

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

(Issued under the Authority of the Minister for the Environment)

Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (Cth)

Instrument Making a Recovery Plan

The Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (Cth) (the EPBC Act) provides for the protection of the environment and conservation of biodiversity, including the protection and conservation of threatened species and ecological communities.

The purpose of this instrument is to make the National Recovery Plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community for the following ecological community:

Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia ecological community

Making the National Recovery Plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community

Part 13, Division 5, subdivision A of the EPBC Act provides for the making, or adoption of, recovery plans for listed threatened species or listed threatened ecological communities, which bind the Commonwealth and Commonwealth agencies.

Section 269A(2) of the EPBC Act enables the Minister to make a written recovery plan for the purposes of the protection, conservation and management of a listed threatened species or listed threatened ecological community.

This recovery plan meets the requirements of section 270 of the EPBC Act and regulation 7.11 of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Regulations 2000 (Cth) (the Regulations). It sets out the research and management actions necessary to stop the decline of, and support the recovery of Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia.

Section 274 of the EPBC Act, which requires the Minister to obtain and consider advice from the Threatened Species Scientific Committee on the content of the recovery plan, has been met.

In accordance with section 275 of the EPBC Act, the draft recovery plan was open for comment from 23 February 2017 until 26 May 2017. A notice inviting comments on the recovery plan was advertised in the Commonwealth of Australia Government Notices Gazette, The Australian newspaper and on the website of the Australian Government Department of the Environment and Energy. As per section 276 of the EPBC Act, all comments were considered before making the recovery plan.

This recovery plan is a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2003 (Cth).

The National Recovery plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community commences on the day after this recovery plan is registered on the Federal Register of Legislation.

Authority: Section 269A(2) of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (Cth).

Statement of Compatibility with Human Rights

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Instrument Making a Recovery Plan

National Recovery Plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011.

Overview of the Legislative Instrument

The purpose of this Legislative Instrument is to make the National Recovery Plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community. The recovery plan establishes a national framework to guide and coordinate the recovery of the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia ecological community throughout its range in Australia. The recovery plan identifies research and management priorities necessary to assist the long-term recovery of the ecological community. The Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia ecological community is listed in the Critically Endangered category under the Environment Conservation and Biodiversity Act 1999 (the EPBC Act)

The National Recovery Plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community was developed through extensive consultation with a broad range of stakeholders and affected interests in accordance with section 275 of the EPBC Act. The draft version of the plan was opened to public consultation in February 2017 for a period of three months and the final version of the plan was endorsed by the Threatened Species Scientific Committee on 20 November 2017 before being made by the Minister.

The conventions listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011 were considered in the preparation of the National Recovery Plan for the Littoral Rainforest and Coastal Vine Thickets of Eastern Australia Ecological Community.

Human rights implications

This Legislative Instrument does not engage any of the applicable rights or freedoms.

Conclusion

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with human rights as it does not raise any human rights issues.
