An Act to provide for the administration and enforcement of Australian laws in maritime areas, and for related purposes

[Assented to 27 March 2013]

The Parliament of Australia enacts:

Maritime Powers Act 2013 No. 15, 2013 1

Part 1—Introduction

Division 1—Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Maritime Powers Act 2013.

2 Commencement

- (1) Each provision of this Act specified in column 1 of the table commences, or is taken to have commenced, in accordance with column 2 of the table. Any other statement in column 2 has effect according to its terms.

Commencement information
Column 1	Column 2	Column 3
Provision(s)	Commencement	Date/Details
1. Sections 1 and 2 and anything in this Act not elsewhere covered by this table	The day this Act receives the Royal Assent.	27 March 2013
2. Sections 3 to 122	A single day to be fixed by Proclamation. However, if the provision(s) do not commence within the period of 12 months beginning on the day this Act receives the Royal Assent, they commence on the day after the end of that period.	27 March 2014

Note: This table relates only to the provisions of this Act as originally enacted. It will not be amended to deal with any later amendments of this Act.

- (2) Any information in column 3 of the table is not part of this Act. Information may be inserted in this column, or information in it may be edited, in any published version of this Act.

3 Act binds the Crown

This Act binds the Crown in each of its capacities.

4 Application of Act

- (1) This Act extends to every external Territory.
- (2) This Act extends to acts, omissions, matters and things outside Australia.

Note: Division 5 of Part 2 sets out geographical limits on the exercise of powers under this Act.

5 Effect on executive power

This Act does not limit the executive power of the Commonwealth.

6 Relationship to other laws

- (1) The provisions of this Act are in addition to, not in substitution for, any other law of the Commonwealth.
- (2) This Act is not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of any law of a State or Territory.

Division 2—Guide to this Act

7 Guide to this Act

This Act provides a broad set of enforcement powers for use in, and in relation to, maritime areas. Most of these powers are set out in Part 3.

The powers can be used by maritime officers to give effect to Australian laws and international agreements and decisions.

The following are maritime officers:

- (a) Customs officers;
- (b) members of the Australian Defence Force;
- (c) members of the Australian Federal Police;
- (d) other persons appointed by the Minister.

An authorisation is necessary to begin the exercise of powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft, protected land area or isolated person. The only exceptions are the exercise of aircraft identification powers and the exercise of powers to ensure the safety of persons.

Once an authorisation is in force, maritime officers can exercise powers for a range of purposes.

In accordance with international law, the exercise of powers is limited in places outside Australia.

Division 3—Definitions

8 Definitions

actionable contravention, in relation to an aircraft, has the meaning given by section 10.

aircraft means any machine or craft that can derive support in the atmosphere from the reactions of the air, other than the reactions of the air against the earth's surface.

thing includes a record or document.

this Act includes the regulations.

vessel means a vessel or boat of any description and includes a hovercraft and any floating structure, but does not include an installation.

vessel identification powers means the powers set out in the following provisions:

- (a) section 52 (boarding vessels, installations and aircraft);
- (b) section 53 (requirement to facilitate boarding);
- (c) section 54 (additional powers—vessels);
- (d) section 57 (requiring answers, records and documents);
- (e) section 58 (obtaining readings);
- (f) section 59 (searching places);
- (g) section 61 (searching persons);
- (h) section 63 (examining things);
- (i) section 66 (securing weapons).

vessels without nationality authorisation has the meaning given by subsection 21(2).

weapon includes a thing that:

- (a) is capable of being used to inflict bodily injury (including ammunition); or
- (b) is capable of being used to help a person escape from detention or custody; or
- (c) is capable of being used to cause damage to a vessel, installation or aircraft; or
- (d) except for the absence of, or a defect in, a part of the thing, would be a weapon of a kind mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c); or
- (e) is reasonably capable of being converted into a weapon of a kind mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

Section 9

9 Involved in a contravention

Vessels, installations, aircraft and protected land areas

- (1) A vessel, installation, aircraft or protected land area is involved in a contravention of a law, if:
- (a) the law has been, is being, or is intended to be, contravened on, or in the vicinity of, the vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
  - (b) there is some other connection between the vessel, installation, aircraft or land and a contravention, or intended contravention, of the law.

Vessels, installations and aircraft

- (2) A vessel, installation or aircraft is involved in a contravention of a law, if the vessel, installation or aircraft has been, is being, or is intended to be, used in contravention of the law.

Support vessels

- (3) A vessel is involved in a contravention of a law if it has been, is being, or is intended to be, used:
- (a) in direct support of another vessel or aircraft that is involved in a contravention of the law; or
  - (b) in preparation for a contravention of the law in which another vessel or aircraft is involved.
- (4) A vessel involved in a contravention of a law within the meaning of subsection (3) is a support vessel.

Isolated persons

- (5) An isolated person is involved in a contravention of a law if:
- (a) the law has been, is being, or is intended to be, contravened by the person; or
  - (b) there is some other connection between the person and a contravention, or intended contravention, of the law.

10 *Actionable contraventions—aircraft

A contravention of a law is an actionable contravention in relation to an aircraft if:

- (a) the law is prescribed by the regulations; or
- (b) the Minister has approved the exercise of maritime powers in relation to the aircraft for the purposes of investigating the contravention, or contraventions in general, and the approval has not lapsed.

Note: For approval by the Minister, see Division 3 of Part 2.

11 *Continuous exercise of powers

For the purposes of this Act, the continuous exercise of powers does not end only because there is a period of time between the exercise of one or more of those powers.

Division 4—International agreements and decisions

12 When international agreements and decisions apply

An international agreement or international decision applies to a vessel, installation or aircraft at a particular time if:

- (a) the agreement or decision provides for the exercise of powers by Australia in relation to the vessel, installation or aircraft at that time; and
- (b) either:
  - (i) the agreement or decision is prescribed by the regulations; or
  - (ii) the Minister has approved the exercise of powers under the agreement or decision in relation to the vessel, installation or aircraft, and the approval has not lapsed.

Note 1: For international agreement and international decision, see section 8.

Note 2: For approval by the Minister, see Division 3 of Part 2.

13 Treating foreign vessels as Australian vessels

An Australian law applies in relation to a foreign vessel as if the foreign vessel were an Australian vessel if:

- (a) an international agreement provides for the law to so apply; and
- (b) the country of the vessel's nationality is a party to the agreement.

Note: For international agreement, see section 8.

14 Applying Australian law in other places

Places in other countries

- (1) An Australian law applies in, or in relation to, a place in another country as if that place were in Australia if an agreement or arrangement between Australia and the other country provides for the law to so apply.

Places in exclusive economic zones of other countries

- (2) An Australian law applies in, or in relation to, a place in the exclusive economic zone of another country as if that place were in the exclusive economic zone of Australia if an agreement or arrangement between Australia and the other country provides for the law to so apply.

Places on or above the continental shelves of other countries

- (3) An Australian law applies in, or in relation to, a place on or above the continental shelf of another country as if that place were on or above the continental shelf of Australia if an agreement or arrangement between Australia and the other country provides for the law to so apply.

Part 2—Exercising powers

Division 1—Introduction

15 Guide to this Part

This Part provides for the exercise of maritime powers and powers specified in international agreements and decisions.

An authorisation must be given by an authorising officer before powers can be exercised in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft, protected land area or isolated person. The only exceptions are:

- (a) the exercise of aircraft identification powers to identify aircraft; and
- (b) the exercise of maritime powers to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

Once an authorisation is in force, a maritime officer may exercise powers for the purposes of the authorisation, and for other purposes set out in Division 4.

The exercise of powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or protected land area extends to persons and things with a connection to the vessel, installation, aircraft or protected land area.

Powers can be exercised in, and in relation to, maritime areas, but their exercise is limited in places outside Australia (see Division 5).

Division 2—Authorising the exercise of maritime powers

16 Authorising officers

- (1) For the purposes of authorising the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft, protected land area or isolated person, each of the following is an authorising officer:
- (a) the most senior maritime officer who is in a position to exercise any of the maritime powers in person;
  - (b) the most senior member or special member of the Australian Federal Police who is in a position to exercise any of the maritime powers in person;
  - (c) the most senior maritime officer on duty in a duly established operations room;
  - (d) the person in command of a Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft from which the exercise of powers is to be directed or coordinated;
  - (e) a person appointed in writing by the Minister.

Limited appointments

- (2) The Minister may appoint a person under paragraph (1)(e) as an authorising officer:
- (a) for the purposes of authorising the exercise of powers in relation to one or more of the following only:
    - (i) a specified law;
    - (ii) a specified international agreement or international decision; and
  - (b) subject to any other conditions specified in the appointment.

Purported authorisations

- (3) A purported authorisation given by a person who reasonably believed that he or she was an authorising officer has effect as if it were an authorisation.

17 Contraventions

Vessels, installations, protected land areas and isolated persons

- (1) An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a vessel, installation, protected land area or isolated person if the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the vessel, installation, land or person is involved in a contravention of an Australian law.

Note: For involved in a contravention of a law, see section 9.

Aircraft—actionable contraventions

- (2) An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to an aircraft if:
- (a) the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the aircraft is involved in a contravention of an Australian law; and
  - (b) the contravention is an actionable contravention in relation to the aircraft.

Note 1: For involved in a contravention of a law, see section 9.

Note 2: For actionable contravention, see section 10.

18 Monitoring laws

Vessels, installations, protected land areas and isolated persons

An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a vessel, installation, protected land area or isolated person for the purposes of administering or ensuring compliance with a monitoring law.

Note: For monitoring law, see section 8.

19 International agreements and decisions

Vessels, installations and aircraft

An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a vessel, installation or aircraft if the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that an international agreement or international decision applies to the vessel, installation or aircraft.

Note 1: For when international agreements and international decisions apply, see section 12.

Note 2: The regulations may provide for additional powers, or for limited powers, to be exercised under an international agreement or international decision: see section 33.

20 Evidential material and warrants

Vessels, installations and protected land areas

- (1) An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a vessel, installation or protected land area if the officer:
  - (a) suspects, on reasonable grounds, that there is evidential material on the vessel, installation or land; or
  - (b) believes, on reasonable grounds, that the exercise of the powers is necessary to enforce a warrant that is in force under an Australian law.

Meaning of evidence and warrants authorisation

- (2) An authorisation under this section is an evidence and warrants authorisation.

21 Identifying vessels and aircraft

Vessels without nationality

- (1) An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a vessel if:
  - (a) the vessel is not flying the flag of a State; or
  - (b) the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the vessel:
    - (i) has been flying the flag of more than one State; or
    - (ii) is flying the flag of a State that it is not entitled to fly; or
    - (iii) is not entitled to fly the flag of any State.

Part 2 Exercising powers

Division 2 Authorising the exercise of maritime powers

Section 22

Meaning of vessels without nationality authorisation

- (2) An authorisation under subsection (1) is a vessels without nationality authorisation.

Aircraft that fail to meet identification requirements

- (3) An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to an aircraft if:
- (a) a requirement made in the exercise of aircraft identification powers in relation to the aircraft has not been complied with; or
  - (b) the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that information given in response to such a requirement is false or misleading in a material particular.

Note 1: Aircraft identification powers can be exercised without authorisation: see section 28.

Note 2: For aircraft identification powers, see subsection 55(4).

22 Seizable transit goods—aircraft

An authorising officer may authorise the exercise of maritime powers in relation to an aircraft if the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the aircraft is carrying seizable transit goods.

Note: For seizable transit goods, see section 8.

Division 3—Authorisations and approvals

23 When authorisations are in force

- (1) An authorisation given by an authorising officer under Division 2 is in force until:
  - (a) it is spent; or
  - (b) it lapses.

When authorisation is spent

- (2) An authorisation is spent when the continuous exercise of powers under the authorisation ends.

Note: The continuous exercise of powers does not end only because there is a period of time between the exercise of one or more of those powers: see section 11.

When authorisation lapses

- (3) An authorisation lapses if powers have not been exercised under the authorisation within 72 hours after it is given.

24 When approvals lapse

An approval given by the Minister for the purposes of one of the following provisions lapses 14 days after it is given:

- (a) paragraph 10(b) (actionable contraventions);
- (b) subparagraph 12(b)(ii) (when international agreements and decisions apply).

25 Form of authorisations and approvals

- (1) An authorisation or approval need not be in writing.
- (2) An authorisation or approval in writing is not a legislative instrument.

Part 2 Exercising powers

Division 3 Authorisations and approvals

Section 26

26 Further authorisations and approvals

Nothing in this Division prevents the giving of further authorisations or approvals in relation to a particular vessel, installation, aircraft, protected land area or isolated person.

Division 4—Exercising powers

Subdivision A—Effect of Division

27 Effect of Division

This Division has effect subject to Division 5 (geographical limits).

Subdivision B—Exercising powers without authorisation

28 Identifying aircraft

A maritime officer may, without authorisation, exercise aircraft identification powers to identify an aircraft.

Note: For aircraft identification powers, see subsection 55(4).

29 Ensuring safety

A maritime officer may, without authorisation, exercise maritime powers to ensure the safety of the officer or any other person.

Subdivision C—Exercising powers with authorisation

30 Authorisation required

If an authorisation is in force in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft, protected land area or isolated person, a maritime officer may exercise powers in relation to the vessel, installation, aircraft, land or person in accordance with this Subdivision.

31 Exercising powers for authorised purpose

The maritime officer may exercise maritime powers to do whichever of the following applies in accordance with the authorisation:

- (a) investigate the contravention;
- (b) administer or ensure compliance with the monitoring law;

Section 32

---

- (c) administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of the international agreement or international decision;
- (d) access or seize the evidential material;
- (e) enforce the warrant that is in force under an Australian law;
- (f) identify the vessel or aircraft;
- (g) retain the seizable transit goods.

32 Exercising powers for other purposes

- (1) The maritime officer may also exercise maritime powers as follows:
  - (a) to investigate or prevent any contravention of an Australian law that the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, the vessel, installation, aircraft, protected land area or isolated person to be involved in;
  - (b) to administer or ensure compliance with any monitoring law;
  - (c) in the case of a vessel, installation or aircraft—to administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of any international agreement or international decision that the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, applies to the vessel, installation or aircraft;
  - (d) to access or seize any thing that the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, is:
    - (i) evidential material; or
    - (ii) a border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
    - (iii) owned by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory;
  - (e) to arrest any person whom the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, has committed an indictable offence against an Australian law;
  - (f) to enforce any warrant that is in force under an Australian law;
  - (g) to retain any thing that the officer believes, on reasonable grounds, could be seized under an Australian law;
  - (h) in the case of a vessel or aircraft—to identify the vessel or aircraft.

Exception—aircraft in flight

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an aircraft in flight.

33 Additional powers and limitations under international agreements and decisions

Additional powers

- (1) The maritime officer may also exercise powers in the case of a vessel, installation or aircraft if the powers are:
- (a) specified in an international agreement or international decision that applies to the vessel, installation or aircraft; and
  - (b) prescribed by the regulations as powers that may be exercised in relation to vessels, installations or aircraft of that kind; and
  - (c) exercised for the purposes of administering, ensuring compliance with or investigating a contravention of the agreement or decision.

Limitations on powers

- (2) However, the officer must not exercise a power in relation to a vessel, installation or aircraft to administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of an international agreement or international decision if:
- (a) the power is prescribed by the regulations as a power that must not be exercised under the agreement or decision in relation to vessels, installations or aircraft of that kind; or
  - (b) the officer is of a kind prescribed by the regulations as officers who must not exercise powers under the agreement or decision in relation to vessels, installations or aircraft of that kind.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect despite any other provision of this Subdivision.

Subdivision D—Scope of power

34 Scope of power—vessels, installations, aircraft and protected land areas

A maritime officer exercising powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or protected land area may exercise the powers:

- (a) on or in any part of the vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
- (b) in relation to any person or thing on, or in the vicinity of, the vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
- (c) in relation to any person whom the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, was on or is intending to go onto the vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
- (d) in relation to any thing that the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds:
  - (i) was on or is to be taken onto the vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
  - (ii) is, was or is to be, attached to or controlled or directed from the vessel, installation, aircraft or land.

35 Warrants not required

A maritime officer is not required to obtain a warrant to exercise any power under this Act.

36 Enforcing warrants

In enforcing a warrant that is in force under an Australian law, a maritime officer must comply with any requirements in the warrant that would have to be complied with by a person executing the warrant.

Subdivision E—Using force and assistance

37 Using force

- (1) In exercising powers under this Act, a maritime officer may use such force against a person or thing as is necessary and reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) The maritime officer must not:
  - (a) subject a person to greater indignity than is necessary and reasonable to exercise the powers; or
  - (b) do anything that is likely to cause the death of, or grievous bodily harm to, a person unless:
    - (i) the officer believes on reasonable grounds that doing that thing is necessary to protect life or prevent serious injury to another person (including the officer); and
    - (ii) if the person is attempting to escape arrest by fleeing—the person has, if practicable, been called on to surrender and the officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person cannot be apprehended in any other manner.

38 Requesting assistance

- (1) A maritime officer may request the assistance of any other person (including an officer of another country).
- (2) The request may include a request to:
  - (a) operate a vessel, aircraft or installation in a particular manner; or
  - (b) operate machinery or equipment on a vessel, aircraft, installation or land in a particular manner; or
  - (c) search a person; or
  - (d) assist the officer to access data held in, or accessible from, an electronic device that is on a vessel, aircraft, installation or land.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).
- (4) The person may refuse to assist.

Section 39

---

- (5) If the person agrees to assist, he or she:
- (a) must follow any directions given by the officer; and
  - (b) is a person assisting.

Use of force by person assisting

- (6) A person assisting may use such force against a thing as is necessary and reasonable in the circumstances.

39 Requiring assistance

- (1) A maritime officer exercising powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or protected land area may require the assistance of a person who is on, in or in the vicinity of the vessel, installation, aircraft or land.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

- (2) The requirement may include a requirement to:
- (a) operate the vessel, installation or aircraft in a particular manner; or
  - (b) operate machinery or equipment on the vessel, installation, aircraft or land in a particular manner; or
  - (c) assist the officer to access data held in, or accessible from, an electronic device or any other equipment on the vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
  - (d) use such force against a thing as is necessary and reasonable in the circumstances.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).
- (4) However, the officer must not require the person to do anything that would endanger the health or safety of the person or any other person.

Division 5—Geographical limits

Subdivision A—Exercising powers in other countries

40 Exercising powers in other countries

This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers at a place in another country unless the powers are exercised:

- (a) at the request or with the agreement of the other country; or
- (b) to administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of an international agreement or international decision that applies in that place; or
- (c) to investigate a contravention of a law that:
  - (i) applies in that place; and
  - (ii) is prescribed by the regulations; or
- (d) to administer or ensure compliance with a monitoring law that:
  - (i) applies in that place; and
  - (ii) is prescribed by the regulations; or
- (e) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

Subdivision B—Exercising powers between countries

41 Foreign vessels between countries

- (1) This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers in relation to a foreign vessel at a place between Australia and another country unless the powers are exercised:
  - (a) to investigate a contravention of a law that applies to foreign vessels, or persons on foreign vessels, in that place; or
  - (b) in relation to a contravention covered by paragraph (a), to:
    - (i) arrest a person; or
    - (ii) require a person to cease conduct; or
  - (c) in the contiguous zone of Australia to:

Section 41

---

- (i) investigate a contravention of a customs, fiscal, immigration or sanitary law prescribed by the regulations that occurred in Australia; or
- (ii) prevent a contravention of such a law occurring in Australia; or
- (d) to administer or ensure compliance with a monitoring law that applies to foreign vessels, or persons on foreign vessels, in that place; or
- (e) to administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of an international agreement or international decision that applies to foreign vessels, or persons on foreign vessels, in that place; or
- (f) to identify the vessel under a vessels without nationality authorisation; or
- (g) in relation to a support vessel supporting a vessel involved in a contravention in Australia; or
- (h) in relation to a support vessel supporting a vessel that is:
  - (i) an Australian vessel involved in a contravention within the exclusive economic zone, or waters above the continental shelf, of Australia; or
  - (ii) a foreign vessel involved in a contravention of a law that applies to the foreign vessel, or persons on the foreign vessel, in that place; or
- (i) after the vessel has been chased without interruption to that place; or
- (j) at the request or with the agreement of the country of the vessel's nationality; or
- (k) to seize a border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
- (l) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

Note: For chased without interruption, see section 42.

- (2) Only vessel identification powers may be exercised under paragraph (1)(f).

Note: For vessel identification powers, see section 8.

42 Meaning of *chased without interruption

- (1) A vessel is chased without interruption if:
- (a) at a place where a maritime officer may exercise powers in relation to the vessel without having chased the vessel, a maritime officer requires the person in charge of the vessel to:
    - (i) stop the vessel; or
    - (ii) facilitate boarding of the vessel; and
  - (b) the requirement is not complied with; and
  - (c) the vessel is chased from that place; and
  - (d) the chase is not interrupted.

Note: For requirements to facilitate boarding and stop, see sections 53 and 54.

- (2) The chase is not interrupted only because:
- (a) it is continued by another maritime officer; or
  - (b) it is begun, or taken over, by a vessel or aircraft (including a vessel or aircraft of a foreign country) other than the vessel or aircraft from which the requirement was made; or
  - (c) if the chase is continued by a vessel or aircraft of a foreign country—there is no maritime officer on board the vessel or aircraft; or
  - (d) the vessel is out of sight of any or all of the maritime officers, or officers of a foreign country, involved in the chase; or
  - (e) the vessel cannot be tracked by remote means, including radio, radar, satellite or sonar.

43 Foreign installations between countries

This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers in relation to a foreign installation at a place between Australia and another country unless the powers are exercised:

- (a) to administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of an international agreement or international decision that applies to foreign installations, or persons on foreign installations, in that place; or

Section 44

- (b) at the request or with the agreement of the country that controls the installation; or
- (c) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

44 Foreign aircraft between countries

This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers, other than aircraft identification powers, in relation to a foreign aircraft at a place between Australia and another country unless the powers are exercised:

- (a) to investigate a contravention of a law that applies to foreign aircraft, or persons on foreign aircraft, in that place; or
- (b) to administer, ensure compliance with or investigate a contravention of an international agreement or international decision that applies to foreign aircraft, or persons on foreign aircraft, in that place; or
- (c) at the request or with the agreement of the country of the aircraft's nationality; or
- (d) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

Subdivision C—Exercising powers in Australia

45 Foreign vessels in Australia—evidence and warrants authorisations

- (1) This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers in relation to a foreign vessel under an evidence and warrants authorisation at a place in Australia unless:
  - (a) the vessel is at a place in the internal waters of Australia; or
  - (b) the vessel is passing through the territorial sea of Australia after leaving the internal waters of Australia; or
  - (c) the powers are exercised:
    - (i) at the request or with the agreement of the country of the vessel's nationality; or

- (ii) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 46.

46 Vessels, installations and isolated persons in States and internal Territories

This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers in relation to a vessel, installation or isolated person in a State or internal Territory unless the powers are exercised:

- (a) both:
  - (i) as part of the continuous exercise of powers begun outside the State or internal Territory; and
  - (ii) in relation to conduct that occurred outside a State or internal Territory; or
- (b) in relation to a law of the Commonwealth in waters navigable from waters of the sea; or
- (c) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

Note: The continuous exercise of powers does not end only because there is a period of time between the exercise of one or more of those powers: see section 11.

47 Aircraft in States and internal Territories

This Act does not authorise the exercise of powers in relation to an aircraft in a State or internal Territory unless the powers are exercised:

- (a) as part of the continuous exercise of powers begun outside the State or internal Territory in relation to conduct that occurred outside a State or internal Territory; or
- (b) in relation to a law of the Commonwealth; or
- (c) in connection with the exercise of powers in accordance with this section, to ensure the safety of a maritime officer or any other person.

Section 48

Note: The continuous exercise of powers does not end only because there is a period of time between the exercise of one or more of those powers: see section 11.

Subdivision D—Requests and agreements of other countries

48 Manner and form of requests and agreements

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, a request or agreement of another country:
  - (a) need not be in writing; and
  - (b) includes the following:
    - (i) a standing request or agreement;
    - (ii) a request or agreement relating to particular circumstances;
    - (iii) a request or agreement that covers a particular period of time.
- (2) The request or agreement may be made or given by any of the following:
  - (a) the head of state of the country;
  - (b) the head of the government of the country;
  - (c) the minister of the government of the country who is responsible for foreign affairs;
  - (d) the minister of the government of the country who is responsible for defence;
  - (e) any official or body of the country that has, or could be expected to have, authority to make or give such a request or agreement.

49 Scope of powers under requests and agreements

- (1) If:
    - (a) the request or agreement of another country is made or given for the exercise of powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or isolated person for a particular purpose (the agreed purpose); and
    - (b) the request or agreement is relied on for the purposes of this Division;

Section 49

---

a maritime officer may exercise any maritime power in relation to the vessel, installation, aircraft or person for the agreed purpose.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not authorise the exercise of a power specified in the request or agreement as a power that must not be exercised under the request or agreement in relation to the vessel, installation, aircraft or person.

Part 3—Maritime powers

Division 1—Introduction

50 Guide to this Part

This Part sets out maritime powers.

Maritime powers may be exercised only in accordance with Part 2 and include the following:

- (a) boarding and entry powers;
- (b) information gathering powers;
- (c) search powers;
- (d) powers to seize and retain things;
- (e) powers to detain vessels and aircraft;
- (f) powers to place, detain, move and arrest persons;
- (g) the power to require persons to cease conduct that contravenes Australian law.

51 Effect of Part

The powers in this Part may be exercised only in accordance with Part 2.

Division 2—Boarding

52 Boarding vessels, installations and aircraft

- (1) A maritime officer may board a vessel, installation or aircraft.
- (2) If the person in charge of the vessel, installation or aircraft requests the officer to produce identification, the officer must produce:
  - (a) the officer's identity card; or
  - (b) other written evidence of the fact that the officer is a Commonwealth officer.
- (3) If the officer fails to produce the identity card or other written evidence, the officer must:
  - (a) leave the vessel, installation or aircraft; and
  - (b) not re-board the vessel, installation or aircraft without producing the identity card or other written evidence.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply if the officer is one of the following in uniform:
  - (a) a member of the Australian Defence Force;
  - (b) an officer of Customs (within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901);
  - (c) a member or special member of the Australian Federal Police;
  - (d) an officer prescribed by the regulations.

53 Requirement to facilitate boarding

- (1) A maritime officer may require the person in charge of a vessel, installation or aircraft to take reasonable steps to facilitate the boarding of the vessel, installation or aircraft.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.
- (2) The requirement may be made by any reasonable means.
- (3) The requirement is made whether or not the person in charge of the vessel, installation or aircraft understands or is aware of the requirement.

54 Additional powers—vessels

Stopping, manoeuvring etc.

- (1) A maritime officer may require the person in charge of a vessel to do one or more of the following:
  - (a) stop or manoeuvre the vessel;
  - (b) adopt a specified course or speed;
  - (c) maintain a specified course or speed.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

- (2) The requirement is made whether or not the person in charge of the vessel understands or is aware of the requirement.

Chasing

- (3) If the person in charge of a vessel does not comply with a requirement to stop or facilitate boarding of the vessel, a maritime officer may do one or more of the following:
  - (a) chase the vessel;
  - (b) use any reasonable means to obstruct the passage of the vessel;
  - (c) use any reasonable means to halt or slow the passage of the vessel, including by fouling the propellers of the vessel;
  - (d) after firing a warning shot, fire at or into the vessel to disable it or compel it to be brought to for boarding.

Requirement taken to be made to support vessels

- (4) A requirement made to a person in charge of a vessel (the supported vessel) to stop or facilitate boarding of the supported vessel, is taken to have been made also to the person in charge of any vessel supporting the supported vessel.

55 Additional powers—aircraft

Identifying

- (1) A maritime officer may require the person in charge of an aircraft to disclose any or all of the following to the officer:
  - (a) the identity of the aircraft;
  - (b) the identity of all persons on the aircraft;
  - (c) the flight path of the aircraft;
  - (d) the flight plan of the aircraft.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

- (2) The requirement may be made by any reasonable means.
- (3) The requirement is made whether or not the person in charge of the aircraft understands or is aware of the requirement.
- (4) The powers in subsection (1) are aircraft identification powers.

Intercepting

- (5) A maritime officer who is on board an aircraft may use his or her aircraft to intercept another aircraft.
- (6) The interception must be in accordance with the practices recommended in Annex 2 (headed “Rules of the Air”) to the Convention on International Civil Aviation done at Chicago on 7 December 1944 (that was adopted in accordance with that Convention).

Note: The text of the Convention is set out in Australian Treaty Series 1957 No. 5 ([1957] ATS 5). In 2013, the text of a Convention in the Australian Treaty Series was accessible through the Australian Treaties Library on the AustLII website (www.austlii.edu.au).

Landing

- (7) A maritime officer may require the person in charge of an aircraft to land the aircraft:
  - (a) at the nearest airport in Australia; or

Part 3 Maritime powers

Division 2 Boarding

Section 55

---

(b) at another place in Australia that the officer considers appropriate.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

(8) A maritime officer must have regard to the safety of the aircraft when making a requirement under subsection (7).

Division 3—Entering on land

56 Entering on land

- (1) A maritime officer may enter onto land.
- (2) If the person in charge of the land requests the officer to produce identification, the officer must produce:
  - (a) the officer's identity card; or
  - (b) other written evidence of the fact that the officer is a Commonwealth officer.
- (3) If the officer fails to produce the identity card or other written evidence, the officer must:
  - (a) leave the land; and
  - (b) not re-enter the land without producing the identity card or other written evidence.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply if the officer is one of the following in uniform:
  - (a) a member of the Australian Defence Force;
  - (b) an officer of Customs (within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901);
  - (c) a member or special member of the Australian Federal Police;
  - (d) an officer prescribed by the regulations.

Note: The exercise of powers on land is limited: see the definition of protected land area in section 8 and the geographical limits on the exercise of powers set out in sections 46 and 47.

Division 4—Obtaining information

57 Requiring answers, records and documents

- (1) A maritime officer may require a person to answer questions or produce records or documents.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

- (2) The questions, records or documents may be about, or relate to:
- (a) a vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
  - (b) the operations of a vessel, installation or aircraft, or activities conducted on a vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
  - (c) any thing on or in the vicinity of a vessel, installation, aircraft or land (including stores and cargo); or
  - (d) the identity of the person or any other person; or
  - (e) the reasons for the person or any other person being on or in the vicinity of a vessel, installation, aircraft or land; or
  - (f) any journey undertaken by the person or any other person; or
  - (g) any contravention, or suspected contravention, of an Australian law.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).

58 Obtaining readings

A maritime officer may read, make readings from, or require the person in charge of a vessel, installation or aircraft to show the officer readings of, navigational or other instruments that relate to the operations of a vessel, installation or aircraft.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this section: see section 103.

Division 5—Searching

59 Searching places

- (1) A maritime officer may conduct a search, including a search of private living quarters.

Opening holds etc.

- (2) In conducting a search, a maritime officer may break open any space (including a hold, compartment, container, receptacle or any place that could be used as a receptacle).
- (3) Before breaking open a space, a maritime officer must give the person in charge of the vessel, installation, aircraft or land concerned a reasonable opportunity to open the space.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if it is not reasonably practicable to give the person such an opportunity.

Use of dogs, equipment etc.

- (5) A maritime officer may use a dog or any equipment or other thing to assist in a search.

60 Lifting persons or things from the sea

A maritime officer may cause a person or thing to be lifted from the sea.

61 Searching persons

- (1) A maritime officer may search a person.
- (2) The search may be either or both of the following:
  - (a) an ordinary search;
  - (b) a frisk search.
- (3) The officer may require the production of any thing found as a result of the search.

Section 62

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

Meanings of ordinary search and frisk search

- (4) An ordinary search is a search of a person, or of articles in the possession of a person, that may include:
- (a) requiring the person to remove his or her overcoat, coat or jacket and any gloves, shoes or hat; and
  - (b) an examination of those items.
- (5) A frisk search is:
- (a) a search of a person conducted by quickly running hands over the person's outer garments; and
  - (b) an examination of anything worn or carried by the person that is conveniently and voluntarily removed by the person.

62 Conducting frisk searches

- (1) A frisk search must be conducted by a maritime officer or person assisting who is of the same sex as the person being searched.
- Note: For person assisting, see paragraph 38(5)(b).
- (2) If the search is conducted by a person assisting, the search must be conducted in the presence of a maritime officer.
- (3) If:
- (a) there is no maritime officer of the same sex available; and
  - (b) no other suitable person of the same sex will agree to assist;
- any maritime officer may conduct the search.

Division 6—Things found or produced

63 Examining things

Maritime officer may examine things

- (1) A maritime officer may examine a thing.

Examples of examining

- (2) The officer may do the following:
- (a) open any package in which the thing is or may be contained;
  - (b) use a device, such as an X-ray machine or ion scanning equipment, on the thing;
  - (c) test or analyse the thing;
  - (d) measure or count the thing;
  - (e) take samples of the thing (even if the sampling destroys the thing);
  - (f) operate the thing;
  - (g) if the thing is or contains a record or document—read the record or document either directly or with the use of an electronic device;
  - (h) use a dog to assist in examining the thing;
  - (i) take photographs or a video recording of the thing;
  - (j) make sketches of the thing.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).

Use of force to examine

- (4) The officer may use force to open the thing, or any part of the thing.
- (5) However, before doing so, the officer must give a reasonable opportunity to open the thing, or the part of the thing, to:
- (a) the person in whose possession the thing was found; and
  - (b) if the thing was found on a vessel, installation, aircraft or land—the person in charge of the vessel, installation, aircraft or land.

Section 64

---

- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply if it is not reasonably practicable to give such an opportunity.

64 Securing and marking things

- (1) A maritime officer may do one or more of the following:
- (a) seal a thing;
  - (b) mark a thing;
  - (c) lock up, or otherwise secure a thing (including in the hold of a vessel or aircraft);
  - (d) if the thing is a live plant:
    - (i) mark or label a cage or container in which the plant is kept or in which the plant is growing; or
    - (ii) place a label or tag on the plant;
  - (e) if the thing is a live animal:
    - (i) implant a scannable device in the animal; or
    - (ii) place a band on any part of the animal; or
    - (iii) place (whether by piercing or otherwise) a tag or ring on any part of the animal; or
    - (iv) mark or label a cage or container within which the animal is kept.

Offences

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) in the exercise of powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or land, a maritime officer seals, marks, labels, locks up or secures a thing; and
  - (b) the continuous exercise of those powers has not ceased; and
  - (c) the person:
    - (i) breaks or defaces the seal; or
    - (ii) erases or defaces the mark or label; or
    - (iii) breaks or unlocks the lock or otherwise causes the thing to be unsecured; and
  - (d) the person does so without the consent of a maritime officer.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

---

Note: The continuous exercise of powers does not end only because there is a period of time between the exercise of one or more of those powers: see section 11.

- (3) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) in the exercise of powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or land, a maritime officer:
    - (i) implants a scannable device in an animal; or
    - (ii) places a band on any part of an animal; or
    - (iii) places (whether by piercing or otherwise) a tag or ring on any part of an animal; and
  - (b) the continuous exercise of those powers has not ceased; and
  - (c) the person removes, or interferes with, the implant, band, tag or ring; and
  - (d) the person does so without the consent of a maritime officer.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: The continuous exercise of powers does not end only because there is a period of time between the exercise of one or more of those powers: see section 11.

65 Copying records or documents

A maritime officer may copy a record or document, or a part of a record or document.

66 Securing weapons

- (1) A maritime officer may secure a weapon.
- (2) The officer may:
- (a) take temporary possession of the weapon; or
  - (b) give temporary possession of the weapon to another person; or
  - (c) move or guard the weapon; or
  - (d) disarm or dismantle the weapon.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).

Note: A weapon can be seized under section 67 (seizing things), and could be retained under section 68 (retaining things).

Section 67

---

67 Seizing things

- (1) A maritime officer may seize:
- (a) a weapon; or
  - (b) any thing that the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds:
    - (i) is evidential material; or
    - (ii) is a border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
    - (iii) is owned by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory.

Note: Written notice must be given if a thing is seized: see section 80.

- (2) To avoid doubt, a thing owned by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory includes a thing that has been forfeited to the Commonwealth or the State or Territory.

- (3) A thing seized under subsection (1) is a seized thing.

68 Retaining things

- (1) A maritime officer may retain any thing that the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, could be seized under an Australian law.

Note: Written notice must be given if a thing is retained: see section 80.

- (2) The officer may retain the thing even if a warrant would be required to take possession of the thing under that law.

- (3) A thing retained under subsection (1) is a retained thing.

Division 7—Detaining vessels, aircraft and other conveyances

69 Vessels and aircraft

- (1) A maritime officer may detain a vessel or aircraft.
- (2) The officer may:
  - (a) take the vessel or aircraft, or cause the vessel or aircraft to be taken, to a port, airport or other place that the officer considers appropriate; and
  - (b) remain in control of the vessel or aircraft, or require the person in charge of the vessel or aircraft to remain in control of the vessel or aircraft, at that place until the vessel is released or disposed of.

Note 1: Written notice must be given if a vessel or aircraft is detained: see section 80.

Note 2: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under paragraph (b): see section 103.

- (3) The officer may take the vessel or aircraft, or cause it to be taken, to the port, airport or other place even if it is necessary for the vessel or aircraft to travel outside Australia to reach the port, airport or other place.
- (4) A vessel detained under subsection (1) is a detained vessel.
- (5) An aircraft detained under subsection (1) is a detained aircraft.

70 Other conveyances

A maritime officer may detain a vehicle or other conveyance on land.

Division 8—Placing and moving persons

71 Placing persons

A maritime officer exercising powers in relation to a vessel, installation, aircraft or land may place or keep a person in a particular place on the vessel, installation, aircraft or land.

Note 1: The exercise of powers under this Act must be for a purpose set out in Division 4 of Part 2.

Note 2: A maritime officer must not subject a person to greater indignity than is necessary and reasonable in the exercise of powers: see section 37.

Note 3: A person arrested, detained or otherwise held under this Act must be treated with humanity and respect for human dignity, and must not be subject to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment: see section 95.

72 Persons on detained vessels and aircraft

- (1) This section applies to a person:
- (a) on a detained vessel or detained aircraft; or
  - (b) whom a maritime officer reasonably suspects was on a vessel or aircraft when it was detained.

Note: For detaining vessels and aircraft, see section 69.

- (2) A maritime officer may return the person to the vessel or aircraft.
- (3) A maritime officer may require the person to remain on the vessel or aircraft until it is:
- (a) taken to a port, airport or other place (see section 69); or
  - (b) permitted to depart from the port, airport or other place.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this subsection: see section 103.

- (4) A maritime officer may detain the person and take the person, or cause the person to be taken:
- (a) to a place in the migration zone; or
  - (b) to a place outside the migration zone, including a place outside Australia.
- (5) For the purposes of taking the person to another place, a maritime officer may within or outside Australia:

- (a) place the person on a vessel or aircraft; or
- (b) restrain the person on a vessel or aircraft; or
- (c) remove the person from a vessel or aircraft.

73 Using detention provisions

- (1) A maritime officer may detain a person under a detention provision as if the officer were an officer (however described) within the meaning of that provision.

Note: For dealing with a person who has been detained under a detention provision, see section 98.

- (2) Each of the following is a detention provision:
  - (a) clause 8 of Schedule 1 to the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999;
  - (b) clause 8 of Schedule 1A to the Fisheries Management Act 1991;
  - (c) clause 8 of Schedule 2 to the Torres Strait Fisheries Act 1984;
  - (d) a provision prescribed by the regulations.

74 Safety of persons

A maritime officer must not place or keep a person in a place, unless the officer is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that it is safe for the person to be in that place.

75 Restraint is not arrest

- (1) Any restraint on the liberty of a person that results from the operation of this Division does not constitute arrest, and is not unlawful.
- (2) Proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in respect of that restraint may not be instituted or continued in any court against the Commonwealth, a maritime officer or a person assisting.

Note: This section does not affect the jurisdiction of the High Court under section 75 of the Constitution.

Division 9—Arrest

76 Arrest for indictable offences

- (1) A maritime officer may arrest a person if the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the person has committed an indictable offence against an Australian law.

Note: For dealing with a person who has been arrested, see section 100.

Release from arrest

- (2) The person must be released from arrest if, before the person is charged with the offence, the officer ceases to suspect, on reasonable grounds, that the person committed the offence.

77 Enforcing arrest warrants

A maritime officer may arrest a person for whom an arrest warrant is in force under an Australian law.

Note: For dealing with a person who has been arrested, see section 100.

Division 10—Requiring conduct to cease

78 Requiring conduct to cease

A maritime officer may require a person to cease conduct if the officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the conduct constitutes a contravention of an Australian law.

Note: It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement under this section: see section 103.

Part 4—Dealing with things taken

Division 1—Introduction

79 Guide to this Part

This Part sets out processes for dealing with things taken in the exercise of powers under this Act.

Things taken fall into the following 3 categories:

- (a) seized things;
- (b) retained things;
- (c) detained vessels and aircraft.

Written notice must be given to the owner or person who was in possession or control of a seized, retained or detained thing.

Seized things may be used for certain purposes, but must be returned unless:

- (a) they are required for proceedings; or
- (b) they have been disposed of under an Australian law; or
- (c) they are seized under another Australian law; or
- (d) the Commonwealth claims ownership of them.

Retained and detained things must be returned unless:

- (a) they have been disposed of under an Australian law; or
- (b) they are seized under an Australian law; or

(c) the Commonwealth claims ownership of them.

The Minister may dispose of seized, retained and detained things on the grounds set out in Division 5.

If the Commonwealth claims ownership of a seized, retained or detained thing, a person may apply to a court for its return.

Section 80

Division 2—Notice of seizure, retention or detention

80 Notice of seizure, retention or detention

- (1) If a maritime officer seizes or retains a thing, or detains a vessel or aircraft (also the thing), the officer must give written notice, within 14 days, to:
  - (a) the owner of the thing; or
  - (b) the person who had possession or control of the thing immediately before it was seized, retained or detained.

Note: Things may be seized under section 67 and retained under section 68. Vessels and aircraft may be detained under section 69.

- (2) If the officer cannot conveniently give the notice in person, the officer may give the notice by fixing the notice to a prominent part of the thing, unless the thing is perishable.
- (3) The notice must:
  - (a) identify the thing; and
  - (b) state that the thing has been seized, retained or detained; and
  - (c) specify the reason for this; and
  - (d) specify contact details of an officer who can provide further information; and
  - (e) include information about the return of the thing.

81 Information about the return of things

Seized things

- (1) Information about the return of a seized thing must state that the thing will be returned within 120 days of its seizure unless:
  - (a) the thing is required for the purposes of proceedings that have been instituted, or an appeal arising from such proceedings; or
  - (b) the period of 120 days is extended by a magistrate under section 88; or
  - (c) the thing is disposed of under an Australian law; or
  - (d) the thing is seized under another Australian law; or

- (e) notice of Commonwealth ownership of the thing is given.

Retained things and detained vessels and aircraft

- (2) Information about the return of a retained thing, or a detained vessel or detained aircraft (also the thing), must state that the thing will be returned within 28 days of its retention or detention unless:
  - (a) the period of 28 days is extended by a magistrate under section 88; or
  - (b) the thing is disposed of under an Australian law; or
  - (c) the thing is seized under an Australian law; or
  - (d) notice of Commonwealth ownership of the thing is given.

82 Notice of Commonwealth ownership

- (1) Notice of Commonwealth ownership of a thing may be given at any time.
- (2) The notice must:
  - (a) state that the Commonwealth claims ownership of the thing; and
  - (b) state that any other person who claims ownership or possession of the thing may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction, within 30 days after the notice is given, for an order for the return of the thing.
- (3) If the notice cannot conveniently be given in person, the officer may give the notice by fixing the notice to a prominent part of the thing, unless the thing is perishable.

Division 3—Using seized things

83 Using seized things

- (1) A maritime officer may use a seized thing, or make a seized thing available to another Commonwealth officer to use as follows:
  - (a) to prevent, investigate or prosecute a contravention of:
    - (i) an Australian law; or
    - (ii) an international agreement or international decision;
  - (b) to administer or ensure compliance with:
    - (i) a monitoring law; or
    - (ii) an international agreement or international decision;
  - (c) for any other purpose under another Australian law, as if the thing had been seized, produced or required (however described) under that law;
  - (d) to decide whether to use the thing as mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (2) To avoid doubt, paragraph (1)(c) applies even if a warrant would have been required to seize or access the thing under that law.

Note: The thing will have to be returned in accordance with section 86, unless an exception under subsection 86(3) applies.

84 Using seized things—State and Territory officers

A Commonwealth officer may make a seized thing available to an officer of a State or Territory to be:

- (a) seized under a law of the State or Territory; or
- (b) used for any other purpose under a law of the State or Territory.

Note: The thing will have to be returned in accordance with section 86, unless an exception under subsection 86(3) applies.

85 Operating electronic equipment

If:

- (a) a seized thing may be used under this Division for a particular purpose; and

(b) the thing is electronic equipment;
the thing may be operated for that purpose.

Division 4—Returning things

86 Returning seized things

- (1) If a seized thing is no longer required for a purpose mentioned in Division 3 (using seized things), the person who has control of the thing must take reasonable steps to return the thing to:
  - (a) the owner of the thing; or
  - (b) the person who had possession or control of the thing immediately before it was seized.
- (2) The thing must be returned within:
  - (a) 120 days after it is seized; or
  - (b) that period as extended under section 88.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if:
  - (a) the thing is required for the purposes of proceedings that have been instituted, or an appeal arising from such proceedings; or
  - (b) the thing has been disposed of under an Australian law; or
  - (c) the thing has been seized under another Australian law; or
  - (d) notice of Commonwealth ownership of the thing has been given.

87 Returning retained and detained things

- (1) A retained thing, or a detained vessel or detained aircraft (also the thing), must be returned to:
    - (a) the owner of the thing; or
    - (b) the person who had possession or control of the thing immediately before it was retained or detained.
  - (2) The thing must be returned within:
    - (a) 28 days after it is retained or detained; or
    - (b) that period as extended under section 88.
  - (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if:
    - (a) the thing has been disposed of under an Australian law; or
    - (b) the thing has been seized under an Australian law; or

- (c) notice of Commonwealth ownership of the thing has been given.

88 Magistrate may extend holding period

- (1) The person who has control of a seized thing or retained thing, or a detained vessel or detained aircraft (also the thing), may apply to a magistrate for an order extending, or further extending, the period for which the thing may be held.
- (2) The magistrate may make an order extending the period for which the thing may be held if the magistrate is satisfied that:
  - (a) the thing is required for a purpose mentioned in Division 3 (using seized things); or
  - (b) there are other grounds for extending the period.
- (3) Before making the application, the person who has control of the thing must:
  - (a) take reasonable steps to discover who has an interest in the thing; and
  - (b) if it is practicable to do so, notify each such person of the proposed application.

89 Returning things if notice of Commonwealth ownership given

Application to court

- (1) If notice of Commonwealth ownership of a thing is given, a person who claims ownership or possession of the thing may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order for the return of the thing.
- (2) The application must be made within 30 days after the notice of Commonwealth ownership is given.

Order for return of thing

- (3) The court may order the return of the thing if:
  - (a) the court is not satisfied that the Commonwealth owns the thing; and

Section 90

---

- (b) the thing has not been:
  - (i) seized under another Australian law; or
  - (ii) disposed of under an Australian law.

90 Seizing under other Australian laws

- (1) If a seized thing is seized under another Australian law, its seizure under this Act does not:
  - (a) count as seizure under the other law; or
  - (b) remove or fulfil any requirement under the other law to:
    - (i) give notice or information; or
    - (ii) act under a warrant; or
    - (iii) do any other thing in relation to the seizure under the other law.
- (2) If a retained thing, or a detained vessel or detained aircraft (also the thing), is seized under an Australian law (the other law), its retention or detention under this Act does not:
  - (a) count as seizure under the other law; or
  - (b) remove or fulfil any requirement under the other law to:
    - (i) give notice or information; or
    - (ii) act under a warrant; or
    - (iii) do any other thing in relation to the seizure under the other law.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) have effect subject to any express provision to the contrary in an Australian law.

Division 5—Disposing of things

91 Reasons for disposal

- (1) The Minister may dispose of a seized thing or retained thing, or a detained vessel or detained aircraft (also the thing), if:
  - (a) custody or maintenance (including any necessary movement or transport) of the thing creates serious difficulties; or
  - (b) the expenses of custody or maintenance (including any necessary movement or transport) of the thing are likely to exceed its value; or
  - (c) the thing is a live plant or animal and its return to its native environment would be beneficial to its survival; or
  - (d) if notice of Commonwealth ownership of the thing has been given:
    - (i) an application for an order for the return of the thing has not been made within the time allowed under section 89; or
    - (ii) proceedings in relation to such an application have been finally determined without an order for the return of the thing being made.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), the custody or maintenance of the thing is taken to create serious difficulties if:
  - (a) the thing is perishable; or
  - (b) storage of the thing would be impractical; or
  - (c) the thing poses a serious risk to navigation, quarantine, safety or public health; or
  - (d) the thing poses a serious risk of damage to property or the environment; or
  - (e) if the thing is a vessel—it is unseaworthy; or
  - (f) despite reasonable efforts, it has not been possible to return the thing.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit paragraph (1)(a).

Section 92

---

92 Methods of disposal

- (1) The thing may be:
  - (a) sold; or
  - (b) destroyed; or
  - (c) if the thing is a live plant or animal—returned to its native environment; or
  - (d) disposed of in any other way.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe the way in which a thing prescribed by the regulations must be disposed of.

93 Notice of disposal

- (1) If the thing is disposed of under paragraph 91(1)(a), (b) or (c) (reasons for disposal), the Minister must give written notice, as soon as practicable after the disposal, to the person who:
  - (a) owned the thing; or
  - (b) had possession or control of the thing immediately before it was seized, retained or detained.
- (2) The notice must state:
  - (a) that the thing has been disposed of; and
  - (b) the reason for the disposal; and
  - (c) that compensation may be payable under section 117.

Note: A person may be paid compensation under section 117 if the disposal of the thing results in an acquisition of property otherwise than on just terms.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if, despite making reasonable efforts, the Minister cannot locate the person.

Part 5—Dealing with persons held

Division 1—Introduction

94 Guide to this Part

This Part sets out requirements for dealing with persons held in the exercise of powers under this Act.

Persons arrested, detained or otherwise held:

- (a) must not be subject to greater indignity than is necessary and reasonable (see section 37); and
- (b) must be treated with humanity and respect for human dignity, and must not be subject to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment (see section 95).

Persons from detained vessels and aircraft may be required to remain on the vessel or aircraft, or may be taken to another place.

Persons detained under provisions of other Acts must be dealt with under those Acts.

Persons arrested must, as soon as practicable, be:

- (a) taken before a magistrate; or
- (b) delivered to a police officer or other appropriate person.

95 Treatment of persons held

A person arrested, detained or otherwise held under this Act must be treated with humanity and respect for human dignity, and must not be subject to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment.

96 Doing things as soon as practicable

The following are to be taken into account in determining whether a maritime officer has done something as soon as practicable under this Part:

- (a) the location of the place where a person is arrested or detained;
- (b) the weather conditions at the time;
- (c) the means of transport available;
- (d) the need to proceed or continue with the exercise of powers under this Act;
- (e) the need to ensure the safety of a vessel, installation or aircraft;
- (f) the need to take action to:
  - (i) protect human life, animal life or the environment; or
  - (ii) aid a vessel in distress; or
  - (iii) obtain medical assistance for any person.

Division 2—Persons detained

97 Persons on, or from, detained vessels or aircraft taken to other places

- (1) If a person is detained and taken to another place under subsection 72(4) (persons on detained vessels and aircraft), the detention ends at that place.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent:
  - (a) the person being taken to different places on the way to the other place; or
  - (b) the arrest of the person; or
  - (c) the detention of the person under another Australian law; or
  - (d) the exercise of any other power in relation to the person.

98 Persons detained under detention provisions

Person must be delivered into custody

- (1) If a maritime officer detains a person under a detention provision, the officer must deliver the person, or make arrangements for the person to be delivered, as soon as practicable, into the custody of an officer (however described) within the meaning of the detention provision.

Note: For detention under detention provisions, see section 73.

How detention law applies

- (2) The Act in which the detention provision is contained has effect as if the officer to whom the person is delivered had detained the person at the time when the person is delivered into the officer's custody.

Division 3—Persons arrested

99 Application of this Division

This Division applies to a person arrested under this Act.

100 Person to be informed of reason for arrest

- (1) A maritime officer must inform the person, at the time of the arrest, of the offence for which the person is being arrested.

Note: For arrest powers, see sections 76 and 77.

- (2) It is sufficient if the person is informed of the substance of the offence, and it is not necessary that this be done in language of a precise or technical nature.

Person need not be informed if impracticable etc.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
- (a) the person should, in the circumstances, know the substance of the offence for which he or she is being arrested; or
  - (b) the person's actions make it impracticable for the officer to inform the person of the offence for which he or she is being arrested; or
  - (c) the officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person does not speak English and it is not practicable for the officer to inform the person, in a language he or she understands, of the offence for which he or she is being arrested.

101 Person to be brought before magistrate

The officer must:

- (a) take the person, or make arrangements for the person to be taken, as soon as practicable, before a magistrate; or
- (b) deliver the person, or make arrangements for the person to be delivered, on land, as soon as practicable, to:
  - (i) the Australian Federal Police; or
  - (ii) the police force of a State or Territory; or

- (iii) if the arrest relates to an offence against another law—a person with the power to arrest, or the power to deal with a person who has been arrested, under that law.

102 Enforcing arrest warrants

If the person is arrested for the purposes of enforcing an arrest warrant that is in force under an Australian law (see section 77), the arresting officer:

- (a) must, as soon as practicable, comply with any requirements in the warrant that would have to be complied with by a person executing the warrant; and
- (b) need not comply with section 101 (person to be brought before magistrate) to the extent that it is inconsistent with any such requirements.

Part 6—Failing to comply with requirements

103 Offence

A person commits an offence if:

- (a) a requirement is made under a provision mentioned in the table below; and
- (b) the person engages in conduct; and
- (c) the result of the conduct is that the requirement is not complied with.

Penalties
Item	If the requirement is made under ...	The penalty is ...
1	Subsection 39(1) (requirement to assist)	Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both
2	Subsection 53(1) (requirement to facilitate boarding)	Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both
3	Subsection 54(1) (additional powers—vessels)	Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both
4	Subsection 55(1) (additional powers—aircraft)	Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both
5	Subsection 55(7) (additional powers—aircraft)	Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both

Part 7—Miscellaneous

Division 1—Maritime officers

104 Maritime officers

- (1) Each of the following is a maritime officer:
- (a) a member of the Australian Defence Force;
  - (b) an officer of Customs (within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901);
  - (c) a member or special member of the Australian Federal Police;
  - (d) a person appointed as a maritime officer by the Minister.

Limited appointments

- (2) The Minister may appoint a person under paragraph (1)(d) as a maritime officer:
- (a) in relation to one or more of the following only:
    - (i) a specified law;
    - (ii) a specified international agreement or international decision; and
  - (b) subject to any other conditions specified in the appointment.
- (3) The appointment may limit the exercise of powers by the person as a maritime officer.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit paragraph (2)(b).

105 Carrying and using arms

- (1) A maritime officer who is authorised in another capacity as an officer (however described) of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory to carry and use arms may carry and use arms as a maritime officer.
- (2) Any conditions applying to the carriage or use of arms by the officer in the officer's other capacity apply in like manner to the carriage and use of arms by the officer as a maritime officer.

Section 106

---

106 Identity cards

- (1) The Minister may issue an identity card to a maritime officer.
- (2) The identity card must:
  - (a) contain a recent photograph of the officer; and
  - (b) be in a form approved in writing by the Minister.
- (3) A person commits an offence if:
  - (a) the person has been issued with an identity card under subsection (1); and
  - (b) the person ceases to be a maritime officer; and
  - (c) the person does not immediately return the identity card to the Minister or a person nominated by the Minister.

Penalty: 1 penalty unit.

107 Protection from suit

None of the following is liable to an action, suit or proceeding for or in relation to an act done, or omitted to be done, in good faith in the exercise or performance, or the purported exercise or performance, of a power or function under this Act:

- (a) an authorising officer;
- (b) a maritime officer;
- (c) a person assisting;
- (d) any other person acting under the direction or authority of a maritime officer.

Note: For person assisting, see subsection 38(5).

Division 2—Evidentiary certificates

108 Evidence of international agreements and decisions

The Foreign Affairs Minister may, by signed writing, certify that, at a particular time, an international agreement or international decision provided for the exercise of powers by Australia in relation to a particular vessel, installation or aircraft.

Note: Certificates under this section relate to requirements set out in paragraph 12(a).

109 Evidence of approvals

The Minister may, by signed writing, certify that the Minister had, at a particular time, approved without writing one or more of the following:

- (a) the exercise of maritime powers in relation to a particular aircraft for the purposes of investigating a particular contravention, or contraventions in general;
- (b) the exercise of powers under a particular international agreement or international decision in relation to a particular vessel, installation or aircraft.

Note: Certificates under this section relate to requirements set out in paragraph 10(b) and subparagraph 12(b)(ii).

110 Evidence of requests and agreements—geographical limits on exercise of powers

The Foreign Affairs Minister may, by signed writing, certify:

- (a) that a particular country requested or agreed to the exercise of powers as required by a provision of Division 5 of Part 2 (geographical limits); and
- (b) the conditions or restrictions (if any) on which the request or agreement was made or given.

111 Certificates are prima facie evidence

For all purposes and in all proceedings, a certificate under this Division is prima facie evidence of the matters certified.

Division 3—Recovery of costs

112 Chase costs

- (1) This section applies if a maritime officer chases a vessel under subsection 54(3).
- (2) The owner of the vessel or, if the vessel is owned by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory, any person who purports to own the vessel is liable to pay to the Commonwealth an amount equal to the reasonable costs incurred by the Commonwealth in conducting the chase.
- (3) If the vessel has more than one owner or purported owner, the owners or purported owners are jointly and severally liable.

113 Seizure costs

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) notice of Commonwealth ownership of a thing is given; and
  - (b) an application for an order for the return of the thing is made under section 89; and
  - (c) proceedings in relation to the application have been finally determined without such an order being made.
- (2) The person who made the application is liable to pay to the Commonwealth an amount equal to the sum of the costs reasonably incurred by the Commonwealth in relation to the following:
  - (a) the custody of the thing;
  - (b) the maintenance of the thing;
  - (c) transport of the thing;
  - (d) the costs of disposal of the thing.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply in relation to any costs:
  - (a) met by the person who made the application; and
  - (b) incurred with the agreement of the Commonwealth officer who has control of the thing.

- (4) For the purposes of meeting such costs, the thing may be released into the custody of the person on such conditions as the Commonwealth officer thinks appropriate.

114 Liability to pay costs is a debt to the Commonwealth

- (1) An amount payable by a person under this Division is a debt due by the person to the Commonwealth.
- (2) The amount may be recovered by action in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (3) The Commonwealth's right to recover the whole or a part of the amount may be waived by:
- (a) the Chief Executive Officer of Customs; or
  - (b) the Secretary of the Department administered by the Minister who administers the Naval Defence Act 1910.

Division 4—Gathering and sharing information

115 Copying records or documents for other purposes

A maritime officer may copy a record or document, or a part of a record or document, found or produced in the exercise of powers under this Act if the officer is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the record or document may contain information relevant to:

- (a) security (within the meaning of section 4 of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979); or
- (b) the performance of functions under section 17 of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979; or
- (c) the performance of functions under section 6 of the Intelligence Services Act 2001.

116 Sharing information

- (1) A maritime officer may give information, a record or document, or a copy of a record or document, obtained in the exercise of powers under this Act (the maritime information) to a cooperating agency for use by that agency in relation to:
  - (a) matters concerning maritime security, maritime safety or maritime domain awareness; or
  - (b) the exercise of the functions or powers of the agency.
- (2) The maritime information may be or include personal information.

Note: The use or disclosure of personal information obtained under this section is regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.
- (3) A maritime officer who is an officer (however described) of the Commonwealth in another capacity may disclose or provide maritime information as if the maritime information had been obtained by the officer in that other capacity.
- (4) Each of the following is a cooperating agency:
  - (a) the Australian Defence Force;
  - (b) the Australian Federal Police;
  - (c) the police force of a State or Territory;

- (d) any other agency of the Commonwealth, or a State or Territory, responsible for:
  - (i) investigating contraventions of laws; or
  - (ii) administering or ensuring compliance with laws; or
  - (iii) gathering or evaluating intelligence; or
  - (iv) security; or
  - (v) defence;
- (e) an international body responsible for:
  - (i) investigating contraventions of international agreements or international decisions; or
  - (ii) administering or ensuring compliance with international agreements or international decisions;
- (f) any other body or agency prescribed by the regulations.

Division 5—Compensation for acquisition of property

117 Compensation for acquisition of property

(1) If the operation of this Act would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.

(2) In this section:

acquisition of property has the same meaning as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

just terms has the same meaning as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

118 Compensation for damage to documents

(1) This section applies if:

- (a) as a result of the exercise of powers under this Act, a document is lost, destroyed or damaged; and
- (b) the loss, destruction or damage occurred wholly or partly as a result of:
  - (i) insufficient care being taken in selecting the person to exercise the powers; or
  - (ii) insufficient care being taken by the person exercising the powers.

(2) The Commonwealth is liable to pay the owner of the document a reasonable amount of compensation.

119 Compensation for damage to equipment

(1) This section applies if:

- (a) as a result of equipment being operated in the exercise of powers under this Act:
  - (i) damage is caused to the equipment; or

- (ii) damage is caused to any data recorded on the equipment or data access to which was obtained from the operation of the equipment; or
  - (iii) programs associated with the use of the equipment, or with the use of the data, are damaged or corrupted; and
  - (b) the damage or corruption occurs because:
    - (i) insufficient care was exercised in selecting the person who was to operate the equipment; or
    - (ii) insufficient care was exercised by the person operating the equipment.
- (2) The Commonwealth is liable to pay the owner of the equipment, or the user of the data or programs, a reasonable amount of compensation.
- (3) If the equipment was moved or seized, then, in determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether a person responsible for the equipment at the time provided any appropriate warning or guidance on the operation of the equipment.
- (4) In this section:

damage, in relation to data, includes damage by erasure of data or addition of other data.

120 Amount of compensation—proceedings

If the Commonwealth does not agree with a person on the amount of the compensation to be paid under this Division, the person may institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.

Division 6—Delegation and regulations

121 Delegation

- (1) The Minister may, by writing, delegate any or all of his or her functions and powers under this Act to:
  - (a) the Chief of the Defence Force, the Chief of Navy, the Chief of Army or the Chief of Air Force; or
  - (b) the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police; or
  - (c) an Agency Head (within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1999); or
  - (d) an officer of the Australian Navy who holds a rank not below Commodore; or
  - (e) an officer of the Australian Army who holds a rank not below Brigadier; or
  - (f) an officer of the Australian Air Force who holds a rank not below Air Commodore; or
  - (g) an SES employee with a classification not below Senior Executive Band 1 or equivalent.
- (2) In exercising functions or powers delegated under subsection (1), the delegate must comply with any directions of the Minister.

122 Regulations

The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters:

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
