7 At the end of Part 7

Add:

Division 3—Secretary may require aviation security information

111 Secretary may require aviation security information

- (1) Information that is not security compliance information and is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section is aviation security information.
- (2) Without limiting the kinds of information that may be prescribed by regulations made under subsection (1), the regulations may prescribe the following kinds of information as aviation security information:
  - (a) statistics relating to the screening of people, vehicles, goods or cargo for entry to cleared areas or cleared zones;
  - (b) statistics relating to the people, vehicles, goods or cargo that go through a screening process and:
    - (i) receive clearance as a result of going through the screening process; or
    - (ii) do not receive clearance as a result of going through the screening process and the reason or reasons for not receiving clearance;
  - (c) information about activities undertaken, or to be undertaken, to ensure that people, vehicles, goods or cargo that have not received clearance are not in cleared areas or cleared zones;
  - (d) information about activities undertaken, or to be undertaken, at an airport for the purposes of safeguarding against unlawful interferences with aviation;
  - (e) information about the controls that apply, or will apply, to airside areas, airside security zones, airside event zones, landside areas, landside security zones or landside event zones.
- (3) If the Secretary believes, on reasonable grounds, that an aviation industry participant has aviation security information, the Secretary may, by written notice given to the participant, require the participant to give the information to the Secretary.

- (4) The information must be given within the period and in the form and manner specified in the notice. The period must not be less than 14 days.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (4), the Secretary may specify in the notice any one or more of the following ways for the participant to give the information:
  - (a) orally;
  - (b) in writing;
  - (c) by electronic transmission.
- (6) A person commits an offence if the person fails to comply with a notice under subsection (3).

Penalty for an offence against this subsection: 45 penalty units.

112 Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from giving aviation security information under section 111 on the ground that the information might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.
- (2) However, if the person is a natural person:
  - (a) the information; and
  - (b) the giving of the information; and
  - (c) any information, document or thing obtained as a direct or indirect consequence of giving the information;are not admissible in evidence against the person in a criminal proceeding, or any other proceeding for the recovery of a penalty, other than a proceeding under section 137.1 or 137.2 of the Criminal Code that relates to the giving of the information.

8 Subsection 127(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) The Secretary may, by writing, delegate all or any of his or her powers and functions under this Act to a person of the following kind:
  - (a) an SES employee, or acting SES employee, in the Department;
  - (b) the Agency Head of an Agency that carries on activities that relate to national security.

- (1A) However, a delegation under paragraph (1)(b) has no effect unless the Agency Head of the Agency agrees to the delegation.

9 After section 127

Insert:

127A Sub-delegation

- (1) If the Secretary delegates a power or function to the Agency Head of an Agency under paragraph 127(1)(b), the Agency Head may, by writing, sub-delegate the power or function to an SES Band 3 employee in the Agency.
- (2) Sections 34AA, 34AB and 34A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 apply in relation to the sub-delegation in a corresponding way to the way in which they apply to a delegation.
- (3) In exercising powers or functions under a sub-delegation, the delegate must comply with any directions of the Agency Head of the Agency.
- (4) An SES Band 3 employee is an SES employee with a classification of Senior Executive Band 3, and includes an SES employee who has been temporarily assigned duties that have been allocated a classification of Senior Executive Band 3.

Part 2—Amendment of the Civil Aviation Act 1988

10 Before paragraph 32AP(3)(a)

Insert:

- (aa) copying or disclosure that is necessary for the purposes of checking whether equipment used to make a cockpit voice recording is functioning and reliable, provided the conditions set out in subsection (3A) are met; or

11 After subsection 32AP(3)

Insert:

- (3A) The conditions that must be met for the purposes of paragraph (3)(aa) are:
  - (a) the person who copies or discloses the CVR information for the purposes of checking the equipment is authorised to do so under the regulations; and
  - (b) that person honestly and reasonably believes on the information available to him or her that:
    - (i) the cockpit voice recording does not relate to a reportable matter (as defined for the purposes of the Transport Safety Investigation Act 2003); and
    - (ii) the cockpit voice recording does not relate to an offence under the law of the Commonwealth, or of a State or Territory; and
    - (iii) the crew members in relation to the CVR information were notified in writing, before the cockpit voice recording was made, of the intention to copy or disclose the CVR information for the purposes of checking whether the equipment used to make the recording is functioning and reliable.

Part 3—Amendment of the Transport Safety Investigation Act 2003

12 Section 3

Before “In”, insert “(1)”.

13 At the end of section 3

Add:

- (2) Regulations made for the purposes of the definition of immediately reportable matter or routine reportable matter may prescribe the matter by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, any matter contained in any other instrument or writing as in force from time to time.

14 Section 9

- (4) The Executive Director may, by notice in writing to a responsible person, require the person to give the Executive Director a written report in relation to an immediately reportable matter or a routine reportable matter within the period specified in the notice, by the means prescribed and including the particulars prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) The Executive Director must not require a responsible person to give a report under subsection (4) unless either:
  - (a) the Executive Director is satisfied that:
    - (i) the person has knowledge of the immediately reportable matter or routine reportable matter; but
    - (ii) the person is one to whom subsection (1) does not apply because of the operation of subsection (2) or (3); or
  - (b) the Executive Director is satisfied that:
    - (i) the person is one to whom subsection (1) applies despite the operation of subsection (2) or (3); and
    - (ii) the person may have information that was not communicated in a report given under subsection (1).
- (6) The responsible person must comply with the notice.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.
- (7) A prosecution of a person for an offence against subsection (1) may be commenced at any time within 6 years after the commission of the offence.

21 Subsection 24(1) (penalty)
