1 Name

This instrument is the Telecommunications (Protecting Australians from Terrorist or Violent Criminal Material) Direction (No. 1) 2019.

2 Commencement

This instrument commences on the day after it is registered on the Federal Register of Legislation.

3 Authority

This instrument is made under subsection 581(2A) of the Telecommunications Act 1997.

4 Definitions

In this instrument:

block, in relation to a website, means to implement a mechanism that will prevent access to the website by an end-user located in Australia who is a customer of the relevant service provider.

list of websites hosting terrorist or violent criminal material (No.1) means a list maintained by the eSafety Commissioner in writing of websites that the Commissioner is satisfied make available material relating to the Christchurch shooting in March 2019 that promotes, incites or instructs in terrorist acts or violent crimes, and from which Australians should be protected from access or exposure.

relevant service providers means the service providers listed in the Schedule.

terrorist act has the same meaning as in the Enhancing Online Safety (Protecting Australians from Terrorist or Violent Criminal Material) Legislative Rule 2019.

violent crime has the same meaning as in the Enhancing Online Safety (Protecting Australians from Terrorist or Violent Criminal Material) Legislative Rule 2019.

5 Direction

I direct the relevant service providers to block the websites included in the list of websites hosting terrorist or violent criminal material (No.1) as existing from time to time.

6 Expiry

This instrument expires 6 months after it commences, as if it had been repealed by another instrument.
