Schedule 1—Work bonus

Social Security Act 1991

1 Subsections 1073AA(2) to (4)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

Employment income greater than or equal to income concession amount

- (2) If the person's employment income for an instalment period is greater than or equal to the income concession amount for that period, then, for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the amount of the person's employment income for that period is reduced by an amount equal to the income concession amount.

Example 1: David earns $2,250 of employment income in an instalment period of 14 days. David's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil.

David's employment income for that period is reduced by $250, leaving David $2,000 of employment income for that period.

Example 2: Amy earns $1,000 of employment income in an instalment period of 14 days. Amy's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil.

Amy's employment income for that period is reduced by $250, leaving Amy $750 of employment income for that period.

- (3) If the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is greater than or equal to the amount (the current amount) of the person's employment income that remains after applying subsection (2) of this section in relation to an instalment period:

- (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the person's employment income for that period is further reduced to nil; and
- (b) if the person's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil—the person's unused concession balance is reduced by an amount equal to the current amount.

Example 1: To continue example 1 in subsection (2), assume David's unused concession balance is $2,000. The current amount is $2,000.

David's employment income for that period is further reduced to nil.

David's unused concession balance is now nil.

1 Example 2: To continue example 2 in subsection (2), assume Amy's unused
2 concession balance is $1,600. The current amount is $750.

3 Amy's employment income for that period is further reduced to nil.

4 Amy's unused concession balance is now $850.

5 (4) If the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is
6 greater than nil but less than the amount of the person's
7 employment income that remains after applying subsection (2) of
8 this section in relation to an instalment period:

9 (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the
10 person's employment income for that period is further
11 reduced by an amount equal to that unused concession
12 balance; and

13 (b) if the person's rate of social security pension for that period
14 is greater than nil—the person's unused concession balance
15 is reduced to nil.

16 Example: Bill earns $1,250 of employment income in an instalment period of 14
17 days. Bill's rate of social security pension for that period is greater 18 than nil.

19 Under subsection (2), Bill's employment income for that period is 20 reduced by $250, leaving Bill $1,000 of employment income for that
21 period.

22 Assume Bill's unused concession balance is $800.

23 Under subsection (4), Bill's employment income for that period is
24 further reduced by $800 leaving Bill $200 of employment income for
25 that period.

26 Bill's unused concession balance is now nil.

27 Employment income less than income concession amount

28 (4A) If the person has employment income for an instalment period but 29 that income is less than the income concession amount for that
30 period:

31 (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the
32 person's employment income for that period is reduced to nil;
33 and

34 (b) if the person's rate of social security pension for that period
35 is greater than nil—the person's unused concession balance
36 (see section 1073AB) is increased, subject to subsection
37 1073AB(2), by an amount equal to the difference between

1 that income concession amount and that employment income
2 (before it was reduced).

3 Example: Emma earns $100 of employment income in an instalment period of 4 14 days. Emma's rate of social security pension for that period is
5 greater than nil.

6 Emma's employment income for that period is reduced to nil.

7 Emma's unused concession balance is increased by $150.

8 No employment income

9 (4B) If:

10 (a) the person has no employment income for an instalment
11 period; and

12 (b) the person's rate of social security pension for that period is
13 greater than nil;

14 the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is 15 increased, subject to subsection 1073AB(2), by an amount equal to 16 the income concession amount for that period.

17 Definition

18 (4C) The income concession amount is:

19 (a) for an instalment period of 14 days—$250; and

20 (b) for an instalment period of less than 14 days—the amount
21 worked out using the following formula:

$$22 \quad $250 \times \frac{\text{Number of days in the instalment period}}{14}$$

23 2 Subsection 1073AA(6) (examples 1 and 2)

24 Repeal the examples.

25 3 Subsection 1073AA(8)

26 Repeal the subsection, substitute:

27 (8) If:

28 (a) the person is a member of a couple; and

29 (b) the person's partner's employment income (within the 30 meaning of section 46AB of the Veterans' Entitlements Act

1 1986) is reduced by one or more amounts (each of which is a
2 reduction amount) under section 46AA of that Act;
3 then, in applying point 1064-E2 or point 1066-E2 (whichever is 4 relevant), the ordinary income of the person's partner is to be
5 reduced by an amount equal to the total of the reduction amounts.

6 4 At the end of Division 1AAA of Part 3.10

7 Add:

8 1073AB Unused concession balance

9 Initial unused concession balance of nil

10 (1) A person has an unused concession balance of nil on the first day
11 that is after 30 June 2011 and is a day on which section 1073AA
12 applies to the person.

13 Maximum unused concession balance

14 (2) If, apart from this subsection, the person's unused concession
15 balance would exceed $6,500, that balance is instead taken to be 16 $6,500.

17 Example: John has an unused concession balance of $6,400. John earns $50 of 18 employment income in an instalment period of 14 days.

19 Instead of John's unused concession balance increasing to $6,600
20 under subsection 1073AA(4A), John's unused concession balance
21 increases to $6,500.

22 Effect of ceasing to receive social security pension

23 (3) If the person ceases to receive the social security pension referred 24 to in paragraph 1073AA(1)(a), the person retains the person's 25 unused concession balance immediately before that cessation.

26 Note: If section 1073AA applies to the person again, the person's unused
27 concession balance will be that retained balance.

28 5 Application

29 The amendments made by items 1, 2 and 4 apply in relation to the 30 instalment period that includes 1 July 2011 and later instalment periods.

1 Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986

2 6 Subsections 46AA(2) to (4)

3 Repeal the subsections, substitute:

4 Employment income greater than or equal to income concession
5 amount

- 6 (2) If the person's employment income for a pension period is greater 7 than or equal to the income concession amount for that period,
8 then, for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the 9 amount of the person's employment income for that period is 10 reduced by an amount equal to the income concession amount.

11 Note: For employment income see section 46AB.

12 Example 1: David earns $2,250 of employment income in a pension period.
13 David's rate of service pension or income support supplement for that
14 period is greater than nil.

15 David's employment income for that period is reduced by $250,
16 leaving David $2,000 of employment income for that period.

17 Example 2: Amy earns $1,000 of employment income in a pension period. Amy's
18 rate of service pension or income support supplement for that period is
19 greater than nil.

20 Amy's employment income for that period is reduced by $250,
21 leaving Amy $750 of employment income for that period.

- 22 (3) If the person's unused concession balance (see section 46AC) is 23 greater than or equal to the amount (the current amount) of the 24 person's employment income that remains after applying
25 subsection (2) of this section in relation to a pension period:

26 (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the
27 person's employment income for that period is further
28 reduced to nil; and

29 (b) if the person's rate of service pension or income support
30 supplement for that period is greater than nil—the person's 31 unused concession balance is reduced by an amount equal to 32 the current amount.

33 Example 1: To continue example 1 in subsection (2), assume David's unused
34 concession balance is $2,000. The current amount is $2,000.

35 David's employment income for that period is further reduced to nil.

36 David's unused concession balance is now nil.

1 Example 2: To continue example 2 in subsection (2), assume Amy's unused
2 concession balance is $1,600. The current amount is $750.
3 Amy's employment income for that period is further reduced to nil.
4 Amy's unused concession balance is now $850.

- 5 (4) If the person's unused concession balance (see section 46AC) is
6 greater than nil but less than the amount of the person's
7 employment income that remains after applying subsection (2) of 8 this section in relation to a pension period:
- 9 (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the
10 person's employment income for that period is further
11 reduced by an amount equal to that unused concession
12 balance; and
 - 13 (b) if the person's rate of service pension or income support
14 supplement for that period is greater than nil—the person's
15 unused concession balance is reduced to nil.

16 Example: Bill earns $1,250 of employment income in a pension period. Bill's
17 rate of service pension or income support supplement for that period is
18 greater than nil.

19 Under subsection (2), Bill's employment income for that period is
20 reduced by $250, leaving Bill $1,000 of employment income for that
21 period.

22 Assume Bill's unused concession balance is $800.

23 Under subsection (4), Bill's employment income for that period is
24 further reduced by $800 leaving Bill $200 of employment income for
25 that period.

26 Bill's unused concession balance is now nil.

27 Employment income less than income concession amount

- 28 (4A) If the person has employment income for a pension period but that 29 income is less than the income concession amount for that period:
- 30 (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the 31 person's employment income for that period is reduced to nil;
32 and
 - 33 (b) if the person's rate of service pension or income support
34 supplement for that period is greater than nil—the person's
35 unused concession balance (see section 46AC) is increased,
36 subject to subsection 46AC(2), by an amount equal to the 37 difference between that income concession amount and that 38 employment income (before it was reduced).

- 1 Note: For employment income see section 46AB.
2 Example: Emma earns $100 of employment income in a pension period.
3 Emma's rate of service pension or income support supplement for that
4 period is greater than nil.
5 Emma's employment income for that period is reduced to nil.
6 Emma's unused concession balance is increased by $150.

7 No employment income

- 8 (4B) If:
9 (a) the person has no employment income for a pension period;
10 and
11 (b) the person's rate of service pension or income support
12 supplement for that period is greater than nil;
13 the person's unused concession balance (see section 46AC) is 14 increased, subject to subsection 46AC(2), by an amount equal to 15 the income concession amount for that period.

16 Note: For employment income see section 46AB.

17 Definition

- 18 (4C) The income concession amount for a pension period is $250.

19 7 Subsection 46AA(5) (examples 1 and 2)

20 Repeal the examples.

21 8 Subsection 46AA(5A)

22 Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- 23 (5A) If:
24 (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
25 (b) the person's partner's employment income (within the 26 meaning of the Social Security Act 1991) is reduced by one
27 or more amounts (each of which is a reduction amount)
28 under section 1073AA of that Act;
29 then, in applying point SCH6-E3 of Schedule 6, the 30 ordinary/adjusted income of the person's partner is to be reduced
31 by an amount equal to the total of the reduction amounts.

32 9 Subsection 46AA(6)

1 Repeal the subsection, substitute:

2 (6) This section is subject to section 46AD (about no double income
3 reductions under this section and section 115G).

4 10 At the end of Division 1A of Part IIIB

5 Add:

6 46AC Unused concession balance

7 Initial unused concession balance of nil

8 (1) A person has an unused concession balance of nil on the first day
9 that is after 30 June 2011 and is a day on which section 46AA
10 applies to the person.

11 Maximum unused concession balance

12 (2) If, apart from this subsection, the person's unused concession
13 balance would exceed $6,500, that balance is instead taken to be 14 $6,500.

15 Example: John has an unused concession balance of $6,400. John earns $50 of 16 employment income in a pension period.

17 Instead of John's unused concession balance increasing to $6,600
18 under subsection 46AA(4A), John's unused concession balance
19 increases to $6,500.

20 *Effect of ceasing to receive service pension or income support
21 supplement*

22 (3) If the person ceases to receive service pension or income support
23 supplement, the person retains the person's unused concession
24 balance immediately before that cessation.

25 Note: If section 46AA applies to the person again, the person's unused
26 concession balance will be that retained balance.

27 46AD No double income reductions under sections 46AA and 115G

28 Scope

29 (1) This section applies if, apart from this section:

- 1 (a) an amount (the initial amount) would be an excluded amount
 2 under subsection 115G(1) or (2) in respect of a veteran and a
 3 pension period; and
 4 (b) the veteran's employment income would be reduced by one
 5 or more amounts (each of which is a reduction amount)
 6 under section 46AA in relation to that period.

7 Income reduction under section 46AA

- 8 (2) If the total of the reduction amounts is more than the initial
 9 amount:
 10 (a) subsection 115G(1) or (2), as the case may be, does not apply
 11 in relation to that veteran and that period; and 12 (b) subsections 46AA(2) to (4A) do apply in relation to that 13 veteran and that period.

14 Income reduction under section 115G

- 15 (3) If the total of the reduction amounts is less than or equal to the 16 initial amount:
 17 (a) subsections 46AA(2) to (4A) do not apply to reduce the 18 veteran's employment income in relation to that period, but
 19 they do apply for the purposes of working out any adjustment
 20 to the veteran's unused concession balance in relation to that 21 period (as if those reductions had occurred); and 22 (b) subsection 115G(1) or (2), as the case may be, does apply in 23 relation to that veteran and that period.

24 Note: Subsections 115G(1) and (2) are about excluding income amounts for 25 certain veterans.

26 Example: Jim earns $100 of employment income in a pension period. Jim's rate 27 of service pension or income support supplement for that period is 28 greater than nil. Assume Jim also has an amount of $100 worked out
 29 under subsection 115G(1) in relation to that period.

30 There is no reduction in Jim's employment income under
 31 section 46AA for that period, but $100 is excluded under subsection
 32 115G(1).

33 Under subsection 46AA(4A), Jim's unused concession balance is 34 increased by $150.

35 11 Subsection 115G(4)

36 Repeal the subsection, substitute:

1 (4) This section is subject to section 46AD (about no double income
2 reductions under this section and section 46AA).

3 12 Application

4 The amendments made by items 6, 7, 9, 10 and 11 apply in relation to 5 the pension period that includes 1 July 2011 and later pension periods.

6 Insert:

7 senior secondary school child has the meaning given by
8 section 22B.

9 2 Subsection 22A(1) (paragraph (a) of the cell at table item 2,
10 column headed “then the individual cannot be an FTB
11 child of the adult if:”)

12 Before “the individual”, insert “if the individual is not a senior 13 secondary school child—”.

14 3 After section 22A

15 Insert:

16 22B Meaning of *senior secondary school child

17 (1) An individual is a senior secondary school child if:

18 (a) the following requirement is satisfied:

- 19 (i) for the purposes of subclause 29(3) or 36(2) of 20 Schedule 1—the individual is aged 16 or 17 or is aged 21 18 and the calendar year in which the individual turned 22 18 has not ended;
- 23 (ii) for the purposes of any other provision of this Act—the 24 individual is aged 16, 17 or 18 or is aged 19 and the 25 calendar year in which the individual turned 19 has not 26 ended; and

27 (b) one of the following applies:

- 28 (i) the individual is undertaking full-time study in an 29 approved course of education or study that would, in the 30 Secretary’s opinion, assist or allow the individual to

Schedule 2 Increasing FTB child rates for certain teenagers in secondary study
Part 1 Amendments

- 1 complete the final year of secondary school or an
2 equivalent level of education;
- 3 (ii) except for the purposes of subsection 22A(1) or 35(1) of 4 this Act or paragraph 32L(1)(aa) of the Family
5 Assistance Administration Act—the individual is 6 exempt from the FTB activity test.
- 7 (2) Subsection 17B(3) applies in relation to subsection (1) of this
8 section in the same way as it applies in relation to subsection
9 17B(1).
- 10 (3) If, apart from this subsection, an individual would cease to be a 11 senior secondary school child because the individual completes the 12 final year of secondary school or an equivalent level of education,
13 then the individual is taken to be a senior secondary school child 14 until the end of:
- 15 (a) if the day the individual completes that final year of 16 secondary school or equivalent level of education is in 17 December in a calendar year—31 December of that year; or
- 18 (b) if the day the individual completes that final year of 19 secondary school or equivalent level of education is before
20 December—the period of 28 days beginning on the day after 21 that day.
- 22 (4) An individual completes the final year of secondary school or an 23 equivalent level of education on the day worked out in accordance 24 with the following table:
25

Completion day
Item	In this situation:	The day is:
1	The individual was not required to sit an examination in relation to that final year or that equivalent level of education	The day determined by the secondary school to be the last day of classes for that year or by the provider of that education to be the last day of classes for that level of education (as the case may be)

- 1 (5) To avoid doubt, if an individual ceases to be a senior secondary
2 school child, nothing in this section prevents the individual again
3 becoming a senior secondary school child.

4 4 After subparagraph 22B(1)(b)(i)

5 Insert:

- 6 (ia) the individual is studying overseas full-time in a way
7 that would, in the Secretary's opinion, assist or allow 8 the individual to complete the final year of secondary
