An Act to make provision for the supervision of certain entities engaged in the superannuation industry, and for related purposes

Part 1—Preliminary

Division 1—Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.

2 Commencement

- (1) Subject to this section, Parts 1, 2, 21, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 32 commence on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) Part 1 (in so far as it relates to section 117) and section 117 are taken to have commenced on 21 October 1992.
- (3) Parts 18, 19, 20, 23 and 24 and section 342 commence on 1 July 1994.
- (4) The remaining provisions commence on 1 December 1993, but do not apply to a fund, scheme or trust in relation to a year of income of the fund, scheme or trust earlier than the 1994-95 year of income.

3 Object of Act

Supervision of certain superannuation entities

- (1) The main object of this Act is to make provision for the prudent management of certain superannuation funds, approved deposit funds and pooled superannuation trusts and for their supervision by APRA, ASIC and the Commissioner of Taxation.

Section 4

Basis for supervision

- (2) The basis for supervision is that those funds and trusts are subject to regulation under the Commonwealth's powers with respect to corporations or pensions (for example, because the trustee is a corporation). In return, the supervised funds and trusts may become eligible for concessional taxation treatment.

Whole industry not covered

- (3) The Act does not regulate other entities engaged in the superannuation industry.

4 Simplified outline of supervision responsibilities

Sections 5 and 6 set out the functions, powers and duties of APRA, ASIC and the Commissioner of Taxation in administering this Act.

APRA is generally responsible for prudential regulation and member outcomes. It is also generally responsible for licensing and supervision of RSE licensees.

ASIC is generally responsible for protecting consumers from harm, market integrity, disclosure and record keeping.

The Commissioner of Taxation is generally responsible for self managed superannuation funds, data and payment standards, tax file numbers and the compassionate release of superannuation amounts.

5 General administration of Act

- (1) Subject to this section, the general administration of a provision is determined under the general administration table in section 6. If a provision is covered by column 1 of the table, the general administration of the provision is conferred on a person, body or bodies in accordance with column 3 of the table.

- (2) Powers and duties are also conferred by the provisions referred to in subsection (3) of this section on:
- (a) APRA for the purposes of APRA's administration of the provisions it administers (including provisions both APRA and ASIC administer); and
 - (b) ASIC for the purposes of ASIC's administration of the provisions it administers (including provisions both APRA and ASIC administer); and
 - (c) the Commissioner of Taxation for the purposes of the administration of the provisions the Commissioner of Taxation administers.
- (3) The provisions are Parts 1, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 29A and 30, but not including any of the following provisions:
- (a) Division 3 of Part 25 (see instead item 58 of the general administration table);
 - (b) sections 328 and 332 (see instead subsection (8) of this section).

Note: Generally APRA, ASIC and the Commissioner of Taxation are not referred to in these provisions, Regulator is used instead. See the definition of Regulator in section 10.

Special rules about ASIC

- (4) Despite paragraph (2)(b):
- (a) powers and duties conferred on ASIC by section 255 are conferred only in relation to persons who are relevant persons in relation to superannuation entities; and
 - (b) powers and duties conferred on ASIC by section 256 are conferred only in relation to the affairs of superannuation entities.

Special rules about the Commissioner of Taxation

- (5) Despite paragraph (2)(c):
- (a) powers and duties conferred on the Commissioner of Taxation by Divisions 4 to 8 of Part 25 (other than section 285) are conferred only in relation to:

Section 5

- (i) persons who are relevant persons in relation to superannuation entities; and
 - (ii) the affairs of superannuation entities; and
 - (b) powers and duties are not conferred on the Commissioner of Taxation by section 342 (about pre-1 July 88 funding credits and debits).
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) limits the powers and duties conferred on the Commissioner of Taxation by Part 25 (as mentioned in paragraph (2)(c)) in relation to contributing employers.

Note: The Commissioner of Taxation's powers and duties under Part 25 in relation to contributing employers are found in sections 255 and 256, with related provisions in Divisions 7, 8 and 9 of that Part.

- (7) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of the definition of taxation law in subsection 995-1(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, the Commissioner of Taxation is taken to have the general administration of a provision of this Act or the regulations that confers powers and duties on the Commissioner of Taxation.

Note: An effect of a provision being administered by the Commissioner of Taxation is that people who acquire information under the provision are subject to the confidentiality obligations and exceptions in Division 355 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

Modification and exemption powers

- (8) Powers and duties are also conferred by sections 328 and 332 on:
- (a) APRA for the purposes of the administration of provisions administered by APRA (including provisions both APRA and ASIC administer) or by the Commissioner of Taxation; and
 - (b) ASIC for the purposes of the administration of provisions administered solely by ASIC.

Directions

- (9) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, give APRA or ASIC directions about the performance or exercise of its functions or powers under this Act.

- (5) Subsection (4) does not, except for the purposes of section 29J, apply if the reason, or one of the reasons, why the superannuation fund would cease to be a self managed superannuation fund was the admission of one or more new members to the fund.

Extended meaning of employee in certain circumstances

- (6) For the purposes of this section, a member of a fund, who is an employee of an employer-sponsor of the fund, is also taken to be an employee of another person (the other person), if the employer-sponsor is:
 - (a) a relative of the other person; or
 - (b) either of the following:
 - (i) a body corporate of which the other person, or a relative of the other person, is a director;
 - (ii) a body corporate related to that body corporate; or

 - (iii) the other person, or a relative of the other person, is a beneficiary of a trust, if a trustee of the trust is a partner in the partnership.

Note 1: An effect of this subsection is that a fund will not be a self managed superannuation fund if a member is employed by an employer-sponsor of the fund, and another member (who is not a relative) has a specified interest in that employer-sponsor: see paragraph (1)(e). An example of this would be where the employer-sponsor is a company of which another member is a director.

Note 2: Another effect is that a fund will not be a self managed superannuation fund if its single member is employed by an employer-sponsor of the fund in which the other trustee of the fund (who is not a relative) has a specified interest: see subsection (2).

(7) Subsection (6) does not limit the meaning of the term employee.

Regulations

(8) For the purposes of this section:

- (a) a member of a fund is taken to be an employee of a person belonging to a class specified in the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; and
- (b) despite subsections (6) and (7) and section 15A, a member of a fund is not taken to be an employee of a person belonging to a class specified in the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

Meaning of relative

(9) In this section:

relative, in relation to an individual, means:

- (a) a parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, aunt, uncle, great-aunt, great-uncle, niece, nephew, first cousin or second cousin of the individual or of his or her spouse or former spouse; or
 - (b) a spouse or former spouse of the individual, or of an individual referred to in paragraph (a).
- (9A) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of relative in subsection (9), if one individual is the child of another individual because of the definition of child in subsection 10(1), relationships traced to, from or through the individual are to be determined in the same way as if the individual were the natural child of the other individual.

Section 17B

Disqualified persons

- (10) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (3) does not permit a person, in the capacity of legal personal representative of a disqualified person (within the meaning of section 120), to be a trustee of a self managed superannuation fund or a director of a body corporate that is a trustee of a self managed superannuation fund.

17B Definition of self managed superannuation fund—remuneration of trustees etc.

- (1) Paragraphs 17A(1)(f) and (2)(c) do not apply to remuneration for any duties or services performed by a trustee of a fund, if:
- (a) the trustee performs the duties or services other than in the capacity of trustee; and
 - (b) the trustee is appropriately qualified, and holds all necessary licences, to perform the duties or services; and
 - (c) the trustee performs the duties or services in the ordinary course of a business, carried on by the trustee, of performing similar duties or services for the public; and
 - (d) the remuneration is no more favourable to the trustee than that which it is reasonable to expect would apply if the trustee were dealing with the relevant other party at arm's length in the same circumstances.
- (2) Paragraphs 17A(1)(g) and (2)(d) do not apply to remuneration for any duties or services performed by a director of a body corporate that is a trustee of a fund, if:

20A Resident approved deposit funds

Resident approved deposit funds

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an approved deposit fund is a resident approved deposit fund at a particular time if, and only if:

where:

Accumulated entitlements of resident members means the sum of so much of the value of the assets of the fund at that time as is attributable to:

20B Accrued default amounts

- (1) Subject to this section, the total amount attributed by the trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund to a member of the fund is an accrued default amount for the member if subsection (1A) or (1B) is satisfied.
- (1A) This subsection is satisfied if the member has given the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund no direction on the investment option under which the asset (or assets) of the fund attributed to the member in relation to the amount (the member's underlying asset(s)) is to be invested.
- (1B) This subsection is satisfied if the investment option under which the asset (or assets) of the fund attributed to the member in relation to the amount (the member's underlying asset(s)) is invested is one which, under the current governing rules of the fund, would be the investment option for a new member if no direction were given.

- (2) Such an amount is not an accrued default amount to the extent that the amount is attributed to the member in relation to a MySuper product.
- (3) Such an amount is not an accrued default amount:
- (a) if the member is a defined benefit member of the fund; or
 - (b) if the fund is an eligible rollover fund; or
 - (c) to the extent that the member's underlying asset(s) is invested in one or more of the following:
 - (i) a life policy under which contributions and accumulated earnings may not be reduced by negative investment returns or any reduction in the value of assets in which the policy is invested;
 - (ii) a life policy under which the benefit to the member (or a relative or dependant of the member) is based only on the realisation of a risk, not the performance of an investment;

 - (iv) an investment option under which the investment is held as cash; or and

- (c) an amount attributable to the person is invested under an equivalent investment option offered by the later fund (the equivalent investment option);

the person is taken to have given the trustee, or the trustees, of the later fund a direction to invest in the equivalent investment option any asset (or assets) of the later fund that is attributed to the person in relation to an amount attributed to the person.

- (4) In this section:

investment account contract has the same meaning as in the Life Insurance Act 1995.

Part 2A—Licensing of trustees and groups of individual trustees

Division 1—Object of this Part

29A Object of this Part and the relationship of this Part to other provisions

- (1) The object of this Part is to set out provisions relating to the granting of RSE licences to:
 - (a) constitutional corporations; and
 - (b) other bodies corporate; and
 - (c) groups of individual trustees.
- (2) The following is a simplified outline showing some key relationships between this Part and other provisions of the Act and the regulations that trustees should be aware of:

Certain provisions may be contravened if unlicensed trustees carry out particular activities (e.g.: sections 29J and 152). The trustee, or group of individual trustees, of a fund or trust may obtain an RSE licence under this Part.

Note 1: If the trustee is a constitutional corporation, the trustee obtaining an RSE licence may result in a fund or trust becoming an approved deposit fund or pooled superannuation trust, which are each registrable superannuation entities.

Note 2: If the trustee or group of individual trustees makes an election under section 19, the fund may become a regulated superannuation fund. Regulated superannuation funds other than self managed superannuation funds are registrable superannuation entities.

Part 2A Licensing of trustees and groups of individual trustees

Division 1 Object of this Part

Section 29A

A trustee, or group of individual trustees, that has obtained an RSE licence may have a registrable superannuation entity registered under Part 2B. Certain provisions may be contravened if certain activities are carried out while a registrable superannuation entity is not registered (e.g.: accepting contributions while the entity is unregistered may lead to an offence under section 34.)

Note: A failure to register the fund or trust may also lead to a breach of an RSE licence condition and possible loss of the RSE licence.

Division 2—Classes of RSE licences

29B Classes of RSE licences

- (1) There are to be classes of RSE licences.
- (2) One class of RSE licences is to be a class that enables a trustee that holds a licence of that class to be a trustee of:
- (a) any public offer entity; and
 - (b) any other registrable superannuation entity included in a class of registrable superannuation entities specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection;
- subject to any condition imposed on that licence under subsection 29EA(3).

Note 1: An RSE licence of this class is called a public offer entity licence: see subsection 10(1).

Note 2: Only constitutional corporations may hold public offer entity licences: see paragraph 29D(1)(g).

- (3) Another class of RSE licences is to be a class that enables a trustee that:
- (a) holds a licence of that class; or
 - (b) is a member of a group of individual trustees that holds a licence of that class;
- to be a trustee of any registrable superannuation entity included in a class of registrable superannuation entities (other than a class of public offer entities) specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection, subject to any condition imposed on that licence under subsection 29EA(3).
- (4) The regulations may provide for other classes of RSE licences. For each such class, the regulations must specify the classes of registrable superannuation entities of which a trustee that:
- (a) holds a licence of that class; or
 - (b) is a member of a group of individual trustees that holds a licence of that class;

Part 2A Licensing of trustees and groups of individual trustees

Division 2 Classes of RSE licences

is enabled to be a trustee, subject to any condition imposed on that licence under subsection 29EA(3).

- (5) The classes of registrable superannuation entity that the regulations may specify in relation to a particular class of RSE licence may include one or more classes of registrable superannuation entity that the regulations specify in relation to another class of RSE licence.

Division 3—Applying for RSE licences

29C Applications for RSE licences

Who may apply for RSE licences

- (1) A constitutional corporation may apply to APRA for an RSE licence of any class.
- (2) A body corporate that is not a constitutional corporation may apply to APRA for an RSE licence of any class other than a class that would enable it to be a trustee of a public offer entity.
- (3) A group of individual trustees may apply to APRA for an RSE licence of any class other than a class that would enable each of the members of the group to be a trustee of a public offer entity.

Requirements for applications

- (4) An application for an RSE licence must:
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required by the approved form; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the application fee (if any) prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (5) Regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (4)(c) may prescribe different application fees for applications for different classes of RSE licences.

Notifying certain changes while applications are pending

- (6) If:
 - (a) a body corporate applies for an RSE licence; and
 - (b) after the application is made, but before APRA decides the application, another director is added to, or removed from the board;

Section 29CA

the body corporate must notify APRA, in the approved form, about the change to the membership of the board as soon as practicable after that change occurs.

Note: Part 9 has requirements about equal representation rules.

(7) If:

- (a) a group of individual trustees applies for an RSE licence; and
- (b) after the application is made, but before APRA decides the application, another trustee is added to, or removed from the group;

a member of the group must notify APRA, in the approved form, about the change to the membership of the group as soon as practicable after that change occurs.

Note: Part 9 has requirements about equal representation rules.

(9) An application is taken not to comply with this section if subsection (6) or (7) is contravened.

Note: APRA cannot grant an RSE licence while the application does not comply with this section: see paragraph 29D(1)(c).

29CA APRA may request further information

- (1) If a body corporate or group of individual trustees has applied for an RSE licence, APRA may give the body corporate or a member of the group a notice requesting the body or group to give APRA, in writing, specified information relating to the application by a specified time that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) APRA may decide to treat an application by a body corporate or group of individual trustees for an RSE licence as having been withdrawn if the body or group:
 - (a) does not comply with a request to provide information under this section; and
 - (b) does not have a reasonable excuse for not complying.
- (3) If APRA decides under subsection (2) to treat an application for an RSE licence as having been withdrawn, APRA must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the body that made the application, or a member of the group that made the application, is given a notice informing the body or group of:

- (a) APRA's decision; and
- (b) the reasons for that decision;

as soon as practicable after making the decision.

29CB Period etc. for deciding applications from existing trustees in licensing transition period

Statements of intention to apply

- (1) A person who was a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity at the start of the licensing transition period may give APRA a written statement that:
 - (a) is in the approved form; and
 - (b) indicates whether the person intends to apply under section 29C for an RSE licence; and
 - (c) lists the registrable superannuation entities that the person intends to apply to have registered under Part 2B if the RSE licence is granted.

Period for deciding applications

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), APRA must decide an application for an RSE licence before the end of the licensing transition period if:
 - (a) the application is received by APRA during that period; and
 - (b) the application is for an RSE licence to be granted to:
 - (i) a body corporate that was a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity at the start of the licensing transition period; or
 - (ii) a group of individual trustees that has a member who was a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity at the start of the licensing transition period.
- (3) At any time in the last 6 months of the licensing transition period, APRA may refuse to consider under subsection (2) any further applications for RSE licences that are received by APRA in the last

6 months before the end of the licensing transition period for RSE licences to be granted to:

- (a) bodies corporate that were trustees of registrable superannuation entities at the start of the licensing transition period; or
 - (b) groups of individual trustees with one or more members who were each a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity at the start of the licensing transition period.
- (4) If APRA decides to refuse, under subsection (3), to consider under subsection (2) any further applications, APRA must, as soon as practicable after making the decision, publish a notice stating APRA's decision in a daily newspaper that circulates generally in each State and Territory.
- (5) If APRA decides to refuse, under subsection (3), to consider under subsection (2) an application, that application is taken, at the end of the licensing transition period, to have been received by APRA immediately after the end of the licensing transition period.

29CC Period for deciding other applications

- (1) APRA must decide an application for an RSE licence within 90 days after receiving it if:
- (a) the application is received by APRA after the end of the licensing transition period; or
 - (b) the application is received by APRA during the licensing transition period and is for an RSE license to be granted to:
 - (i) a body corporate that was not a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity at the start of the licensing transition period; or
 - (ii) a group of individual trustees that has no members that were a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity at the start of the licensing transition period;
- unless APRA extends the period for deciding the application under subsection (2).

- (2) APRA may extend the period for deciding an application covered by paragraph (1)(a) or (b) by up to 30 days if APRA informs the body corporate, or a member of the group, that made the application of the extension:
 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) within 90 days after receiving the application.
- (3) If APRA extends the period for deciding the application, it must decide the application within the extended period.
- (4) If APRA has not decided the application by the end of the period by which it is required to decide the application, APRA is taken to have decided, at the end of the last day of that period, to refuse the application.

Division 4—Grant of RSE licences

29D Grant of RSE licences

- (1) APRA must grant an RSE licence to a body corporate, or group of individual trustees, that has applied for an RSE licence if, and only if:
- (a) APRA has no reason to believe that:
 - (i) if the application is made by a body corporate—the body corporate; or
 - (ii) if the application is made by a group of individual trustees—the group as a whole or any member of the group;would fail to comply with the RSE licensee law or Chapter 2M of the Corporations Act 2001 if the RSE licence were granted; and
 - (b) APRA has no reason to believe that:
 - (i) if the application is made by a body corporate—the body corporate; or
 - (ii) if the application is made by a group of individual trustees—the group as a whole or any member of the group;would fail to comply with any condition imposed on the RSE licence if it were granted; and
 - (c) the application for the licence complies with section 29C and is for a class of licence that the body corporate or group of individual trustees may apply for under that section; and
 - (d) APRA is satisfied that:
 - (i) if the application is made by a body corporate—the body corporate meets the requirements of the prudential standards relating to fitness and propriety for RSE licensees; or
 - (ii) if the application is made by a group of individual trustees—the group as a whole meets the requirements of the prudential standards relating to fitness and propriety for RSE licensees and each of the members of the group meets the requirements of the prudential standards relating to fitness and propriety for members of groups of trustees that are RSE licensees; and

- (f) in a case where the applicant is not a constitutional corporation—APRA is satisfied that:
 - (i) if the application is made by a body corporate—the body corporate; or
 - (ii) if the application is made by a group of individual trustees—each member of the group; only intends to act as a trustee of one or more superannuation funds that have governing rules providing that the sole or primary purpose of the fund is the provision of old-age pensions; and
- (g) in a case where the application is for a licence of a class that enables a trustee that holds a licence of the class to be a trustee of a public offer entity subject to any condition imposed under subsection 29EA(3)—APRA is satisfied that the applicant is a constitutional corporation; and
- (h) the application has not been withdrawn, treated as withdrawn under subsection 29CA(2), refused consideration under subsection 29CB(3) or taken to have been refused under subsection 29CC(4).

Note 1: Conditions apply to all RSE licences. See Division 5.

Note 2: An RSE licence may only be granted to a body corporate or a group of individual trustees because only bodies corporate and groups of individual trustees may apply for RSE licences. See section 29C.

(2) Otherwise APRA must refuse the application.

29DB Notice of class of licence

If APRA decides to grant an RSE licence to a body corporate or group of individual trustees, APRA must give the body corporate or group an RSE licence that specifies the class of licence granted.

29DC Documents required to bear ABNs

- (1) An RSE licensee must ensure that its ABN is included in:
 - (a) each document that it gives to APRA in the capacity of an RSE licensee; and
 - (b) any other document in which it identifies itself as an RSE licensee of a registrable superannuation entity; and
 - (c) if the RSE licensee is a body corporate—any document in which the body corporate identifies itself as a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity; or
 - (d) if the RSE licensee is a group of individual trustees—any document in which a member of the group identifies itself as a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity or as a member of a group of individual trustees that are the RSE licensee of a registrable superannuation entity.
- (2) However, an RSE licensee is not required to comply with subsection (1) in respect of a particular document if it has been given written approval by APRA not to be required to ensure that its ABN is included in that document or in a class of documents that includes that document.

29DD Licence period

- (1) An RSE licence comes into force at the later of:
 - (a) the time when it is granted; or
 - (b) the time specified on the licence as the time when it comes into force.
- (2) An RSE licence continues in force, subject to:
 - (a) any imposition of licence conditions under Division 5; or
 - (b) any variation or revocation of the licence conditions, or variation of the licence class, under Division 6;until the RSE licence is cancelled under Division 7.

29DE APRA to give notice of refusal of applications

If APRA refuses an application by a body corporate or a group of individual trustees for an RSE licence, APRA must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the body or a member of the group is given a notice informing the body or group of:

- (a) APRA's refusal of the application; and
- (b) the reasons for that refusal;

as soon as practicable after refusing the application.

Division 5—Conditions on RSE licences

29E Conditions imposed on all licences and on groups of licences

- (g) the RSE licensee must comply with any other conditions prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.

Note 1: Breach of a licence condition may lead to consequences such as a direction from APRA to comply with the condition (see Division 1 of Part 16A) or cancellation of the licence (see section 29G).

Note 2: An RSE licensee must notify APRA if the RSE licensee breaches a licence condition: see section 29JA.

Note: Paragraph 29E(1)(f) requires APRA to be notified of any change in the composition of the RSE licensee.

Licences held by bodies corporate

- (5A) An additional condition is imposed on each RSE licence held by an RSE licensee that is a body corporate. The condition is that the RSE licensee must not have a duty to act in the interests of another person, other than a duty that arises in the course of:

RSE licensees who apply for authority to offer MySuper product

- (6B) An additional condition is imposed on each RSE licensee who makes an application under section 29S for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product. The condition is that the RSE licensee must give effect to elections made in accordance with sections 29SAA, 29SAB and 29SAC.

RSE licensees authorised to operate eligible rollover funds

- (6D) An additional condition is imposed on each RSE licensee that is authorised to operate a regulated superannuation fund as an eligible rollover fund. The condition is that the RSE licensee must ensure that the governing rules of the fund are not varied so that:

- (8) A specified class mentioned in subsection (7) may be a class other than a class provided for under subsection 29B(2) or (3) or under regulations made for the purposes of subsection 29B(4).

29EA Additional conditions imposed on individual licences by APRA

- (1) APRA may, at any time, impose an additional condition on an RSE licence by giving the RSE licensee a notice setting out the additional condition.
- (2) A condition imposed under subsection (1) must not be inconsistent with any condition imposed by, or under, section 29E on an RSE licence.

Note 1: Breach of a licence condition may lead to consequences such as a direction from APRA to comply with the condition (see Division 1 of Part 16A) or cancellation of the licence (see section 29G).

Note 2: An RSE licensee must notify APRA if the RSE licensee breaches a licence condition: see section 29JA.

Note 3: RSE licensees may apply to APRA to have conditions imposed under this section varied or revoked: see section 29F.

- (2A) A condition may be expressed to have effect despite anything in the prudential standards.
- (2B) If:
- (a) a condition is expressed to have effect as mentioned in subsection (2A); and
 - (b) a provision of the prudential standards (the inconsistent provision) is inconsistent with the condition to any extent; the inconsistent provision is to be disregarded to the extent of the inconsistency in determining, for the purposes of any law of the Commonwealth, whether the RSE licensee has complied with its obligations under the prudential standards.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), an additional condition imposed under that subsection on an RSE licence may provide that the body corporate that is the RSE licensee, or each of the members of a group of individual trustees that is the RSE licensee, must not act as a trustee under that RSE licence for a registrable superannuation entity other than:
- (a) a registrable superannuation entity specified in the condition; or
 - (b) a registrable superannuation entity included in the class of registrable superannuation entities specified in the condition.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (1), an additional condition imposed under that subsection on an RSE licence may provide that the RSE licensee must ensure that a fund specified in the condition, or in a class of funds specified in the condition, must comply with the alternative agreed representation rules whenever section 92 applies to the fund. However, before imposing such a condition, APRA must have regard to any written guidelines determined by APRA under this subsection.
- (5) If the RSE licensee is also a financial services licensee:
- (a) APRA must consult ASIC before imposing a condition that, in APRA's opinion, might reasonably be expected to affect the RSE licensee's ability to provide one or more of the financial services (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) that the RSE licensee provides; and

Section 29EA

- (b) APRA must inform ASIC about the imposition of any condition not covered by paragraph (a) within one week after the condition is imposed.
- (6) A failure to comply with a requirement of subsection (5) does not invalidate the imposition of any condition.
- (7) An additional condition imposed under this section comes into force on the later of:
- (a) the day on which APRA gives the RSE licensee the notice of the condition; or
 - (b) the day specified in the notice as the day on which the condition comes into force.

Division 6—Varying RSE licences

29F Applications for variation of RSE licences

- (1) An RSE licensee may apply to APRA for one or both of the following:
 - (a) variation of its RSE licence so that the RSE licence is an RSE licence of a different class;
 - (b) variation or revocation of a condition that APRA has imposed on its RSE licence under section 29EA.
- (2) An application under this section must:
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required by the approved form; and
 - (c) if the application is for a variation of an RSE licence so that it is an RSE licence of a different class—be accompanied by the application fee (if any) prescribed for the type of variation by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.

29FA APRA may request further information

- (1) APRA may give an RSE licensee that makes an application under section 29F a notice requesting the RSE licensee to give APRA, in writing, specified information relating to the application by a specified time that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) APRA may decide to treat an application under section 29F as having been withdrawn if the RSE licensee:
 - (a) does not comply with a request to provide information under this section; and
 - (b) does not have a reasonable excuse for not complying.
- (3) If APRA decides to treat an application under section 29F as having been withdrawn, APRA must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the RSE licensee is given a notice informing the RSE licensee of:

Section 29FB

- (a) APRA's decision; and
 - (b) the reasons for that decision;
- as soon as practicable after making the decision.

29FB Period for deciding applications

- (1) APRA must decide an application under section 29F within 60 days of receiving the application, unless APRA extends the period for deciding the application under subsection (2).
- (2) APRA may extend the period for deciding an application under section 29F by up to 60 days if APRA informs the RSE licensee of the extension:
 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) within 60 days of receiving the application.
- (3) If APRA extends the period for deciding an application under section 29F, it must decide the application within the extended period.
- (4) If APRA has not decided an application under section 29F by the end of the period by which it is required to decide the application, APRA is taken to have decided, at the end of the last day of that period, to refuse the application.

29FC APRA may vary RSE licences in accordance with applications

- (1) APRA may, by notice to an RSE licensee:
 - (a) vary the RSE licensee's RSE licence so that it is an RSE licence of a different class; or
 - (b) vary or revoke a condition that APRA has imposed on the RSE licence under section 29EA;in accordance with an application under section 29F.
- (2) However:
 - (a) an RSE licence must not be varied so that it becomes an RSE licence of a particular class unless APRA is satisfied that the

- RSE licensee will comply with any conditions imposed on that class of RSE licence; and
- (b) a condition as varied under paragraph (1)(b) must not be inconsistent with any condition imposed by section 29E; and
 - (c) if the RSE licensee is also a financial services licensee:
 - (i) APRA must consult ASIC before varying the RSE licence so that it is an RSE licence of a different class, if, in APRA's opinion, the variation might reasonably be expected to affect the RSE licensee's ability to provide one or more of the financial services (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) that the RSE licensee provides; and
 - (ii) APRA must consult ASIC before varying or revoking a condition that, in APRA's opinion, might reasonably be expected to affect the RSE licensee's ability to provide one or more of the financial services (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) that the RSE licensee provides; and
 - (iii) APRA must consult ASIC before varying a condition so that it would, in APRA's opinion, become a condition that might reasonably be expected to have an effect as described in subparagraph (ii); and
 - (iv) APRA must inform ASIC about the variation or revocation of any condition not covered by subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) within one week after the condition is varied or revoked.
- (3) A failure to comply with a requirement of paragraph (2)(c) does not invalidate:
- (a) the variation of an RSE licence so that it is an RSE licence of a different class; or
 - (b) the variation or revocation of a licence condition.
- (4) APRA is not required to vary the class of, or vary or revoke any condition of, an RSE licence in the terms requested by an RSE licensee in an application under section 29F.

Section 29FD

29FD APRA may vary or revoke licence conditions on its own initiative

- (1) APRA may, on its own initiative, vary or revoke any condition that it imposed on an RSE licence under section 29EA.
- (2) However:
 - (a) a condition as varied under subsection (1) must not be inconsistent with any condition imposed by section 29E; and
 - (b) if the RSE licensee that holds the licence is also a financial services licensee:
 - (i) APRA must consult ASIC before varying or revoking a condition that, in APRA's opinion, might reasonably be expected to affect the RSE licensee's ability to provide one or more of the financial services (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) that the RSE licensee provides; and
 - (ii) APRA must consult ASIC before varying a condition so that it would, in APRA's opinion, become a condition that might reasonably be expected to have an effect as described in subparagraph (i); and
 - (iii) APRA must inform ASIC about the variation or revocation of any condition not covered by subparagraph (i) or (ii) within one week after the condition is varied or revoked.
- (3) A failure to comply with a requirement of paragraph (2)(b) does not invalidate the variation or revocation of a condition.

29FE Notification of APRA's decisions under this Division

- (1) APRA must give a notice to an RSE licensee if APRA:
 - (a) varies the RSE licensee's RSE licence under section 29FC so that it is an RSE licence of a different class; or

 - (ii) specify any conditions imposed under section 29EA to which the licence is subject after the variation or revocation comes into force; and
 - (c) state the reasons for the variation or revocation; and
 - (d) specify the day, not earlier than the day on which APRA gives the notice, on which the variation or revocation comes into force.
- (3) If APRA refuses an application for a variation or revocation under section 29FC, APRA must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the RSE licensee that made the application is given a notice informing it of:
- (a) APRA’s refusal of the application; and
 - (b) the reasons for the refusal;
- as soon as practicable after refusing the application.

29FF When variations or revocations come into force etc.

- (1) If, under section 29FC, APRA varies an RSE licence so that it is an RSE licence of a different class:

Division 7—Cancelling RSE licences

29G Cancellation of RSE licences

- (1) APRA may, in writing, cancel an RSE licence.

Note: In some circumstances, APRA must inform or consult ASIC (see section 29GA).

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), APRA may cancel an RSE licence under that subsection if:

Section 29GB

- (2) If APRA cancels the RSE licence of an RSE licensee that is also a financial services licensee, APRA must inform ASIC of the cancellation within one week after the cancellation.
- (3) A failure to comply with a requirement of this section does not invalidate the cancellation of an RSE licence.

29GB APRA may allow RSE licence to continue in effect

In a notice that APRA gives to an RSE licensee cancelling its RSE licence, APRA may specify that the RSE licence continues in effect as though the cancellation had not happened for the purposes of:

29LA APRA may request further information

APRA may give an RSE licensee that has applied for registration of a registrable superannuation entity a notice requesting the RSE licensee to give APRA, in writing, specified information relating to the application.

Note: A failure to give the requested information delays the time within which APRA must decide the application: see paragraph 29LB(1)(b).

- (1) APRA must decide an application by an RSE licensee for registration of a registrable superannuation entity:
 - (a) within 21 days after receiving the application; or

Part 2C—MySuper

Division 1—Object of this Part

29R Object of this Part

- (1) It is intended that all MySuper products will be simple products sharing common characteristics.
- (2) The object of this Part is to ensure that a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund is not offered as a MySuper product unless it has those characteristics.
- (3) This is done by requiring the RSE licensee of a regulated superannuation fund to obtain authority from APRA before offering a class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product.
- (4) The ability of an RSE licensee to offer a MySuper product is significant for the purposes of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992. Under that Act, employers will need to pay contributions for an employee who has no chosen fund into a fund that offers a MySuper product, in order to meet the choice of fund requirements and so avoid an increased individual superannuation guarantee shortfall for the employee.

Division 2—Applying for authority

29S Application for authority to offer a MySuper product

Who may apply?

- (1) An RSE licensee may apply to APRA for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product.

Requirements for applications

 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required by the approved form; and
 - (c) state the RSE licensee's and the fund's ABNs; and
 - (d) be accompanied by an up-to-date copy of the trust deed by which the fund is constituted (except to the extent that the trust deed is constituted by governing rules of the fund); and
 - (e) be accompanied by an up-to-date copy of the governing rules of the fund (except to the extent that the governing rules are constituted by the law of the Commonwealth or by unwritten rules); and
 - (f) be accompanied by elections made in accordance with each of the following sections:
 - (i) section 29SAA;
 - (ii) section 29SAB;
 - (iii) section 29SAC.

Notifying certain changes while applications are pending

- (3) If:
 - (a) an RSE licensee applies for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product; and

- (b) after the application is made but before APRA decides the application, the trust deed (other than the governing rules of the fund) by which the fund is constituted is varied or revoked and replaced;

the RSE licensee must lodge an up-to-date copy of the trust deed with APRA as soon as practicable after the trust deed is varied or revoked and replaced.

- (4) If:

- (a) an RSE licensee applies for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product; and
- (b) after the application is made but before APRA decides the application, any governing rules of the fund (that are not constituted by the law of the Commonwealth or by unwritten rules) are varied or revoked and replaced;

the RSE licensee must lodge an up-to-date copy of the governing rules (that are not constituted by the law of the Commonwealth or by unwritten rules) with APRA as soon as practicable after the governing rules are varied or revoked and replaced.

- (5) If:

- (a) an RSE licensee applies for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product; and
- (b) after the application is made, but before APRA decides the application, information contained in the application ceases to be correct;

the RSE licensee must give APRA the correct information, in writing, as soon as practicable after the information in the application ceases to be correct.

- (6) An application is taken not to comply with this section if subsection (3), (4) or (5) is contravened.

Note: APRA cannot give authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product while the application does not comply with this section: see paragraph 29T(1)(a).

Section 29SAA

Lapsed applications

- (7) An application for authority lapses if:
- (a) it was made by an RSE licensee; and
 - (b) the RSE licensee ceases to be an RSE licensee before:
 - (i) APRA makes a decision on the application for authority; or
 - (ii) if APRA's decision with respect to the application is subject to review under this Act—the review is finally determined or otherwise disposed of.

29SAA Election to transfer accrued default amounts

- (1) An RSE licensee that applies for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product makes an election in accordance with this section if:
- (a) the RSE licensee elects that, if authority to offer the class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product is given, the RSE licensee will:
 - (i) attribute to the MySuper product each amount that is an accrued default amount for a member of the fund who is eligible to hold the MySuper product, unless the member directs the RSE licensee in writing to attribute the amount to another MySuper product or an investment option within a choice product in the fund; and

 - (c) the election is in writing; and
 - (d) the election is in the approved form.
- (2) The action period, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), in relation to an application by an RSE licensee for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product, ends at the end of a period of 90 days beginning on:
 - (a) if APRA authorises the RSE licensee to offer the class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product—the day on which notice of that authority is given to the RSE licensee under section 29TD; or
 - (b) if APRA refuses the application—the day on which notice of the refusal is given to the RSE licensee under section 29TE.
- (3) If an RSE licensee makes an election under this section, the RSE licensee must comply with any requirements prescribed in the regulations in relation to:
 - (a) notices to be given to a member of the fund for whom there is an accrued default amount before the amount is attributed, or a decision is taken to continue to attribute the amount, to a MySuper product or an investment option within a choice product in the fund; and

Section 29SAC

- (i) to take the action required under the prudential standards in relation to any asset or assets of the fund that are attributed to the MySuper product, if the authority to offer the relevant class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product is cancelled under subsection 29U(1); and
 - (ii) to do so before the end of a period of 90 days beginning on the day on which notice of the cancellation is given to the RSE licensee under subsection 29U(3); and
- (b) the election is in writing; and
- (c) the election is in the approved form.

- (1) An RSE licensee that applies for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product makes an election in accordance with this section if:
- (a) the RSE licensee elects that, if the authority is given, the RSE licensee will not charge any MySuper member a fee in relation to the MySuper product, all or part of which relates directly or indirectly to costs incurred by a trustee or the trustees of the fund:
 - (i) in paying conflicted remuneration to a financial services licensee, or a representative of a financial services licensee; or
 - (ii) in paying an amount to another person that a trustee of the fund knows, or reasonably ought to know, relates to conflicted remuneration paid by that other person to a financial services licensee, or a representative of a financial services licensee; and
 - (b) the election is in writing; and
 - (c) the election is in the approved form.
- (2) In this section:

conflicted remuneration has the same meaning as in Part 7.7A of the Corporations Act 2001, subject to the extension of that meaning in subsection (3).

representative, of a financial services licensee, has the same meaning as in Part 7.6 of the Corporations Act 2001.

- (3) In this section, conflicted remuneration also has the meaning it would have if:
- (a) financial product advice provided to the RSE licensee mentioned in subsection (1) by a financial services licensee, or a representative of a financial services licensee, mentioned in subparagraph (1)(a)(i) or (ii) were provided to the RSE licensee as a retail client; and
 - (b) financial product advice provided to the other person mentioned in subparagraph (1)(a)(ii) by a financial services licensee, or a representative of a financial services licensee, mentioned in that subparagraph were provided to the other person as a retail client.

29SA APRA may request further information

APRA may give an RSE licensee that has applied for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product a notice requesting the RSE licensee to give APRA, in writing, specified information relating to the application.

Note: A failure to give the requested information delays the time within which APRA must decide the application: see paragraph 29SB(1)(b).

29SB Period for deciding applications for authority

- (1) APRA must decide an application by an RSE licensee for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product:
- (a) within 60 days after receiving the application; or
 - (b) if the applicant was requested to provide information under section 29SA—within 60 days after:

Section 29SB

- (i) receiving from the RSE licensee all of the information the RSE licensee was requested to provide under that section; or
 - (ii) all notices relating to that information being disposed of;
- unless APRA extends the period for deciding the application under subsection (2).
- (2) APRA may extend the period for deciding an application by an RSE licensee for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product by up to 60 days if APRA informs the RSE licensee of the extension:
 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) within the period in which it would otherwise be required to decide the application under subsection (1).
 - (3) If APRA extends the period for deciding an application for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product, it must decide the application within the extended period.
 - (4) If APRA has not decided an application for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product by the end of the period by which it is required to decide the application, APRA is taken to have decided, at the end of the last day of that period, to refuse the application.

Division 3—Authority

29T Authority to offer a MySuper product

- (1) APRA must authorise an RSE licensee to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product if, and only if:
 - (a) the application for authority complies with section 29S; and
 - (b) the applicant has provided to APRA all information that the applicant was requested, under section 29SA, to provide, or the request has been disposed of; and
 - (c) the fund is registered under Part 2B; and
 - (d) either:
 - (i) the fund has 7 or more members; or
 - (ii) APRA is satisfied that the fund will, if authority is given, have 7 or more members within a period specified in the authority; and
 - (e) the fund is not an eligible rollover fund; and
 - (f) one of the following subparagraphs applies:
 - (i) the licensee is not already authorised to offer another class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product;
 - (ii) the licensee is already authorised to offer another class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product, but section 29TA or 29TB is satisfied, in relation to the class of beneficial interest in the fund to which the application relates, at the time APRA gives authority;
 - (iii) the licensee is already authorised to offer another class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product, but section 29TA or 29TB was satisfied in relation to each class of beneficial interest that the RSE licensee is already authorised to offer as a MySuper product, at the time APRA gave that earlier authority; and
 - (g) APRA is satisfied that section 29TC is satisfied in relation to that class of beneficial interest; and

Section 29TA

- (h) APRA has no reason to believe that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—any of those individual trustees; may fail to comply with the enhanced trustee obligations for MySuper products; and
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—APRA has no reason to believe that the directors of the RSE licensee may fail to comply with the enhanced director obligations for MySuper products; and
 - (j) APRA has no reason to believe that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—any of those individual trustees; may fail to comply with the general fees rules and the fees rules in relation to MySuper products; and
 - (k) APRA has no reason to believe that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—any of those individual trustees; may contravene section 29W, 29WA or 29WB.
- (2) Otherwise APRA must refuse to give the authority.

29TA Product in another fund in which there is already material goodwill

This section is satisfied in relation to a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund (the proposed MySuper product) if:

- (a) the benefits of members and beneficiaries in another regulated superannuation fund (the original fund) are to be transferred to the fund; and

- (b) APRA is satisfied that:
 - (i) some or all of the persons whose benefits are to be transferred hold a class of interest in the original fund that is similar to the proposed MySuper product; and
 - (ii) there is material goodwill in that class of interest in the original fund; and
 - (iii) that goodwill could not be maintained unless the RSE licensee were authorised to offer the proposed MySuper product as an additional MySuper product in the fund; and
 - (iv) it would be in the best interests of the members of the fund, and those persons whose benefits are to be transferred to the fund, to maintain the distinction between the proposed MySuper product and other MySuper products within the fund.

29TB MySuper products for large employers

- (1) This section is satisfied in relation to a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund if:
 - (a) under the governing rules of the fund, one employer is specified as a large employer in relation to the fund who is relevant to that class of beneficial interest; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) that employer is a large employer in relation to the fund (see subsection (2)); or
 - (ii) APRA is satisfied that, if authority to offer the class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product is given, that employer will be a large employer in relation to the fund by the end of the period specified in the authority; and
 - (c) under the governing rules of the fund, a person is not entitled to hold an interest of that class in the fund unless the person is:
 - (i) an employee or a former employee of the large employer; or

Section 29TB

- (ii) an employee or a former employee of an associate of the large employer; or
 - (iii) a relative or dependant of an employee or a former employee mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii); and
 - (d) under the governing rules of the fund:
 - (i) where the large employer or an associate of the large employer contributes to the fund or would, apart from a temporary cessation of contributions, contribute to the fund for an employee of the large employer, any employee of the large employer who is not a defined benefit member of the fund may hold an interest of that class in the fund; and
 - (ii) where the large employer or an associate of the large employer contributes to the fund or would, apart from a temporary cessation of contributions, contribute to the fund for an employee of an associate of the large employer, any employee of that associate who is not a defined benefit member of the fund may hold an interest of that class in the fund.
- (2) An employer is a large employer in relation to a regulated superannuation fund if there are 500 or more members of the fund who are any of the following:
- (a) a member of the fund:
 - (i) who is an employee of the employer; and
 - (ii) in relation to whom the employer or an associate of the employer contributes to the fund or would, apart from a temporary cessation of contributions, contribute to the fund;
 - (b) a member of the fund:
 - (i) who is an employee of an associate of the employer; and
 - (ii) in relation to whom either the employer or an associate of the employer contributes to the fund or would, apart from a temporary cessation of contributions, contribute to the fund.

- (3) In working out under subsection (2) whether an employer is a large employer, disregard defined benefit members of the fund.

29TC Characteristics of a MySuper product

- (1) This section is satisfied in relation to a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund if, under the governing rules of the fund:
- (a) a single diversified investment strategy is to be adopted in relation to assets of the fund, to the extent that they are attributed to that class of beneficial interest in the fund; and
 - (b) all members who hold a beneficial interest of that class in the fund are entitled to access the same options, benefits and facilities except to the extent that a benefit is provided by taking out risk insurance; and
 - (c) amounts are attributed to members in relation to their beneficial interest of that class in the fund in a way that does not stream gains or losses that relate to any assets of the fund to only some of those members, except to the extent permitted under a lifecycle exception; and
 - (d) the same process is to be adopted in attributing amounts to members in relation to their beneficial interest of that class in the fund, except to the extent that a different process is necessary to allow for fee subsidisation by employers or to comply with section 99G (fee cap on low balances); and
 - (e) if fee subsidisation by employers is permitted, that subsidisation does not favour one member who holds a beneficial interest of that class in the fund and is an employee of a subsidising employer over another such member who is an employee of that employer; and
 - (f) the only limitations imposed on the source or kind of contributions made by or on behalf of persons who hold a beneficial interest of that class in the fund are those permitted under subsection (3); and
 - (g) a beneficial interest of that class in the fund cannot be replaced with a beneficial interest of another class in the fund, unless:

Section 29TC

- (i) the person who holds the interest consents in writing to that replacement no more than 30 days before it occurs; or
 - (ii) the person who holds the interest has died and the interest is replaced with a beneficial interest of another class in the fund of a kind, and in the circumstances, prescribed by the regulations; and
- (h) a beneficial interest of that class in the fund (the old interest) cannot be replaced with a beneficial interest (the new interest) in another superannuation entity unless:
- (ii) the replacement is permitted, or is required, under a law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (iii) the person who holds the old interest consents in writing to the replacement with the new interest no more than 30 days before it occurs; and
- (i) to the extent that assets of the fund are attributed to beneficial interests of that class, a pension is not payable out of those assets by the trustee, or trustees, of the fund on the satisfaction of a condition of release of benefits specified in a standard made under paragraph 31(2)(h) by a person who holds a beneficial interest of that class, unless the payment is derived from a benefit of the kind mentioned in subparagraph 62(1)(b)(ii) provided to the fund by an insurer; and
- Note: Subparagraph 62(1)(b)(ii) is about benefits payable when a person ceases work due to ill-health.
- (j) no member who holds a beneficial interest of that class in the fund is precluded from holding a beneficial interest of another class in the fund because of that fact; and
 - (k) no member is precluded from holding a beneficial interest of that class in the fund because the member holds a beneficial interest of another class in the fund.
- (2) A lifecycle exception is a rule under the governing rules of the fund that allows gains and losses from different classes of asset of the fund to be streamed to different subclasses of the members of the fund who hold a MySuper product:

- (a) on the basis, and only on the basis, of the age of those members; or
 - (b) on the basis of the age of those members and other prescribed factors; or
 - (c) on the basis of the age of those members and other prescribed factors in prescribed circumstances.
- (3) A limitation on the source or kind of contributions made by or on behalf of persons who hold a beneficial interest of a particular class in a regulated superannuation fund is permitted for the purposes of paragraph (1)(f) if:
- (a) the limitation is of a prescribed kind; or
 - (b) the limitation is imposed by or under the general law or another law of the Commonwealth.

29TD Notice of authority

If APRA authorises an RSE licensee to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product, APRA must notify the RSE licensee in writing of the authority.

29TE APRA to give notice of refusal of authority

If APRA refuses an application by an RSE licensee for authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product, APRA must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the RSE licensee is given a notice:

- (a) informing it of APRA's refusal of the application; and
- (b) setting out the reasons for the refusal;

as soon as practicable after refusing the application.

Division 4—Cancelling authority

29U Cancelling authority to offer MySuper product

- (1) APRA may, in writing, cancel an authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), APRA may cancel an authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product if:
 - (a) APRA is no longer satisfied that section 29TC is satisfied in relation to that class of beneficial interest in the fund; or
 - (b) authority was given to offer that class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product because section 29TB was satisfied in relation to the class and either:
 - (i) in a case where that section was satisfied because APRA was satisfied that an employer would be a large employer by the end of a period specified in the authority—the employer was not a large employer at that time; or
 - (ii) in any case—that section was no longer satisfied in relation to the class on the last day of the immediately preceding year of income; or
 - (c) APRA has reason to believe that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—any of those individual trustees; may not comply with the enhanced trustee obligations for MySuper products (whether because of a previous failure to do so, or for any other reason); or
 - (ca) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—APRA has reason to believe that the directors of the RSE licensee may not comply with the enhanced director obligations for

MySuper products (whether because of a previous failure to do so, or for any other reason); or

- (d) APRA has reason to believe that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—any of those individual trustees; may not comply with the general fees rules and the fees rules in relation to MySuper products (whether because of a previous failure to do so, or for any other reason); or
- (e) APRA has reason to believe that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—any of those individual trustees; may contravene section 29W, 29WA or 29WB (whether because of a previous contravention of that section, or for any other reason); or
- (f) the fund ceases to be registered under Part 2B; or
- (g) either:
 - (i) in a case where authority was given to offer the class of beneficial interest in the fund as a MySuper product on the basis that the fund would have 7 or more members within a period specified in the authority—the fund does not have 7 or more members at the end of that period; or
 - (ii) in any case—the fund has ceased to have 7 or more members; or
- (h) paragraph 29T(1)(e) is no longer satisfied in relation to the fund (no longer an eligible rollover fund); or
- (i) APRA is satisfied that:
 - (i) where the RSE licensee is a body corporate—the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) where the RSE licensee is made up of a group of individual trustees—one of those individual trustees;

Section 29UA

has contravened a provision of the governing rules of the fund relating to the MySuper product; or

- (j) APRA is satisfied that the RSE licensee has failed to give effect to an election made in accordance with section 29SAA (election to transfer accrued default amounts to a MySuper product); or
 - (k) APRA is satisfied that the RSE licensee has failed to give effect to an election made in accordance with section 29SAC (election not to pass costs of conflicted remuneration to MySuper members).
- (3) If APRA cancels an authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product it must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the RSE licensee is given a notice informing the RSE licensee:
- (a) that APRA has cancelled the authority; and
 - (b) of the reasons for the cancellation.
- (4) If:
- (a) APRA cancels an authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product; and
 - (b) as a result of the cancellation, the fund no longer offers any MySuper product;

APRA must also notify the Fair Work Commission in writing of that fact.

29UA Cancellation of authority of an RSE licensee that is also a financial services licensee

- (1) Before cancelling an authority of an RSE licensee that is also a financial services licensee, APRA must consult ASIC if, in APRA's opinion, the cancellation might reasonably be expected to affect the RSE licensee's ability to provide one or more of the financial services (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) that the RSE licensee provides.

- (2) If APRA cancels the authority of an RSE licensee that is also a financial services licensee, APRA must inform ASIC of the cancellation within one week after the cancellation.
- (3) A failure to comply with a requirement of this section does not invalidate the cancellation of an authority to offer a class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund as a MySuper product.

29UB APRA may allow authority to continue in effect

In a notice that APRA gives to an RSE licensee cancelling an authority, APRA may specify that the authority continues in effect as though the cancellation had not happened for the purposes of:

- (a) a specified provision, administered by APRA, of this Act, the regulations or the prudential standards; or
- (b) a specified provision, administered by APRA, of any other law of the Commonwealth; in relation to specified matters, a specified period, or both.

Division 5—Fees rules for MySuper products

29V Fees that may be charged in relation to a MySuper product

- (3) An investment fee is a fee that relates to the investment of the assets of a superannuation entity and includes:
 - (a) fees in payment for the exercise of care and expertise in the investment of those assets (including performance fees); and
 - (b) costs incurred by the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity that:
 - (i) relate to the investment of assets of the entity; and
 - (ii) are not otherwise charged as an administration fee, a buy-sell spread, a switching fee, an activity fee, an advice fee or an insurance fee.
- (4) A buy-sell spread is a fee to recover transaction costs incurred by the trustee, or the trustees, of a superannuation entity in relation to the sale and purchase of assets of the entity.

- (5) A switching fee is a fee to recover the costs of switching all or part of a member's interest in a superannuation entity from one class of beneficial interest in the entity to another.
- (7) A fee is an activity fee if:
- (a) the fee relates to costs incurred by the trustee, or the trustees, of a superannuation entity that are directly related to an activity of the trustee, or the trustees:
 - (i) that is engaged in at the request, or with the consent, of a member; or

 - (ii) costs incurred by the trustee, or the trustees, of a superannuation entity in relation to the provision of insurance for a member or members of the entity; and
 - (b) the fee does not relate to any part of a premium paid or cost incurred in relation to a life policy or a contract of insurance that relates to a benefit to the member that is based on the performance of an investment rather than the realisation of a risk; and

- (c) the premiums and costs to which the fee relates are not otherwise charged as an administration fee, an investment fee, a switching fee, an activity fee or an advice fee.

29VA Charging rules

- (1) The trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund that offers a MySuper product may only charge a fee in relation to the MySuper product during a period if it satisfies one of the charging rules set out in this section in relation to that period.

All MySuper members charged same flat fee

- (2) This rule is satisfied if:
 - (a) the fee is charged in relation to all members of the fund who hold the MySuper product; and
 - (b) the amount of the fee is the same for each of those members.

All MySuper members charged same percentage of account balance

- (3) This rule is satisfied if:
 - (a) the fee is charged in relation to all members of the fund who hold the MySuper product; and

All MySuper members charged combination of same flat fee and same percentage of account balance

- (4) This rule is satisfied if:

- (a) the fee is charged in relation to all members of the fund who hold the MySuper product; and
- (b) the amount of the fee charged in relation to one member is the sum of a fixed amount (the flat fee) and another amount that is a percentage of so much of the member's account balance with the fund that relates to the MySuper product; and
- (c) the amount of the fee charged in relation to each other member of the fund who holds the MySuper product is the sum of the flat fee and the same percentage of so much of that member's account balance with the fund that relates to the MySuper product.

All MySuper members to whom action relates charged same flat fee

- (5) This rule is satisfied if:
 - (a) the fee is a buy-sell spread, a switching fee or an activity fee; and
 - (b) the fee is only charged in relation to those members of the fund:
 - (i) who hold the MySuper product; and
 - (ii) in relation to whom a relevant action is taken by the trustee or trustees of the fund; and
 - (c) the amount of the fee charged is the same for each member to whom it is charged.

All MySuper members to whom action relates charged same percentage of account balance

- (6) This rule is satisfied if:
 - (a) the fee is a buy-sell spread, a switching fee or an activity fee; and

Section 29VA

- (c) the amount of the fee charged in relation to one of those members is a percentage of so much of the member's account balance with the fund:
 - (i) that relates to the MySuper product; and
 - (ii) in relation to which the relevant action is taken; and Administration fee exemption for employees of an employer-sponsor

- (8) This rule is satisfied if:
- (a) the fee is an administration fee charged in relation to one or more members of the fund who hold the MySuper product in accordance with the administration fee exemption for employees of an employee-sponsor (see section 29VB); and
 - (b) in relation to those members of the fund who hold the MySuper product but in relation to whom the administration fee is not charged in accordance with the administration fee exemption for employees of an employee-sponsor (the remaining members)—the fee would satisfy the charging rule in subsection (2), (3) or (4) if the remaining members were the only members of the fund who held the MySuper product.

Note: In some circumstances, the RSE licensee may wish to offer a MySuper product for the employees of a large employer or its associates (see sections 29T and 29TB). Any fee set for that MySuper product may differ from the equivalent fee set for another MySuper product within the fund. In other circumstances, a separate MySuper product may not be offered, but instead a lower administration fee charged to the employees of a particular employer-sponsor (see section 29VB).

Lifecycle differentiated investment fees

- (9) This rule is satisfied if:
- (a) the fee is an investment fee; and
 - (b) the fee would satisfy one of the charging rules in subsections (2) to (4) if the rule were applied to a subclass of the members of the fund who hold the MySuper product to whom gains and losses from different classes of asset of the fund may be streamed in accordance with a lifecycle exception, rather than in relation to all members of the fund who hold the MySuper product; and
 - (d) the investment fees for each such subclass reflect a fair and reasonable attribution of the investment costs of the fund between all such subclasses.

Section 29VA

Advice fees

- (9A) This rule is satisfied if:
- (a) the fee is an advice fee that relates directly to financial product advice provided to a member; and
 - (b) the member holds a MySuper product; and
 - (c) the fee is charged to the member; and
 - (d) the fee is to be paid in accordance with the terms of an arrangement entered into by the member; and
 - (e) the arrangement is not an ongoing fee arrangement.

Insurance fees

- (10) This rule is satisfied if:
- (a) the fee is an insurance fee that relates directly to either or both of the following:
 - (i) insurance premiums paid by the trustee, or the trustees, of a superannuation entity in relation to a member;
 - (ii) costs incurred by the trustee, or the trustees, of a superannuation entity in relation to the provision of insurance for a member; and

Fees for members with low balances

- (11) This rule is satisfied if:
- (a) the fee is an administration fee or investment fee; and
 - (b) the fee is charged at a reduced amount, in accordance with section 99G, in relation to one or more members of the fund who hold the MySuper product; and
 - (c) in relation to the remaining members of the fund who hold the MySuper product, the fee would satisfy a charging rule in another subsection of this section if those were the only members of the fund who held the MySuper product.

29VB Administration fee exemption for employees of an employer-sponsor

- (1) An administration fee charged to members of a regulated superannuation fund who hold a MySuper product is charged in accordance with the administration fee exemption for employees of an employer-sponsor if:
- (aa) although the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund are authorised to offer the MySuper product, it is not on the basis that section 29TB was satisfied in relation to that class of beneficial interest in the fund; and
 - (a) the fee is charged in relation to all members of the fund who hold the MySuper product; and
 - (b) an employer-sponsor contributes to the fund or would, apart from a temporary cessation of contributions, contribute to the fund for the benefit of those members of the fund (the employee members) who hold the MySuper product and who are:
 - (i) employees of the employer-sponsor, or an associate of the employer-sponsor; or
 - (ii) the relatives or dependants of those employees; and
 - (c) the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund have entered into an arrangement with the employer-sponsor that secures lower administration fees for the employee members; and

 - (a) the administration fee is charged at a reduced amount, in accordance with section 99G, in relation to one or more employee members of the fund;

- (5) The total amount of the administration fee charged in relation to the employee members is at least equal to an amount that reasonably relates to costs that:

- (a) are incurred by the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund in the administration and operation of the fund in relation to those members; and
- (b) are not otherwise charged as an investment fee, a buy-sell spread, a switching fee, an activity fee, an advice fee or an insurance fee.

29VC Activity fees and insurance fees to be charged on a cost recovery basis

29VD Performance-based fees

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a regulated superannuation fund offers a MySuper product; and
 - (b) the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund enter into an arrangement with an investment manager for the investment of an asset or assets of the fund attributed, in whole or in part, to the MySuper product; and

- (2) The trustee, or the trustees, of the regulated superannuation fund must ensure that the arrangement complies with this section.

Section 29VD

Base fee must be set or adjusted to give incentive to obtain performance-based fee

- (4) The period over which entitlement to the performance-based fee is determined under the arrangement must be appropriate to the kinds of investment to which the performance-based fee relates.

Performance of investment must be measured against an appropriate benchmark

- (5) Under the arrangement, the performance of the investment must be measured by comparison with the performance of investments of a similar kind.

Performance-based fee to be worked out on after-costs, after-tax basis

- (6) For the purposes of working out the performance-based fee payable under the arrangement, the performance of the investment must be determined on an after-costs and, where possible, an after-tax basis.

- (7) Under the arrangement, the performance-based fee must be calculated in a way that includes disincentives for poorly performing investments.

Best interests of MySuper members

- (8) A trustee of a regulated superannuation fund does not breach this section to the extent that the asset or assets of the fund invested under the arrangement are attributed by the trustee or the trustees of the fund to a MySuper product if, despite the fact that the arrangement does not comply with one or more of the provisions of this section, the arrangement promotes the financial interests of the beneficiaries of the fund who hold the MySuper product.

29VE Percentage-based administration fees may be capped

If, under the governing rules of a regulated superannuation fund:

- (a) all or part of the administration fee in relation to a MySuper product is charged to those members of the fund who hold the product as a percentage of so much of the account balance of each of those members that relates to the MySuper product; and
- (b) the amount of the administration fee is capped at a specified amount; and
- (c) either:
 - (i) the cap is the same for all of those members; or
 - (ii) if the administration fee is charged at a reduced amount, in accordance with section 99G, in relation to one or more of those members—the cap is the same for all of the remainder of those members; and
- (d) but for the fact that the administration fee is capped in that way, a charging rule in section 29VA would be satisfied in relation to the administration fee; that charging rule is taken to be satisfied in relation to the administration fee.

Section 40

40 Notices by the Regulator to trustee

Notice about complying fund status

- (1) The Regulator may give a written notice to a trustee of an entity stating:
- (a) whether the entity is or is not a complying superannuation fund; or
 - (b) whether the entity is or is not a complying approved deposit fund; or
 - (c) whether the entity is or is not a pooled superannuation trust; as the case may be, in relation to a year of income specified in the notice.

Reasons

- (2) If the Regulator gives a notice to a trustee of an entity stating that:
- (a) the entity is not a complying superannuation fund; or
 - (b) the entity is not a complying approved deposit fund; or
 - (c) the entity is not a pooled superannuation trust;
- as the case may be, in relation to a year of income, the notice must set out the reasons why the Regulator so stated.

Commissioner of Taxation to be told about notice

- (3) When the APRA gives a notice under this section, APRA must give particulars of the notice to the Commissioner of Taxation.

Note: A statement of the tax file number of the entity may accompany the particulars of the notice. See subsection 299U(3).

Revocation

- (4) If:
- (a) the Regulator gives a notice under this section (the original notice) to a trustee of an entity stating that:
 - (i) the entity is a complying superannuation fund; or
 - (ii) the entity is a complying approved deposit fund; or

- (iii) the entity is a pooled superannuation trust; as the case may be, in relation to a year of income; and
- (b) the Regulator subsequently gives a notice under this section (the second notice) to a trustee of the entity stating that:
 - (i) the entity is not a complying superannuation fund; or
 - (ii) the entity is not a complying approved deposit fund; or
 - (iii) the entity is not a pooled superannuation trust;
as the case may be, in relation to the year of income;the second notice is taken to revoke the original notice.

Note: Because “the Regulator” is whichever of APRA or the Commissioner of Taxation is administering this provision in respect of a fund, a notice given by one of those Regulators could revoke a notice given by the other Regulator. This might happen if a fund became, or stopped being, a self managed superannuation fund after the first notice was given.

41 When the Regulator obliged to give notice of compliance

- (1) Except as provided by subsection (2), the Regulator is not obliged to give a notice under section 40.
- (2) The Regulator must give a notice under section 40 to a trustee of an entity stating that the entity is a complying superannuation fund, a complying approved deposit fund or a pooled superannuation trust, as the case may be, in relation to a year of income (the current year of income) if:
 - (a) the entity is a complying superannuation fund, a complying approved deposit fund or a pooled superannuation trust, as the case requires, in relation to the current year of income; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the Regulator has not given a notice to a trustee of the entity under section 40 stating that the entity is a complying superannuation fund, a complying approved deposit fund or a pooled superannuation trust, as the case requires, in relation to a previous year of income; or

Section 42

- (ii) both:
 - (A) the Regulator has given a notice to a trustee of the entity under section 40 stating that the entity is not a complying superannuation fund, is not a complying approved deposit fund or is not a pooled superannuation trust, as the case requires, in relation to a previous year of income; and
 - (B) the Regulator has not given a notice to a trustee of the entity under section 40 stating that the fund is a complying superannuation fund, a complying approved deposit fund or a pooled superannuation trust, as the case requires, in relation to a year of income that is later than that previous year of income and earlier than the current year of income.
- (3) Despite section 2, a previous year mentioned in subsection (2) may be a year of income earlier than the 1994-95 year of income (see section 49). However, despite section 49, for the purposes of the application of subsection (2) to a complying superannuation fund, if the fund was not a regulated superannuation fund at all times during the current year of income when the fund was in existence, paragraph (2)(b) does not apply unless the previous year of income is the 1994-95 year of income or a later year of income.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, if a notice under section 40 is revoked, or the decision to give the notice is set aside, the notice is taken never to have been given.

42 Complying superannuation fund

- (1) An entity is a complying superannuation fund in relation to a year of income for the purposes of this Division if:
 - (a) either:
 - (i) the entity was a resident regulated superannuation fund at all times during the year of income when the entity was in existence; or

- (ii) the entity was a resident regulated superannuation fund at all times during the year of income when the entity was in existence other than a time, before it became a resident regulated superannuation fund, when the entity was a resident approved deposit fund; and
 - (b) either of the following conditions is satisfied:
 - (i) no trustee of the entity contravened any of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity in respect of the year of income;
 - (ii) both:
 - (A) a trustee of the entity contravened one or more of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity in respect of the year of income on one or more occasions; and
 - (B) the entity did not fail the culpability test set out in subsection (1A) in relation to any of those contraventions; and
 - (c) the entity was not a self managed superannuation fund at any time during the year of income.
- (1AA) An entity is also a complying superannuation fund in relation to the 1994-95 year of income or a later year of income if:
- (a) the entity:
 - (i) is a superannuation fund that came into existence during the year of income; or
 - (ii) was a resident approved deposit fund that became a superannuation fund during the year of income; and
 - (b) the entity complied with subsections 19(2) to (4):
 - (i) within 60 days after the day on which it came into existence or became a superannuation fund, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) within such further period, if any, as the Commissioner of Taxation (whether before or after the end of the period of 60 days) allows; and
 - (c) either of the following conditions is satisfied:

Section 42

- (i) no trustee of the entity contravened any of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity in respect of the whole of the period (the pre-lodgment period) that began when the entity came into existence or became a superannuation fund, as the case may be, and ended when the entity complied with subsections 19(2) to (4);
 - (ii) a trustee of the entity contravened one or more of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity in respect of the pre-lodgment period on one or more occasions but the Commissioner of Taxation is satisfied that, because of special circumstances that existed in relation to the fund during the pre-lodgment period, it would be reasonable for the fund to be treated as if it had satisfied the regulatory provisions; and
 - (d) the entity was a resident regulated superannuation fund at all times during the part of the year of income occurring after the end of the pre-lodgment period; and
 - (da) the entity was not a self managed superannuation fund at any time during the year of income; and
 - (e) either of the conditions stated in paragraph (1)(b) is satisfied in relation to the entity in respect of the part of the year of income occurring after the end of the pre-lodgment period.
- (1AB) In determining for the purpose of paragraph (1AA)(c) whether any of the regulatory provisions were contravened in respect of the entity in respect of the pre-lodgment period, the regulatory provisions are taken to have applied in relation to the entity in respect of that period as if the entity were a resident regulated superannuation fund during that period.
- (1AC) An entity is also a complying superannuation fund in relation to the 1994-95 year of income or a later year of income if:
- (a) the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity have purported to make an election under subsection 19(4); and
 - (b) the requirements of subsections 19(2) to (4) (to the extent that they have not already been complied with) are complied with within 28 days after a trustee of the entity finds out

- (whether by written notice from the Commissioner of Taxation or otherwise) that they were not complied with, or within such further period, if any, as the Commissioner of Taxation (whether before or after the end of the period of 28 days) allows; and
- (c) except where a trustee of the entity received written notice from the Commissioner of Taxation about the non-compliance—a trustee of the entity tells the Commissioner of Taxation in writing of the compliance within 7 days after the requirements are complied with or within such further period, if any, as the Commissioner of Taxation (whether before or after the end of the period of 7 days) allows; and
- (d) either of the following conditions is satisfied:
- (i) no trustee of the entity contravened any of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity in respect of the whole of the period (the rectification period) that began when the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity lodged the purported election under subsection 19(4) and ended when the entity complied with subsections 19(2) to (4);
 - (ii) a trustee of the entity contravened one or more of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity in respect of the rectification period on one or more occasions but the Commissioner of Taxation is satisfied that, because of special circumstances that existed in relation to the fund during the rectification period, it would be reasonable for the fund to be treated as if it had satisfied the regulatory provisions; and
- (e) if the fund was in existence before the beginning of its 1994-95 year of income—under regulations made for the purposes of former section 50 (as those regulations were in force as at the beginning of that year of income), the fund is treated as if it had satisfied the transitional superannuation fund conditions at all times during the period that began at the beginning of the fund's 1994-95 year of income and ended when the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity lodged the purported election under subsection 19(4); and

- (f) the entity was a resident regulated superannuation fund at all times during the part of the year of income occurring after the end of the rectification period; and
 - (fa) the entity was not a self managed superannuation fund at any time during the year of income; and
 - (g) either of the conditions stated in paragraph (1)(b) is satisfied in relation to the entity in respect of the part of the year of income occurring after the end of the rectification period.
- (1AD) In determining for the purpose of paragraph (1AC)(d) whether any of the regulatory provisions were contravened in respect of the entity in respect of the rectification period, the regulatory provisions are taken to have applied in relation to the entity in respect of that period as if the entity were a resident regulated superannuation fund during that period.
- (1A) For the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(ii), an entity fails the culpability test in relation to a particular contravention of a regulatory provision if:
- (a) both:
 - (i) all of the members of the entity were in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention; and
 - (ii) the Regulator, after considering:
 - (A) the taxation consequences that would arise if the entity were to be treated as a non-complying superannuation fund for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 in relation to the year of income concerned; and
 - (B) the seriousness of the contravention; and
 - (C) all other relevant circumstances;thinks that a notice should be given stating that the entity is not a complying superannuation fund in relation to the year of income concerned; or
 - (b) all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (i) one or more members of the entity were in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention;
- (ii) one or more members of the entity (the innocent members) were not in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention;
- (iii) none of the innocent members would suffer any substantial financial detriment if the entity were to be treated as a non-complying superannuation fund for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 in relation to the year of income concerned;
- (iv) the Regulator, after considering:
 - (A) the taxation consequences that would arise if the entity were to be treated as a non-complying superannuation fund for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 in relation to the year of income concerned; and
 - (B) the seriousness of the contravention; and
 - (C) all other relevant circumstances;thinks that a notice should be given stating that the entity is not a complying superannuation fund in relation to the year of income concerned.

Note: The culpability test is still relevant to a fund that has been a self managed fund during only part of a year of income—see subparagraph 42A(2)(b)(ii), paragraph 42A(3)(g) and subparagraph 42A(4)(f)(ii).

- (1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A), if there is a question whether a person was in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, a particular contravention, that question may be decided on the balance of probabilities.
- (2) In this section, a reference to a member of an entity means, if the entity is an approved deposit fund, a beneficiary of the fund.

Entity that was a self managed superannuation fund throughout a year of income

- as the Commissioner of Taxation (whether before or after the end of the period of 28 days) allows; and
- (ii) except where a trustee of the entity received written notice from the Commissioner of Taxation about the non-compliance—a trustee of the entity tells the Commissioner of Taxation in writing of the compliance within 7 days after the requirements are complied with or within such further period, if any, as the Commissioner of Taxation (whether before or after the end of the period of 7 days) allows; and

 - (b) if a trustee of the entity contravened one or more of the regulatory provisions in relation to the entity during the year of income or the part of the year of income, the Regulator, after considering:

 - (ii) the seriousness of the contravention or contraventions; and
 - (iii) all other relevant circumstances;thinks that a notice should nevertheless be given stating that the entity is a complying superannuation fund in relation to the year of income concerned.

51A Covenants are cumulative

To avoid doubt, each covenant referred to in sections 52 to 53 or prescribed under section 54A that applies to a trustee of a superannuation entity, or a director of a corporate trustee of a superannuation entity, applies in addition to every other covenant or obligation referred to in those sections that applies to the trustee or director.

Governing rules taken to contain covenants

- (1) If the governing rules of a registrable superannuation entity do not contain covenants to the effect of the covenants set out in this section, those governing rules are taken to contain covenants to that effect.

Note: There are civil and criminal consequences for contravening a covenant: see sections 54B, 54C, 55 and 202. Civil consequences may arise from an act or omission resulting in a contravention of a covenant regardless of whether or not the act or omission was intentional. Section 52 strategies and its capacity to discharge its liabilities (whether actual or contingent) as and when they fall due;

- (2) A pre-MySuper default option, in relation to an amount attributed to a member of a regulated superannuation fund, is an investment option under which an asset (or assets) of the fund attributed to the member in relation to the amount would be invested, under the governing rules of the fund, if the member gave no direction in relation to the amount.

 - (b) to indemnify itself out of any assets of the entity that do not form part of a reserve maintained for the purpose of covering the operational risk relating to the entity, any amount that relates to that risk, without first exhausting the reserve and any other financial resources managed and maintained by the trustee to cover the risk.
- (3) Nothing in the governing rules of a superannuation entity prohibits a trustee of the entity from seeking advice from any person in respect of any matter relating to performance of the duties or the exercise of the powers of a trustee. - (8) The assumptions mentioned in subsection (7) may include assumptions as to any of the following matters:
- (a) rates of fees for a period;
 - (b) rates of taxation for a period;
 - (c) any other matter (whether or not related to a matter mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b)).

Section 60E

Methods for determining return—regulations to replace assumptions

- (9) Subsections (10) and (11) apply if:
- (a) APRA makes a determination mentioned in paragraph (7)(b) that specifies an assumption (the earlier assumption); and
 - (b) the earlier assumption is to be made in applying a method or methods in relation to a matter in respect of a period (the relevant period).
- (10) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may later specify an assumption (the later assumption) that:
- (a) is to be made in applying that method or methods in relation to that matter in respect of the relevant period; and
 - (b) replaces the earlier assumption.
- (11) However, if the regulations mentioned in subsection (10) are made after the end of the relevant period, the later assumption must be the same as the earlier assumption.

Scope of regulations not limited

- (12) Subsections (2) to (11) do not limit the scope of regulations that may be made for the purposes of subsection (1).

Incorporation by reference

- (13) Despite subsection 14(2) of the Legislation Act 2003, regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may make provision in relation to a matter by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, any matter contained in an instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

60E Trustee to notify beneficiaries of fail assessment

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) APRA gives the trustee or trustees of an entity a notification of a determination under subsection 60C(2); and

Section 60E

- (b) the determination is that the requirement in subsection 60D(1) has not been met for a Part 6A product offered by the entity, in relation to a financial year.
- (2) Each trustee of the entity must ensure that each beneficiary of the entity who holds the Part 6A product is given notice of the determination in accordance with subsections (3), (5) and (6).
- (3) The notice must be given no later than:
 - (a) 28 days after APRA gave the notification; or
 - (b) if APRA or ASIC informs the trustee or trustees of the entity of a later day in accordance with subsection (4)—that later day.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b), APRA or ASIC may, no later than 28 days after APRA gave the notification, inform the trustee or trustees of the entity in writing of a later day.
- (5) The notice must consist of:
 - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies—both of the following:
 - (i) a letter sent to the beneficiary by pre-paid post or by courier to the address of the place of residence or business of the beneficiary last known to the trustee;
 - (ii) an electronic communication (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) sent to the beneficiary to the nominated electronic address (within the meaning of that Act) in relation to the beneficiary; or
 - (b) if there is no nominated electronic address (within the meaning of that Act) in relation to the beneficiary—a letter sent to the beneficiary by pre-paid post or by courier to the address of the place of residence or business of the beneficiary last known to the trustee.
- (6) The notice must:
 - (a) be in the form specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection; and
 - (b) contain information of a kind specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection that relates to:

Section 60F

- (i) the ranking of Part 6A products according to relative fee levels, investment returns or any other criterion; or
- (ii) any other matter (whether or not related to the matter mentioned in subparagraph (i)).

Note: Regulations made for the purposes of this subsection may refer to regulations made for the purposes of section 60J, which may specify formulas as a basis for ranking such products.

- (7) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (6) may specify kinds of information by applying, adopting or incorporating any matter contained in an instrument or other writing, as in force or existing from time to time, if the instrument or other writing is published on a website maintained by the Australian Taxation Office.
- (8) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (6) may specify information that is a standard text or standard texts.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not limit the scope of regulations that may be made for the purposes of subsection (6).

60F Consequences of 2 consecutive fail assessments

Application of section

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if both of the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (a) APRA gives the trustee or trustees of an entity a notification of a determination under subsection 60C(2) that the requirement in subsection 60D(1) has not been met for a Part 6A product offered by the entity, in relation to a financial year;
 - (b) APRA gives the trustee or trustees of the entity a notification (the second notification) of another determination under subsection 60C(2) that the requirement in subsection 60D(1) has not been met for that Part 6A product, in relation to the next financial year.

No new beneficiaries for the Part 6A product

- (2) Each trustee of the entity must ensure that:
- (a) a person who, on the day when the second notification is given, is not a beneficiary of the entity does not become a beneficiary of the entity who holds the Part 6A product; and
 - (b) a person who, on that day, is a beneficiary of the entity who does not hold the Part 6A product does not start to hold the Part 6A product.

Exemption determination

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a Part 6A product offered by an entity if a determination made by APRA under subsection (4) that specifies the Part 6A product and the entity is in force.
- (4) APRA may make a determination, in writing, that specifies a Part 6A product offered by a specified entity, if APRA considers that requirements specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection have been met in relation to the Part 6A product and the entity.
- (5) The determination comes into force on:
- (a) the day on which the determination is made; or
 - (b) a later day specified in the determination.
- (6) APRA must give a copy of the determination to the entity as soon as practicable after making it.
- (7) A determination under subsection (4) is not a legislative instrument.
- (8) To avoid doubt, if APRA makes a determination under subsection (4) in relation to a Part 6A product:
- (a) APRA may later give notifications for the purposes of subsection (1) in relation to the Part 6A product in relation to financial years ending after APRA made the determination; and

Section 60G

- (b) subsection (3) does not prevent subsection (2) from applying in relation to the Part 6A product as a result of those notifications.

Family law payment splits

- (9) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to:
 - (a) a person becoming a beneficiary of an entity who holds a Part 6A product, if this occurs as a result of a payment split (within the meaning of Part VIIIB or VIIC of the Family Law Act 1975); or
 - (b) a person starting to hold a Part 6A product, if this occurs as a result of such a payment split.

Notifications to Fair Work Commission

- (10) If:
 - (a) subsection (2) starts to apply in relation to a Part 6A product that is a MySuper product offered by an entity; or
 - (b) APRA makes a determination under subsection (4) in relation to a Part 6A product that is a MySuper product offered by an entity;

APRA must notify the Fair Work Commission in writing of that fact.

60G Multiple Part 6A products treated as one Part 6A product in certain circumstances

- (1) This section applies if regulations made for the purposes of this subsection:
 - (a) specify one or more kinds of circumstances; and
 - (b) specify provisions of this Part in relation to each of those kinds of circumstances.
- (2) In circumstances of a kind specified in the regulations, for the purposes of provisions of this Part specified in the regulations in relation to that kind of circumstances:

- (a) treat 2 or more Part 6A products (the single Part 6A products) as being one Part 6A product (the combined Part 6A product); and
 - (b) treat anything that happened in relation to a single Part 6A product as having happened in relation to the combined Part 6A product; and
 - (c) treat a person who holds a single Part 6A product as holding the combined Part 6A product.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a Part 6A product (the replaced product) ceased to exist because it was incorporated into one or more single Part 6A products (whether or not the entity that offered the replaced product before it ceased to exist is the entity offering the single Part 6A product or any of the single Part 6A products).
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), treat anything that happened in relation to the replaced product as having happened in relation to the single Part 6A product.
- (5) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may:
- (a) specify different provisions of this Part in relation to different kinds of circumstances; and
 - (b) in specifying provisions of this Part, specify all the provisions of this Part (apart from this section).
- (6) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may do any of the following:
- (a) specify requirements that depend on the exercise of a discretion by APRA;
 - (b) if the regulations specify requirements that depend on the exercise of such a discretion—specify matters that APRA must or may take into account in exercising that discretion;
 - (c) if the regulations specify requirements that depend on the exercise of such a discretion—allow APRA to make specified assumptions in exercising that discretion.
- (7) Subsections (5) and (6) do not limit the scope of regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1).

Section 60H

60H Requirements for contributions to blocked fund not enforceable

- (1) This section applies if there is a requirement in:
 - (a) a Commonwealth law or a Territory law; or
 - (b) a Commonwealth industrial award or a Territory industrial award;that an employer make contributions to a specified superannuation fund (or to a superannuation fund in a specified class or group of superannuation funds) on behalf of an employee.
- (2) This section also applies if there is a requirement in
 - (a) a State law; or
 - (b) a State industrial award;that an employer make contributions to a specified superannuation fund (or to a superannuation fund in a specified class or group of superannuation funds) on behalf of an employee.
- (3) The requirement is not enforceable to the extent that the employer cannot make contributions to the superannuation fund (or to any of those superannuation funds) on behalf of the employee because of section 60F (consequences of 2 consecutive fail assessments).
- (4) In this section, the following terms have the same meaning as in the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992:
 - (a) Commonwealth industrial award;
 - (b) employee;
 - (c) employer;
 - (d) State industrial award;
 - (e) Territory industrial award.

60J Formulas for ranking products

- (1) APRA may give the following, in writing, to the Australian Taxation Office in relation to a period or periods:
 - (a) a description of one or more methods for ranking Part 6A products;

- (b) information relating to all Part 6A products that allows that method or those methods to be used to rank those Part 6A products.
- (2) In giving the description mentioned in paragraph (1)(a), APRA may take into account regulations mentioned in subsection (3).
 - (3) Regulations made for the purposes of this section may:
 - (a) specify one or more formulas as a basis for ranking Part 6A products, or classes of Part 6A products, according to relative fee levels, investment returns or any other criterion; and
 - (b) specify one or more methods for ranking Part 6A products according to that formula or those formulas.
 - (4) As soon as practicable after receiving the information, the Commissioner of Taxation must ensure that the information, to the extent that it relates to Part 6A products that are MySuper products, is made available on a website maintained by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Note: If the disclosure of information is for the purposes of this Act, subsection 56(3) of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 provides an exception to the secrecy offence in subsection 56(2) of that Act.
 - (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the information may be made available by:
 - (a) making it available only in response to a query by a particular person; and
 - (b) making it available in the form of a ranked list or ranked lists of Part 6A products, or classes of Part 6A products.
 - (6) Subsection (5) does not limit the ways in which the information may be made available for the purposes of subsection (4).

Part 7—Provisions applying only to regulated superannuation funds

61 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to set out special rules which apply only to regulated superannuation funds.

62 Sole purpose test

- (1) Each trustee of a regulated superannuation fund must ensure that the fund is maintained solely:
 - (a) for one or more of the following purposes (the core purposes):
 - (i) the provision of benefits for each member of the fund on or after the member's retirement from any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment in which the member was engaged (whether the member's retirement occurred before, or occurred after, the member joined the fund);
 - (ii) the provision of benefits for each member of the fund on or after the member's attainment of an age not less than the age specified in the regulations;
 - (iii) the provision of benefits for each member of the fund on or after whichever is the earlier of:
 - (A) the member's retirement from any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment in which the member was engaged; or
 - (B) the member's attainment of an age not less than the age prescribed for the purposes of subparagraph (ii);
 - (iv) the provision of benefits in respect of each member of the fund on or after the member's death, if:

- (A) the death occurred before the member's retirement from any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment in which the member was engaged; and
- (B) the benefits are provided to the member's legal personal representative, to any or all of the member's dependants, or to both;
- (v) the provision of benefits in respect of each member of the fund on or after the member's death, if:
 - (A) the death occurred before the member attained the age prescribed for the purposes of subparagraph (ii); and
 - (B) the benefits are provided to the member's legal personal representative, to any or all of the member's dependants, or to both; or
- (b) for one or more of the core purposes and for one or more of the following purposes (the ancillary purposes):
 - (i) the provision of benefits for each member of the fund on or after the termination of the member's employment with an employer who had, or any of whose associates had, at any time, contributed to the fund in relation to the member;
 - (ii) the provision of benefits for each member of the fund on or after the member's cessation of work, if the work was for gain or reward in any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment in which the member was engaged and the cessation is on account of ill-health (whether physical or mental);
 - (iii) the provision of benefits in respect of each member of the fund on or after the member's death, if:
 - (A) the death occurred after the member's retirement from any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment in which the member was engaged (whether the member's retirement occurred before, or occurred after, the member joined the fund); and

- (B) the benefits are provided to the member's legal personal representative, to any or all of the member's dependants, or to both;
 - (iv) the provision of benefits in respect of each member of the fund on or after the member's death, if:
 - (A) the death occurred after the member attained the age prescribed for the purposes of subparagraph (a)(ii); and
 - (B) the benefits are provided to the member's legal personal representative, to any or all of the member's dependants, or to both;
 - (v) the provision of such other benefits as the Regulator approves in writing.
- (1A) Subsection (1) does not imply that a trustee of a regulated superannuation fund is required to maintain the fund so that the same kind of benefits will be provided:
- (a) to each member of the fund; or
 - (b) in respect of each member of the fund.
- (2) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or of being involved in a contravention of, that subsection.
- (3) An approval given by the Regulator for the purposes of subsection (1) may be expressed to relate to:
- (a) a specified fund; or
 - (b) a specified class of funds.

62A Self managed superannuation funds—investment in collectables and personal use assets

The regulations may prescribe rules in relation to the trustees of regulated superannuation funds that are self managed superannuation funds making, holding and realising investments involving:

- (a) artwork (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997); or
- (b) jewellery; or
- (c) antiques; or
- (d) artefacts; or
- (e) coins or medallions; or
- (f) postage stamps or first day covers; or
- (g) rare folios, manuscripts or books; or
- (h) memorabilia; or
- (i) wine; or
- (j) cars; or
- (k) recreational boats; or
- (l) memberships of sporting or social clubs; or
- (m) assets of a particular kind, if assets of that kind are ordinarily used or kept mainly for personal use or enjoyment (not including land).

Note: The regulations may prescribe penalties of not more than 10 penalty units for offences against the regulations. See paragraph 353(1)(d).

63 Certain regulated superannuation funds not to accept employer contributions in certain circumstances

Directions

- (1) The Regulator may give a trustee of a regulated superannuation fund a written notice directing the trustee, or the trustees, not to accept any contributions made to the fund by an employer-sponsor.

Pre-1994-95 directions

- (2) The Commissioner may only give a direction under this section to the trustee of a fund before the fund's 1994-95 year of income (whether in accordance with section 4 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 or otherwise) if the direction takes effect at the beginning of that year of income and, at a time during the period:

Section 63

- (a) beginning on the day on which this Act received the Royal Assent; and
- (b) ending immediately before the beginning of that year of income;

when:

- (c) the fund was in existence; and
- (d) there were in force regulations for the purposes of subsection 7(1) of the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987 prescribing standards applicable to the fund;

the fund did not comply with any or all of those standards.

Post-1993-94 directions

- (3) The Regulator must not give a direction under this section to a trustee of a fund after the beginning of the fund's 1994-95 year of income unless:
 - (a) a trustee of the fund has contravened one or more of the regulatory provisions (as defined in section 38A) on one or more occasions after the beginning of that year of income; and
 - (b) the Regulator is satisfied that the seriousness or frequency, or both, of the contraventions warrants the giving of the direction.

Reasons

- (4) A direction under this section must be accompanied by, or included in the same document as, a statement giving the reasons for the direction.

Revocation

- (5) The Regulator may revoke a direction under this section if the Regulator is satisfied that there is, and is likely to continue to be, substantial compliance by each trustee of the fund with the regulatory provisions (as defined in section 38A) applicable to the fund.

Contravention of equal representation rules

- (6) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (5), if a fund does not comply with Part 9 (which deals with equal representation), the trustee of the fund is, or the trustees of the fund are, taken to have contravened the applicable provisions of that Part.

Offence of contravening direction

- (7) A trustee of a fund must not, without reasonable excuse, contravene a direction under this section.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (7A) Subsection (7) is an offence of strict liability.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Additional rule for certain funds not complying with equal representation rules

- (7B) An RSE licensee of a fund that is not a public offer superannuation fund must not, while subsection (7D) applies to the fund, accept any contributions made to the fund by an employer-sponsor.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

- (7C) Subsection (7B) is an offence of strict liability.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

- (7D) This subsection applies to the fund if:

- (a) the fund is failing to comply with subsection 92(4) or 93(4) (whichever is applicable); or
- (b) having previously failed to comply, the fund does so comply but the RSE licensee has not given to APRA a notice in the approved form that:

Section 63

- (i) states that the fund so complies; and
- (ii) if the RSE licensee is a group of individual trustees and the compliance is as a result of the appointment of one or more other individual trustees to the group—states the appointee’s name or the appointees’ names; and
- (iii) if the RSE licensee is a body corporate and the compliance is as a result of the appointment of one or more directors to the board of directors of the body corporate—states the appointee’s name or the appointees’ names.

Refund of contributions

- (8) A contravention of subsection (7) or (7B) does not result in the invalidity of a transaction. However, if a contribution is accepted in contravention of either of those subsections, a trustee of the fund concerned must refund the contribution within 28 days or such further period as the Regulator allows.

Notification to employer-sponsors

- (9) If a trustee of a fund is given a direction under this section, each trustee of the fund must ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to notify the direction to each employer-sponsor of the fund.

Offence of contravening subsection (8) or (9)

- (10) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (8) or (9) commits an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.
- (10A) Subsection (10) is an offence of strict liability.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Refunded contributions to be ignored for the purposes of income tax and superannuation guarantee charge

- (11) For the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act and the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, if a contribution is refunded under this section, the person who made the contribution is taken never to have made the contribution.

Superannuation guarantee charge—shortfall component to be treated as employer contribution

- (12) This section has effect as if the payment of a shortfall component to a fund under section 65 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 were a contribution made to the fund by an employer-sponsor.

OSSA

- (13) A reference in this section to subsection 7(1) of the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987 includes a reference to that subsection as it continues to apply, despite its repeal, because of the Occupational Superannuation Standards Amendment Act 1993.

64 Superannuation contributions—deductions from salary or wages to be remitted promptly*Application*

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an employer of an employee is authorised (whether by the employee, by force of law or otherwise) to:
 - (i) deduct an amount from salary or wages payable by the employer to the employee; and
 - (ii) pay to a trustee of a regulated superannuation fund the amount of the deduction for the purposes of making provision for superannuation benefits for, or for dependants of, the employee; and
 - (b) the employer makes such a deduction.

Section 64

Prompt remission

- (2) The employer must pay to a trustee of the superannuation fund the amount of the deduction before the end of the 28-day period beginning immediately after the end of the month in which the deduction was made.
- (2A) Subsection (2) does not apply if:
- (a) the employer pays to an approved clearing house (within the meaning of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992) the amount of the deduction before the end of the period mentioned in that subsection; and
 - (b) the approved clearing house accepts the payment.
- (3) The employer commits an offence if the employer contravenes subsection (2).
- Penalty: 100 penalty units.
- (3A) The employer commits an offence if the employer contravenes subsection (2). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Part-time domestic workers counted

- (5) For the purposes of this section, the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 has effect as if subsection 11(2) of that Act had not been enacted.

65 Lending to members of regulated superannuation fund prohibited*Prohibition*

- (1) A trustee or an investment manager of a regulated superannuation fund must not:
- (a) lend money of the fund to:
 - (i) a member of the fund; or
 - (ii) a relative of a member of the fund; or
 - (b) give any other financial assistance using the resources of the fund to:
 - (i) a member of the fund; or
 - (ii) a relative of a member of the fund.

Note: Section 166 imposes an administrative penalty for a contravention of subsection (1) by a trustee in relation to a self managed superannuation fund.

Exception—private sector funds

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the lending of money of a private sector fund established before 16 December 1985 to a member if the trustee of the fund, on or before that date:
- (a) had express power to lend money to members; or
 - (b) lent money to members and that lending was not expressly prohibited by the governing rules of the fund.

Exception—public sector funds

- (3) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the lending of money of a public sector fund established before 25 May 1988 to a member if the trustee of the fund, on or before that date:
- (a) had express power to lend money to members; or
 - (b) lent money to members and that lending was not expressly prohibited by the governing rules of the fund.

Section 66

Variation of governing rules

- (4) If:
- (a) subsection (2) or (3) applies to a regulated superannuation fund; and
 - (b) at the beginning of the fund's 1994-95 year of income, a provision included in the governing rules of the fund authorised the lending of the fund's money to members;
- a variation of that provision is void unless the variation:
- (c) limits the power to lend the fund's money to members; or
 - (d) removes the power to lend the fund's money to members.

Civil penalty provision

- (5) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or of being involved in a contravention of, that subsection.

Effect of Part 8

- (7) Nothing in Part 8 limits the operation of this section.

66 Acquisitions of certain assets from members of regulated superannuation funds prohibited

Prohibition

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a trustee or an investment manager of a regulated superannuation fund must not intentionally acquire an asset from a related party of the fund.

Exception—acquisitions of business real property and listed securities

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit a trustee or investment manager acquiring an asset from a related party of the fund if:
- (a) the asset is a listed security acquired at market value; or

- (b) if the fund is a superannuation fund with no more than 6 members—the asset is business real property of the related party acquired at market value; or
- (c) the trustee of a regulated superannuation fund acquired the asset under a merger between regulated superannuation funds; or
- (d) the asset is an asset of a kind which the Regulator, by legislative instrument, determines may be acquired by:
 - (i) any fund; or
 - (ii) a class of funds in which the fund is included.

Exception—certain in-house assets

- (2A) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the acquisition of an asset by a trustee or investment manager of a superannuation fund from a related party of the fund if:
- (a) the acquisition of the asset constitutes an investment that:
 - (i) is an in-house asset of the fund within the meaning of subsection 71(1); or
 - (ii) would be an in-house asset of the fund within the meaning of subsection 71(1) apart from the operation of Subdivision D of Part 8; or
 - (iii) is a life insurance policy issued by a life insurance company (other than a policy acquired from a member of the fund or from a relative of a member); or
 - (iv) is referred to in paragraph 71(1)(b), (ba), (c), (d), (e), (f), (h) or (j); and
 - (b) the asset is acquired at market value; and
 - (c) the acquisition of the asset would not result in the level of in-house assets of the superannuation fund exceeding the level permitted by Part 8.

Exception—breakdown of relationships

- (2B) Subsection (1) does not prohibit a trustee or investment manager acquiring an asset from a related party of the fund (the acquiring fund) if:

Section 66

- (a) the asset is acquired:
 - (i) for the benefit of a particular member of the acquiring fund; and
 - (ii) from a trustee or investment manager of another regulated superannuation fund (the transferring fund); and
 - (b) at the time of the acquisition:
 - (i) the member and his or her spouse or former spouse are separated; and
 - (ii) there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed; and
 - (c) the acquisition occurs because of reasons directly connected with the breakdown of the relationship between the spouses or former spouses; and
 - (d) the asset represents the whole, or a part, of either:
 - (i) the member's own interests in the transferring fund; or
 - (ii) the member's entitlements as determined under Part VIII B or VIII C of the Family Law Act 1975 in relation to the interests of the member's spouse, or former spouse, in the transferring fund.
- (2C) For the purposes of subsection (2B), the question whether the spouses, or former spouses, have separated is to be determined in the same way as it is for the purposes of section 48 of the Family Law Act 1975 (as affected by sections 49 and 50 of that Act).

Prohibition of avoidance schemes

- (3) A person must not enter into, commence to carry out, or carry out a scheme if the person entered into, commenced to carry out, or carried out the scheme or any part of the scheme with the intention that:
- (a) the scheme would result, or be likely to result, in the acquisition of an asset by a trustee or an investment manager of a regulated superannuation fund, where the asset is acquired from a person who has a connection (either direct or

- indirect through one or more interposed companies, partnerships or trusts) with a related party of the fund; and
- (b) that acquisition would avoid the application of subsection (1) to the fund.

Offence

- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (3) commits an offence punishable on conviction by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year.

 - (a) a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia has certified that:
 - (i) based on rates of death, or death and total and permanent disability; and
 - (ii) using information from the most recent 5 years in relation to Australian occupations; the occupation is in the riskiest quintile of Australian occupations; or
 - (b) the occupation is as an emergency services worker (as defined for the purposes of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011).
- (3) The election must be made in writing.
- (4) The election is in force during the period:

Section 68AAF

- (a) beginning on the day on which a copy of the election is given to APRA; and
 - (b) ending on the day on which the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund give APRA notice in writing that the election is withdrawn.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the election is made, a copy of the election must be:
- (a) published on the trustee's, or each trustee's, website; and
 - (b) given to APRA.
- (6) Within 28 days of the dangerous occupation exception applying to a member of the fund, the trustee or trustees must give the member:
- (a) a notice in writing stating that the trustee or trustees have elected to treat the member's occupation as a dangerous occupation, and are providing the benefit under the choice product or MySuper product by taking out or maintaining insurance; and
 - (b) details of the annual cost to the member of providing the benefit under the choice product or MySuper product by taking out or maintaining insurance; and
 - (c) details of how the member may elect to have the benefit cease.
- (7) To avoid doubt, nothing in this section affects the obligations of a trustee under the covenants referred to in section 52, or of a director of a corporate trustee under the covenants referred to in section 52A.

Note: For example, under paragraph 52(7)(c) each trustee is subject to a covenant to only offer or acquire insurance of a particular kind, or at a particular level, if the cost of the insurance does not inappropriately erode the retirement income of beneficiaries.

68AA Benefits for permanent incapacity and death—MySuper members*Requirement to provide permanent incapacity benefit and death benefit by taking out insurance*

- (1) Each trustee of a regulated superannuation fund must ensure the following:
 - (a) that the fund provides permanent incapacity benefit to each MySuper member of the fund;
 - (b) that the fund provides death benefit in respect of each MySuper member of the fund;
 - (c) that the benefits referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) are provided by taking out insurance.

Note: A failure to comply with subsection (1) is a breach of a condition of the RSE licence (see paragraph 29E(1)(a)).

- (2) The trustees of a regulated superannuation fund are not required to provide permanent incapacity benefit or death benefit if the conditions determined under subsection (3) in relation to the benefit are not met.
- (3) The trustees of a regulated superannuation fund may determine reasonable conditions to which the provision of:
 - (a) permanent incapacity benefit; or
 - (b) death benefit;is subject.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), conditions determined under subsection (3) in relation to a benefit are reasonable if they are the same as the terms and conditions of the policy of insurance taken out to provide the benefit.

Section 68AA

Requirement to allow MySuper members to elect not to receive permanent incapacity benefit or death benefit

- (5) Each trustee of a regulated superannuation fund must ensure that each MySuper member of the fund may elect either or both of the following:
- (a) that permanent incapacity benefit will not be provided to the member by the fund;
 - (b) that death benefit will not be provided in respect of the member by the fund.

Note: A failure to comply with subsection (5) is a breach of a condition of the RSE licence (see paragraph 29E(1)(a)).

- (6) The trustees of a regulated superannuation fund may require that MySuper members who wish to make an election in accordance with subsection (5):
- (a) must make the election in relation to both permanent incapacity benefit and death benefit; or
 - (b) must make the election in relation to death benefit if they make the election in relation to permanent incapacity benefit.
- (7) Subsection (5) does not apply to a MySuper member of a regulated superannuation fund if the circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection are met.
- (8) If a MySuper member of a regulated superannuation fund makes an election in accordance with subsection (5) in relation to a benefit, subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the member and the benefit.

Inactive accounts, low-balance accounts and members under the age of 25 years

- (8A) This section does not require the provision of death benefit in respect of a MySuper member of a regulated superannuation fund, if death benefit is not to be provided in respect of the MySuper member by taking out or maintaining insurance because of section 68AAA, 68AAB or 68AAC.

- (8B) This section does not require the provision of permanent incapacity benefit to a MySuper member of a regulated superannuation fund, if permanent incapacity benefit is not to be provided in respect of the MySuper member by taking out or maintaining insurance because of section 68AAA, 68AAB or 68AAC.
- (9) This section does not apply to:
- (a) a defined benefit member; or
 - (b) an ADF Super member (within the meaning of the Australian Defence Force Superannuation Act 2015) who is:
 - (i) a member of the Permanent Forces (within the meaning of that Act); or
 - (ii) a continuous full-time Reservist (within the meaning of that Act); or
 - (c) a person who would be an ADF Super member covered by paragraph (b) of this subsection apart from the fact that the regulated superannuation fund is or was, for the purposes of Part 3A of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, a chosen fund for contributions for the person's superannuation by the Commonwealth.

Death benefit and permanent incapacity benefit

- (10) For the purposes of this Act:

death benefit means a benefit provided in respect of a member of a regulated superannuation fund in, and only in, the event of the death of the member.

permanent incapacity benefit means a benefit provided to a member of a regulated superannuation fund if, and only if, the member is suffering permanent incapacity.

Section 68A

68A Trustees must not use goods or services to influence employers

- (1) A trustee of a regulated superannuation fund, or an associate of a trustee of a regulated superannuation fund, must not:
- (a) supply, or offer to supply, goods or services to a person, or a relative or associate of a person; or
 - (b) supply, or offer to supply, goods or services to a person, or a relative or associate of a person, at a particular price; or
 - (c) give or allow, or offer to give or allow, a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to the supply, or the proposed supply, of goods or services to a person, or a relative or associate of a person;
- if that action could reasonably be expected to:
- (d) influence the choice of the fund into which the person pays superannuation contributions for employees of the person who have no chosen fund; or
 - (e) influence the person to encourage one or more of the person's employees to remain, or apply or agree to be, a member of the fund.

Note: Under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, employers will need to pay contributions for an employee who has no chosen fund into a fund chosen by the employer, in order to meet the choice of fund requirement and so avoid an increased individual superannuation guarantee shortfall for the employee. There are other limits on the fund that may be chosen by the employer (see Part 3A of that Act).

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a supply of a kind prescribed in the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) A trustee of a regulated superannuation fund, or an associate of a trustee of a regulated superannuation fund, must not refuse to:
- (a) supply, or offer to supply, goods or services to a person, or a relative or associate of a person; or
 - (b) supply, or offer to supply, goods or services to a person, or a relative or associate of a person, at a particular price; or

- (c) give or allow, or offer to give or allow, a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to the supply, or the proposed supply, of goods or services to a person, or a relative or associate of a person;

if it is reasonable to conclude that the refusal is given because:

- (d) the person has not chosen the fund as the fund into which the person pays superannuation contributions for employees of the person who have no chosen fund; or
- (e) the person has not encouraged one or more of the person's employees to remain, or apply or agree to be, a member of the fund.

Note: Under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, employers will need to pay contributions for an employee who has no chosen fund into a fund chosen by the employer, in order to meet the choice of fund requirement and so avoid an increased individual superannuation guarantee shortfall for the employee. There are other limits on the fund that may be chosen by the employer (see Part 3A of that Act).

- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply in relation to a supply of a kind prescribed in the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Civil penalty provisions

- (4A) Subsections (1) and (3) are civil penalty provisions as defined in section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or being involved in a contravention of, those subsections.

Civil liability

- (5) If:
 - (a) a person (the offender) contravenes subsection (1) or (3); and
 - (b) another person (the victim) suffers loss or damage because of the contravention;the victim may recover the amount of the loss or damage by action against the offender.

Section 68B

- (6) The action must be begun within 6 years after the day on which the cause of action arose.
- (7) This section does not affect any liability that the offender or another person has under any other provision of this Act or under any other law.

68B Promotion of illegal early release schemes

- (1) A person must not promote a scheme that has resulted, or is likely to result, in a payment being made from a regulated superannuation fund otherwise than in accordance with payment standards prescribed under subsection 31(1).
- (2) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or being involved in a contravention of, that subsection.
- (3) In this section:

promote, in relation to a scheme, includes the following:

- (a) enter into the scheme;
- (b) induce another person to enter into the scheme;
- (c) carry out the scheme;
- (d) commence to carry out the scheme;
- (e) facilitate entry into, or the carrying out of, the scheme.

scheme means:

- (a) any agreement, arrangement, understanding, promise or undertaking:
 - (i) whether express or implied; or
 - (ii) whether or not enforceable, or intended to be enforceable, by legal proceedings; or
- (b) any scheme, plan, proposal, action, course of action or course of conduct, whether unilateral or otherwise.

68C Voting by a director of a corporate trustee—governing rules

- (1) This section applies to a regulated superannuation fund, other than a self managed superannuation fund, of which the trustee is a body corporate.
- (2) A provision in the governing rules of the fund is void to the extent that it purports to preclude a director of the trustee from voting on a matter relating to the fund.

Exception

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a provision in the governing rules of the fund to the extent that the provision:
 - (a) precludes a director of the trustee of the fund from voting on a matter in which the director has a material personal interest; or
 - (b) otherwise relates to voting by a director of the trustee of the fund on a matter in which the director has a material personal interest; or
 - (c) precludes a director of the trustee of the fund from voting where there is a conflict of a kind described in paragraph 52(2)(d) or 52A(2)(d); or
 - (d) otherwise relates to voting by a director of the trustee of the fund where there is a conflict of a kind described in paragraph 52(2)(d) or 52A(2)(d); or
 - (e) precludes a director of the trustee of the fund from exercising a casting vote; or
 - (f) ensures compliance by the trustee of the fund, or a director of the trustee of the fund, with a prudential standard that deals with conflicts of interest or duty.

68D Voting by an individual trustee—governing rules

- (1) This section applies to a regulated superannuation fund, other than a self managed superannuation fund, of which the trustee, or each of the trustees, is an individual.

Section 68D

- (2) A provision in the governing rules in the fund is void to the extent that it purports to preclude a trustee of the fund from voting on a matter relating to the fund.

Exception

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a provision in the governing rules of the fund to the extent that the provision:
- (a) precludes a trustee of the fund from voting on a matter in which the trustee has a material personal interest; or
 - (b) otherwise relates to voting by a trustee of the fund on a matter in which the trustee has a material personal interest; or
 - (c) precludes a trustee of the fund from voting where there is a conflict of a kind described in paragraph 52(2)(d); or
 - (d) otherwise relates to voting by a trustee of the fund where there is a conflict of a kind described in paragraph 52(2)(d);
or
 - (e) precludes a trustee of the fund from exercising a casting vote;
or
 - (f) ensures compliance by a trustee of the fund with a prudential standard that deals with conflicts of interest or duty.

Part 8—In-house asset rules applying to regulated superannuation funds

Division 1—Object and interpretation

69 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to set out rules about the level of the in-house assets of regulated superannuation funds.

69A Sub-funds to be treated as funds

A sub-fund within a regulated superannuation fund is taken for the purposes of this Part to be a regulated superannuation fund if the sub-fund satisfies the following conditions:

- (a) the sub-fund has separately identifiable assets and separately identifiable beneficiaries; and
- (b) the interest of each beneficiary of the sub-fund is determined by reference only to the conditions governing that sub-fund.

70A The Regulator may determine a person to be a standard employer-sponsor

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, the Regulator may determine in writing that a person, who is not a standard employer-sponsor of a regulated superannuation fund within the meaning of subsection 16(2), is taken to be a standard employer-sponsor of the fund.
- (2) If the Regulator makes a determination under subsection (1) or revokes a determination so made, the Regulator must as soon as practicable after making or revoking the determination, inform a trustee of the regulated superannuation fund concerned, in writing, of the making or revocation of the determination.

Subdivision B—Part 8 associates

70B Part 8 associates of individuals

For the purposes of this Part, each of the following is a Part 8 associate of an individual (the primary entity), whether or not the primary entity is in the capacity of trustee:

 - (ii) if the fund is a single member self managed superannuation fund whose trustee is a company—each director of that company; and
 - (iii) if the fund is a single member self managed superannuation fund whose trustees are individuals—those individuals;

 - (iii) 2 or more entities covered by the preceding subparagraphs.

70C Part 8 associates of companies

- (d) another entity (in this paragraph called the controlling entity) where the primary entity is sufficiently influenced by, or a majority voting interest in the primary entity is held by:
 - (i) the controlling entity; or

 - (ii) another entity that is a Part 8 associate of the primary entity because of another paragraph of this section or because of another application of this paragraph; or
 - (iii) 2 or more entities covered by the preceding subparagraphs;
- (f) if a third entity is a Part 8 associate of the primary entity because of paragraph (d) of this subsection—an entity that is a Part 8 associate of that third entity because of section 70B or 70D or because of another paragraph of this section.

Subdivision C—In-house assets

71 Meaning of in-house asset

Basic meaning

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, an in-house asset of a superannuation fund is an asset of the fund that is a loan to, or an investment in, a related party of the fund, an investment in a related trust of the fund, or an asset of the fund subject to a lease or lease arrangement between a trustee of the fund and a related party of the fund, but does not include:

- (a) a life policy issued by a life insurance company; or
- (b) a deposit with an ADI; or
- (c) an investment in a pooled superannuation trust, where a trustee of the fund and the trustee of the pooled superannuation trust acted at arm's length in relation to the making of that investment; or
- (d) an asset of a public sector fund, where the asset consists of an investment in securities issued under the authority of:
 - (i) the Commonwealth or a government of a State or a Territory; or
 - (ii) a public authority constituted by or under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, where the public authority is neither a standard employer-sponsor, nor an associate of a standard employer-sponsor, of the fund; or
- (e) an asset which the Regulator, by written notice given to a trustee of the fund, determines is not an in-house asset of the fund; or
- (f) an asset which the Regulator, by legislative instrument, determines is not an in-house asset of:
 - (i) any fund; or
 - (ii) a class of funds in which the fund is included; or
- (g) if the superannuation fund has no more than 6 members—real property subject to a lease, or to a lease arrangement enforceable by legal proceedings, between a trustee of the fund and a related party of the fund, if, throughout the term of the lease or lease arrangement, the property is business real property (within the meaning of subsection 66(5)) of the fund; or
- (h) an investment in a widely held unit trust; or
- (i) property owned by the superannuation fund and a related party as tenants in common, other than property subject to a lease or lease arrangement between a trustee of the fund and a related party; or

- (j) an asset included in a class of assets specified in the regulations:
- (i) not to be in-house assets of any fund; or
 - (ii) not to be in-house assets of a class of funds to which the fund belongs.

For this purpose, a class of assets may consist of, but is not limited to, assets that are investments in entities that undertake, or do not undertake, specified activities.

Widely held trust

- (1A) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(h), a trust is a widely held unit trust if:
- (a) it is a unit trust in which entities have fixed entitlements to all of the income and capital of the trust; and
 - (b) it is not a trust in which fewer than 20 entities between them have:
 - (i) fixed entitlements to 75% or more of the income of the trust; or
 - (ii) fixed entitlements to 75% or more of the capital of the trust.

For this purpose, an entity and the Part 8 associates of the entity are taken to be a single entity.

Agreements

- (2) If:
- (a) apart from this subsection, an asset of a fund consists of a loan, an investment or an asset that is subject to a lease or lease arrangement, other than an in-house asset; and
 - (b) the loan, investment, lease or lease arrangement was made as a result of entering into or carrying out an agreement; and
 - (c) any of the persons who entered into or carried out the agreement was aware that the result of carrying out the agreement would be that:

Section 71

- (i) a loan would be made to, an investment would be made in, or an asset would be subject to a lease or lease arrangement with, a related party of the fund; or
- (ii) an investment would be made in a related trust of the fund;

then the asset is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a loan to, an investment in, or an asset subject to a lease or lease arrangement with, that related party or related trust, as the case requires.

Definition

- (2A) In subsection (2):

agreement includes any arrangement, understanding, promise or undertaking whether express or implied, and whether or not enforceable, or intended to be enforceable, by legal proceedings.

Exceptions

- (2B) Subsection (2) does not apply to an investment referred to in paragraph 71(1)(a), (b), (c) or (h).

2 or more persons

- (3) Subsection (2) does not stop the same asset from being treated as if it were a loan to, an investment in, or an asset subject to a lease or lease arrangement with, 2 or more persons.

The Regulator's determination

- (4) If:
- (a) apart from this subsection, an asset of a fund consists of a loan, an investment, or an asset subject to a lease or lease arrangement, other than an in-house asset; and
 - (b) the Regulator, by written notice given to a trustee of the fund, determines that the asset is to be treated, with effect from the day on which the notice is given, as if the asset were a loan to, an investment in, or an asset subject to a lease or lease arrangement with, a specified related party or related trust of the fund, including a person taken to be a standard employer-sponsor of the fund under section 70A; then, despite paragraphs (1)(a) to (j), the asset is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a loan to or an investment in the related party or related trust, or an asset subject to a lease or lease agreement between a trustee of the fund and the related party.

Paragraph (1)(e) determinations or paragraph (1)(j) regulations may be retrospective

- (5) A determination under paragraph (1)(e) or regulations under paragraph (1)(j) may be expressed to have taken effect at a time earlier than the time when the determination or regulations were made.

Public sector superannuation funds

- (7) For the purposes of applying this section to determine what is an in-house asset of a public sector superannuation fund, a reference to a Part 8 associate of an employer-sponsor of the fund is a reference to a body corporate in respect of which either of the following conditions is satisfied:
- (a) the body corporate is sufficiently influenced by, or a majority voting interest in the body corporate is held by, the employer-sponsor;
 - (b) the employer-sponsor is sufficiently influenced by, or a majority voting interest in the employer-sponsor is held by, the body corporate.

Limit on when investments in related trusts are in-house assets

- (8) If, at a time:
- (a) an asset (the investment asset) of a superannuation fund is an investment in a related trust of the fund; and
 - (b) the related trust is one described in paragraph 67A(1)(b) in connection with a borrowing, by the trustee of the fund, that is covered by subsection 67A(1); and

(c) the only property of the related trust is the acquirable asset mentioned in that paragraph;

the investment asset is an in-house asset of the fund at the time only if the acquirable asset mentioned in that paragraph would be an in-house asset of the fund if it were an asset of the fund at the time.

(9) Subsections (1), (2) and (4) have effect subject to subsection (8).

Subdivision D—Transitional arrangements in relation to in-house assets

71A Exceptions—pre-11 August 1999 investments and loans

(1) If:

(a) at any time (the post-test time) after the test time, an asset of a superannuation fund consists of:

(i) a loan or an investment made before the test time, or made after the test time under a contract entered into before the test time; or

(ii) a share or unit in a unit trust, if the share, or the unit, as the case requires, was acquired before the test time or under a contract entered into before the test time (notwithstanding any payments on the share or unit made to the issuer of the share or unit after the test time and before 1 July 2009); and

(b) if the asset was an asset of the fund immediately before the test time—it was not an in-house asset of the fund; and

(c) if the asset was not an asset of the fund immediately before the test time—it would not have been an in-house asset if it had been an asset of the fund immediately before the test time; and

(d) apart from this Subdivision, the asset would be an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time;

the asset is not an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time.

Payments on partly paid shares and units after 30 June 2009

- (2) However, if:
- (a) the post-test time is after 30 June 2009; and
 - (b) the asset consists of a share or a unit in a unit trust; and
 - (c) one or more payments on the share or unit to the issuer of the share or unit has been made since 30 June 2009;
- then:
- (d) the asset is an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time; and
 - (e) subsection (3) applies to the share or unit.

Reduced value for the purposes of working out value of in-house assets

- (3) For the purposes of working out the formula component Number of whole dollars in value of in-house assets of the fund under section 75 at the post-test time, the value of the share or unit at the post-test time is taken to be the number of whole dollars in the amount worked out as follows:

$$\text{Market value of share or unit} \times \frac{\text{Excess amount}}{\text{Total amount}}$$

where:

excess amount means the total of the amounts that, as at the post-test time, had been paid after 30 June 2009 on the share or unit to the issuer of the share or unit.

market value of share or unit means the market value of the share or unit as at the post-test time.

total amount means the total of the amounts that, as at the post-test time had been paid (whether before or after 30 June 2009) on the share or unit to the issuer of the share or unit.

Section 71B

71B Exceptions—pre-11 August 1999 leases and lease arrangements

(1) If:

- (a) at any time (the post-test time) after the test time, an asset of a superannuation fund consists of an asset subject to a lease, or a lease arrangement, between a trustee of the fund and a related party of the fund; and
- (b) the asset was subject to a lease or lease arrangement, or any uninterrupted sequence of leases and lease arrangements, between a trustee of the fund and a related party, throughout the period beginning immediately before the test time and ending at the post-test time; and
- (c) apart from this section, the asset would be an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time;

the asset is not an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if:

- (a) before the test time, a lease or a lease arrangement enforceable by legal proceedings, in respect of an asset, was entered into between a trustee of a superannuation fund and a related party of the fund; and
- (b) the lease or lease arrangement came into force after the test time;

the asset is taken to have been subject to a lease or a lease arrangement, between a trustee of the fund and that related party, immediately before the test time.

71C Exceptions—transition period

Investments and loans

(1) If:

- (a) at any time (the pre-1 July 2001 time) during the period after the test time but before 1 July 2001, an asset of a superannuation fund consists of a loan or an investment made during the transition period, other than under a contract entered into before the beginning of that period; and

- (b) if the asset had been an asset of the fund immediately before the test time—the asset would not have been an in-house asset of the fund; and
- (c) apart from this section, the asset would be an in-house asset of the fund at the pre-1 July 2001 time;

the asset is not an in-house asset of the fund at the pre-1 July 2001 time. For this purpose, a loan or an investment is not made during the transition period merely because a contract is entered into during that period for the purpose of gaining interest, income, profit or gain.

Leases and lease arrangements

(2) If:

- (a) at any time (the pre-1 July 2001 time) during the period after the test time but before 1 July 2001, an asset of a superannuation fund consists of an asset subject to a lease, or a lease arrangement, between a trustee of the fund and a related party of the fund; and
- (b) section 71B does not apply to the asset at the pre-1 July 2001 time; and
- (c) the asset became subject to a lease or lease arrangement between a trustee of the fund and a related party at a time (the transition time) during the transition period; and
- (d) the asset was subject to a lease or a lease arrangement, or any uninterrupted sequence of leases and lease arrangements, between a trustee of the fund and a related party, throughout the period beginning at the transition time and ending at the pre-1 July 2001 time; and
- (e) apart from this section, the asset would be an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time;

the asset is not an in-house asset of the fund at the pre-1 July 2001 time.

71D Exception—reinvestments

If:

Section 71E

- (a) at any time (the post-test time) after the test time, an asset of a superannuation fund consists of an investment (the post-test time investment) in an entity (the original entity) made during the period:
 - (i) beginning at the test time; and
 - (ii) ending at the end of 30 June 2009; and
- (b) the post-test time investment is not covered by section 71A; and
- (c) if the fund had made the post-test time investment immediately before the test time, it would not have been an in-house asset of the fund; and
- (d) the sum of the purchase price of the post-test time investment and any previous investment to which this section applies does not, at the post-test time, exceed the sum of the following amounts:
 - (i) the sum of the amounts of all dividends or trust distributions received after the test time, but before the end of 30 June 2009, by the superannuation fund from the original entity, which were derived from an investment in the original entity made by the fund before the test time;
 - (ii) the sum of the amounts of all dividends or trust distributions received after the test time, but before the end of 30 June 2009, by the superannuation fund, which were derived from investments of dividends and trust distributions taken into account under subparagraph (i) or this subparagraph;

the asset is not an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time.

71E Exception—certain geared investments

(1) If:

- (a) at any time (the post-test time) after the test time, an asset of a superannuation fund that has no more than 6 members consists of an investment (the post-test time investment) in a unit trust or a company (the first entity) made during the period:

- (i) beginning at the test time; and
- (ii) ending at the end of 30 June 2009; and
- (b) immediately before the test time, another asset (other than an in-house asset) of the superannuation fund consisted of an investment (the prior investment) in the first entity; and
- (c) immediately before the test time, an amount (the principal) consisting of the principal of a loan was owed by the first entity to any entity other than the superannuation fund; and
- (d) apart from this Subdivision, the post-test time investment would be an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time; and
- (e) the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund makes a written election, within:
 - (i) the period of 12 months beginning on the day on which this section commenced; or
 - (ii) such later period as is prescribed by the regulations;that section 71E is to apply to all post-test time investments of the fund in that entity;

Note: Under subsection 103(2A), the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund must keep the election, or a copy of it, for 10 years after it is made.

then subsection (2) or (3), as the case requires, applies, and is taken always to have applied, to the post-test time investment.

Sum of purchase prices of post-test time investments does not exceed the principal—investment not an in-house asset

- (2) The post-test time investment is not an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time if the sum of the following amounts does not exceed the amount of the principal:
 - (a) the purchase price of the post-test time investment;
 - (b) the purchase price of any previous post-test time investment in the first entity by the fund.

Section 71E

Sum of purchase prices of post-test time investments exceeds the principal—formula to be applied

- (3) If the sum of the following:
- (a) the purchase price of the post-test time investment;
 - (b) the purchase price of any previous post-test time investment in the first entity by the fund;
- exceeds the amount of the principal, then:
- (c) the post-test time investment is an in-house asset of the fund at the post-test time; and
 - (d) if the post-test time investment is the first post-test time investment in respect of which the sum of the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) exceeds the amount of the principal—subsection (4) applies to the investment.

Reduced value for the purposes of working out value of in-house assets

- (4) For the purposes of working out the formula component Number of whole dollars in value of in-house assets of the fund under section 75 at the post-test time, the value of the post-test time investment at the post-test time is taken to be the number of whole dollars in the amount worked out as follows:

$$\text{Market value of post-test time investment} \times \frac{\text{Excess amount}}{\text{Purchase price of post-test time investment}}$$

where:

excess amount means the amount of the excess under subsection (3).

market value of post-test time investment means the market value of the post-test time investment as at the post-test time.

purchase price of post-test time investment means the purchase price of the post-test time investment.

Effect of election

- (5) If the trustee, or the trustees, of a fund make an election under paragraph (1)(e) in respect of the post-test time investments of the fund in an entity, then:
- (a) sections 71A and 71D do not apply, and are taken never to have applied, to any post-test time investment by the fund in that entity; and
 - (b) this section applies, and is taken always to have applied, to any post-test time investment of the fund in that entity.

Note: This means that if a fund makes an election, this section would apply to all investments in the entity after the test time and before 1 July 2009, and sections 71A and 71D would not apply to such investments.

Application of section to loans

- (6) A reference in this section to an investment in a trust or company is taken to include a reference to a loan to a trust or company. For this purpose, the purchase price of the loan is taken to be the principal of the loan at the time at which the loan was made.

71EA Relationship breakdowns

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a trustee or an investment manager of a regulated superannuation fund (the acquiring fund) acquires an asset:
 - (i) for the benefit of a particular member of the acquiring fund; and
 - (ii) from a trustee or investment manager of another regulated superannuation fund (the transferring fund); and
 - (b) at the time of the acquisition:
 - (i) the member and his or her spouse or former spouse are separated; and
 - (ii) there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed; and

Section 71EA

- (c) the acquisition occurs because of reasons directly connected with the breakdown of the relationship between the spouses or former spouses; and
 - (d) the asset represents the whole, or a part, of either:
 - (i) the member's own interests in the transferring fund; or
 - (ii) the member's entitlements as determined under Part VIII B or VIII C of the Family Law Act 1975 in relation to the interests of the member's spouse, or former spouse, in the transferring fund.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the question whether the spouses, or former spouses, have separated is to be determined in the same way as it is for the purposes of section 48 of the Family Law Act 1975 (as affected by sections 49 and 50 of that Act).

Acquiring fund taken to have always held asset

- (3) For the purposes of applying this Subdivision to the asset at or after the time (the acquisition time) the trustee or investment manager of the acquiring fund acquires the asset, treat:
- (a) the acquisition as having occurred at the time the trustee or investment manager of the transferring fund acquired the asset; and
 - (b) anything done by, for or in relation to the transferring fund in relation to the asset before the acquisition time as having been done by, for or in relation to the acquiring fund; and
 - (c) anything done by, for or in relation to the trustee or investment manager of the transferring fund in relation to the asset before the acquisition time as having been done by, for or in relation to the trustee or investment manager of the acquiring fund.

Section 71E elections

- (4) In addition to their effect apart from this subsection, subsection 103(2A) (duty to keep record of election) and subsection 103(3), to the extent that it relates to subsection 103(2A), also have the effect they would have if subsection (3) of this section applied to them.

Note: This means that the trustees of both the transferring fund and the acquiring fund must retain, in accordance with subsection 103(2A), any election made under section 71E in relation to the transferring fund before the transfer of the asset.

- (5) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is a trustee of the transferring fund; and
 - (b) just before the acquisition time, the trustee had a duty under subsection 103(2A) to retain an election, or a copy of an election, under section 71E in relation to the transferring fund; and
 - (c) the trustee does not, within 14 days after the acquisition time, give the election or copy to a trustee or investment manager of the acquiring fund.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: If the trustee gives the election to the acquiring fund, he or she must retain a copy of the election: see subsection (4).

- (6) An offence against subsection (5) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

71F Meaning of certain terms used in Subdivision D

In this Subdivision:

test time means the end of 11 August 1999.

transition period means the period:

- (a) beginning at the test time; and
- (b) ending on the day on which this section commenced.

Subdivision E—Other provisions in relation to in-house assets

- (1) For the purposes of this section:
 - (a) a standard employer-sponsor (the first employer-sponsor) of a superannuation fund is an unrelated employer-sponsor of the fund if, and only if, there is no other standard employer-sponsor of the fund who is a Part 8 associate of the first employer-sponsor; and
 - (b) 2 or more standard employer-sponsors of a superannuation fund are related to each other if they are Part 8 associates.
- (2) For the purposes of this section:
 - (a) the class of the in-house assets of a fund that corresponds to a particular unrelated employer-sponsor is the class of in-house assets that consists of:
 - (i) loans to, investments in, or assets subject to leases or lease arrangements with, the employer-sponsor or a Part 8 associate of the employer-sponsor; or
 - (ii) loans to, investments in, or assets subject to leases or lease arrangements with, a standard employer-sponsored member of the fund, in respect of whom the employer-sponsor contributes to the fund, or a Part 8 associate of such a member; or
 - (iii) investments in a trust that is controlled by an entity referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii); and
 - (b) the class of the in-house assets of a fund that corresponds to 2 or more employer-sponsors who are related to each other is the class of in-house assets that consists of:
 - (i) loans to, investments in, or assets subject to leases or lease arrangements with, any of them or a Part 8 associate of any of them; or
 - (ii) loans to, investments in, or assets subject to leases or lease arrangements with, a standard employer-sponsored member of the fund, in respect of whom any of them

- contributes to the fund, or a Part 8 associate of such a member; or
- (iii) investments in a trust that is controlled by an entity referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii).
- (3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if:
- (a) there are 2 or more unrelated employer-sponsors of a superannuation fund (whether or not there are also any employer-sponsors of the fund who are related to each other); or
- (b) there are 2 or more employer-sponsors of a superannuation fund who are related to each other and there are also one or more unrelated employer-sponsors of the fund.
- (4) This Part does not apply in relation to the fund in relation to the in-house assets of the fund as a whole.
- (5) However, this Part applies in relation to the fund separately in relation to each of the corresponding classes of in-house assets of the fund.
- (6) This section does not apply to a self managed superannuation fund.

73 Cost of in-house asset

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, if:
- (a) an asset of a superannuation fund was acquired:
- (i) without consideration; or
- (ii) for consideration other than the arm's length value of the asset when it was acquired; or
- (b) the whole or a part of the consideration for which an asset of a superannuation fund was acquired was not money;
- the cost of the asset is taken to be the arm's length value of the asset when it was acquired.

- (2) In this section:

arm's length value, in relation to an asset, means the amount that the acquirer of the asset could reasonably be expected to have been required to pay to acquire the asset under a transaction where the parties to the transaction are dealing with each other at arm's length in relation to the transaction.

74 Historical cost ratio of fund's in-house assets

For the purposes of this Part, the historical cost ratio of a fund's in-house assets is the percentage worked out using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of whole dollars in cost of in-house assets of the fund}}{\text{Number of whole dollars in cost of all the assets of the fund}} \times 100$$

75 Market value ratio of fund's in-house assets

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, the market value ratio of a fund's in-house assets is the percentage worked out using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of whole dollars in value of in-house assets of the fund}}{\text{Number of whole dollars in value of all the assets of the fund}} \times 100$$

- (2) Where, because of subsections 72(4) and (5), this Part applies separately to each of the corresponding classes of in-house assets of a superannuation fund, the market value ratio of the in-house assets of each corresponding class is a percentage worked out using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of whole dollars in value of in-house assets of corresponding class} + \text{Number of whole dollars in value of in-house assets that do not correspond to one or more employer-sponsors of the fund}}{\text{Number of whole dollars in value of all the assets of the fund}} \times 100$$

- (3) The plan must specify the amount (the excess amount) worked out using the formula:

$$\left[\begin{array}{l} \text{Market value ratio of fund's} \\ \text{in-house assets as at the end of} \\ \text{that year of income} \end{array} - 5\% \right] \times \begin{array}{l} \text{Value of fund's} \\ \text{assets as at the end of that} \\ \text{year of income} \end{array}$$

- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, a reference in this section to acquiring an in-house asset includes a reference to making an investment or a loan, or entering into a lease or a lease arrangement, if the resulting loan or investment, or the asset subject to the lease or the lease arrangement, would be an in-house asset.

Division 3A—Limit on in-house assets of certain defined benefit funds

83A Definitions

If the market value of the fund's in-house assets at the end of a year of income exceeds the prescribed percentage of the base amount in relation to the fund at that time, a trustee of the fund must not buy, or enter into any contract to buy, on behalf of the fund any in-house assets until the time when an actuary certifies that the market value of the fund's in-house assets has ceased to exceed the prescribed percentage of the base amount in relation to the fund.

Division 4—Enforcement

84 In-house asset rules must be complied with

- (1) Each trustee of a regulated superannuation fund must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the provisions of Division 2, and either Division 3 or 3A (whichever is applicable), are complied with.

Note: Section 166 imposes an administrative penalty for a contravention of subsection (1) in relation to a self managed superannuation fund.

- (2) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or of being involved in a contravention of, that subsection.
- (3) A contravention of subsection (1) does not affect the validity of a transaction.

Division 5—Anti-avoidance

85 Prohibition of avoidance schemes

Prohibition

- (1) A person must not enter into, commence to carry out, or carry out, a scheme if the person entered into, commenced to carry out, or carried out the scheme or any part of the scheme with the intention that:
 - (a) the scheme would result, or be likely to result, in an artificial reduction in the market value ratio of the fund's in-house assets; and
 - (b) that artificial reduction would avoid the application of any provision of this Part to the fund.

Civil penalty provision

- (2) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or being involved in a contravention of, that subsection.

Section 86

Part 9—Equal representation of employers and members—employer-sponsored funds

86 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to set out rules about the representation of employers and members in relation to the management and control of standard employer-sponsored funds.

87 Consequences of non-compliance with this Part

It is not an offence to contravene this Part and a failure to comply with this Part does not result in the invalidity of a transaction. However, a contravention of this Part may result in a fund being directed under section 63 not to accept any contributions made to the fund by an employer-sponsor (see subsection 63(6)).

88 This Part does not apply if acting trustee appointed under Part 17

This Part does not apply to a fund if the fund has an acting trustee appointed under Part 17.

89 Basic equal representation rules

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a fund complies with the basic equal representation rules if:
- (a) both:
 - (i) the fund has a group of individual trustees;
 - (ii) the group of trustees consists of equal numbers of employer representatives and member representatives;or
 - (b) both:

- (i) the fund has a single corporate trustee;
- (ii) the board of the corporate trustee consists of equal numbers of employer representatives and member representatives.

Additional independent trustee or additional independent director

- (2) For the purposes of the application of the basic equal representation rules to a fund, a group of trustees, or the board of a corporate trustee, is taken to consist of equal numbers of employer representatives and member representatives if:
 - (a) the group or board includes an additional independent trustee or an additional independent director, as the case may be; and
 - (b) the additional independent trustee or additional independent director, as the case may be, is appointed at the request of the employer representatives, or the member representatives, who are the members of the group or board; and

 - (5) An approval, including any conditions to which the approval is subject, may be varied at any time by APRA by notice in writing given to the trustee.
 - (6) APRA may only exercise the power conferred under subsection (2) or (3) after considering:
 - (a) the effect that the approval of a higher percentage will have on the likelihood of the trustee performing its functions independently and impartially; and
 - (b) all other relevant circumstances.

Part 10—Provisions applying only to approved deposit funds

94 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to set out rules about borrowing by the trustees of approved deposit funds.

95 Borrowing

- (1) Except with the approval of APRA under subsection (2) or except as provided by subsection (3), the trustee of an approved deposit fund must not borrow money.
- (2) APRA may approve a borrowing by the trustee of an approved deposit fund if the trustee satisfies APRA that special circumstances exist that justify the borrowing.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the trustee of an approved deposit fund from borrowing money if:
 - (a) the purpose of the borrowing is to enable the trustee to cover settlement of a transaction for the acquisition of any of the following:
 - (i) bonds, debentures, stock, bills of exchange or other securities;
 - (ii) shares in a company;
 - (iii) units in a unit trust;
 - (iv) futures contracts;
 - (v) forward contracts;
 - (vi) interest rates swap contracts;

 - (xi) any similar financial instrument;
 - (xii) foreign currency; and
- (b) both:
- (i) at the time the relevant investment decision was made, it was likely that the borrowing would not be needed; and
 - (ii) the borrowing is not taken, under a determination made, by legislative instrument, by APRA, to be exempt from this paragraph; and
- (c) the period of the borrowing does not exceed 7 days; and
- (d) if the borrowing were to take place, the total amount borrowed by the trustee would not exceed 10% of the value of the assets of the fund.
- (5) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or of being involved in a contravention of, that subsection.

Part 11—Provisions applying only to pooled superannuation trusts

96 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to set out special rules applying only to pooled superannuation trusts.

97 Borrowing

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the trustee of a pooled superannuation trust must not borrow money.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the trustee of a pooled superannuation trust from borrowing money if:
 - (a) the purpose of the borrowing is to enable the trustee to make a payment to a beneficiary in the trust which the trustee is required to make by law or by the governing rules and which, apart from the borrowing, the trustee would not be able to make; and
 - (b) the period of the borrowing does not exceed 90 days; and
 - (c) if the borrowing were to take place, the total amount borrowed by the trustee would not exceed 10% of the value of the assets of the trust.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the trustee of a pooled superannuation trust from borrowing money if:
 - (a) the purpose of the borrowing is to enable the trustee to cover settlement of a transaction for the acquisition of any of the following:
 - (i) bonds, debentures, stock, bills of exchange or other securities;
 - (ii) shares in a company;
 - (iii) units in a unit trust;
 - (iv) futures contracts;

 - (viii) forward exchange rate contracts;
 - (ix) forward interest rate contracts;
 - (x) a right or option in respect of such a security, share, unit, contract or policy;
 - (xi) any similar financial instrument;
 - (xii) foreign currency; and
- (b) both:
- (i) at the time the relevant investment decision was made, it was likely that the borrowing would not be needed; and
 - (ii) the borrowing is not taken, under a determination made, by legislative instrument, by APRA, to be exempt from this paragraph; and
- (c) the period of the borrowing does not exceed 7 days; and
- (d) if the borrowing were to take place, the total amount borrowed by the trustee would not exceed 10% of the value of the assets of the trust.

98 Lending to unit-holders prohibited

The trustee or an investment manager of a pooled superannuation trust must not:

- (a) lend money of the trust to a beneficiary of the trust; or
- (b) give any other financial assistance using the resources of the trust to a beneficiary of the trust.

99 Civil penalty provisions

Subsection 97(1) and section 98 are civil penalty provisions as defined by section 193, and Part 21 therefore provides for civil and criminal consequences of contravening, or of being involved in a contravention of, either of them.

Part 11A—General fees rules

99A Application

The rules set out in this Part do not apply to self managed superannuation funds.

99B No entry fees

- (1) The trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund or an approved deposit fund must not charge entry fees.
- (2) An entry fee is a fee, other than a buy-sell spread, that relates, directly or indirectly, to the issuing of a beneficial interest in a superannuation entity to a person who is not already a member of the entity.

99BA No exit fees

- (1) The trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund or an approved deposit fund must not charge exit fees, except in circumstances prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) An exit fee is a fee, other than a buy-sell spread, that relates to the disposal of all or part of a member's interests in a superannuation entity.

99C Buy-sell spreads and switching fees to be charged on a cost recovery basis

- (1) If the trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund or an approved deposit fund charge a buy-sell spread or a switching fee, the fee must be no more than it would be if it were charged on a cost recovery basis.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe the way in which a buy-sell spread or a switching fee charged on a cost recovery basis is to be worked out.

99D Cost of advice to employers not to be borne by members

The trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund or an approved deposit fund must not include in any fee charged to any member of the fund an amount that relates to costs incurred by any person, directly or indirectly, in relation to personal advice provided by any person to an employer of one or more members of the fund.

99E Fair and reasonable attribution of costs between classes of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund

If there is more than one class of beneficial interest in a regulated superannuation fund, the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund must attribute the costs of the fund between the classes fairly and reasonably.

99F Cost of financial product advice—collectively charged fees

- (1) The trustee or the trustees of a regulated superannuation fund must not directly or indirectly pass the cost of providing financial product advice in relation to a member of the fund (the subject member) on to any other member of the fund, to the extent that:
 - (a) the advice is provided by:
 - (i) a trustee of the fund; or
 - (ii) another person acting as an employee of, or under an arrangement with, a trustee or trustees of the fund; and
 - (b) the advice is personal advice; and
 - (c) the advice is provided in any of the following circumstances:
 - (i) the subject member has not yet acquired a beneficial interest in the fund when the advice is given, and the advice relates to whether the subject member should acquire such an interest;
 - (ii) the advice relates to a financial product that is not a beneficial interest in the fund, a related pension fund for the member and the fund, a related insurance product

Section 99F

- for the member and the fund or a cash management facility within the fund;
- (iii) the advice relates to whether the subject member should consolidate that member's beneficial interests in 2 or more superannuation entities into a beneficial interest in a single superannuation entity;
 - (iv) at the time the advice is provided, the subject member reasonably expects that a person mentioned in subparagraph (a)(i) or (ii) will periodically review the advice, provide further personal advice or monitor whether recommendations in the original or any later advice are implemented and the results of that implementation;
 - (v) other prescribed circumstances.
- (2) If:
- (a) under the governing rules of a regulated superannuation fund (the first fund):
 - (i) a member of another regulated superannuation fund (the second fund) is entitled to become a member of the first fund on the satisfaction of a condition of release of benefits specified in a standard made under paragraph 31(2)(h); and
 - (ii) on becoming a member of the first fund, a pension would be payable out of the assets of the first fund to the member; and
 - (b) the RSE licensee for the first fund is, or is an associate of, the RSE licensee of the second fund;
- then the first fund is a related pension fund of the second fund for a member of the second fund in relation to whom paragraph (a) is satisfied.
- (3) If:
- (a) the trustee, or the trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund provide a benefit to members of the fund who hold a particular class of beneficial interest in the fund by taking out insurance; and

Section 99FA

(b) a person holds a beneficial interest of that class in the fund, or is considering acquiring a beneficial interest of that class in the fund;

a life policy or contract of insurance by which that benefit is or would be provided is a related insurance product for the person and the fund.

(4) In this section:

cash management facility has the same meaning as it has for the purposes of subsection 946B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001.

life policy has the same meaning as in the Life Insurance Act 1995.

99FA Cost of financial product advice—fees charged to member concerned

- (1) The trustee or the trustees of a regulated superannuation fund must not directly or indirectly pass the cost of providing financial product advice in relation to a member of the fund on to the member, unless:
- (a) the cost is to be paid in accordance with the terms of an arrangement entered into by the member; and
 - (b) the trustee passes the cost on, or the trustees pass the cost on, in accordance with the terms of a written consent of the member; and
 - (c) if the arrangement is an ongoing fee arrangement:
 - (i) the consent is of a kind described in paragraph 962R(2)(a) or 962S(3)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001; and
 - (ii) if requirements that apply in relation to the consent are determined under section 962T of that Act—the consent complies with those requirements; and
 - (d) if the arrangement is not an ongoing fee arrangement:
 - (i) the consent is for the trustee or the trustees to directly or indirectly pass the cost of providing financial product advice in relation to the member on to the member; and

Section 99G

- (ii) if requirements that apply in relation to the consent are determined under subsection (2)—the consent complies with those requirements; and
- (e) the trustee has, or the trustees have, the consent or a copy of the consent.

Note: If the arrangement is an ongoing fee arrangement, it may be terminated as a result of section 962F or 962FA of the Corporations Act 2001.

- (2) ASIC may, by legislative instrument, make a determination specifying requirements for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(d)(ii).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the cost is shared by passing it on to the member mentioned in subsection (1) and to other members of the fund.

99G Fee cap on low balances

Application

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the trustee, or trustees, of a regulated superannuation fund offer a choice product or MySuper product; and
 - (b) a member of the fund:
 - (i) holds the product on the last day of a year of income of the fund and, on that day, has an account balance with the fund that relates to the product that is less than $6,000; or
 - (ii) holds the product on one or more days during a year of income of the fund and, on the last of those days, has an account balance with the fund that relates to the product that is less than $6,000.

Fee cap for a member who holds the product for the whole year

- (2) If the member holds the product for the whole year, the trustee or trustees of the fund must not charge capped fees and costs to the member in relation to the product for the year the total combined amount of which exceeds the amount worked out as follows:

Fee cap percentage \times Member's account balance for the product on the last day of the year

where:

fee cap percentage means the percentage prescribed under subsection (4).

member's account balance for the product on the last day of the year means so much of the member's account balance with the fund on that day as relates to the product.

Capped fees and costs

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the following are capped fees and costs charged to the member in relation to the product for the year:
- (a) administration fees charged to the member in relation to the product for the year;
 - (b) investment fees charged to the member in relation to the product for the year;

 - (ii) is incurred by the trustee or the trustees of the fund in relation to the year; and
 - (iii) relates to the administration of the fund or the investment of the assets of the fund.

Fee cap percentage

- (4) The regulations may prescribe, for the purposes of this section, a fee cap percentage of no more than 3%.

Section 99G

Fee cap for member who holds the product for part of the year

- (5) If the member holds the product for only part of the year, the trustee or trustees of the fund must not charge capped fees and costs to the member in relation to the product for the year the total combined amount of which exceeds the amount worked out as follows:

$$\text{Fee cap for the whole year} \times \frac{\text{Number of days during the year on which member held the product}}{365}$$

where:

fee cap for the whole year means the total combined amount of capped fees and costs that could be charged to the member in relation to the product for the year under subsection (2), if:

- (a) the member held the product for the whole of the year; and
- (b) so much of the member's account balance with the fund on the last day on which the member held the product during the year as relates to the product were the member's account balance for the product on the last day of the year.

Refund of excess

- (6) The trustee or trustees of the regulated superannuation fund are taken to have complied with this section if any amount by which the total combined amount of capped fees and costs charged to the member in relation to the product for the year exceeds the maximum permitted under subsection (2) or (5) is refunded to the member within 3 months after the end of the year.

No breach of section 99E

- (7) To avoid doubt, the trustee or trustees of the regulated superannuation fund do not breach section 99E by complying with this section.

Part 12—Duties of trustees and investment managers of superannuation entities

100 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to impose special duties on the trustees and investment managers of superannuation entities.

 - (d) must ensure that written reasons are given, in accordance with requirements specified under subsection (1B) of this section, for any decision of the trustee (or failure by the trustee to make a decision) relating to a complaint.

Note: Part 7.10A of the Corporations Act 2001 deals with situations where complaints are not resolved by the trustee.

- (1A) However, paragraphs (1)(a) to (c) do not apply to a trustee if the trustee is required under the Corporations Act 2001 to have a dispute resolution system complying with subsection 912A(2) or 1017G(2) of that Act.
- (1B) ASIC may, by legislative instrument, specify for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d) any or all of the following:

102 Duty to seek information from investment manager

- (1) If the trustee of a superannuation entity, or if a superannuation entity has a group of individual trustees, the trustees of the entity, enter into an agreement with an investment manager under which money of the entity will be placed under the control of the investment manager, the trustee, or the trustees, must:
- (a) ensure that the agreement contains adequate provision to enable the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity to require the investment manager from time to time:
 - (i) to provide appropriate information as to the making of, and return on, the investments; and
 - (ii) to provide such information as is necessary to enable the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity to assess the capability of the investment manager to manage the investments of the entity; and
 - (b) whenever it is necessary or desirable to do so, require the investment manager to provide the information.
- (2) If:

- (a) the trustee of a superannuation entity, or if a superannuation entity has a group of individual trustees, the trustees of the entity, entered into an agreement before the commencement of this section with an investment manager under which money of the entity would be placed under the control of the investment manager; and
 - (b) the agreement does not contain a provision of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1)(a);
- the trustee, or the trustees, of the entity must as soon as practicable ensure that:
- (c) the agreement is amended so as to contain such a provision; or
 - (d) if the investment manager refuses to agree to such an amendment—the agreement is terminated.
- (3) The trustee of a superannuation entity, or if a superannuation entity has a group of individual trustees, the trustees of the superannuation entity:
- (a) may terminate an agreement under paragraph (2)(d) despite anything in the agreement; and

- (4) A person who intentionally or recklessly contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

- (1) If a superannuation entity has a group of individual trustees, the trustees must keep, and retain for at least 10 years, minutes of all meetings of the trustees at which matters affecting the entity were considered.
- (2) If there is only one trustee of a superannuation entity:

Section 104

(That subsection deals with an additional independent trustee or an additional independent director of a corporate trustee.)
- (2) Each trustee of the fund must ensure that:
- (a) rules are established (whether by inclusion in the governing rules or otherwise) ensuring that the additional independent trustee or additional independent director, as the case may be, can only be removed by the same procedure as that by which the additional independent trustee or additional independent director was appointed, except in the event of:
- (i) death; or
- (ii) mental or physical incapacity; or

- (ii) the additional independent trustee or additional independent director no longer meeting one or more of the criteria for fitness and propriety relevant to the independent trustee or independent director set out in the prudential standards; or
 - (iii) the additional independent trustee or additional independent director, as the case may be, becoming a disqualified person within the meaning of Part 15; or
 - (iv) suspension or removal under Part 17; or

Section 108A

- (b) require the trustee to carry out the procedure to identify such members at least once each financial year; and
 - (c) if the member has 2 or more superannuation accounts in the superannuation entity—require the trustee to merge the accounts so that the member has only one account balance in respect of those accounts, if the trustee reasonably believes that it is in the best interests of the member to do so; and
 - (d) provide that fees are not payable (other than a buy-sell spread) for any merger of superannuation accounts that occurs as a result of paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (2) The requirement in paragraph (1)(c) does not apply if:
- (a) it is not practicable in the circumstances to merge the member's superannuation accounts; or
 - (b) one or more of the superannuation accounts is a defined benefit interest or income stream.
- (3) A superannuation account is a record of the member's benefits, in relation to a superannuation entity in which the member has an interest, which is recorded separately:
- (a) from other benefits of the member in relation to the entity (if any); and
 - (b) from other benefits of any other member in relation to the entity.
- (4) In determining, for the purpose of paragraph (1)(c), whether it is in the best interests of a member to merge his or her superannuation accounts, the trustee must consider the total amount of fees and charges payable by the member in respect of all of his or her accounts in the superannuation entity (including any fees and charges payable by the member for insurance provided in respect of all of his or her accounts).

109 Investments of superannuation entity to be made and maintained on arm's length basis

- (1) A trustee or investment manager of a superannuation entity must not invest in that capacity unless:
- (a) the trustee or investment manager, as the case may be, and the other party to the relevant transaction are dealing with each other at arm's length in respect of the transaction; or
 - (b) both:
 - (i) the trustee or investment manager, as the case may be, and the other party to the relevant transaction are not dealing with each other at arm's length in respect of the transaction; and
 - (ii) the terms and conditions of the transaction are no more favourable to the other party than those which it is reasonable to expect would apply if the trustee or investment manager, as the case may be, were dealing with the other party at arm's length in the same circumstances.
- (1A) If:
- (a) a trustee or investment manager of a superannuation entity invests in that capacity; and
 - (b) at any time during the term of the investment the trustee or investment manager is required to deal in respect of the investment with another party that is not at arm's length with the trustee or investment manager;
- the trustee or investment manager must deal with the other party in the same manner as if the other party were at arm's length with the trustee or investment manager.

115 Trustee of superannuation entity may maintain reserves

- (3) If the governing rules of a registrable superannuation entity are inconsistent with subsection (2):
 - (a) subsection (2) prevails; and
 - (b) the governing rules are invalid, to the extent of the inconsistency.

116 Agreement between trustee and investment manager

Despite anything in the governing rules of a superannuation entity, any provision of an agreement between a trustee of the entity and an investment manager that purports to exempt the investment manager from liability for negligence, or to limit that liability, is void.

Section 117

117 Circumstances in which amounts may be paid out of an employer-sponsored fund to an employer-sponsor

Excluded superannuation funds

- (2) This section does not apply to an excluded superannuation fund during the period:
- (a) beginning on 21 October 1992; and
 - (b) ending immediately before the day on which subsection (2A) commenced.

Self managed superannuation funds

- (2A) This section does not apply to a self managed superannuation fund if, at all times after the day on which this subsection commenced when the fund was in existence, the fund was a self managed superannuation fund.

Basic prohibition

- (3) Except as provided by this section, a trustee of a standard employer-sponsored fund must not pay an amount, or permit an amount to be paid, out of the fund to a standard employer-sponsor.
- (3A) Subsection (3) does not apply in circumstances where:
- (a) its application would result in the acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms; and
 - (b) the acquisition would be invalid because of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

Exception—management services

- (4) A reasonable amount may be paid out of any standard employer-sponsored fund to a standard employer-sponsor for services rendered in connection with the management or operation of the fund.

Exception—special procedures followed

- (5) An amount may be paid out of a standard employer-sponsored fund to a standard employer-sponsor if the following requirements are fulfilled:

 - (b) whichever of the following subparagraphs is applicable has been complied with:
 - (i) if the fund has a single corporate trustee:
 - (A) the directors of the trustee have, by resolution, declared their intention to pay the amount out of the fund to the employer-sponsor; and
 - (B) when that resolution was passed, the board of the corporate trustee complied with the basic equal representation rules under Part 9;
 - (ii) if the fund has a group of individual trustees:
 - (A) the trustees have, by resolution, declared their intention to pay the amount out of the fund to the employer-sponsor; and

 - (i) an actuary had given a written certificate to the trustee, or the trustees, of the fund stating that, if the amount were paid, the fund would remain in a satisfactory financial position; and
 - (ii) the trustee, or the trustees, were satisfied that the payment of the amount and the making of the changes (if any) to the governing rules were reasonable having

Section 117

- regard to the interests of the employer-sponsor and of the beneficiaries in the fund;
- (d) a trustee of the fund gave notice in accordance with the governing rules to all members of the fund:

 - (e) at the end of 3 months after the notice mentioned in paragraph (d) was given to members, the provisions of whichever of the following subparagraphs is applicable were complied with:
 - (i) if the fund has a single corporate trustee—the directors of the corporate trustee passed a resolution agreeing to pay the amount out of the fund to the employer-sponsor;
 - (ii) if the fund has a group of individual trustees—the trustees passed a resolution agreeing to pay the amount out of the fund to the employer-sponsor;
 - (iii) in any other case—the trustee decided to make the payment;
 - (f) any other requirements made by the regulations.
- (5A) The requirement in paragraph (5)(d) is taken not to have been fulfilled unless the notice is given in a way that enables each trustee of the fund to be reasonably satisfied that the notice came to the attention of all the members of the fund other than members who are lost members within the meaning of the regulations.

APRA may waive requirements

- (6) APRA may waive any or all of the requirements specified in subsection (5) in relation to a matter occurring on or after the date of commencement of this section.

- (7) The Regulator must notify the applicant of any police force, agency or court of which the Regulator intends to make inquiries.
- (8) Such notification should if possible be given to the applicant as soon as practicable after a decision has been made to approach that police force, agency or court.

126C Application must be decided within a period of time

- (1) Subject to this section, the Regulator must decide an application made under section 126B within 60 days after receiving it.
- (2) If the Regulator thinks that it will take longer than 60 days to decide the application, the Regulator may extend the period for deciding it by no more than 60 days.
- (3) The extension must be notified in writing to the applicant within 60 days after the Regulator receives the application.
- (4) If the Regulator makes an extension, the Regulator must decide the application within the extended period.

126D Notifying of the outcome of an application

- (1A) If, having regard to any of the following:
- (a) the offence to which the application relates;

Section 126D

- (c) the applicant's age when the applicant committed the offence;
 - (d) the orders made by the court in relation to the offence;
 - (e) any other relevant matter;
- the Regulator is satisfied that the applicant is highly unlikely to:

 - (g) do anything that would result in a self managed superannuation fund not complying with this Act;
- the Regulator must, by notice in writing given to the applicant, make a declaration waiving the applicant's status as a disqualified person for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) Despite any declaration waiving an applicant's status as a disqualified person for the purposes of this Part, the applicant will still be a disqualified person if:
- (a) the applicant had been convicted of an offence involving dishonest conduct that the applicant did not include in the application; or
 - (b) a civil penalty order has been made against the applicant; or
 - (c) the applicant is insolvent under administration.
- (3) If the Regulator decides not to make a declaration waiving the applicant's status as a disqualified person for the purposes of this Part, the Regulator must:
- (a) by notice in writing, record that it has so decided; and
 - (b) give the applicant a statement, to which a copy of the notice referred to in paragraph (a) is attached, telling the applicant:
 - (i) that the Regulator has so decided and of the reasons for that decision; and
 - (ii) that the applicant must resign immediately and confirm that resignation, in writing, to the Regulator; and
 - (iii) that if the applicant fails so to resign and is the responsible officer of a body corporate that is a trustee, investment manager or custodian of a superannuation entity the Regulator will tell the body corporate of the applicant's status as a disqualified person.

Section 126E

- (4) If the Regulator becomes aware that the responsible officer of a body corporate that is a trustee, investment manager or custodian of a superannuation entity has failed to resign in accordance with the requirements of a statement under paragraph (3)(b) the Regulator must tell the body corporate that the applicant is a disqualified person.

126E The effect of seeking a waiver of disqualified person status

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is a disqualified person; and
 - (b) the person is eligible to make application for a declaration waiving his or her status as a disqualified person; and
 - (c) the person makes application for such a declaration under subsection 126B(3) within the application period specified in that subsection;
- the person is treated, for the purposes of this Act, (other than the purpose of the application for the declaration) as not being, and as never having been, a disqualified person until that application is decided.
- (2) On deciding an application for a declaration waiving the disqualified person status of a person to whom paragraphs 1(a), (b) and (c) apply:
- (a) if the Regulator decides to make the declaration, the Act applies as if the person had never been disqualified; and
 - (b) if the Regulator decides not to make the declaration, the person again becomes a disqualified person from the date of the decision.
- (3) If:
- (a) a person is a disqualified person; and
 - (b) the person is eligible to make application for a declaration waiving his or her status as a disqualified person; and
 - (c) the person makes application for such a declaration under subsection 126B(4);

then:

- (d) pending the decision of the application the person continues to be a disqualified person for the purposes of this Act; but
- (e) if the Regulator decides to make a declaration waiving the person's status as a disqualified person, the person is treated, for the purposes of this Act, as if the person had never been a disqualified person.

126F The Regulator's powers to seek further material

- (1) If, to decide an application under subsection 126B(1), the Regulator needs:
 - (a) further information; or
 - (b) the applicant's consent to the Regulator making inquiries about the applicant from another person;the Regulator may ask an applicant to provide information or consent.
- (2) The Regulator may, by notice in writing, require a person who has made an application under subsection 126B(1) to pay to the Regulator an amount equal to the amount of any fees charged to the Regulator by any law enforcement agency, regulatory agency or court for answering any inquiry by the Regulator about the applicant if the fees:
 - (a) are of a kind prescribed for the purposes of this subsection; and
 - (b) exceed an amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, or exceed, in total, such an amount.
- (3) The Regulator may, on the application of a person who has made an application under subsection 126B(1), waive in whole or in part, the requirement to pay an amount under subsection (2) if the Regulator is satisfied that there are special circumstances making it unfair to require the applicant to pay that amount or that part of that amount.
- (4) If the applicant fails to comply with the request, the Regulator must treat the application as having been withdrawn.
