Statement of Compatibility with Human Rights

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Specification of Occupations, a Person or Body, a Country or Countries

Legislative Instrument

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011.

Overview of the Specification of Occupations, a Person or Body, a Country or Countries Legislative Instrument

This instrument (IMMI 16/060) specifies skilled occupations, Australian and New Zealand Standard Classification of Occupations (ANZSCO) codes and relevant assessing authorities relevant to assessment of applications made on or after 1 July 2015, but before 1 July 2016, for skilled migration under the Migration Regulations 1994 (Migration Regulations).

The ANZSCO code is used by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection to ensure that applicants who wish to migrate as skilled migrants nominate a skilled occupation for migration purposes. Assessing authorities are independent expert bodies who certify that the applicant's educational qualifications and, in some cases, skilled work experience in their occupation, is comparable to that necessary to undertake the same position in Australia.

This instrument specifies the Skilled Occupation List (SOL) which provides eligible occupations, ANZSCO codes and assessing authorities for independent or family sponsored skilled visas. Occupations on the SOL are those identified as being in shortage in the Australian labour market in the medium to long term.

The instrument also specifies the Consolidated Sponsored Occupation List (CSOL) which similarly provides eligible occupations, ANZSCO codes and assessing authorities for applicants who apply for:

- State/Territory nominated visas;
- the Temporary Work (Skilled) visa;
- the Direct Entry stream of the Employer Nomination Scheme;
- the Occupational Trainee stream of the Training and Research visa; and
- the Occupational Trainee visa.

The instrument retains the substance of Instrument IMMI 15/092 and IMMI 15/108 for applications to which this instrument is relevant, made on or after 1 July 2015 but before

1 July 2016. It does not alter the skilled occupations, persons or bodies who are relevant assessing authorities or the countries specified in Instrument IMMI 15/092 and IMMI 15/108.

Human rights implications

As the instrument specifies the skilled occupations, ANZSCO codes and assessing authorities described above, and specification of those occupations, codes and authorities is enabled under the Migration Regulations, it does not engage any of the applicable rights and freedoms contained in the seven core international human rights treaties and does not engage any of the applicable rights or freedoms.

Conclusion

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with human rights as it does not raise any human rights issues.
