

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Issued by the authority of the Minister for Aged Care and Minister for Indigenous Health

Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997

Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) (Subsidy and Other Measures) Amendment (July Indexation) Determination 2017

The Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997 (the TP Act), in conjunction with the Aged Care Act 1997 (the Act), provides for the funding of aged care services in operation before 1 July 2014 that are providing care to continuing care recipients.

Persons who are approved under the Act to provide aged care services (approved providers) can be eligible to receive subsidy payments under the TP Act in respect of the care they provide to continuing care recipients. Continuing care recipients are those who entered an aged care service before 1 July 2014 and since that time have not left the service for a continuous period of more than 28 days (other than because the person is on leave), or before moving to another service, have not made a written choice to be subject to new rules relating to fees and payments that came into effect on 1 July 2014.

The purpose of the Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) (Subsidy and Other Measures) Amendment (July Indexation) Determination 2017 (the Amending Determination) is to increase the amount of subsidies and supplements payable to approved providers of aged care services.

Authority

The authority in the TP Act to make specific determinations in the Amending Determination is set out in the following table:

Residential	Section

Reliance on subsection 33(3) of the *Acts Interpretation Act 1901

Under subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character (including rules, regulations or by-laws), the power shall be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions (if any) to repeal, rescind, revoke, amend, or vary any such instrument.

Consultation

Routine indexation of subsidies and supplements in this Amending Determination is calculated through the use of a well-established formula based on the relevant wage and price indices. This Amending Determination gives effect to routine indexation. Accordingly, no specific consultation was undertaken with respect to this indexation.

Commencement

The Amending Determination commences on 1 July 2017.

The Amending Determination is a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2003.

Details of the Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) (Subsidy and Other Measures) Amendment (July Indexation) Determination 2017

Statement of Compatibility with Human Rights

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) (Subsidy and Other Measures) Amendment (Indexation) Determination 2017

The Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) (Subsidy and Other Measures) Amendment (July Indexation) Determination 2017 is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011.

Overview of Legislative Instrument

This legislative instrument amends the Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) (Subsidy and Other Measures) Determination 2014 and increases the amount of particular subsidies and supplements payable to approved providers of aged care services.

Human Rights Implications

This legislative instrument is compatible with the right to an adequate standard of living and the right to enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health as contained in article 11(1) and article 12(1) of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and article 25 and article 28 of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

This legislative instrument increases the amount of residential care subsidy payable to approved providers for the provision of care and services to people with a condition of frailty or disability who require assistance to achieve and maintain the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health.

Conclusion

This legislative instrument is compatible with human rights as it promotes the human right to an adequate standard of living and the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health.
