

INSTRUMENT TO DETERMINE THE NUMBER OF PLACES
AVAILABLE FOR ALLOCATION IN 2012-13

AGED CARE ACT 1997

Determination under subsection 12-3(1)

I, MARK BUTLER, Minister for Mental Health and Ageing, acting under subsection 12-3(1) of the Aged Care Act 1997, DETERMINE that the number of places, by care type, available for allocation in each state and territory in the 2012-13 financial year as set out in the following table:

(A) Aged care places available for allocation in each state or territory

State or territory	Residential	Home Care
New South Wales	1,728	2,150
Victoria	2,368*	1,626
Queensland	2,243	1,300
Western Australia	1,413	80
South Australia	185	506
Tasmania	275	150
Australian Capital Territory	122	0
Northern Territory	87	28
Total	8,421	5,840

* Includes 80 residential places deferred from the 2011 Aged Care Approvals Round

 Includes 5 home care packages deferred from the 2011 Aged Care Approvals Round

(B) Aged care places available for allocation in any state or territory

Residential	Flexible
75	395

Dated 30th..... day of October..... 2012

MARK BUTLER
Minister for Mental Health and Ageing