

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Statutory Rules 1983 No. 6

Royal Commissions Regulations

(Issued under the authority of the Prime Minister)

The Royal Commissions Regulations provide as follows:-

(a) Regulations 1 and 2

Formal. Provide for citation and interpretation.

(b) Regulation 3

Provides that a summons to a person to appear before a Royal Commission shall be in the form set out in the Schedule.

(c) Regulation 4

Provides that a summons shall be served, where the person named in the summons is an individual, by personal service on that person, and where the person named in the summons is a corporation, by service of the summons on a person who is apparently an officer of or employed by the corporation and apparently of or above the age of 16 years at the registered office of the corporation or its principal place of business.

WJ

S.R. No. 13/83