7 Novelty, inventive step and innovative step

Novelty

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to be novel when compared with the prior art base unless it is not novel in the light of any one of the following kinds of information, each of which must be considered separately:
 - (a) prior art information (other than that mentioned in paragraph (c)) made publicly available in a single document or through doing a single act;
 - (b) prior art information (other than that mentioned in paragraph (c)) made publicly available in 2 or more related documents, or through doing 2 or more related acts, if the relationship between the documents or acts is such that a person skilled in the relevant art would treat them as a single source of that information;
 - (c) prior art information contained in a single specification of the kind mentioned in subparagraph (b)(ii) of the definition of prior art base in Schedule 1.

Inventive step

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to involve an inventive step when compared with the prior art base unless the invention would have been obvious to a person skilled in the relevant art in the light of the common general knowledge as it existed (whether in or out of the patent area) before the priority date of the relevant claim, whether that knowledge is considered separately or together with the information mentioned in subsection (3).

- (3) The information for the purposes of subsection (2) is:
- (a) any single piece of prior art information; or
 - (b) a combination of any 2 or more pieces of prior art information that the skilled person mentioned in subsection (2) could, before the priority date of the relevant claim, be reasonably expected to have combined.

Innovative step

- (4) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to involve an innovative step when compared with the prior art base unless the invention would, to a person skilled in the relevant art, in the light of the common general knowledge as it existed (whether in or out of the patent area) before the priority date of the relevant claim, only vary from the kinds of information set out in subsection (5) in ways that make no substantial contribution to the working of the invention.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the information is of the following kinds:
- (a) prior art information made publicly available in a single document or through doing a single act;
 - (b) prior art information made publicly available in 2 or more related documents, or through doing 2 or more related acts, if the relationship between the documents or acts is such that a person skilled in the relevant art would treat them as a single source of that information.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4), each kind of information set out in subsection (5) must be considered separately.

[Notes: (1) For the meaning of document see section 2B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Section 7A

(2) See also the definitions of prior art base and prior art information in Schedule 1: see also paragraph 18(1)(b) and section 98.]

7A Meaning of useful

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is taken not to be useful unless a specific, substantial and credible use for the invention (so far as claimed) is disclosed in the complete specification.
- (2) The disclosure in the complete specification must be sufficient for that specific, substantial and credible use to be appreciated by a person skilled in the relevant art.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not otherwise affect the meaning of the word useful in this Act.

9 Secret use

For the purposes of this Act, the following acts are not to be taken to be secret use of an invention in the patent area:

- (2) If a court issues a certificate, then, in any subsequent proceedings for infringement of the claim concerned, or for the revocation of the patent so far as it relates to that claim, the patentee, or any other person supporting the validity of the claim is, on obtaining a final order or judgment in his or her favour, entitled to full costs, charges and expenses as between solicitor and client, so far as that claim is concerned.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect subject to any direction by the court trying the proceedings.

- (2) The Commonwealth, the Commissioner, a Deputy Commissioner, or an employee, is not liable because of, or in connection with, doing any act under this Act or the PCT, or any proceedings consequent on doing any such act.

21 Validity not implied by making or refusal of non-infringement declaration

The making of, or refusal to make, a non-infringement declaration in respect of a claim of a patent does not imply that the claim is valid.

Division 2—Matters not affecting validity

22A Validity not affected by who patent is granted to

A patent is not invalid merely because:

- (a) the patent, or a share in the patent, was granted to a person who was not entitled to it; or
- (b) the patent, or a share in the patent, was not granted to a person who was entitled to it.

22 Invalidity in relation to one claim not to affect validity in relation to other claims

The invalidity of a patent in relation to a claim does not affect its validity in relation to any other claim.

23 Validity not affected by publication etc. after priority date

A patent is not invalid, so far as the invention is claimed in any claim, merely because of:

- (a) the publication or use of the invention, so far as claimed in that claim, on or after the priority date of that claim; or
- (b) the grant of another patent which claims the invention, so far as claimed in the first-mentioned claim, in a claim of the same or a later priority date.

24 Validity not affected by making information available in certain circumstances

- (1) For the purpose of deciding whether an invention is novel or involves an inventive step or an innovative step, the person making the decision must disregard:
 - (a) any information made publicly available in the prescribed circumstances, by or with the consent of the nominated person or patentee, or the predecessor in title of the nominated person or patentee; and

Section 25

- (b) any information made publicly available without the consent of the nominated person or patentee, through any publication or use of the invention by another person who derived the information from the nominated person or patentee or from the predecessor in title of the nominated person or patentee; but only if a complete application for the invention is made within the prescribed period.
- (2) For the purpose of deciding whether an invention is novel or involves an inventive step or an innovative step, the person making the decision must disregard:
 - (a) any information given by, or with the consent of, the nominated person or the patentee, or his or her predecessor in title, to any of the following, but to no other person or organisation:
 - (i) the Commonwealth or a State or Territory, or an authority of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory;
 - (ii) a person authorised by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory to investigate the invention; and
 - (b) anything done for the purpose of an investigation mentioned in subparagraph (a)(ii).

25 Validity: patents of addition

Objection cannot be taken to a patent request or complete specification in respect of an application for a patent of addition, and a patent of addition is not invalid, merely because the invention, so far as claimed, does not involve an inventive step, having regard to the publication or use of the main invention during the prescribed period.

26 Validity not affected in certain cases involving amendments

- (1) Objection cannot be taken to a patent request and specification that have been accepted, and a patent is not invalid, merely because the specification claims an invention that was not the subject of the request, or that was not described or claimed in the specification as filed.

- (2) Except in the case of an amendment made in contravention of section 112 or 112A, objection cannot be taken to a patent request and specification that have been accepted, and a patent is not invalid, merely because an amendment of the specification has been made that was not allowable.

Division 3—Notice of matters affecting validity

27 Notice of matters affecting validity of standard patents

- (1) A person may, within the prescribed period after a complete specification filed in relation to an application for a standard patent becomes open to public inspection, notify the Commissioner, in accordance with the regulations, that the person asserts, for reasons stated in the notice, that the invention concerned is not a patentable invention because it does not comply with paragraph 18(1)(b).

those requirements are to be taken to have been satisfied during the period mentioned in paragraph (c), and such provisions as are prescribed have effect for the protection or compensation of persons who availed themselves, or took definite steps by way of contract or otherwise to avail themselves, of the invention during that period.

42 Micro-organisms ceasing to be reasonably available

(1) Where:

- (a) a complete application has been made for a patent, or a patent has been granted for an invention of a kind mentioned in paragraph 41(2)(a); and
- (b) the relevant micro-organism was, at the date of filing of the complete specification, reasonably available (within the meaning of section 41) to a skilled person working in the relevant art in the patent area; and
- (c) the micro-organism has ceased to be so available;

a prescribed court or the Commissioner, on application made in accordance with the regulations, or the Commissioner, on his or her own motion, may declare that the specification does not comply with section 40 unless the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.

- (2) Where a declaration is made under subsection (1):
- (a) this Act has effect in relation to the specification accordingly; and
 - (b) section 6 applies as if the references in that section to the date of filing of the specification were references to a date specified in the declaration for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the operation of section 223.
- (4) Where:
- (a) an application is made under subsection (1); or
 - (b) the Commissioner proposes to make a declaration under that subsection on his or her own motion;

Division 3—Priority dates

43 Priority dates

- (1) Each claim of a specification must have a priority date.
- (2) The priority date of a claim is:
 - (a) if subsection (2A) applies to the claim—the date determined under the regulations; or
 - (b) otherwise—the date of the filing of the specification.
- (2A) This subsection applies to a claim if:
 - (a) prescribed circumstances apply in relation to the invention defined in the claim; and
 - (b) a prescribed document discloses, or a prescribed set of prescribed documents considered together disclose, the invention in the claim in a manner that is clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art.
- (2B) A prescribed document, or a prescribed set of prescribed documents considered together, is taken to disclose the invention in a claim as mentioned in paragraph (2A)(b) so far as such disclosure requires a description of a micro-organism, if:
 - (a) the micro-organism is deposited with a prescribed depository institution in accordance with such provisions of the Budapest Treaty as are applicable; and
 - (b) the prescribed circumstances apply.
- (3) Where a claim defines more than one form of an invention, then, for the purposes of determining the priority date of the claim, it must be treated as if it were a separate claim for each form of the invention that is defined.
- (4) The priority date of a claim of a specification may be different from the priority date of any other claim of the specification.

Section 43AA

- (5) If, at the time when a Convention application or a PCT application is made in respect of an invention:
- (a) an application (the earlier application) has been made for protection in respect of the invention in a Convention country; and
 - (b) the earlier application was made in the prescribed period; and
 - (c) the earlier application has been withdrawn, abandoned or refused without becoming open to public inspection; and
 - (d) the earlier application has not been used as the basis of claiming a right of priority in a Convention country under a law of that country; and
 - (e) a later application has been made by the same applicant for protection in respect of the invention in a Convention country;

the earlier application is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have never been made.

Note: For the purposes of paragraph (e), the later application need not have been made in the same Convention country as the earlier application.

43AA Disclosure in basic applications

Prescribed documents relating to basic applications

- (1) The regulations may prescribe documents that relate to a basic application.

Disclosures in prescribed documents may generally be taken into account

- (2) Without limiting the documents or disclosures that may be taken into account for the purposes of this Act in relation to a basic application, account may be taken of a disclosure in a prescribed document that relates to a basic application.

Section 43AA

Disclosures in prescribed documents must not be taken into account if Commissioner's requirement not complied with

- (3) However, if the Commissioner makes a requirement under subsection (4) in relation to a prescribed document, account must not be taken, for the purposes of this Act, of a disclosure in the prescribed document unless the document has been made available by the prescribed means and within the prescribed period.

- (3) Where the patent request and specification relating to a complete application for a standard patent are open to public inspection, a person may, in accordance with the regulations, require the Commissioner to direct the applicant to ask, within the prescribed period, for an examination of the request and specification.
- (4) Where required under subsection (3), the Commissioner must give a direction accordingly, unless the applicant has already asked, or been directed to ask, for an examination of the patent request and specification.

45 Examination

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), if an applicant asks for an examination of a patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent, the Commissioner must examine the request and specification and report on:
 - (a) whether the specification complies with subsections 40(2) to (4); and
 - (b) whether, to the best of his or her knowledge, the invention, so far as claimed, satisfies the criteria mentioned in paragraphs 18(1)(a), (b) and (c); and

- (c) whether the invention is a patentable invention under subsection 18(2); and
 - (d) such other matters (if any) as are prescribed.

Part 3—Acceptance

Division 1—Acceptance of standard patents

49 Acceptance of patent request: standard patent

- (1) Subject to section 50, the Commissioner must accept a patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities:
 - (a) that the specification complies with subsections 40(2) to (4); and
 - (b) that the invention, so far as claimed, satisfies the criteria mentioned in paragraphs 18(1)(a), (b) and (c); and
 - (c) that the invention is a patentable invention under subsection 18(2); and
 - (d) as to the matters (if any) prescribed under paragraph 45(1)(d).
- (2) If subsection (1) does not apply, the Commissioner may refuse to accept the request and specification.

 - (b) the Commissioner has not specified a day to which acceptance is postponed;the Commissioner is not required to accept the patent request and complete specification unless the applicant withdraws the request in writing.

Note: If the applicant does not withdraw the request before the day prescribed by the regulations, the application lapses: see paragraph 142(2)(e).

50 Application or grant may be refused in certain cases

- (1) The Commissioner may refuse to accept a request and specification relating to a standard patent, or to grant a standard patent:

Section 50A

- (a) for an invention the use of which would be contrary to law; or
 - (b) on the ground that the specification claims as an invention:
 - (i) a substance that is capable of being used as food or medicine (whether for human beings or animals and whether for internal or external use) and is a mere mixture of known ingredients; or
 - (ii) a process producing such a substance by mere admixture.
- (2) The Commissioner may refuse to accept a specification relating to a standard patent containing a claim that includes the name of a person as the name, or part of the name, of the invention so far as claimed in that claim.

50A Revocation of acceptance

- (1) The Commissioner may revoke the acceptance of a patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:
- (a) a patent has not been granted on the application; and
 - (b) the request and specification should not have been accepted, taking account of all the circumstances that existed when the request and specification were accepted (whether or not the Commissioner knew then of their existence); and
 - (c) it is reasonable to revoke the acceptance, taking account of all the circumstances.
- (2) If the Commissioner revokes the acceptance:
- (a) the patent request and complete specification are taken to have never been accepted; and

- (2) If satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the application passes the formalities check, the Commissioner must accept the patent request and complete specification.
- (3) It is a requirement of the formalities check that the date of the patent (if granted) would be a date before the day this subsection commences.

Note 1: This subsection was inserted by the Intellectual Property Laws Amendment (Productivity Commission Response Part 2 and Other Measures) Act 2020.

Note 2: For the date of the patent, see section 65 and regulations made for the purposes of paragraph 65(b).

the Commissioner must publish a notice in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the divisional application is open to public inspection.

- (5) Where a divisional application for a standard patent provided for in section 79B (other than a PCT application) is made in respect of an original application that is not a PCT application and:
 - (a) a notice is published in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the original application is open to public inspection; or
 - (b) a notice is published in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the divisional application is open to public inspection;

57 Effect of publication of complete specification

- (1) After a complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent has become open to public inspection and until a patent is granted on the application, the applicant has the same rights as he or she would have had if a patent for the invention had been granted on the day when the specification became open to public inspection.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not give the applicant a right to start proceedings in respect of the doing of an act unless:
- (a) a patent is granted on the application; and
 - (b) the act would, if done after the grant of the patent, have constituted an infringement of a claim of the specification.
- (4) It is a defence to proceedings under subsection (1) in respect of an act done:
- (a) after the complete specification became open to public inspection; and
 - (b) before the patent request was accepted:
- if the defendant proves that a patent could not validly have been granted to the applicant in respect of the claims (as framed when the act was done) that are alleged to have been infringed by the doing of the act.
- (5) For the purposes of applying this section to a PCT application, references to the complete specification becoming open to public inspection are references to the PCT application becoming open to public inspection in accordance with regulations made for the purposes of section 56A.

58 Result of search may be disclosed

The Commissioner may disclose the result of any search made for the purpose of making a report under this Act.

Chapter 5—Opposition to grant of standard patent

 - (ii) entitled to a grant of a patent for the invention but only in conjunction with some other person;
- (b) that the invention is not a patentable invention;
- (c) that the specification filed in respect of the complete application does not comply with subsection 40(2), (3) or (3A).

- (2) The Commissioner must give the applicant and the opponent a reasonable opportunity to be heard before deciding a case.
- (3) The Commissioner may, in deciding a case, take into account any ground on which the grant of a standard patent may be opposed, whether relied upon by the opponent or not.
- (3A) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a ground of opposition to the grant of the standard patent exists, the Commissioner may refuse the application.
- (3B) The Commissioner must not refuse an application under this section unless the Commissioner has, where appropriate, given the applicant a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant specification for the purpose of removing any ground of opposition and the applicant has failed to do so.

- (4) The applicant, and any opponent, may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.

63 Joint patentees

A patent may be granted to 2 or more nominated persons jointly.

64 Grant: multiple applications

- (1) Subject to this section, where there are 2 or more applications for patents for identical, or substantially identical, inventions, the granting of a patent on one of those applications does not prevent the granting of a patent on any of the other applications.
- (2) Where:

- (c) the applicant has not taken action to amend the request or specification so as to remove those grounds of objection; the Commissioner may, in accordance with the regulations, direct the applicant to file, within such time as the Commissioner allows, a statement of proposed amendments of the request or specification for the purpose of removing those grounds of objection.
- (2) The Commissioner must not give a direction without first giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (3) An applicant may, in accordance with the regulations, amend a statement of amendments.
- (4) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the amendments set out in a statement (or an amended statement) are allowable and would, if made, remove all lawful grounds of objection to the patent request and complete specification, the Commissioner must allow the amendments.
- (5) On the allowance of an amendment, the amendment is to be taken to have been made.

109 Appeal

An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a direction of the Commissioner under section 106 or 107.

Part 3—Miscellaneous

110 Advertisement of amendment of complete specification

An amendment of a complete specification that is open to public inspection must be notified in the Official Journal.

112 Pending proceedings

A complete specification relating to a patent must not be amended, except under section 105, while relevant proceedings in relation to the patent are pending.

112A Decisions on appeal

A complete specification relating to a patent application must not be amended, except under section 105, if:

- (a) an appeal against a decision or direction of the Commissioner has been made to the Federal Court in relation to the specification; and
- (b) the appeal, and any proceedings resulting from it, have not been finally determined, withdrawn or otherwise disposed of.

113 Persons claiming under assignment or agreement

- (1) Where, before a patent is granted, a person would, if the patent were then granted, be entitled under an assignment or agreement, or by operation of law, to:
 - (a) the patent or an interest in it; or
 - (b) an undivided share in the patent or in such an interest;the Commissioner may, on a request made by the person in accordance with the regulations, direct that the application proceed in the name of the person, or in the name of the person and the applicant or the other joint applicant or applicants, as the case requires.

- (2) Where the Commissioner gives a direction:
- (a) the person is to be taken to be the applicant, or a joint applicant, as the case requires; and
 - (b) the patent request is to be taken to have been amended so as to request the grant of a patent to the person, either alone or as a joint patentee, as the case requires.

114 Priority date of claims of certain amended specifications

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a complete specification has been amended; and
 - (b) the amendment was not allowable under subsection 102(1); and
 - (c) as a result of the amendment, a claim of the amended specification claims an invention that:
 - (i) was not disclosed by the complete specification as filed in a manner that was clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art; but
 - (ii) is disclosed in that manner by the amended specification.
- (2) If this section applies, the priority date of the claim must be determined under the regulations.

114A Objection cannot be taken to certain amended specifications

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a complete specification (the original specification) has been amended; and
 - (b) the amendment was not allowable under subsection 102(1); and
 - (ba) as a result of the amendment, a claim of the amended specification claims an invention that was not disclosed by the original specification as filed in a manner that was clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art; and

Section 115

- (c) after the filing date of the original specification there is a publication or use of the invention as described in the original specification.
- (2) If this section applies, objection cannot be taken to the amended specification, and a patent is not invalid, on the ground that the invention, so far as claimed in the amended specification and having regard to the publication or the use of the invention described in the original specification, does not involve:
 - (a) in the case of a standard patent—an inventive step; or
 - (b) in the case of an innovation patent—an innovative step.

115 Restriction on recovery of damages etc.

- (1) Where a complete specification is amended after becoming open to public inspection, damages shall not be awarded, and an order shall not be made for an account of profits, in respect of any infringement of the patent before the date of the decision or order allowing or directing the amendment:
 - (a) unless the court is satisfied that the specification without the amendment was framed in good faith and with reasonable skill and knowledge; or
 - (b) if the claim of the specification that was infringed is a claim mentioned under subsection 114(1).
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to subsections 57(3) and (4).

116 Interpretation of amended specifications

The Commissioner or a court may, in interpreting a complete specification as amended, refer to the specification without amendment.

Chapter 11—Infringement

Part 1—Infringement and infringement proceedings

117 Infringement by supply of products

- (1) If the use of a product by a person would infringe a patent, the supply of that product by one person to another is an infringement of the patent by the supplier unless the supplier is the patentee or licensee of the patent.
- (2) A reference in subsection (1) to the use of a product by a person is a reference to:
 - (a) if the product is capable of only one reasonable use, having regard to its nature or design—that use; or
 - (b) if the product is not a staple commercial product—any use of the product, if the supplier had reason to believe that the person would put it to that use; or
 - (c) in any case—the use of the product in accordance with any instructions for the use of the product, or any inducement to use the product, given to the person by the supplier or contained in an advertisement published by or with the authority of the supplier.

118 Infringement exemptions: use in or on foreign vessels, aircraft or vehicles

The rights of a patentee are not infringed:

- (a) by using the patented invention on board a foreign vessel, in the body of the vessel, or in the machinery, tackle, apparatus or other accessories of the vessel, if the vessel comes into the patent area only temporarily or accidentally and the invention is used exclusively for the needs of the vessel; or

Section 119

- (b) by using the patented invention in the construction or working of a foreign aircraft or foreign land vehicle, or in the accessories of the aircraft or vehicle, if the aircraft or vehicle comes into the patent area only temporarily or accidentally.

119 Infringement exemptions: prior use

- (1) A person may, without infringing a patent, do an act that exploits a product, method or process and would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if immediately before the priority date of the relevant claim the person:

- (a) was exploiting the product, method or process in the patent area; or
- (b) had taken definite steps (contractually or otherwise) to exploit the product, method or process in the patent area.

Note 1: This section applies in relation to a patent granted as a result of an application filed on or after the commencement of Schedule 6 to the Intellectual Property Laws Amendment Act 2006 (which repealed and substituted this section).

Note 2: Section 119 of this Act as in force before the commencement of that Schedule continues to apply in relation to patents granted as a result of earlier applications.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if, before the priority date, the person:

- (a) had stopped (except temporarily) exploiting the product, method or process in the patent area; or
- (b) had abandoned (except temporarily) the steps to exploit the product, method or process in the patent area.

Limit for product, method or process derived from patentee

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a product, method or process the person derived from the patentee or the patentee's predecessor in title in the patented invention unless the person derived the product, method or process from information that was made publicly available:

- (a) by or with the consent of the patentee or the patentee's predecessor in title; and
- (b) in the prescribed circumstances mentioned in paragraph 24(1)(a).

Exemption for successors in title

- (4) A person (the disposer) may dispose of the whole of the disposer's entitlement under subsection (1) to do an act without infringing a patent to another person (the recipient). If the disposer does so, this section applies in relation to the recipient as if the references in subsections (1), (2) and (3) to the person were references to:
 - (a) the disposer; or
 - (b) if the disposer's entitlement arose because of one or more previous applications of this subsection—the first person:
 - (i) who was entitled under subsection (1) (applying of its own force) to do an act without infringing the patent; and
 - (ii) to whom the disposer's entitlement is directly or indirectly attributable.

Definition

- (5) In this section:

exploit includes:

- (a) in relation to a product:
 - (i) make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product; and
 - (ii) offer to make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product; and
 - (iii) use or import the product; and
 - (iv) keep the product for the purpose of doing an act described in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii); and
- (b) in relation to a method or process:
 - (i) use the method or process; and

Section 119A

- (ii) do an act described in subparagraph (a)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) with a product resulting from the use of the method or process.

119A Infringement exemptions: acts for obtaining regulatory approval of pharmaceuticals

- (1) The rights of a patentee of a pharmaceutical patent are not infringed by a person exploiting an invention claimed in the patent if the exploitation is solely for:
 - (a) purposes connected with obtaining the inclusion in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods of goods that:
 - (i) are intended for therapeutic use; and
 - (ii) are not medical devices as defined in the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989; or
 - (b) purposes connected with obtaining similar regulatory approval under a law of a foreign country or of a part of a foreign country.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the export from Australia of goods for purposes described in paragraph (1)(b) unless the term of the patent has been extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6 and the goods consist of or contain:
 - (a) a pharmaceutical substance per se that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification; or
 - (b) a pharmaceutical substance when produced by a process that involves the use of recombinant DNA technology, that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification.

Note: Part 3 of Chapter 6 provides for the extension of the term of standard patents claiming pharmaceutical substances.

- (3) In this section:

pharmaceutical patent means a patent claiming:

- (a) a pharmaceutical substance; or
- (b) a method, use or product relating to a pharmaceutical substance, including any of the following:
 - (i) a method for producing a raw material needed to produce the substance;
 - (ii) a product that is a raw material needed to produce the substance;
 - (iii) a product that is a pro-drug, metabolite or derivative of the substance.

119B Infringement exemptions: acts for obtaining regulatory approval (non-pharmaceuticals)

- (1) A person may, without infringing a patent, do an act that would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if the act is done solely for:
 - (a) purposes connected with obtaining an approval required by a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory to exploit a product, method or process; or
 - (b) purposes connected with obtaining a similar approval under a law of another country or region.
- (2) This section does not apply in relation to a pharmaceutical patent within the meaning of subsection 119A(3).

119C Infringement exemptions: acts for experimental purposes

- (1) A person may, without infringing a patent for an invention, do an act that would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if the act is done for experimental purposes relating to the subject matter of the invention.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, experimental purposes relating to the subject matter of the invention include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) determining the properties of the invention;
 - (b) determining the scope of a claim relating to the invention;

Section 120

- (c) improving or modifying the invention;
- (d) determining the validity of the patent or of a claim relating to the invention;
- (e) determining whether the patent for the invention would be, or has been, infringed by the doing of an act.

120 Infringement proceedings

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), infringement proceedings may be started in a prescribed court, or in another court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter, by the patentee or an exclusive licensee.
- (1A) Infringement proceedings in respect of an innovation patent cannot be started unless the patent has been certified.
- (2) If an exclusive licensee starts infringement proceedings, the patentee must be joined as a defendant unless joined as a plaintiff.
- (3) A patentee joined as a defendant is not liable for costs unless the patentee enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.
- (4) Infringement proceedings must be started within:
 - (a) 3 years from the day on which the relevant patent is granted; or
 - (b) 6 years from the day on which the infringing act was done; whichever period ends later.

121 Counter-claim for revocation of patent

- (1) A defendant in infringement proceedings may apply by way of counter-claim in the proceedings for the revocation of the patent.
- (2) The provisions of this Act relating to proceedings for the revocation of a patent apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

121A Burden of proof—infringement of patent for a process

- (1) This section applies only to a patent for a process for obtaining a product.
- (2) If, in proceedings for infringement of a patent started by the patentee or the exclusive licensee:
 - (a) the defendant alleges that he or she has used a process different from the patented process to obtain a product (defendant's product) identical to the product obtained by the patented process; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that:
 - (i) it is very likely that the defendant's product was made by the patented process; and
 - (ii) the patentee or exclusive licensee has taken reasonable steps to find out the process actually used by the defendant but has not been able to do so;then, in the absence of proof to the contrary the onus for which is on the defendant, the defendant's product is to be taken to have been obtained by the patented process.
- (3) In deciding how the defendant is to adduce evidence for the purposes of subsection (2), the court is to take into account the defendant's legitimate interests in having business and manufacturing secrets protected.

122 Relief for infringement of patent

- (1) The relief which a court may grant for infringement of a patent includes an injunction (subject to such terms, if any, as the court thinks fit) and, at the option of the plaintiff, either damages or an account of profits.
- (1A) A court may include an additional amount in an assessment of damages for an infringement of a patent, if the court considers it appropriate to do so having regard to:
 - (a) the flagrancy of the infringement; and
 - (b) the need to deter similar infringements of patents; and

Section 123

- (c) the conduct of the party that infringed the patent that occurred:
 - (i) after the act constituting the infringement; or
 - (ii) after that party was informed that it had allegedly infringed the patent; and
 - (d) any benefit shown to have accrued to that party because of the infringement; and
 - (e) all other relevant matters.
- (2) On the application of either party, the court may make such order for the inspection of any thing in or on any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or premises, and may impose such terms and give such directions about the inspection, as the court thinks fit.

123 Innocent infringement

- (1) A court may refuse to award damages, or to make an order for an account of profits, in respect of an infringement of a patent if the defendant satisfies the court that, at the date of the infringement, the defendant was not aware, and had no reason to believe, that a patent for the invention existed.
- (2) If patented products, marked so as to indicate that they are patented in Australia, were sold or used in the patent area to a substantial extent before the date of the infringement, the defendant is to be taken to have been aware of the existence of the patent unless the contrary is established.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects a court's power to grant relief by way of an injunction.

Part 2—Non-infringement declarations

124 Interpretation

In this Part:

patentee includes an exclusive licensee.

125 Application for non-infringement declaration

- (1) A person who has done, is doing, or is intending to do an act may apply to a prescribed court for a declaration that the doing of the act does not, or would not, infringe a patent.
- (2) An application may be made:
 - (a) for a declaration in relation to an invention claimed in a standard patent—at any time after the patent has been granted; and
 - (b) for a declaration in relation to an innovation patent—at any time after the patent has been certified; and
 - (c) whether or not the patentee has made any assertion to the effect that the doing of the act has or would infringe the claim.
- (3) The patentee must be joined as a respondent in the proceedings.

126 Proceedings for non-infringement declarations

- (1) A prescribed court must not make a non-infringement declaration unless:
 - (a) the applicant for the declaration:
 - (i) has asked the patentee in writing for a written admission that the doing of the act has not infringed, or would not infringe, the patent; and
 - (ii) has given the patentee full written particulars of the act done, or proposed to be done; and

Section 127

- (iii) has undertaken to pay a reasonable sum for the patentee's expenses in obtaining advice about whether the act has infringed or would infringe the claim; and
 - (b) the patentee has refused or failed to make the admission.
- (2) The court may make orders as to costs as the court thinks fit.

127 Effect of non-infringement declarations

If:

- (a) a patentee has given a person a written admission that the doing of an act has not infringed, or would not infringe, a claim, or a prescribed court has made a non-infringement declaration in respect of an invention; and
- (b) the patentee later gets an injunction restraining the person from doing the act as specified in the admission, or the declaration is revoked;

the person is not liable:

- (c) to account to the patentee for any profits, made by the person before the date on which the injunction was granted or the declaration was revoked, from the doing of the act as specified in the admission or declaration; or
- (d) to pay damages for any loss suffered by the patentee before that date as a result of the doing of that act.

Part 3—Unjustified threats of infringement proceedings

128 Application for relief from unjustified threats

- (1) Where a person, by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens a person with infringement proceedings, or other similar proceedings, a person aggrieved may apply to a prescribed court, or to another court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the application, for:
 - (a) a declaration that the threats are unjustifiable; and
 - (b) an injunction against the continuance of the threats; and
 - (c) the recovery of any damages sustained by the applicant as a result of the threats.
- (1A) The court may include an additional amount in an assessment of damages sustained by the applicant as a result of the unjustifiable threats, if the court considers it appropriate to do so having regard to:
 - (a) the flagrancy of the threats; and
 - (b) the need to deter similar threats; and
 - (c) the conduct of the person who made the threats, being conduct that occurred after the person made the threats; and
 - (d) any benefit shown to have accrued to the person who made the threats because of the threats; and
 - (e) all other relevant matters.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not the person who made the threats is entitled to, or interested in, the patent or a patent application.

Section 129

129 Court's power to grant relief if threats related to a standard patent or standard patent application

If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of a standard patent or an application for a standard patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for unless the respondent satisfies the court that the acts about which the threats were made infringed, or would infringe:

- (a) a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be invalid; or
- (b) rights under section 57 in respect of a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be a claim that would be invalid if the patent had been granted.

129A Threats related to an innovation patent application or innovation patent and court's power to grant relief

Certain threats of infringement proceedings are always unjustifiable

- (1) If:
 - (a) a person:
 - (i) has applied for an innovation patent, but the application has not been determined; or
 - (ii) has an innovation patent that has not been certified; and
 - (b) the person, by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens a person with infringement proceedings or other similar proceedings in respect of the patent applied for, or the patent, as the case may be;

then, for the purposes of an application for relief under section 128 by the person threatened, the threats are unjustifiable.

Courts power to grant relief in respect of threats made by the applicant for an innovation patent or the patentee of an uncertified innovation patent

- (2) If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of an innovation patent that has not been certified or an application for an innovation patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for.

Courts power to grant relief in respect of threats made by the patentee of a certified innovation patent

- (3) If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of a certified innovation patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for unless the respondent satisfies the court that the acts about which the threats were made infringed, or would infringe, a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be invalid.

130 Counter-claim for infringement

- (1) The respondent in proceedings under section 128 may apply, by way of counter-claim, for relief to which the respondent would be entitled in separate proceedings for an infringement by the applicant of the patent to which the threats relate.
- (2) Where the respondent applies by way of counter-claim, the applicant may, without making a separate application under Chapter 12, apply in the proceedings for the revocation of the patent.
- (3) The provisions of this Act relating to infringement proceedings apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

Note: Infringement proceedings cannot be commenced in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has first been certified (see subsection 120(1A)).

- (4) The provisions of this Act relating to proceedings under section 138 for the revocation of a patent apply, with the necessary changes, to an application under subsection (2).

Note: Revocation proceedings under section 138 cannot be commenced in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has first been certified (see subsection 138(1A)).

Section 131

131 Notification of patent not a threat

The mere notification of the existence of a patent, or an application for a patent, does not constitute a threat of proceedings for the purposes of section 128.

132 Liability of legal practitioner or patent attorney

A legal practitioner or a registered patent attorney is not liable to proceedings under section 128 in respect of an act done in a professional capacity on behalf of a client.

Chapter 12—Compulsory licences and revocation of patents

Part 1—Introduction

132A Simplified outline of this Chapter

This Chapter provides for court orders requiring the grant of compulsory licences in respect of patented inventions.

Special provision is made for compulsory licences to exploit patented pharmaceutical inventions. This is to enable the manufacture of a pharmaceutical product in Australia for export to an eligible importing country, to address public health problems in that country.

This Chapter also provides generally for the surrender of patents, and for court orders revoking patents.

Part 2—Compulsory licences (general)

132B Simplified outline of this Part

The Federal Court may make an order under this Part requiring the grant of a compulsory licence to exploit a patented invention.

The court may order a compulsory licence to be granted if certain conditions are met, including that demand in Australia for the invention is not being met on reasonable terms, authorisation to exploit the invention is essential to meet that demand and it is in the public interest to grant the licence. If the person seeking the compulsory licence is the patentee of another invention and is seeking the licence to exploit that other invention, the court must also be satisfied that the other invention involves an important technical advance of considerable economic significance on the original invention.

The court may also order a compulsory licence to be granted if the patentee has engaged in restrictive trade practices in connection with the patent under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or under an application law (within the meaning of that Act).

The court may order a patent to be revoked after an order for a compulsory licence has been made (on the same grounds that apply to an order for a compulsory licence).

The patentee must be paid an agreed amount of remuneration, or an amount of remuneration determined by the court.

133 Compulsory licences—general

Application for an order granting a compulsory licence

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), a person may apply to the Federal Court, after the end of the prescribed period, for an order requiring the patentee to grant the applicant a licence to exploit the patented invention (the original invention).

Note: For compulsory licences for the manufacture and export of patented pharmaceutical inventions to eligible importing countries, see Part 3. However, Part 3 does not prevent a compulsory licence from being ordered under this Part in relation to such an invention (see section 136C).

- (1A) A person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.

Making an order

- (2) After hearing the application, the court may make the order if satisfied that:
- (a) all of the conditions in subsection (3) exist; or
 - (b) the patentee has contravened, or is contravening, Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent.
- (3) The conditions in this subsection are:
- (a) demand in Australia for the original invention is not being met on reasonable terms; and
 - (b) authorisation to exploit the original invention is essential to meet that demand; and
 - (c) the applicant has tried for a reasonable period, but without success, to obtain authority from the patentee to exploit the original invention on reasonable terms and conditions; and
 - (d) the patentee has given no satisfactory reason for failing to exploit the patent to the extent necessary to meet the demand for the original invention in Australia; and

Section 133

- (e) it is in the public interest to provide the applicant with authorisation to exploit the original invention, having regard to the following:
 - (i) the benefits to the public from meeting the demand for the original invention;
 - (ii) the commercial costs and benefits to the patentee and the applicant from providing authorisation to exploit the original invention;
 - (iii) any other matters the court considers relevant, including matters relating to greater competition and any impact on innovation; and
- (f) if the applicant is the patentee of another invention (the dependent invention) and is seeking the authorisation for the purposes of exploiting the dependent invention:
 - (i) the dependent invention cannot be exploited by the applicant without exploiting the original invention; and
 - (ii) the dependent invention involves an important technical advance of considerable economic significance on the original invention.

Form of order

- (3A) If the applicant is the patentee of the dependent invention, the order must:
 - (a) require the patentee to grant to the applicant a licence to exploit the original invention only to the extent necessary to exploit the dependent invention; and
 - (b) if the patentee so requires—require the applicant to grant to the patentee a licence on reasonable terms to exploit the dependent invention.
- (3B) An order must direct that a licence:
 - (a) is not to give the licensee, or a person authorised by the licensee, the exclusive right to exploit the original invention or the dependent invention (if applicable); and
 - (b) is to be assignable only in connection with an enterprise or goodwill in connection with which the licence is used.

- (3C) An order may direct that a licence is to be granted on any other terms specified in the order that the court thinks fit. Such terms must be consistent with the public interest, having regard to the matters specified in paragraph (3)(e).

Effect of order

- (4) An order operates, without prejudice to any other method of enforcement, as if it were embodied in a deed granting a licence and executed by the patentee and all other necessary parties.
- (5) The patentee is to be paid in respect of a licence granted to the applicant under an order:
- (a) such amount as is agreed between the patentee and the applicant; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—such amount as is determined by the Federal Court to be just and reasonable, having regard to:
 - (i) the economic value of the licence; and
 - (ii) if the order is made because the court is satisfied that the patentee has contravened, or is contravening, Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent—the desirability of discouraging contraventions of that Part or an application law; and
 - (iii) the right of the patentee to obtain a return on investment commensurate with the regulatory and commercial risks involved in developing the invention; and
 - (iv) the public interest in ensuring that demand in Australia for the original invention is met on reasonable terms.

Revocation of licence

- (6) The patentee or the Federal Court may revoke a licence if:
- (a) the patentee and the licensee are agreed, or the court on application made by either party finds, that the circumstances that justified the grant of the licence have ceased to exist and are unlikely to recur; and

Section 134

- (b) the legitimate interests of the licensee are not likely to be adversely affected by the revocation.

(7) If:

- (a) the licence is revoked by the Federal Court; and
(b) the order granting the licence required a licence (the cross-licence) to be granted in accordance with paragraph (3A)(b);

the Federal Court must consider whether to revoke the cross-licence.

134 Revocation of patent after grant of compulsory licence under section 133

- (1) Where a compulsory licence ordered under section 133 relating to a patent is granted, an interested person may apply to the Federal Court, after the end of the prescribed period, for an order revoking the patent.
- (2) After hearing the application, the court may make the order if satisfied that:
- (a) all of the following apply:
- (i) demand in Australia for the original invention is continuing to not be met on reasonable terms;
 - (ii) the patentee has given no satisfactory reason for failing to exploit the patent to the extent necessary to meet the demand for the original invention in Australia;
 - (iii) it is in the public interest to revoke the patent, having regard to the matters in subsection (3); or
- (b) the patentee is contravening Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent.
- (3) The matters are as follows:

- (a) the benefits to the public from meeting the demand for the original invention;
- (b) the commercial costs and benefits to the patentee and the applicant from revoking the patent;
- (c) any other matters the court considers relevant, including matters relating to greater competition and any impact on innovation.

136 Orders to be consistent with international agreements

An order must not be made under section 133 or 134 that is inconsistent with a treaty between the Commonwealth and a foreign country.

136A Dealing with allegation of contravention of application law

Proceedings under section 133 or 134 involving an allegation of contravention of an application law that is a law of a State must be dealt with as if the law were a law of the Commonwealth.

Note: Those proceedings are in the Federal Court, which can only exercise the judicial power of the Commonwealth. This section lets the court deal comprehensively with the proceedings without the need for a court of the State to determine whether the application law has been contravened.

Part 3—Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences (for manufacture and export to eligible importing countries)

Division 1—Introduction

136B Simplified outline of this Part

The Federal Court may make an order under this Part requiring the grant of a compulsory licence to exploit a patented pharmaceutical invention for manufacture and export to an eligible importing country.

The court may order a compulsory licence to be granted if the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health issue in the eligible importing country:

- (a) in a national emergency (or other extremely urgent circumstances); or
- (b) by the public non-commercial use of the product.

The order may be amended or revoked by another order of the court.

The patentee must be paid an agreed amount of remuneration, or an amount of remuneration determined by the court.

136C Relationship between Parts 2 and 3

This Part does not prevent a compulsory licence from being ordered under Part 2 in relation to a patented pharmaceutical invention.

Division 2—Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences

136D PPI compulsory licences—applications for orders

Application for order

- (1) A person (the PPI order applicant) may apply to the Federal Court for an order (the PPI order) under section 136E requiring the patentee of a patented pharmaceutical invention to grant the PPI order applicant a licence (a PPI compulsory licence) to exploit the invention to the extent necessary for the purposes of manufacturing a pharmaceutical product in Australia for export to an eligible importing country.

Note 1: A patented pharmaceutical invention may be a patented product or a patented process: see the definition of patented pharmaceutical invention in Schedule 1.

Note 2: For remuneration in respect of a licence, see section 136J.

- (2) However, a person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.

Statement—eligible importing country

- (3) An application must include a copy of a statement made by or on behalf of, and with the authorisation of, the eligible importing country to the effect that it will take reasonable measures within its means, proportionate to its administrative capacities and to the risk of trade diversion, to prevent re-exportation from its territory of a pharmaceutical product imported into its territory in accordance with a PPI compulsory licence.

Statement—importer

- (4) If the pharmaceutical product is to be imported on behalf of, and with the authorisation of, the eligible importing country, an application must also include a copy of a statement made by the

Part 3 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences (for manufacture and export to eligible importing countries)

Division 2 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences

Section 136E

importer to the effect that it will take reasonable measures within its means to prevent the pharmaceutical product from being used other than in accordance with a PPI compulsory licence.

Parties

- (5) The following are parties to proceedings on an application under this section:
- (a) the PPI order applicant;
 - (b) the patentee;
 - (c) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise;
 - (d) at the option of the eligible importing country—that country.

136E PPI compulsory licences—orders

- (1) After hearing an application for a PPI order under section 136D, the Federal Court may, subject to this Part, make the order sought if the court is satisfied of all of the following matters:
- (a) the application is made in good faith;
 - (b) the pharmaceutical product is to be imported:
 - (i) by the eligible importing country; or
 - (ii) by a person (the third party importer) on behalf of, and with the authorisation of, the eligible importing country;
 - (c) the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health problem in the eligible importing country:
 - (i) in circumstances of national emergency or other circumstances of extreme urgency; or
 - (ii) in other circumstances—by the public non-commercial use of the pharmaceutical product;
 - (d) exploiting the patented pharmaceutical invention is necessary to enable the import and proposed use of the pharmaceutical product as mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c);
 - (e) if subparagraph (c)(ii) applies:
 - (i) the PPI order applicant has given the patentee a notice in the approved form seeking from the patentee an

- authorisation to exploit the patented pharmaceutical invention for public non-commercial use; and
- (ii) during the 30 days beginning when the notice was given, the PPI order applicant has tried, without success, to obtain such an authorisation from the patentee on reasonable terms and conditions;
 - (f) the notification requirements prescribed by regulation in relation to the importation of the pharmaceutical product into the eligible importing country have been complied with;
 - (g) the PPI order applicant, the eligible importing country and, if there is a third party importer, that importer, will take reasonable measures to prevent a pharmaceutical product that is exported from Australia in accordance with a PPI compulsory licence from being used for a purpose other than the purpose of addressing the public health problem mentioned in paragraph (c).
- (2) Without limiting the matters that the court may take into account in deciding whether it is satisfied of a matter mentioned in subsection (1), the court must take into account any matters prescribed by regulation.
- (3) A regulation made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(f) may:
- (a) without limiting subsection 33(3A) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, prescribe different notification requirements for the importation of pharmaceutical products into eligible importing countries of different kinds; and
 - (b) despite subsection 14(2) of the Legislation Act 2003, refer to eligible importing countries (or different kinds of eligible importing countries) by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, any matter contained in any other instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

136F PPI compulsory licences—terms

- (1) A PPI order must direct that the PPI compulsory licence is granted on the following terms:

Chapter 12 Compulsory licences and revocation of patents

Part 3 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences (for manufacture and export to eligible importing countries)

Division 2 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences

Section 136F

- (a) no more than the quantity of the pharmaceutical product that is determined by the Federal Court to be necessary to meet the needs of the eligible importing country is manufactured;
 - (b) the entirety of the pharmaceutical product manufactured for that purpose is exported to that country;
 - (c) the pharmaceutical product is labelled and marked in accordance with the regulations;
 - (d) before shipment of the pharmaceutical product begins, the shipment information prescribed by regulation is made available on a website by, or on behalf of, the licensee for a minimum period prescribed by regulation;
 - (e) the duration of the licence is only for the period of time determined by the Federal Court to be necessary to address the public health problem concerned;
 - (f) the licence does not give the licensee, or a person authorised by the licensee, the exclusive right to exploit the patented pharmaceutical invention;
 - (g) the licence is to be assignable only in connection with an enterprise or goodwill in connection with which the licence is used;
 - (h) the licensee must give the Commissioner the information prescribed by regulation in relation to the licence in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) A PPI order may also direct that the licence is to be granted on any other terms specified in the order, including terms covering:
- (a) other requirements relating to the labelling and marking of the pharmaceutical product; and
 - (b) other information to be made available by the licensee and the way in which it is to be made available.
- (3) However, a term specified in a PPI order must not be inconsistent with any regulations prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), (d) or (h).

136G PPI compulsory licences—amendment

Application for order

- (1) A person may apply to the Federal Court for an order amending any of the following terms of a PPI compulsory licence:
 - (a) the quantity of the pharmaceutical product concerned;
 - (b) how the pharmaceutical product is labelled and marked;
 - (c) the duration of the licence;
 - (d) the information that is to be made available by the licensee and the way it is to be made available.

Note: For remuneration in respect of the licence as amended, see section 136J.

Order

- (2) The court may make the order sought in relation to a term if it is satisfied that:
 - (a) it is just to do so in all the circumstances; and
 - (b) the legitimate interests of the following are not likely to be adversely affected by the amendment of the term:
 - (i) the patentee;
 - (ii) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise;
 - (iii) the licensee;
 - (iv) the eligible importing country.
- (3) However, an amended term must not be inconsistent with any regulations prescribed for the purposes of paragraph 136F(1)(c), (d) or (h).

Parties

- (4) The following are parties to any proceedings under this section:
 - (a) the applicant under subsection (1);
 - (b) the patentee;

Chapter 12 Compulsory licences and revocation of patents

Section 136H

- (c) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise;
- (d) the licensee;
- (e) at the option of the eligible importing country—that country.

136H PPI compulsory licences—revocation

Application

- (1) A person may apply to the Federal Court for an order revoking a PPI compulsory licence.

Note: For remuneration in respect of the use of a PPI compulsory licence while it is in force, see section 136J.

Federal Court may revoke licence

- (2) The Federal Court may make the order sought if the court is satisfied that:
 - (a) one or more of the following applies:
 - (i) the substantive circumstances that justified the grant of the licence have ceased to exist and are unlikely to recur;
 - (ii) the licensee has not complied with the terms of the licence;
 - (iii) if an amount of remuneration has been agreed or determined under section 136J—the amount has not been paid within the time agreed or determined; and
 - (b) the legitimate interests of the licensee or the eligible importing country are not likely to be adversely affected by the revocation.

Parties

- (3) The following are parties to any proceedings under this section:
 - (a) the applicant for revocation;
 - (b) the licensee;
 - (c) at the option of the eligible importing country—that country.

Division 3—Remuneration

136J PPI compulsory licences—remuneration

Working out amount of remuneration

- (1) The patentee is to be paid an amount agreed or determined under subsection (3) in respect of the use of a patented pharmaceutical invention authorised by a PPI compulsory licence.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the use of a patented pharmaceutical invention authorised by the PPI compulsory licence is:
 - (a) while it is in force—the use authorised by the licence as granted and as amended (from time to time) under section 136G; or
 - (b) if it has ceased to be in force (whether because it was revoked or otherwise)—the actual use of the patented pharmaceutical invention under the licence while it was in force.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the amount is:
 - (a) an amount agreed between the patentee and the PPI order applicant, licensee or former licensee (as the case requires); or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—an amount determined by the Federal Court to be adequate remuneration taking into account the economic value to the eligible importing country of the use of the patented pharmaceutical invention authorised by the PPI compulsory licence.

Application to make or amend a determination

- (4) A person may apply to the Federal Court:
 - (a) to make a determination under paragraph (3)(b); or
 - (b) to amend a determination made under that paragraph.

Chapter 12 Compulsory licences and revocation of patents

Part 3 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences (for manufacture and export to eligible importing countries)

Division 3 Remuneration

Section 136J

Note: Grounds for an application under paragraph (b) may include the fact that the terms of the PPI compulsory licence have been amended, or the licence has been revoked.

Parties

- (5) The following are parties to any proceedings under this section:
- (a) the applicant for the determination or the amendment of the determination;
 - (b) the PPI order applicant;
 - (c) the licensee;
 - (d) the patentee of the patented pharmaceutical invention;
 - (e) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise.

Can PPI be exploited if remuneration is not agreed or determined?

- (6) To avoid doubt, if the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health problem in the eligible importing country in circumstances of national emergency or other circumstances of extreme urgency, the licensee may exploit a patented pharmaceutical invention under a PPI compulsory licence, as granted or amended (as the case may be), whether or not an amount has been agreed or determined under this section.
- (7) However, if the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health problem in the eligible importing country in other circumstances, by the public non-commercial use of the pharmaceutical product, the licensee must not exploit a patented pharmaceutical invention under a PPI compulsory licence unless an amount has been agreed or determined under this section.

Can PPI compulsory licence be revoked if remuneration is not agreed or determined?

- (8) To avoid doubt, a PPI compulsory licence may be revoked whether or not an amount has been agreed or determined under this section.

Division 4—General

136K PPI compulsory licences—nature of orders

Without prejudice to any other method of enforcement, a PPI order operates as if it were embodied in a deed granting or amending a licence and executed by the patentee and all other necessary parties.

136L PPI compulsory licences—consistency of orders with international agreements

A PPI order must not be made that is inconsistent with a treaty between the Commonwealth and a foreign country.

136M PPI compulsory licences—applications heard together

Nothing in this Part prevents the Federal Court from dealing with the following applications together:

- (a) applications for different PPI orders, or for the amendment or revocation of such orders;
- (b) applications for determinations under paragraph 136J(3)(b) for remuneration in relation to different PPI compulsory licences, or for the amendment of such determinations.

Part 4—Surrender and revocation of patents

136N Simplified outline of this Part

A patentee may offer to surrender a patent by giving the Commissioner written notice.

The Commissioner may accept the offer of surrender, and revoke the patent, after hearing all interested parties. If court proceedings are pending in relation to the patent, leave of the court, or the consent of the parties, is required. The Commissioner must not accept the offer if a compulsory licence ordered under Part 2 is in force in relation to the patent.

In addition, a court may revoke a patent on the following grounds:

- (a) the patentee is not entitled to the patent;
- (b) the invention is not a patentable invention;
- (c) the patent was (broadly speaking) improperly obtained;
- (d) the patent was (broadly speaking) obtained on the basis of a non-compliant specification.

137 Revocation on surrender of patent

- (1) A patentee may, at any time, by written notice to the Commissioner, offer to surrender the patent.
- (2) The Commissioner must give notice of an offer in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) After hearing all interested persons who notify the Commissioner in accordance with the regulations of their wish to be heard, the Commissioner may accept the offer and revoke the patent.
- (4) Where relevant proceedings in relation to a patent are pending, the Commissioner must not accept an offer to surrender the patent without either the leave of the court or the consent of the parties to the proceedings.

- (5) Where a licence ordered under Part 2 is in force in relation to a patent, the Commissioner must not accept an offer to surrender the patent.

138 Revocation of patents in other circumstances

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), the Minister or any other person may apply to a prescribed court for an order revoking a patent.
- (1A) A person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.
- (2) At the hearing of the application, the respondent is entitled to begin and give evidence in support of the patent and, if the applicant gives evidence disputing the validity of the patent, the respondent is entitled to reply.
- (3) After hearing the application, the court may, by order, revoke the patent, either wholly or so far as it relates to a claim, on one or more of the following grounds, but on no other ground:
- (a) that the patentee is not entitled to the patent;
 - (b) that the invention is not a patentable invention;
 - (d) that the patent was obtained by fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
 - (e) that an amendment of the patent request or the complete specification was made or obtained by fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
 - (f) that the specification does not comply with subsection 40(2), (3) or (3A).
- (4) A court must not make an order under subsection (3) on the ground that the patentee is not entitled to the patent unless the court is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, it is just and equitable to do so.

Section 138A

Part 5—Other matters

138A Simplified outline of this Part

This Part deals with the parties to proceedings under this Chapter (other than proceedings under Part 3).

This Part also enables the Commissioner to appear and be heard in all proceedings under this Chapter.

139 Parties to proceedings

- (1) The patentee, and any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise, are parties to any proceedings under section 133, 134 or 138.

Note: See Part 3 for details of parties to proceedings under that Part.

- (2) In any proceedings under this Chapter:
- (a) the applicant must serve a copy of the application on the Commissioner; and
 - (b) the Commissioner may appear and be heard in the proceedings.

140 Commissioner to be given copies of orders

An office copy of an order made under this Chapter must be served on the Commissioner by the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the court that made the order.

Chapter 13—Withdrawal and lapsing of applications and ceasing of patents

141 Withdrawal of applications

- (1) A patent application, other than a PCT application, may be withdrawn if all of the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the applicant lodges a written notice of withdrawal signed by the applicant;
 - (b) if the application has been opposed under section 59—the Commissioner has consented to the withdrawal;
 - (c) if the regulations prescribe a period within which an application must not be withdrawn—the withdrawal will not occur within the prescribed period.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which PCT applications may be withdrawn, or are to be taken to be withdrawn.

142 Lapsing of applications

- (1) A provisional application for a patent lapses at the end of the period prescribed for the purpose of section 38 or, if that period is extended, at the end of the period as so extended.
- (2) A complete application for a standard patent lapses if:
 - (a) the applicant does not ask for an examination of the patent request and complete specification within the relevant period prescribed for the purposes of subsection 44(1), (2) or (3), as the case requires; or
 - (d) the applicant does not pay a continuation fee for the application within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
 - (e) the patent request and complete specification are not accepted within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or

Section 143

- (f) if the application is a PCT application—prescribed circumstances apply to the application.
- (3) A complete application for a standard patent lapses if the applicant does not comply with a direction of the Commissioner under section 107 within the time allowed by the Commissioner under that section.

143 Ceasing of patents

A standard patent ceases if the patentee:

- (a) does not pay a renewal fee for the patent within the prescribed period; or
- (b) does not file the prescribed documents (if any) within the prescribed period.

143A Ceasing of innovation patents

An innovation patent ceases if:

- (a) the fee for filing the request and accompanying specification relating to an application for an innovation patent is not paid in accordance with the regulations; or
- (b) after an examination of the patent has been requested under paragraph 101A(b), the patentee does not pay the prescribed fee for the examination within the prescribed period; or
- (c) the Commissioner does not make a decision under paragraph 101E(1)(a) within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
- (d) the patentee does not pay a renewal fee for the patent within the prescribed period; or
- (e) the patentee does not comply with a direction of the Commissioner under section 106 within the time allowed by the Commissioner under that section.

143B Payment of fees

To avoid doubt, a reference in this Chapter to the payment of a continuation fee or renewal fee by the applicant or patentee is taken to include a reference to the payment of that fee by a person other than the applicant or patentee.

Chapter 14—Contracts

145 Termination of contract after patent ceases to be in force

- (1) A contract relating to the lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented invention may be terminated by either party, on giving 3 months' notice in writing to the other party, at any time after the patent, or all the patents, by which the invention was protected at the time the contract was made, have ceased to be in force.
- (2) Subsection (1):
 - (a) applies despite anything to the contrary in that contract or in any other contract; and
 - (b) does not affect any right that a person has, apart from that subsection, to terminate a contract.

Chapter 15—Special provisions relating to associated technology

147 Certificate by Director as to associated technology

- (1) Where the Commissioner considers that a specification in respect of an application may contain information of a kind referred to in the definition of associated technology in subsection 4(1) of the Safeguards Act, the Commissioner must give the Director written notice to that effect together with a copy of the patent request and specification.
- (2) On receiving a notice, the Director may, if satisfied that the specification contains information of that kind, issue a certificate to that effect.
- (3) Where the Director is satisfied that:
 - (a) the possession by the applicant or the nominated person of the associated technology containing the information was not in accordance with a permit; or
 - (b) the communication of the information involved in making the application was not in accordance with an authority;the Director may include in the certificate:
 - (c) if the application is not a relevant international application—a direction that the application should lapse; or
 - (d) if the application is a relevant international application—a direction that the application should not be treated as an international application.
- (4) Where the Director issues a certificate, the Director must give a copy of it to the Commissioner who must give a copy to the applicant.

Section 148

148 Lapsing etc. of applications

- (1) Where:
 - (a) the Commissioner receives a copy of a certificate under subsection 147(2) in relation to an application; and
 - (b) the certificate includes a direction under subsection 147(3);then, upon receipt by the Commissioner of that copy:
 - (c) if the application is not a relevant international application—the application lapses; or
 - (d) if the application is a relevant international application—the application must cease to be treated as an international application.
- (2) Where an application has lapsed under this section, the Commissioner must publish a notice to that effect in the Official Journal.

149 Revocation of direction

Where under section 148 an application has lapsed, or has ceased to be treated as an international application, because of a direction by the Director under section 147, the applicant may apply in writing to the Director for the revocation of the direction and the Director may revoke the direction.

150 Restoration of lapsed application

- (1) Where an application has lapsed under section 148, the applicant may, in writing, ask the Commissioner to restore it.
- (2) On receiving a request, the Commissioner must restore the application if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:
 - (a) the relevant direction of the Director is no longer in force; and
 - (b) there is no other reason not to do so.

- (3) Where the Commissioner restores an application, the Commissioner must publish a notice to that effect in the Official Journal.
- (4) Where an application is restored under this section, such provisions as are prescribed have effect for the protection or compensation of persons who exploited (or took definite steps by contract or otherwise to exploit) the relevant invention after the lapse of the application and before the day on which its restoration was notified in the Official Journal.
- (5) Proceedings cannot be started under section 57 in respect of anything done during the period from and including the day on which the application lapsed to and including the day on which its restoration was notified in the Official Journal.

151 Reinstatement of application as an international application

- (1) Where a relevant international application has ceased to be treated as an international application under section 148, the applicant may ask the Commissioner in writing to reinstate it.
- (2) On receiving a request, the Commissioner must reinstate the application as an international application if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:
 - (a) the relevant direction of the Director is no longer in force; and
 - (b) there is no other reason not to do so.
- (3) Where the Commissioner reinstates an application as an international application, the application must be treated as an international application.
- (4) Where:
 - (a) the relevant international application specifies Australia as a designated State; and
 - (b) the Commissioner cannot reinstate the application merely because, under the PCT, it is to be considered as having been withdrawn; and

Section 152

- (c) the applicant files, within the prescribed period, a written request that the application be treated as an application under this Act for a standard patent; and
 - (d) the applicant files any prescribed documents and pays the prescribed fee;
- then, except as otherwise prescribed:
- (e) the application must be treated as requested; and
 - (f) the description, claims, drawings, graphics and photographs in the application must be treated as a complete specification filed in respect of the application; and
 - (g) the application and complete specification must be treated as having been filed on the date on which the relevant international application was filed.

152 Notice of prohibitions or restrictions on publication

- (1) Where the Director issues a certificate under section 147 in relation to an application, the Director may give written notice to the Commissioner of any prohibitions or restrictions on the publication or communication of the information in the specification, or in a relevant abstract, that the Director considers appropriate.
- (2) On receiving a notice, the Commissioner must take such steps as are necessary or expedient to give effect to it.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Commissioner may, by written order, prohibit or restrict the publication or communication of information about the subject-matter of the application, whether generally or in relation to a particular person or class of persons.
- (4) A person must not, except in accordance with the written consent of the Commissioner, publish or communicate information in contravention of an order.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

153 Effect of order

- (1) Where an order is in force in relation to an application for a standard patent, the application may proceed up to the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, but the complete specification must not be made open to public inspection, the acceptance must not be notified in the Official Journal and a patent must not be granted on the application.
- (2) While an order is in force in relation to an application for an innovation patent, the application may proceed up to the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification but a patent must not be granted on the application.
- (3) Where an order in relation to an application for a standard patent has been revoked after the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, the acceptance must be notified in the Official Journal within the prescribed period.
- (4) Nothing in this Act prevents disclosing information about an invention to the Director for the purpose of obtaining advice on whether an order should be made, amended or revoked.

154 Jurisdiction of Federal Court

- (1) The Federal Court has jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under this Act.
