18 Constitutional basis for this Act and the Transitional Act

Application in a referring State

Division 3—Interaction between the Commonwealth credit legislation and State and Territory laws

23 Concurrent operation intended

- (1) This Act and the Transitional Act (the Commonwealth credit legislation) are not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of any law of a State or Territory.
- (2) If:
 - (a) an act or omission of a person is both an offence against the Commonwealth credit legislation and an offence against the law of a State or Territory; and

(b) the person is convicted of either of those offences; the person is not liable to be convicted of the other of those offences.

(3) This section does not apply to a law of a State or Territory if there is a direct inconsistency between that law and the Commonwealth credit legislation.

Note: Section 25 avoids direct inconsistency arising in some cases by limiting the operation of the Commonwealth credit legislation.

24 When Commonwealth credit legislation does not apply

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if a provision of a law of a referring State or a Territory declares a matter to be an excluded matter for the purposes of this section in relation to:
 - (a) the whole of the Commonwealth credit legislation; or
 - (b) a specified provision of the Commonwealth credit legislation; or
 - (c) the Commonwealth credit legislation other than a specified provision; or
 - (d) the Commonwealth credit legislation otherwise than to a specified extent.

Chapter 1 IntroductionPart 1-3 Application of this Act and the Transitional ActDivision 3 Interaction between the Commonwealth credit legislation and State and Territory laws

Section 25

- (2) By force of this subsection:
 - (a) none of the provisions of the Commonwealth credit legislation (other than this section) applies in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(a) applies; and
 - (b) the specified provision of the Commonwealth credit legislation does not apply in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(b) applies; and
 - (c) the provisions of the Commonwealth credit legislation (other than this section and the specified provisions) do not apply in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(c) applies; and
 - (d) the provisions of the Commonwealth credit legislation (other than this section and otherwise than to the specified extent) do not apply in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(d) applies.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the declaration to the extent to which the regulations provide that that subsection does not apply to that declaration.

25 Avoiding direct inconsistency between Commonwealth and State and Territory laws

This section overrides other Commonwealth credit legislation

(1) This section has effect despite anything else in the Commonwealth credit legislation.

When this section does not apply to a State or Territory law

(2) This section does not apply to a provision of a law of a referring State or a Territory that is capable of concurrent operation with the Commonwealth credit legislation.

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

40

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

Note: This kind of provision is dealt with by section 23.

When this section applies to a State or Territory law

(3) This section applies to the interaction between a provision (the displacement provision) of a law of a referring State or a Territory and a provision (the Commonwealth provision) of the Commonwealth credit legislation only if the displacement provision is declared by a law of the State or Territory to be a Commonwealth credit legislation displacement provision for the purposes of this section (either generally or specifically in relation to the Commonwealth provision).

Effect of displacement provision

- (4) The Commonwealth provision does not:
 - (a) prohibit the doing of an act; or

(b) impose a liability (whether civil or criminal) for doing an act; if the displacement provision specifically permits, authorises or requires the doing of that act.

- (5) The Commonwealth provision does not operate in or in relation to the State or Territory to the extent necessary to ensure that no inconsistency arises between:
 - (a) the Commonwealth provision; and
 - (b) the displacement provision to the extent to which the displacement provision would, apart from this subsection, be inconsistent with the Commonwealth provision.
 - Note 1: The displacement provision is not covered by this subsection if subsection (4) applies to the displacement provision: if that subsection applies there would be no potential inconsistency to be dealt with by this subsection.
 - Note 2: The operation of the displacement provision will be supported by section 23 to the extent to which it can operate concurrently with the Commonwealth provision.
- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply in relation to the displacement provision to the extent to which the regulations provide that those subsections do not apply in relation to the displacement provision.

26 Regulations to deal with interaction between laws

- (1) The regulations may modify the operation of the Commonwealth credit legislation so that:
 - (a) provisions of the Commonwealth credit legislation do not apply to a matter that is dealt with by a law of a referring State or a Territory specified in the regulations; or
 - (b) no inconsistency arises between the operation of a provision of the Commonwealth credit legislation and the operation of a provision of a law of a referring State or a Territory specified in the regulations.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), regulations made for the purposes of that subsection may provide that a provision of the Commonwealth credit legislation:
 - (a) does not apply to:
 - (i) a person specified in the regulations; or
 - (ii) a body specified in the regulations; or
 - (iii) circumstances specified in the regulations; or
 - (iv) a person or body specified in the regulations in the circumstances specified in the regulations; or
 - (b) does not prohibit an act to the extent to which the prohibition would otherwise give rise to an inconsistency with a law of a referring State or a Territory; or
 - (c) does not require a person to do an act to the extent to which the requirement would otherwise give rise to an inconsistency with a law of a referring State or a Territory; or
 - (d) does not authorise a person to do an act to the extent to which the conferral of that authority on the person would otherwise give rise to an inconsistency with a law of a referring State or a Territory; or
 - (e) does not impose an obligation on a person to the extent to which complying with that obligation would require the person not to comply with an obligation imposed on the person under a law of a referring State or a Territory; or

- For the purposes of paragraph 37(1)(c), subsection 46A(2) and paragraph 55(1)(c), the requirement in this section is satisfied in relation to a person (the first person) and a licence, or a proposed licence, if ASIC is satisfied that there is no reason to believe any of the following:
 - (a) that the first person is not a fit and proper person to engage in the credit activities authorised by the licence;
 - (b) if the first person is a body corporate—that an officer (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) of the first person is not a fit and proper person to perform one or more functions as an officer of a person that engages in the credit activities authorised by the licence;
 - (c) if the first person is a partnership or the multiple trustees of a trust:

of an entity (as defined by section 64A of that Act) that controls a person that engages in the credit activities authorised by the licence;

- (f) if a controller mentioned in paragraph (d) is a partnership or the multiple trustees of a trust:
 - (i) that any of the partners or trustees are not fit and proper persons to control a person that engages in the credit activities authorised by the licence; or
 - (ii) that any of the senior managers of the partnership or the trust are not fit and proper persons to perform one or more functions as an officer (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) of an entity (as defined by section 64A of that Act) that controls a person that engages in the credit activities authorised by the licence.
- (2) In considering whether a person is fit and proper for a purpose mentioned in subsection (1), ASIC must have regard to the matters in section 37B.

37B Fit and proper person test—matters to which ASIC must have regard

- (1) ASIC must have regard to the matters set out in subsection (2) (subject to Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914) for the purposes of applying any of the following provisions to a person:
 - (a) a paragraph of subsection 37A(1);
 - (b) paragraph 80(1)(f).
 - Note: Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 includes provisions that, in certain circumstances, relieve persons from the requirement to disclose spent convictions and require persons aware of such convictions to disregard them.
- (2) The matters are as follows:
 - (a) whether any of the following of the person has ever been suspended or cancelled:
 - (i) a licence, or a registration under the Transitional Act;
 - (ii) an Australian financial services licence;

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

55

- (b) whether any of the following has ever been made against the person:
 - (i) a banning order, or a disqualification order under Part 2-4;
 - (ii) a banning order, or a disqualification order, under Division 8 of Part 7.6 of the Corporations Act 2001;
- (c) if the person is an individual—whether the person has ever been disqualified under the Corporations Act 2001, or any other law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory, from managing corporations;
- (d) whether the person has ever been banned from engaging in a credit activity under a law of a State or Territory;

- (h) whether, in the last 10 years, the person has been convicted of an offence;
- (i) any relevant information given to ASIC by a State or Territory, or an authority of a State or Territory, in relation to the person;
- (j) any other matter prescribed by the regulations;
- (k) any other matter ASIC considers relevant.

38 When a licence may be granted—ADIs

- If:
 - (a) an ADI applies under section 36 for a licence; and
 - (b) the application includes a statement (in accordance with the requirements of the approved form) to the effect that the ADI will, if granted the licence, comply with its obligations as a licensee;

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

56

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

then ASIC must grant the ADI a licence authorising the ADI to engage in credit activities that equate (as closely as possible) to the credit activities in relation to which the application was made.

39 Regulations may prescribe streamlined process for other applicants

Despite sections 36 and 37, the regulations may provide that:

- (a) some or all of sections 36 and 37 do not apply in relation to particular classes of applicants; and
- (b) alternative processes apply to applications for licences by, and the grant of licences to, those classes of applicants.

40 Licences must not be granted to certain applicants

Banning or disqualification order in force against person

(1) Despite subsection 37(1) and section 38, ASIC must not grant a licence that authorises a person to engage in a credit activity if a banning order or disqualification order under Part 2-4 is in force against the person in relation to that credit activity.

Prescribed State or Territory order in force against person etc.

- (2) Despite subsection 37(1) and section 38, ASIC must not grant a licence to a person if:
 - (a) the person is a natural person against whom a prescribed State or Territory order is in force; or
 - (b) the person is a body corporate, and a prescribed State or Territory order is in force against a director, secretary or senior manager of the body corporate who would perform duties in relation to the credit activities to be authorised by the licence; or

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

Note: ASIC must not grant a licence to a person contrary to a banning order or disqualification order, or if a prescribed State or Territory order is in force against the person or certain representatives of the person (see section 40).

(c) the person is a partnership or the trustees of a trust, and a prescribed State or Territory order is in force against a partner or trustee who would perform duties in relation to the credit activities to be authorised by the licence.

41 Applicant must be given hearing before refusal of licence

ASIC may only refuse to grant a licence after giving the person who applied for the licence an opportunity:

- (a) to appear, or be represented, at a hearing before ASIC that takes place in private; and
- (b) to make submissions to ASIC in relation to the refusal.

42 Notice of grant or refusal of licence and date of effect

- (1) ASIC must give a person (the applicant) who has applied for a licence written notice of:
 - (a) ASIC's decision on the application; and
 - (b) if the decision is to grant the applicant a licence—the day on which the licence takes effect; and
 - (c) if the decision is not to grant the applicant a licence—the reasons for the decision.
- (2) The licence comes into force on the day specified in the notice, which must not be before the day on which the decision to grant the licence was made.

43 Australian credit licence numbers

- (1) ASIC must allocate each licence a unique Australian credit licence number when it is granted.
- (2) If:
 - (a) a person is granted a licence; and
 - (b) the person holds an Australian financial services licence;

then the Australian credit licence number that ASIC gives to the licence held by that person must be the same number as the person's Australian financial services licence number.

Compilation No. 23

58

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

(3) ASIC must give the licensee written notice of the Australian credit licence number.

- (a) conditions on the licence may be imposed, varied or revoked under section 45 or 46; and
- (b) the licence may be suspended under section 54, 55 or 56; and
- (c) the licence may be cancelled under section 54, 55 or 56; and

Notice and effect of imposition, variation or revocation of conditions

(4) ASIC must give the licensee written notice of the imposition, variation or revocation of the conditions. The imposition, variation or revocation of the conditions comes into force on the day specified in the notice, which must not be before the day on which the decision to impose, vary or revoke the conditions was made.

ASIC must give the licensee a hearing

- (5) Despite subsection (1), ASIC may only impose conditions or additional conditions, or vary or revoke the conditions, on the licence after giving the licensee an opportunity:
 - (a) to appear, or be represented, at a hearing before ASIC that takes place in private; and
 - (b) to make submissions to ASIC in relation to the conditions.

This subsection does not apply to ASIC imposing conditions when the licence is granted, or imposing or varying conditions in accordance with an application under paragraph (2)(b).

46 Licence conditions—special procedures for APRA-regulated bodies

Special procedures for APRA-regulated bodies (other than ADIs)

- (1) If the licensee, or a related body corporate, is a body (the APRA body) regulated by APRA (other than an ADI), then the following provisions apply:
 - (a) ASIC cannot:
 - (i) impose, vary or revoke a condition on the licence that, in ASIC's opinion, has or would have the result of preventing the APRA body from being able to carry on all or any of its usual activities (being activities in relation to which APRA has regulatory or supervisory responsibilities); or
 - (ii) vary a condition so that it would, in ASIC's opinion, become a condition that would have a result as described in subparagraph (i);

unless ASIC has first consulted APRA about the proposed action;

(b) if ASIC imposes, varies or revokes a condition on the licence and paragraph (a) does not apply to that action, ASIC must, within one week, inform APRA of the action that has been taken.

- (b) the following provisions apply in relation to a power to which paragraph (a) applies:
 - (i) the procedures for the exercise of the power are the same as would apply if ASIC could exercise the power, except that the Minister must not exercise the power unless he or she has first considered advice from ASIC on the proposed action, being advice given after ASIC has consulted APRA about the proposed action;
 - (ii) ASIC (rather than the Minister) must still conduct any hearing required under paragraph 45(5)(a) and receive any submissions under paragraph 45(5)(b);

- (a) if the person is not the trustees of a trust—the person is insolvent;

 - (ii) the person is incapable of managing his or her affairs because of physical or mental incapacity; or
 - (iii) a prescribed State or Territory order is in force against the person.
- (3) An application for suspension or cancellation of a licence must be in the approved form.

55 Suspension or cancellation after offering a hearing

56 Suspension and cancellation—special procedures for APRA-regulated bodies

Special procedures for APRA-regulated bodies (other than ADIs)

- If a licensee, or a related body corporate, is a body (the APRA body) regulated by APRA (other than an ADI), then the following provisions apply:
 - (a) ASIC cannot suspend or cancel the licensee's licence if doing so would, in ASIC's opinion, have the result of preventing the APRA body from being able to carry on all or any of its usual activities (being activities in relation to which APRA has regulatory or supervisory responsibilities), unless ASIC has first consulted APRA about the proposed action;
 - (b) if ASIC suspends or cancels the licensee's licence and paragraph (a) does not apply to that action, ASIC must, within one week, inform APRA of the action that has been taken.

Section 57

Special procedures for ADIs

- (2) If:
 - (a) a licensee is an ADI; or
 - (b) a related body corporate of a licensee is an ADI, and cancellation or suspension of the licensee's licence would, in ASIC's opinion, have the result of preventing the ADI from being able to carry on all or any of its banking business (within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959);

then the following provisions have effect:

- (c) subject to paragraph (d), the powers that ASIC would otherwise have under this Division to cancel or suspend the licensee's licence, or to revoke a suspension to which this subsection applied, are instead powers of the Minister;
- (d) the procedures for the exercise of a power to which paragraph (c) applies are the same as would apply if ASIC could exercise the power, except that the Minister must not exercise the power unless he or she has first considered advice from ASIC on the proposed action, being advice given after ASIC has consulted APRA about the proposed action;
- (e) ASIC (rather than the Minister) must still conduct any hearing required under paragraph 55(4)(a) and receive any submissions under paragraph 55(4)(b).

Subdivision B—Variations

57 Varying licences

ASIC may vary a person's licence to take account of a change in the person's name.

Note: The conditions on the licence can be varied under section 45.

58 Effect of suspension

- (1) A suspended licence has no effect while it remains suspended.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 62 (which deals with the continued effect of some suspended or cancelled licences).

59 Revocation of suspension

ASIC may at any time revoke the suspension of a licence.

60 Date of effect, notice and publication of variation, cancellation or suspension etc.

- (1) ASIC must give a licensee written notice of a variation, suspension, revocation of a suspension, or cancellation of the licensee's licence.

61 Statement of reasons

A notice of suspension or cancellation given to a licensee must be accompanied by a statement of reasons for the action taken.

62 ASIC may allow licence to continue in force

(1) If ASIC gives a written notice of suspension or cancellation to a licensee, ASIC may include terms in the notice specifying that the licence continues in force as though the suspension or cancellation had not happened for the purposes of specified provisions of this Act in relation to specified matters, a specified period, or both.

Part 2-3—Credit representatives and other representatives of licensees

Division 1—Introduction

63 Guide to this Part

This Part is about credit representatives of licensees (which are a particular type of representative of licensees). A person who is authorised as a credit representative of a licensee does not need to hold an Australian credit licence when engaging in credit activities on behalf of the licensee.

This Part also deals with information that ASIC may give to licensees about their representatives (such as their employees, directors and credit representatives, and persons who act on their behalf), and the liability of licensees for their representatives.

Division 2 deals with how a credit representative may be authorised to engage in credit activities on behalf of a licensee. It also deals with certain obligations of licensees in relation to the authorisation of their credit representatives.

Division 3 deals with information about representatives that ASIC may give to a licensee and the use of that information.

Division 4 deals with the liability of licensees for the conduct of their representatives.

Chapter 2 Licensing of persons who engage in credit activitiesPart 2-3 Credit representatives and other representatives of licenseesDivision 2 Authorisation of credit representatives

Section 64

Division 2—Authorisation of credit representatives

64 Licensee may authorise credit representatives

Authorisation of credit representative by licensee

- (1) A licensee may give a person a written notice authorising the person to engage in specified credit activities on behalf of the licensee.
- (2) A person who is authorised under subsection (1) is a credit representative of the relevant licensee.
- (3) The credit activities specified may be some or all of the credit activities authorised by the licensee's licence.

When authorisation is of no effect

- (4) The authorisation:
 - (a) is of no effect if subsection (5) applies to it when it is given; and
 - (b) ceases to have effect if and when subsection (5) starts to apply to it after it is given;

to the extent that subsection (5) applies.

- (5) This section applies to the authorisation to the extent that it purports to authorise:
 - (a) a person to engage in a credit activity that is not authorised by the licensee's licence; or
 - (b) a person to engage in a credit activity, and a banning order or disqualification order under Part 2-4 is in force against the person in relation to the credit activity; or
 - (c) a person who is not a member of the AFCA scheme; or
 - (d) a person who is banned from engaging in a credit activity under a law of a State or Territory; or
 - (e) a natural person who has been convicted, within the last 10 years, of serious fraud; or

- (f) a natural person against whom a prescribed State or Territory order is in force; or
- (g) a person that is a body corporate, if a prescribed State or Territory order is in force against a director, secretary or senior manager of the body corporate who would perform duties in relation to the credit activities specified in the authorisation; or
- (h) a person that is a partnership or the trustees of a trust, if a prescribed State or Territory order is in force against a partner or trustee who would perform duties in relation to the credit activities specified in the authorisation.

65 Credit representative that is a body corporate may sub-authorise natural persons as credit representatives

Authorisation of natural person as credit representative by credit representative that is a body corporate

- (1) A body corporate that is a credit representative of a licensee may, in that capacity, give a natural person a written notice authorising that natural person to engage in specified credit activities on behalf of the licensee.
- (2) A natural person who is authorised under subsection (1) is a credit representative of the relevant licensee.
- (3) The credit activities specified may be some or all of the credit activities authorised by the licensee's licence.

Licensee must give consent to authorisation

(4) The authorisation can only be given if the licensee gives the body corporate its written consent to the authorisation. The licensee may give consent in relation to either a specified natural person or a specified class of natural persons (the membership of which might change from time to time).

 - (b) ceases to have effect if and when subsection (6) starts to apply to it after it is given;

to the extent that subsection (6) applies.

- (6) This subsection applies to the authorisation to the extent that it purports to authorise:
 - (a) a natural person to engage in a credit activity that is not authorised by the licensee's licence; or
 - (b) a natural person to engage in a credit activity, and a banning order or disqualification order under Part 2-4 is in force against the natural person in relation to the credit activity; or
 - (c) a natural person who is not a member of the AFCA scheme; or
 - (d) a natural person who is banned from engaging in a credit activity under a law of a State or Territory; or
 - (e) a natural person who has been convicted, within the last 10 years, of serious fraud; or
 - (f) a natural person against whom a prescribed State or Territory order is in force; or
 - (g) a natural person in relation to the authorisation of whom the licensee has not given its written consent in accordance with subsection (4).
- (7) To avoid doubt, an authorisation under subsection (1) is taken, for the purposes of sections 66 to 72, to be given by the body corporate, not the licensee.

66 Credit representative of 2 or more licensees

(1) One person can be the credit representative of 2 or more licensees, but only if:

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

- (a) each of those licensees has consented to the person also being the credit representative of each of the other licensees; or
- (b) each of the licensees is a related body corporate of each of the other licensees.
- (2) An authorisation:
 - (a) is of no effect if it contravenes subsection (1) when it is given; and
 - (b) ceases to have effect if and when it starts to contravene subsection (1) after it is given.

67 A person cannot be a credit representative in relation to credit activities authorised by a person's licence

- (1) A person must not authorise another person to engage in a credit activity as a credit representative under subsection 64(1) or 65(1) if the other person holds a licence authorising the person to engage in the credit activity.

 - (a) is of no effect if it contravenes subsection (1) when it is given; and
 - (b) ceases to have effect if and when it starts to contravene subsection (1) after it is given.

Chapter 3—Responsible lending conduct

Part 3-1—Licensees that provide credit assistance in relation to credit contracts

Division 1—Introduction

111 Guide to this Part

This Part has rules that apply to licensees that provide credit assistance in relation to credit contracts. These rules are aimed at better informing consumers and preventing them from being in unsuitable credit contracts. However, these rules do not apply to a licensee that will be the credit provider under the credit contract.

Division 2 requires a licensee to give its credit guide to a consumer. The credit guide has information about the licensee and some of the licensee's obligations under this Act.

Division 3 requires a licensee to give a quote before providing credit assistance to a consumer. The quote must set out the maximum amount the consumer will be required to pay to the licensee. The licensee must not charge more than that amount.

Division 4 requires a licensee, before providing credit assistance to a consumer in relation to a credit contract, to make a preliminary assessment as to whether the contract will be unsuitable for the consumer. To do this, the licensee must make inquiries and verifications about the consumer's requirements, objectives and financial situation. The licensee must give the consumer a copy of the assessment if requested.

Division 5 requires a licensee, when providing credit assistance to a consumer in relation to a credit contract, to give the consumer a document that discloses certain information (for example, the indirect remuneration the licensee is likely to receive).

Division 7 prohibits a licensee from providing credit assistance to a consumer in relation to short-term credit contracts. It also imposes requirements on a licensee who makes representations about providing credit assistance in relation to small amount credit contracts.

112 Application of this Part

This Part does not apply in relation to credit assistance provided by a licensee in relation to a credit contract if the licensee is or will be the credit provider under the contract.

Part 3-2—Licensees that are credit providers under credit contracts: general rules

Division 1—Introduction

125 Guide to this Part

This Part has rules that apply to licensees that are credit providers. These rules are aimed at better informing consumers and preventing them from being in unsuitable credit contracts.

Division 2 requires a licensee to give its credit guide to a consumer. The credit guide has information about the licensee and some of the licensee's obligations under this Act.

Division 3 requires a licensee, before doing particular things (such as entering a credit contract), to make an assessment as to whether the contract will be unsuitable. To do this, the licensee must make inquiries and verifications about the consumer's requirements, objectives and financial situation. The licensee must give the consumer a copy of the assessment if requested.

Division 4 prohibits a licensee from entering or increasing the credit limit of a credit contract that is unsuitable for a consumer.

Part 3-3—Licensees that provide credit assistance in relation to consumer leases

Division 1—Introduction

134 Guide to this Part

This Part has rules that apply to licensees that provide credit assistance in relation to consumer leases. These rules are aimed at better informing consumers and preventing them from being in unsuitable consumer leases. However, these rules do not apply to a licensee that will be the lessor under the consumer lease.

Division 2 requires a licensee to give its credit guide to a consumer. The credit guide has information about the licensee and some of the licensee's obligations under this Act.

Division 3 requires a licensee to give a quote before providing credit assistance to a consumer. The quote must set out the maximum amount the consumer will be required to pay to the licensee. The licensee must not charge more than that amount.

Division 4 requires a licensee, before providing credit assistance to a consumer in relation to a consumer lease, to make a preliminary assessment as to whether the lease will be unsuitable for the consumer. To do this, the licensee must make inquiries and verifications about the consumer's requirements, objectives and financial situation. The licensee must give the consumer a copy of the assessment if requested.

Division 5 requires a licensee, when providing credit assistance to a consumer in relation to a consumer lease, to give the consumer a document that discloses certain information (for example, the indirect remuneration the licensee is likely to receive).

To do this, the licensee must make inquiries and verifications about the consumer's requirements, objectives and financial situation. The licensee must give the consumer a copy of the assessment if requested.

(2) If a declaration has been made under section 166 that the person has contravened the provision, the court may order the person to pay to the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty that the court considers is appropriate (but not more than the amount specified in section 167A).

Determining pecuniary penalty

 - (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered because of the contravention; and
 - (c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and

- (1) The pecuniary penalty applicable to the contravention of a civil penalty provision by an individual is the greater of:
 - (a) the penalty specified for the civil penalty provision; and
 - (b) if the court can determine the benefit derived and detriment avoided because of the contravention—that amount multiplied by 3.

167C Relinquishing the benefit derived from contravening a civil penalty provision

Relinquishment order

- (1) A court may order a person to pay the Commonwealth an amount equal to the benefit derived and detriment avoided because of a contravention of a civil penalty provision if a declaration of contravention by the person has been made under section 166. The order is a relinquishment order.
- (2) The court may make a relinquishment order:
 - (a) on its own initiative during proceedings before the court; or
 - (b) on application by ASIC, made within 6 years after the alleged contravention.

Relationship between relinquishment orders and pecuniary penalty orders

- (3) To avoid doubt, the court may make a relinquishment order in relation to the contravention of a civil penalty provision even if a pecuniary penalty order could be, or has been, made in relation to the contravention of the civil penalty provision.

Division 3—General provisions relating to civil penalty provisions

168 Contravening a civil penalty provision is not an offence

A contravention of a civil penalty provision is not an offence.

169 Attempt and involvement in contravention treated in same way as actual contravention

A person who:

- (a) attempts to contravene a civil penalty provision; or
- (b) is involved in a contravention of a civil penalty provision; is taken to have contravened the provision.

170 Civil evidence and procedure rules for proceedings relating to civil penalty provisions

The court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings relating to a contravention, or proposed contravention, of a civil penalty provision.

171 Criminal proceedings before civil proceedings

The court must not make a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a relinquishment order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

172 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

(1) Proceedings for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a relinquishment order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if:

270	National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009
Compilation No. 23	Compilation date: 23/06/2020	Registered: 21/07/2020

- (a) criminal proceedings are brought or have already been brought against the person for an offence; and
- (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct in relation to which the declaration or order would be made.
- (2) The proceedings for the declaration or order (the civil proceedings) may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise:
 - (a) the civil proceedings are dismissed; and
 - (b) costs must not be awarded in relation to the civil proceedings.

173 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be brought against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a relinquishment order has been made against the person under this Division.

174 Evidence given in proceedings for pecuniary penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

- Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by a natural person is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the natural person if:
 - (a) the natural person previously gave the information or produced the documents in proceedings for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a relinquishment order against the natural person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the declaration or order was made); and
 - (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct in relation to which the declaration or order was sought.

(2) However, this does not apply to criminal proceedings in relation to the falsity of the evidence given by the natural person in the proceedings for the declaration or order.

175 Civil double jeopardy

- If a person is ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under a civil penalty provision in relation to particular conduct, the person is not liable to be ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under some other provision of a law of the Commonwealth in relation to that conduct.
 - Note: A court may make other orders, such as an order for compensation, in relation to particular conduct even if the court has made a pecuniary penalty order in relation to that conduct (see section 184).
- (2) If a relinquishment order is made against a person under section 167C in relation to particular conduct, the person is not liable to a relinquishment order under the Corporations Act 2001 or the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 in relation to that conduct.

175A Continuing contraventions of civil penalty provisions

- (1) If an act or thing is required under a civil penalty provision to be done:
 - (a) within a particular period; or
 - (b) before a particular time;

then the obligation to do that act or thing continues until the act or thing is done (even if the period has expired or the time has passed).

- (2) A person who contravenes a civil penalty provision that requires an act or thing to be done:
 - (a) within a particular period; or
 - (b) before a particular time;

commits a separate contravention of that provision in respect of each day during which the contravention occurs (including the day the relevant pecuniary penalty order is made or any later day).

175B State of mind

- (1) In proceedings for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order, a relinquishment order or any other order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, it is not necessary to prove:
 - (a) the person's intention; or
 - (b) the person's knowledge; or
 - (c) the person's recklessness; or
 - (d) the person's negligence; or
 - (e) any other state of mind of the person.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the proceedings relate to attempting to contravene a civil penalty provision, or being involved in a contravention of a civil penalty provision.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of section 175C (which is about mistake of fact).
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the civil penalty provision, or a provision that relates to the civil penalty provision, expressly provides otherwise.

175C Mistake of fact

- (1) A person is not liable to have a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order, a relinquishment order or any other order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:
 - (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:
 - (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and
 - (ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
 - (b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.

273

Section 175D

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
 - (a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
 - (b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.
- (3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (1) or (2) in proceedings bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.
- (4) In subsection (3), evidential burden, in relation to a matter, means the burden of adducing or pointing to evidence that suggests a reasonable possibility that the matter exists or does not exist.

175D Exceptions etc. to civil penalty provisions—burden of proof

- (1) If, in proceedings for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order, a relinquishment order or any other order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, the person wishes to rely on any exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification provided by the law creating the civil penalty provision, then the person bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.
- (2) In subsection (1), evidential burden, in relation to a matter, means the burden of adducing or pointing to evidence that suggests a reasonable possibility that the matter exists or does not exist.

175E Civil penalty provisions contravened by employees, agents or officers

177 Injunctions

- (1) If, on the application of ASIC or any other person, the court is satisfied that a person has engaged or is proposing to engage in conduct that constitutes or would constitute:
 - (a) a contravention of this Act; or
 - (b) attempting to contravene this Act; or
 - (c) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a person to contravene this Act; or the court may grant an injunction on such terms as the court considers appropriate.

- (3) The court may, if the court considers it appropriate, grant an interim injunction pending determination of an application under subsection (1).

- (a) whether or not it appears to the court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; and
- (b) whether or not the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; and
- (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to another person if the person engages in conduct of that kind.
- (6) The power of the court to grant an injunction requiring a person to do an act or thing may be exercised:

 - (b) whether or not the person has previously refused or failed to do that act or thing; and
 - (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to another person if the person refuses or fails to do that act or thing.
- (7) If ASIC applies to the court for the grant of an injunction under this section, the court must not require ASIC or another person, as a condition of granting an interim injunction, to give an undertaking as to damages.
- (8) If the court has power under this section to grant an injunction against a person, the court may, either in addition to or in substitution for the grant of the injunction, order the person to pay damages to another person.

178 Compensation orders

The order must specify the amount of compensation.

Note: An order may be made under this subsection whether or not a declaration of contravention has been made under section 166.

When order may be made

- (2) The court may make the order only if:
 - (a) the plaintiff or ASIC (on behalf of the plaintiff) applies for an order under this section; and
 - (b) the application is made within 6 years of the day the cause of action that relates to the contravention or commission of the offence accrued.

179 Other orders to compensate loss or damage

Compilation No. 23	Compilation date: 23/06/2020	Registered: 21/07/2020

 (b) another person (the plaintiff) has suffered, or is likely to suffer, loss or damage as a result of the contravention or commission of the offence;

the court may make such order as the court considers appropriate against the defendant to:

- (c) compensate the plaintiff, in whole or in part, for the loss or damage; or
- (d) prevent or reduce the loss or damage suffered, or likely to be suffered, by the plaintiff.
- Note: An order may be made under this subsection whether or not a declaration of contravention has been made under section 166.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), examples of orders the court may make include:
 - (a) an order declaring the whole or any part of a contract, deed or arrangement made between the defendant and the plaintiff to be void and, if the court considers it appropriate, to have been void from the time it was entered or at all times on and after a specified day before the order is made; and

 - (c) an order refusing to enforce any or all of the terms of such a contract, deed or arrangement; and
 - (d) an order directing the defendant to refund money or return property to the plaintiff; and

(5) If the court makes an order that the defendant pay an amount specified in the order to the plaintiff, the plaintiff may recover the amount as a debt due to the plaintiff.

Presumption in favour of certain orders

- (6) Subsection (7) applies if:

 - (b) the debtor's obligations under the illegal contract are secured by a mortgage over the debtor's principal place of residence; and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that, at any time in the period in which an assessment needed to be made to comply with section 128 in relation to the illegal contract:

- (d) the plaintiff, or ASIC on behalf of the plaintiff, applies for an order under this section to let the plaintiff reside in the place to prevent or reduce loss or damage suffered or likely to be suffered by the plaintiff vacating the place.
- (7) The court must consider the order appropriate to prevent or reduce the loss or damage and make the order unless the court is satisfied that the order would adversely affect a person other than the debtor and the defendant.

180 Orders in relation to unlawful credit activities

Court may make orders in relation to unlawful credit activities

- (1) If:
 - (a) a person (the defendant) engages in a credit activity in relation to another person (the plaintiff); and
 - (b) the engaging in the activity contravenes any of the following:

 - (b) an order that the defendant pay the plaintiff a specified amount;
 - (c) an order that a specified amount is not due or owing by the plaintiff to the defendant;

(ii) prevent the defendant from profiting from the plaintiff by engaging in the conduct; except an order that affects a credit contract, consumer lease, mortgage or guarantee to which the conduct related.

Determining whether conduct was unfair or dishonest

- (3) In determining whether conduct was unfair or dishonest, the court:
 - (a) must have regard to the extent (if any) to which one or more of the circumstances described in subsection (4) existed; and
 - (b) must consider it more likely that the conduct was unfair or dishonest the more any of those circumstances existed and the more any of them affected the plaintiff's interests.

This does not limit the matters to which the court may have regard.

- (4) The circumstances are as follows:
 - (a) the plaintiff was at a special disadvantage in dealing with the defendant in relation to the transaction involving:
 - (i) the conduct; and
 - (ii) a credit contract, consumer lease, mortgage or guarantee to which the conduct related; and
 - (iii) any other contract requiring the plaintiff to make payments for the purposes of which it is reasonable to expect the plaintiff would or did enter such a credit contract, consumer lease, mortgage or guarantee;
 - (b) the plaintiff was a member of a class whose members were more likely than people who were not members of the class to be at such a disadvantage;
 - (c) if the plaintiff was a member of a class referred to in paragraph (b)—a reasonable person would consider that the conduct was directed at that class;
 - (d) the plaintiff was unable, or considered himself or herself unable, to make:
 - (i) a credit contract with a credit provider other than the credit provider to which the conduct related; or
 - (ii) a consumer lease with a lessor other than the lessor to which the conduct related; or

Section 180A

- (iii) a mortgage with a mortgagee other than the mortgagee to which the conduct related; or
- (iv) a guarantee with a beneficiary other than the beneficiary to which the conduct related;
- (e) the conduct involved a technique that:
 - (i) should not in good conscience have been used; or
 - (ii) manipulated the plaintiff;
- (f) the defendant could determine or significantly influence the terms of a contract covered by subparagraph (a)(ii) or (iii);
- (g) the terms of the transaction described in paragraph (a) were less favourable to the plaintiff than the terms of a comparable transaction.

When order may be made

- (5) The court may make the order only if:
 - (a) the plaintiff or ASIC (on behalf of the plaintiff) applies for an order under this section; and
 - (b) the application is made within 6 years of the day the defendant first started engaging in the conduct.

Applications for order

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(a), ASIC may make an application on behalf of the plaintiff, but only if the plaintiff has given consent in writing before the application is made.

Recovery of amount as a debt

(7) If the court makes an order that the defendant pay an amount specified in the order to the plaintiff, the plaintiff may recover the amount as a debt due to the plaintiff.

When this section does not apply

(8) This section does not apply to the provision of credit assistance by a person who is (or after the provision of the assistance becomes):

- (a) a credit provider under the credit contract to which the assistance relates; or
- (b) a lessor under the consumer lease to which the assistance relates; or
- (c) a mortgagee under a mortgage in relation to the credit contract to which the assistance relates; or
- (d) a beneficiary of a guarantee in relation to the credit contract to which the assistance relates.

181 Preference must be given to compensate consumers

- (1) This section applies if a court considers that it is appropriate to:
 - (a) make a pecuniary penalty order against a person in relation to a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
 - (b) make a relinquishment order against a person in relation to a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
 - (c) impose a fine against a person in relation to a commission of an offence constituted by the same conduct as the conduct constituting the contravention of the pecuniary penalty order.
- (2) In making the pecuniary penalty order or relinquishment order or imposing the fine, the court:
 - (a) must consider the effect that making the order or imposing the fine would have on the amount available to pay compensation to which persons might reasonably be expected to be entitled under section 178, 179 or 180; and
 - (b) give preference to making an appropriate amount available for compensation under those sections.
- (3) If the court gives preference to making an appropriate amount available for compensation under paragraph (2)(b), the court may also make such orders as the court thinks fit for the purpose of ensuring that the amount remains available for the payment of compensation under section 178, 179 or 180.

182 Adverse publicity orders

- (1) The court may, on application by ASIC, make an adverse publicity order against a person who has:
 - (a) contravened a civil penalty provision; or
 - (b) committed an offence against this Act.
- (2) An adverse publicity order is an order that:
 - (a) requires a person to disclose, in the way and to the persons specified in the order, such information as is so specified, being information that the person has possession of or access to; or
 - (b) requires a person to publish, at the person's expense and in the way specified in the order, an advertisement in the terms specified in, or determined in accordance with, the order.
- (3) The court may make the order only if:
 - (a) ASIC applies for an order under this section; and
 - (b) the application is made within 6 years of the contravention or the commission of the offence.

183 Relief from liability for contravention of civil penalty provision

- (1) If:
 - (a) proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are brought against a person; and
 - (b) in the proceedings it appears to the court that the person has, or may have, contravened a civil penalty provision but that:
 - (i) the person has acted honestly; and
 - (ii) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the person ought fairly to be excused for the contravention;

the court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from a liability to which the person would otherwise be subject, or that might otherwise be imposed on the person, because of the contravention.

- (3) On an application under subsection (2), the court may grant relief under subsection (1) as if the proceedings had been begun in the court.

Part 4-3—Jurisdiction and procedure of courts

Division 1—Introduction

185 Guide to this Part

This Part is about court jurisdiction and procedure.

Division 2 deals with civil proceedings. It confers jurisdiction on the Federal Court, the Federal Circuit Court and State and Territory courts, subject to specified limits. It also contains rules about the transfer of civil proceedings between courts and other matters (such as when proceedings may be dealt with as small claims proceedings and when adverse cost orders can be made).

Division 3 deals with criminal proceedings. It confers criminal jurisdiction on the State and Territory courts and sets out the laws that are to be applied in relation to criminal proceedings.

Division 4 contains rules about proceedings generally (such as ASIC's power to intervene in proceedings and the power of courts to punish for contempt).

Division 2—Civil proceedings

Subdivision A—Application of this Division

186 Application of this Division

- (1) This Division applies to the exclusion of:
 - (a) the Jurisdiction of Courts (Cross-vesting) Act 1987; and
 - (b) section 39B of the Judiciary Act 1903.
- (2) This Division does not limit the application of the provisions of the Judiciary Act 1903 (other than section 39B). In particular, it does not limit the application of subsection 39(2) of that Act in relation to matters arising under this Act.
- (3) Nothing in this Division affects any other jurisdiction of any court.
- (4) Despite anything else in this Division, jurisdiction is conferred on the courts of a Territory only to the extent that the Constitution permits.

Subdivision B—Conferral of civil jurisdiction

187 Civil jurisdiction of courts

(1) Jurisdiction is conferred on a court referred to in an item in the following table in relation to civil matters arising under this Act, subject to the limits on the court's jurisdiction (if any) specified in the item:

Item	Court on which civil jurisdiction is conferred	Limits of jurisdiction
	The Federal Court	No specified limits.

3	A superior court, or lower court, of a State or Territory	The court's general jurisdictional limits, including limits as to locality and subject matter.

(2) This section has effect subject to section 188.

188 Jurisdiction—decisions to prosecute and related criminal justice process decisions made by Commonwealth officers

- (1) If a decision to prosecute a person for an offence against this Act has been made by an officer of the Commonwealth, and the prosecution is proposed to be brought in a court of a State or Territory:
 - (a) the Federal Court does not have jurisdiction in relation to any matter in which a person seeks a writ of mandamus or prohibition, or an injunction, against the officer in relation to that decision; and
 - (b) jurisdiction in relation to any such matter is conferred on the Supreme Court of the State or Territory in which the prosecution is proposed to be brought.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time when:
 - (a) a prosecution for an offence against this Act is before a court of a State or Territory; or
 - (b) an appeal arising out of such a prosecution is before a court of a State or Territory;

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

292

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

the following apply:

- (c) the Federal Court does not have jurisdiction in relation to any matter in which the person who is or was the defendant in the prosecution seeks a writ of mandamus or prohibition, or an injunction, against an officer of the Commonwealth in relation to a related criminal justice process decision;
- (d) jurisdiction in relation to any such matter is conferred on the Supreme Court of the State or Territory in which the prosecution or appeal is before a court.
- (3) A related criminal justice process decision, in relation to an offence, means a decision (other than a decision to prosecute) made in the criminal justice process in relation to the offence, including:
 - (a) a decision in connection with the investigation, committal for trial or prosecution of the defendant; and
 - (b) a decision in connection with the appointment of investigators or inspectors for the purposes of such an investigation; and
 - (c) a decision in connection with the issue of a warrant, including a search warrant or a seizure warrant; and
 - (d) a decision requiring the production of documents, the giving of information or the summoning of persons as witnesses; and
 - (e) a decision in connection with an appeal arising out of the prosecution.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply if a person has applied for a writ of mandamus or prohibition, or an injunction, against an officer of the Commonwealth in relation to a related criminal justice process decision before the commencement of a prosecution for an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, or of a State or a Territory.
- (5) If subsection (4) applies, the prosecutor may apply to the court for a permanent stay of the proceedings referred to in that subsection and the court may grant such a stay if the court determines that:
 - (a) the matters that are the subject of the proceedings are more appropriately dealt with in the criminal justice process; and

National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Compilation No. 23

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

293

- (b) a stay of proceedings will not substantially prejudice the person.
- (6) Subsections (1), (2), (4) and (5) have effect despite anything in this Act or in any other law. In particular:
 - (a) neither this Act, nor any other law, has the effect of giving the Federal Court jurisdiction contrary to subsection (1) or (2); and
 - (b) neither section 9 of the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, nor any other law, has the effect of removing from the Supreme Court of a State or Territory the jurisdiction given to that court by subsection (1) or (2).

189 Cross-jurisdictional appeals

All of the following must severally act in aid of, and be auxiliary to, each other in civil matters arising under this Act:

- (a) courts on which jurisdiction is conferred under this Division;
- (b) officers of, or under the control of, those courts.

Subdivision C—Transfers between courts

191 Transfers—application of Subdivision

Scope of Subdivision

- (1) This Subdivision applies if all the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (a) proceedings in relation to a civil matter arising under this Act are pending, or have come, before a court (the transferring court) on which jurisdiction is conferred under this Division in relation to the matter;
 - (b) jurisdiction is also conferred on another court (the receiving court) under this Division in relation to either of the following (the transfer matter):
 - (i) the entire proceedings;
 - (ii) an application in the proceedings;

Compilation No. 23

295

(c) the receiving court has the power to grant the remedies sought before the transferring court in relation to the transfer matter.

Transfers to which other legislation applies

- (2) This Subdivision does not apply to a transfer between the Federal Court and the Federal Circuit Court, except as provided by paragraph 192(2)(b).
 - Note 1: Paragraph 192(2)(b) gives the Federal Circuit Court the power to transfer a matter to the Federal Court with a recommendation that the Federal Court transfer the matter to another superior court.
 - Note 2: Transfers from the Federal Court are covered by section 32AB of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976 and transfers from the Federal Circuit Court are covered by section 39 of the Federal Circuit Court of Australia Act 1999.

192 Transfers—exercise of transfer power

General rule

- (1) If section 193 (which deals with the criteria for transfers) is satisfied, the transferring court may transfer to the receiving court:
 - (a) the transfer matter; and
 - (b) if the transferring court considers it necessary or convenient—any related application (or all related applications) in the proceedings.

Cross-jurisdictional transfers between lower courts and superior courts

- (2) However, if the transferring court is a lower court, and the transferring court considers that section 193 is satisfied in relation to the transfer of a matter referred to in subsection (1) of this section to a receiving court that is a superior court other than the relevant superior court:
 - (a) the transferring court does not have the power to transfer the matter to that receiving court; but
 - (b) the transferring court may:

Compilation No. 23

296

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

- (i) transfer the matter to the relevant superior court; and
- (ii) give the relevant superior court a recommendation that the matter be transferred to that receiving court by the relevant superior court.

193 Transfers—criteria for transfer

General

- (1) The transferring court may make a transfer under section 192 only if it appears to the transferring court, taking into account the considerations covered by subsection (2) of this section, that:
 - (a) the transfer matter arises out of, or is related to, other proceedings pending, or that have come, before the receiving court; or
 - (b) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that the transfer matter be determined by the receiving court.

Relevant considerations

- (2) The considerations covered by this subsection include the following:
 - (a) the principal location, or place of business, of the parties in relation to the transfer matter;
 - (b) where the event (or events) that are the subject of the transfer matter took place;
 - (c) if the transfer matter involves secured real property—the jurisdiction in which the real property is located;
 - (d) the desirability of related proceedings being heard in the same State or Territory;
 - (e) any relevant recommendation received under subsection 192(2);
 - (f) the suitability (taking into account the considerations referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e) and any other consideration) of having the transfer matter determined by the receiving court.

194 Transfers—how initiated

A court may make a transfer under section 192:

- (a) on the application of a party made at any stage; or
- (b) at the court's own initiative.

195 Transfers—documents and procedure

If the transferring court transfers proceedings or an application to the receiving court under section 192:

- (a) the Registrar (or other proper officer) of the transferring court must give the Registrar (or other proper officer) of the receiving court all documents filed in the transferring court in relation to the proceedings or application; and
- (b) the receiving court must proceed as if:
 - (i) the proceedings or application had been originally brought or made in the receiving court; and
 - (ii) the same proceedings had been taken in the receiving court as were taken in the transferring court.

196 Transfers—conduct of proceedings

- (1) Subject to any applicable rules of court, in dealing with the transfer matter transferred to the court under section 192, the receiving court must apply rules of evidence and procedure that:
 - (a) are applied in any superior court; and
 - (b) the court considers appropriate to be applied in the circumstances.
- (2) If proceedings are transferred under section 192 from the transferring court to the receiving court, the receiving court must deal with the proceedings as if, subject to any order of the transferring court, the steps that had been taken for the purposes of the proceedings in the transferring court (including the making of an order), or similar steps, had been taken in the receiving court.

197 Transfers—entitlement to practise as a lawyer

- (1) If proceedings (the transferred proceedings) in the transferring court are transferred to the receiving court under section 192, a person who is entitled to practise as a lawyer (however described) in the transferring court has the same entitlements to practise in relation to the matters covered by subsection (2) in the receiving court that the person would have if the receiving court were a federal court exercising federal jurisdiction.
- (2) This subsection covers the following matters:
 - (a) the transferred proceedings;
 - (b) any other proceedings out of which the transferred proceedings arise or to which the transferred proceedings are related, if the other proceedings are to be determined together with the transferred proceedings.

198 Transfers—limitation on appeals

An appeal does not lie from a decision of a court:

- (a) in relation to the transfer of proceedings under section 192; or
- (b) as to which rules of evidence and procedure are to be applied under subsection 196(1).

Subdivision D—Other matters

199 Plaintiffs may choose small claims procedure

- (6) At any stage of the small claims proceedings, the court may amend the papers commencing the proceedings if sufficient notice is given to any party adversely affected by the amendment.

Legal representation

- (7) A party to small claims proceedings may be represented in the proceedings by a lawyer only with the leave of the court.

a party to the proceedings may be ordered by the court to pay costs incurred by another party to the proceedings only in accordance with subsection (2).

Division 3—Criminal proceedings

Subdivision A—Application of this Division

203 Application of this Division

- (1) This Division applies to the exclusion of sections 68, 70 and 70A of the Judiciary Act 1903.
- (2) However, this Division does not limit the application of the provisions of the Judiciary Act 1903 (other than sections 68, 70 and 70A). In particular, it does not limit the application of subsection 39(2) of that Act in relation to criminal matters arising under this Act.
- (3) Despite anything else in this Division, jurisdiction is conferred on the courts of a Territory only to the extent that the Constitution permits.

Subdivision B—Conferral of criminal jurisdiction

204 Criminal jurisdiction of courts

Cross-vesting of criminal jurisdiction of courts

- (1) Subject to this section, if a court of a State or Territory exercises jurisdiction in relation to a matter covered by subsection (2) in relation to offenders or persons (State offenders) charged with offences against the laws of the State or Territory, the court has the equivalent jurisdiction in relation to offenders or persons charged with offences against this Act.
- (2) The matters covered by this subsection are as follows:
 - (a) the summary conviction of State offenders;
 - (b) their examination and commitment for trial on indictment;
 - (c) their trial and conviction on indictment;

- (e) the liability to make reparation in connection with their offences;
- (f) the forfeiture of property in connection with their offences;
- (g) the proceeds of their crimes;
- (h) the hearing and determination of:
 - (i) proceedings connected with; or
 - (ii) appeals arising out of; or
 - (iii) appeals arising out of proceedings connected with;

any trial or conviction referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), or any matter of a kind referred to in paragraph (d), (e), (f) or (g).

Certain aspects of jurisdiction to be exercised only by magistrate

(3) Only a magistrate may exercise the jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) in relation to the summary conviction, or examination and commitment for trial, of any person.

Person who pleads guilty to an indictable offence may be sentenced or otherwise dealt with without trial

- (4) The jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) includes jurisdiction in accordance with provisions of a relevant criminal law of a State or Territory, and:
 - (a) the reference in paragraph (2)(h) to "any trial or conviction" includes a reference to any conviction or sentencing in accordance with the provisions of a relevant criminal law; and
 - (b) unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) includes a reference to such included jurisdiction.
- (5) Relevant criminal law means a law providing that if, in proceedings before a court, a person pleads guilty to a charge for which the person could be prosecuted on indictment, the person may be committed, to a court having jurisdiction to try offences on indictment, to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with without being tried in that last-mentioned court.

Compilation No. 23

Compilation date: 23/06/2020

- (6) A person may be dealt with in accordance with a relevant criminal law even if, apart from this section, the offence concerned:
 - (a) would be required to be prosecuted on indictment; or
 - (b) would be required to be prosecuted either summarily or on indictment.
- (7) For the purposes of the application of a relevant criminal law as provided by subsection (4):
 - (a) a reference in that law to an indictable offence is taken to include a reference to an offence that may be prosecuted on indictment; and
 - (b) in order to determine the sentence that may be imposed on a person by a court pursuant to the relevant criminal law, the person is taken to have been prosecuted and convicted on indictment in that court.

Jurisdiction in relation to summary offences is unlimited

(8) Subject to subsection (10), the jurisdiction conferred on a court of a State or Territory by subsection (1) is conferred despite any limits as to locality of the jurisdiction of that court under the law of that State or Territory.

Court may decline to exercise jurisdiction in relation to summary offences

- (9) If:
 - (a) jurisdiction is conferred on a court of a State or Territory in relation to the summary conviction of persons charged with offences against this Act by subsection (1); and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so, having regard to all the circumstances (including the public interest);

the court may decline to exercise that jurisdiction in relation to an offence committed in another State or Territory.

Division 2—Lodgment of documents with ASIC

- (3) If a document is lodged with ASIC, then any other material that is lodged with the document as required by this Act or an approved form is taken to be included in that document.
 - Note: For example, this subsection means that a person will contravene section 225 if the person makes a false or misleading statement in the other material.

 - (d) contravenes this Act; or

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), ASIC may request:
 - (a) that the document be appropriately amended or completed and resubmitted; or
 - (b) that a fresh document be submitted in its place; or

Part 6-4—Proceedings after an investigation

Division 1—Introduction

273 Guide to this Part

This Part is about criminal and civil proceedings that ASIC may bring after it has conducted an investigation under this Chapter.

Division 2 deals with criminal proceedings. After an investigation of a person under this Chapter, ASIC may prosecute the person for an offence against the Commonwealth credit legislation (i.e. this Act or the National Credit Transitional Act). It may also require others to provide it with reasonable assistance in connection with the prosecution.

Division 2 also deals with civil proceedings. After an investigation of a person under this Chapter, ASIC may bring civil proceedings against a person in particular circumstances. However, under this Division, ASIC cannot bring civil proceedings under the Commonwealth credit legislation. This is because Part 4-2 (which deals with remedies) and the National Credit Code deal with when ASIC can bring those proceedings.

Division 1—Introduction

288H Guide to this Part

This Part is about the use of infringement notices where ASIC reasonably believes that a provision has been contravened.

A person who is given an infringement notice can choose to pay an amount as an alternative to having court proceedings brought against the person for the contravention.  - (c) the failure or refusal occurs on more than 1 day; and
 - (d) each contravention is constituted by the failure or refusal on one of those days.

 - (b) the statement is not relevant to the proceedings and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement; or
 - (c) the statement (the first statement) is qualified or explained by some other statement made at the examination, evidence of the other statement is not tendered in the proceedings and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the first statement; or
 - (d) the statement discloses matter in relation to which the person could claim legal professional privilege in the proceedings if this subsection did not apply in relation to the statement, and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to proceedings against a person even if it is heard together with proceedings against another person.
- (3) If a written record of an examination of a person is signed by the person under subsection 258(2) or authenticated in any other manner prescribed by the regulations, the record is, in proceedings, prima facie evidence of the statements it records, but nothing in this Chapter limits or affects the admissibility in the proceedings of other evidence of statements made at the examination.

304 Statements made at an examination: other proceedings

If direct evidence by a person (the absent witness) of a matter would be admissible in proceedings, a statement that the absent witness made at an examination of the absent witness and that tends to establish that matter is admissible in the proceedings as evidence of that matter:

- (a) if it appears to the court or tribunal that:
 - (i) the absent witness is dead or is unfit, because of physical or mental incapacity, to attend as a witness; or
 - (ii) the absent witness is outside the State or Territory in which the proceedings is being heard and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his or her attendance; or
 - (iii) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the absent witness but he or she cannot be found; or
- (b) if it does not so appear to the court or tribunal—unless another party to the proceedings requires the party tendering evidence of the statement to call the absent witness as a witness in the proceedings and the tendering party does not so call the absent witness.

305 Weight of evidence admitted under section 304

- (1) This section applies if evidence of a statement made by a person at an examination of the person is admitted under section 304 in proceedings.
- (2) In deciding how much weight (if any) to give to the statement as evidence of a matter, regard is to be had to:
 - (a) how long after the matters to which it related the statement was made; and
 - (b) any reason the person may have had for concealing or misrepresenting a material matter; and
 - (c) any other circumstances from which it is reasonable to draw an inference about how accurate the statement is.
- (3) If the person is not called as a witness in the proceedings:

422	National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009
Compilation No. 23	Compilation date: 23/06/2020	Registered: 21/07/2020

- (a) evidence that would, if the person had been so called, have been admissible in the proceedings for the purpose of destroying or supporting his or her credibility is so admissible; and
- (b) evidence is admissible to show that the statement is inconsistent with another statement that the person has made at any time.
- (4) However, evidence of a matter is not admissible under this section if, had the person been called as a witness in the proceedings and denied the matter in cross-examination, evidence of the matter would not have been admissible if adduced by the cross-examining party.

306 Objection to admission of statements made at examination

- (1) A party (the adducing party) to proceedings may, not less than 14 days before the first day of the hearing of the proceedings, give to another party to the proceedings written notice that the adducing party:
 - (a) will apply to have admitted in evidence in the proceedings specified statements made at an examination; and
 - (b) for that purpose, will apply to have evidence of those statements admitted in the proceedings.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must set out, or be accompanied by writing that sets out, the specified statements.
- (3) Within 14 days after a notice is given under subsection (1), the other party may give to the adducing party a written notice:
 - (a) stating that the other party objects to specified statements being admitted in evidence in the proceedings; and
 - (b) specifies, in relation to each of those statements, the grounds of objection.
- (4) The period prescribed by subsection (3) may be extended by the court or tribunal or by agreement between the parties concerned.

 - (a) the notice under subsection (1) and any writing that subsection (2) required to accompany that notice; and
 - (b) the notice under subsection (3).
- (6) If subsection (5) is complied with, the court or tribunal may either:
 - (a) determine the objections as a preliminary point before the hearing of the proceedings begins; or
 - (b) defer determination of the objections until the hearing.
- (7) If a notice has been given in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the other party is not entitled to object at the hearing of the proceedings to a statement specified in the notice being admitted in evidence in the proceedings, unless:
 - (a) the other party has, in accordance with subsection (3), objected to the statement being so admitted; or
 - (b) the court or tribunal gives the other party leave to object to the statement being so admitted.

307 Copies of, or extracts from, certain books

- (1) A copy of, or an extract from, a book relating to:
 - (a) affairs of a licensee, credit representative or other person who engages, or has engaged, in a credit activity; or
 - (b) a matter referred to in paragraph 266(1)(d) or (e); is admissible in evidence in proceedings as if the copy were the original book, or the extract were the relevant part of the original book, as the case may be, whether or not the copy or extract was made under section 271.

- (2) A copy of, or an extract from, a book is not admissible in evidence under subsection (1) unless it is proved that the copy or extract is a true copy of the book, or of the relevant part of the book, as the case may be.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person who has compared:(a) a copy of a book with the book; or

Compilation No. 23	Compilation date: 23/06/2020	Registered: 21/07/2020

(b) an extract from a book with the relevant part of the book; may give evidence, either orally or by an affidavit or statutory declaration, that the copy or extract is a true copy of the book or relevant part, as the case may be.

308 Report under Part 6-1

Subject to section 309, if a copy of a report under Part 6-1 purports to be certified by ASIC as a true copy of such a report, the copy is admissible in proceedings (other than criminal proceedings) as prima facie evidence of any facts or matters that the report states ASIC to have found to exist.

309 Exceptions to admissibility of report

- (1) This section applies if a party to proceedings tenders a copy of a report as evidence against another party.
- (2) The copy is not admissible under section 308 in the proceedings as evidence against the other party unless the court or tribunal is satisfied that:
 - (a) a copy of the report has been given to the other party; and
 - (b) the other party, and the other party's lawyer, have had a reasonable opportunity to examine that copy and to take its contents into account in preparing the other party's case.

- (4) The court or tribunal must grant an application made under subsection (3) unless it considers that, in all the circumstances, it is not appropriate to do so.
- (5) If:
 - (a) the court or tribunal grants an application or applications made under subsection (3); and
 - (b) a person to whom the application or any of the applications relate, or 2 or more such persons, is or are unavailable, or does not or do not attend, to be cross-examined in relation to the report; and
 - (c) the court or tribunal is of the opinion that to admit the copy under section 308 in the proceedings as evidence against the other party without the other party having the opportunity so to cross-examine the person or persons would unfairly prejudice the other party;

the court or tribunal must refuse so to admit the copy, or must treat the copy as not having been so admitted, as the case requires.
