Regulation 1.09

- (6) However, such a thing that is part of an aircraft's stores or emergency equipment, or of an airline operator's or airport operator's emergency equipment, is taken not to be a weapon if it is not readily accessible to passengers or the public generally.

- (2) However, the Secretary must not give a direction under subregulation (1) unless the Secretary is satisfied that the program, as varied, would adequately address the relevant matter mentioned in subregulation 6.06(2).
- (3) A direction must:
 - (a) indicate the variation needed; and
 - (b) state the time within which the issuing body must submit an appropriately varied program to the Secretary.
- (4) An issuing body must comply with such a direction.

Note: Regulation 6.19 provides for the revocation of the authorisation of a body that does not comply with a direction.

 - (a) approve or refuse to approve the variation; and
 - (b) notify the body in writing of the decision and, if the decision is a refusal, the reasons for the decision.

- (4) If the Secretary has not approved, or refused to approve, the program within the period allowed by subregulation (3), the Secretary is taken to have refused to approve the program.

Division 6.3—Issuing bodies

6.12 Comptroller-General of Customs and CASA to be issuing bodies

The Comptroller-General of Customs and CASA are each an issuing body.

6.13 Existing issuing bodies

If, immediately before 21 November 2011, an aviation industry participant or an operator of a security controlled airport was an issuing body under regulation 6.13 or 6.14 of these Regulations as in force immediately before 21 November 2011, the participant or operator is taken to be authorised as an issuing body on and after 21 November 2011.

Note: An issuing body may apply under regulation 6.20 for the Secretary to revoke the authorisation of the issuing body under regulation 6.19A.

6.15 Application for authorisation to issue ASICs

- (1) An aviation industry participant or a Commonwealth agency may apply, in writing, to the Secretary for authorisation as an issuing body.

Note: Knowingly making a false or misleading statement in an application is an offence punishable by imprisonment for 12 months—see the Criminal Code, section 136.1.

- (2) An application must be accompanied by a statement setting out the applicant's proposed ASIC program.

6.16 Decision on application

- (1) If the Secretary needs more information to deal with an application under regulation 6.15, the Secretary may ask the applicant, in writing, to provide the information.
- (2) Before the end of 30 days after receiving an application (or, if the Secretary asks for more information under subregulation (1), before the end of 30 days after receiving the information), the Secretary must:
 - (a) authorise, or refuse to authorise, the applicant as an issuing body; and
 - (b) notify the body in writing of the decision and, if the decision is a refusal, the reasons for the decision.

Note: Section 27A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 requires a person who makes a reviewable decision to give a person whose interests are affected by the decision notice of the making of the decision and of the person's right to have the decision reviewed.

- (3) If the Secretary has not authorised, or refused to authorise the applicant as an issuing body within the period allowed by subregulation (2), the Secretary is taken to have refused to authorise the applicant as an issuing body.
- (4) If the applicant is the operator of a security controlled airport, the Secretary must authorise the applicant as an issuing body if the Secretary is satisfied that:

Regulation 6.17

- (a) the applicant's proposed ASIC program adequately addresses the matters mentioned in subregulation 6.06(2); and
 - (b) authorising the applicant as an issuing body would not be likely to be a threat to aviation security.
- (5) If the applicant is not the operator of a security controlled airport, the Secretary must not authorise the applicant as an issuing body unless:
- (a) the applicant is the operator of a prescribed air service, or another person that may appropriately be authorised, in the opinion of the Secretary, as an issuing body; and
 - (b) the applicant controls a secure area, or reasonably needs on-going access to such an area; and
 - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the ASICs that the applicant proposes to issue cannot more appropriately be issued by the operator of a security controlled airport; and
 - (d) the Secretary is satisfied that the applicant's proposed ASIC program adequately addresses the matters mentioned in subregulation 6.06(2); and
 - (e) the Secretary is satisfied that authorising the applicant as an issuing body would not be likely to be a threat to aviation security.
- (6) For paragraph (5)(c), the Secretary must consider:
- (a) how many ASICs the applicant proposes to issue; and
 - (b) the respective resources of the applicant and the operator of the relevant security controlled airport.
- (7) The Secretary may authorise a person as an issuing body subject to a condition set out in the instrument of authorisation.

6.17 Issuing bodies' staff etc

- (1) An issuing body other than a Commonwealth agency must not allow a person to be directly involved in the issue of ASICs if he or she does not hold an ASIC.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) A Commonwealth agency that is an issuing body must not allow a person to be directly involved in the issue of ASICs if he or she does not hold an ASIC.

6.18 Copies of ASIC program to be made available

An issuing body must make a copy of its ASIC program available to another issuing body if the requesting issuing body can demonstrate that making the program available to it will assist it to avoid hindering or obstructing compliance with the program.

Regulation 6.19

6.19 Revocation of authorisation for cause

- (1) If an issuing body is the operator of a security controlled airport, the Secretary must revoke the body's authorisation as an issuing body if, in the opinion of the Secretary:
 - (a) the body's ASIC program does not adequately address a matter mentioned in subregulation 6.06(2) and it is unlikely that a direction under regulation 6.09 will make the program adequately address the matter; or
 - (b) allowing the body's authorisation to continue would be likely to be a significant threat to aviation security; or
 - (c) the body does not comply with a direction of the Secretary under regulation 6.09.
- (2) If an issuing body is not the operator of a security controlled airport, the Secretary must revoke the body's authorisation as an issuing body if, in the opinion of the Secretary:
 - (a) the body is no longer a person that may appropriately be authorised to issue ASICs; or
 - (b) the body no longer controls a secure area, or part of a secure area, of a security controlled airport, and does not reasonably require on-going access to such an area or part of an area; or
 - (c) the ASICs being issued by the body can more appropriately be issued by an airport operator; or
 - (d) the body's ASIC program does not adequately address a matter mentioned in subregulation 6.06(2) and it is unlikely that a direction under regulation 6.09 will make the program adequately address the matter; or
 - (e) allowing the body's authorisation to continue would be likely to be a significant threat to aviation security; or
 - (f) the body does not comply with a direction of the Secretary under regulation 6.09.
- (3) The Secretary may revoke the authorisation of an issuing body if the body contravenes:
 - (a) this Part; or
 - (b) a condition of its authorisation; or
 - (c) its ASIC program.
- (4) In making a decision under subregulation (3), the Secretary must consider:
 - (a) the kind and seriousness of the contravention; and
 - (b) whether the issuing body has previously contravened this Part, a condition of its authorisation or its ASIC program.
- (5) As soon as practicable after revoking the authorisation of a body under this regulation, the Secretary must notify the body in writing of the revocation and the reasons for the revocation.

Note: Section 27A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 requires a person who makes a reviewable decision to give a person whose interests are affected by the decision notice of the making of the decision and of the person's right to have the decision reviewed.

Regulation 6.19A

- (6) The revocation takes effect when written notice of the revocation is given to the body.

6.19A Secretary's discretion to revoke authorisation

- (1) The Secretary may revoke the authorisation of a body (the relevant body) as an issuing body:
- (a) on the Secretary's own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by the relevant body under regulation 6.20.
- (2) If the Secretary is considering revoking the authorisation of the relevant body under this regulation on the Secretary's own initiative, the Secretary must give the relevant body written notice inviting the relevant body to respond within 14 days.
- (3) Before deciding whether to revoke the authorisation under this regulation, the Secretary must consider the following matters:
- (a) the number of ASICs issued by the relevant body that:
 - (i) are in effect; or
 - (ii) are suspended under regulation 6.42B; or
 - (iii) have been cancelled or have expired, but may be reinstated; or
 - (iv) have been cancelled or have expired, if another ASIC may be issued to the former holder without a further background check being conducted;
 - (b) whether there are any applications for ASICs that the relevant body is yet to approve or refuse to approve;
 - (c) whether there is another issuing body that can be the issuing body for:
 - (i) the ASICs issued by the relevant body; and
 - (ii) any applications referred to in paragraph (b);
 - (d) whether the relevant body should be a transitional issuing body under regulation 6.22A;
 - (e) any information given to the Secretary by the Secretary AGD about the following:
 - (i) any applications referred to in paragraph (b);
 - (ii) any applications for ASICs that have been approved by the relevant body, but the ASIC has not yet been issued;
 - (iii) the effect the revocation of the body's authorisation may have on operations;
 - (f) if the relevant body has responded to a notice under subregulation (2)—the relevant body's response, including whether the relevant body wants to continue to be an issuing body;
 - (g) any other matter the Secretary considers relevant.

Regulation 6.20

- (4) If the Secretary decides to revoke, or refuse to revoke, the relevant body's authorisation under this regulation, the Secretary must give the body written notice of the Secretary's decision and the reasons for the decision.

Note: If the body applied for the revocation, the Secretary must make the decision and give the body written notice within 30 days of receiving the application—see subregulation 6.20(2).

- (5) If the Secretary decides to revoke the relevant body's authorisation under this regulation, and there are:
- (a) ASICs referred to in paragraph (3)(a) issued by the relevant body; or
 - (b) applications for ASICs that the relevant body is yet to approve or refuse to approve;

the Secretary must do one of the following:

- (c) decide, under regulation 6.22, that another issuing body is to be the issuing body for the ASICs and applications;
- (d) declare the relevant body to be a transitional issuing body under regulation 6.22A and postpone the revocation until the time referred to in paragraph 6.22A(2)(c).

Note: If there are no ASICs or applications referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), the Secretary may revoke the relevant body's authorisation without doing the things in paragraph (c) or (d).

- (6) In deciding, for the purposes of subregulation (5), which of paragraphs (5)(c) and (d) is to apply, the Secretary must consider the matters referred to in paragraphs (3)(a), (b), (c), (d), (f) and (g).
- (7) A revocation of the relevant body's authorisation under this regulation takes effect:
- (a) if the Secretary declares the relevant body to be a transitional issuing body under regulation 6.22A—at the time referred to in paragraph 6.22A(2)(c); or
 - (b) otherwise—at the time the Secretary decides to revoke the authorisation.
- (8) The Secretary must tell the Secretary AGD if the Secretary decides to revoke the relevant body's authorisation under this regulation.

6.20 Application by issuing body for revocation of authorisation

- (1) An issuing body may apply, in writing, for the Secretary to revoke under regulation 6.19A the authorisation of the body as an issuing body.
- (2) Within 30 days after receiving the written application, the Secretary must:
- (a) decide to revoke, or refuse to revoke, the applicant's authorisation as an issuing body; and
 - (b) give the applicant written notice under subregulation 6.19A(4).

Note: If the Secretary decides to revoke the applicant's authorisation as an issuing body and there are ASICs or applications referred to in paragraph 6.19A(5)(a) or (b), the Secretary must also make a decision referred to in paragraph 6.19A(5)(c) or (d).

- (3) If the Secretary does not make a decision about an application within the 30 days referred to in subregulation (2), the Secretary is taken to have refused to revoke the applicant's authorisation at the end of that period.

6.21 Revocation does not prevent another application for authorisation

The revocation of a body's authorisation as an issuing body under regulation 6.19 or 6.19A does not prevent the body applying for a new authorisation under regulation 6.15.

6.22 Responsibility for ASICs, applications and records if body ceases to be an issuing body

- (1) This regulation applies in relation to a body (the original issuing body) that was an issuing body if:
- (a) the Secretary revokes the authorisation of the body as an issuing body under regulation 6.19 or 6.19A; or
 - (b) the body ceases to exist; or
 - (c) for any other reason, the body no longer performs the functions or exercises the powers of an issuing body.
- (2) The Secretary may decide that another issuing body (the new issuing body) is to be the issuing body for:
- (a) any ASICs (transferred ASICs) issued by the original issuing body that:
 - (i) are in effect; or
 - (ii) are suspended under regulation 6.42B; or
 - (iii) have been cancelled or have expired, but may be reinstated; or
 - (iv) have been cancelled or have expired, if another ASIC may be issued to the former holder without a further background check being conducted; and
 - (b) any applications for ASICs (transferred ASIC applications) made to the original issuing body in relation to which the original issuing body:
 - (i) has applied to the Secretary AGD for a background check (whether or not the background check has been completed); but
 - (ii) has not yet issued, or refused to issue, an ASIC.
- (3) The Secretary must tell the Secretary AGD who the new issuing body for the transferred ASICs and transferred ASIC applications will be.

Transferred ASICs and transferred ASIC applications

- (4) A transferred ASIC is not affected by the original issuing body no longer being an issuing body.
- (5) The new issuing body is not responsible for the actions of the original issuing body in relation to a transferred ASIC.

Regulation 6.22A

- (6) The new issuing body may continue to deal with a transferred ASIC application as if it had been made to the new issuing body, and if the new issuing body does so:
- (a) subject to paragraph (b), anything done by or in relation to the original issuing body in relation to the transferred ASIC application is taken, for the purposes of the new issuing body dealing with the application under this Part, to have been done by or in relation to the new issuing body; but
 - (b) the new issuing body may disregard anything done by or in relation to the original issuing body in relation to the transferred ASIC application for the purposes of dealing with the application under this Part, if the new issuing body considers it appropriate to do so.

Note: For example, the new issuing body may continue to process a transferred ASIC application, and may issue the ASIC applied for, in reliance on identification documents provided to the original issuing body. However, the new issuing body may choose not to rely on the documents, and may require the applicant to provide identification documents again, if the new issuing body considers it appropriate to do so.

Transfer of records and documents to new issuing body

- (7) The original issuing body must transfer to the new issuing body:
- (a) the original issuing body's register of ASICs, to the extent that the register relates to transferred ASICs; and
 - (b) any records or documents (including records or documents containing AusCheck scheme personal information within the meaning of the AusCheck Act 2007) in the original issuing body's possession that relate to:
 - (i) transferred ASICs; or
 - (ii) transferred ASIC applications.

Transfer of records and documents to Secretary

- (8) The original issuing body must transfer to the Secretary any records or documents (including records or documents containing AusCheck scheme personal information within the meaning of the AusCheck Act 2007) that subregulation 6.24(2) requires the original issuing body to retain, other than records or documents transferred to a new issuing body (if any) under subregulation (7) of this regulation.

Note: Subregulation (8) applies whether or not there is a new issuing body.

6.22A Transitional issuing bodies

- (1) The Secretary may, in writing, declare an issuing body to be a transitional issuing body.
- (2) If the Secretary declares an issuing body to be a transitional issuing body, the following apply to the body:
 - (a) beginning on the day after the Secretary makes the declaration, the transitional issuing body:

Regulation 6.22A

- (i) must not issue a new ASIC unless the issuing body received the application for the ASIC before the issuing body was declared to be a transitional issuing body; and
- (ii) must not apply to the Secretary AGD for a background check, other than under regulation 6.41A;
- (b) the transitional issuing body continues to be the issuing body for any ASICs issued by the issuing body, and may issue replacement ASICs;
- (c) the transitional issuing body's authorisation as an issuing body is taken to be revoked immediately after the expiry or cancellation of the last ASIC issued by the body.

Note: A transitional issuing body remains an issuing body (see the definition of issuing body in subregulation 6.01(1)).

- (3) The Secretary must tell the Secretary AGD if the Secretary declares a body to be a transitional issuing body.

- (1A) An application under subregulation (1) must be made:
 - (a) for an issuing body—before the end of 28 days after the issuing body is advised of the outcome of the applicant’s background check under regulation 9 of the AusCheck Regulations 2007; or

 - (2B) If the Secretary has asked for more information under subregulation (2), and does not receive the information within 30 days of asking for it, the Secretary may close the application and subregulations (3) and (4) do not apply.
- Note: Closing an application is not a refusal to issue an ASIC.
- (2C) The Secretary may, on application in writing by an issuing body or the person, extend the time for providing the information.

- (2D) If an application was closed under subregulation (2B) and the Secretary extends the time in which the issuing body or person may provide the information, the application is not reopened until the Secretary receives the information.

- (4) If the Secretary has not approved, or refused to approve, the issue of the ASIC within the period allowed by subregulation (3), the Secretary is taken to have refused to approve the issue of the ASIC.
- (5) Before approving or refusing to approve the issue of the ASIC to a person who is not eligible to be issued an ASIC only because the person's adverse criminal record prevents him or her being issued with an ASIC, the Secretary must consider:
- (a) the nature of the offence the person was convicted of; and
 - (b) the length of the term of imprisonment imposed on him or her; and
 - (c) if he or she has served the term, or part of the term—how long it is, and his or her conduct and employment history, since he or she did so; and
