Schedule 1—Amendments

Recycling and Waste Reduction (Product Stewardship—Televisions and Computers) Rules 2021

1 Section 4

Insert:

import declaration has the same meaning as in the Customs Act 1901.

2 Section 4

Insert:

imported: a product is imported at a time if, at that time, the product:

- (a) is the subject of an import declaration; and
- (b) is entered for home consumption under subsection 68(3A) of the Customs Act 1901 in respect of that import declaration.

Note: Section 4A provides for certain changes of import declarations not to be taken into account for certain purposes.

3 After section 4

Insert:

4A Use of information in import declarations

For the purposes of determining in this instrument whether a product was imported in a financial year, a change made to an import declaration must not be considered if:

- (a) the change is made after 31 October of the next following financial year in which the import declaration was made; and
- (b) the change:
 - (i) reduces the number of television or computer products specified in the declaration; or
 - (ii) reduces the converted weight of any kind of television or computer product specified in the declaration.
