

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraph 911A(2)(l) — Exemption

Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts the persons referred to in Schedule A from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence in the case referred to in Schedule B.

Schedule A

A body corporate (the body) to which all of the following apply:

- (a) the body has a current licence or certificate of registration;
- (b) the body is a foreign company incorporated in Hong Kong that either:
 - (i) is registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act; or
 - (ii) has not failed for more than the last 10 business days to have an Agent;
- (c) the body's primary business is the provision of financial services;
- (d) neither the body nor its Agent has been notified by ASIC that the body is excluded from relying on this instrument;
- (e) 10 business days have not elapsed since the body became or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with a requirement set out in Schedule C without full particulars of the failure having been provided to ASIC (to the extent that the body knows those particulars or would have known them if it had undertaken reasonable enquiries) and ASIC having notified the body or its Agent that the body may continue to rely on this instrument; and
- (f) the body has not notified ASIC that it will not rely on this instrument.

Schedule B

Where:-

1. the body provides any of the following financial services (the financial services) in this jurisdiction to wholesale clients:
 - (a) providing financial product advice;
 - (b) dealing in a financial product; or
 - (c) making a market for a financial product;in respect of any of the following financial products:
 - (d) derivatives;
 - (e) foreign exchange contracts;

- (f) securities;
- (g) debentures, stocks or bonds issued by a government; or
- (h) interests in a managed investment scheme that is not required to be registered under Chapter 5C of the Act; and

2. the body has provided ASIC with:

- (a) evidence that paragraph (a) of Schedule A is satisfied that ASIC has stated in writing is adequate;
- (b) a notice that it will provide financial services in this jurisdiction in reliance on this instrument;
- (c) a deed of the body for the benefit of and enforceable by ASIC and the other persons referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act that applies notwithstanding that the body may have ceased to rely, or never have relied, on this instrument, which deed provides that:
 - (i) the deed is irrevocable except with the prior written consent of ASIC;
 - (ii) the body submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Australian courts in legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise;
 - (iii) the body covenants to comply with any order of an Australian court in respect of any matter relating to the provision of the financial services;
 - (iv) if the body is not registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act, service of process on the body in relation to legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise can be effected by service on the Agent; and
 - (v) the body covenants that, on written request of either the SFC or ASIC, it will give or vary written consent and take all other practicable steps to enable and assist the SFC to disclose to ASIC and ASIC to disclose to the SFC any information, or document that the SFC or ASIC has that relates to the body; and
- (d) written consents to the disclosure by the SFC to ASIC and ASIC to the SFC of any information or document that the SFC or ASIC has that relates to the body. The consents must be in such form (if any) as ASIC specifies in writing.

Schedule C

1. The body must provide each of the financial services in this jurisdiction in a manner which would comply, so far as is possible, with the HK regulatory requirements if the financial service were provided in Hong Kong in like circumstances.
2. The body must:
 - (a) notify ASIC, as soon as practicable and in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing, of the details of:
 - (i) each significant change to, including the termination of, the licence or registration applying to the body relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction;
 - (ii) each significant change to the HK regulatory requirements (including in the power or authority of the SFC to supervise, monitor or procure compliance by the body with the HK regulatory requirements with respect to the provision of the financial services) that is relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction unless ASIC has stated in writing that notice of that change is not required for the purpose of this instrument;
 - (iii) each significant particular exemption or other relief which the body obtains from the HK regulatory requirements; and
 - (iv) each enforcement or disciplinary action taken by the SFC or any other overseas regulatory authority against the body; and
 - (b) provide written disclosure to all persons to whom the financial services are provided in this jurisdiction (before the financial services are provided) containing prominent statements to the following effect:
 - (i) the body is exempt from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence under the Act in respect of the financial services;
 - (ii) the financial services are regulated by the SFC under HK laws, which differ from Australian laws; and
 - (iii) any offer or other documentation provided in the course of providing the financial services will be prepared in accordance with HK regulatory requirements (and not Australian laws).
