

Statutory Rules 1993 No. 223¹

Superannuation (CSS) Productivity Employee Inclusion Declaration No. 1

I, RALPH WILLIS, Minister for Finance, make the following Declaration under section 110F of the Superannuation Act 1976.

Dated 9 August 1993.

RALPH WILLIS
Minister for Finance

Citation

1. This Declaration may be cited as Superannuation (CSS) Productivity Employee Inclusion Declaration No. 1.

[NOTE: This Declaration commences on gazettal: see Acts Interpretation Act 1901, s. 48.]

Interpretation

2. In this Declaration:
“the Act” means the Superannuation Act 1976.

*Superannuation (CSS) Productivity Employee Inclusion
Declaration No. 1 1993 No. 223*

Productivity employees

3. An eligible employee who is a person specified in a paragraph of this clause is declared to be a productivity employee for the purposes of Part VIA of the Act with effect from the date specified in the paragraph:

- (a) a person employed by the Legal Aid Commission of Queensland—1 July 1990;
- (b) a person employed by the Legal Aid Commission of Western Australia—1 July 1990;
- (c) a person who is engaged or appointed as the representative of Australia in another country—1 July 1990 or the date of commencement of that engagement or appointment, whichever is the later;
- (d) a person employed by the Legal Aid Commission of Tasmania—1 January 1991;
- (e) a person engaged for service in the Australian High Commission, London—1 July 1992;
- (f) a person employed by the Legal Aid Commission of Victoria—1 July 1992;
- (g) a person employed in Repatriation General Hospital, Hobart—1 July 1992;
- (h) a person who is employed under a fixed-term contract by the Australian Broadcasting Corporation for employment only outside Australia—1 July 1992 or the date of commencement of that employment, whichever is the later;
- (j) a person employed in Concord Repatriation and General Hospital, Sydney—1 July 1993.

NOTE

1. Notified in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette on 13 August 1993.