1 Name

This is the Norfolk Island Applied Laws Ordinance 2016.

3 Authority

This Ordinance is made under section 19A of the Norfolk Island Act 1979.

4 Simplified outline of this Ordinance

The laws of New South Wales, as in force in New South Wales from time to time, form part of the law of the Territory. In this Ordinance, the term “applied laws” is used to refer to New South Wales laws in their character as laws of the Territory.

Applied laws may be amended or repealed by an Ordinance made under section 19A of the Norfolk Island Act 1979 or by a law made under such an Ordinance. An Ordinance may also suspend the operation of an applied law for a period.

This Ordinance amends, repeals and suspends applied laws as set out in the items in the Schedules to this Ordinance.

The items are to be read together with the New South Wales laws in order to understand the operation of the applied laws in the Territory. The items continue in effect according to their terms from time to time and may be amended or repealed by subsequent Ordinances or by rules made under this Ordinance.

5 Definitions

In this Ordinance:

applied industrial relations law means any of the following applied laws:

- (a) the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 (NSW);
- (b) the First State Superannuation Act 1992 (NSW);
- (c) the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW);
- (d) the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 (NSW);
- (e) the Industrial Relations Act 1996 (NSW);
- (f) the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 (NSW);
- (g) the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 (NSW);
- (h) the Teaching Service Act 1980 (NSW);
- (i) the Workers Compensation Act 1987 (NSW);
- (j) the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (NSW);
- (k) the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998 (NSW);
- (l) legislation made under a law referred to in any of the preceding paragraphs.

applied law means a law of New South Wales as in force in the Territory under section 18A of the Norfolk Island Act 1979.

6 Interpretation Act

- (1) The Interpretation Act 1979 (Norfolk Island) does not apply to this Ordinance or rules made under this Ordinance.

Note: The Acts Interpretation Act 1901 applies instead because this Ordinance and rules made under it are legislative instruments (see subsection 13(1) of the Legislation Act 2003).

- (2) Subject to section 6A, the Interpretation Act 1987 (NSW), as it applies in the Territory from time to time, applies in relation to an applied law as amended by this Ordinance.

Note: The Interpretation Act 1987 (NSW) is a law of New South Wales in force in the Territory under section 18A of the Norfolk Island Act 1979.

6A Interpretation and application of applied industrial relations laws

- (1) Subject to this section, the Interpretation Act 1987 (NSW) applies, without the amendments made by this Ordinance, in relation to an applied industrial relations law.
- (2) A reference in an applied industrial relations law to New South Wales in a geographical sense, however expressed, is taken to include a reference to the Territory.
- (3) The following provisions of the Interpretation Act 1987 (NSW), as amended by this Ordinance, apply in relation to an applied industrial relations law:
- (a) section 38D (special rules relating to the Parliament);
 - (b) section 53B (establishment or appointment of statutory bodies);
 - (c) section 75A (publication in Territory or Commonwealth Gazette).
- (4) An applied industrial relations law applies, in the Territory, only in relation to the following:
- (a) an officer or employee of New South Wales;
 - (b) an authority of New South Wales (within the meaning of section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act 1979);
 - (c) an officer or employee of an authority of New South Wales (within the meaning of section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act 1979);
- and only to the extent that the officer, employee or authority is exercising powers or performing functions or duties under an arrangement entered into under section 18C of the Norfolk Island Act 1979.
- (5) An applied industrial relations law that provides for the appointment of a person to an office or position, or the removal or suspension of a person from an office or position, is not taken to require the appointment, removal or suspension of a person in the Territory separately from the appointment, removal or suspension of the person in New South Wales.

7 Rules

- (1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, make rules amending this Ordinance:
 - (a) so as to amend or repeal an applied law; or
 - (b) to make application, saving or transitional provision in relation to any amendments or repeals of applied laws.
- (2) To avoid doubt, the rules may not do the following:
 - (a) create an offence or civil penalty;
 - (b) provide powers of:
 - (i) arrest or detention; or
 - (ii) entry, search or seizure;
 - (c) impose a tax.

8 Schedules

- (1) Each applied law that is specified in a Schedule to this Ordinance is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule, and any other item in a Schedule to this Ordinance has effect according to its terms.
- (2) The amendments, repeals and other items set out in the Schedules to this Ordinance continue in effect according to their terms from time to time.
- (3) If:
 - (a) an item in a Schedule to this Ordinance amends, repeals, suspends or otherwise affects an applied law; and
 - (b) the item is amended or repealed;then, to the extent to which the law remains a law in force in New South Wales, the applied law continues in force in the Territory in accordance with section 18A of the Norfolk Island Act 1979 and this Ordinance as amended.

Schedule 1—Suspension

1 Suspension

- (1) The operation of the legislation of New South Wales, other than an Act specified in the following table or legislation made under such an Act, is suspended in the Territory for the period:
- (a) beginning on the day this item commences; and
 - (b) subject to subitem (3), ending immediately before the start of 1 July 2021.

Legislation of New South Wales that has not been suspended

Name of Act

- (4) Any information in column 3 of the table in subitem (3) is not part of this Ordinance. Information may be inserted in this column, or information in it may be edited, in any published version of this Ordinance.
- (5) In this item:
industrial relations laws application day means the day Schedule 1 to the Norfolk Island Legislation Amendment (Public Sector Employment and Education) Ordinance 2018 commenced.

2 References to suspended law in law that is not suspended

- (1) The suspension of the operation of a law of New South Wales in the Territory by this Schedule does not affect any reference to that law in a provision of a law of New South Wales the operation of which is not suspended in the Territory.
- (2) Subsection 21D(3) of the Interpretation Act 1987 of New South Wales (as it applies in the Territory from time to time) does not apply to a reference to the short title of a New South Wales Act the operation of which is suspended in the Territory.
- (3) Subsection 21D(3) of the Interpretation Act 1987 of New South Wales (as it applies in the Territory from time to time) does not apply to a reference to the short title of an applied industrial relations law.

Territory Gazette means the Norfolk Island Government Gazette.

Territory of Norfolk Island means the Territory of Norfolk Island as described in Schedule 1 to the Norfolk Island Act.

Territory Ordinance means:

- (a) a section 19A Ordinance (within the meaning of subsection 4(1) of the Norfolk Island Act); or
- (b) an Ordinance continued in force by the Norfolk Island Act.

10 Subsection 21(1) (definition of the State)

Repeal the definition, substitute:

the State:

- (a) when used in a geographical sense—means the Territory of Norfolk Island; and
- (b) when used in any other sense—means the Territory of Norfolk Island unless the context precludes that meaning.

11 At the end of Part 2

Add:

21D New South Wales Acts

- (1) A reference in this Act or a Territory Ordinance to the short title of a New South Wales Act followed by “(N.S.W.)” or “(NSW)” is a reference to the Act as in force in New South Wales from time to time.
- (2) A reference in this Act, a Territory Ordinance or an applied law to the short title of a New South Wales Act followed by “(N.S.W.)(N.I.)” or “(NSW)(NI)” is a reference to the Act as in force in the Territory of Norfolk Island from time to time in accordance with section 18A of the Norfolk Island Act.

- (3) A reference in an applied law to the short title of a New South Wales Act is taken to be a reference to the corresponding applied law.

21E New South Wales instruments

- (1) A reference in this Act or a Territory Ordinance to an instrument followed by “(N.S.W.)” or “(NSW)” is a reference to the instrument as in force in New South Wales from time to time.
- (2) A reference in this Act, a Territory Ordinance or an applied law to an instrument followed by “(N.S.W.) (N.I.)” or “(NSW) (NI)” is a reference to the instrument as in force in the Territory of Norfolk Island from time to time in accordance with section 18A of the Norfolk Island Act.

12 At the end of Part 5

Add:

38A References to documents

If an applied law requires or permits something to be done in accordance with, or having regard to, a document made, approved or published under, or for the purposes of, an applied law or a law of New South Wales, the reference to the document is taken to be a reference to:

- (a) any such document made, approved or published in relation to the Territory of Norfolk Island in force or existing at the time the thing is to be done (the relevant time); or
- (b) if there is no document made, approved or published in relation to the Territory of Norfolk Island in force or existing at the relevant time—the document made, approved or published under, or for the purposes of, the law as in force in New South Wales, as the document is in force or exists at the relevant time.

38B Modification of prerequisites for Norfolk Island Minister to take action

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an applied law is expressed (ignoring section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act) to make:
- (i) a recommendation (however described) about a matter; or
- (ii) an approval (however described) of a matter;
- by a Minister or an authority established or appointed by or under an applied law or a law of New South Wales a prerequisite for a person to exercise a function; and
- (b) the Norfolk Island Minister has that function because of section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act.
- (2) The Norfolk Island Minister may exercise the function without receiving or following the Minister’s or authority’s recommendation about the matter or approval of the matter.

38C Norfolk Island Minister not required to interact with himself or herself

- (1) The Norfolk Island Minister need not comply with a requirement that:
- (a) is imposed on the Norfolk Island Minister by an applied law (as affected by section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act or otherwise); and
 - (b) because of section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act, is a requirement for the Norfolk Island Minister to do something in relation to the Norfolk Island Minister:
 - (i) before taking another action; or
 - (ii) in the process of taking another action; or
 - (iii) after taking another action.

Note: Some examples of a requirement to which this section applies are if an applied law (ignoring section 18B of the Norfolk Island Act) says:

- (a) the Governor may do something on the advice of a Minister; or
- (b) an authority must give the Minister notice of a decision or action the authority has taken.

- (2) To avoid doubt, if the Norfolk Island Minister takes the other action, its validity is not affected merely because the Norfolk Island Minister did not or does not comply with the requirement.

Note: This also applies to action by a delegate of the Norfolk Island Minister.

38D Special rules relating to the Parliament*Requirements relating to the Parliament that need not be complied with*

- (1) A person or body need not comply with a requirement imposed by an applied law on the person or body to do either of the following:
- (a) give (however described) a thing to the Parliament, a committee of the Parliament or an officer or member of the Parliament;
 - (b) act consistently (however described) with a resolution or recommendation of the Parliament.

Failure to comply with the requirement does not affect the validity of any act.

Note 1: Applied laws may use various verbs to express requirements to give something to the Parliament, a committee of the Parliament, or an officer or member of the Parliament. Some examples of such verbs are giving, furnishing, laying before, presenting to, tabling, notifying, advising and providing.

Note 2: Applied laws may express in various ways a requirement for a person or body to act consistently with a resolution or recommendation of the Parliament. For example, applied laws may refer to a person or body doing something in accordance with a resolution of the Parliament, on the recommendation of the Parliament or on an address from the Parliament.

Acts valid despite absence of action relating to the Parliament

- (2) Despite an applied law providing for a thing to be done by or in relation to the Parliament:
- (a) before a function can be exercised by an authority other than the Parliament; or
 - (b) in connection with the exercise of a function, by such an authority;

the function may be exercised by the authority even though that thing has not been done, or is not done, by or in relation to the Parliament.

13 At the end of Part 8

Add:

53B Statutory bodies

If an applied law establishes or requires the establishment or appointment of:

- (a) a committee; or
- (b) a board; or
- (c) a registrar; or
- (d) any other statutory body;

then the law is not taken to establish, or require the establishment or appointment of, the same kind of body in the Territory of Norfolk Island.

14 Section 58 (definition of laws of the State)

Repeal the definition.

15 After section 75

Insert:

75A Publication in Territory or Commonwealth Gazette

If an applied law requires or permits a person to publish an instrument or notice in the Gazette or the Government Gazette or in a newspaper circulating in the State (whatever the frequency of circulation) then the requirement is satisfied by, or the entitlement extends to, publication of the instrument or notice in the Gazette, the Government Gazette, the Commonwealth Gazette or the Territory Gazette.

Endnotes

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

Endnote 2—Abbreviation key

Endnote 3—Legislation history

Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
