Interpretation

In this Determination:

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

financial sector entity has the meaning given by section 5 of the Act.

Schedule

Reporting Standard ARS 920.0 Australian Government Small and Medium Enterprise (SME) Guarantee Scheme comprises the document commencing on the following page.

Reporting Standard ARS 920.0

Australian Government Small and Medium Enterprise (SME) Guarantee Scheme

Objective of this reporting standard

This Reporting Standard sets out requirements for the provision of information to APRA relating to an authorised deposit-taking institution's and registered financial corporation's lending to small and medium enterprises (SMEs) under the Australian Government SME Guarantee Scheme¹.

It includes Reporting Form ARF 920.0 Australian Government SME Guarantee Scheme (Portfolio Information) (ARF 920.0), Reporting Form ARF 920.1 Australian Government SME Guarantee Scheme (Loan Level Details) (ARF 920.1), and associated specific instructions.

Authority

1. This Reporting Standard is made under section 13 of the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001.

Purpose

2. Information collected by Reporting Form ARF 920.0 Australian Government SME Guarantee Scheme (Portfolio Information) (ARF 920.0) and Reporting Form ARF 920.1 Australian Government SME Guarantee Scheme (Loan Level Details) (ARF 920.1) is used for the purpose of enabling APRA to assist the Commonwealth Government administer the Australian Government SME Guarantee Scheme. This information may also be used by APRA for prudential purposes.

Application

3. This Reporting Standard applies to all authorised deposit-taking institutions (ADIs) and registered financial corporations (RFCs) who are granted a guarantee under section 5 of the Guarantee of Lending to Small and Medium Enterprises (Coronavirus Economic Response Package) Act 2020

Commencement

4. This Reporting Standard applies to reporting periods ending on or after 17 April 2020.

Information required

5. An ADI or RFC to which this reporting standard applies must provide APRA with the information required by ARF 920.0 and ARF 920.1 in respect of each reporting period on a domestic books consolidation.

Form and method of submission

6. The information required by this Reporting Standard must be given to APRA in electronic format, using the 'Direct to APRA' application or by a method (i.e. a web-based solution) notified by APRA, in writing, prior to submission.

Note: the Direct to APRA application software (also known as D2A) may be obtained from APRA.

Reporting periods and due dates

7. Subject to paragraph 9 of this Reporting Standard, an ADI or RFC to which this Reporting Standard applies must provide the information required by this Reporting Standard in respect of each business week.
8. Subject to paragraph 10 of this Reporting Standard, the information required by this Reporting Standard must be provided to APRA within 10 business days after the end of the reporting period to which the information relates.
9. APRA may change the reporting periods, or specified reporting periods, for a particular ADI or RFC, to require it to provide the information required by this Reporting Standard more frequently, or less frequently, having regard to:
 - (a) the particular circumstances of the ADI or RFC; and
 - (b) the requirements of the Commonwealth Government of Australia.
10. APRA may, in writing, grant an ADI or RFC an extension of a due date in which case the new due date will be the date specified in the notice of extension.

Note: For the avoidance of doubt, if the due date for a particular reporting period falls on a day other than a usual business day, an ADI or RFC is nonetheless required to submit the information required no later than the due date.

Quality control

11. All information provided by an ADI or RFC under this Reporting Standard must be subject to processes and controls developed by the ADI or RFC for the internal review and authorisation of that information. These systems, processes and controls are to assure the completeness and reliability of the information provided.

Authorisation

12. When an officer of an ADI or RFC submits information under this Reporting

Standard using the D2A application, or other method notified by APRA, it will be necessary for the officer to digitally sign the relevant information using a digital certificate acceptable to APRA.

Minor alterations to forms and instructions

13. APRA may make minor variations to:
 - (a) a form that is part of this Reporting Standard, and the instructions to such a form, to correct technical, programming or logical errors, inconsistencies or anomalies; or
 - (b) the instructions to a form, to clarify the application to the form,without changing any substantive requirement in the form or instructions.
14. If APRA makes such a variation, it must notify each ADI or RFC that is required to report under this Reporting Standard.

Interpretation

15. In this Reporting Standard:

ADI means an authorised deposit-taking institution within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959.

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority established under the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.
