“PART 8A—SUSPENSION OF FARM HOUSEHOLD SUPPORT IF DROUGHT RELIEF PAYMENT IS PAYABLE

Farm household support ceases to be payable if drought relief payment is payable

“49A. Farm household support ceases, and is taken to have ceased, to be payable to a person at the beginning of a period if the person is receiving, or has received, drought relief payment in respect of that period.

Suspension of farm household support where drought relief payment is payable—Division 2 of Part 6 not applicable

When section applies

“49B.(1) This section applies to a person if:

- (a) at a particular time (the ‘original FHS cessation time’), farm household support ceases, or ceased, to be payable to the person because drought relief payment becomes, or became, payable to the person; and
- (b) at a later time (the ‘DRP cessation time’), drought relief payment ceases to be payable to the person; and
- (c) immediately before the original FHS cessation time, the person was not qualified for farm household support under Division 2 of Part 6.

Note: Division 2 of Part 6 deals with certain former RAS (Part C) beneficiaries.

Deemed claim for farm household support

“(2) The person is taken to have made a proper claim (the ‘new FHS claim’) for farm household support under Part 3 immediately after the DRP cessation time.

Continuity of declarations etc.

“(3) If the Secretary determines under section 19 that the new FHS claim is to be granted, a declaration, direction or notice in force in relation to the person under section 23, 32 or 41 immediately before the original FHS cessation time has effect, in relation to farm household support payable as a result of the new FHS claim, as if the declaration, direction or notice, as the case requires, had been given immediately after the determination takes effect.

Deferral of repayments

“(4) For the purposes of subsection 50(1), the time at which farm household support ceased to be payable to the person as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section is taken to be:

SCHEDULE—continued

- (a) if the new FHS claim is granted—when farm household support payable to the person as a result of the new FHS claim ceases to be payable; or
- (b) in any other case—the DRP cessation time;
instead of the original FHS cessation time.

Extension of grant period

“(5) For the purposes of the application of sections 5 and 52 to the person:

- (a) the start of the person’s grant period is to be worked out as if farm household support were payable to the person throughout the period (the ‘interim period’):
 - (i) beginning at the original FHS cessation time; and
 - (ii) ending at the DRP cessation time; and
- (b) a period of 9 months or 2 years referred to in either of those sections is to be increased by one day for each whole day in the interim period.

Suspension of farm household support where drought relief payment is payable—Division 2 of Part 6 applicable

When section applies

“49C.(1) This section applies to a person if:

- (a) at a particular time (the ‘original FHS cessation time’), farm household support ceases, or ceased, to be payable to the person because drought relief payment becomes, or became, payable to the person; and
- (b) at a later time (the ‘DRP cessation time’), drought relief payment ceases to be payable to the person; and
- (c) immediately before the original FHS cessation time, the person was qualified for farm household support under Division 2 of Part 6.

Note: Division 2 of Part 6 deals with certain former RAS (Part C) beneficiaries.

Resumption of entitlement to farm household support

“(2) If the person is still qualified for farm household support under Division 2 of Part 6 immediately before the DRP cessation time, the person’s entitlement to farm household support under Division 2 of Part 6 resumes immediately after the DRP cessation time.

Continuity of directions etc.

“(3) If the person’s entitlement to farm household support resumes as mentioned in subsection (2), a direction or notice in force in relation to the person under section 32 or 41 immediately before the original FHS cessation time has effect, in relation to farm household support payable as a result of the resumption, as if the direction or notice, as the case requires, had been given immediately after the resumption.

Deferral of repayments

“(4) For the purposes of subsection 50(2), the time at which farm household support ceased to be payable to the person as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section is taken to be the time when farm household support payable to the person as a result of the resumption ceases to be payable, instead of the original FHS cessation time.

Extension of grant period

“(5) For the purposes of the application of sections 5 and 52 to the person, a period of 9 months or 2 years referred to in either of those sections is to be increased by one day for each whole day in the period:

- (a) beginning at the original FHS cessation time; and
- (b) ending at the DRP cessation time.

Continuity of the person’s status as a former RAS (Part C) beneficiary

“(6) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of ‘former RAS (Part C) beneficiary’ in subsection 3(2), and for the purposes of subsection 34(3), the person is taken to have been in receipt of farm household support throughout the period:

- (a) beginning at the original FHS cessation time; and
- (b) ending at the DRP cessation time.”.

66. Part 9 (heading):

Add at the end “OF FARM HOUSEHOLD SUPPORT”.

67. Paragraphs 54(1)(a), (b) and (c):

After “farm household support” insert “or drought relief payment”.

68. Paragraph 54(1)(a):

After “the support” insert “or the payment, as the case requires”.

69. Subsection 54(1):

Add at the end:

”; or (e) the rate at which drought relief payment is, or was, payable.”.

70. Paragraph 54(11)(b):

Omit “for a pension, benefit or allowance”.

71. Paragraph 54(11)(c):

Omit “of a pension, benefit or allowance”.

72. Section 55:

Omit “Farm household support is”, substitute “Both farm household support and drought relief payment are”.

73. Section 56:

After “farm household support” (first occurring) insert “or drought relief payment”.

74. Paragraphs 56(a) and (b):

After “farm household support” insert “or drought relief payment, as the case requires,”.

75. Paragraph 56(c):

Before “the amount” insert “in the case of an amount purporting to be an amount of farm household support—”.

76. Paragraph 56(c):

Add at the end “or”.

77. After paragraph 56(c):

Insert:

“(d) in the case of an amount purporting to be an amount of drought relief payment—the amount was part of a payment made because the drought relief payment payable to the person in respect of that period was calculated at a rate higher than the rate at which it should have been calculated;”.

78. Section 57:

Add at the end:

“(3) Drought relief payment is to be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is appropriated accordingly.”.

Division 2—Transitional provisions

79. Transitional—drought relief payment claim forms

(1) This item applies if, after 21 September 1994 and before the commencement of this item, an officer of the Department purported to approve a claim form for drought relief payment.

SCHEDULE—continued

(2) The form has effect, for the purposes of the Farm Household Support Act 1992, as if it had been approved by the Secretary under section 15 of that Act immediately after the commencement of this item.

80. Transitional—lodgment of claims

(1) This item applies if, after 21 September 1994 and before the commencement of this item:

- (a) a person purported to lodge a claim for drought relief payment; and
- (b) assuming that the claim had been lodged immediately after the commencement of this item, it would have complied with sections 15 and 16 of the Farm Household Support Act 1992.

(2) The claim has effect, for the purposes of the Farm Household Support Act 1992, as if:

- (a) it had been made under Part 3 of that Act immediately after the commencement of this item; and
- (b) it had complied with sections 15 and 16 of that Act.

81. Transitional—set-off of overpayments of farm household support

(1) If:

- (a) an amount purporting to be an amount of farm household support payable under the Farm Household Support Act 1992 was paid to a person after 21 September 1994 and before the commencement of this item; and
- (b) because of section 9A or 49A of that Act, the amount so paid was not payable to the person; and
- (c) the amount so paid is recoverable as a debt due to the Commonwealth under section 56 of the Farm Household Support Act 1992;

the amount so paid may be deducted from one or more instalments of drought relief payment payable to the person under that Act.

(2) If a deduction is made from an instalment of drought relief payment, the instalment is taken to have been paid in full to the person.

82. Transitional—set-off of pre-commencement “drought relief payment”

(1) This item applies if, after 21 September 1994 and before the commencement of this item, a person was paid an amount described as “drought relief payment” out of money appropriated under an Appropriation Act.

SCHEDULE—continued

(2) The amount is to be deducted from one or more instalments of drought relief payment payable to the person under the Farm Household Support Act 1992.

(3) If a deduction is made from an instalment of drought relief payment, the instalment is taken to have been paid in full to the person.

83. Transitional—farm household support claim forms

An approval in force under paragraph 15(b) of the Farm Household Support Act 1992 immediately before the commencement of this item has effect, after that commencement, as if it had been given under subparagraph 15(b)(i) of that Act.

PART 2—HEALTH INSURANCE ACT 1973

84. Subsection 3(1) (paragraph (aa) of the definition of “dependant”):

After “4D” insert “or 5DA”.

85. Subsection 3(13):

After “5D” insert “, 5DA”.

86. After section 5D:

Insert:

Disadvantaged persons, being persons in receipt of drought relief payment

Original declaration

“5DA.(1) If:

- (a) drought relief payment is payable to a person in respect of a period (the ‘DRP period’) beginning on or after 1 October 1994; and
- (b) there is no declaration in force under this section in respect of the person;

the Secretary must declare the person to be a disadvantaged person within the meaning of this section in respect of a period specified in the declaration. The specified period is to be a period of 12 weeks beginning at the start of the DRP period.

Subsequent declarations

“(2) If:

- (a) a declaration (the ‘original declaration’) under this section is in force in respect of a person; and

SCHEDULE—continued

(b) drought relief payment is payable to the person immediately before the end of the period specified in the original declaration; the Secretary must declare the person to be a disadvantaged person within the meaning of this section in respect of a period specified in the declaration. The specified period is to be a period of 12 weeks beginning at the end of the period specified in the original declaration.

Declarations to be in writing etc.

“(3) A declaration under subsection (1) or (2) is to be in writing and notice of it is to be given to the person concerned.

Definitions

“(4) In this section:

‘drought relief payment’ means drought relief payment under the Farm Household Support Act 1992;

‘Secretary’ means the Secretary to the Department of Social Security.”.
