- (y) Jordan;
- (z) Poland;
- (za) Uruguay;
- (zb) Turkey;
- (zc) Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste (East Timor).

6 Application to visiting forces of law relating to Defence Force

- (1) The immunities conferred by section 70 of the Defence Act 1903 on members of the Defence Force and vehicles used by members of the Defence Force are conferred on members of a visiting force sent to Australia by a country in relation to which section 16 of the Act applies and vehicles used by members of that force.
- (2) The immunities conferred by subsection 123 (1) of the Defence Act 1903 on members of the Defence Force are conferred on members of a visiting force sent to Australia by a country in relation to which section 16 of the Act applies as if:
 - (a) references to the Defence Force in subsection 123 (1) of the Defence Act 1903 were references to that force; and
 - (b) the reference in paragraph 123 (1) (a) of that Act to the Commonwealth included a reference to that country.

9 Summons to give evidence before, or produce documents to, service tribunal

- (1) The power to summon witnesses to give evidence and produce documents conferred by section 138 of the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982 shall, subject to the condition specified in subregulation (2), be exercisable, with respect to the service tribunals of a visiting force of a country in relation to which section 8 of the Act applies, by:
 - (a) an appropriate authority within the meaning of the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982; or
 - (b) an officer who holds a rank not below the rank of Commander in the Navy, Lieutenant Colonel in the Army or Wing Commander in the Air Force.
- (2) The condition subject to which the power to summon a witness shall be exercisable by an appropriate authority or an officer referred to in subregulation (1) is that the authority or officer, as the case requires, is satisfied that the person requesting the issue of the summons has paid or will pay the reasonable expenses of the witness in attending before the service tribunal.

10 Duties of person summoned before a service tribunal

Sections 86 and 87 of the Defence Act 1903 have effect in relation to a person who has been lawfully summoned to attend a service tribunal of a visiting force to give evidence or produce documents, to the extent to which they would have effect if the visiting force were a part of the Defence Force.

11 Civil detention of arrested persons

- (1) Section 94 of the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982 applies with respect to a member of a visiting force of a country in relation to which section 8 of the Act applies charged with an offence triable by a service tribunal of the visiting force as if the member were a person arrested under the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982 and in the custody of a member of the Defence Force.
- (2) Where a commanding officer or the senior member of an escort issues a certificate under section 94 of the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982 with respect to a member of a visiting force of a country in relation to which section 8 of the Act applies charged with an offence triable by a service tribunal of the visiting force, the commanding officer or senior member, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant for the temporary detention of that member in a civil detention facility.
- (3) A warrant under subregulation (2) shall be in accordance with the Form in the Schedule.
- (4) In this regulation civil detention facility has the same meaning as in the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982.

12 Witnesses before service tribunals

- (1) A service tribunal of a visiting force of a country in relation to which section 8 of the Act applies may receive evidence on oath from a person not subject to the jurisdiction of the service tribunal who appears as a witness before the tribunal, whether the person has been summoned or appears without being summoned, and for this purpose a member of the tribunal may administer an oath to the person.

- (2) Where a witness conscientiously objects to take an oath, he may make an affirmation that he conscientiously objects to take an oath and that he will state the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth to all questions that are asked him.
- (3) An affirmation so made is of the same force and effect, and entails the same liabilities, as an oath.
- (4) A person referred to in subregulation (1) who appears as a witness before a service tribunal has the same protection as a witness in a matter before the High Court.

The Defence (Visiting Forces) Regulations 1963 (in force under the Defence (Visiting Forces) Act 1963) as shown in this compilation comprise Statutory Rules 1963 No. 134 amended as indicated in the Tables below.

Under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, which came into force on 1 January 2005, it is a requirement for all non-exempt legislative instruments to be registered on the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments. From 1 January 2005 the Statutory Rules series ceased to exist and was replaced with Select Legislative Instruments (SLI series). Numbering conventions remain the same, ie Year and Number.
