

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Issued by authority of the Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Limited

Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy (Collection) Act 2023

Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy (Collection) (Initial Cost Estimates for 2024-25 Levy Period) Determination 2024

Section 9 of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy (Collection) Act 2023 (the Act) provides that the Compensation Scheme of Last Resort (CSLR) operator, the Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Limited (CSLRL), may determine an estimate of the sum of the total amount of compensation that will be payable during the levy period, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority's (AFCA) unpaid fees expected for each of the months in the levy period, the CSLR's expected administrative costs for the levy period, the Australian Securities and Investment Commission's (ASIC) expected administrative costs notified to CSLR for the levy period, and the relevant amount of the capital contribution in accordance with the Act .

The purpose of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy (Collection) (Initial Cost Estimates for the 2024-25 Levy Period) Determination 2024 is to determine that estimate for the 2024-25 levy period. This will allow ASIC to impose a levy of the specified amount under section 8 of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy Act 2023 in accordance with the calculations detailed in regulation 9 of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy Regulations 2023.

The Act requires that the CSLR operator reasonably believes the estimate to be accurate having had regard to actuarial principles. To this end, CSLRL engaged actuarial expertise to inform the estimate for the 2024-25 levy period. CSLRL did not engage in public consultation on this instrument as it reasonably believes the inputs to the specified amount to be accurate.

The Act does not specify any conditions that needs to be satisfied before the power to make the Determination may be exercised.

The Determination is a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2003.

The Determination commenced on the day after Registration on the Federal Register of Legislation.

Details of the Determination are set out in Attachment A.

A statement of Compatibility with Human Rights is at Attachment B.

Statement of Compatibility with Human Rights

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy (Collection) (Initial Cost Estimates for the 2024-25 Levy Period) Determination 2024

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011.

Overview of the Legislative Instrument

Section 9 of the Act provides that CSLRL, may determine an estimate of the sum of the total amount of compensation that will be payable during the levy period, AFCA's unpaid fees expected for each of the months in the levy period, the CSLR's expected administrative costs for the levy period, ASIC's expected administrative costs notified to CSLR for the levy period, and the relevant amount of the capital contribution in accordance with the Act .

The purpose of the Determination is to determine that estimate for the 2024-25 levy period. This will allow ASIC to impose a levy of the specified amount under section 8 of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy Act 2023 in accordance with the calculations detailed in regulation 9 of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme of Last Resort Levy Regulations 2023.

The Act requires that the CSLR operator reasonably believes the estimate to be accurate having had regard to actuarial principles. To this end, CSLRL engaged actuarial expertise to inform the estimate for the 2024-25 levy period. CSLRL did not engage in public consultation on this instrument as it reasonably believes the inputs to the specified amount to be accurate.

Human rights implications

This Legislative Instrument does not engage any of the applicable rights or freedoms.

Conclusion

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with human rights as it does not raise any human rights issues.
