

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Issued by Authority of the Assistant Treasurer and Minister for Financial Services & Superannuation

A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999

A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) (Exempt Taxes, Fees and Charges) Determination 2011 (No.1)

Purpose

The purpose of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) (Exempt Taxes, Fees and Charges) Determination 2011 (No. 1) [Determination 2011 (No. 1)] is to list those taxes, fees and charges that are excluded from the scope of the goods and services tax (GST) base.

Background

Division 81 of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (GST Act) provides that the GST applies to payments of taxes, fees and charges, except those taxes, fees and charges that are excluded from the GST by a determination of the Treasurer. Specifically, section 81-5 of the GST Act deems all payments of taxes, fees or charges to be consideration for a supply except for those specified, by legislative instrument, by the Treasurer.

The Ministerial Council (the Commonwealth, State and Territory Treasurers), in accordance with the Intergovernmental Agreement on Federal Financial Relations, agreed that the taxes, fees and charges listed on the Determination be excluded from the GST. An Australian tax, fee or charge may be listed on the Determination in accordance with the following principles:

- taxes that are in the nature of a compulsory impost for general purposes and compulsory charges by the way of fines or penalties will be exempt from GST;
- regulatory charges that do not relate to particular goods or services will be exempt from GST, including-
 - fees and charges levied on specific industries and used to finance particular regulatory or other activities in the government sector; and
 - licences, permits and certifications that are required by government prior to undertaking a general activity.

Determination 2011 (No. 1) revoked the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) (Exempt Taxes, Fees and Charges) Determination 2010 (No. 2) [Determination 2010 (No. 2)] and replaced it with a comprehensive new determination.

Consultation

The changes to the Determination were made through procedures agreed to by the Commonwealth and the States and Territories, in accordance with the A New Tax System (Managing the GST Rate and Base) Act 1999. The agreed procedures involved consultation and agreement between the Commonwealth and the States and Territories on all the changes made to the previous Determination, through the Goods and Services Tax Administration Sub-Committee of the Ministerial Council for Federal Financial Relations. Following consultation the proposed determination was agreed to by the Ministerial Council for Federal Financial Relations. Public consultation is not considered necessary as the Determination relates only to the GST treatment of Australian taxes, fees and charges relating to the non-commercial activities of government entities.

Explanation of the determination

The determination has five sections:

Section 1: specifies the name of the determination as the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) (Exempt Taxes, Fees and Charges) Determination 2011 (No. 1);

Section 2: specifies that the determination commences on 1 January 2011;

Section 3: defines 'Act' as meaning the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999;

Section 4: is the operative provision. It provides that the taxes, fees and charges listed in Schedule 1 will not be consideration for the purposes of the GST.

Section 5: specifies that Determination 2010 (No. 2) is repealed.

Schedule 1

Schedule 1 lists the taxes, fees and charges that meet the general principles set out in the IGA and that have been agreed by the Ministerial Council to be outside the scope of the GST.

Schedule 1 is divided into the nine relevant jurisdictions: the Commonwealth, the six States and two Territories. Local government taxes, fees and charges are included in the appropriate State or Territory list. Within each jurisdiction, the taxes, fees and charges have been classified according to the relevant portfolio. The taxes, fees and charges are identified by their name, the relevant statute and, where necessary, a more detailed description.

Attachment A contains the additions, deletions and amendments (excluding machinery of government changes such as the renaming of departments, and minor grammatical changes which do not change the meaning of the entry), which distinguishes Determination 2011 (No. 1) from Determination 2010 (No. 2).

Determination 2011 (No. 1) is effective from 1 January 2011.
