) In developing standards, the Authority must, so far as it is:

(a) reasonably practicable to do so; and

(b) consistent with the Authority’s obligations under section 11; have regard to any costs that would arise from complying with the standards.”.

5. After section 11 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:

Immunity of Authority from certain State and Territory laws

“11A. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a law of a State or Territory, being a law to which this section applies, does not apply in relation to:

(a) the Authority; or

(b) the property or transactions of the Authority; or

(c) any act or thing done by or on behalf of the Authority.

“(2) This section applies to a law to the extent that the law relates to:

(a) the use or proposed use of land or premises; or

(b) the environmental consequences of the use of land or premises.

“(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to any property, transaction, act or thing that is wholly unconnected with the use of land by the Authority for the purpose of performing any of the Authority’s functions referred to in paragraphs 9 (1) (b), (c), (d) and (e).

“(4) Nothing in this section implies that a law of a State or Territory, being a law to which this section does not apply, applies in relation to:

- (a) the Authority; or
- (b) the property or transactions of the Authority; or
- (c) any act or thing done by or on behalf of the Authority.

“(5) In this section:

‘law’ means a written law, and includes:

- (a) subordinate legislation; and
- (b) a provision of a law.”.

Powers of Authority

6. Section 13 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (3).

7. Sections 14 and 15 of the Principal Act are repealed and the following sections are substituted:

Limitation on formation of companies etc.

“14. (1) The Authority must not:

- (a) join in the formation of a company that would, upon its formation, be a subsidiary of the Authority; or
- (b) subscribe for, or purchase, shares in a company if, on the Authority becoming the holder of those shares, the company becomes a subsidiary of the Authority; or
- (c) otherwise acquire a major shareholding in a company;

unless the Authority has informed the Minister, in writing, of its intention to do so.

“(2) Where the Authority holds a controlling interest in a company, the Authority must ensure that the company does not do anything that the Authority cannot do.

Limitation on formation of partnerships etc.

“15. (1) The Authority must not enter into a partnership unless it has informed the Minister, in writing, of its intention to do so.

“(2) Where the Authority can control the acts and things done by a partnership of which it is a member, it must ensure that the partnership does not do anything that it cannot do.”.

8. After section 20 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:

Negligent etc. operation of aircraft

“20A. (1) An aircraft must not be flown or operated in a reckless or negligent manner so as to be likely to endanger life.

“(2) An aircraft must not be flown or operated in such a manner or in such circumstances as is or are likely to cause danger to any person or property.”.

Dangerous goods

9. (1) Section 23 of the Principal Act is amended:

(a) by omitting subsections (1) and (2) and substituting the following subsections:

“(1) An aircraft must not carry dangerous goods except:

- (a) in accordance with the regulations, including any conditions subject to which the regulations permit the carriage of those goods; or
- (b) with the written permission of the Authority and in accordance with any conditions specified in the permission.

“(2) A person must not knowingly or recklessly carry or consign for carriage any dangerous goods on board an aircraft except:

- (a) in accordance with the regulations, including any conditions subject to which the regulations permit the carriage or consignment of those goods; or
- (b) with the written permission of the Authority and in accordance with any conditions specified in the permission.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 7 years.

“(2A) A person must not carry or consign for carriage any dangerous goods on board an aircraft, except:

- (a) in accordance with the regulations, including any conditions subject to which the regulations permit the carriage or consignment of those goods; or
- (b) with the written permission of the Authority and in accordance with any conditions specified in the permission.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.”;

(b) by omitting subparagraph (b)(ii) from the definition of “dangerous goods” in subsection (3) and substituting the following subparagraph:

“(ii) which the regulations declare to be dangerous goods.”;

(c) by inserting after subsection (3) the following subsection:

“(3A) Regulations made for the purposes of subparagraph

Civil Aviation Amendment No. 25, 1990

(b) (ii) of the definition of ‘dangerous goods’ in subsection (3) may apply, adopt or incorporate (with or without modification) the Dangerous Goods List contained in the Technical Instructions for the Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods by Air, approved and published by decision of the Council of the International Civil Aviation Organisation, as in force from time to time.”.

(2) A permission given by the Authority, under section 23 of the Principal Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of this section, is to be taken after that commencement to be a permission given by the Authority under section 23 of the Principal Act as amended by this section.

10. After section 23 of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:

Declarations of the contents of cargo

“23A. A person must not carry or consign for carriage any cargo on board an aircraft unless the cargo is accompanied by a declaration of its contents.

Penalty: $3,000.

Training relating to dangerous goods

“23B. (1) The regulations may require that persons handling, or involved in handling, cargo in the course of the cargo being carried or consigned for carriage on an aircraft are to undertake specified training relating to dangerous goods.

“(2) A person must not carry or consign for carriage any cargo on board an aircraft unless each person who:

- (a) handles, or is involved in the handling of, the cargo for or on behalf of the first-mentioned person; and
- (b) has been required, by regulations made for the purposes of this section, to undertake training relating to dangerous goods; has undertaken training relating to dangerous goods in accordance with the regulations.

Penalty: $3,000.

“(3) In this section:

‘dangerous goods’ has the same meaning as in section 23.”.

Air Operators’ Certificates

11. (1) Section 27 of the Principal Act is amended:

- (a) by omitting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) The regulations may specify conditions to which

Civil Aviation Amendment No. 25, 1990

Certificates (including Certificates that have already been issued) are to be subject.

“(3A) A Certificate has effect subject to its conditions, being:

(a) the conditions specified in the regulations; and

(b) any other conditions specified by the Authority in the Certificate or in a written notice given to the holder.”;

(b) by inserting in subsection (4) “that have been imposed by the Authority” after “Certificate”.

(2) An Air Operators’ Certificate issued by the Authority, under section 27 of the Principal Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of this section continues in force after that commencement as if the conditions to which it was subject immediately before the commencement were conditions specified by the Authority in the Certificate under paragraph 27 (3A) (b) of the Principal Act as amended by this section.

Offences in relation to aircraft

12. Section 29 of the Principal Act is amended:

(a) by inserting after subsection (1) the following subsections:

“(1A) A person who contravenes subsection (1) of this section by operating an aircraft, or permitting an aircraft to be operated, in contravention of subsection 20A (1) is guilty of an offence punishable, upon conviction, by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 5 years.

“(1B) A person who knowingly or recklessly contravenes subsection (1) of this section by operating an aircraft, or permitting an aircraft to be operated, in contravention of subsection 23 (1) is guilty of an offence punishable, upon conviction, by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 7 years.”;

(b) by omitting from subsection (2) “contravenes subsection (1)” and substituting “otherwise contravenes subsection (1) of this section”.

Powers and functions under State and Territory laws

13. Section 32 of the Principal Act is amended by inserting “or the Board,” after “Authority”.

Heading to Part IV

14. The heading to Part IV is amended by omitting “CONSTITUTION” and substituting “BOARD”.

15. Before section 33 of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted in Part IV:

The Board

“32A. There is to be a Board of the Authority.

Purposes of the Board

“32B. (1) The purposes of the Board are:

- (a) to decide the objectives, strategies and policies to be followed by the Authority; and
- (b) to ensure that the Authority performs its functions in a proper, efficient and economical manner.

“(2) Anything done in the name of, or on behalf of, the Authority by the Board is to be taken to have been done by the Authority.”.

Constitution of the Board

16. (1) Section 33 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from subsection (1) “Authority” and substituting “Board”.

(2) The persons who, immediately before the commencement of this section, held office as members of the Authority continue to hold office, after that commencement, as members of the Board.

Period of appointment of members

17. Section 34 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (3).

Remuneration and allowances of members

18. (1) Section 35 of the Principal Act is amended by inserting in subsection (2) “(other than the Chief Executive Officer)” after “member”.

(2) Subsection 35 (2) of the Principal Act as amended by this section does not apply, and that subsection as in force immediately before the commencement of this section continues to apply, until a person is appointed as the Chief Executive Officer after that commencement.

19. After section 39 of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:

Conduct of meetings

“39A. (1) The Board may, subject to this Part, regulate proceedings at its meetings as it considers appropriate.

“(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Board may permit members to participate in a particular meeting, or all meetings, by:

- (a) telephone; or
- (b) closed-circuit television; or
- (c) any other means of communication.

“(3) A member who is permitted to participate in a meeting under subsection (2) is to be regarded as being present at that meeting.

Civil Aviation Amendment No. 25, 1990

“(4) Without limiting subsection (1), the Board may invite a person to attend a meeting for the purpose of advising or informing it on any matter.

Resolutions without meetings

“39B. Where the Board so determines, a resolution is to be taken to have been passed at a meeting of the Board if:

- (a) without meeting, a majority of the number of members indicate agreement with the resolution in accordance with the method determined by the Board; and
- (b) that majority would, if present at a meeting of the Board, have constituted a quorum under subsection 39 (6).”.

Termination of appointment

20. Section 42 of the Principal Act is amended:

- (a) by omitting from subparagraph (2) (c) (ii) “or” (last occurring);

- (a) a member; or
- (b) an officer.”.

(2) A delegation by the Authority under section 94 of the Principal Act (other than a delegation to the Chief Executive Officer) that was in force immediately before the commencement of this section continues in force after that commencement as if it were a delegation made by the Chief Executive Officer under section 94 of the Principal Act as amended by this section.

45. After section 94 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:

Delegation by Board

“94A. (1) The Board may, by resolution, delegate all or any of its powers to:

- (a) a member; or
- (b) an officer.

“(2) The delegate is, in the exercise of a delegated power, subject to the directions of the Board.

“(3) A delegation of a power under subsection (1):

- (a) may be revoked by resolution of the Board (whether or not constituted by the persons who constituted the Board when the power was delegated); and
- (b) continues in force in spite of a change in the membership of the Board.

“(4) A certificate signed by the Chairperson stating any matter in relation to a delegation of a power under subsection (1) is prima facie evidence of the matter.

“(5) A document purporting to be a certificate under subsection (4) shall, unless the contrary is established, be taken to be such a certificate and to have been properly given.”

46. After section 97 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:

Conduct by directors, servants and agents

“97A. (1) Where, in proceedings for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:

- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a director, servant or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) that the director, servant or agent had the state of mind.

“(2) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate by a director, servant or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, to have been engaged in also by the body corporate unless the body corporate establishes that the body corporate took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

Civil Aviation Amendment No. 25, 1990

“(3) Where, in proceedings for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person other than a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:

- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a servant or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) that the servant or agent had the state of mind.

“(4) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate by a servant or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, to have been engaged in also by the first-mentioned person unless the first-mentioned person establishes that the first-mentioned person took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

“(5) Where:

- (a) a person other than a body corporate is convicted of an offence; and
- (b) the person would not have been convicted of the offence if subsections (3) and (4) had not been enacted;

the person is not liable to be punished by imprisonment for that offence.

“(6) A reference in subsection (1) or (3) to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to:

- (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and
- (b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

“(7) A reference in this section to a director of a body corporate includes a reference to a constituent member of a body corporate incorporated for a public purpose by a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory.

“(8) A reference in this section to engaging in conduct includes a reference to failing or refusing to engage in conduct.

“(9) A reference in this section to an offence against this Act includes a reference to:
