

Telecommunications (Interception and Access — Independent Commission Against Corruption of South Australia) Declaration 2023¹

Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979

I, Mark Dreyfus KC, Attorney-General, being satisfied that:

- (a) the law of the State of South Australia makes satisfactory provision for the matters mentioned in subsection 35 (1) of the Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979; and
- (b) the State of South Australia has entered into an agreement as required by subsection 35(2) of that Act;

make the following declaration under section 34 of that Act, at the request of the Premier of the State of South Australia.

Dated 24 August 2023

Mark Dreyfus

Attorney-General

1 Name of declaration

This declaration is the Telecommunications (Interception and Access — Independent Commission Against Corruption of South Australia) Declaration 2023.

2 Commencement

This declaration commences on the later of the day after this instrument is registered and the Crimes and Other Legislation Amendment (Omnibus) Act 2023 receives Royal Assent.

3 Declaration of agency

The Independent Commission Against Corruption that is established by the Independent Commission Against Corruption (CPIPC Recommendations) Amendment Act 2021 of South Australia is declared to be an agency for the purposes of the Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979.

4 Revocation

- (1) The Telecommunications (Interception and Access – Independent Commissioner Against Corruption of South Australia) Declaration 2013 (Federal Register of Legislative Instruments No. F2013L01146) is revoked.
- (2) This section expires at the end of the day on which this section commences as if this section had been repealed by another legislative instrument.

Note

1. All legislative instruments and compilations are registered on the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments kept under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003. See www.comlaw.gov.au.