5 (c) any legislation of Victoria or of any other State or Territory.

6 501 Minimum wages

7 (1) For the purposes of Schedule 1A, the Commission may from time
8 to time, by order, set or adjust a minimum wage for employees

25 classification according to whether the employee is a full-time 26 employee, a part-time employee, a temporary employee, a junior 27 employee, an apprentice or a person employed on a casual or piece

25 (b) the Minister;
26 may apply to the member to have the proceeding dealt with by a 27 Full Bench because the subject-matter of the proceeding is of such 28 importance that, in the public interest, the proceeding should be 29 dealt with by a Full Bench.
- 30 (2) If an application is made under subsection (1) of this section to a 31 member of the Commission other than the President, the member 32 must refer the application to the President to be dealt with.

- 1 (3) The President must confer with the member about whether the 2 application should be granted.

6 must grant the application.
- 7 (5) If the President grants the application, the Full Bench must hear 8 and determine the application and, in the hearing, may have regard 9 to any evidence given, and any arguments adduced, in the 10 proceeding mentioned in subsection (1).
- 11 (6) The President or a Full Bench may, in relation to the exercise of 12 powers under this section, direct a member of the Commission to 13 provide a report in relation to a specified matter.
- 14 (7) The member must, after making such investigation (if any) as is 15 necessary, provide a report to the President or Full Bench, as the 16 case may be.
- 17 (8) The President may, before a Full Bench has been established for 18 the purpose of hearing and determining, under this section, an 19 application, authorise a member of the Commission to take 20 evidence for the purposes of the hearing and determination, and:
21 (a) the member has the powers of a person authorised to take 22 evidence under subsection 111(3); and 23 (b) the Full Bench must have regard to the evidence.

30 (b) the reference in paragraph 143(3)(b) to a registry is taken to 31 be a reference to a registry in Victoria.

1 504 Certain provisions of no effect

6 subsection 500(1).

7 505 Employer must comply with minimum terms and conditions of 8 employment

- 9 (1) Subject to sections 507 and 508, an employer must not enter into a 17 contracts etc.

- 18 (1) Subject to sections 507 and 508, if an employment agreement does 19 not at any time comply with a minimum term or condition of 20 employment applicable under subsection 500(1), then, for the 21 purposes of sections 178 and 179 (in their application in 22 accordance with section 527), it is taken to have effect as if it did 23 comply.
- 24 (2) Subject to sections 507 and 508, if a contract of employment, other 25 than an employment agreement, with an employee in Victoria does 26 not at any time comply with a minimum term or condition of 27 employment applicable under subsection 500(1), then the 28 employee may take proceedings in an eligible court to recover
29 money owed under the contract as if it did comply.

30 507 Limit on operation of sections 505 and 506 and Schedule 1A

15 relevant minimum rate applicable under paragraph 1(1)(c) of 16 Schedule 1A.
- 17 (3) The Commission must specify a minimum rate of pay in the

28 unless the number of employees of the employer holding 29 such certificates does not exceed one-fifth of the total number 30 of employees of the employer.

- 1 (7) Section 45 has effect as if the following paragraph were added at 11 section ceased to be in force;

12 continues in force for the purposes of this Act as if it had been 13 made under this section, at the time it was actually made or last 14 renewed, as the case requires.

15 Subdivision C—Intervals for meals

16 510 Intervals for meals

- 17 (1) Subject to sections 512 and 513, an employer must not require an

19 without an interval for a meal, unless the employee is subject to an 20 employment agreement that allows the employer to do this.
- 21 (2) The interval for the meal must be for the period required by the 22 employment agreement. If no period is set by the employment 23 agreement, the interval must be for at least half an hour.

24 511 Relationship between section 510 and other laws etc.

- 25 Section 510 is intended to supplement, and not to override,

15 510 also deal with employment agreements.

16 515 Continued operation of employment agreements

17 (1) Subject to subsection (2), for the purposes of this Act, even if 18 Part 2 of the Employee Relations Act 1992 of Victoria has been or 19 is repealed, an employment agreement continues in force, or comes 20 into force, as if that Part had not been, or were not, repealed.

21 (2) For the purposes of this Act, an employment agreement ceases to 18 the agreement must, within 14 days after the commencement of 19 this Division, lodge a copy of the agreement with a Registrar.

- 20 (2) If a collective employment agreement comes into force after the 21 commencement of this Division, an employer bound by the 22 agreement must, within 14 days after the agreement comes into 23 force, lodge a copy of the agreement with a Registrar.

25 employment agreement ceases to be in force for the purposes of 26 this Act at the end of the 14 days mentioned in that subsection.

27 518 Variation of collective employment agreements

- 28 (1) The parties to a collective employment agreement may not vary 29 any term of the agreement unless the variation is necessary:
30 (a) to remove an ambiguity or uncertainty; or

- 10 (1) If an employment agreement does not contain provision for the 11 standing-down of employees who cannot be usefully employed 12 because of any strike, breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of 13 work for any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be 14 held responsible, the agreement is taken to include the provision 15 mentioned in subsection (2).
- 16 (2) The provision is that:
- 17 (a) the employer may deduct payment for any part of a day
18 during which an employee cannot usefully be employed 19 because of any strike, breakdown of machinery or any 20 stoppage of work for any cause for which the employer 21 cannot reasonably be held responsible; and
- 22 (b) this does not break the continuity of employment of the 23 employee for the purpose of any entitlements.

24 520 Dispute resolution provisions

- 25 (1) If an employment agreement does not contain provisions that set 26 out procedures to be followed to prevent or settle claims, disputes

9 if so agreed, the decision must be accepted by the parties 10 subject to any appeal available;
11 (e) until the matter is determined, work must continue at the 12 direction of the employer. No party is to be prejudiced as to 13 the final settlement by the continuance of work in accordance 14 with this procedure;
15 (f) the parties must co-operate to ensure that these procedures 16 are carried out expeditiously.
- 17 (3) If an employment agreement does contain provisions of the kind 18 mentioned in subsection (1) and those provisions refer to 19 conciliation or mediation by the Employee Relations Commission 20 of Victoria, the reference is taken for the purposes of this Act to be 21 a reference to conciliation by the Australian Industrial Relations 22 Commission.

23 521 Limit on damages for breach of employment agreement

- 24 If:
- 25 (a) after the commencement of this Division, an employee does

- 15 (a) in the case of a collective employment agreement—at any 16 time when the agreement is in force; or

20 then:

- 21 (c) the action is not protected action for the purposes of

3 this Division;
4 then:
5 (c) the lockout is not protected action for the purposes of 20 any time; or 21 (ii) in the case of an individual employment agreement—at

26 527 Application of Act as if employment agreement were a certified 27 agreement

- 28 (1) Subject to this section, this Act (other than Part VIB and

7 in relation to an employment agreement in the same way as it
8 applies in relation to a State employment agreement.

9 (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an employment agreement that 10 was not genuinely entered into. An example of such an agreement 11 is one entered into as a result of coercion.

13 528

14 Sections 524, 525, 526 and 528 do not apply to an employment

3 employment agreement.

4 531 Relationship between employment agreements and enterprise
5 flexibility agreements

6 An enterprise flexibility agreement, as continued in effect by 7 item 2 of Schedule 9 to the Workplace Relations and Other
8 Legislation Amendment Act 1996, prevails to the extent of any 9 inconsistency with an employment agreement.

10 532 Record keeping

11 Section 353A has effect as if “an employment agreement (within 12 the meaning of Part XV),” were inserted in that section before “an 13 award” (wherever occurring).

14 Subdivision F—Contravention of penalty provisions

15 533 Penalties for contravening penalty provisions

- 15 (a) the modifications made by the regulations cease to have 16 effect; but
 - 17 (b) the validity of any registration of a recognised association
18 under Part IX of this Act that took place in accordance with 11 (1) The minimum terms and conditions of employment are:

12 (a) paid annual leave for each year worked of the number of 13 ordinary hours required to be worked in any 4 week period 14 during that year. This leave accrues on a pro-rata basis and is 15 cumulative;

16 (b) paid sick leave for each year worked of the number of

8 this Schedule—the time at which this Schedule commenced;
9 or
10 (b) if that paragraph was not so in force—immediately before 11 that paragraph ceased to be in force.

12 Part 2—Maternity leave

13 2 Nature of leave

14 Maternity leave is unpaid leave.

15 3 Definitions

16 In this Part:

17 child means a child of the employee under the age of one year.

18 confinement, in relation to a female employee, means confinement 19 caused by the birth of a child or other termination of a pregnancy.

20 continuous service means service under an unbroken contract of 21 employment and includes:

- 22 (a) any period of leave taken in accordance with this Part; and 23 (b) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or 24 by an employment agreement; and 25 (c) any period of part-time employment in accordance with 26 Part 5 (including part-time employment as a replacement 27 employee).

28 employee includes a part-time employee but does not include an 29 employee engaged in casual or seasonal work.

1 expected date of confinement, in relation to a female employee, 2 means a date certified by a registered medical practitioner to be the 3 date on which the registered medical practitioner expects the 4 employee to be confined in respect of her pregnancy.

5 paternity leave means leave of the type provided for by Part 3, 6 whether prescribed by an employment agreement or otherwise.

7 spouse includes a de facto spouse and a former spouse.

8 4 Eligibility for maternity leave

9 (1) An employee who becomes pregnant is, on production to her
10 employer of the certificate required by clause 5, entitled to a period 11 of up to 52 weeks of maternity leave.

12 (2) However, any such maternity leave may not extend beyond the 13 child's first birthday.

14 (3) The entitlement to maternity leave under this clause is to be 15 reduced by any period of paternity leave taken by the employee's 16 spouse in relation to the same child. Apart from paternity leave of 17 up to one week at the time of confinement, maternity leave is not to 18 be taken concurrently with paternity leave.

19 (4) Subject to clauses 7 and 10, the period of maternity leave is to be 20 unbroken and must, immediately following confinement, include a 21 period of 6 weeks of compulsory leave.

22 (5) An employee must have had at least 12 months of continuous 23 service with her employer immediately preceding the date on 24 which she commences maternity leave.

25 5 Certification

26 When applying for maternity leave, an employee must, at the times 27 specified in clause 6, produce to her employer:

28 (a) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that 29 she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement;

30 (b) a statutory declaration:

- 1 (i) stating particulars of any period of paternity leave
2 sought or taken by her spouse; and 3 (ii) stating her agreement that for the period of her
4 maternity leave she will not engage in any conduct 5 inconsistent with her contract of employment.

6 Notice requirements

- 7 (1) An employee must, not less than 10 weeks before the expected date 8 of confinement, produce to her employer the certificate referred to 9 in paragraph 5(a).
- 10 (2) An employee must, not less than 4 weeks before she proposes to 11 commence maternity leave, produce to her employer the statutory 12 declaration referred to in paragraph 5(b).
- 13 (3) An employer, by not less than 14 days' notice in writing to the 14 employee, may require her to commence maternity leave at any 15 time within the 6 weeks immediately before her expected date of 16 confinement.
- 17 (4) An employee is not in breach of this clause as a consequence of 18 failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with 19 subclause (2) if the failure is caused by the confinement occurring 20 earlier than the expected date.

21 7 Transfer to a safe job

- 22 (1) If, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or 23 risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the 24 work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the 25 employee to continue at her present work, the employer must, if 26 the employer deems it practicable, transfer the employee to a safe 27 job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to her present work 28 until the commencement of maternity leave.

29 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 30 penalty provision in section 489.

- 31 (2) If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may, or 32 the employer may require the employee to, take leave on full pay 33 for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical

1 practitioner. Such leave is not to be treated as maternity leave for 2 the purposes of this Part.

3 8 Variation of period of maternity leave

- 4 (1) So long as the maximum period of maternity leave does not exceed 5 the period to which the employee is entitled under clause 4:
6 (a) the period of maternity leave may be lengthened once only 7 by the employee giving to her employer not less than 14
8 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave 9 is to be lengthened; and
10 (b) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between 11 the employer and the employee.
- 12 (2) The period of maternity leave may, with the consent of her 13 employer, be shortened by the employee giving to her employer 14 not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which 15 the leave is to be shortened.

16 9 Cancellation of maternity leave

- 17 (1) Maternity leave, applied for but not commenced, is cancelled 18 should the pregnancy of an employee terminate otherwise than by 19 the birth of a living child.
- 20 (2) If the pregnancy of an employee then on maternity leave terminates 21 otherwise than by the birth of a living child, it is the right of the 22 employee to resume work at a time nominated by the employer 23 which must be no later than 4 weeks after the date of notice in 24 writing by the employee to the employer that she desires to resume 25 work.

26 10 Special maternity leave and sick leave

- 27 (1) If the pregnancy of an employee not then on maternity leave 28 terminates within 28 weeks before her expected date of 29 confinement otherwise than by the birth of a living child, then:
30 (a) she is entitled to such period of unpaid leave (special 31 maternity leave) as a registered medical practitioner certifies 32 to be necessary before her return to work; or

- 1 (b) for illness other than the normal consequences of 2 confinement she is entitled, either instead of or in addition to 3 special maternity leave, to such paid sick leave as she is then 4 entitled to and as a registered medical practitioner certifies to 5 be necessary before her return to work.
- 6 (2) If an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to 7 her pregnancy, she may take such paid sick leave as she is then 8 entitled to and such further unpaid leave (special maternity leave) 9 as a registered medical practitioner certifies to be necessary before 10 her return to work.
- 11 (3) For the purposes of this Part, maternity leave includes special 12 maternity leave.
- 13 (4) An employee returning to work after the completion of a period of 14 leave taken under this clause is entitled to the position which she 15 held immediately before commencing that leave or, in the case of 16 an employee who was transferred to a safe job under clause 7, to 17 the position which she held immediately before that transfer.
- 18 (5) If that position no longer exists but there are other positions 19 available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of 20 performing, the employer must make available to the employee a
21 position as nearly as possible comparable in status and pay to that 22 of her former position.
- 23 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 24 penalty provision in section 489.

25 11 Maternity leave and other leave entitlements

- 26 (1) So long as the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under 27 this Part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is 28 entitled under clause 4, an employee may, instead of or in 29 conjunction with maternity leave, take any annual leave or long 30 service leave or any part of it to which she is entitled.
- 31 (2) Paid sick leave or other paid absences authorised by an 32 employment agreement (excluding annual leave or long service 33 leave) are not available to an employee during her absence on 34 maternity leave.

1 12 Effect of maternity leave on employment

2 Subject to this Part, despite any employment agreement or other
3 provision to the contrary, absence on maternity leave does not 4 break the continuity of service of an employee but is not to be 5 taken into account in calculating the period of service for any 6 purpose of any relevant employment agreement.

7 13 Termination of employment

8 (1) An employee on maternity leave may terminate her employment at 9 any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance 10 with any relevant employment agreement.

11 (2) An employer must not terminate the employment of an employee
12 on the ground of her pregnancy or of her absence on maternity 13 leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to 14 termination of employment are not affected by this Part.

15 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 16 penalty provision in section 489.

17 14 Return to work after maternity leave

18 (1) An employee must confirm her intention of returning to work by 19 notice in writing to the employer given not less than 4 weeks
20 before the end of her period of maternity leave.

21 (2) An employee, on returning to work after maternity leave or the 22 expiration of the notice required by subclause (1), is entitled:
23 (a) to the position which she held immediately before 24 commencing maternity leave; or 25 (b) in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job
26 under clause 7, to the position which she held immediately 27 before that transfer; or 28 (c) in the case of an employee who has worked part-time during 29 the pregnancy, to the position which she held immediately 30 before commencing the part-time employment.

31 (3) If the position no longer exists but there are other positions
32 available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of

1 performing, the employer must make available to the employee a
2 position as nearly as possible comparable in status and pay to that
3 of her former position.

4 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 5 penalty provision in section 489.

6 15 Replacement employees

7 (1) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a 8 result of an employee proceeding on maternity leave.

9 (2) Before an employer engages a replacement employee, the 10 employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the 11 employment and of the rights of the employee who is being 12 replaced.

13 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 14 penalty provision in section 489.

15 (3) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee
16 temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an 17 employee exercising her rights under this Part, the employer must 18 inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or 19 transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

20 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 21 penalty provision in section 489.

22 (4) Nothing in this Part is to be construed as requiring an employer to 23 engage a replacement employee.

24 Part 3—Paternity leave

25 16 Nature of leave

26 Paternity leave is unpaid leave.

27 17 Definitions

28 In this Part:

29 child means a child of the employee or the employee's spouse 30 under the age of one year.

- 14 expected date of confinement, in relation to an employee's spouse,

27 periods of paternity leave, the total of which must not exceed 52
28 weeks, in the following circumstances:
29 (a) an unbroken period of up to one week at the time of 30 confinement of his spouse (short paternity leave); 31 (b) a further unbroken period of up to 51 weeks in order to be the 32 primary care-giver of a child if the leave does not extend 33 beyond the child's first birthday (extended paternity leave).

1 This entitlement is to be reduced by any period of maternity
2 leave taken by the employee's spouse in relation to the same
3 child and is not to be taken concurrently with that maternity 4 leave.

5 (2) An employee must have had at least 12 months of continuous 6 service with his employer immediately preceding the date on 7 which he commences either period of leave.

8 19 Certification

9 When applying for paternity leave, an employee must, at the times 10 specified in clause 20, produce to his employer:

14 place;
- 15 (b) in relation to any period of extended paternity leave to be 16 taken, a statutory declaration:

26 period of leave, give his employer notice in writing stating the 27 dates on which he proposes to start and finish the period or periods 28 of leave and produce the certificate and statutory declaration 29 required by clause 19.

30 (2) An employee is not in breach of this clause as a consequence of 31 failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with 32 subclause (1) if the failure is caused by:

- 33 (a) the birth occurring earlier than the expected date; or

- 1 (b) the death of the mother of the child; or 2 (c) other compelling circumstances.
- 3 (3) The employee must immediately notify his employer of any 4 change in the information provided under clause 19.

5 21 Variation of period of paternity leave

- 6 (1) So long as the maximum period of paternity leave does not exceed 7 the period to which the employee is entitled under clause 18:
8 (a) the period of extended paternity leave may be lengthened

19 Extended paternity leave, applied for but not commenced, is 20 cancelled when the pregnancy of the employee's spouse terminates 21 otherwise than by the birth of a living child.

22 23 Paternity leave and other leave entitlements

- 23 (1) So long as the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under 24 this Part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is 25 entitled under clause 18, an employee may, instead of or in 26 conjunction with paternity leave, take any annual leave or long 27 service leave or any part of it to which he is entitled.
- 28 (2) Paid sick leave or other paid absence authorised by an employment 29 agreement (excluding annual leave or long service leave) is not 30 available to an employee during his absence on paternity leave.

1 24 Effect of paternity leave on employment

2 Subject to this Part, despite any employment agreement or other
3 provision to the contrary, absence on paternity leave does not break 4 the continuity of service of an employee but is not to be taken into 5 account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any 6 relevant employment agreement.

7 25 Termination of employment

8 (1) An employee on paternity leave may terminate his employment at 9 any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance 10 with any relevant employment agreement.

11 (2) An employer must not terminate the employment of an employee 12 on the ground of his absence on paternity leave, but otherwise the 13 rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are 14 not affected by this Part.

15 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 16 penalty provision in section 489.

17 26 Return to work after paternity leave

18 (1) An employee must confirm his intention of returning to work by 19 notice in writing to the employer given not less than 4 weeks
20 before the end of the period of extended paternity leave.

21 (2) An employee, on returning to work after paternity leave or the 22 expiration of the notice required by subclause (1) is entitled:
23 (a) to the position which he held immediately before 24 commencing paternity leave; or 25 (b) in the case of an employee who has worked part-time in 26 connection with the birth of the child, to the position which 27 he held immediately before commencing the part-time
28 employment.

29 (3) If the position no longer exists but there are other positions
30 available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of 31 performing, the employer must make available to the employee a
32 position as nearly as possible comparable in status and pay to that 33 of his former position.

1 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of
2 penalty provision in section 489.

3 27 Replacement employees

4 (1) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a 5 result of an employee proceeding on paternity leave.

6 (2) Before an employer engages a replacement employee, the 7 employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the 8 employment and of the rights of the employee who is being 9 replaced.

10 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 11 penalty provision in section 489.

12 (3) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee
13 temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an 14 employee exercising his rights under this Part, the employer must 15 inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or 16 transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

17 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 18 penalty provision in section 489.

19 (4) Nothing in this Part is to be construed as requiring an employer to 20 engage a replacement employee.

21 Part 4—Adoption leave

22 28 Nature of leave

23 Adoption leave is unpaid leave.

24 29 Definitions

25 In this Part:

26 child, in relation to an employee, means a person under the age of 27 5 years who is placed with the employee for the purposes of 28 adoption and who has not previously lived continuously with the 29 employee for a period of 6 months or more or is not a child or step-30 child of the employee or of the spouse of the employee.

1 continuous service means service under an unbroken contract of 2 employment and includes:

- 3 (a) any period of leave taken in accordance with this Part; and 4 (b) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or 5 by any relevant employment agreement; and
6 (c) any period of part-time employment in accordance with
7 Part 5 (including part-time employment as a replacement
8 employee).

9 employee includes a part-time employee, but does not include an 10 employee engaged in casual or seasonal work.

11 primary care-giver means a person who assumes the principal role 12 of providing care and attention to a child.

13 relative adoption occurs where a child is adopted by a parent, a 14 spouse of a parent or another relative, being a grandparent, brother, 15 sister, aunt or uncle (whether of the whole blood or half blood or 16 by marriage).

17 spouse includes a de facto spouse and a former spouse.

18 30 Eligibility for adoption leave

19 (1) An employee is, on production to the employer of the 20 documentation required by clause 31, entitled to one or two periods 21 of adoption leave, the total of which must not exceed 52 weeks, in 22 the following circumstances:

- 23 (a) an unbroken period of up to 3 weeks at a time of the 24 placement of the child (short adoption leave); 25 (b) an unbroken period of up to 52 weeks from the time of the 26 placement of the child in order to be the primary care-giver 27 of the child (extended adoption leave). This entitlement is to 28 be reduced by:
29 (i) any period of short adoption leave taken; and 30 (ii) the aggregate of any periods of adoption leave taken or 31 to be taken by the employee's spouse in relation to the 32 same child;

33 but extended adoption leave is not to extend beyond one year
34 after the placement of the child and is not to be taken

1 concurrently with adoption leave taken by the employee's 2 spouse in relation to the same child.

3 (2) The employee must have had at least 12 months of continuous 4 service with his or her employer immediately preceding the date on 5 which he or she commences either period of leave.

6 31 Certification

7 (1) Before taking adoption leave, the employee must produce to the 8 employer:

9 (a) a statement from an adoption agency or another appropriate 10 body of the expected date of placement of the child with the 11 employee for adoption purposes; or

12 (b) a statement from the appropriate government authority
13 confirming that the employee is to have custody of the child 14 pending application for an adoption order.

15 (2) In relation to any period of extended adoption leave to be taken, 16 the employee must also produce a statutory declaration:

17 (a) stating that the employee is seeking that period of adoption 18 leave to become the primary care-giver of the child; and

19 (b) stating particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or 20 taken by the employee's spouse; and

21 (c) stating the employee's agreement that for the period of his or 22 her adoption leave he or she will not engage in any conduct 23 inconsistent with his or her contract of employment.

24 32 Notice requirements

25 (1) On receiving notice of approval for adoption purposes, an 26 employee must notify his or her employer of the approval and,
27 within 2 months after receiving notice of the approval, must further 28 notify the employer of the period or periods of adoption leave
29 which the employee proposes to take. In the case of a relative 30 adoption, the employee must so notify the employer on deciding to 31 take a child into custody pending an application for an adoption 32 order.

- 1 (2) An employee who commences employment with an employer after 2 the date of approval for adoption purposes must notify the 3 employer of that date on commencing employment and of the 4 period of adoption leave which the employee proposes to take.
5 Such an employee is not entitled to adoption leave unless he or she 6 has not less than 12 months of continuous service with that 7 employer immediately preceding the date on which he or she 8 commences the leave.
- 9 (3) An employee must, as soon as he or she is aware of the expected 10 date of placement of a child for adoption purposes but no later than 11 14 days before the expected date of placement, give notice in 12 writing to his or her employer of that date, and of the date of 13 commencement of any period of short adoption leave to be taken.
- 14 (4) An employee must, at least 10 weeks before the proposed date of 15 commencing any period of extended adoption leave to be taken,
16 give notice in writing to the employer of the date of commencing 17 leave and the period of leave to be taken.
- 18 (5) An employee is not in breach of this clause as a consequence of 19 failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with 20 subclause (3) or (4) if the failure is caused by:
21 (a) the requirement of an adoption agency for the employee to 22 accept earlier or later placement of a child; or 23 (b) the death of his or her spouse; or 24 (c) other compelling circumstances.

25 33 Variation of period of adoption leave

- 26 (1) So long as the maximum period of adoption leave does not exceed 27 the period to which the employee is entitled under clause 30:
28 (a) the period of extended adoption leave may be lengthened
29 once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days' 30 notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be 31 lengthened; and
32 (b) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between 33 the employer and the employee.

- 1 (2) The period of extended adoption leave may, with the consent of the 2 employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14
3 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to 4 be shortened.

5 34 Cancellation of adoption leave

- 6 (1) Adoption leave, applied for but not commenced, is cancelled 7 should the placement of the child not proceed.
- 8 (2) If the placement of a child for adoption purposes with an employee 9 then on adoption leave does not proceed or continue, the employee 10 must notify the employer forthwith and the employer must 11 nominate a time not exceeding 4 weeks from receipt of the 12 notification for the resumption of work by the employee.

13 35 Special leave

- 14 (1) The employer must grant to any employee who is seeking to adopt 15 a child any unpaid leave not exceeding 2 days that is required by 16 the employee to attend any compulsory interviews or examinations 17 that are necessary as part of the adoption procedure.
- 18 (2) If paid leave is available to the employee, the employer may 19 require the employee to take such leave instead of special leave.

20 36 Adoption leave and other entitlements

- 21 (1) So long as the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under 22 this Part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is 23 entitled under clause 30, an employee may, instead of or in 24 conjunction with adoption leave, take any annual leave or long 25 service leave or any part of it to which he or she is entitled.
- 26 (2) Paid sick leave or other paid absence authorised by an employment 27 agreement (excluding annual leave or long service leave) is not 28 available to an employee during the employee's absence on 29 adoption leave.

1 37 Effect of adoption leave on employment

2 Subject to this Part, despite any employment agreement or other
3 provision to the contrary, absence on adoption leave does not break 4 the continuity of service of an employee but is not to be taken into 5 account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any 6 relevant employment agreement.

7 38 Termination of employment

8 (1) An employee on adoption leave may terminate the employment at 9 any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance 10 with any relevant employment agreement.

11 (2) An employer must not terminate the employment of an employee 12 on the ground of the employee's application to adopt a child or 13 absence on adoption leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer 14 in relation to termination of employment are not affected by this 15 Part.

16 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 17 penalty provision in section 489.

18 39 Return to work after adoption leave

19 (1) An employee must confirm his or her intention of returning to 20 work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than 4 21 weeks before the end of the period of extended adoption leave.

22 (2) An employee, on returning to work after adoption leave, is entitled:
23 (a) to the position which he or she held immediately before 24 commencing adoption leave; or
25 (b) in the case of an employee who has worked part-time in 26 connection with the adoption of the child, to the position 27 which he or she held immediately before commencing the 28 part-time employment.

29 (3) If the position no longer exists but there are other positions
30 available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of 31 performing, the employer must make available to the employee a
32 position as nearly as possible comparable in status and pay to that 33 of the employee's former position.

1 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of
2 penalty provision in section 489.

3 40 Replacement employees

4 (1) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a 5 result of an employee proceeding on adoption leave.

6 (2) Before an employer engages a replacement employee, the 7 employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the 8 employment and of the rights of the employee who is being 9 replaced.

10 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 11 penalty provision in section 489.

12 (3) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee
13 temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an 14 employee exercising his or her rights under this Part, the employer 15 must inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion 16 or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

17 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 18 penalty provision in section 489.

19 (4) Nothing in this Part is to be construed as requiring an employer to 20 engage a replacement employee.

21 Part 5—Part-time employment

22 41 Definitions

23 In this Part:

24 continuous service means service under an unbroken contract of 25 employment and includes:

26 (a) any period of part-time employment in accordance with this 27 Part (including part-time employment as a replacement 28 employee); and

29 (b) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or 30 by any relevant employment agreement.

1 female employee means an employed female who is pregnant or is 2 caring for a child whom she has borne or a child who has been 3 placed with her for adoption purposes.

4 former position means the position held by an employee 5 immediately before commencing part-time employment under this 6 Part or, if such position no longer exists but there are other 7 positions available for which the employee is qualified and the 8 duties of which he or she is capable of performing, a position as 9 nearly as possible comparable in status and pay to that of the 10 position held by the employee immediately before commencing
11 part-time employment.

12 male employee means an employed male who is caring for a child 13 born of his spouse or a child placed with the employee for adoption 14 purposes.

15 part-time employment means work of a lesser number of hours
16 than constitutes full-time work under the relevant employment 17 agreement, but does not include casual or temporary work.

18 spouse includes a de facto spouse and a former spouse.

19 42 Entitlement

20 With the agreement of the employer:

- 21 (a) a female employee may work part-time in one or more 22 periods while she is pregnant if part-time employment is, 23 because of the pregnancy, necessary or desirable;
- 24 (b) a female employee may work part-time in one or more 25 periods at any time from the seventh week after the date of 26 birth of the child until the child's second birthday or, in 27 relation to adoption, from the date of placement of the child 28 until the second anniversary of the placement;
- 29 (c) a male employee may work part-time in one or more periods 30 at any time from the date of birth of the child until the child's 31 second birthday or, in relation to adoption, from the date of 32 placement of the child until the second anniversary of the 33 placement.

1 43 Return to former position

- 2 (1) An employee who has had at least 12 months continuous service
3 with an employer immediately before commencing part-time
4 employment after the birth or placement of a child has, at the end 5 of the period of part-time employment or the first period, if there is 6 more than one, the right to return to his or her former position.
- 7 (2) Nothing in subclause (1) prevents the employer from permitting 8 the employee to return to his or her former position after a second 9 or subsequent period of part-time employment.

10 44 Effect of part-time employment on continuous service

11 Despite any employment agreement or other provision to the 12 contrary, commencement on part-time employment under this Part, 13 and return from part-time employment to full-time employment 14 under this Part, does not break the continuity of service of an 15 employee.

16 45 Pro rata entitlements

17 Subject to this Part and the matters agreed in the part-time 18 employment agreement under clause 48, part-time employment is 19 to be, pro rata, in accordance with the provisions of any 20 employment agreement applicable to the work concerned.

21 46 Transitional arrangements—annual leave

- 22 (1) An employee working part-time under this Part is to be paid for 23 and take any annual leave accrued in respect of a period of 24 full-time employment, in such periods and manner as is specified 25 in the annual leave provisions of the employment agreement 26 applicable of the work concerned, as if the employee were working 27 full-time in the class or work the employee was performing as a 28 full-time employee immediately before commencing part-time 29 employment under this Part.
- 30 (2) A full-time employee is to be paid for and take any annual leave 31 accrued in respect of a period of part-time employment under this 32 Part, in such periods and manner as is specified in the annual leave

1 provisions of the employment agreement applicable to the work
2 concerned, as if the employee were working part-time in the class
3 of work the employee was performing as a part-time employee 4 immediately before resuming full-time work.

5 (3) By agreement between the employer and the employee, the period 6 over which leave is taken under subclause (2) may be shortened to 7 the extent necessary for the employee to receive pay at the 8 employee's current full-time rate.

9 47 Transitional arrangements—sick leave

10 (1) An employee working part-time under this Part is to have sick 11 leave entitlements which have accrued under the employment 12 agreement applicable to the work concerned (including any 13 entitlement accrued in respect of previous full-time employment) 14 converted into hours.

15 (2) When this entitlement is used, whether as a part-time employee or 16 as a full-time employee, it is to be debited for the ordinary hours 17 that the employee would have worked during the period of 18 absence.

19 48 Part-time employment agreement

20 (1) Before commencing a period of part-time employment under this 21 Part the employee and the employer must agree:

- 22 (a) that the employee may work part-time; and 23 (b) on the hours to be worked by the employee, the days on 24 which they will be worked and commencing times for the 25 work; and
26 (c) on the classification applying to the work to be performed; 27 and
28 (d) on the period of part-time employment.

29 (2) The terms of this agreement may be varied by consent.

30 (3) The terms of this agreement or any variation to it must be put in 31 writing and retained by the employer. A copy of the agreement and

1 any variation to it must be provided to the employee by the 2 employer.

3 49 Termination of employment

4 (1) The employment of a part-time employee under this Part may be 5 terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Part but must 6 not be terminated by the employer because the employee has 7 exercised or proposes to exercise any rights arising under this Part 8 or has enjoyed or proposes to enjoy any benefits arising under this 9 Part.

10 (2) Any termination entitlements payable to an employee whose 11 employment is terminated while working part-time under this Part, 12 or while working full-time after transferring from part-time 13 employment under this Part, are to be calculated by reference to the 14 full-time rate of pay at the time of termination and by regarding all 15 service as a full-time employee as qualifying for a termination 16 entitlement based on the period of a full-time employment and all 17 service as a part-time employee as qualifying on a pro rata basis.

18 50 Extension of hours of work

19 An employer may request, but not require, an employee working 20 part-time under this Part to work overtime.

21 51 Nature of part-time employment

22 The work to be performed part-time need not be the work 23 performed by the employee in his or her former position but must 24 be work otherwise performed under any relevant employment
25 agreement.

26 52 Inconsistent employment agreement provisions

27 An employee may work part-time under this Part despite any other 28 provision of any relevant employment agreement which limits or 29 restricts the circumstances in which part-time employment may be 30 worked or the terms on which it may be worked including any 31 provision:

- 1 (a) limiting the number of employees who may work part-time;
2 or
3 (b) establishing quotas as to the ratio of part-time to full-time 4 employees; or
5 (c) prescribing a minimum or maximum number of hours a 6 part-time employee may work; or 7 (d) requiring consultation with, the consent of or monitoring by, 8 an association of employees;
9 and such provisions do not apply to part-time employment under 10 this Part.

11 53 Replacement employees

- 12 (1) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a 13 result of an employee working part-time under this Part.
- 14 (2) A replacement employee may be employed part-time. Subject to 15 this clause, clauses 45 to 49 and 52 apply to the part-time 16 employment of a replacement employee.
- 17 (3) Before an employer engages a replacement employee under this 18 Part, the employer must inform the person of the temporary nature 19 of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being 20 replaced.
- 21 Note: This is a penalty provision: see section 533 and the definition of 22 penalty provision in section 489.
- 23 (4) Nothing in this Part is to be construed as requiring an employer to 24 engage a replacement employee.

25 Part 6—Requirements for lawful termination of 26 employment

27 54 Employee to be given notice of termination

- 28 (1) An employer must not terminate an employee's employment 29 unless:
30 (a) the employee has been given either the period of notice 31 required by this clause, or compensation instead of notice; or

1 (b) the employee is guilty of serious misconduct, that is,
2 misconduct of a kind such that it would be unreasonable to 3 require the employer to continue the employment during the 4 notice period.

5 (2) The required period of notice is first worked out using this table:
6

Employee's period of continuous service with the employer	Period of notice
Not more than 1 year	At least 1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	At least 2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	At least 3 weeks
More than 5 years	At least 4 weeks

7 (3) The period of notice is increased by one week if the employee is 8 over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years continuous 9 service with the employer.

10 (4) The regulations may prescribe events or other matters that must be 11 disregarded, or must in prescribed circumstances be disregarded, in 12 ascertaining a period of continuous service for the purposes of 13 subclauses (2) and (3).

14 (5) The amount of compensation instead of notice must equal or 15 exceed the total of all amounts that, if the employee's employment 16 had continued until the end of the required period of notice, the 17 employer would have become liable to pay to the employee 18 because of the employment continuing during that period.

19 (6) The total must be worked out on the basis of:

20 (a) the employee's ordinary hours of work (even if they are not 21 standard hours); and

22 (b) the amounts payable to the employee in respect of those 23 hours, including (for example) allowances, loadings and 24 penalties; and

25 (c) any other amounts payable under the employee's 26 employment agreement or other contract of employment.

27 (7) The following employees are excluded from the operation of this 28 clause:

- 1 (a) an employee of a kind referred to in subparagraph
2 39(1)(a)(ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) of the Employee Relations Act
3 1992 of Victoria:
4 (i) if that subparagraph was in force at the commencement
5 of this Schedule—at the commencement of this 6 Schedule; or
7 (ii) if that subparagraph was not so in force—immediately
8 before that subparagraph ceased to be in force; 9 (b) an employee of a kind specified in an Order, made for the 10 purposes of paragraph 54(7)(b) of Schedule 1 to that Act by 11 the Governor of Victoria in Council and published in the 12 Government Gazette of Victoria, where the Order was in 13 force:
14 (i) if that paragraph was in force at the commencement of 15 this Schedule—at the commencement of this Schedule;
16 or
17 (ii) if that paragraph was not so in force—immediately 18 before that paragraph ceased to be in force.

19 55 Employer to be given notice of termination

- 20 (1) An employee must not terminate his or her employment unless the 21 employer has been given the period of notice required by this 22 clause.
- 23 (2) The required period of notice is:
24 (a) the period of notice required by the relevant employment 25 agreement or other contract of employment; or 26 (b) if no period of notice is applicable under paragraph (a), a 27 period of notice equal to the employee's usual pay period.
